The Lord Comes to Solomon

<sup>11</sup>So Solomon finished building the LORD's Temple and his own palace. Solomon built everything that he wanted to build. <sup>12</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "Solomon, I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself to be a house for sacrifices.*" <sup>13</sup>When I close the sky so that there is no rain, or command the locusts to destroy the land, or send sicknesses to my people <sup>14</sup>and if my people who are called by my name become humble and pray, and look for me, and turn away from their evil ways, then I will hear them from heaven. I will forgive their sin and heal their land. <sup>15</sup>Now, my eyes are open, and my ears will pay attention to the prayers prayed in this place. <sup>16</sup>I have chosen this Temple, and I have made it a holy place. So I will be honored there forever. I will watch over it and think of it always. <sup>17</sup>You must serve me with a pure and honest heart, just as your father David did. You must obey my laws and do everything that I commanded you. If you obey all I have commanded, and if you obey my laws and rules, <sup>18</sup>then I will make you a strong king and your kingdom will be great. That is the agreement I made with David your father when I told him that Israel would always be ruled by one of his descendants.

<sup>19</sup>"But if you don't obey my laws and commands that I gave you, and if you worship other gods and serve them, <sup>20</sup>then I will take the Israelites out from my land that I gave them. And I will leave this Temple* that I have made holy for my name. I will make this Temple something that all the nations will speak evil about. <sup>21</sup>Everyone who sees it will be amazed. They will ask, 'Why did the LORD do this terrible thing to this land and to this temple?' <sup>22</sup>People will say, 'This happened because they left the LORD their God. He brought their ancestors out of Egypt, but they decided to follow other gods. They began to worship and to serve those gods. That is why the LORD caused all these bad things to happen to them.'"

The Cities Solomon Built

8<sup>1</sup>It took 20 years for King Solomon to build the LORD's Temple and the king's palace. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon rebuilt the towns that Hiram gave him and then moved Israelites into those towns to live there. <sup>3</sup>After this Solomon went to Hamath of Zobah and captured it. <sup>4</sup>He also built the town of Tadmor in the desert. He built all the towns in Hamath to store things in. <sup>5</sup>He rebuilt the towns of Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon. He made them into strong forts with strong walls, gates, and bars in the gates. <sup>6</sup>He also rebuilt the town of Baalath and all the other towns where he stored things. He built all the cities where the chariots* were kept and where the horse riders lived. Solomon built all he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in all the country where he was king.

<sup>7-8</sup>There were many people left in the land who were not Israelites. There were Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. The Israelites had not been able to destroy them, but Solomon forced them to work for him as slaves. They are still slaves today. <sup>9</sup>Solomon did not force any of the Israelites to be his slaves. They were soldiers, government officials, officers, captains, and chariot commanders and drivers. <sup>10</sup>There were 250 supervisors over Solomon's projects. They supervised the men.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David* to the house he built for her. He said, "My wife must not live in King David's palace because the places where the Box of the Agreement* has been are holy places."

Unleavened Bread,* the Festival of Harvest,* and the Festival of Shelters.* <sup>14</sup>Solomon followed his father David's instructions. He chose the groups of priests for their service and the Levites for their duties. The Levites were to lead the praise and help the priests from day to day to do what needed to be done in the Temple service. And he chose the gatekeepers by their groups to serve at each gate. This is the way David, the man of God, instructed. <sup>15</sup>The Israelites did not change or disobey any of Solomon's instructions to the priests and Levites. They did not change any of the instructions, even in the way they should keep the valuable things.

<sup>16</sup>So Solomon completed his work on the LORD's Temple. Work began the day they laid the foundation and continued without stopping until the day the Temple was finished.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

9<sup>1</sup>The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon, so she came to test him with hard questions. She had a very large group with her. She had camels that carried spices, much gold, and valuable stones. She traveled to Jerusalem with a very large group of servants. There were many camels carrying spices, jewels, and a lot of gold. She met Solomon and asked him all the questions that she could think of. <sup>2</sup>Solomon answered all the questions. None of her questions was too hard for him to explain. <sup>3</sup>The queen of Sheba saw that Solomon was very wise. She also saw the beautiful palace he had built. <sup>4</sup>She saw the food at the king's table. She saw his officials meeting together. She saw the servants in the palace and the good clothes they wore. She saw his parties and the sacrifices that he offered in the Temple. She was so amazed that it took her breath away!

<sup>5</sup>Then she said to King Solomon, "The stories I heard in my country about your great works and your wisdom are true. <sup>6</sup>I did not believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Now I see that it is even greater than what I heard. Your wealth and wisdom is much greater than people told me. <sup>7</sup>Your wives<sup>c</sup> and officers are very fortunate! They can serve you and hear your wisdom every day. <sup>8</sup>Praise the LORD your God! He was pleased to make you king of Israel. The LORD God loves Israel, so he made you the king. You follow the law and treat people fairly."

Solomon's Great Wealth

<sup>17</sup>King Solomon also built a large throne with ivory decorations. It was covered with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>There were six steps leading up to the throne. The back of the throne was round at the top. There were armrests on both sides of the throne, and there were lions in the sides of the throne under the armrests. <sup>19</sup>There were also two lions on each of the six steps, one at each end. There was nothing like it in any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup>All of Solomon's cups and glasses were made of gold. And all the dishes<sup>i</sup> in the building called the "Forest of Lebanon" were made from pure gold. Nothing in the palace was made from silver. There was so much gold that in Solomon's time people did not think silver was important!

e<sup>9</sup>:10 special ... wood Literally, "alnum" or "Almug," as in 1 Kings. No one knows exactly what type of wood this was, but it might have been sandalwood.

f<sup>9</sup>:13 25 tons Literally, "666 talents" (22,977 kg).

h<sup>9</sup>:16 About 7 1/2 pounds Hebrew, "300 [shekels]" (3.45 kg).

i<sup>9</sup>:20 dishes The Hebrew word can mean "dishes," "tools," or "weapons."

a<sup>9</sup>:18 Ophir A place where there was much gold. Today no one knows where Ophir really was. Also in 9:10.

c<sup>9</sup>:7 wives This is from the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has "men."

<sup>21</sup>The king also had cargo ships that went to Tarshish to trade things with other countries. Hiram's men were on these ships. Every three years the ships would come back with a new load of gold, silver, ivory, and apes and baboons.

<sup>23</sup>People everywhere wanted to see King Solomon. They wanted to hear the great wisdom that God had given him. <sup>24</sup>Every year people came to see the king, and everyone brought a gift. They brought things made from gold and silver, clothes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

<sup>25</sup>Solomon had 4000 stalls to keep horses and chariots.* He had 12,000 horse soldiers. Solomon built special cities for these chariots. So the chariots were kept in these cities. King Solomon also kept some of the chariots with him in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>Solomon was the king over all the kings from the Euphrates River all the way to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>King Solomon had so much silver that it was as common as rocks in Jerusalem. And he had so much cedar wood that it was as common as sycamore trees in the hill country. <sup>28</sup>The people brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all the other countries.

Solomon's Death

<sup>29</sup>Everything else Solomon did, from the beginning to the end, is written in the writings of Nathan the Prophet, in The Prophecy of Ahijah from Shiloh, and in The Visions of Iddo the Seer. Iddo was a seer* who wrote about Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>30</sup>Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. <sup>31</sup>Then he died<sup>a</sup> and was buried in the city of David, his father. Then Solomon's son Rehoboam became the next king.

Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

10<sup>1-3</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat was still in Egypt where he had run away from Solomon. When he heard about Solomon's death, he returned to his city, Zeredah, in the hills of Ephraim.

Rehoboam and all the Israelites went to Shechem to make Rehoboam the king. The people said to Rehoboam, <sup>4</sup>"Your father forced us to work very hard. Now, make it easier for us. Stop the heavy work that your father forced us to do and we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup>Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days, and I will answer you." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup>There were some older men who had helped Solomon make decisions when he was alive. So King Rehoboam asked these men what he should do. He said, "How do you think I should answer the people?"

<sup>7</sup>They answered, "If you do what is good for the people, you will please them. If you speak kindly to them, they will always work for you."

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam did not listen to the advice from the older men. He asked the young men who were his friends. <sup>9</sup>Rehoboam said, "The people said, 'Give us easier work than your father gave us.' How do you think I should answer them? What should I tell them?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the young men who grew up with him answered, "Those people came to you and said, 'Your father forced us to work very hard. Now make our work easier.' So you should tell them, 'My little finger is stronger than my father's whole body.' <sup>11</sup>My father forced you to work hard, but I will make you work much harder! My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with whips that have sharp metal tips."

<sup>13</sup>King Rehoboam did not listen to the advice from the older men, and he was rude to the people. <sup>14</sup>He did what his friends told him to do and said, "My father forced you to work hard, but I will make you work much harder! My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with whips that have sharp metal tips." <sup>15</sup>So the king did not do what the people wanted. The LORD caused this to happen. He did this in order to keep the promise he made to Jeroboam son of Nebat when he sent Ahijah, the prophet from Shiloh, to speak to him.

<sup>16</sup>The Israelites saw that the new king refused to listen to them, so they said to the king, "Are we part of David's family? No. Do we get any of Jesse's land? No. So Israel, let's go home and let David's son rule his own people!" So the Israelites went home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>A man named Adoniram was one of the men who directed the workers. King Rehoboam sent Adoniram to talk to the people, but the Israelites threw stones at him until he died. King Rehoboam ran to his chariot* and escaped to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>So Israel rebelled against the family of David, and that is how things are even today.

11<sup>1</sup>Rehoboam went back to Jerusalem and gathered together an army of 180,000 men from the families of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin. Rehoboam wanted to go fight against the Israelites and take back his kingdom. <sup>2</sup>But the LORD spoke to a man of God* named Shemaiah. He said, <sup>3</sup>"Talk to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to men of Judah and Benjamin. <sup>4</sup>Say to them, 'The LORD says that you must not go to war against your brothers. Everyone, go home! I made all this happen.'" So all the men in Rehoboam's army obeyed the LORD and went home. They did not attack Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Strengthens Judah

<sup>14</sup>The Levites left their grasslands and their own fields and came to Judah and Jerusalem. The Levites did this because Jeroboam and his sons refused to let them serve as priests to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Jeroboam chose his own priests to serve in the high places,* where he set up the goat and calf idols* he had made. <sup>16</sup>When the Levites left Israel, the people in all the tribes of Israel who were faithful to the LORD, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice* to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup>These people made the kingdom of Judah strong, and they supported Solomon's son Rehoboam for three years. They did this because during that time they lived the way David and Solomon had lived.

Rehoboam's Family

<sup>18</sup>Rehoboam married Mahalath. Her father was Jerimoth. Her mother was Abihail. Jerimoth was David's son. Abihail was Eliab's daughter, and Eliab was Jesse's son. <sup>19</sup>Mahalath gave Rehoboam these sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup>Then Rehoboam married Maacah. Maacah was Absalom's granddaughter.<sup>a</sup> And Maacah gave Rehoboam these children: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah more than he loved all his other wives and slave women.* Rehoboam had 18 wives and 60 slave women. He was the father of 28 sons and 60 daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Rehoboam chose Abijah to be the leader among his own brothers. He did this because he planned to make Abijah king. <sup>23</sup>Rehoboam acted wisely and spread all his sons through all the areas of Judah and Benjamin to every strong city. And Rehoboam gave plenty of supplies to his sons. He also looked for wives for them.

Shishak, King of Egypt Attacks Jerusalem

12 <sup>1</sup>Rehoboam became a strong king and made his kingdom strong. Then Rehoboam and the whole tribe of Judah<sup>b</sup> refused to obey the law of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>During the fifth year that Rehoboam was king, Shishak king of Egypt came to attack Jerusalem. This happened because Rehoboam and the people of Judah rebelled against the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Shishak had 12,000 chariots,* 60,000 horse riders, and an army that no one could count. In Shishak's large army there were Libyan soldiers, Sukkite soldiers, and Ethiopian soldiers. <sup>4</sup>Shishak defeated the strong cities of Judah. Then Shishak brought his army to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah. The leaders of Judah had gathered together in Jerusalem because they all were afraid of Shishak. Shemaiah said to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, "This is what the LORD says: 'Rehoboam, you and the people of Judah have left me and refused to obey my law. So now I will leave you to face Shishak without my help.'"

<sup>7</sup>The LORD saw that the king and the leaders of Judah had humbled themselves. Then the message from the LORD came to Shemaiah. The LORD said, "The king and the leaders humbled themselves. So I will not destroy them, but I will save them soon. I will not use Shishak to pour out my anger on Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>But the people of Jerusalem will become Shishak's servants. This will happen so that they may learn that serving me is different from serving the kings of other nations."

<sup>9</sup>Shishak took the treasures from the LORD's Temple and from the king's palace. He also took the gold shields that Solomon had made.

<sup>10</sup>King Rehoboam made more shields to put in their places, but they were made from bronze. He gave them to the guards on duty at the palace gates. <sup>11</sup>Every time the king went to the LORD's Temple, the guards took out the shields and went with him. After they were finished, they put the shields back on the wall in the guardroom.

<sup>12</sup>Rehoboam humbled himself, and the LORD stopped being angry with him. So he did not completely destroy Rehoboam. There was some good in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>King Rehoboam made himself a strong king in Jerusalem. He was 41 years old when he became king of Judah. Rehoboam ruled 17 years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD chose for his own. He chose this city from all the other cities of Israel. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah. She was an Ammonite. <sup>14</sup>Rehoboam did evil because he didn't decide in his heart to obey the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>All the things Rehoboam did when he was king, from the beginning to the end of his rule, are written in the writings of Shemaiah the prophet and in the writings of Iddo the seer.* Those men wrote family histories.

And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the time both kings ruled. <sup>16</sup>Rehoboam rested with his ancestors* and was buried in the City of David.* Then Rehoboam's son Abijah became the next king after him.

Abijah, King of Judah

13 <sup>1</sup>Abijah became the new king of Judah. This was during the 18th year that Jeroboam son of Nebat ruled Israel. <sup>2</sup>Abijah ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maacah. She was the daughter of Uriel, from the town of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>Abijah's army had 400,000 brave soldiers. Abijah led that army into battle. Jeroboam's army had 800,000 brave soldiers. Jeroboam got ready to have a war with Abijah.

<sup>4</sup>Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim in the hill country of Ephraim and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me! <sup>5</sup>You should know that the LORD, the God of Israel, gave David and his sons the right to be king over Israel forever. God gave this right to David with an agreement of salt.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>But Jeroboam turned against his master. Jeroboam son of Nebat was one of the servants of David's son Solomon. <sup>7</sup>Then worthless, evil men became friends with Jeroboam. Then Jeroboam and the bad men turned against Rehoboam, Solomon's son. Rehoboam was young and did not have experience. So he could not stop Jeroboam and his bad friends.

<sup>8</sup>"Now, you people have decided to defeat the LORD's kingdom—the kingdom that is ruled by David's sons. You have so many people with you and you have the golden calves—the 'gods' that Jeroboam made for you. <sup>9</sup>You threw out the LORD's priests, the descendants of Aaron. And you threw out the Levites. Then you chose your own priests, as every other nation on earth does. And now, anyone who will bring a young bull and seven rams can become a priest to serve these 'no-gods.'

<sup>10</sup>"But as for us, the LORD is our God. We people of Judah have not refused to obey God. We have not left him. The priests who serve the LORD are Aaron's sons, and the Levites help the priests in their work. <sup>11</sup>They offer burnt offerings* and burn incense* of spices to the LORD every morning and every evening. They put the bread in rows on the special table in the Temple.* And they take care of the lamps on the golden lampstand so that it shines bright each and every evening. We very carefully serve the LORD our God, but you people have abandoned him. <sup>12</sup>God himself is with us. He is our ruler, and his priests are with us. God's priests blow his trumpets to wake you up and make you excited about coming to him. Men of Israel, don't fight against the LORD, God of your ancestors,* because you will not succeed!"

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam sent a group of soldiers to sneak behind Abijah's army. Jeroboam's army was in front of Abijah's army. The hidden soldiers from Jeroboam's army were behind Abijah's army. <sup>14</sup>When the soldiers in Abijah's army from Judah looked around, they saw Jeroboam's army attacking both in front and in back.<sup>b</sup> The men of Judah shouted out to the LORD and the priests blew the trumpets. <sup>15</sup>Then the men in Abijah's army shouted. When the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam's army. Jeroboam's whole army from Israel was defeated by Abijah's army from Judah. <sup>16</sup>The men of Israel ran away from the men of Judah. God let the army from Judah defeat the army from Israel. <sup>17</sup>Abijah's army greatly defeated the army of Israel, and 500,000 of the best men of Israel were killed. <sup>18</sup>So at that time the Israelites were defeated, and the people of Judah won. The army from Judah won because they depended on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>19</sup>Abijah's army chased Jeroboam's army, and they captured the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron from Jeroboam. They captured the towns and the small villages near them.

<sup>20</sup>Jeroboam never became strong again while Abijah lived. The LORD killed Jeroboam, <sup>21</sup>but Abijah became strong. He married 14 women and was the father of 22 sons and 16 daughters. <sup>22</sup>Everything else Abijah did is written in the books of the prophet Iddo.

14 <sup>1</sup>When Abijah died, they buried him in the City of David.* Abijah's son Asa became the new king after him. There was peace in the country for ten years in Asa's time.

Asa, King of Judah

<sup>2</sup>Asa did what the LORD his God said was good and right. <sup>3</sup>He took away the altars of the foreigners and the high places.* He also smashed the memorial stones* and cut down the Asherah poles.* <sup>4</sup>He commanded the people of Judah to follow the LORD, the God their ancestors* followed. And he commanded them to obey the LORD's laws and commandments. <sup>5</sup>He also removed all the high places and incense* altars from all the towns in Judah. So the kingdom had peace when Asa was king. <sup>6</sup>Asa built strong cities in Judah while there was peace in Judah. He had no war in these years because the LORD gave him peace.

<sup>a</sup>13:5 agreement of salt When people ate salt together, it meant their agreement of friendship would never be broken. Abijah was saying here that God had made an agreement with David that would never be broken.

<sup>7</sup>Asa said to the people of Judah, "Let's build these towns and make walls around them. Let's make towers, gates, and bars in the gates. Let's do this while we still live in this country. This country is ours because we have followed the LORD our God. He has given us peace all around us." So they built and had success.

<sup>11</sup>Asa called out to the LORD his God and said, "LORD, only you can help weak people against strong people! Help us, LORD our God! We depend on you. We fight against this large army in your name. LORD, you are our God! Don't let anyone win against you!"

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD used Asa's army from Judah to defeat the Ethiopian army. And the army ran away. <sup>13</sup>Asa's army chased the Ethiopian army all the way to the town of Gerar. So many Ethiopians were killed that they could not get together as an army to fight again. They were crushed by the LORD and his army. Asa and his army carried many valuable things away from the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Asa and his army defeated all the towns near Gerar. The people living in those towns were afraid of the LORD. Those towns had very many valuable things. Asa's army took those valuable things away from those towns. <sup>15</sup>His army also attacked the camps where the shepherds lived and took many sheep and camels. Then they went back to Jerusalem.

Asa's Changes

15 <sup>1</sup>The Spirit of God came on Azariah, who was Obed's son. <sup>2</sup>Azariah went to meet Asa and said, "Listen to me, Asa, and all you people of Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you look for the LORD, you will find him. But if you leave him, he will leave you. <sup>3</sup>For a long time Israel was without the true God. And they were without a teaching priest, and without the law. <sup>4</sup>But when the Israelites had trouble, they turned to the LORD God again. He is the God of Israel. They looked for the LORD and they found him. <sup>5</sup>In those times of trouble, no one could travel safely. There was much trouble in all the nations. <sup>6</sup>One nation would destroy another nation and one city would destroy another city. This was happening because God gave them all kinds of trouble. <sup>7</sup>But Asa, you and the people of Judah and Benjamin, be strong. Don't be weak and don't give up, because you will get a reward for your good work!"

<sup>8</sup>Asa felt encouraged when he heard these words and the message from Obed the prophet. Then he removed the hated idols from the whole area of Judah and Benjamin. He also removed the hated idols* from the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. And he repaired the LORD's altar* that was in front of the porch of the LORD's Temple.*

<sup>9</sup>Then Asa gathered all the people from Judah and Benjamin and the people from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had moved from the country of Israel to live in the country of Judah. A great many of these people came to Judah because they saw that the LORD, Asa's God, was with him.

<sup>12</sup>Then they made an agreement to serve the LORD God with all their heart and with all their soul. He is the God their ancestors* served. <sup>13</sup>Anyone who refused to serve the LORD God was to be killed. It did not matter if that person was important or not or if that person was a man or woman. <sup>14</sup>Then Asa and the people made an oath* to the LORD. They shouted it out loudly and blew their trumpets and rams' horns. <sup>15</sup>All the people of Judah were happy about the oath, because they had promised with all their heart. They followed God with all their heart. They looked for God and found him, so the LORD gave them peace in all the country.

<sup>18</sup>Asa and his father had given some special gifts to God. Asa put these gifts of gold, silver, and other things into the Temple. <sup>19</sup>There was no more war until the 35th year of Asa's rule.<sup>b</sup>

Asa's Last Years

Asa took gold and silver from the treasures of the LORD's Temple and the king's palace. He gave it to his officials and sent them to King Ben-Hadad of Aram. Ben-Hadad was the son of Tabrimmon. Tabrimmon was the son of Hezion. Damascus was Ben-Hadad's capital city. <sup>3</sup>Asa sent this message, "My father and your father had a peace agreement. Now I want to make a peace agreement with you. I am sending you this gift of gold and silver. Please break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel and make him leave us alone."

<sup>4</sup>King Ben-Hadad made that agreement with King Asa and sent his army to fight against the Israelite towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and the storage cities in the area of Naphtali. <sup>5</sup>When Baasha heard about these attacks, he stopped building up Ramah and went back to Tirzah. He stopped all the work he was doing. <sup>6</sup>Then King Asa gave an order for all the men in Judah, with no exceptions. They had to go to Ramah and carry out all the stone and wood that Baasha was using to build up the city. They carried the material to Geba in Benjamin and to Mizpah and used it to strengthen those two cities.

<sup>7</sup>At that time Hanani the seer* came to King Asa of Judah and said to him, "Asa, you depended on the king of Aram to help you and not the LORD your God. You should have depended on the LORD. But, because you did not depend on the LORD for help, the king of Aram's army escaped from you. <sup>8</sup>The Ethiopians and the Libyans had a very large and powerful army. They had many chariots* and chariot drivers. But Asa, you depended on the LORD to help you defeat that large powerful army, and the LORD let you defeat them. <sup>9</sup>The eyes of the LORD go around looking in all the earth for people who are faithful to him so that he can make them strong. Asa, you did a foolish thing. So from now on you will have wars."

<sup>10</sup>Asa was angry with Hanani because of what he said. He was so mad that he put Hanani in prison. He was also very rough and cruel to some of the people then.

Jehoshaphat, King of Judah

17<sup>1</sup>Asa's son Jehoshaphat became the new king after him. Jehoshaphat made Judah strong so that they could fight against Israel. <sup>2</sup>He put groups of soldiers in all the towns of Judah that were made into fortresses.* He built fortresses in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because in his young life he did the good things his ancestor* David did. Jehoshaphat did not follow the Baal* idols.* <sup>4</sup>He looked for the God his ancestors followed. He followed God's commands and did not live the same way the Israelites lived. <sup>5</sup>The LORD made Jehoshaphat a strong king over Judah. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. So he had much wealth and honor. <sup>6</sup>His heart found pleasure in the ways of the LORD. He removed the high places* and the Asherah poles* from the country of Judah.

<sup>10</sup>The nations near Judah were afraid of the LORD, so they did not start a war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. They also brought silver to him because they knew he was a very powerful king. Some Arabian people brought flocks to Jehoshaphat. They brought 7700 rams and 7700 goats to him.

<sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built fortresses and storage towns in the country of Judah. <sup>13</sup>He kept many supplies in the storage towns. And Jehoshaphat kept trained soldiers in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>These soldiers were listed in their tribes. This is the list of these soldiers in Jerusalem:

From the tribe of Judah, these were the generals: Adnah was the general of 300,000 soldiers. <sup>15</sup>Jehohanan was the general of 280,000 soldiers. <sup>16</sup>Amasiah was the general of 200,000 soldiers. Amasiah was Zicri's son. Amasiah was happy to give himself to serve the LORD.

180,000 men ready for war. <sup>19</sup>All these soldiers served King Jehoshaphat. The king also had other men in the fortresses in all the country of Judah.

Micaiah Warns King Ahab

18 <sup>1</sup>Jehoshaphat became very rich and famous. He made an agreement with King Ahab through marriage.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>A few years later, Jehoshaphat visited Ahab in the town of Samaria. Ahab sacrificed* many sheep and cattle for Jehoshaphat and the people with him. Ahab encouraged Jehoshaphat to join in an attack on the city of Ramoth Gilead. <sup>3</sup>Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead?" Ahab was the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah. Jehoshaphat answered, "Yes, you and I will be as one—my men will be as yours in battle. <sup>4</sup>But first let's ask the LORD for advice."

<sup>5</sup>So Ahab called a meeting of the prophets. There were about 400 prophets at that time. Ahab asked the prophets, "Should we go and attack Ramoth Gilead or not?"

The prophets answered Ahab, "Yes, because God will let you defeat Ramoth Gilead."

<sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Doesn't the LORD have another prophet here? Let's ask him what God says."

<sup>7</sup>King Ahab answered, "Yes, there is another prophet. His name is Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him. He never says anything good about me when he speaks for the LORD. He always says things that I don't like."

Jehoshaphat said, "The king shouldn't say things like that!"

<sup>12</sup>While this was happening, the officer went to find Micaiah. When he found him, the officer told him, "All the other prophets have said that the king will succeed, so you should say the same thing."

<sup>13</sup>But Micaiah answered, "As surely as the LORD lives, I can say only what my God says."

<sup>14</sup>Micaiah went and stood before King Ahab. The king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go and attack the Arameans at Ramoth Gilead or not?"

Micaiah answered, "Yes, go and be successful! You will take the city."

<sup>15</sup>But Ahab answered, "How many times do I have to tell you? Tell me the truth. What does the LORD say?"

<sup>16</sup>So Micaiah answered, "I can see the army of Israel scattered all over the hills, like sheep with no one to lead them. This is what the LORD says, 'These men have no leaders. Let them go home in peace.'"

<sup>17</sup>Then Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "See, I told you! This prophet never says anything good about me. He always says something bad."

<sup>22</sup>"So that is what has happened here. The LORD made your prophets lie to you. The LORD himself decided to bring this disaster to you."

<sup>23</sup>Then the prophet Zedekiah went to Micaiah and hit him on the face. Zedekiah said, "How is it that the Spirit of the LORD left me to speak through you?"

<sup>24</sup>Micaiah answered, "Look, what I said will happen! And when you see it, you will go into the deepest part of your house to hide!"

<sup>25</sup>Then King Ahab ordered one of his officers to arrest Micaiah. Ahab said, "Arrest him and take him to Amon the governor of the city and prince Joash. <sup>26</sup>Tell them to put Micaiah in prison. Give him nothing but bread and water to eat. Keep him there until I come home from the battle."

<sup>27</sup>Micaiah said, "Listen to me, everyone! Ahab, if you come back alive from the battle, the LORD has not spoken through me."

The Battle at Ramoth Gilead

<sup>28</sup>King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to fight the Arameans at Ramoth Gilead. <sup>29</sup>Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Disguise yourself when you go into battle, but wear your own clothes. And I will disguise myself." The king of Israel went into battle dressed like an ordinary soldier.

<sup>30</sup>The king of Aram had 32 chariot commanders. He gave them this command, "Don't go after anyone except the king of Israel, no matter how important they are!" <sup>31</sup>During the battle, the commanders saw King Jehoshaphat and thought he was the king of Israel. So they went to kill him. Jehoshaphat started shouting, and the LORD helped him. God made the chariot commanders turn away from Jehoshaphat. <sup>32</sup>When the commanders saw that he was not King Ahab, they stopped chasing him.

<sup>34</sup>The armies continued fighting all that day. King Ahab leaned against the side of his chariot to hold himself up, facing the Arameans. He watched until evening. Then, just as the sun was setting, he died.

Jehoshaphat Chooses Judges

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, but he would go out among the people throughout Judah, from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim. He helped the people turn back to the LORD, the God their ancestors* worshiped. <sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat went from town to town and appointed judges in each of the fortresses* of Judah. <sup>6</sup>He told the judges, "Be careful in what you are doing, because you are not judging for people, but for the LORD. The LORD will be with you when you make decisions. <sup>7</sup>You must fear the LORD. Protect justice and do what is right because the LORD our God is fair. He does not treat some people as if they are more important than others, and he does not accept bribes to change his judgments."

<sup>8</sup>In Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat chose some of the Levites, priests, and heads of the families of Israel to be judges. These men lived in Jerusalem and used the law of the LORD to settle problems among the people. <sup>9</sup>Jehoshaphat commanded them, "You must serve faithfully with all your heart. You must fear the LORD. <sup>10</sup>People from cities around the country will bring their problems to you. You will listen to cases where people have broken a law or a command or maybe killed someone. In all these cases you must warn the people not to sin against the LORD. You must do this so that the LORD will not become angry and punish you and the people.

<sup>11</sup>"Amariah is the high priest, so he will make the final decision about the people's responsibilities to the LORD. Zebadiah son of Ishmael is the leader of the tribe of Judah, so he will make the final decision about the people's responsibilities to the king. The Levites will serve as scribes* for you. Be brave and do what is right! May the LORD be with those of you who are good judges."

Jehoshaphat Faces War

20<sup>1</sup>Later, the Moabites, the Ammonites, and some Meunites<sup>a</sup> came to start a war with Jehoshaphat. <sup>2</sup>Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "There is a large army coming against you from Edom. They are coming from the other side of the Dead Sea. They are already in Hazazon Tamar!" (Hazazon Tamar is also called En Gedi.) <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat became afraid, and he decided to ask the LORD what to do. He announced a time of fasting* for everyone in Judah. <sup>4</sup>The people of Judah came together to ask the LORD for help. They came from out of all the towns of Judah to ask for the LORD's help. <sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat was in the new courtyard of the LORD's Temple.* He stood up in the meeting of the people from Judah and Jerusalem <sup>6</sup>and said, "LORD God of our ancestors,* you are the God in heaven. You rule over all the kingdoms in all the nations. You have power and strength. No one can stand against you. <sup>7</sup>You are our God! You forced the people living in this land to leave. You did this in front of your people Israel. You gave this land to the descendants of Abraham forever. Abraham was your friend. <sup>8</sup>His descendants lived in this land, and built a Temple for your name. <sup>9</sup>They said, 'If trouble comes to us—the sword, punishment, sicknesses, or famine—we will stand in front of this Temple and in front of you. Your name is on this Temple. We will shout to you when we are in trouble. Then you will hear and save us.'

<sup>10</sup>"But now, here are men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir. You would not let the Israelites enter their lands when they came out of Egypt.<sup>b</sup> So the Israelites turned away and didn't destroy them. <sup>11</sup>But see the kind of reward those people give us for not destroying them. They have come to force us out of your land that you gave to us. <sup>12</sup>Our God, punish those people. We don't have the strength to stop this large army that is coming against us. We don't know what to do! We are looking to you for help."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup>All the men of Judah stood before the LORD with their wives, babies, and children. <sup>14</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah. (Zechariah was the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah.) Jahaziel was a Levite from the family of Asaph. In the middle of the meeting, <sup>15</sup>Jahaziel said, "Listen to me King Jehoshaphat and everyone living in Judah and Jerusalem! The LORD says this to you: 'Don't be afraid or worry about this large army, because the battle is not your battle. It is God's battle! <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow, they will come up through the Ziz Pass. You must go down to them. You will find them at the end of the valley on the other side of Jeruel Desert. <sup>17</sup>You will not have to fight this battle. Just stand there and watch the LORD save you. Judah and Jerusalem, don't be afraid. Don't worry, the LORD is with you. So go out to stand against those people tomorrow.'"

<sup>18</sup>Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground. And all the people of Judah and Jerusalem bowed down before the LORD and worshiped him. <sup>19</sup>The Levites from the Kohath family groups and the Korah family stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel. They sang very loudly.

<sup>20</sup>Early the next morning, Jehoshaphat's army went out into Tekoa Desert. As they marched out, Jehoshaphat stood there saying, "Listen to me, men of Judah and Jerusalem. Have faith in the LORD your God, and you will stand strong! Have faith in the LORD's prophets, and you will succeed!"

<sup>24</sup>The men from Judah arrived at the lookout point in the desert. They looked for the enemy's large army, but all they saw were dead bodies lying on the ground. There were no survivors. <sup>25</sup>Jehoshaphat and his army came to take things from the bodies. They found many animals, riches, clothes, and other valuable things. It was more than Jehoshaphat and his men could carry away. There was so much that they spent three days taking everything from the dead bodies. <sup>26</sup>On the fourth day Jehoshaphat and his army met in the Valley of Beracah.<sup>b</sup> They praised the LORD. That is why people still call that place, "The Valley of Beracah."

<sup>27</sup>All the men from Judah and Jerusalem were very happy as they marched back to Jerusalem with Jehoshaphat in the front. The LORD made them very happy when he defeated their enemy. <sup>28</sup>They entered Jerusalem with lyres,* harps, and trumpets and went to the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>People in all the surrounding kingdoms became afraid of God when they heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>30</sup>That is why there was peace for Jehoshaphat's kingdom—his God brought him rest from the enemies that were all around him.

Summary of Jehoshaphat's Rule

<sup>31</sup>Jehoshaphat ruled over the country of Judah. He was 35 years old when he became king, and he ruled 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32-33</sup>Like his father Asa, Jehoshaphat was good and did everything that the LORD wanted, except he did not destroy the high places.* Also, the people did not turn back to the God that their ancestors* worshiped.

<sup>34</sup>Everything else Jehoshaphat did, from beginning to end, is written in The Official Records of Jehu Son of Hanani. It was copied and included in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel.

Jehoram, King of Judah

<sup>4</sup>Jehoram took over his father's kingdom and made himself strong. Then he used a sword to kill all his brothers. He also killed some of the leaders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He lived the same way the kings of Israel lived. He lived the same way Ahab's family lived. This was because Jehoram married Ahab's daughter. And Jehoram did evil in the LORD's sight. <sup>7</sup>But the LORD would not destroy David's family because of the agreement he made with David. He had promised to keep a lamp burning for David and his children forever.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Jehoram received this message from Elijah the prophet: "This is what the LORD, the God your father David followed, says, 'Jehoram, you have not lived the way your father Jehoshaphat lived. You have not lived the way King Asa of Judah lived. <sup>13</sup>But you have lived the way the kings of Israel lived. You have caused the people of Judah and Jerusalem to stop doing what God wants. That is what Ahab and his family did. They were unfaithful to God. You have killed your brothers, and they were better than you. <sup>14</sup>So now, the LORD will soon punish your people with much punishment. The LORD will punish your children, wives, and all your property. <sup>15</sup>You will have a terrible sickness that will get worse and worse. The sickness will be in your intestines and eventually they will fall out.'"

David,* but not in the graves where the kings are buried.

Ahaziah, King of Judah

22 <sup>1</sup>The people of Jerusalem chose Ahaziah to be the new king in Jehoram's place. Ahaziah was Jehoram's youngest son. The people who came with the Arabs to attack Jehoram's camp killed all of Jehoram's older sons. So Ahaziah began to rule in Judah. <sup>2</sup>He was 22 years old when he began to rule.<sup>c</sup> He ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah. Her father's name was Omri. <sup>3</sup>Ahaziah also lived the way Ahab's family lived because his mother encouraged him to do wrong things. <sup>4</sup>Ahaziah did evil in the LORD's sight. That is what Ahab's family did. Ahab's family gave advice to Ahaziah after Ahaziah's father died. They gave Ahaziah bad advice that led to his death. <sup>5</sup>Ahaziah followed the advice Ahab's family gave him and went with King Joram to fight against King Hazael from Aram at the town of Ramoth Gilead. Joram's father's name was King Ahab of Israel. But the Arameans wounded Joram in the battle. <sup>6</sup>He went back to the town of Jezreel to get well. He was wounded at Ramoth when he fought against King Hazael of Aram.

Then Ahaziah<sup>d</sup> went to the town of Jezreel to visit Joram. Ahaziah's father's name was Jehoram, the king of Judah. Joram's father's name was Ahab. Joram was in the town of Jezreel because he was wounded.

<sup>7</sup>God caused Ahaziah's death when he went to visit Joram. Ahaziah arrived and went out with Joram to meet Jehu. Jehu's father's name was Nimshi. The LORD chose Jehu to destroy Ahab's family. <sup>8</sup>Jehu was punishing Ahab's family. He found the leaders of Judah and Ahaziah's relatives who served Ahaziah. He killed the leaders of Judah and Ahaziah's relatives. <sup>9</sup>Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah. Jehu's men caught him when he tried to hide in the town of Samaria. They brought him to Jehu. They killed Ahaziah and buried him. They said, "Ahaziah is the descendant of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat followed the LORD with all his heart." Ahaziah's family had no power to hold the kingdom of Judah together.

Queen Athaliah

<sup>10</sup>Athaliah was Ahaziah's mother. When she saw that her son was dead, she killed all the king's children in Judah. <sup>11</sup>But Jehosheba took Ahaziah's son Joash and hid him. Jehosheba put Joash and his nurse in the inside bedroom. Jehosheba was King Jehoram's daughter. She was also Jehoiada's wife. Jehoiada was a priest, and Jehosheba was Ahaziah's sister.

Athaliah did not kill Joash, because Jehosheba hid him. <sup>12</sup>Joash was hidden with the priests in God's Temple* for six years. During that time, Athaliah ruled over the land as queen.

Priest Jehoiada and King Joash

23 <sup>1</sup>After six years, Jehoiada showed his strength and made an agreement with the captains. These captains were Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adahiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. <sup>2</sup>They went around in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns of Judah. They also gathered the leaders of the families of Israel. Then they went to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>All the people meeting together made an agreement with the king in God's Temple.*

Jehoiada said to the people, "The king's son will rule. That is what the LORD promised about David's descendants. <sup>4</sup>Now, this is what you must do: One-third of you priests and Levites who go on duty on the Sabbath* will guard the doors. <sup>5</sup>And one-third of you will be at the king's palace, and one-third of you will be at the Foundation Gate. But all the other people will stay in the yards of the LORD's Temple. <sup>6</sup>Don't let anyone come into the LORD's Temple. Only the priest and Levites who serve are permitted to come into the LORD's Temple because they are holy. But all the other men must do the job the LORD has given them. <sup>7</sup>The Levites must stay near the king. Every man must have his sword with him. If anyone tries to enter the Temple, kill that person. You must stay with the king everywhere he goes."

<sup>8</sup>The Levites and all the people of Judah obeyed all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Jehoiada the priest did not excuse anyone from the groups of the priests. So each captain and all his men came in on the Sabbath with those who went out on the Sabbath. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiada the priest gave the spears and the large and small shields that belonged to King David to the officers. The weapons were kept in God's Temple. <sup>10</sup>Then Jehoiada told the men where to stand. Every man had his weapon in his hand. The men stood all the way from the right side of the Temple to the left side of the Temple. They stood near the altar* and the Temple, and near the king. <sup>11</sup>They brought out the king's son and put the crown on him. They gave him a copy of the agreement.<sup>a</sup> Then they made Joash king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed* Joash and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>12</sup>Athaliah heard the noise of the people running to the Temple and praising the king. She came into the LORD's Temple to the people. <sup>13</sup>She looked and saw the king standing by his column at the front entrance. The officers and the men who blew trumpets were near the king. The people of the land were happy and blowing trumpets. The singers were playing on instruments of music. They led the people in singing praises. Then Athaliah tore her clothes<sup>b</sup> and said, "Treason! Treason!"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Jehoiada the priest brought out the army captains. He said to them, "Take Athaliah outside among the army. Use your swords to kill anyone who follows her." Then the priest warned the soldiers, "Don't kill Athaliah in the LORD's Temple." <sup>15</sup>Then those men grabbed Athaliah when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate at the king's palace. Then they killed her there.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made an agreement with all the people and the king. They all agreed that they all would be the LORD's people. <sup>17</sup>All the people went into the temple of the idol* Baal* and tore it down. They also broke the altars and idols that were in Baal's temple. They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars of Baal.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehoiada chose the priests to be responsible for the LORD's Temple. The priests were Levites, and David had given them the job of being responsible for the LORD's Temple. They were to offer the burnt offerings* to the LORD the way the Law of Moses commanded. They offered the sacrifices* with much joy and singing the way David commanded. <sup>19</sup>Jehoiada put guards at the gates of the LORD's Temple to prevent any unclean person from entering the Temple.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoiada took the army captains, the leaders, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land with him. Then Jehoiada took the king out of the LORD's Temple. They went through the Upper Gate to the king's palace and put the king on the throne. <sup>21</sup>All the people of Judah were very happy, and the city of Jerusalem had peace because Athaliah was killed with a sword.

Joash Rebuilds the Temple

<sup>4</sup>Then later on, Joash decided to rebuild the LORD's Temple.* <sup>5</sup>Joash called the priests and the Levites together. He said to them, "Go out to the towns of Judah and gather the money all the Israelites pay every year. Use that money to rebuild your God's Temple. Hurry and do this." But the Levites didn't hurry.

<sup>a</sup>23:11 a copy of the agreement Literally, "testimony." This could be a copy of the Law of Moses (see Deut. 17:18) or a special agreement between God and the king (see 1 Sam. 10:25; 2 Kings 11:17).

<sup>b</sup>23:13 tore her clothes A way to show that she was very upset.

<sup>6</sup>So King Joash called Jehoiada the leading priest. The king said, "Jehoiada, why haven't you made the Levites bring in the tax money from Judah and Jerusalem? Moses the LORD's servant and the Israelites used that tax money for the Tent of the Agreement.*"

<sup>7</sup>In the past, Athaliah's sons broke into God's Temple and used the holy things in the LORD's Temple for their worship of the Baal* gods. Athaliah was a very wicked woman.

<sup>8</sup>King Joash gave a command for a box to be made and put outside the gate at the LORD's Temple. <sup>9</sup>Then the Levites made an announcement in Judah and Jerusalem. They told the people to bring in the tax money for the LORD. That tax money is what Moses the servant of God had required the Israelites to give while they were in the desert. <sup>10</sup>All the leaders and the people were happy. They brought their money and put it in the box. They continued giving until the box was full. <sup>11</sup>Then the Levites would take the box to the king's officials. They saw that the box was full of money. The king's secretary and the leading priest's officer came and took the money out of the box. Then they took the box back to its place again. They did this often and gathered much money. <sup>12</sup>Then King Joash and Jehoiada gave the money to the people who worked on the LORD's Temple. And the people who worked on the LORD's Temple hired skilled woodcarvers and carpenters to rebuild the LORD's Temple. They also hired workers who knew how to work with iron and bronze to rebuild the LORD's Temple.

<sup>13</sup>The men who supervised the work were very faithful. The work to rebuild the LORD's Temple was successful. They built God's Temple the way it was before and they made it stronger. <sup>14</sup>When the workers finished, they brought the money that was left to King Joash and Jehoiada. They used that money to make things for the LORD's Temple. These things were used for the service in the Temple and for offering burnt offerings.* They also made bowls and other things from gold and silver. The priests offered burnt offerings in the LORD's Temple every day while Jehoiada was alive.

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada became old. He had a very long life, and he died when he was 130 years old. <sup>16</sup>The people buried Jehoiada in the City of David* where the kings are buried. The people buried Jehoiada there because in his life he did much good in Israel for God and for God's Temple.

<sup>17</sup>After Jehoiada died, the leaders of Judah came and bowed to King Joash. The king listened to the leaders. <sup>18</sup>The king and these leaders rejected the Temple of the LORD God. Their ancestors* followed the LORD God.

They worshiped the Asherah poles* and other idols.* God was angry with the people of Judah and Jerusalem because the king and those leaders were guilty. <sup>19</sup>God sent prophets to the people to bring them back to the LORD. The prophets warned them, but they refused to listen.

<sup>20</sup>The Spirit of God filled Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood in front of the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why do you people refuse to obey the LORD's commands? You will not be successful. You have left the LORD. So he has also left you!'"

<sup>23</sup>At the end of the year, the Aramean army came against Joash. They attacked Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the valuable things to the king of Damascus. <sup>24</sup>The Aramean army came with a small group of men, but the LORD let them defeat a very large army from Judah. The LORD did this because the people of Judah left the LORD God their ancestors followed. So Joash was punished. <sup>25</sup>When the Arameans left Joash, he was badly wounded. His own servants made plans against him. They did this because Joash killed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. The servants killed Joash on his own bed. After he died, the people buried him in the City of David, but not in the place where the kings are buried.

<sup>26</sup>These are the servants who made plans against Joash: Zabad and Jehozabad. Zabad's mother's name was Shimeath. Shimeath was from Ammon. And Jehozabad's mother's name was Shimrith. Shimrith was from Moab. <sup>27</sup>The story about Joash's sons, the great prophecies against him, and how he rebuilt God's Temple are written in the book, Commentary on the Kings. Joash's son Amaziah became the new king after him.

Amaziah, King of Judah

25 <sup>1</sup>Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin. Jehoaddin was from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah did what the LORD wanted him to do, but not with all his heart. <sup>3</sup>He became a strong king and killed the officials who had killed his father the king. <sup>4</sup>But Amaziah obeyed the law written in the Book of Moses and did not kill the official's children. The LORD commanded, "Parents must not be put to death for something their children did, and children must not be put to death for something their parents did. People should be put to death only for what they themselves did.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Amaziah gathered the people of Judah together. He grouped them by families and he put generals and captains in charge of these groups. The leaders were in charge of all the soldiers from Judah and Benjamin. All the men who were chosen to be soldiers were 20 years old and older. In all there were 300,000 skilled soldiers ready to fight with spears and shields. <sup>6</sup>Amaziah also hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel. He paid 3¾ tons<sup>b</sup> of silver to hire these soldiers. <sup>7</sup>But a man of God* came to Amaziah and said, “King, don’t let the army of Israel go with you. The Lord is not with Israel or the people of Ephraim.” <sup>8</sup>Maybe you will make yourself strong and ready for war, but God can help you win or help you lose.” <sup>9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what about the money I already paid to the Israelite army?” The man of God answered, “The Lord has plenty. He can give you much more than that.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Amaziah became very brave and led his army to the Salt Valley in the country of Edom. There his army killed 10,000 men from Seir.<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>They also captured 10,000 men from Seir and took them to the top of a cliff. Then the army of Judah threw them from the top of the cliff while they were still alive and their bodies were broken on the rocks below.

<sup>13</sup>Meanwhile, the Israelite army was attacking towns in Judah. They attacked the towns from Beth Horon all the way to Samaria. They killed 3000 people and took many valuable things. They were angry because Amaziah didn’t let them join him in the war.

<sup>14</sup>Amaziah came home after he defeated the Edomites. He brought the idols* that the people of Seir worshiped. He started to worship those idols. He bowed down in front of them and burned incense* to them. <sup>15</sup>The Lord was very angry with Amaziah, so he sent a prophet to him. The prophet said, “Amaziah, why have you worshiped the gods those people worship? Those gods could not even save their own people from you!”

<sup>16</sup>When the prophet spoke, Amaziah said to the prophet, “We never made you an advisor to the king. Be quiet! If you don’t be quiet, you will be killed.” The prophet became quiet, but then said, “God has decided to destroy you because you did this and didn’t listen to my advice.”

“Let’s meet face to face.” Jehoash was Jehoahaz’s son. Jehoahaz was Jehu’s son.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehoash sent his answer to Amaziah. Jehoash was the king of Israel and Amaziah was the king of Judah. Jehoash told this story: “A little thornbush of Lebanon sent a message to a big cedar tree of Lebanon. The little thornbush said, ‘Let your daughter marry my son.’ But a wild animal came and walked over the thornbush and destroyed it.” <sup>19</sup>You say to yourself, ‘I have defeated Edom!’ You are proud and you brag. But you should stay at home. There is no need for you to get into trouble. If you fight me, you and Judah will be destroyed.”

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah refused to listen. God made this happen. God planned to let Israel defeat Judah, because the people of Judah followed the gods the people of Edom followed. <sup>21</sup>So King Jehoash of Israel met King Amaziah of Judah face to face at the town of Beth Shemesh in Judah. <sup>22</sup>Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran away to his home. <sup>23</sup>Jehoash captured Amaziah at Beth Shemesh and took him to Jerusalem. Amaziah’s father’s name was Joash. Joash’s father’s name was Jehoahaz. Jehoash tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a section about 600 feet<sup>d</sup> long. <sup>24</sup>He took the gold and silver and all the other things in God’s Temple* that Obed Edom was responsible for. Jehoash also took the treasures from the king’s palace and some people as hostages. Then he went back to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>Amaziah lived 15 years after Jehoash died. Amaziah’s father was King Joash of Judah. <sup>26</sup>Everything else Amaziah did, from beginning to end, is written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>When Amaziah stopped obeying the Lord, the people in Jerusalem made plans against Amaziah. He ran away to the town of Lachish. But the people sent men to Lachish and they killed Amaziah there. <sup>28</sup>Then they carried his body on horses and buried him with his ancestors* in the City of Judah.

Uzziah, King of Judah

26<sup>1</sup>Then the people of Judah chose Uzziah to be the new king in place of Amaziah. Amaziah was Uzziah’s father. Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. <sup>2</sup>Uzziah rebuilt the town of Elath and gave it back to Judah. He did this after Amaziah died and was buried with his ancestors.*

obey God. When Uzziah was obeying the LORD, God gave him success.

<sup>11</sup>Uzziah had an army of trained soldiers. They were put in groups by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer. Hananiah was their leader. Jeiel and Maaseiah counted the soldiers and put them into groups. Hananiah was one of the king's officers. <sup>12</sup>There were 2600 leaders over the soldiers. <sup>13</sup>These family leaders were in charge of an army of 307,500 men who fought with great power. These soldiers helped the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Uzziah gave the army shields, spears, helmets, armor,* bows, and stones for the slings.* <sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem, Uzziah made machines that were invented by clever men. These machines were put on the towers and corner walls. They shot arrows and large rocks. Uzziah became famous. People knew his name in far away places. He had much help and became a powerful king.

at Uzziah. They could see the leprosy on his forehead. The priests quickly forced him out from the Temple. Uzziah himself hurried out because the LORD had punished him. <sup>21</sup>So Uzziah the king was a leper.* He could not enter the LORD's Temple. His son Jotham controlled the king's palace and became governor for the people.

<sup>22</sup>Everything else Uzziah did, from beginning to end, is written by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>23</sup>Uzziah died and was buried near his ancestors in the field near the king's burial places. This was because the people said, "Uzziah has leprosy." And Uzziah's son Jotham became the new king in his place.

Jotham, King of Judah

27<sup>1</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha. Jerusha was Zadok's daughter. <sup>2</sup>Jotham did what the LORD wanted him to do. He obeyed God just as his father Uzziah had done. But Jotham did not enter the LORD's Temple* to burn incense* as his father had. But the people continued doing wrong. <sup>3</sup>Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the LORD's Temple. He did much building on the wall at the place named Ophel. <sup>4</sup>He also built towns in the hill country of Judah. He built fortresses* and towers in the forests. <sup>5</sup>Jotham also fought against the king of the Ammonites and his army and defeated them. So each year for three years the Ammonites gave Jotham 3¼ tons<sup>a</sup> of silver, 62,000 bushels<sup>b</sup> of wheat, and 62,000 bushels of barley.

<sup>6</sup>Jotham became powerful because he faithfully obeyed the LORD his God. <sup>7</sup>Everything else Jotham did and all his wars are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Then Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried him in the City of David.* Jotham's son Ahaz became king in his place.

Ahaz, King of Judah

28<sup>1</sup>Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not live right, as David his ancestor* had done. Ahaz did not do what the LORD wanted him to do. <sup>2</sup>He followed the bad example of the kings of Israel. He used molds to make idols* to worship the Baal* gods. <sup>3</sup>He burned incense* in the Valley of Ben Hinnom<sup>c</sup> and sacrificed* his own sons by burning them in the fire. He did the same terrible sins that the peoples living in that land did. The LORD had forced them out when the Israelites entered that land. <sup>4</sup>Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense in the high places,* on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5-6</sup>Ahaz sinned, so the LORD his God let the king of Aram defeat him. The king of Aram and his army defeated Ahaz and made many people of Judah prisoners. The king of Aram took the prisoners to the city of Damascus. The LORD also let King Pekah of Israel defeat Ahaz. Pekah's father's name was Remaliah. Pekah and his army killed 120,000 brave soldiers from Judah in one day. He defeated the men from Judah because they stopped obeying the LORD, the God their ancestors obeyed. <sup>7</sup>Zicri was a brave soldier from Ephraim.* He killed the king's son Maaseiah. He also killed Azrikam, the officer in charge of the king's palace, and Elkanah, who was second in command to the king.

<sup>8</sup>The Israelite army captured 200,000 of their own relatives living in Judah. They took women, children, and many valuable things from Judah and carried them back to Samaria. <sup>9</sup>But one of the LORD's prophets named Oded was there. Oded met the Israelite army that came back to Samaria. He said to the Israelite army, "The LORD, the God your ancestors worshiped, let you defeat the people of Judah because he was angry with them. But now he is angry with you, because he has seen how cruel you were in killing them. <sup>10</sup>And now you plan to keep the people of Judah and Jerusalem as slaves. But you are as guilty as they are for sinning against the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>Now listen to me. Send back all those you captured, your own brothers and sisters, because the LORD's terrible anger is against you."

<sup>12</sup>Then some of the leaders in Ephraim saw the Israelite soldiers coming home from war. They met the Israelite soldiers and warned them. The leaders were Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai. <sup>13</sup>They said to the Israelite soldiers, "Don't bring the prisoners from Judah here. If you do that, it will make us sin worse against the LORD. That will make our sin and guilt worse and the LORD will be very angry with Israel!"

<sup>14</sup>So the soldiers gave the prisoners and valuable things to the leaders and to the people. <sup>15</sup>The leaders (Azariah, Berekiah, Jehizkiah, and Amasa) stood up and helped the prisoners. These four men got the clothes that the Israelite army took and gave them to the people who were naked. The leaders also gave them sandals. They gave the prisoners from Judah something to eat and drink. They rubbed oil on them to soften and heal their wounds. Then the leaders from Ephraim put the weak prisoners on donkeys and took them back home to their families in Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then the four leaders went back home to Samaria.

<sup>16-17</sup>At that same time, the people from Edom came again and defeated the people of Judah. The Edomites captured people and took them away as prisoners. So King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria to help him. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines also attacked the towns in the hills and in south Judah. The Philistines captured the towns of Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Socoth, Timnah, and Gimzo. They also captured the villages near these towns. Then the Philistines lived in them. <sup>19</sup>The LORD gave troubles to Judah because King Ahaz of Judah encouraged the people of Judah to sin. He was very unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>King Tiglath Pileser of Assyria came and gave Ahaz trouble instead of helping him. <sup>21</sup>Ahaz took some valuable things from the LORD's Temple* and from the king's palace and from the prince's house. Ahaz gave them to the king of Assyria, but that didn't help him.

<sup>22</sup>In Ahaz's troubles, he sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>He offered sacrifices to the gods the people of Damascus worshiped. The people of Damascus had defeated Ahaz. So he thought to himself, "The gods the people of Aram worship helped them. So if I offer sacrifices to them, maybe they will help me also." Ahaz worshiped these gods. In this way he sinned, and he made the people of Israel sin.

<sup>26</sup>Everything else Ahaz did, from the beginning to the end, is written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaz died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried him in the city of Jerusalem. But they didn't bury him in the same burial place where the kings of Israel were buried. Ahaz's son Hezekiah became the new king in his place.

Hezekiah, King of Judah

29 <sup>1</sup>Hezekiah became king when he was 25 years old. He ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah. Abijah was Zechariah's daughter. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah did what the LORD wanted him to do. He did what was right just as David his ancestor* had done.

<sup>3</sup>Hezekiah repaired the doors of the LORD's Temple* and made them strong. He opened the Temple again. He did this in the first month of the first year after he became king. <sup>4-5</sup>Hezekiah called the priests and Levites together in one assembly. He had a meeting with them in the courtyard on the east side of the Temple. Hezekiah said to them, "Listen to me, Levites! Make yourselves ready for holy service. Make the Temple of the LORD God ready for holy service. He is the God your ancestors obeyed. Take away the things from the Temple that don't belong in there. These things make the Temple unclean.*

<sup>12-14</sup>This is a list of the Levites who started to work: From the Kohath family there were Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah. From the Merari family there were Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehalelel. From the Gershon family there were Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joab. From Elizaphan's descendants there were Shimri and Jeiel. From Asaph's descendants there were Zechariah and Mattaniah. From Heman's descendants there were Jehiel and Shimei. From Jeduthun's descendants there were Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup>Then these Levites gathered their brothers together and made themselves ready for holy service in the Temple. They obeyed the king's command that came from the LORD. They went into the LORD's Temple to clean it. <sup>16</sup>The priests went into the inside part of the LORD's Temple to clean it. They took out all the unclean things they found there. They brought the unclean things out to the courtyard of the LORD's Temple. Then the Levites took these things out to the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>On the first day of the first month, the Levites began to make themselves ready for holy service. On the eighth day of the month, the Levites came to the porch of the LORD's Temple. For eight more days they cleaned the LORD's Temple to make it ready for holy use. They finished on the 16th day of the first month.

the LORD's Temple and the altar* for burning offerings and all the things in the Temple. We cleaned the table for the rows of bread with all the things used for that table. <sup>19</sup>During the time that Ahaz was king, he rebelled against God. He threw away many of the things that were in the Temple. But we repaired all those things and made them ready for their special use. They are now in front of the LORD's altar."

<sup>20</sup>King Hezekiah gathered the city officials and went up to the Temple of the LORD early the next morning. <sup>21</sup>They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven young male goats. These animals were for a sin offering* for the kingdom of Judah, for the Holy Place to make it clean, and for the people of Judah. King Hezekiah commanded the priests who were descendants of Aaron to offer these animals on the LORD's altar. <sup>22</sup>So the priests killed the bulls and kept the blood. Then they sprinkled the bulls' blood on the altar. Then they killed the rams and sprinkled the rams' blood on the altar. Then they killed the lambs and sprinkled the lambs' blood on the altar. <sup>23-24</sup>Then the priests brought the male goats in front of the king, and the people gathered together. The goats were the sin offering. The priests put their hands on the goats and killed the goats. They made a sin offering with the goats' blood on the altar. They did this so that God would forgive the sins of the Israelites. The king said that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all the Israelites.

<sup>29</sup>After the sacrifices were finished, King Hezekiah and all the people with him bowed down and worshiped. <sup>30</sup>King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to give praise to the LORD. They sang songs that David and Asaph the seer had written. They praised God and became happy. They all bowed and worshiped God. <sup>31</sup>Hezekiah said, "Now you people of Judah have given yourselves to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the LORD's Temple." Then the people brought sacrifices and thank offerings. Anyone who wanted to, also brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup>This is how many burnt offerings the assembly brought to the Temple: 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. All these animals were sacrificed. <sup>33</sup>The holy offerings for the LORD were 600 bulls and 3000 sheep and goats. <sup>34</sup>But there were not enough priests to skin and cut up all the animals for the burnt offerings. So their relatives, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished and until other priests could make themselves ready for holy service. The Levites were more serious about making themselves ready to serve the LORD. They were more serious than the priests. <sup>35</sup>There were many burnt offerings, and the fat of fellowship offerings,* and drink offerings. So the service in the LORD's Temple began again. <sup>36</sup>Hezekiah and the people were very happy about the things God prepared for his people. And they were happy he did it so quickly!

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 King Hezekiah sent messages to all the people of Israel and Judah. He wrote letters to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh<sup>a</sup> also. He invited all these people to come to the LORD's Temple* in Jerusalem so that they all could celebrate the Passover* for the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>King Hezekiah agreed with all his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem to have the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup>They could not celebrate the Passover Festival at the regular time, because not enough priests had made themselves ready for holy service and the people had not gathered in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>The agreement satisfied King Hezekiah and all the assembly. <sup>5</sup>So they sent the announcement throughout Israel, from the town of Beersheba all the way to the town of Dan. They told the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for the LORD, the God of Israel. Not many people had been celebrating it as it was described in the law. <sup>6</sup>So the messengers took the king's letters all through Israel and Judah. This is what the letters said:

"Children of Israel, turn back to the LORD, the God who Abraham, Isaac, and Israel* obeyed. Then God will come back to you who are still alive and have escaped from the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>Don't be like your fathers or your brothers. The LORD was their God, but they turned against him. So the LORD made people hate them and speak evil about them. You can see with your own eyes that this is true. <sup>8</sup>Don't be stubborn as your ancestors* were. But obey the LORD with a willing heart. Come to the Temple. The LORD has made the Temple to be holy forever. Serve the LORD your God. Then the LORD's fearful anger will turn away from you. <sup>9</sup>If you come back and obey the LORD, your relatives and your children will find mercy from the people who captured them. And your relatives and your children will come back to this land. The LORD your God is kind and merciful. He will not turn away from you if you come back to him."

<sup>13</sup>Many people came together in Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread* in the second month. It was a very large crowd. <sup>14</sup>The people took away the altars in Jerusalem that were for false gods and all the incense altars that were for false gods. They threw them into the Kidron Valley. <sup>15</sup>Then they killed the Passover lamb on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and the Levites felt ashamed. They made themselves ready for holy service. The priests and the Levites brought burnt offerings* into the LORD's Temple. <sup>16</sup>They took their regular places in the Temple as described in the Law of Moses, the man of God.* The Levites gave the blood to the priests. Then the priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.* <sup>17</sup>There were many people in the group who had not made themselves ready for holy service, so they were not permitted to kill the Passover lambs. That is why the Levites were responsible for killing the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean. The Levites made each lamb holy for the LORD.

<sup>18-19</sup>Many people from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not prepared themselves in the right way for the Passover Festival. They did not celebrate the Passover the right way, as the Law of Moses says. But Hezekiah prayed for the people. So he said this prayer, "LORD God, you are good. These people sincerely wanted to worship you in the right way, but they did not make themselves clean as the law says. Please forgive these people. You are the God who our ancestors obeyed. Forgive, even if someone did not make himself clean as the rules of the Most Holy Place say." <sup>20</sup>The LORD listened to King Hezekiah's prayer and forgave the people. <sup>21</sup>The children of Israel at Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. They were very happy. The Levites and the priests gave praise to the LORD every day with all their strength. <sup>22</sup>King Hezekiah encouraged all the Levites who understood very well how to do the service of the LORD. The people celebrated the festival for seven days and offered fellowship offerings.* They gave thanks and praise to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>23</sup>All the people agreed to stay seven more days. They were joyful as they celebrated the Passover for seven more days. <sup>24</sup>King Hezekiah of Judah gave 1000 bulls and 7000 sheep to the assembly to kill and eat. The leaders gave 1000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the assembly. Many priests prepared themselves for holy service. <sup>25</sup>All the assembly of Judah, the priests, the Levites, all the assembly who came from Israel, and the travelers who came from Israel and moved to Judah—all these people were very happy. <sup>26</sup>So there was much joy in Jerusalem. There had not been a celebration like this since the time of Solomon son of King David of Israel. <sup>27</sup>The priests and the Levites stood up and asked the LORD to bless the people. God heard them. Their prayer came up to the LORD's holy home in heaven.

King Hezekiah Makes Improvements

31 <sup>1</sup>When the Passover* celebration was finished, the Israelites who were in Jerusalem for Passover went out to the towns of Judah. Then they smashed the stone idols* that were in the towns. These stone idols were used to worship false gods. They also cut down the Asherah poles.* And they destroyed the high places* and the altars all through the areas of Judah and Benjamin. They did the same things in the area of Ephraim and Manasseh. They did these things until they destroyed all the things used for worshiping the false gods. Then all the Israelites went back home to their own towns.

<sup>2</sup>The priests and Levites had been divided into groups, and each group had its own special job to do. So King Hezekiah told these groups to begin doing their jobs again. So the priests and Levites again had the job of offering the burnt offerings* and the fellowship offerings.* And they had the job of serving in the Temple* and singing and praising God by the doors to the LORD's house.* <sup>3</sup>Hezekiah gave some of his own animals to be offered as the burnt offerings. These animals were used for the daily burnt offerings that were given each morning and each evening. They were offered on the Sabbath* days, during New Moon* celebrations, and on the other special meeting days, as law of the LORD commands.

<sup>4</sup>The people were supposed to give a part of their crops and things to the priests and Levites. So Hezekiah commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give them their share. In that way the priests and Levites could spend all of their time doing what the law told them to do. <sup>5</sup>People all around the country heard about this command. So the Israelites gave the first part of their harvest of grain, grapes, oil, honey, and all the things they grew in their fields. They brought one-tenth of all these many things. <sup>6</sup>The men of Israel and Judah living in the towns of Judah also brought one-tenth of their cattle and sheep. They also brought one-tenth of the things that were put in a special place that was only for the LORD. They brought all these things to the LORD their God, and they put them in piles.

<sup>7</sup>The people began to bring these things in the third month and they finished bringing the collection in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup>When Hezekiah and the leaders came, they saw the piles of things that were collected. They praised the LORD and his people, the Israelites.

<sup>9</sup>Then Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites about the piles of things. <sup>10</sup>Azariah the high priest from Zadok's family said to Hezekiah, "From the time that the people started bringing the offerings into the LORD's house, we have had plenty to eat. We have eaten until we are full and there is still plenty left over! The LORD has really blessed his people. That is why we have so much left over."

<sup>11</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded the priests to make storerooms ready in the LORD's Temple. So this was done. <sup>12</sup>Then the priests brought the offerings, tithes,<sup>b</sup> and other things that were to be given only to the LORD. All these things collected were put in the storerooms in the Temple. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of everything that was collected. Shimei was second in charge of these things. Shimei was Conaniah's brother. <sup>13</sup>Conaniah and his brother Shimei were supervisors of these men: Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. King Hezekiah and Azariah the official in charge of God's Temple chose these men.

<sup>14</sup>Kore was in charge of the offerings that the people freely gave to God. He was responsible for giving out the collections that were given to the LORD. And he was responsible for giving out the gifts that were made holy for the LORD. Kore was the gatekeeper at the East Gate. His father's name was Imnah the Levite. <sup>15</sup>Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah helped Kore. These men served faithfully in the towns where the priests were living. They gave the collection of things to their relatives in each group of priests. They gave the same things to the more important people and to the less important.

LORD's Temple for daily service to do the things they were responsible to do. Each group of Levites had their own responsibility. <sup>17</sup>The priests were given their part of the collection. This was done by families, in the way they were listed in the family histories. The Levites who were 20 years old and older were given their part of the collection, according to their groups and responsibilities. <sup>18</sup>The Levites' babies, wives, sons, and daughters also got part of the collection. This was done for all the Levites who were listed in the family histories. This was because the Levites were faithful to always keep themselves holy and ready for service.

<sup>19</sup>Some of Aaron's descendants, the priests, lived in the towns or on farms near the towns where the Levites were living. Men were chosen by name in each of these towns to give part of the collection to these descendants of Aaron. All the males and those named in the family histories of the Levites got part of the collection.

<sup>20</sup>So King Hezekiah did those good things in all Judah. He did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God. <sup>21</sup>He had success in every work he began—the service of God's Temple and in obeying the law and commands, and in following his God. Hezekiah did all these things with all his heart.

The King of Assyria Troubles Hezekiah

32 <sup>1</sup>After all these things that Hezekiah had faithfully done happened, King Sennacherib of Assyria came to attack the country of Judah. Sennacherib and his army camped outside the fortresses.* He did this so that he could make plans to defeat these towns. Sennacherib wanted to win them for himself. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah knew that Sennacherib came to Jerusalem to attack it. <sup>3</sup>Then Hezekiah talked to his officials and army officers. They all agreed to stop the waters of the water springs outside the city. The officials and army officers helped Hezekiah. <sup>4</sup>Many people came together and stopped all the springs and the stream that flowed through the middle of the country. They said, "The king of Assyria will not find much water when he comes here!" <sup>5</sup>Hezekiah made Jerusalem stronger. This is how he did it: He rebuilt all the parts of the wall that were broken down. He also built towers on the wall. He also built another wall outside the first wall. He rebuilt the strong places on the east side of the old part of Jerusalem. He made many weapons and shields. <sup>6-7</sup>Hezekiah chose officers of war to be in charge of the people. He met with these officers at the open place near the city gate. He talked to the officers and encouraged them. He said, "Be strong and brave. Don't be afraid or worry about the king of Assyria or the large army with him. There is a greater power with us than the king of Assyria has with him!" <sup>8</sup>The king of Assyria only has men. But we have the LORD our God with us! Our God will help us. He will fight our battles!" So King Hezekiah of Judah encouraged the people and made them feel stronger.

<sup>9</sup>King Sennacherib of Assyria and all his army were camped near the town of Lachish so that they could defeat it. Then Sennacherib sent his officers to King Hezekiah of Judah and to all the people of Judah in Jerusalem. His officers had a message for Hezekiah and all the people in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They said, "King Sennacherib of Assyria says this: 'What do you trust in that makes you stay under attack in Jerusalem?' <sup>11</sup>Hezekiah is fooling you. You are being tricked into staying in Jerusalem so that you will die from hunger and thirst. Hezekiah says to you, 'The LORD our God will save us from the king of Assyria.' <sup>12</sup>Hezekiah himself took away the LORD's high places* and altars.* He told you people of Judah and Jerusalem that you must worship and burn incense* on only one altar. <sup>13</sup>Of course, you know what my ancestors* and I have done to all the peoples in other countries. The gods of the other countries could not save their people. Those gods could not stop me from destroying their people. <sup>14</sup>My ancestors destroyed those countries. There is no god that can stop me from destroying his people. So you think your god can save you from me? <sup>15</sup>Don't let Hezekiah fool you or trick you. Don't believe him because no god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to keep his people safe from me or my ancestors. Don't think your god can stop me from destroying you.'"

<sup>16</sup>The officers of the king of Assyria said worse things against the LORD God and against Hezekiah, God's servant. <sup>17</sup>The king of Assyria also wrote letters that insulted the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what the king of Assyria said in those letters: "The gods of the other nations could not stop me from destroying their people. In the same way Hezekiah's god will not be able to stop me from destroying his people." <sup>18</sup>Then the Assyrian officers shouted loudly to the people of Jerusalem who were on the city wall. They spoke in the language of Judah so that the people on the wall could understand and be frightened enough that the Assyrians could capture the city of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Then they insulted the God of Jerusalem just as they had insulted all the gods of the people from other nations—even though those gods are only things people made with their hands.

<sup>20</sup>Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed about this problem. They prayed very loudly to heaven. <sup>21</sup>Then the LORD sent an angel to the king of Assyria's camp. That angel killed all the soldiers, leaders, and officers in the Assyrian army. So the king of Assyria went back home to his own country, and his people were ashamed of him. He went into the temple of his god and some of his own sons killed him there with a sword.<sup>22</sup> So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people in Jerusalem from King Sennacherib of Assyria and from all other people. The LORD cared for Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem.<sup>23</sup> Many people brought gifts for the LORD to Jerusalem. They brought valuable things to King Hezekiah of Judah. From that time on, all the nations respected Hezekiah.

<sup>24</sup>It was in those days that Hezekiah became very sick and near death. He prayed to the LORD, and he spoke to Hezekiah and gave him a sign.<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah's heart was proud, so he did not give God thanks for his kindness. This is why God was angry with Hezekiah and with the people of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>26</sup> But Hezekiah and the people living in Jerusalem changed their hearts and lives. They became humble and stopped being proud. So the LORD's anger didn't come on them while Hezekiah was alive.

<sup>31</sup>One time the leaders of Babylon sent messengers to Hezekiah. The messengers asked about a strange sign that had happened in the nations.<sup>b</sup> When they came, God left Hezekiah alone to test him and to know everything that was in Hezekiah's heart.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Everything else Hezekiah did and how he loved the LORD are written in the book, The Vision of the Prophet Isaiah Son of Amoz and in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.<sup>33</sup> Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried him on the hill where the graves of David's ancestors are. All the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem gave honor to Hezekiah when he died. Hezekiah's son Manasseh became the new king in his place.

Manasseh, King of Judah

33<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for 55 years in Jerusalem.<sup>2</sup> Manasseh did what the LORD said was wrong. He followed the terrible and sinful ways of the nations that the LORD had forced out of the land before the Israelites.<sup>3</sup> Manasseh rebuilt the high places* that his father Hezekiah had broken down. Manasseh built altars for the Baal* gods and made Asherah poles.* He bowed down to the constellations<sup>d</sup> and worshiped those groups of stars.<sup>4</sup> Manasseh built altars for false gods in the LORD's Temple.* The LORD said about the Temple, "My name will be in Jerusalem forever."<sup>5</sup> He built altars for all the groups of stars in the two yards of the LORD's Temple.<sup>6</sup> He also burned his own children for a sacrifice* in the Valley of Ben Hinnom.<sup>e</sup> He also used magic by doing soothsaying, divination, and sorcery.<sup>f</sup> He talked with mediums* and wizards.* He did many things that the LORD said were wrong, and this made the LORD angry.<sup>7</sup> Manasseh also made a statue of an idol* and put it in God's Temple—the very same Temple that God had talked about to David and his son Solomon. God had said, "I will put my name in this house and in Jerusalem—the city that I chose from all the cities in all the tribes—and my name will be there forever!"<sup>8</sup> I will not continue to keep the Israelites off the land that I chose to give to their ancestors.* But they must obey everything I commanded them. The Israelites must obey all the laws, rules, and commands that I gave Moses to give to them."

<sup>9</sup>Manasseh encouraged the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem to do wrong. They were worse than the nations that were in the land before the Israelites—and the LORD destroyed those people.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they refused to listen.<sup>11</sup> So the LORD brought commanders from the king of Assyria's army to attack Judah. These commanders captured Manasseh and made him their prisoner. They put hooks in him and brass chains on his hands and took him to the country of Babylon.

<sup>12</sup>When these troubles came to him, Manasseh begged for help from the LORD his God. He humbled himself before the God of his ancestors.<sup>13</sup> Manasseh prayed to God and begged him for help. God heard his begging and felt sorry for him, so he let Manasseh return to Jerusalem and to his throne. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was the true God.

Valley, to the entrance of the Fish Gate, and around the hill of Ophel.<sup>a</sup> He made the wall very tall. Then he put officers in all the fortresses* in Judah. <sup>15</sup>Manasseh took away the strange idol gods, and he took the idol out of the LORD's Temple. He took away all the altars he had built on the Temple hill, and in Jerusalem. Manasseh threw all the altars out of the city of Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Then he set up the LORD's altar* and offered fellowship offerings* and thank offerings on it. He gave a command for all the people of Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>The people continued to offer sacrifices at the high places, but their sacrifices were only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup>Everything else Manasseh did, his prayer to his God and the words of the seers* who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are all written in the book, The Official Records of the Kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup>Manasseh's prayer and how God listened and felt sorry for him are written in The Book of the Seers. Also all his sins, the wrongs he did before he humbled himself, and the places where he built high places and set up the Asherah poles are written in The Book of the Seers. <sup>20</sup>So Manasseh died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried Manasseh in his own palace. Manasseh's son Amon became the new king in his place.

Amon, King of Judah

<sup>21</sup>Amon was 22 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>Amon did evil before the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon offered sacrifices* for all the carved idols* and statues that Manasseh his father made. Amon worshiped those idols. <sup>23</sup>Amon did not humble himself in front of the LORD like Manasseh his father humbled himself. But Amon sinned more and more. <sup>24</sup>His servants made plans against him. They killed Amon in his own house. <sup>25</sup>But the people of Judah killed all the servants who planned against King Amon. Then the people chose Amon's son Josiah to be the new king.

Josiah, King of Judah

34 <sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He was king for 31 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He lived in a way that pleased the LORD, always doing what was right, as his ancestor* David had done. Josiah never changed this way of life. <sup>3</sup>When Josiah was in his eighth year as king, he began to follow the God that David his ancestor followed. He was still young when he began to obey God. When he was in his twelfth year as king he began to destroy the high places,* the Asherah poles,* and idols* that were carved and idols that were made from molds from Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>As Josiah watched, the people broke down the altars for the Baal gods. Then he cut down the incense* altars that stood high above the people. He broke the idols that were carved and the idols that were made from molds. He beat the idols into powder and sprinkled the powder on the graves of the people who had offered sacrifices* to the Baal gods. <sup>5</sup>Josiah even burned the bones of the priests who had served the Baal gods on their own altars. This is how he destroyed idols and idol worship from Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Josiah did the same for the towns in the areas of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and all the way to Naphtali. He did the same for the ruins near all these towns.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>Josiah broke down the altars and the Asherah poles. He beat the idols into powder. He cut down all the incense altars used for Baal worship in all the country of Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>When Josiah was in his 18th year as king of Judah, he sent Shaphan, Maaseiah, and Joah to rebuild and repair the Temple* of the LORD his God. Shaphan's father's name was Azaliah. Maaseiah was the city leader, and Joah's father's name was Joahaz. Joah was the man who wrote about what happened.

So Josiah commanded the Temple to be repaired so that he could make Judah and the Temple clean. <sup>9</sup>These men came to Hilkiah the high priest. They gave him the money that people gave for God's Temple. The Levite doorkeepers had collected this money from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim, and from all the Israelites who were left. They also collected this money from all Judah, Benjamin, and all the people living in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>Then the Levites paid the men who supervised the work on the LORD's Temple. And the supervisors paid the workers who repaired the LORD's Temple. <sup>11</sup>They gave the money to carpenters and builders to buy large rocks that were already cut, and to buy wood. The wood was used to rebuild the buildings and to make beams for the buildings. In the past, the kings of Judah did not take care of the Temple buildings. The buildings had become old and ruined. <sup>12-13</sup>The men worked faithfully. Their supervisors were Jahath and Obadiah. Jahath and Obadiah were Levites, and they were descendants of Merari. Other supervisors were Zechariah and Meshullam. They were descendants of Kohath. The Levites who were skilled in playing instruments of music also supervised the laborers and all the other workers. Some Levites worked as secretaries, officials, and doorkeepers.

The Book of the Law Found

Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that was given through Moses.

<sup>16</sup>Shaphan brought the book to King Josiah. Shaphan reported to the king, "Your servants are doing everything you told them to do.

<sup>17</sup>They got the money that was in the LORD's Temple and are paying the supervisors and the workers." <sup>18</sup>Then Shaphan said to King Josiah, "Hilkiah the priest gave a book to me."

Then Shaphan read from the book in front of the king. <sup>19</sup>When King Josiah heard the words of the law being read, he tore his clothes.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Then the king gave a command to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the servant. <sup>21</sup>The king said, "Go, ask the LORD for me, and for the people who are left in Israel and in Judah. Ask about the words in the book that was found. The LORD is very angry with us because our ancestors* did not obey the LORD's word. They did not do everything this book says to do."

<sup>26</sup>"But tell this to King Josiah of Judah. He sent you to ask the LORD: This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the words you heard a little while ago: <sup>27</sup>Josiah, you repented and you humbled yourself. You tore your clothes, and you cried before me. So because your heart was tender, <sup>28</sup>I will take you to be with your ancestors.<sup>d</sup> You will go to your grave in peace. You will not have to see any of the trouble that I will bring on this place and on the people living here.'" Hilkiah and the king's servants brought back this message to King Josiah.

<sup>29</sup>Then King Josiah called for all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to come and meet with him. <sup>30</sup>The king went up to the LORD's Temple. All the people from Judah, the people living in Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, both important and not important, were with Josiah. He read to them all the words in the Book of the Agreement. That book was found in the LORD's Temple. <sup>31</sup>Then the king stood up in his place. He made an agreement with the LORD. He agreed to follow the LORD and to obey the LORD's commands, laws, and rules. He agreed to obey with all his heart and soul the words of the agreement* written in this book. <sup>32</sup>Then Josiah made all the people in Jerusalem and Benjamin promise to accept the agreement. The people of Jerusalem obeyed the agreement of God, the God their ancestors obeyed. <sup>33</sup>The Israelites had idols from many different countries, but Josiah destroyed all the terrible idols.* He made all the people in Israel serve the LORD their God. And as long as Josiah was alive, the people continued to serve the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

Josiah Celebrates Passover

35<sup>1</sup>King Josiah celebrated the Passover* to the LORD in Jerusalem. The Passover lamb was killed on the 14th day of the first month. <sup>2</sup>Josiah chose the priests to do their duties. He encouraged the priests while they were serving in the LORD's Temple.* <sup>3</sup>He spoke to the Levites who taught the Israelites and who were made holy* for service to the LORD. He said to the Levites, "Put the Holy Box* in the Temple that Solomon built. Solomon was David's son. David was king of Israel. Don't carry the Holy Box from place to place on your shoulders again. Now serve the LORD your God and his people, the Israelites. <sup>4</sup>Make yourselves ready for service in the Temple by your tribes. Do the jobs that King David and his son King Solomon gave you to do. <sup>5</sup>Stand in the Holy Place* with a group of Levites. Do this for each different tribe of the people so that you can help them. <sup>6</sup>Kill the Passover lambs and make yourselves holy to the LORD. Get ready to help your fellow Israelites. Do everything the LORD commanded us in the laws he gave to Moses."

<sup>7</sup>Josiah gave the Israelites 30,000 sheep and goats to kill for the Passover sacrifices.* He also gave 3000 cattle to the people. All these animals were from King Josiah's own animals. <sup>8</sup>Josiah's officials also freely gave animals and things to the people, to the priests, and Levites to use for the Passover. Hilkiah the high priest, Zechariah, and Jehiel were the officials in charge of the Temple. They gave the priests 2600 lambs and goats and 300 bulls for Passover sacrifices. <sup>9</sup>Also Conaniah with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad

gave 500 sheep and goats and 500 bulls for Passover sacrifices to the Levites. These men were leaders of the Levites.

<sup>10</sup>When everything was ready for the Passover service to begin, the priests and Levites went to their places. This is what the king commanded. <sup>11</sup>The Passover lambs were killed. Then the Levites skinned the animals and gave the blood to the priests. The priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.* <sup>12</sup>Then they gave the animals to be used for burnt offerings to the different tribes. This was done so that the burnt offerings could be offered the way the Law of Moses taught. <sup>13</sup>The Levites roasted the Passover sacrifices over the fire in the way they were commanded. And they boiled the holy offerings in pots, kettles, and pans. Then they quickly gave the meat to the people. <sup>14</sup>After this was finished, the Levites got meat for themselves and for the priests who were descendants of Aaron. These priests were kept very busy, working until it got dark. They worked hard burning the burnt offerings and the fat of the sacrifices. <sup>15</sup>The Levite singers from Asaph's family got in the places that King David had chosen for them to stand. They were Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's prophet. The gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their places because their brother Levites made everything ready for them for the Passover.

<sup>16</sup>So everything was done that day for the worship of the LORD as King Josiah commanded. The Passover was celebrated and the burnt offerings* were offered on the LORD's altar. <sup>17</sup>The Israelites who were there celebrated Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread* for seven days. <sup>18</sup>Passover hadn't been celebrated like this since the time of Samuel the prophet! None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover like this. King Josiah, the priests, the Levites, and the people of Judah and Israel who were there with all the people in Jerusalem celebrated the Passover in a very special way. <sup>19</sup>They celebrated this Passover in Josiah's 18th year as king.

The Death of Josiah

<sup>20</sup>Josiah did all these good things for the Temple.* Later, King Neco of Egypt led an army to fight against the town of Carchemish on the Euphrates River. King Josiah went out to fight against Neco. <sup>21</sup>But Neco sent messengers to Josiah. They said, "King Josiah, this war is not your problem. I didn't come to fight against you. I came to fight my enemies. God told me to hurry. He is on my side, so don't bother me. If you fight against me, God will destroy you!" <sup>22</sup>But Josiah did not go away. He put on different clothes to hide who he was and went to fight the battle. Josiah refused to listen to the warning Neco had received from God and went to fight on the plain of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup>Then King Josiah was shot by arrows while he was in the battle. He told his servants, "Take me away, I am wounded badly!"

<sup>24</sup>So the servants took Josiah out of his chariot* and put him in another chariot he had brought with him to the battle. Then they took Josiah to Jerusalem. He died there and was buried in the tombs where his ancestors* were buried. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem were very sad because Josiah was dead. <sup>25</sup>Jeremiah wrote and sang some funeral songs for Josiah. And the men and women singers still sing these sad songs today. It became something the people of Israel always do—they sing a sad song for Josiah. These songs are written in the book, Funeral Songs.

<sup>26-27</sup>Everything else Josiah did while he was king, from beginning to the end of his rule, is written in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah. The book tells about his loyalty to the LORD and how he obeyed the LORD's law.

Jehoahaz, King of Judah

36 <sup>1</sup>The people of Judah chose Jehoahaz to be the new king in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was Josiah's son. <sup>2</sup>He was 23 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months. <sup>3</sup>Then King Neco from Egypt made Jehoahaz a prisoner. Neco made the people of Judah pay 3¾ tons<sup>a</sup> of silver and 75 pounds<sup>b</sup> of gold for a fine. <sup>4</sup>Neco chose Jehoahaz's brother to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Jehoahaz's brother's name was Eliakim. Then Neco gave Eliakim a new name. He named him Jehoikim. But Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt.

Jehoiakim, King of Judah

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became the new king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. Jehoiakim didn't do what the LORD wanted him to do. He sinned against the LORD his God.

Jehoiachin, King of Judah

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He didn't do what the LORD wanted him to do. He sinned against the LORD. <sup>10</sup>In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent some servants to get Jehoiachin. They brought Jehoiachin and some valuable treasures from the LORD's Temple* to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar chose Zedekiah to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Zedekiah was one of Jehoiachin's relatives.

Zedekiah, King of Judah

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. <sup>12</sup>Zedekiah didn't do what the LORD wanted him to do. He sinned against the LORD. Jeremiah the prophet spoke messages from the LORD. But Zedekiah didn't humble himself and obey what Jeremiah said.

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

<sup>13</sup>Zedekiah turned against King Nebuchadnezzar. In the past Nebuchadnezzar forced Zedekiah to make a promise to be faithful to him. Zedekiah used God's name and promised to be faithful to Nebuchadnezzar. But Zedekiah was stubborn and would not change his life. He refused to obey the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Also, all the leaders of the priests and the leaders of the people of Judah sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the LORD. They followed the evil example of the other nations. They ruined the Temple* that the LORD had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The LORD, the God of their ancestors,* sent prophets again and again to warn his people. He did this because he felt sorry for them and for his Temple. He didn't want to destroy them or his Temple. <sup>16</sup>But they made fun of God's prophets and refused to listen to them. They hated God's messages. Finally, God could not hold his anger any longer. He became angry with his people and there was nothing that could be done to stop it. <sup>17</sup>So God brought the king of Babylon to attack the people of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup> The king of Babylon killed the young men even when they were in the Temple. He didn't have mercy on the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The king of Babylon killed young and old people. He killed men and women. He killed sick and healthy people. God permitted Nebuchadnezzar to punish the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Nebuchadnezzar carried all the things in God's Temple away to Babylon. He took all the valuable things from the Temple, from the king, and from the king's officials. <sup>19</sup>Nebuchadnezzar and his army burned the Temple. They broke down Jerusalem's wall and burned all the houses that belonged to the king and his officials. They took or destroyed every valuable thing in Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took the people who were still alive back to Babylon and forced them to be slaves. They stayed in Babylon as slaves until the Persian kingdom defeated the kingdom of Babylon. <sup>21</sup>And so what the LORD told the people of Israel through the prophet Jeremiah really happened. He had said through Jeremiah: "This place will be an empty wasteland for 70 years.<sup>b</sup> This will happen to make up for the Sabbath rests<sup>c</sup> that the people had not kept."

<sup>22</sup>During the first year that Cyrus<sup>d</sup> was king of Persia, the LORD caused Cyrus to make a special announcement. He did this so that what the LORD promised through Jeremiah the prophet would really happen. Cyrus sent messengers to every place in his kingdom. They carried this message:

<sup>23</sup>"This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: The LORD, the God of heaven, made me king over the whole earth. He gave me the responsibility of building a Temple for him in Jerusalem. Now, all of you who are his people are free to go to Jerusalem. And may the LORD your God be with you."

<sup>c</sup>36:21 Sabbath rests The Law said that every seventh year the land was not to be farmed. See Lev. 25:1-7.

Cyrus Helps the Prisoners Return

1 <sup>1</sup>During the first year<sup>a</sup> that Cyrus was king of Persia, the LORD caused him to make an announcement. It was written down, and Cyrus ordered that it be read throughout his kingdom. This was done so that what the LORD had told Jeremiah<sup>b</sup> years before would now happen. This was the announcement:

The LORD, the God of heaven, gave all the kingdoms on earth to me. And he chose me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in the country of Judah. <sup>3</sup>The LORD is the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem. If any of God’s people are living among you, I pray God will bless them. You must let them go to Jerusalem in the country of Judah. You must let them go build the LORD’s Temple.* <sup>4</sup>And so in any place where there might be survivors* of Israel, the men in that place must support these survivors. Give them silver, gold, animals, and other things. Give them gifts for God’s Temple in Jerusalem.”

<sup>5</sup>So the family leaders from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin prepared to go up to Jerusalem. They were going to Jerusalem to build the LORD’s Temple. Also everyone who God had encouraged prepared to go to Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>All their neighbors gave them many gifts. They gave them silver, gold, animals, and other expensive things. Their neighbors freely gave them all those things. <sup>7</sup>Also, King Cyrus brought out the things that belonged in the LORD’s Temple that Nebuchadnezzar had taken away from Jerusalem. He had put them in his temple where he kept his false gods. <sup>8</sup>King Cyrus of Persia told Mithredath, the man who keeps his money, to bring those things out. So Mithredath brought them out to Sheshbazzar,* the leader of Judah.

<sup>11</sup>All together, there were 5400 things made from gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought them all with him when the prisoners left Babylon and went back to Jerusalem.

The List of the Prisoners Who Returned

2 <sup>1</sup>These are the people of the province who returned from captivity. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had taken these people as prisoners to Babylon. They now returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to their own town. <sup>2</sup>These are the people who returned with Zerubbabel<sup>c</sup>: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. <sup>56</sup> Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,

<sup>59</sup>Some people came to Jerusalem from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer. But these people could not prove that their families were from the family of Israel:

<sup>64-65</sup>All together, there were 42,360 people in the group who came back. This is not counting their 7337 men and women slaves. They also had 200 men and women singers with them. <sup>66-67</sup>They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, and 6720 donkeys.

<sup>68</sup>When the group arrived at the place in Jerusalem where the LORD's Temple had been, the family leaders gave their gifts for building this house of God again. They wanted to build it in this same place. <sup>69</sup>They gave as much as they were able. These are the things they gave for building the Temple: 1100 pounds<sup>a</sup> of gold, about 4 tons<sup>b</sup> of silver, and 100 coats that priests wear.

<sup>70</sup>So the priests, Levites, and some of the other people moved to Jerusalem and the area around it. This group included the Temple singers, gatekeepers, and the Temple servants. The other Israelites settled in their own hometowns.

Rebuilding the Altar

3 <sup>1</sup>So by the seventh month,<sup>c</sup> the Israelites had moved back to their own hometowns. At that time all the people met together in Jerusalem. They were all united as one people. <sup>2</sup>Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and the priests with him, along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the people with him, built the altar of the God of Israel. They built the altar of the God of Israel so that they could offer sacrifices on it. They built it just as it says in the Law of Moses. Moses was God's special servant.

<sup>3</sup>They were afraid of the other people living near them, but that didn't stop them. They built the altar on its old foundation and offered burnt offerings* on it to the LORD. They offered sacrifices in the morning and in the evening. <sup>4</sup>Then they celebrated the Festival of Shelters* just as the Law of Moses said. They offered the right number of burnt offerings for each day of the festival. <sup>5</sup>After that, they began offering the continual burnt offerings each day and the offerings for the New Moon*

and all the other festivals that were commanded by the LORD. The people also began giving any other gifts they wanted to give to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>So on the first day of the seventh month, these Israelites again began offering sacrifices to the LORD. This was done, even though the Temple* had not been rebuilt.

Rebuilding the Temple

<sup>7</sup>Then those who had come back from captivity gave money to the stonecutters and carpenters. They also gave food, wine, and olive oil. They used these things to pay the people of Tyre and Sidon to bring cedar logs from Lebanon. They wanted to bring the logs in ships to the seacoast town of Joppa as they did for the first Temple.* King Cyrus of Persia gave permission for them to do this.

<sup>8</sup>So in the second month<sup>a</sup> of the second year after they came to the Temple in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began the work. Their brothers, the priests, Levites, and everyone who came back to Jerusalem from captivity began working with them. They chose Levites who were 20 years old and older to be the leaders in the building of the LORD's Temple. <sup>9</sup>These were the men who supervised the work of building the LORD's Temple: Jeshua and his sons, Kadmiel and his sons (the descendants of Judah), the sons of Henadad and their brothers, the Levites. <sup>10</sup>The builders finished laying the foundation for the LORD's Temple. When the foundation was finished, the priests put on their special clothing. Then they got their trumpets, and the sons of Asaph got their cymbals. They all took their places to praise the LORD. This was done the way King David of Israel had ordered in the past. <sup>11</sup>They sang the response songs,<sup>b</sup> Songs of Praise and Praise the LORD Because He is Good. His Faithful Love Will Last Forever. Then all the people cheered—they gave a loud shout and praised the LORD because the foundation of the LORD's Temple had been laid.

<sup>12</sup>But many of the older priests, Levites, and family leaders, who could remember seeing the first Temple, began to cry aloud. They cried while the others there shouted for joy.

<sup>13</sup>The sound could be heard far away. All of them made so much noise that no one could tell the difference between the shouts of joy and the crying.

Enemies Against Rebuilding the Temple

4<sup>1-2</sup>Many people living in the area were against the people of Judah and Benjamin. These enemies heard that the people who had come from captivity were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel. So they came to Zerubbabel and to the family leaders and said, “Let us help you build. We are the same as you, we ask your God for help. We have offered sacrifices to your God since the time King Esarhaddon of Assyria brought us here.”

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other family leaders of Israel answered, “No, you people cannot help us build a temple for our God. Only we can build the Temple* for the LORD. He is the God of Israel. This is what King Cyrus of Persia commanded us to do.”

<sup>4</sup>So the enemies began to discourage them and tried to frighten them in order to stop them from building the Temple. <sup>5</sup>These enemies hired government officials to work against the people of Judah. The officials constantly did things to stop the Jews' plans to build the Temple. This continued the whole time that Cyrus was the king until Darius became the king of Persia.

Enemies Against Rebuilding Jerusalem

<sup>7</sup>Later, when Artaxerxes* became the new king of Persia, some of these men wrote another letter complaining about the Jews. The men who wrote the letter were Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the other people in their group. The letter was written in Aramaic* and translated.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup><sup>e</sup> Then Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against the people of Jerusalem. They wrote the letter to Artaxerxes the king. This is what they wrote:

<sup>9</sup>From Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, and from the judges and important officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, Erech, and Babylon, and from the Elamites from Susa, <sup>10</sup>and from the other people who the great and powerful Ashurbanipal moved to the city of Samaria and other places in the country west of the Euphrates River.

<sup>d</sup>4:7 The letter ... translated Or “The letter was written in the local language, but with Aramaic characters, and then translated into Aramaic.” This would mean the scribe used the “modern” Aramaic alphabet rather than the older alphabet that was still being used in Judah.

<sup>12</sup>King Artaxerxes, we wish to inform you that the Jews you sent from there are now in Jerusalem. They are trying to rebuild that terrible city. The people there have always rebelled against other kings. Now they have almost finished repairing the foundations and building the walls.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Also, King Artaxerxes, you should know that if Jerusalem and its walls are rebuilt, the people of Jerusalem will stop paying their taxes. They will stop sending money to honor you. They also will stop paying customs fees, and the king will lose all that money.

<sup>14</sup>We have a responsibility to the king. We don't want to see this happen, so we are sending this letter to inform the king.

<sup>15</sup>King Artaxerxes, we suggest that you search the writings of the kings who ruled before you. You will see in the writings that Jerusalem always rebelled against other kings. It has caused much trouble for other kings and nations. Many rebellions have started in this city since ancient times. That is why Jerusalem was destroyed.

<sup>16</sup>King Artaxerxes, we wish to inform you that if this city and its walls are rebuilt, you will lose control of the area west of the Euphrates River.

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary, and all the people with them living in Samaria and other places west of the Euphrates River.

Greetings:

<sup>18</sup>The letter you sent us has been translated and read to me. <sup>19</sup>I gave an order for the writings of the kings before me to be searched. The writings were read, and we found out that Jerusalem has a long history of rebellion against kings. Jerusalem has been a place where rebellion and revolt has happened often. <sup>20</sup>Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over it and over the whole area west of the Euphrates River. Their kings received taxes, customs, fees, and tribute.*

<sup>21</sup>Now, you must give an order for these men to stop work. That order must be given to keep Jerusalem from being rebuilt until I say so. <sup>22</sup>Be careful not to overlook this matter. We should not let the building of Jerusalem continue. If that work continues, I will not get any more money from Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>So a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes sent was read to Rehum, Shimshai the secretary, and the people with them. They went very quickly to the Jews in Jerusalem and forced them to stop building.

The Work on the Temple Stopped

5<sup>1</sup>At that time the prophets Haggai<sup>d</sup> and Zechariah son of Iddo<sup>e</sup> began to prophesy* in the name of God. They encouraged the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>So Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak again started working on the Temple in Jerusalem. All of God's prophets were with them and were supporting the work. <sup>3</sup>At that time Tattenai was the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River. Tattenai, Shethar Bozenai, and the men with them went to Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the others who were building. Tattenai and the people with him asked Zerubbabel and the people with him, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this Temple and repair it like new?" <sup>4</sup>They also asked Zerubbabel, "What are the names of the men who are working on this building?"

To King Darius.

Greetings:

<sup>8</sup>King Darius, you should know that we went to the province of Judah. We went to the Temple of the great God. The people in Judah are building that Temple with large stones. They are putting big wooden timbers in the walls. The work is being done with much care and the people of Judah are working very hard. They are building very fast; it will soon be done.

<sup>9</sup>We asked their leaders some questions about the work they are doing. We asked them, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this temple and repair it like new?" <sup>10</sup>We also asked for their names. We wanted to write down the names of

<sup>a4:12</sup> building the walls This was a way of protecting a city. These men wanted the king to think that the Jews were preparing to rebel against the king.

their leaders so that you would know who they are.

"We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the Temple that a great king of Israel built and finished many years ago. <sup>12</sup>But our ancestors* made the God of heaven angry, so God gave our ancestors to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar destroyed this Temple, and he forced the people to go to Babylon as prisoners. <sup>13</sup>But, in the first year that Cyrus was king of Babylon, King Cyrus gave a special order for God's Temple to be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup>And Cyrus brought out from his false god's temple in Babylon the gold and silver things that were taken from God's Temple in the past. Nebuchadnezzar took them from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought them to his false god's temple in Babylon. Then King Cyrus gave those gold and silver things to Sheshbazzar.*" Cyrus chose Sheshbazzar to be governor.

<sup>16</sup>So Sheshbazzar came and built the foundations of God's Temple in Jerusalem. From that day until now, the work has continued, but it is not yet finished.

<sup>17</sup>Now, if it pleases the king, please search the official records of the king. See if it is true that King Cyrus gave an order to rebuild God's Temple in Jerusalem. And then, sir, please send us a letter to let us know what you have decided to do about this.

The Order of Darius

6 <sup>1</sup>So King Darius gave an order to search the writings of the kings before him. The writings were kept in Babylon in the same place the money was kept. <sup>2</sup>A scroll* was found in the fortress* of Ecbatana. (Ecbatana is in the province of Media.) This is what was written on that scroll:

Official Note: <sup>3</sup>During the first year that Cyrus was king, he gave an order about the Temple* of God in Jerusalem. The order said:

Let the Temple of God be rebuilt. It will be a place to offer sacrifices. Let its foundations be built. The Temple must be 60 cubits<sup>a</sup> high and 60 cubits wide. <sup>4</sup>Its wall will be in layers that have three rows of large stones<sup>b</sup> and one row of wooden timbers. The cost of building the Temple must be paid for from the king's treasury. <sup>5</sup>Also, the gold and silver things from God's Temple must be put back in their places. Nebuchadnezzar took them from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon. They must be put back in God's Temple.

<sup>6</sup>Now then, I, Darius, order you Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, and Shethar Bozenai, and all the officials living in that province, to stay away from Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>Don't bother the workers. Don't try to stop the work on this Temple of God. Let the Jewish governor and the Jewish leaders rebuild it. Let them rebuild God's Temple in the same place it was in the past.

<sup>8</sup>Now I give this order. You must do this for the Jewish leaders building God's Temple: The cost of the building must be fully paid from the king's treasury. The money will come from the taxes collected from the provinces in the area west of the Euphrates River. Do these things quickly, so the work will not stop. <sup>9</sup>Give them anything they need. If they need young bulls, rams, or male lambs for sacrifices to the God of Heaven, give these things to them. If the priests of Jerusalem ask for wheat, salt, wine, and oil, give these things to them every day without fail. <sup>10</sup>Give them to the Jewish priests so that they may offer sacrifices that please the God of Heaven. Give these things so that the priests may pray for me and my sons.

<sup>11</sup>Also, I give this order: If anyone changes this order, a wooden beam must be pulled from their house and pushed through their body. Then their house must be destroyed until it is only a pile of rocks.

<sup>12</sup>God put his name there in Jerusalem. May God defeat any king or other person who tries to change this order. If anyone tries to destroy this Temple in Jerusalem, may God destroy that person.

I, Darius, have ordered it. This order must be obeyed quickly and completely.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

<sup>13</sup>So Tattenai the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, Shethar Bozenai, and the men with them obeyed King Darius' order. They obeyed the order quickly and completely. <sup>14</sup>So the Jewish leaders continued to build. Encouraged by the preaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo, they had great success. They finished

building the Temple* as the God of Israel had commanded and as Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia, had ordered. <sup>15</sup>The Temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar.<sup>a</sup> That was in the sixth year of the rule of King Darius.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>16</sup>Then the Israelites celebrated the dedication* of God's Temple with much happiness. The priests, the Levites, and all the other people who came back from captivity joined in the celebration.

<sup>17</sup>This is the way they dedicated God's Temple: They offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 male lambs. And they offered twelve male goats for all Israel for a sin offering.* That is one goat for each of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup>Then they chose the priests in their groups and the Levites in their groups to serve in God's Temple in Jerusalem. They did these things as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover

<sup>19c</sup> On the fourteenth day of the first month,<sup>d</sup> the Jews who came back from captivity celebrated the Passover.* <sup>20</sup>The priests and Levites made themselves pure. They all made themselves clean and ready to celebrate the Passover. The Levites killed the Passover lamb for all the Jews who came back from captivity. They did that for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>So all the Israelites who came back from captivity ate the Passover meal. Other people washed themselves and made themselves pure from the unclean* things of the people living in that country. These pure people also shared in the Passover meal. They did this so that they could go to the LORD, the God of Israel, for help. <sup>22</sup>They celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread* with much joy for seven days. The LORD made them very happy because he had changed the attitude of the king of Assyria.<sup>e</sup> So the king of Assyria had helped them do the work on God's Temple.*

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

7 <sup>1</sup>After these things,<sup>f</sup> during the rule of King Artaxerxes* of Persia, Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. Ezra was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Hilkiah. <sup>2</sup>Hilkiah was the son of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Ahitub. <sup>3</sup>Ahitub

was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Meraioth. <sup>4</sup>Meraioth was the son of Zerahiah. Zerahiah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bukki. <sup>5</sup>Bukki was the son of Abishua. Abishua was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron the high priest.

<sup>6</sup>Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. He was a teacher<sup>g</sup> and knew the Law of Moses very well. The Law of Moses was given by the LORD, the God of Israel. King Artaxerxes gave Ezra everything he asked for because the LORD was with Ezra. <sup>7</sup>Among the people who came with Ezra were Israelites, priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and Temple* servants. They arrived in Jerusalem during the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. <sup>8</sup>Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month<sup>h</sup> of the seventh year that Artaxerxes was king. <sup>9</sup>Ezra left Babylon on the first day of the first month and arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. The LORD God was with Ezra. <sup>10</sup>Ezra gave all his time and attention to studying and obeying the law of the LORD. He wanted to teach the rules and commandments of the LORD to the Israelites. And he also wanted to help the people follow these laws in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

<sup>11</sup>Ezra was a priest and teacher. He knew much about the commands and laws the LORD gave Israel. This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes* gave to Ezra the teacher:

To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the law of the God of Heaven.

Greetings!

<sup>13j</sup> Give this order: Any of the Israelites living in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who want to go with you to Jerusalem, may go.

<sup>14l</sup> And my seven advisors send you to Judah and Jerusalem. Go and see how your people are doing in obeying the law of your God. You have that law with you.

<sup>15j</sup> and my advisors are giving gold and silver to the God of Israel, who lives in Jerusalem. You must take this gold and silver with you. <sup>16</sup>You must also go through all the provinces of Babylonia. Collect the gifts from your people, from the priests, and from the Levites. The gifts are for the Temple* of their God in Jerusalem.

and male lambs. Buy the grain offerings and drink offerings that go with these sacrifices. Then sacrifice them on the altar in the Temple of your God in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Then you and the other Jews may spend the silver and gold left over any way you want to. Use it in a way that is pleasing to your God. <sup>19</sup>Take all these things to the God of Jerusalem. They are for the worship in the Temple of your God. <sup>20</sup>And you may get any other things that you need for the Temple of your God. Use the money in the king's treasury to buy anything you need.

<sup>21</sup>Now I, King Artaxerxes, give this order: I order all the men who keep the king's money in the area west of the Euphrates River to give Ezra anything he wants. Ezra is a priest and a teacher of the Law of the God of Heaven. Do this quickly and completely. <sup>22</sup>Give this much to Ezra: <sup>3</sup> $\frac{3}{4}$  tons<sup>a</sup> of silver, 600 bushels<sup>b</sup> of wheat, 600 gallons<sup>c</sup> of wine, 600 gallons of olive oil, and as much salt as Ezra wants. <sup>23</sup>Anything that the God of Heaven has ordered for Ezra to get, you must give to Ezra quickly and completely. Do this for the Temple of the God of Heaven. We don't want God to be angry with my kingdom or my sons.

<sup>24</sup>I want you men to know that it is against the law to make the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Temple servants, and other workers in God's Temple pay taxes. They don't have to pay taxes, money to honor the king, or any customs fees. <sup>25</sup>Ezra, I give you the authority to use the wisdom you have from your God and choose civil and religious judges. These men will be judges for all the people living in the area west of the Euphrates River. They will judge all the people who know the laws of your God and they will teach those who don't know those laws. <sup>26</sup>Anyone who does not obey the law of your God, or the law of the king, must be punished. Depending on the crime, they must be punished with death, or sent away to another country, or their property taken away, or put into prison.

Ezra Praises God

He put the idea into the king's heart to honor the LORD's Temple* in Jerusalem.

<sup>28</sup> The LORD showed his faithful love to me in front of the king, his advisors, and the king's important officials. The LORD God was with me, so I was brave. I gathered together the leaders of Israel to go with me to Jerusalem.

List of Leaders Returning With Ezra

8 <sup>1</sup>These are the names of the family leaders and the other people who came with me to Jerusalem from Babylon. We came to Jerusalem during the rule of King Artaxerxes. Here is the list of names: <sup>2</sup>from the descendants of Phinehas: Gershom; from the descendants of Ithamar: Daniel; from the descendants of David: Hattush; <sup>3</sup>from the descendants of Shecaniah: the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and 150 other men; <sup>4</sup>from the descendants of Pahath Moab: Eliehoenai son of Zerariah, and 200 other men; <sup>5</sup>from the descendants of Zattu: Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and 300 other men; <sup>6</sup>from the descendants of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 other men; <sup>7</sup>from the descendants of Elam: Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and 70 other men; <sup>8</sup>from the descendants of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 other men; <sup>9</sup>from the descendants of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel, and 218 other men; <sup>10</sup>from the descendants of Bani: Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and 160 other men; <sup>11</sup>from the descendants of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 other men; <sup>12</sup>from the descendants of Azgad: Johanan son of Hakkatan, and 110 other men; <sup>13</sup>from the last of the descendants of Adonikam: Eliphelet, Jeuel, Shemaiah, and 60 other men; <sup>14</sup>from the descendants of Bigvai: Uthai, Zaccur, and 70 other men.

The Return to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>I called all these people to meet together at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped at that place for three days. I learned there were priests in the group, but there were no Levites. <sup>16</sup>So I called these leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, and I called Joiarib and Elnathan. (These men were teachers.) <sup>17</sup>I sent the men to Iddo, leader in the town of Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, who are the Temple* workers in Casiphia. I told the men to ask Iddo and his relatives to send us workers to serve in God's Temple. <sup>18</sup>Because God was with us, they sent Sherebiah, a skilled man from the descendants of Mahli (Mahli was a son of Levi, one of Israel's sons.) They also sent his sons and brothers, 18 men in all. <sup>19</sup>They also sent Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, along with their brothers and nephews. In all there were 20 men. <sup>20</sup>Besides these, there were 220 Temple workers whose ancestors* had been chosen by David and his officials to help the Levites. The names of all these men were written on the list.

<sup>21</sup>There near the Ahava River, I announced that we all should fast.* We should fast to make ourselves humble before our God. We wanted to ask God for a safe trip for ourselves, our children, and for everything we owned. <sup>22</sup>I was embarrassed to ask King Artaxerxes for soldiers and horsemen to protect us as we traveled. There were enemies on the road. The reason I was embarrassed to ask for protection was because of what we had told the king. We had said to King Artaxerxes, "Our God is with everyone who trusts him, but he is very angry with everyone who turns away from him." <sup>23</sup>So we fasted and prayed to our God about our trip. He answered our prayers.

<sup>24</sup>Then I chose twelve of the priests who were leaders. I chose Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers. <sup>25</sup>I weighed the silver, gold, and the other things that were given for God's Temple. I gave them to the twelve priests I had chosen. King Artaxerxes, his advisors, his important officials, and all the Israelites in Babylon gave those things for God's Temple. <sup>26</sup>I weighed all these things. There were 25 tons<sup>a</sup> of silver. There were also 7500 pounds<sup>b</sup> of silver dishes and things. There were 3¼ tons of gold. <sup>27</sup>And I gave them 20 gold bowls. The bowls weighed about 19 pounds.<sup>c</sup> And I gave them two beautiful dishes made from polished bronze that were as valuable as gold. <sup>28</sup>Then I said to the twelve priests: "You and these things are holy to the LORD. People gave this silver and gold to the LORD, the God of your ancestors. <sup>29</sup>So guard these things carefully. You are responsible for them until you give them to the Temple leaders in Jerusalem. You will give them to the leading Levites and the family leaders of Israel. They will weigh them and put them in the rooms of the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem."

<sup>30</sup>So the priests and Levites accepted the silver, gold, and special things that Ezra had weighed and given to them. They were told to take them to God's Temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>35</sup>Then the Jewish people who came back from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They offered twelve bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 male lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering.* All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Then the people gave the letter from King Artaxerxes to the royal satraps* and to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. Then the leaders gave their support to the Israelites and to the Temple.

Marriages to Non-Jewish People

9<sup>1</sup>After we finished all these things, the leaders of the Israelites came to me and said, "Ezra, the Israelites have not kept themselves separate from the other people living around us. And the priests and the Levites have not kept themselves separate. The Israelites are being influenced by evil things done by the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. <sup>2</sup>The Israelites have married the people living around us. The Israelites are supposed to be special, but now they are mixed with the other people living around them. The leaders and important officials of the Israelites have set a bad example in this thing." <sup>3</sup>When I heard about this, I tore my robe and my coat to show I was upset. I pulled hair from my head and beard. I sat down, shocked and upset. <sup>4</sup>Then everyone who respected God's Law shook with fear. They were afraid because the Israelites who came back from captivity were not faithful to God. I was shocked and upset. I sat there until the evening sacrifice, and the people gathered around me.

<sup>5</sup>Then, when it was time for the evening sacrifice, I got up. I had made myself look shameful while I was sitting there. My robe and coat were torn, and I fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God. <sup>6</sup>Then I prayed this prayer:

"My God, I am too ashamed and embarrassed to look at you. I am ashamed because our sins are higher than our heads. Our guilt has reached all the way up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>We have been guilty of many sins from the days of our ancestors* until now. We sinned so our kings and priests were punished. Foreign kings attacked us and took our people away. They took away our wealth and made us ashamed. It is the same even today.

<sup>8</sup>But now, finally, you have been kind to us. You have let a few of us escape captivity and come to live in this holy place. LORD, you gave us new life and relief from our slavery. <sup>9</sup>Yes, we were slaves, but you would not let us be slaves forever. You were kind to us. You made the kings of Persia be kind to us. Your Temple* was ruined, but you gave us new life so that we can rebuild your Temple and repair it like new. God, you helped us build a wall to protect Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“Now, God, what can we say to you? We have stopped obeying you again. <sup>11</sup>You used your servants the prophets to give these commands to us. You said, “The land you are going to live in and own is a ruined land. It has been ruined by evil things the people living there have done. They have done very bad things in every place in this land. They have made this land dirty with their sins. <sup>12</sup>So Israelites, don’t let your children marry their children. Don’t join them. Don’t want the things they have. Obey my commands so that you will be strong and enjoy the good things of the land. And then you can keep this land and give it to your children.”

<sup>13</sup>“What has happened to us is our own fault. We have done evil things, and we have much guilt. But you, our God, have punished us much less than we should have been. We have done many terrible sins, and we should have been punished worse. And you have even let some of our people escape captivity. <sup>14</sup>So we know that we must not break your commands. We must not marry those people. They do very bad things. God, if we continue to marry these bad people, we know you will destroy us. Then there would be no one from the Israelites left alive.

<sup>15</sup>“LORD, God of Israel, you are good, and you still have let some of us live. Yes, we are guilty, and because of our guilt, not one of us should be allowed to stand in front of you.”

The People Confess Their Sin

10 <sup>1</sup>Ezra was praying and confessing. He was crying and bowing down in front of God’s Temple. While Ezra was doing that, a large group of the Israelites—men, women, and children—gathered around him. They were crying. <sup>2</sup>Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, spoke to Ezra and said, “We have not been faithful to our God. We have married the people living around us. But, even though we have done this, there is still hope for Israel. <sup>3</sup>Now let us make an agreement before our God to send away all these women and their children. We will do that to follow the advice of Ezra and the people who respect the laws of our God. We will obey God’s law. <sup>4</sup>Get up, Ezra. This is your responsibility, but we will support you. So be brave and do it.”

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra got up. He made the leading priests, the Levites, and all the Israelites promise to do what he said. <sup>6</sup>Then Ezra went away from the front of God’s house. He went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he didn’t eat food or drink water. He did that because he was still very sad. He was very sad about the Israelites who came back to Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>Then he sent a message to every place in Judah and Jerusalem. The message told all the Jewish people who had come back from captivity to meet together in Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>Those who did not come to Jerusalem in three days like the officials and elders said would lose their property and be removed from the group.

<sup>9</sup>So in three days all the men from the families of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month,<sup>a</sup> all the people met together in the Temple yard. They were very upset because of the reason for the meeting and because of the heavy rain. <sup>10</sup>Then Ezra the priest stood and said to them, “You people have not been faithful to God. You have married foreign women. You have made Israel more guilty by doing that. <sup>11</sup>Now you must confess your sins to the LORD, the God of your ancestors.* You must obey his command. Separate yourselves from the people living around you and from your foreign wives.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the whole group who met together answered Ezra. They shouted, “Ezra, you are right! We must do what you say. <sup>13</sup>But there are many people here. And it is the rainy time of year, so we cannot stay outside. This problem cannot be solved in a day or two because we have sinned in a very bad way. <sup>14</sup>Let our leaders decide for the whole group meeting here. Then let every man in our towns who married a foreign woman come here to Jerusalem at a planned time. Let them come here with the elders* and judges of their towns. Then God will stop being angry with us.”

<sup>15</sup>Only a few men were against this plan. They were Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah. Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite also were against the plan.

<sup>16</sup>So the Israelites who came back to Jerusalem accepted the plan. Ezra the priest chose men who were family leaders. He chose one man from each tribe. Each man was chosen by name. On the first day of the tenth month,<sup>b</sup> the men who were chosen sat down to study each of the cases. <sup>17</sup>And by the first day of the first month,<sup>c</sup> they finished discussing all the men who had married foreign women.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah's Prayer

1 <sup>1</sup>These are the words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: I, Nehemiah, was in the capital city of Susa in the month of Kislev. This was in the 20th year<sup>a</sup> that Artaxerxes was king. <sup>2</sup>While I was in Susa, one of my brothers named Hanani and some other men came from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had escaped captivity and still lived in Judah. I also asked them about the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>They answered, "Nehemiah, the Jews who escaped captivity and are in the land of Judah are in much trouble. They are having many problems and are full of shame because the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

<sup>4</sup>When I heard this about the people of Jerusalem and about the wall, I sat down and cried. I was very sad. I fasted* and prayed to the God of Heaven for several days. <sup>5</sup>Then I prayed this prayer:

"LORD, God of Heaven, you are the great and powerful God. You are the God who keeps his agreement of love with people who love you and obey your commands.

<sup>6</sup>"Please open your eyes and ears and listen to the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night. I am praying for your servants, the Israelites. I confess the sins we Israelites have done against you. I am confessing that I have sinned against you and that the other people in my father's family have sinned against you. <sup>7</sup>We Israelites have been very bad to you. We have not obeyed the commands, rules, and laws you gave your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup>"Please remember the teaching you gave your servant Moses. You said to him, 'If you Israelites are not faithful, I will force you to be scattered among the other nations. <sup>9</sup>But if you Israelites come back to me and obey my commands, this is what I will do: Even if your people have been forced to leave their homes and go to the ends of the earth, I will gather them from there. And I will bring them back to the place I have chosen to put my name.'

<sup>10</sup>“The Israelites are your servants and your people. You used your great power and rescued them. <sup>11</sup>So, Lord, please listen to my prayer. I am your servant. Please listen to the prayers of your servants who want to show respect for your name. You know I am the king’s wine servant,<sup>a</sup> so please help me today. Help me as I ask the king for help. Give me success and help me to be pleasing to the king.”

The King Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

2<sup>1</sup>In the month of Nisan* in the 20th year<sup>b</sup> of King Artaxerxes, some wine was brought to the king. I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had never before been sad when I was with him, but now I was sad. <sup>2</sup>So the king asked me, “Are you sick? Why do you look sad? I think your heart is full of sadness.”

Then I was very afraid. <sup>3</sup>But even though I was afraid, I said to the king, “May the king live forever! I am sad because the city where my ancestors* are buried lies in ruins, and the gates of that city have been destroyed by fire.”

Before I answered, I prayed to the God of Heaven. <sup>5</sup>Then I answered the king, “If it would please the king, and if I have been good to you, please send me to Jerusalem, the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried. I want to go there and rebuild that city.”

<sup>6</sup>The king and the queen who was sitting next to him asked me, “How long will your trip take? When will you get back here?”

The king was happy to send me, so I gave him a certain time. <sup>7</sup>I also said to the king, “If it would please the king to do something else for me, let me ask. Please give me some letters to show the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I need these letters so that the governors will give me permission to pass safely through their lands on my way to Judah. <sup>8</sup>I also need lumber for the heavy wooden beams for the gates, the walls, the walls around the Temple,* and my house. So I need a letter from you to Asaph, who is in charge of your forests.”

The king gave me the letters and everything I asked for. The king did that because God was kind to me.

<sup>9</sup>So I went to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River and gave them the letters from the king. The king had also sent army officers and soldiers on horses with me. <sup>10</sup>Sanballat from Horon and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about what I was doing. They were very upset and angry that someone had come to help the Israelites.

Nehemiah Inspects the Walls of Jerusalem

<sup>11-12</sup>I went to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. Then at night I started out with a few men. I had not said anything to anyone about what God had put on my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no horses with me except the horse I was riding. <sup>13</sup>While it was dark I went out through the Valley Gate. I rode toward the Dragon Well and the Gate of the Ash Piles. I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down and the gates in the wall that had been burned with fire. <sup>14</sup>Then I rode on toward the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool. As I got close, I could see there was not enough room for my horse to get through. <sup>15</sup>So I went up the valley in the dark, inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned back and went back in through the Valley Gate. <sup>16</sup>The officials and important Israelites didn’t know where I had gone. They didn’t know what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the king’s family, the officials, or any of the other people who would be doing the work.

<sup>18</sup>I also told them that God had been kind to me. I told them what the king had said to me. Then they answered, “Let’s start to work, now!” So we began this good work. <sup>19</sup>But Sanballat from Horon, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard that we were building again. They made fun of us in a very ugly way. They said, “What are you doing? Are you turning against the king?”

<sup>20</sup>But this is what I said to them: “The God of Heaven will help us succeed. We are God’s servants and we will rebuild this city. You cannot help us in this work because none of your family lived here in Jerusalem. You don’t own any of this land, and you have no right to be in this place.”

Builders of the Wall

3<sup>1</sup>The name of the high priest was Eliashib. He and his brothers the priests went to work and built the Sheep Gate. They prayed and made that gate holy to the Lord. They set its doors in place in the wall. The priests worked on the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. They prayed and made their work holy to the Lord.

They put doors on the building. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors.

Meshullam son of Berekiah repaired the next section of the wall. (Berekiah was the son of Meshezabel.)

Zadok son of Baana repaired the next section of the wall.

<sup>6</sup>Joiada and Meshullam fixed the Old Gate. Joiada is the son of Paseah and Meshullam is the son of Besodeiah. They set the beams in place. They put the doors on the hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors.

<sup>14</sup>Malkijah son of Recab repaired the Gate of Ash Piles. Malkijah was the governor of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He repaired the gate. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors.

<sup>15</sup>Shallun son of Col-Hozeh repaired the Fountain Gate. Shallun was the governor of the district of Mizpah. He repaired the gate and put a roof over it. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam that is next to the King's Garden. He repaired the wall all the way to the steps that go down from the City of David.*

<sup>16</sup>Nehemiah son of Azbuk repaired the next section. This Nehemiah was the governor of half the district of Beth Zur. He made repairs up to a place that is across from the tombs of David. And he worked as far as the man-made pool and the House of Heros.

<sup>17</sup>The men from the tribe of Levi repaired the next section. They worked under Rehum son of Bani. Hashabiah repaired the next section. Hashabiah was governor of half the district of Keilah. He made repairs for his own district.

to the houses of the Temple servants and the merchants.* That is across from the Inspection Gate. Malkijah repaired the section all the way to the room over the corner of the wall. Malkijah was a goldsmith. <sup>32</sup>The goldsmiths and the merchants repaired the section of wall between the room over the corner to the Sheep Gate.

Sanballat and Tobiah

4<sup>1</sup>When Sanballat heard that we were building the wall of Jerusalem, he was very angry and upset. He started making fun of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>Sanballat talked with his friends and the army at Samaria and said, “What are these weak Jews doing? Do they think we will leave them alone? Do they think they will offer sacrifices?” Maybe they think they can finish building in only one day. They cannot bring stones back to life from these piles of trash and dirt. These are just piles of ashes and dirt!”

<sup>3</sup>Tobiah the Ammonite was with Sanballat. Tobiah said, “What do these Jews think they are building? If even a small fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!”

<sup>4</sup>Nehemiah prayed and said, “Our God, listen to our prayer. These men hate us. Sanballat and Tobiah are insulting us. Make bad things happen to them. Make them ashamed, like people taken away as prisoners. <sup>5</sup>Don’t take away their guilt or forgive the sins they have done in your sight. They have insulted and discouraged the builders.”

<sup>6</sup>We built the wall of Jerusalem all the way around the city. But it was only half as tall as it should be. We did this much because the people worked with all their heart.

<sup>7</sup>But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the men from Ashdod were very angry. They heard that the people continued working on the walls of Jerusalem. They heard the people were repairing the holes in the wall. <sup>8</sup>So all these men got together and made plans against Jerusalem. They planned to stir up trouble against Jerusalem. They planned to come and fight against the city. <sup>9</sup>But we prayed to our God. And we put guards on the walls to watch day and night so that we could be ready to meet them.

<sup>10</sup>And so at that time the people of Judah said, “The workers are becoming tired. There is too much dirt and trash in the way. We cannot continue to build the wall. <sup>11</sup>And our enemies are saying, ‘Before the Jews know it or see us, we will be right there among them. We will kill them and that will stop the work.’”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Jews living among our enemies came and said this to us ten times, “Our enemies are all around us. They are everywhere we turn.”

the holes in the wall. I put families together, with their swords, spears, and bows. <sup>14</sup>After looking over everything, I stood up and spoke to the important families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “Don’t be afraid of our enemies. Remember the Lord, who is great and powerful! You must fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters! You must fight for your wives and your homes!”

<sup>15</sup>Then our enemies heard that we knew about their plans. They knew that God ruined their plans. So we all went back to work on the wall. Everyone went back to their own place and did their part. <sup>16</sup>From that day on, half of my men worked on the wall. The other half of my men were on guard, ready with spears, shields, bows, and armor.* The army officers stood behind all the people of Judah who were building the wall. <sup>17</sup>The builders and their helpers had their tools in one hand and a weapon in the other hand. <sup>18</sup>Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. The man who blew the trumpet to warn the people stayed next to me. <sup>19</sup>Then I spoke to the leading families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “This is a very big job and we are spread out along the wall. We are far from one another. <sup>20</sup>So if you hear the trumpet, run to that place. We will all meet together there, and God will fight for us!”

<sup>21</sup>So we continued to work on the wall of Jerusalem, and half the men held spears. We worked from the first light of the morning until the stars came out at night.

<sup>22</sup>At that time I also said this to the people, “Every builder and his helper must stay inside Jerusalem at night. Then they can be guards at night and workers during the day.” <sup>23</sup>So none of us took off our clothes—not me, not my brothers, not my men, and not the guards. Each of us had our weapon ready at all times, even when we went to get water.

Nehemiah Helps the Poor

5<sup>1</sup>Many of the poor people began to complain against their fellow Jews. <sup>2</sup>Some of them were saying, “We have many children. We must get some grain if we are going to eat and stay alive.”

<sup>4</sup>And still other people were saying, “We have to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. But we cannot afford to pay, so we are borrowing money to pay the tax. <sup>5</sup>We are as good as the others. Our sons are as good as their sons. But we will have to sell our sons and daughters as slaves. Some of us have already had to sell our daughters as slaves. There is nothing we can do. We have already lost our fields and vineyards. Other people own them now.”

angry. <sup>7</sup>I calmed myself down, and then I went to the rich families and the officials. I told them, "You are forcing your own people to pay interest on the money you loan them. You must stop doing that!" Then I called for all the people to meet together <sup>8</sup>and said to them, "Our fellow Jews were sold as slaves to people in other countries. We did our best to buy them back and make them free. And now, you are selling them like slaves again!"

The rich people and officials kept quiet. They could not find anything to say. <sup>9</sup>So I continued speaking. I said, "What you people are doing is not right! You know that you should fear and respect God. You should not do the shameful things other people do! <sup>10</sup>My men, my brothers, and I are also lending money and grain to the people. But let's stop forcing them to pay interest on these loans. <sup>11</sup>You must give their fields, vineyards, olive fields, and houses back to them, right now! And you must give back the interest you charged them. You charged them one percent for the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you loaned them."

<sup>12</sup>Then the rich people and the officials said, "We will give it back and not demand anything more from them. Nehemiah, we will do as you say."

Then I called the priests. I made the rich people and the officials promise to God that they would do what they said. <sup>13</sup>Then I shook out the folds of my clothes. I said, "God will do the same thing to everyone who does not keep their promise. God will shake them out of their houses and they will lose everything they worked for. They will lose everything!"

I finished saying these things and all the people agreed. They all said, "Amen" and praised the LORD. So the people did as they had promised.

<sup>14</sup>And also, during the whole time that I was appointed to be governor in the land of Judah, neither my brothers nor I ate the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay taxes to buy my food. I was governor from the 20th year until the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king.<sup>a</sup> I was governor of Judah for twelve years. <sup>15</sup>But the governors who ruled before me made life hard for the people. The governors forced everyone to pay 1 pound<sup>b</sup> of silver. They also made the people give them food and wine. The leaders under these governors also ruled over the people and made life even harder. But I respected and feared God, so I didn't do things like that. <sup>16</sup>I worked hard at building the wall of Jerusalem. All my men gathered there to work on the wall. We didn't take any land from anyone.

<sup>17</sup>Also, I regularly fed 150 Jews who were always welcome at my table, and I fed those who came to us from the nations around us.

<sup>18</sup>Every day I prepared this much food for the people who ate at my table: one ox, six good sheep, and different kinds of birds. Every ten days all kinds of wine were brought to my table. But I never demanded that they give me the food that was allowed for the governor. I knew that the work the people were doing was very hard. <sup>19</sup>God, remember all the good I have done for these people.

More Problems

6 <sup>1</sup>Then Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and our other enemies heard that I had built the wall. We repaired all the holes in the wall, but we had not yet put the doors in the gates. <sup>2</sup>So Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: "Come Nehemiah, let's meet together. We can meet in the town of Kephirim on the plain of Ono." But they were planning to hurt me.

<sup>3</sup>So I sent messengers to them with this answer: "I am doing important work, so I cannot come down. I don't want the work to stop just so I can come down and meet with you."

<sup>4</sup>Sanballat and Geshem sent the same message to me four times, and I sent the same answer back to them each time. <sup>5</sup>Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his helper to me with the same message. And he had a letter in his hand that was not sealed. <sup>6</sup>This is what the letter said: "There is a rumor going around. People are talking about it everywhere. And, by the way, Geshem says it is true. People are saying that you and the Jews are planning to turn against the king. This is why you are building the wall of Jerusalem. People are also saying that you will be the new king of the Jews. <sup>7</sup>And the rumor is that you have chosen prophets to announce this about you in Jerusalem: 'There is a king in Judah!'"

"Now I warn you, Nehemiah, King Artaxerxes will hear about this. So come, let's meet and talk about this together."

<sup>8</sup>So I sent this answer back to Sanballat: "Nothing you are saying is happening. You are just making all that up in your own head."

<sup>9</sup>Our enemies were only trying to make us afraid. They are thinking to themselves, "The Jews will be afraid and too weak to keep on working. Then the wall will not be finished."

But I prayed, "God, make me strong."

<sup>10</sup>One day I went to the house of a man named Shemaiah son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had to stay in his house. He said, "Nehemiah, let's meet in God's Temple.*

Let's go inside the Holy Place<sup>c</sup> and lock the doors.

Men are coming to kill you.
Tonight they are coming to kill you.”

<sup>11</sup>But I said to Shemaiah, “Should a man like me run away? You know that an ordinary man like me cannot go into the Holy Place without being put to death. I will not go!”

<sup>12</sup>I knew that God had not sent Shemaiah. I knew that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him to do that. <sup>13</sup>They hired Shemaiah to scare me and make me sin [by going into that part of the Temple]. They were planning those bad things against me so that they could shame me.

<sup>14</sup>God, please remember Tobiah and Sanballat and the bad things they have done. Also remember the woman prophet Noadiah and the other prophets who have been trying to scare me.

The Wall Is Finished

<sup>15</sup>So the wall of Jerusalem was completed on the 25th day of the month of Elul.<sup>a</sup> It had taken 52 days to finish building the wall. <sup>16</sup>Then all our enemies heard that we had completed the wall, and all the nations around us saw that it was finished. So they lost their courage, because they understood that this work had been done with the help of our God.

<sup>17</sup>Also in those days after the wall had been completed, the rich people of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and he was answering their letters. <sup>18</sup>They sent those letters because many people in Judah had promised to be loyal to him. The reason for this is because Tobiah was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah. And Tobiah's son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam. Meshullam is the son of Berekiah. <sup>19</sup>And in the past, those people had made a special promise to Tobiah. So they kept telling me how good Tobiah was. And they kept telling Tobiah what I was doing. Tobiah kept sending me letters to make me afraid.

7<sup>1</sup>After we finished building the wall and put the doors in the gates, we chose the men who would guard the gates and the men to sing in the Temple* and help the priests. <sup>2</sup>Next, I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem. I chose another man named Hananiah to be the commander of the fort. I picked Hanani because he was a very honest man and he feared God more than most people do. <sup>3</sup>Then I said to Hanani and Hananiah, “Each day you must wait until the sun has been up for several hours before you open the gates of Jerusalem. You must shut and lock the gates before the sun goes down. Also choose people who live in Jerusalem as guards. Put some of them at special places to guard the city, and put the other people near their own houses.”

The List of Captives Who Returned

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was large and there was plenty of room. But there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

<sup>5</sup>So my God put it in my heart to have all the people meet together. I called together all the important people, the officials, and the common people. I did this so that I could make a list of all the families. I found the family lists<sup>b</sup> of the people who had been the first to return from captivity. This is what I found written there:

---	-----

<sup>63</sup>From the family of priests there were the descendants of

<sup>64</sup>These people searched for their family histories, but they could not find them. They could not prove that their ancestors* were priests, so they could not serve as priests. Their names were not included in the list of priests. <sup>65</sup>The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most holy food until a priest could use the Urim* and Thummim* to ask God what to do.

<sup>73</sup>So the priests, the people from the tribe of Levi, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Temple servants settled down in their own towns. And all the other Israelites settled down in their own towns. By the seventh month<sup>f</sup> of the year, all the Israelites had settled down in their own towns.

Ezra Reads the Law

8<sup>1</sup>So all the Israelites met together in the seventh month of the year. They were united and in complete agreement. They all met together in the open place in front of the Water Gate. All the people asked Ezra the teacher to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had given to the Israelites. <sup>2</sup>So Ezra the priest brought the law before those who had met together. This was on the first day of the month.<sup>g</sup> It was the seventh month of the year. Men, women, and anyone old enough to listen and understand were at the meeting. <sup>3</sup>Ezra read in a loud voice from the Book of the Law from early morning until noon. He was facing the open place that was in front of the Water Gate. He read to all the men and women, and to everyone old enough to listen and understand. All the people listened carefully and paid attention to the Book of the Law.

<sup>g</sup>8:2 first day of the month This was a special day of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal.

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them on the high stage. As he opened the Book of the Law, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup>Ezra praised the LORD, the great God, and all the people held up their hands and said, "Amen! Amen!" Then all the people bowed down and put their faces low to the ground and they worshiped the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>These men from the tribe of Levi taught the people about the law as they were all standing there. The Levites were Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah. <sup>8</sup>They read the Book of the Law of God. They made it easy to understand, and explained what it meant. They did this so that the people could understand what was being read.

<sup>9</sup>Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher, and the Levites who were teaching the people spoke. They said, "Today is a special day<sup>a</sup> to the LORD your God. Don't be sad and cry." They said that because all the people had begun to cry as they were listening to the messages of God in the law.

<sup>10</sup>Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy the good food and sweet drinks. Give some food and drinks to those who didn't prepare any food. Today is a special day to the LORD. Don't be sad, because the joy of the LORD will make you strong."

<sup>12</sup>Then all the people went to eat the special meal. They shared their food and drinks. They were very happy and celebrated that special day. They finally understood the lessons from the LORD that the teachers had been trying to teach them.

<sup>13</sup>Then on the second day of the month,<sup>b</sup> the leaders of all the families went to meet with Ezra, the priests, and the Levites. They all gathered around Ezra the teacher to study the words of the law.

<sup>14-15</sup>They studied and found these commands in the law. The LORD gave this command to the people through Moses: In the seventh month of the year, the Israelites must go to Jerusalem to celebrate a special festival. They must live in temporary shelters. And the people are supposed to go through all of their towns and Jerusalem and say this: "Go out into the hill country and get branches from different kinds of olive trees. Get branches from myrtle trees, palm trees, and shade trees. Use the branches to make temporary shelters. Do what the law says."

<sup>16</sup>So the people went out and got tree branches. Then they built temporary shelters for themselves. They built shelters on their own roofs and in their own yards. And they built shelters in the Temple* yard, in the open place near the Water Gate, and near Ephraim Gate. <sup>17</sup>The whole group that had come back from captivity built shelters. They lived in the shelters they had built. Since the days of Joshua son of Nun up until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated the Festival of Shelters* like this. Everyone was very happy!

<sup>18</sup>Ezra read to them from the Book of the Law every day of the festival from the first day of the festival to the last day. The Israelites celebrated the festival for seven days. Then on the eighth day the people met together for a special meeting, as the law says.

The People of Israel Confess Their Sins

9<sup>1</sup>Then on the 24th day of that same month, the Israelites gathered together for a day of fasting.* They wore sackcloth* and put ashes on their heads to show they were sad and upset. <sup>2</sup>Those people who were true Israelites separated themselves from foreigners. The Israelites stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.* <sup>3</sup>They stood there for about three hours, and the people read the Book of the Law of the LORD their God. Then for three more hours they confessed their sins and bowed down to worship the LORD their God.

<sup>4</sup>Then these Levites stood on the stairs: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani. They called out to the LORD their God with loud voices. <sup>5</sup>Then these Levites spoke again: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said, "Stand up and praise the LORD your God!

"God has always lived and will live forever.
People should praise your glorious name.
May your name be lifted above all blessing and praise.

LORD, only you are God.
You made the sky and the highest heavens
and everything in them.
You made the earth
and everything on it.
You made the seas
and everything in them.
You give life to everything.
All the heavenly angels bow down and worship you.

<sup>7</sup> You are the LORD God.
You chose Abram.

<sup>a</sup>8:9 special day The first and second days of each month were special days of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal.

<sup>b</sup>8:13 second day of the month The first and second days of each month were special days of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal.

- You led him from Ur in Babylonia.
You changed his name to Abraham.
- 8 You saw he was true and loyal to you,
and you made an agreement with him.
You promised to give him the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and the Girgashites.
But you promised to give that land to Abraham's descendants.
And you kept your promise because you
are good.
- 9 You saw our ancestors suffering in Egypt and heard them call for help by the Red Sea.
- 10 You showed the miracles to Pharaoh.
You did amazing things to his officials and his people.
You knew that the Egyptians thought they were better than our ancestors.
But you proved how great you are,
and they remember that even today.
- 11 You split the Red Sea in front of them,
and they walked through on dry land.
The Egyptian soldiers were chasing them, but you threw that enemy into the
sea.
And they sank like a rock into the sea.
- 12 With the tall cloud, you led them by day, and at night you used the column of fire.
That is the way you lit their path and showed them where to go.
- 13 Then you came down to Mount Sinai.
You spoke to them from heaven.
You gave them good laws.
You gave them true teachings.
You gave them laws and commands that were very good.
- 14 You told them about your special day of rest—the Sabbath.
Through your servant Moses, you gave them commands, laws, and teachings.
- 15 They were hungry,
so you gave them food from heaven.
They were thirsty,
so you gave them water from a rock.
You told them,
'Come, take this land.'
You used your power,
and took the land for them.
- 16 But our ancestors became proud and stubborn.
They refused to obey your commands.
- 17 They refused to listen.
They forgot the amazing things you did with them.
They became stubborn.
They decided to return to Egypt and become slaves again.
- "But you are a forgiving God!
You are kind and full of mercy.
You are patient and full of love.
So you didn't leave them!
- 18 You didn't leave them even when they made golden calves and said,
'These are the gods that led us out of Egypt.'
- 19 You are very kind,
so you didn't leave them in the desert.
You didn't take the tall cloud away from them by day.
You continued to lead them.
You didn't take the column of fire away from them at night.
You continued to light their path and show them which way to go.
- 20 You gave them your good Spirit to make them wise.
You gave them manna* for food.
You gave them water for their thirst.
- 21 You took care of them for 40 years.
They had all they needed in the desert.
Their clothes didn't wear out,
and their feet didn't swell and hurt.
- 22 You gave them kingdoms and nations, and you gave them faraway places
where few people live.
They got the land of King Sihon of Heshbon.
They got the land of King Og of Bashan.
- 23 You made their descendants
as many as the stars in the sky.
You brought them to the land
you promised to give their ancestors.
They went in and took that land.
- 24 Their children took the land.
They defeated the Canaanites living there.
You let them defeat those people.
You let them do whatever they wanted to those nations, people, and kings.
- 25 They defeated powerful cities.
They took the fertile land.
They got houses filled with good things.
They got wells that were already dug.
They got vineyards,* olive trees, and plenty of fruit trees.
They ate until they were full and fat.
They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them.
- 26 And then they turned against you.
They threw away your teachings.
They killed your prophets.
Those prophets warned the people.
They tried to bring them back to you.
But our ancestors said terrible things against you.
- 27 So you let their enemies have them.
The enemy caused them much trouble.
When trouble came, our ancestors called to you for help.
And in heaven, you heard them.
You are very kind,
so you sent people to save them.
And they rescued them from their enemies.
- 28 Then as soon as our ancestors were rested,
they started doing terrible things again!

So you let the enemy defeat them and punish them.

They called to you for help,
and in heaven you heard them and helped them.

You are so kind.

That happened so many times.

29 You warned them.

You told them to come back,

but they were too proud.

They refused to listen to your commands.

If people obey your laws,
they will live.

But our ancestors broke your laws.

They were stubborn.

They turned their backs on you.

They refused to listen.

30 "You were very patient with our ancestors.

You let them mistreat you for many years.

You warned them with your Spirit.

You sent the prophets to warn them.

But our ancestors didn't listen.

So you gave them to people in other countries.

31 "But you are so kind!

You didn't completely destroy them.

You didn't leave them.

You are such a kind and merciful God!

32 Our God, you are the great God,

the awesome, powerful soldier!

You are kind and loyal.

You keep your agreement.

We have had many troubles,
and our troubles are important to you.

Bad things happened to all our people, and to our kings and leaders,

and to our priests and prophets.

Those terrible things have happened from the days of the king of Assyria until today!

33 But God, you were right about everything that happened to us.

You were right,

and we were wrong.

34 Our kings, leaders, priests, and fathers did not obey your law.

They didn't listen to your commands.

They ignored your warnings.

35 Our ancestors didn't serve you even when they were living in their own kingdom.

They didn't stop doing evil.

They enjoyed all the wonderful things
you gave them.

They enjoyed the rich land and had plenty of room,

but they didn't stop their evil ways.

36 And now, we are slaves.

We are slaves in this land,
the land you gave our ancestors

so they could enjoy its fruit and all the good things that grow here.

37 The harvest is big in this land.

But we sinned, so that harvest goes to the kings you put over us.

They control us and our cattle.

They do anything they want.

We are in a lot of trouble.

38 Because of all these things, we are making an agreement that cannot be changed.

We are putting this agreement in writing.

Our leaders, Levites, and priests are signing their names to this agreement

<sup>28-29</sup>So all these people now make this special promise to God. And they all ask for bad things to happen if they don't keep their promise. All these people promise to follow the law of God. That law of God was given to us through Moses his servant. These people promise to carefully obey all the commands, rules, and teachings of the LORD our God. Now, these are the people who are making this promise: The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, Temple* servants, and all the Israelites who separated themselves from the people living around them. They have separated themselves to obey God's law. Their wives, sons, and daughters who are able to listen and understand also did this. All these people joined their brothers and the important people to accept for themselves the promise to obey God's law. And they accepted the curse that asks for bad things to happen to them if they don't obey God's law.

<sup>30</sup>"We promise not to let our daughters marry the people living around us. And we promise not to let our sons marry their daughters.

<sup>31</sup>"We promise not to work on the Sabbath* day. If the people living around us bring grain or other things to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy them on that special day or on any other festival. Every seventh year,<sup>a</sup> we will not plant or work the land. And every seventh year, we will cancel every debt that other people owe to us.

<sup>32</sup>"We will accept the responsibility for obeying the commands to take care of God's Temple. We will give  $\frac{1}{3}$  shekel<sup>b</sup> of silver each year to support the Temple service to honor our God. <sup>33</sup>This money will pay for the special bread that the priests put on the table in the Temple. It will pay for the daily grain offerings and burnt offerings.\* It will pay for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon\* celebrations, and other special meeting days. It will pay for the holy offerings and for the sin offerings\* that make the Israelites pure.\* It will pay for any work needed on the Temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup>"We, the priests, the Levites, and the people have thrown lots* to decide when each of our families is to bring a gift of wood to the Temple of our God at certain times each year. The wood is to burn on the altar of the LORD our God. We must do that just as it is written in the law.

<sup>35</sup>"We also accept the responsibility of bringing the first part of our harvest, whether from the grain in our fields or the fruit from our trees. We will bring them to the LORD's Temple each year.

<sup>36</sup>"Just as it is also written in the law, this is what we will do: We will bring our firstborn* sons and our firstborn cattle, sheep, and goats. We will bring these to the Temple of our God, to the priests who are serving there.

<sup>37</sup>"And we will also bring the first part of our harvest to priests to put in the storage rooms of the LORD's Temple. We will bring the first of our ground meal, the first of our grain offerings, the first fruit from our trees, and the first of our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites, because they are the ones who collect these things in all the towns where we work.

<sup>38</sup>A priest from the family of Aaron must be with the Levites when they receive the crops. Then the Levites must bring the crops to the Temple of our God and put them in the storerooms of the Temple treasury. <sup>39</sup>The Israelites and the Levites must bring their gifts to the storerooms. They are to bring their gifts of grain, new wine, and oil. All the things for the Temple are kept in the storerooms, and that is where the priests who are on duty stay. The singers and gatekeepers also stay there.

"We all promise that we will take care of the Temple of our God."

New People Move Into Jerusalem

11 <sup>1</sup>Now the leaders of the Israelites moved into the city of Jerusalem. The other Israelites had to decide who else would move into the city. So they threw lots,* and one out of every ten people had to live in Jerusalem, the holy city. The other nine people could live in their own hometowns. <sup>2</sup>Some people volunteered to live in Jerusalem. The other people thanked and blessed them for volunteering.

<sup>3</sup>Here are the leaders of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem. (Some of the Israelites, priests, Levites, Temple* servants, and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in the towns of Judah. Everyone lived on their own land in the different towns. <sup>4</sup>And other people from the families of Judah and Benjamin lived in the city of Jerusalem.)

These are the descendants of Judah who moved into Jerusalem: Athaiah son of Uziah (the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Shephatiah, who was the son of Mahalalel, who was a descendant of Perez) <sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah son of Baruch (the son of Col-Hozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah, who was the son of Adaiah, who was the son of Joiarib, who was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Shelah). <sup>6</sup>The number of Perez's descendants living in Jerusalem was 468. All of them were brave men.

<sup>7</sup>These are the descendants of Benjamin who moved into Jerusalem: Sallu son of Meshullam (the son of Joed, who was the son of Pedaiah, who was the son of Kolaiah, who was the son of Maaseiah, who was the son of Ithiel, who was the son of Jeshaiiah), <sup>8</sup>and those who followed Jeshaiiah were Gabbai and Sallai. All together there were 928 men. <sup>9</sup>Joel son of Zicri was in charge of them. And Judah son of Hassenuah was in charge of the Second District of the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>These are the priests who moved into Jerusalem: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin, <sup>11</sup>and Seraiah son of Hilkiyah (the son of Meshullam, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Meraioth, who was the son of Ahitub), who was the supervisor in the Temple of God, <sup>12</sup>and 822 men of their brothers that did the work for the Temple, and Adaiah son of Jeroham (the son of Pelaliah, who was the son of Amzi, who was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Pashhur, who was the son of Malkijah), <sup>13</sup>and 242 men who were Adaiah's brothers (leaders of their families), Amashsai son of Azarel (the son of Ahzai, who was the son of Meshillemoth, who was the son of Immer), <sup>14</sup>and 128 of Amashsai's brothers.

<sup>20</sup>The other Israelites, and the other priests and Levites, lived in all the towns of Judah. Everyone lived on the land that their ancestors* had owned. <sup>21</sup>The Temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel. Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the Temple servants.

<sup>22</sup>The officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bani (the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Mica). Uzzi was a descendant of Asaph. Asaph's descendants were the singers who were responsible for the service in God's Temple. <sup>23</sup>The singers obeyed orders from the king, which told them what to do from day to day. <sup>24</sup>Pethahiah son of Meshezabel told the people what the king wanted done. (Meshezabel was one of the descendants of Zerach. Zerach was Judah's son.)

Priests and Levites

The leader of Seraiah's family was Meraiah.

The leader of Jeremiah's family was Hananiah.

<sup>22</sup>The names of the leaders of the families of the Levites and the priests in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were written down during the rule of Darius the Persian king. <sup>23</sup>The family leaders among the descendants of the Levites and up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were written in the history book. <sup>24</sup>And these were the leaders of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers. Their brothers stood across from them to sing praise and honor to God. One group answered the other group. That is what was commanded by David the man of God.

<sup>25</sup>The gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms next to the gates were Mattaniah, Bakkukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub. <sup>26</sup>They served in the days of Joiakim. Joiakim was the son of Jeshua, who was the son of Jozadak. And the gatekeepers also served in the days of Nehemiah the governor and in the days of Ezra the priest and teacher.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

<sup>27</sup>The people dedicated* the wall of Jerusalem. They brought all the Levites to Jerusalem. The Levites came from the towns they lived in. They came to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem. They came to sing songs of praise and thanks to God. They played their cymbals,* harps, and lyres.*

<sup>28-29</sup>And all the singers also came to Jerusalem. They came from the towns all around Jerusalem. They came from the town of Netophah, from Beth Gilgal, Geba, and Azmaveth. The singers had built small towns for themselves in the area around Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>So the priests and Levites made themselves pure in a ceremony. Then they also made the people, the gates, and the wall of Jerusalem pure in a ceremony.

<sup>31</sup>I told the leaders of Judah to go up and stand on top of the wall. I also chose two large singing groups to give thanks to God. One group was to start going up on top of the wall on the right side, toward the Ash Pile Gate. <sup>32</sup>Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed the singers. <sup>33</sup>Also following them were Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, <sup>34</sup>Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. <sup>35</sup>And some of the priests with trumpets also followed them up to the wall. Zechariah also followed them. (Zechariah was the son of Jonathan, who was the son of Shemaiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Micaiah, who was the son of Zaccur, who was the son of Asaph.) <sup>36</sup>There were also Asaph's brothers, who were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. They had the musical instruments that David, the man of God, had made. Ezra the teacher led the group of people who were there to dedicate the wall. <sup>37</sup>They went to the Fountain Gate and walked up the stairs all the way to the City of David.* They were on top of the city wall. They walked over the house of David and went toward the Water Gate.

<sup>38</sup>The second group of singers started out in the other direction, to the left. I followed them as they went up to the top of the wall. Half of the people also followed them. They went past the Tower of Ovens to the Broad

Wall. <sup>39</sup>Then they went over these gates: the Gate of Ephraim, the Old Gate, and the Fish Gate. And they went over the Tower of Hanel and the Tower of the Hundred. They went as far as the Sheep Gate and stopped at the Guard Gate. <sup>40</sup>Then the two singing groups went to their places in God's Temple.* And I stood in my place. And half the officials stood in their places in the Temple. <sup>41</sup>Then these priests stood in their places: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Mijamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah. These priests had their trumpets with them. <sup>42</sup>Then these priests stood in their places in the Temple: Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer.

Then two singing groups began singing with Jezrahiah leading them. <sup>43</sup>So on that special day, the priests offered many sacrifices.* Everyone was very happy because God had made them happy. Even the women and children were excited and happy. People far away could hear the happy sounds coming from Jerusalem.

<sup>44</sup>Men were chosen to be in charge of the storerooms on that day. People brought the first part of the harvest and a tenth of their crops. So the men in charge put these things in the storerooms. The Jewish people were very happy about the priests and Levites on duty. So they brought many things to be put in the storerooms. <sup>45</sup>The priests and Levites did their work for their God. They did the ceremonies that made people pure, and the singers and gatekeepers did their part. They did everything that David and Solomon had commanded. <sup>46</sup>(Long ago, in the days of David, Asaph had been the director. And he had many songs of praise and thanks to God.)

<sup>47</sup>So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all the Israelites gave every day to support the singers and gatekeepers. The people also set aside the money for the other Levites. And the Levites set aside the money for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah's Last Commands

13 <sup>1</sup>On that day the Book of Moses was read out loud, so that all the people could hear. They found this law written there: No Ammonite and no Moabite would be permitted to join in the meetings with God. <sup>2</sup>That law was written because those people didn't give the Israelites food and water. And they had paid Balaam to say a curse* against the Israelites. But our God changed that curse and made it a blessing for us. <sup>3</sup>So when the Israelites heard that law, they obeyed it. They separated themselves from the people who were descendants of foreigners.

<sup>4-5</sup>But, before that happened, Eliashib had given a room in the Temple* to Tobiah. Eliashib was the priest in charge of the storerooms in God's Temple. And he was a close friend of Tobiah. That room had been used for storing the grain offerings, incense, and the Temple dishes and things. They also kept the tenth of grain, new wine, and oil for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers in that room. And they also kept the gifts for the priests in that room. But Eliashib gave that room to Tobiah.

<sup>6</sup>I was not in Jerusalem while all of this was happening. I had gone back to the king of Babylon. I went back to Babylon in the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king of Babylon.<sup>a</sup> Later, I asked the king for permission to go back to Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>So I came back to Jerusalem. There I heard about the sad thing that Eliashib had done. He had given Tobiah a room in the Temple of our God! <sup>8</sup>I was very angry about what Eliashib had done, so I threw all of Tobiah's things out of the room. <sup>9</sup>I gave commands for the rooms to be made pure and clean. Then I put the Temple dishes and things, the grain offerings, and the incense back into the rooms.

<sup>10</sup>I also heard that the people had not given the Levites their share. So the Levites and singers had gone back to work in their own fields. <sup>11</sup>So I told the officials that they were wrong. I asked them, "Why didn't you take care of God's Temple?" Then I called all Levites together and told them to go back to their places and duties in the Temple. <sup>12</sup>Then everyone in Judah brought their tenth of grain, new wine, and oil to the Temple. These things were put into the storerooms.

<sup>13</sup>I put these men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher, and a Levite named Pedaiah. And I made Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, their helper. I knew I could trust these men. They were responsible for giving the supplies to their relatives.

<sup>14</sup>God, please remember me for these things I have done. Don't forget all I have faithfully done for the Temple of my God and for its services.

<sup>15</sup>In those days in Judah, I saw people working on the Sabbath* day. I saw people pressing grapes to make wine. I saw people bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys. I saw people carrying grapes, figs, and all kinds of things in the city. They were bringing all these things into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, so I warned them about this. I told them they must not sell food on the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup>There were some men from the city of Tyre living in Jerusalem. They were bringing fish and all kinds of things into Jerusalem and selling them on the Sabbath day. And the Jews were buying them. <sup>17</sup>I told the important people of Judah that they were wrong. I said, "You are doing a very bad thing. You are ruining the Sabbath day. <sup>18</sup>You know that your ancestors* did the same things. That is why our God brought all the troubles and disaster to us and to this city. Now you people are making it so that more of these bad things will happen to Israel. They are doing this because you are breaking the Sabbath by treating it just as if it were any other day."

<sup>19</sup>So this is what I did: Every Friday evening, just before dark, I commanded the gatekeepers to shut and lock the gates to Jerusalem. They were not to be opened until the Sabbath day was over. I put some of my own men at the gates. They were commanded to make sure that no load was brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup>One or two times, traders and merchants* had to stay the night outside Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>But I warned them, "Don't stay the night in front of the wall. If you do that again, I will arrest you." So from that time on they didn't come on the Sabbath day to sell their things.

<sup>22</sup>Then I commanded the Levites to make themselves pure. After they did that, they were to go and guard the gates. This was done to make sure the Sabbath day was kept a holy day.

God, please remember me for doing this. Be kind to me and show me your great love!

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also noticed that some Jewish men had married women from the countries of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. <sup>24</sup>And half of the children from those marriages didn't know how to speak the Jewish language. They spoke the language of Ashdod, Ammon, or Moab. <sup>25</sup>So I told the men that they were wrong. I said bad things to them. I hit some of them, and I pulled out their hair. I forced them to make a promise in God's name. I said to them, "You must not marry the daughters of these foreigners. Don't let their daughters marry your sons, and don't let your daughters marry the sons of these foreigners. <sup>26</sup>You know that marriages like this caused Solomon to sin. In all the many nations, there was not a king as great as Solomon. God loved him and made him king over the whole nation of Israel. But even Solomon was made to sin because of foreign women. <sup>27</sup>And now, we hear that you also are doing this terrible sin. You are not being true to God. You are marrying foreign women."

<sup>28</sup>Joiada was the son of Eliashib the high priest. One of Joiada's sons was a son-in-law of Sanballat from Horon. I forced him to leave this place. I forced him to run away.

<sup>29</sup>My God, punish these people. They made the priesthood unclean. They treated it as if it was not important. They did not obey the agreement that you made with the priests and Levites. <sup>30</sup>So I made the priests and Levites clean and pure. I took away all the foreigners and the strange things they taught. And I gave the Levites and priests their own duties and responsibilities. <sup>31</sup>And I made sure that people will bring gifts of wood and the first part of their harvest at the right times.

My God, remember me for doing these good things.

Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

<sup>10-11</sup>On the seventh day of the party, King Xerxes was in high spirits from drinking wine. He gave a command to the seven eunuchs* who served him. The eunuchs were Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas. He commanded them to bring Queen Vashti to him wearing her royal crown. She was to come so that she could show her beauty to the leaders and important people. She was very beautiful.

<sup>12</sup>But when the eunuchs told Queen Vashti about the king's command, she refused to come. Then the king was very angry. <sup>13-14</sup>It was the custom for the king to ask the advice of the experts about the law and punishments. So King Xerxes spoke with the wise men who understood the laws. They were very close to the king. Their names were Carshena, Shet-har, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven most important officials of Persia and Media. They had special privileges to see the king. They were the highest officials in the kingdom. <sup>15</sup>The king asked them, "What does the law say must be done to Queen Vashti? She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs had taken to her."

<sup>16</sup>Then Memucan answered the king with the other officials listening, "Queen Vashti has done wrong. She has done wrong against the king and also against all the leaders and people of all the provinces of King Xerxes.

<sup>17</sup>I say this, because all the other women will hear about what Queen Vashti did. Then they will stop obeying their husbands. They will say to their husbands, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him, but she refused to come.'

<sup>18</sup>"Today the wives of the Persian and Median leaders have heard what the queen did, and these women will be influenced by what she did. They will do the same thing to the king's important leaders. And there will be plenty of disrespect and anger.

<sup>21</sup>The king and his important officials were happy with this advice, so King Xerxes did as Memucan suggested. <sup>22</sup>King Xerxes sent letters to all parts of the kingdom. He sent them to each province, written in its own language. He sent them to each nation in its own language. These letters announced in each person's language that every man was to be the ruler over his own family.

Esther Made Queen

2 <sup>1</sup>Later, King Xerxes stopped being angry. Then he remembered Vashti and what she had done. He remembered his commands about her. <sup>2</sup>Then the king's personal servants had a suggestion. They said, "Search for beautiful young virgins* for the king. <sup>3</sup>Let the king choose leaders in every province of his kingdom. Then let the leaders bring every beautiful young virgin to the capital city of Susa. These young women will be put with the group of the king's women. They will be under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch,* who is in charge of the women. Then give beauty treatments to all of them. <sup>4</sup>Then let the one who is pleasing to the king become the new queen in Vashti's place." The king liked this suggestion, so he accepted it.

<sup>5</sup>Now there was a Jew from the tribe of Benjamin named Mordecai. Mordecai was the son of Jair, and Jair was the son of Shimei, and Shimei was the son of Kish. Mordecai was in the capital city, Susa. <sup>6</sup>Mordecai had been carried into captivity from Jerusalem by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He was with the group that was taken into captivity with King Jehoiachin of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah. She didn't have a father or a mother, so Mordecai took care of her. Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter when her father and mother died. Hadassah was also called Esther. She had a very pretty face and a good figure.

<sup>8</sup>When the king's command had been heard, many young women were brought to the capital city of Susa. They were put under the care of Hegai. Esther was one of these women. She was taken to the king's palace and put into Hegai's care. Hegai was in charge of the king's women. <sup>9</sup>He liked Esther. She became his favorite, so he quickly gave Esther beauty treatments and special food. He chose seven slave women from the king's palace and gave them to Esther. Then he moved Esther and her seven women servants into the best place where the king's women lived. <sup>10</sup>Esther didn't tell anyone she was a Jew. She didn't tell anyone about her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to. <sup>11</sup>Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the area where the king's women lived. He did this because he wanted to find out how Esther was, and what was happening to her.

<sup>12</sup>Before a young woman could take her turn to go in before King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments—six months with oil of myrrh* and six months with perfumes and cosmetics. <sup>13</sup>When her time came to go in to the king, she could choose to wear or take whatever she wanted from the women's living area. <sup>14</sup>In the evening the young woman would go to the king's palace. And in the morning she would return to another area where the king's women lived. Then she would be placed under the care of a man named Shaashgaz. He was the king's eunuch in charge of the slave women.* She would not go back to the king again unless he was pleased with her. Then he would call her by name to come back to him.

<sup>15</sup>The time came for Esther to go to the king. She was the one Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail. All she wanted to take with her was what Hegai, the king's officer in charge of the women, suggested. Everyone who saw Esther liked her. <sup>16</sup>So Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the palace. This happened in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.

<sup>17</sup>The king loved Esther more than any of the other young women, and she became his favorite. He approved of her more than any of the others. So King Xerxes put a crown on Esther's head and made her the new queen in place of Vashti. <sup>18</sup>And the king gave a big party for Esther. It was for all his important people and leaders. He announced a festival in all the provinces and sent out gifts to people, because he was a generous king.

Mordecai Learns About an Evil Plan

<sup>19</sup>Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate at the time the young women were gathered together the second time. <sup>20</sup>Esther had still kept it a secret that she was a Jew. She had not told anyone about her family background. This is what Mordecai had told her to do. She still obeyed Mordecai just as she had done when he was taking care of her.

<sup>21</sup>During the time Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate, this happened: Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry with the king. They began to make plans to kill King Xerxes. <sup>22</sup>But Mordecai learned about these plans and told Queen Esther. Then she told the king. She also told him that Mordecai was the one who had learned about the evil plan. <sup>23</sup>Then the report was checked out. It was learned that Mordecai's report was true. The two guards who had planned to kill the king were hanged on a post. All these things were written down in a book of the king's histories in front of the king.

Haman's Plan to Destroy the Jews

3 <sup>1</sup>After these things happened, King Xerxes honored Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite. The king promoted Haman and gave him a place of honor more important than any of the other leaders. <sup>2</sup>All the king's leaders at the king's gate would bow down and give honor to Haman. This is what the king commanded them to do. But Mordecai refused to bow down or give honor to Haman. <sup>3</sup>Then the king's leaders at the gate asked Mordecai, "Why don't you obey the king's command to bow down to Haman?"

<sup>4</sup>Day after day, the king's leaders spoke to Mordecai, but he refused to obey the command to bow down to Haman. So they told Haman about it. They wanted to see what Haman would do about Mordecai. Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup>When Haman saw that Mordecai refused to bow down to him or give him honor, he was very angry. <sup>6</sup>Haman had learned that Mordecai was a Jew. But he was not satisfied to only kill Mordecai. He also wanted to find a way to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, in all of Xerxes' kingdom.

<sup>7</sup>In the twelfth year of King Xerxes' rule, in the first month, the month of Nisan,* Haman threw lots* to choose a special day and month. And the twelfth month, the month of Adar was chosen. (At that time the lot was called "pur.") <sup>8</sup>Then Haman came to King Xerxes and said, "King Xerxes, there is a certain group of people scattered among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. They keep themselves separate from other people. Their customs are different from those of all other people. And they don't obey the king's laws. It is not right for the king to allow them to continue to live in your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>"If it pleases the king, I have a suggestion: Give a command to destroy these people. And I will put 750,000 pounds<sup>a</sup> of silver into the king's treasury. This money could be used to pay the men who do these things."

<sup>10</sup>So the king took the official ring off his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite. Haman was the enemy of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>Then the king said to Haman, "Keep the money. Do what you want with them."

<sup>12</sup>Then on the 13th day of the first month the king's secretaries were called. They wrote out all of Haman's commands in the language of each province. And they wrote them in the language of each group of people. They wrote to the king's satraps,* the governors of the different provinces, and the leaders of the different groups of people. They wrote with the authority of King Xerxes himself, and sealed the commands with the king's own ring.

<sup>14</sup>A copy of the letters with the command was to be given as a law. It was to be a law in every province and announced to the people of every nation living in the kingdom. Then everyone would be ready for that day. <sup>15</sup>At the king's command the messengers hurried off. The command was given in the capital city of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

4<sup>1</sup>When Mordecai heard about all that had been done, he tore his clothes. Then he put on sackcloth,* put ashes on his head, and went out into the city crying loudly. <sup>2</sup>But Mordecai went only as far as the king's gate. No one was allowed to enter the gate dressed in sackcloth. <sup>3</sup>In every province where the king's command had come, there was much crying and sadness among the Jews. They were fasting* and crying loudly. Many Jews were lying on the ground dressed in sackcloth with ashes on their heads.

<sup>4</sup>Esther's slave women and eunuchs* came to her and told her about Mordecai. This made Queen Esther very sad and upset. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of the sackcloth, but he would not accept them. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been chosen to serve her. She commanded him to find out what was bothering Mordecai, and why. <sup>6</sup>So Hathach went out to where Mordecai was in the open place of the city in front of the king's gate. <sup>7</sup>Then Mordecai told Hathach everything that had happened to him. Mordecai told him about the exact amount of money Haman had promised to put into the king's treasury for killing Jews. <sup>8</sup>Mordecai also gave Hathach a copy of the king's command to kill the Jews. The command had been sent out all over the city of Susa. He wanted Hathach to show it to Esther and tell her everything. And he told him to encourage Esther to go to the king and beg him for mercy for Mordecai and her people.

<sup>10</sup>Then Esther told Hathach to say this to Mordecai: <sup>11</sup>"Mordecai, all the king's leaders and all the people of the king's provinces know this: The king has one law for any man or woman who goes to the king without being called. That person must be put to death unless the king holds out his gold scepter* to them. If the king does this, that person's life will be saved. And I have not been called to go see the king for 30 days."

<sup>12-13</sup>Then Esther's message was given to Mordecai. When he got her message, Mordecai sent his answer back: "Esther, don't think that just because you live in the king's palace you will be the only Jew to escape. <sup>14</sup>If you keep quiet now, help and freedom for the Jews will come from another place. But you and your father's family will all die. And who knows, maybe you have been chosen to be the queen for such a time as this."

<sup>15-16</sup>Then Esther sent this answer to Mordecai: "Mordecai, go and get all the Jews in Susa together, and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days and nights. I and my women servants will fast too. After we fast, I will go to the king. I know it is against the law to go to the king if he didn't call me, but I will do it anyway. If I die, I die."

Esther Speaks to the King

5 <sup>1</sup>On the third day, Esther put on her special robes. Then she stood in the inside area of the king's palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his throne in the hall, facing the place where people enter the throne room. <sup>2</sup>When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter* that was in his hand. So Esther went in to the room and went near the king. Then she touched the end of the king's gold scepter.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king asked, "What is bothering you Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you anything you ask for, even half my kingdom."

<sup>4</sup>Esther said, "I have prepared a party for you and Haman. Will you and Haman please come to the party today?"

So the king and Haman went to the party Esther had prepared for them. <sup>6</sup>While they were drinking wine, the king asked her again, "Now Esther, what do you want to ask for? Ask for anything, I will give it to you. So what is it you want? I will give you anything you want, up to half my kingdom."

<sup>7</sup>Esther answered, "This is what I want to ask for: <sup>8</sup>If the king is pleased with me and thinks it good to give me what I ask for, let the king and Haman come tomorrow. I will prepare another party for them. Then I will tell what I really want."

Haman's Anger at Mordecai

<sup>9</sup>Haman left the king's palace that day very happy and in a good mood. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate, he became very angry. Haman was very mad at him because Mordecai didn't show any respect when Haman walked by. Mordecai was not afraid of Haman, and this made Haman mad. <sup>10</sup>But Haman controlled his anger and went home. Then Haman called together his friends and his wife, Zeresh. <sup>11</sup>Haman started bragging about how rich he was. He was bragging to his friends about his many sons, and about all the ways the king had honored him. And he was bragging about how the king had promoted him higher than all the other leaders. <sup>12</sup>"And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only one Queen Esther invited to be with the king at the party she gave. And the Queen also has invited me to be with the king again tomorrow. <sup>13</sup>But all these things don't really make me happy. I'm not really happy as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>14</sup>Then Haman's wife Zeresh and all his friends had a suggestion. They said, "Tell someone to build a post to hang him on. Make it 75 feet<sup>a</sup> tall. In the morning, ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. Then go to the party with the king and you can be happy."

Haman liked this suggestion, so he ordered someone to build the hanging post.

Mordecai Is Honored

6 <sup>1</sup>That same night, the king could not sleep. So he told a servant to bring the history book and read it to him. (The Book of History of the Kings lists everything that happens during a king's rule.) <sup>2</sup>The servant read the book to the king. He read about the evil plan to kill King Xerxes. That was when Mordecai had learned about Bigthana and Teresh. These two men were the king's officers who guarded the doorway. They had planned to kill the king, but Mordecai learned about the plan and told someone about it.

The servants answered the king, "Nothing has been done for Mordecai."

<sup>4</sup>Haman had just entered the outer area of the king's palace. He had come to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the hanging post Haman had commanded to be built. The king said, "Who just came into the courtyard?" <sup>5</sup>The king's servants said, "Haman is standing in the courtyard."

So the king said, "Bring him in."

<sup>6</sup>When Haman came in, the king asked him a question. He said, "Haman, what should be done for a man the king wants to honor?"

Haman thought to himself, "Who is there that the king would want to honor more than me? I'm sure that the king is talking about honoring me."

<sup>11</sup>So Haman got the robe and the horse. Then he put the robe on Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city streets. Haman announced ahead of Mordecai, "This is done for the man the king wants to honor!"

<sup>12</sup>After that Mordecai went back to the king's gate, but Haman hurried home with his head covered because he was embarrassed and ashamed. <sup>13</sup>Then Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His wife and the men who gave him advice said, "If Mordecai is a Jew, you cannot win. You have already started to fail. Surely you will be ruined!"

<sup>14</sup>While they were still talking to Haman, the king's eunuchs* came to Haman's house. They made Haman hurry to the party that Esther had prepared.

Haman Is Hanged

7<sup>1</sup>So the king and Haman went to eat with Queen Esther. <sup>2</sup>Then as they were drinking wine on the second day of the party, the king again asked Esther a question, "Queen Esther, what is it you want to ask for? Ask anything and it will be given to you. What do you want? I will give you anything, even half my kingdom."

<sup>3</sup>Then Queen Esther answered, "King, if you like me and it pleases you, please let me live. And I ask you to let my people live too. This is what I ask for. <sup>4</sup>I ask this because my people and I have been sold to be destroyed—to be killed and wiped out completely. If we had just been sold as slaves, I would have kept quiet, because that would not be enough of a problem to bother the king."

Then Haman was filled with terror before the king and queen. <sup>7</sup>The king was very angry. He got up, left his wine, and went out into the garden. But Haman stayed inside to beg Queen Esther to save his life. He begged for his life because he knew that the king had already decided to kill him. <sup>8</sup>Just as the king was coming back in from the garden to the party room, he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying. The king said with anger in his voice, "Will you attack the queen even while I am in the house?"

As soon as the king had said this, servants came in and killed Haman.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>One of the eunuchs* who served the king was named Harbona. He said, "A hanging post 75 feet<sup>b</sup> tall has been built near Haman's house. Haman had it made so that he could hang Mordecai on it. Mordecai is the man who helped you when he told about the evil plans to kill you."

The king said, "Hang Haman on that post!"

<sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the hanging post he had built for Mordecai. Then the king stopped being angry.

The King's Order to Help the Jews

8<sup>1</sup>That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther everything that belonged to Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. Then Mordecai came to see the king. <sup>2</sup>The king had gotten his ring back from Haman. The king took the ring off his finger and gave it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of everything that belonged to Haman.

<sup>3</sup>Then Esther spoke to the king again. She fell at the king's feet and began crying. She begged the king to cancel the evil plan of Haman the Agagite. Haman had thought up the plan to hurt the Jews.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king held out the gold scepter* to Esther. Esther got up and stood in front of the king. <sup>5</sup>Then she said, "King, if you like me and if it pleases you, please do this for me. Please do this if you think it is a good idea. If the king is happy with me, please write a command that would stop the command Haman sent out. Haman the Agagite thought of a plan to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces, and he sent out commands for this to happen. <sup>6</sup>I am begging the king because I could not bear to see these terrible things happen to my people. I could not bear to see my family killed."

<sup>7</sup>King Xerxes answered Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman was against the Jews, I have given his property to Esther. And my soldiers have hanged him on the hanging post. <sup>8</sup>Now write another command by the authority of the king. Write it to help the Jews in a way that seems best to you. Then seal the order with the king's special ring. No official letter written by the authority of the king and sealed with the king's ring can be canceled."

<sup>9</sup>Very quickly the king's secretaries were called. This was done on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all of Mordecai's commands to the Jews, and to the satraps,* the governors, and officials of the 127 provinces. These provinces reached from India to Ethiopia. The commands were written in the language of each province and translated into the language of each group of people. The commands were written to the Jews in their own language and alphabet. <sup>10</sup>Mordecai wrote commands by the authority of King Xerxes. Then he sealed the letters with the king's ring and sent them by messengers on horses. The messengers rode fast horses, which were raised especially for the king.

They have the right to ruin, kill, and completely destroy any army from any group who might attack them and their women and children. And the Jews have the right to take and destroy the property of their enemies.

<sup>12</sup>The day set for the Jews to do this was the 13th day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. They were permitted to do this in all King Xerxes' provinces. <sup>13</sup>A copy of the letter with the king's command was to be sent out. It became a law in every province. They announced it to all the people of every nation living in the kingdom. They did this so that the Jews would be ready for that special day. They would be allowed to pay their enemies back. <sup>14</sup>The messengers hurried out, riding on the king's horses. The king commanded them to hurry. And the command was also put in the capital city of Susa.

<sup>15</sup>Mordecai left the king. He was wearing special clothes from the king. His clothes were blue and white, and he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen.* There was a special celebration in Susa. The people were very happy. <sup>16</sup>It was an especially happy day for the Jews, a day of great joy and happiness.

<sup>17</sup>Wherever the king's command went in every province and every city, there was joy and gladness among the Jews. They were having parties and celebrating. Many of the common people from other groups became Jews. They did this because they were very afraid of the Jews.

Victory for the Jews

9<sup>1</sup>On the 13th day of the twelfth month (Adar), the people were supposed to obey the king's command. This was the day the enemies of the Jews hoped to defeat them, but now things had changed. The Jews were stronger than their enemies who hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews met together in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes so that they would be strong enough to attack the people who wanted to destroy them. No one was strong enough to stand against them. They were afraid of the Jews. <sup>3</sup>And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps,* the governors, and the king's administrators helped the Jews. All the leaders helped them because they were afraid of Mordecai. <sup>4</sup>Mordecai had become a very important man in the king's palace. Everyone in the provinces knew his name and knew how important he was. And Mordecai became more and more powerful.

<sup>5</sup>The Jews defeated all their enemies. They used swords to kill and destroy them. They did what they wanted to the people who hated them. <sup>6</sup>They killed and destroyed 500 men in the capital city of Susa. <sup>7</sup>They also killed these men: Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup>Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup>Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. <sup>10</sup>These men were the ten sons of Haman. Haman son of Hammedatha was the enemy of the Jews. The Jews killed all the men, but they didn't take anything that belonged to them.

<sup>11</sup>That day the king heard how many men had been killed in the capital city of Susa. <sup>12</sup>So the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed 500 men in Susa, including Haman's ten sons. Now, what do you want done in the other provinces of the king? Tell me, and I will have it done. Ask, and I will do it."

<sup>13</sup>Esther said, "If it pleases the king, please let the Jews in Susa do the same thing again tomorrow. Also, hang the bodies of Haman's ten sons on posts."

<sup>14</sup>So the king gave the command that it should be done. So the law was given in Susa, and they hanged Haman's ten sons. <sup>15</sup>The Jews in Susa met together on the 14th day of the month of Adar. They killed 300 men in Susa, but they didn't take the things that belonged to them.

<sup>16</sup>At the same time, the Jews living in the other provinces also met together. They met together so that they would be strong enough to protect themselves. And so they got rid of their enemies. They killed 75,000 of their enemies. But the Jews didn't take anything that belonged to them. <sup>17</sup>This happened on the 13th day of the month Adar. On the 14th day the Jews rested and made that day a happy day of feasting.

The Festival of Purim

<sup>18</sup>The Jews in Susa had met together on the 13th and 14th days of the month of Adar. And then on the 15th day they rested. So they made the 15th day a happy day of feasting. <sup>19</sup>So those who live in the country and small villages celebrate Purim on the 14th day of Adar. They keep the 14th day as a happy day of feasting. On this day they have parties and give presents to each other.

<sup>20</sup>Mordecai wrote everything down that had happened, and then he sent letters to all the Jews in all of King Xerxes' provinces. He sent letters far and near. <sup>21</sup>He did this to tell the Jews to celebrate Purim every year on the 14th and 15th days of the month of Adar. <sup>22</sup>They were to celebrate those days because on those days the Jews got rid of their enemies. And they were also to celebrate that month as the month when their sadness was turned into joy. It was a month when their crying was changed into a day of celebration. Mordecai wrote letters to all the Jews and told them to celebrate those days as a happy day of feasting. They should have parties, give gifts to each other, and give presents to the poor.

<sup>23</sup>So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai had written to them. And they agreed to continue the celebration they had begun.

<sup>24</sup>Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite was the enemy of all the Jews. He had made an evil plan against the Jews to destroy them. And Haman had thrown the lot* to choose a day to ruin and to destroy the Jews. At that time the lot was called a “pur.” <sup>25</sup>Haman did this, but Esther went to talk to the king. So he sent out new commands. These commands not only ruined Haman’s plans, but these commands caused those bad things to happen to Haman and his family! So Haman and his sons were hanged on the posts.

<sup>26-27</sup>At this time, lots were called “purim.” So this festival is called “Purim.” Mordecai wrote a letter and told the Jews to celebrate this festival. And so the Jews started the custom of celebrating these two days every year. <sup>28</sup>They do this to help them remember what they had seen happen to them. The Jews and all the people who join them celebrate these two days every year at the right time in just the right way. Every generation and every family remembers these two days. They celebrate this festival in each and every province and in each and every town. And the Jews will never stop celebrating the days of Purim. Their descendants will always remember this festival.

<sup>29</sup>So Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote an official letter about Purim. They wrote with full authority of the king to prove that the second letter was true. <sup>30</sup>So Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of King Xerxes’ kingdom. He told the people that the festival should bring peace and make people trust<sup>a</sup> each other. <sup>31</sup>He wrote these letters to tell the people to start celebrating Purim. And he told them when to celebrate this new festival. Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had sent out the command for the Jews to establish this two-day festival for themselves and their descendants. They will remember this festival just as they remember the other festivals when they fast* and cry about the bad things that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Esther’s letter made the rules for Purim official, and these things were written down in a book.

Mordecai Honored

10 <sup>1</sup>King Xerxes made people pay taxes. All the people in the kingdom, even the faraway cities on the seacoast, had to pay taxes. <sup>2</sup>And all the great things Xerxes did are written in the Book of History of the Kings of Media and Persia. Also written in those history books are all the things Mordecai did. The king made Mordecai a great man. <sup>3</sup>Mordecai the Jew was second in importance to King Xerxes. He was the most important man among the Jews. His fellow Jews respected him very much, because he worked hard for the good of his people and brought peace to all the Jews.

9:30 peace ... trust Or “fellowship and truth.” Zech. 8:19 teaches that this is how people should celebrate the festivals and why God gave them.

Job

Job, the Good Man

1 <sup>1</sup>There was a man named Job who lived in the country of Uz. He was a good, honest man. He respected God and refused to do evil. <sup>2</sup>Job had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>He owned 7000 sheep, 3000 camels, 1000 oxen, and 500 female donkeys. He had many servants. He was the richest man in the east.

<sup>4</sup>Job’s sons took turns having dinner parties in their homes, and they invited their sisters. <sup>5</sup>The day after each of these parties, Job got up early in the morning, sent for his children, and offered a burnt offering* for each of them. He thought, “Maybe my children were careless and sinned against God at their party.” Job always did this so that his children would be forgiven of their sins.

<sup>6</sup>Then the day came for the angels<sup>b</sup> to meet with the LORD. Even Satan* was there with them. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you been?”

Satan answered the LORD, “I have been roaming around the earth, going from place to place.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you noticed my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him. He is a good, faithful man. He respects God and refuses to do evil.”

<sup>9</sup>Satan answered, “But Job has a good reason to respect you. <sup>10</sup>You always protect him, his family, and everything he has. You have blessed him and made him successful in everything he does. He is so wealthy that his herds and flocks are all over the country. <sup>11</sup>But if you were to destroy everything he has, I promise you that he would curse* you to your face.”

Then Satan left the meeting.

Job Loses Everything

<sup>13</sup>One day Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. <sup>14</sup>A messenger came to Job and said, "We were plowing the fields with the oxen and the donkeys were eating grass nearby, <sup>15</sup>when some Sabeans<sup>a</sup> attacked us and took your animals! They killed the other servants. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

<sup>16</sup>That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "A bolt of lightning<sup>b</sup> struck your sheep and servants and burned them up. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

<sup>17</sup>That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "The Chaldeans<sup>c</sup> sent out three raiding parties that attacked us and took the camels! They killed the other servants. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

<sup>18</sup>That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. <sup>19</sup>A strong wind suddenly came in from across the desert and blew the house down. It fell on your sons and daughters, and they are all dead. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

<sup>20</sup>When Job heard this, he got up, tore his clothes, and shaved his head to show his sadness. Then he fell to the ground to bow down before God <sup>21</sup>and said,

"When I was born into this world,
I was naked and had nothing.
When I die and leave this world,
I will be naked and have nothing.
The LORD gives,
and the LORD takes away.
Praise the name of the LORD!"

<sup>22</sup>Even after all this, Job did not sin. He did not accuse God of doing anything wrong.

Satan Bothers Job Again

2 <sup>1</sup>Then another day came for the angels<sup>d</sup> to meet with the LORD. Satan* was also there with them. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you been?"

Satan answered the LORD, "I have been roaming around the earth, going from place to place."

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you noticed my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him. He is a good, faithful man. He respects God and refuses to do evil. He is still faithful, even though you asked me to let you destroy, without reason, everything he has."

<sup>10</sup>Job answered, "You sound like one of those fools on the street corner! How can we accept all the good things that God gives us and not accept the problems?" So even after all that happened to Job, he did not sin. He did not accuse God of doing anything wrong.

Job's Three Friends Come to See Him

<sup>11</sup>Job's three friends heard about all the bad things that happened to him, so Eliphaz came from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah. They met together and went to comfort Job and show him their sympathy. <sup>12</sup>But his friends didn't even recognize him when they first saw him in the distance! They began to cry loudly. They tore their clothes and threw dirt in the air over their heads to show how sad they were. <sup>13</sup>Then they sat on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. They didn't say a word, because they saw he was in so much pain.

Job Curses the Day He Was Born

3 <sup>1</sup>Then Job opened his mouth and cursed* the day he was born. <sup>2</sup>He said, <sup>3</sup>"I wish the day I was born would be lost forever.

I wish the night they said, 'It's a boy!' had never happened.

<sup>4</sup>I wish that day had remained dark.

I wish God above had forgotten that day and not let any light shine on it.

<sup>5</sup>I wish that bitter day had remained as dark as death, covered with the darkest clouds.

<sup>6</sup>I wish the darkness had carried away that night, that it was left off the calendar and not included in any of the months.

- <sup>8</sup> Some magicians think they can wake Leviathan.<sup>a</sup>
So let them say their curses and curse the day I was born.
- <sup>9</sup> Let that day's morning star be dark.
Let that night wait for a morning that never comes.
I wish it had never seen the first rays of sunlight.
- <sup>10</sup> I wish it had stopped me from being born and kept me from seeing all these troubles.
- <sup>11</sup> Why didn't I die when I was born?
Why didn't I die as I came from my mother's womb?
- <sup>12</sup> Why did my mother hold me on her knees?
Why did her breasts feed me?
- <sup>13</sup> If I had died when I was born,
I would be at peace now.
I wish I were asleep and at rest
- <sup>14</sup> with the kings and their advisors who built palaces that are now in ruins.
- <sup>15</sup> I wish I were buried with rulers who filled their graves with gold and silver.
- <sup>16</sup> Why wasn't I a child who died at birth and was put in the ground?
I wish I had been buried like a baby who never saw the light of day.
- <sup>17</sup> There the wicked stop causing trouble,
and the weary find rest.
- <sup>18</sup> Even prisoners find relief there;
they no longer hear their guards shouting at them.
- <sup>19</sup> Everyone—from the greatest to the least important—will be there,
and even the slave is free from his master.
- <sup>20</sup> "Why must a suffering person continue to live?
Why let anyone live such a bitter life?"
- <sup>21</sup> Such people want to die, but death does not come.
They search for death more than for hidden treasure.
- <sup>22</sup> They would be happy to find their grave.
They would rejoice to find their tomb.
- <sup>23</sup> But God keeps their future a secret and builds a wall around them to protect them.
- <sup>24</sup> When it is time to eat, all I can do is sigh with sadness, not joy.
My groans pour out like water.
- <sup>25</sup> I was afraid something terrible would happen,
and what I feared most has happened.
- <sup>26</sup> I cannot calm down or relax.
I am too upset to rest!"

<sup>a</sup>3:8 Leviathan Here, this is probably a giant sea monster. Some people thought magicians were able to make it "swallow the sun," that is, cause an eclipse.

Eliphaz Speaks

- 4 <sup>1</sup>Eliphaz from Teman answered:
- <sup>2</sup> "I must say something.
Would it upset you if I speak?"
- <sup>3</sup> Job, you have taught many people.
You encouraged those who were ready to quit.
- <sup>4</sup> Your words helped those who were ready to fall.
You gave strength to those who could not stand by themselves.
- <sup>5</sup> But now trouble comes to you,
and you are discouraged.
Trouble hits you,
and you are upset.
- <sup>6</sup> You worship God.
You trust him.
You are a good man,
so let that be your hope.
- <sup>7</sup> Can you think of any innocent person who was ever destroyed?
Do you know of any place where good people are punished?
- <sup>8</sup> Yes, I have seen people whose lives were cut short,
but they were evil troublemakers.
- <sup>9</sup> They lost the breath God gave them.
They were cut off from his breath of life.
- <sup>10</sup> They were like roaring lions,
like growling lions with broken teeth—
- <sup>11</sup> like a lioness that cannot find prey.
They died, and their cubs starved to death.
- <sup>12</sup> "I happened to hear a message.
My ears caught a whisper of it.
- <sup>13</sup> Like a bad dream<sup>b</sup> in the night,
it ruined my sleep.
- <sup>14</sup> It frightened me,
and I trembled down to my bones.
- <sup>15</sup> A spirit passed by my face.
The hair on my body stood up!
- <sup>16</sup> The spirit stood still,
but I could not see what it was.
A shape stood before my eyes,
and there was silence.
Then I heard a quiet voice:
- <sup>17</sup> 'A person cannot be more right than God.
People cannot be more pure than their Maker.
- <sup>18</sup> Look, God cannot even trust his heavenly servants.
He sees faults even in his angels.
- <sup>19</sup> So surely people are worse!
They live in houses of clay<sup>c</sup> built on dust.
They can be crushed as easily as a moth!
- <sup>20</sup> From dawn to sunset people are destroyed.

They die—gone forever—and no one even notices.

- 21 The ropes of their tent are pulled up, and they die before gaining wisdom.’

5 <sup>1</sup>“Job, call out if you want, and see if anyone answers!
But to which of the angels will you turn?

- 2 A fool’s anger will kill him.
His jealousy will destroy him.
3 I saw a fool who thought he was safe, but suddenly he died.<sup>a</sup>
4 There was no one to help his children.
No one defended them in court.
5 Hungry people ate all his crops, even the grain growing among the thorns, and greedy people took all he had.
6 Bad times don’t come up from the dirt.
Trouble does not grow from the ground.
7 But people are born to have trouble, as surely as sparks rise from a fire.
8 If I were you, I would turn to God and tell him about my problems.
9 People cannot understand the wonderful things God does.
His miracles are too many to count.
10 He sends rain all over the earth and waters the fields.
11 He raises up the humble and makes sad people happy.
12 He spoils the plans of even the smartest people so that they will not succeed.
13 He catches those who think they are wise in their own clever traps and brings to an end their evil plans.
14 Daylight will be like darkness for them. Even at noon they will have to feel their way as in the dark.
15 God saves the poor from the hurtful words of the wicked.
He saves them from those who are powerful.
16 So the poor have hope; God shuts the mouths of those who would cause them harm.
17 “You are fortunate when God corrects you.
So don’t complain when God All-Powerful punishes you.
18 God might injure you, but he will bandage those wounds.
He might hurt you, but his hands also heal.
19 He will save you again and again.
No evil will harm you.<sup>b</sup>
20 God will save you from death when there is famine.*

<sup>a</sup>5:3 suddenly he died Or “suddenly his home was cursed.”

<sup>b</sup>5:19 Literally, “In six troubles, he will rescue you, and in seven, evil will not touch you.”

He will protect you from the sword when there is war.

- 21 People might say bad things about you with their sharp tongues.
But God will protect you.
You will not be afraid when bad things happen!
22 You will laugh at destruction and famine.
You will not be afraid of wild animals!
23 It is as if you have a peace treaty with the wild animals and the rocks in the field.
24 You will live in peace because your tent is safe.
You will count your property and find nothing missing.
25 You will have many children.
They will be as many as the blades of grass on the earth.
26 You will be like the wheat that grows until harvest time.
Yes, you will live to a ripe old age.
27 “We have studied this and know it is true.
So listen to us, and learn for yourself.”

Job Answers Eliphaz

- 6 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:
2 “I wish my suffering could be weighed and all my trouble be put on the scales.
3 They would be heavier than all the sand of the sea!
That is why my words are so crazy.
4 God All-Powerful has shot me with his arrows.
My spirit feels their poison!
God’s terrible weapons are lined up against me.
5 Even a wild donkey does not complain when it has grass to eat.
And a cow is quiet when it has food.
6 Food without salt does not taste good, and the white of an egg has no taste.
7 I refuse to touch that kind of food; it makes me sick!
8 “I wish I could have what I ask for.
I wish God would give me what I want.
9 I wish he would crush me—just go ahead and kill me!
10 Then I would be comforted by this one thing:
Even through all this pain I never refused to obey the commands of the Holy One.
11 “With my strength gone, I have no hope to go on living.
With nothing to look forward to, why should I be patient?
12 I am not strong like a rock.
My body is not made from bronze.
13 I don’t have the power to help myself, because all hope of success has been taken away from me.”

- 14 "Friends should be loyal to you in times of trouble, even if you turn away from God All-Powerful.<sup>a</sup>
- 15 But I cannot depend on you, my brothers.
You are like a stream that has no water when the weather is dry but is flooded when the rains come.
- 16 In the winter, it is choked with ice and melting snow.
- 17 But when the weather is hot and dry,
the water stops flowing,
and the stream disappears.
- 18 It twists and turns along the way and then disappears into the desert.
- 19 Traders from Tema search for it.
Travelers from Sheba hope to find it.
- 20 They are sure they can find water,
but they will be disappointed.
- 21 Now, you are like those streams.
You see my troubles and are afraid.
- 22 But have I ever asked you to help me?
Did I ask you to offer a bribe for me
from your wealth?
- 23 No, and I never said, 'Save me from my
enemies!'
or 'Save me from those who are cruel!'
- 24 "So now, teach me, and I will be quiet.
Show me what I have done wrong.
- 25 Honest words are powerful,
but your arguments prove nothing.
- 26 Do you plan to criticize me?
Will you speak more tiring words?
- 27 Are you the kind of people who would gamble for orphans and sell out your own friends?
- 28 Now, look me in the face,
and see that I am telling the truth!
- 29 You need to start over and stop being so unfair!
Think again, because I am innocent.
- 30 I am not lying.
I know right from wrong.

- 7 1 "People have a hard struggle on earth.
Their life is like that of a hired worker.
- 2 They are like a slave looking for cool shade
or a hired worker waiting for payday.
- 3 Month after frustrating month has gone by.
I have suffered night after night.
- 4 When I lie down, I think,
'How long before it's time to get up?'
The night drags on.
I toss and turn until the sun comes up.
- 5 My skin is covered with worms and scabs.
It is cracked and covered with sores.

- 6 "My days pass by faster than a weaver's shuttle,<sup>b</sup>
and my life will end without hope.
- 7 God, remember, my life is like a breath.
I will not get a second chance to enjoy
it.
- 8 Those who see me now will never see me
again.
You watch me for a while, but then I am gone.
- 9 Just as clouds that come and go, people are put in the grave, never to rise again.
- 10 They don't come back to their old homes.
The people there would not know them.
- 11 "So I will not be quiet!
I will let my suffering spirit speak!
I will let my bitter soul complain!
- 12 Am I one of your enemies?
Is that why you put a guard over me?<sup>c</sup>
- 13 My bed should bring me comfort.
My couch should give me rest and relief.
- 14 But when I lie down, you scare me with dreams;
you frighten me with visions.*
- 15 So I would rather be choked to death than to live like this.
- 16 I hate my life—I give up.
I don't want to live forever.
Leave me alone!
My life means nothing.
- 17 God, why are people so important to you?
Why do you even notice them?
- 18 Why do you visit them every morning and test them at every moment?
- 19 You never look away from me or leave me alone for a second.
- 20 You are always watching us!
If I sinned, would that hurt you?
Why have you made me your target?
Have I become a problem for you?
- 21 Why don't you just pardon me for doing wrong?
Why don't you just forgive me for my sins?
Soon I will die and be in my grave.
You will search for me, but I will be gone."

Bildad Speaks to Job

- 8 1 Then Bildad from Shuah answered:
- 2 "How long will you talk like that?
Your words are nothing but hot air!
- 3 God is always fair.
God All-Powerful does what is right.

<sup>b7:6</sup> weaver's shuttle The tool a person who makes cloth uses to pass the thread between the other threads.

<sup>c7:12</sup> Literally, "Am I Yam or Tannin that you should appoint a guard to watch me?" In ancient Canaanite stories, Yam was the god of the sea, and Tannin was a sea monster.

<sup>a6:14</sup> Or "People who fail to be loyal to their friends have also failed to respect God All-Powerful."

- 4 If your children sinned against God, he punished them.
They paid for their sins.
- 5 But now, look to God and pray to the All-Powerful.
- 6 If you are pure and good, he will quickly come to help you.
He will give your family back to you.
- 7 Then you will have a lot more than you had in the beginning!
- 8 "Ask those who are now old.
Find out what their ancestors* learned.
- 9 It seems as though we were born yesterday.
We are too young to know anything.
Our days on earth are very short, like a shadow.
- 10 Maybe the old people can tell you something.
Maybe they will teach you what they learned.
- 11 "Can papyrus* grow tall on a dry land?
Can reeds grow without water?
- 12 No, they will dry up before harvest.
They will be too small to cut and use.
- 13 People who forget God are like that.
Those who oppose him have no hope.
- 14 They have put their trust in something weak.
It is like a spider's web.
- 15 When they lean against it,
it will break.
When they reach out for it,
it will not hold them up.
- 16 Such people are like a vine that gets plenty of water and sunshine, and its branches spread throughout the garden.
- 17 Its roots spread among the rocks, searching for good soil.
- 18 But if you move it, it will die,
and no one can tell it was ever there.
- 19 Everything might have been going well,
but another vine will take its place.
- 20 God does not support evil people,
and he does not abandon the innocent.
- 21 So perhaps you might laugh again.
Maybe shouts of joy will come from your lips.
- 22 Maybe your enemies will be humiliated and the homes of the wicked
destroyed."

Job Answers Bildad

9<sup>1</sup> Then Job answered:

- 2 "Of course, I know that this is true.
But how can a human being win an argument with God?
- 3 Anyone who chose to argue with him could not answer one question in a thousand!
- 4 God is so wise and powerful that

- no one could oppose him and survive.
- 5 When God is angry, he moves mountains before they know what happened.
- 6 He can shake the earth,
and it will tremble down to its foundations.
- 7 With one command he can stop the sun from rising.
He can lock up the stars and keep them from shining.
- 8 He alone made the skies,
and he walks on the ocean waves.
- 9 "God made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades.<sup>a</sup>
He made the planets that cross the southern sky.<sup>b</sup>
- 10 He does things too marvelous for people to understand.
He does too many miracles to count!
- 11 When he passes by, I cannot see him.
He goes right past me, and I don't notice.
- 12 If he takes something away,
no one can stop him.
No one can say to him,
'What are you doing?'
- 13 God will not hold back his anger.
Even Rahab's* helpers are afraid of him.
- 14 So I cannot argue with God.
I would not know what to say to him.
- 15 I am innocent, but I cannot give him an answer.
All I can do is beg my Judge for mercy.
- 16 Even if I called and he answered,
I cannot believe he would listen to me.
- 17 He would just send storms to crush me.
He would give me more wounds for no reason.
- 18 He would not let me catch my breath again.
He would just give me more trouble.
- 19 I cannot defeat God.
He is too powerful!
I cannot take him to court for justice.
Who could force him to come?
- 20 I am innocent, but anything I say makes me seem guilty.
I am innocent, but if I speak, my mouth proves me wrong.
- 21 I am innocent, but I don't know what to think.
I hate my own life.
- 22 So I say, 'Does it make any difference?
God destroys the innocent as well as the guilty.'

<sup>a</sup>9:9 Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades Names of well-known constellations (groups of stars) in the night sky.

<sup>b</sup>9:9 planets ... sky Literally, "Rooms of the South" or "Rooms of Teman." This might be the planets or the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. North of the equator, these seem to move across the southern sky.

- 23 Is it God who laughs when a disaster kills innocent people?
- 24 Is it God who keeps the leaders from seeing when an evil person takes control?
If it is not God, then who is it?
- 25 "My days are passing faster than a runner.
They are flying by without any joy.
- 26 They go by as quickly as papyrus* boats,
as fast as an eagle swooping down on its prey.
- 27 "I could say, 'I will not complain.
I will forget my pain and put a smile on my face.'
- 28 But the suffering still frightens me.
I know that God will not see me as innocent.
- 29 I will be found guilty,
so why should I even think about it?
- 30 Even if I scrubbed my hands with soap and washed myself whiter than snow,
- 31 God would still push me into the slime pit,<sup>a</sup> and even my clothes would hate to touch me.
- 32 God is not a human like me, so I cannot argue with him.
I cannot take him to court.
- 33 I wish there were someone who could listen to both sides,<sup>b</sup> someone to judge both of us in a fair way.
- 34 I wish someone could take away the threat of God's punishment.
Then he would not frighten me anymore.
- 35 Then I could say what I want without being afraid of him.
But I cannot do that now.

- 10 <sup>1</sup>"I hate my own life, so I will complain freely.
I am very bitter, so now I will speak.
- <sup>2</sup> I will say to God: 'Don't just say I am guilty!
Tell me what you have against me.
- <sup>3</sup> Do you enjoy hurting me?
Do you enjoy ignoring me while smiling at what evil people say?
- <sup>4</sup> Do you have human eyes?
Do you see things the way people do?
- <sup>5</sup> Is your life as short as ours?
Is your life as short as a man's life?
- <sup>6</sup> You look for my wrong and search for my sin.
- <sup>7</sup> You know I am innocent,
but no one can save me from your power!

- <sup>8</sup> Your hands made me
and shaped my body.
But now they are closing around me
and squeezing me to death!
- <sup>9</sup> Remember, you molded me like clay.
Will you turn me into clay again?
- <sup>10</sup> You poured me out like milk.
You spun me around and squeezed me like someone making cheese.
- <sup>11</sup> You put me together with bones and muscles,
and then you clothed me with skin and flesh.
- <sup>12</sup> You gave me life and were very kind to me.
You cared for me and watched over my spirit.
- <sup>13</sup> But this is what you hid in your heart.
Now I know what you were planning for me.
- <sup>14</sup> If I sinned, you would be watching me
so that you could punish me for doing wrong.
- <sup>15</sup> If I sin, I am guilty and should be cursed.
But even when I am innocent,
I cannot lift up my head.
I am so ashamed
because of all the troubles I have.
- <sup>16</sup> If I have any success and feel proud, you hunt me down like a lion and show your power over me.
- <sup>17</sup> You bring witness after witness to prove that I am wrong.
Again and again you show your anger
as you send army after army against me.
- <sup>18</sup> So why did you let me be born?
I wish I had died before anyone saw me.
- <sup>19</sup> I wish I had never lived.
I wish they had carried me from my mother's womb straight to the grave.
- <sup>20</sup> My life is almost finished.
So leave me alone!
Let me enjoy the little time I have left.
- <sup>21</sup> I am going soon to the land of no return,
the place of death and darkness—
- <sup>22</sup> that land of darkest night, of shadows and confusion, where even the light is darkness."

Zophar Speaks to Job

- 11 <sup>1</sup>Then Zophar from Naamah answered Job and said,
- <sup>2</sup>"This flood of words should be answered!
Does all this talking make Job right?
- <sup>3</sup> Do you think we don't have an answer for you?
Do you think no one will warn you when you laugh at God?
- <sup>4</sup> You say to God,
'My arguments are right,
and you can see I am pure.'
- <sup>5</sup> I wish God would answer you and tell you that you are wrong.

6 He could tell you the secret of wisdom.
He would tell you that every story has two sides.
You can be sure of this:
God is not punishing you as much as he should.

7 "Do you think you really understand God?
Do you completely understand God
All-Powerful?

8 That knowledge is higher than the heavens
and deeper than the place of death.
So what can you do?
How can you learn it all?

9 It is greater than the earth and bigger than the seas.

10 "If God decides to arrest you and take you to court,
no one could stop him.

11 God knows who is worthless.
When he sees evil, he remembers it.

12 A wild donkey cannot give birth to a man, and a stupid person will never become wise.

13 Prepare your heart to serve only God.
Lift your arms and pray to him.

14 Put away the sin that you still hold on to.
Don't keep evil in your tent.

15 If you will do that, you could look to God without shame.

You can stand strong and not be afraid.

16 Then you can forget your troubles, like water that has already passed by.

17 Your life will be brighter than the sunshine at noon.
Life's darkest hours will shine like the morning sun.

18 You will feel safe because there is hope.
God will protect you and give you rest.

19 You will lie down without fear of anyone.
Many people will come to you for help.

20 Evil people might look for help,
but they will not escape their troubles.
Their hope leads only to death."

Job Answers His Friends

12 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered them:

2 "I'm sure you think you are the only wise people left.
You think that when you die, wisdom will be gone with you.

3 But my mind is as good as yours.
You aren't any smarter than I am.
You haven't said anything that people don't already know.

4 "My friends laugh at me now.
They say, 'He prayed to God and got his answer.'

I am a good, innocent man, but still they laugh at me.

5 Those who have no troubles make fun of those who do.

They hit a man when he is down.

6 But robbers' tents are not bothered.
Those who make God angry live in
peace,
even though God has them in his power.

7 "But ask the animals,
and they will teach you.
Or ask the birds of the air,
and they will tell you.

8 Or speak to the earth,
and it will teach you.
Or let the fish in the sea
tell you their wisdom.

9 Everyone knows the LORD made these things.

10 Every animal that lives and everyone who breathes—
they are all under God's power.

11 But just as the tongue tastes food,
the ears test the words they hear.

12 People say, 'Wisdom is to be found in those who are old.
Long life brings understanding.'

13 But wisdom and power belong to God.
Good advice and understanding are his.

14 Anything God tears down cannot be rebuilt.
Anyone he puts in prison cannot be set free.

15 If he holds back the rain, the earth will dry up.
If he lets the rain loose, it will flood the
land.

16 God is strong and always wins.
He controls those who fool others and those who are fooled.

17 He strips advisors of their wisdom and makes leaders act like fools.

18 He strips kings of their authority and makes them slaves.

19 He strips priests of their power and removes those who feel so secure in their position.

20 He makes trusted advisors be silent.
He takes away the wisdom of the older leaders.

21 He brings disgrace to important people.
He takes power away from rulers.

22 He exposes even the darkest secrets.
He sends light into places that are as dark as death.

23 God makes nations great,
and then he destroys them.
He makes nations grow large,
and then he scatters their people.

24 He makes their leaders foolish.
He makes them wander around in the desert.

25 They are like someone feeling their way in the dark.
They are like drunks who don't know where they are going.

- 13<sup>1</sup>“I have seen all this before.
I have already heard everything you say.
I understand all these things.
<sup>2</sup> I know as much as you do.
I am as smart as you are.
<sup>3</sup> But I don’t want to argue with you.
I want to speak to God All-Powerful.
I want to argue with God about my troubles.
<sup>4</sup> But you men try to cover up your ignorance with lies.
You are like worthless doctors who cannot heal anyone.
That would be the wisest thing you could do.

<sup>6</sup>“Now, listen to my argument.
Listen to what I have to say.
<sup>7</sup> Will you speak lies for God?
Do you really believe your lies are what God wants you to say?
<sup>8</sup> Are you trying to defend God against me?
You are not being fair.
You are choosing God’s side simply because he is God.
<sup>9</sup> If God checked you very closely,
would he see that you are right?
Do you really think you can fool God the same as you fool people?
<sup>10</sup> You know that God would criticize you if you chose someone’s side simply because they were important.
You are afraid of him.
Your arguments are as weak as clay.

<sup>13</sup>“Be quiet and let me talk!
I accept whatever happens to me.
<sup>14</sup> I will put myself in danger and take my life in my own hands.
<sup>15</sup> I will continue to trust God even if he kills me.<sup>a</sup>
But I will defend myself to his face.
<sup>16</sup> And if he lets me live, it will be because I had the confidence to speak.
No guilty person would dare meet God face to face.
Let me explain.
<sup>18</sup> I am ready now to defend myself.
I will carefully present my arguments.
I know I will be shown to be right.
<sup>19</sup> If anyone can prove I am wrong,
I will shut up and wait to die.

<sup>20</sup>“God, just give me two things,
and then I will not hide from you:
<sup>21</sup> Stop punishing me,
and don’t frighten me with your terrors.

- <sup>22</sup> Then call to me, and I will answer you.
Or let me speak, and you answer me.
<sup>23</sup> How many sins have I committed?
What wrongs have I done?
Show me where I went wrong or how I sinned.
<sup>24</sup> God, why do you avoid me and treat me like your enemy?
<sup>25</sup> Are you trying to scare me?
I am only a leaf blowing in the wind.
You are attacking a piece of straw!
<sup>26</sup> You have a list of terrible charges against me.
Are you making me suffer for the sins I did when I was young?
<sup>27</sup> You have put chains on my feet.
You watch every step I take.
You see every move I make.
<sup>28</sup> So I am becoming weaker and weaker, like a piece of wood rotting away,
like a piece of cloth eaten by moths.

- 14<sup>1</sup>“We are all human beings.<sup>b</sup>
Our life is short and full of trouble.
<sup>2</sup> Our life is like a flower.
It grows quickly and then dies away.
Our life is like a shadow that is here for a short time and then is gone.
<sup>3</sup> God, do you need to keep an eye on something so small?
Why bother to bring charges against me?

<sup>5</sup> The length of our life has been decided.
You alone know how long that is.
You have set the limits for us and nothing can change them.
<sup>6</sup> So stop watching us; leave us alone, and let us enjoy this hard life until we have put in our time.

<sup>7</sup>“There is always hope for a tree.
If it is cut down, it can grow again.
It will keep sending out new branches.
<sup>8</sup> Its roots might grow old in the ground and its stump die in the dirt, <sup>9</sup> but with water, it will grow again.
It will grow branches like a new plant.
<sup>10</sup> But when a man dies,
he becomes weak and sick, and then he is gone!
<sup>11</sup> Like a lake that goes dry or a river that loses its source, <sup>12</sup> so people lose their lives, never to live again.
The skies will all pass away
before they rise from death.
The skies will all disappear before anyone wakes up from that sleep!

<sup>a</sup>13:15 I will ... kills me Or “If he decides to kill me, I have no hope.”

- 13<sup>a</sup> "I wish you would hide me in my grave.
I wish you would hide me there, until your anger is gone.
Then you could pick a time to remember
me.
- 14 If a man dies, will he live again?
If so, I would gladly suffer through this time waiting for my release.<sup>a</sup>
- 15 God, you would call me,
and I would answer you.
Then I, the one you made,
would be important to you.
- 16 You would still watch every step I take,
but you would not remember my sins.
- 17 It would be as if you had sealed my sins in a bag.
It would be as if you had covered my guilt with plaster.
- 18<sup>a</sup> "Mountains fall and crumble away.
Large rocks break loose and fall.
- 19 Water flowing over stones wears them down.
Floods wash away the soil on the ground.
In the same way, God, you destroy the hope people have.
- 20 You defeat them completely and then they are gone.
You change the way they look and send them away forever to the place of death.
- 21 If their sons are honored, they will never know it.
If their sons do wrong, they will never see it.
- 22 They only feel the pain in their bodies, and they alone cry for themselves."

Eliphaz Answers Job

15 <sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz from Teman answered
Job:

- 2<sup>a</sup> "If you were really wise, you would not answer with your worthless personal opinions!
A wise man would not be so full of hot air.
- 3 Do you think a wise man would use empty words
and meaningless speeches to win his arguments?
- 4 If you had your way,
no one would respect God and pray to
him.
- 5 What you say clearly shows your sin.
Job, you are trying to hide your sin by using clever words.
- 6 I don't need to prove to you that you are wrong.

The words from your own mouth show that you are wrong.
Your own lips speak against you.

- 7<sup>a</sup> "Do you think you were the first person ever to be born?
Were you born before the hills?
- 8 Did you listen to God's secret plans?
Do you think you are the only wise person?
- 9 We know as much as you do!
We understand as well as you.
- 10 The old, gray-haired men agree with us.
People older than your father are on our side.
- 11 God tries to comfort you,
but that is not enough for you.
We have spoken his message to you in a gentle way.
- 12 Why will you not understand?
Why can you not see the truth?
- 13 You are expressing your anger against God
when you say these things.
- 14<sup>a</sup> "People cannot really be pure.
They<sup>b</sup> cannot be more right than God!
- 15 God does not even trust his angels.<sup>c</sup>
He does not even think the sky is pure.
- 16 People are even worse.
They are disgusting and dirty.
They drink up evil like water.
- 17<sup>a</sup> "Listen to me, and I will explain it to you.
Let me tell you what I have seen.
- 18 I will tell you what wise men would say, things they heard from their fathers and then freely passed on.
They didn't hide any secrets from me.
- 19 These are important people in our country!
Everyone knows who they are.
- 20 And they said that an evil man suffers all his life.
A cruel man suffers all his numbered years.
- 21 Every noise scares him.
His enemy will attack him when he thinks he is safe.
- 22 An evil man has no hope of escaping the darkness.
There is a sword somewhere waiting to kill him.
- 23 He wanders from place to place, looking for food.
But he knows a dark day is coming,
which he brought on himself.
- 24 He lives in fear, with worry and suffering threatening him
like a king ready to attack.
- 25 That is because that evil man shook his fist at God, refusing to obey.
He dared to attack God All-Powerful,

<sup>a</sup>14:14 I would ... release Or "I would wait my whole tour of duty for my replacement to come."

- 26 like a soldier with a thick, strong shield who runs at his enemy to strike him in the neck.
- 27 He might be rich and fat, 28 but his town will be ruined;
his home will be destroyed;
his house will be empty.
- 29 He will not be rich for long.
His wealth will not last.
His crops will not grow large.
- 30 He will not escape the darkness.
He will be like a tree whose leaves die from disease
and are blown away by the wind.
- 31 That evil man should not fool himself by trusting in worthless things, because he will keep nothing.
- 32 He will die before his time, like a tree whose top branches have already begun to die.
- 33 He will be like a vine that loses its grapes
before they ripen.
He will be like an olive tree that loses its buds.
- 34 That is because people without God have nothing.
Those who take bribes will have their homes destroyed by fire.
- 35 They are always thinking of ways to do evil and cause trouble.
They are always planning how they might cheat others.”

16

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:

- 2<sup>a</sup>“I have heard all these things before.
You men give me trouble, not comfort.
- 3 Your long speeches never end!
Why do you continue arguing?
- 4 I also could say the same things you say,
if you had my troubles.
I could say wise things against you and shake my head at you.
- 5 But I would say things to encourage you and give you hope.
- 6<sup>a</sup>“Nothing I say makes my pain go away.
But keeping quiet does not help either.
- 7 God, you surely took away my strength.
You destroyed my whole family.
- 8 You have made me thin and weak,
and people think that means I am guilty.
- 9<sup>a</sup>“God attacks me;
he is angry with me and tears my body apart.
He grinds his teeth against me.
My enemy looks at me with hate.
- 10 People have crowded around me.
They make fun of me and slap my face.
- 11 God has given me to evil people.
He let the wicked hurt me.
- 12 I was enjoying a quiet, peaceful life,
but then God crushed me.

- Yes, he took me by the neck and broke me into pieces.
He has made me his target.
- 13 With his archers* all around me,
he shoots arrows into my kidneys.
He shows no mercy
and spills my gall<sup>a</sup> on the ground.
- 14 Again and again he attacks me.
He runs at me like a soldier in battle.

- 15<sup>a</sup>“I am very sad,
so I wear this sackcloth.*
I sit here in dust and ashes,
feeling defeated.
- 16 My face is red from crying.
There are dark rings around my eyes.
- 17 I was never cruel to anyone,
and my prayers are pure.
- 18<sup>a</sup>“Earth, don’t hide the wrong things that were done to me.<sup>b</sup> Don’t let my begging for fairness be stopped.
- 19 Even now there is someone in heaven
who will speak for me.
There is someone above who will testify
for me.
- 20 My friend speaks for me,
while my eyes pour out tears to God.
- 21 He speaks to God for me, like someone<sup>c</sup> presenting an argument for a friend.

- 22<sup>a</sup>“In only a few years I will go to that place of no return.

- <sup>1</sup>My spirit is broken;
I am ready to give up.
My life is almost gone;
the grave is waiting for me.
- 2 People stand around me and laugh at me.
I watch them as they tease and insult
me.
- 3<sup>a</sup>“God, give me some support.
No one else will!
- 4 You have closed my friends’ minds,
and they don’t understand.
Please don’t let them win.
- 5 You know what people say:
‘A man neglects his own children to help his friends.’<sup>d</sup>
But my friends have turned against me.
- 6 God has made my name a bad word to everyone.
People spit in my face.
- 7 My eyes are almost blind from my grief.
My whole body is as thin as a shadow.

- 8 Good people wonder how this could happen.
The innocent are upset with anyone who is against God.
- 9 But those who do right will continue to do what is right.
Those who are not guilty grow stronger and stronger.
- 10 "But come on, all of you, and try to prove me wrong.
I don't find any of you to be wise.
- 11 My life is passing away, and my plans are destroyed.
My hope is gone.
- 12 Everything is confused—night is day, and evening comes when it should be dawn.
- 13 "I might hope for the grave to be my new home.
I might hope to make my bed in the dark grave.
- 14 I might say to the grave, 'You are my father,' and to the worms, 'my mother' or 'my sister.'
- 15 But you can't really call that hope, can you?
Does anyone see any hope for me?
- 16 Will hope go down with me to the place of death?
Will we go down into the dirt together?"
- 11 On every side terrors frighten them.
Fears follow every step they take.
- 12 Disaster is hungry for them.
Ruin stands close by, waiting for them to fall.
- 13 Diseases will eat away their skin.
Death itself<sup>a</sup> will eat their arms and legs.
- 14 They will be taken away from the safety of their tents and be led away to meet death, the king of terrors.
- 15 Nothing will be left in their tents, which will be sprinkled with burning sulfur.
- 16 Their roots below will dry up,
and their branches above will die.
- 17 People on earth will not remember them.
Their names will be forgotten.
- 18 They will be forced from light into darkness.
They will be chased out of this world.
- 19 They will leave behind no children, no descendants.
None of their people will be left alive.
- 20 People in the west will be shocked at what happened to them.
People in the east will be numb with fear.
- 21 This is what will happen to the homes of those who are evil.
This is the place of those who don't know God!"

Bildad Answers Job

18 <sup>1</sup>Then Bildad from Shuah answered:

- 2 "When will you stop talking?
Be sensible; let us say something.
- 3 Why do you think we are stupid, like dumb cows?
- 4 Your anger is hurting no one but you.
Do you think this world was made for you alone?
Do you think God should move mountains just to satisfy you?
- 5 "Yes, the light of those who are evil will go out.
Their fire will stop burning.
- 6 The light in their houses will become dark.
The lamps next to them will go out.
- 7 Their steps, once strong and fast, become weak.
Their own evil plans make them fall.
- 8 Their own feet lead them into a net.
They fall into its hidden pit and are caught.
- 9 A trap catches them by the heel,
and it holds them tight.
- 10 A rope is hidden on the ground to trip them.
A trap is waiting in their path.
- 19 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:
- 2 "How long will you hurt me and crush me with your words?
- 3 You have insulted me ten times now.
You have attacked me without shame!
- 4 Even if I have sinned,
it is my problem, not yours!
- 5 You want me to look bad to make yourselves look good.
You say my troubles are proof that I did wrong.
- 6 I want you to know it was God who did this.
He set this trap for me.
- 7 I shout, 'He hurt me!' but get no answer.
No one hears my cry for fairness.
- 8 God has blocked my way to keep me from getting through.
He has hidden my path in darkness.
- 9 He took away my honor.
He took the crown from my head.
- 10 He hits me on every side until I am worn out.
He takes away my hope.
It is like a tree pulled up by the roots.

<sup>a</sup>18:13 Death itself Literally, "Death's firstborn," a name for a deadly disease, or the worms that eat a dead body.

- 11 His anger burns against me.
He treats me like an enemy.
- 12 He sends his army to attack me.
They build attack towers around me.
They camp around my tent.
- 13 "God has made my brothers hate me.
Those who knew me have become strangers.
- 14 My relatives have left me.
My friends have forgotten me.
- 15 My servant girls and visitors in my home look at me as if I am a stranger and a foreigner.
- 16 I call for my servant, but he does not answer.
Even if I beg for help, he will not answer.
- 17 My wife hates the smell of my breath.
My own brothers hate me.
- 18 Even little children make fun of me.
When I get up, they say bad things about me.
- 19 All my close friends hate me.
Even my loved ones have turned against
me.
- 20 "I am so thin, my skin hangs loose on my bones.
I have little life left in me.
- 21 "Pity me, my friends, pity me,
because God is against me.
- 22 Why do you persecute me like God does?
Don't you get tired of hurting me?
- 23 "I wish someone would write down everything I say.
I wish my words were written on a scroll.
- 24 I wish they were carved with an iron tool into lead or scratched on a rock so that they would last forever.
- 25 I know that there is someone to defend me and that he lives!
And in the end, he will stand here on earth and defend me.
- 26 After I leave my body and my skin has been destroyed,
I know I will still see God.
- 27 I will see him with my own eyes.
I myself, not someone else, will see God.
And I cannot tell you how excited that makes me feel!<sup>a</sup>
- 28 "Maybe you will say, 'How can we push Job a little harder and make him realize that he is the source of his problems?"

- 29 But you need to worry about your own punishment.
God might use the sword against you!
Then you will know there is a time for judgment."

Zophar Answers Job

20 <sup>1</sup>Then Zophar from Naamah answered:

- 2 "You upset me, so I must answer you.
I must tell you what I am thinking.
- 3 You insulted me with your answers!
But I am wise and know how to answer
you.
- 4-5 "You know that the joy of the wicked does not last long.
That has been true a long time, ever since Adam was<sup>b</sup> put on earth.
Those who don't know God are happy for only a short time.
- 6 Maybe an evil man's pride will reach up to the sky,
and his head will touch the clouds.
- 7 But he will be gone forever like his own body waste.
People who knew him will say, 'Where is he?'
- 8 Like a dream, he will fly away, never to be found.
He will be chased away like a bad dream.<sup>c</sup>
- 9 Those who knew him before will not see him again.
His family will never again get to see
him.
- 10 His children will have to give back what
he took from the poor.
His own hands will give up his wealth.
- 11 When he was young, his bones were strong,
but, like the rest of his body, they will soon lie in the dirt.
- 12 "Evil tastes sweet in his mouth.
He keeps it under his tongue to enjoy it fully.
- 13 He hates to let it go and holds it in his mouth.
- 14 But that evil will turn sour in his stomach.
It will be like a snake's bitter poison inside him.
- 15 The evil man will spit out the riches he has swallowed.
God will make him vomit them up.
- 16 What he drank will be like a snake's poison;
it will kill him like the bite of a deadly snake.

<sup>a</sup>19:25-27 Or "And in the end, he will stand here on earth and defend me, <sup>26</sup>even after my skin has been destroyed. But I want to see God while I am still in my body. <sup>27</sup>I want to see him with my own eyes, not through someone else's eyes. And I cannot tell you how much I want this to happen!"

<sup>c</sup>20:8 bad dream Or "vision of the night."

- 17 He will never again enjoy so much wealth—rivers flowing with honey and cream.<sup>a</sup>
- 18 He will be forced to give back his profits.
He will not be allowed to enjoy what he worked for,
- 19 because he hurt the poor and left them with nothing.
He took houses he did not build.
- 20 “The evil man is never satisfied.
But the things he wants cannot save him.
- 21 After filling himself, there is nothing left.
His success will not continue.
- 22 Even while he has plenty, he will be pressed down with trouble.
His problems will come down on him!
- 23 If he does get all he wants,
God will throw his burning anger against him.
God will attack him and rain down punishment on him.
- 24 Maybe he will run away from an iron sword,
but then a bronze arrow<sup>b</sup> will strike him down.
- 25 It will go through his body and stick out of his back.
Its shining point will pierce his liver,
and he will be shocked with terror.
- 26 All his treasures will be lost in darkness.
He will be destroyed by a fire, a fire that no human started.
It will destroy everything left in his house.
- 27 Heaven will prove that he is guilty.
The earth will be a witness against him.
- 28 His house and everything in it will be carried away in the flood of God’s anger.
- 29 That is what God will do to those who are evil.
That is what he plans to give them.”

Job Answers

21 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:

- 2 “Listen to what I say.
Let this be your way of comforting me.
- 3 Be patient while I speak.
Then after I have finished speaking, you may make fun of me.
- 4 “My complaint is not against people.
There is a good reason why I am not patient.
- 5 Look at me and be shocked.
Put your hand over your mouth, and stare at me in shock!

<sup>b</sup>20:24 bronze arrow Literally, “bronze bow.” Or “powerful bow,” possibly a bow made of sinew, wood and horn.

- 6 When I think about what happened to me,
I feel afraid and my body shakes!
- 7 Why do evil people live long lives?
Why do they grow old and successful?
- 8 They watch their children grow up and live to see their grandchildren.
- 9 Their homes are safe and free from fear.
God does not punish them.
- 10 Their bulls never fail to mate.
Their cows have healthy calves.
- 11 They send their children out to play like lambs.
Their children dance around.
- 12 They sing and dance to the sound of harps and flutes.
- 13 Evil people enjoy success during their lives and then go to the grave without suffering.
- 14 They say to God, ‘Leave us alone!
We don’t care what you want us to do!’
- 15 And they say, ‘Who is God All-Powerful?
We don’t need to serve him!
It will not help to pray to him!’
- 16 “Of course, evil people don’t make their own success.
I would never follow their advice.
- 17 But how often does God blow out their light?
How often does trouble come to them?
How often does God get angry with them and punish them?
- 18 Does God blow them away, like the wind blows straw or like strong winds blow the grain husks?
- 19 But you say, ‘God is saving their punishment for their children.’
No! Let God punish the evil people themselves so that they will know what they have done!
- 20 Let them see their own punishment.
Let them feel the anger of God All-Powerful.
- 21 When their life is finished and they are dead,
they will not care about the family they leave behind.
- 22 “No one can teach God anything he doesn’t already know.
God judges even those in high places.
- 23 One person dies after living a full and successful life,
a life completely safe and comfortable,
- 24 with a body that was well fed and bones that were still strong.
- 25 But another person dies after a hard life
that has made them bitter, never having enjoyed anything good.
- 26 In the end, both of these people will lie together in the dirt.
The worms will cover them both.

- 27<sup>a</sup> But I know what you are thinking, and I know you want to hurt me.
- 28 You might say: 'Show me a good man's house.
Now, show me where evil people live.'<sup>a</sup>
- 29<sup>a</sup> Surely you have talked with travelers.
Surely you will accept their stories.
- 30 Evil people are spared when disaster comes.
They survive when God shows his anger.
- 31 No one criticizes them to their faces for how they lived.
No one punishes them for the evil they
have done.
- 32 When they are carried to the grave, they will have someone to watch over the place they are buried.
- 33 So even the soil in the valley will be pleasant for them,
and thousands of people will join their funeral procession.
- 34<sup>a</sup> So your empty words are no comfort to
me.
There is no truth at all in your answers!"

Eliphaz Answers Job

22 <sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz from Teman answered:

- 2<sup>a</sup> Does God need our help?
Even the wisest of us is not really useful to him.
- 3 Does your living right benefit him?
Does God All-Powerful gain anything if you follow him?
- 4 Why does God blame and punish you?
Is it because you worship him?
- 5 No, it is because you sin so much.
You never stop sinning.
- 6 Maybe to guarantee loans you took things from people for no reason.
Maybe you took a poor man's clothes to make sure he paid you back.<sup>b</sup>
- 7 Maybe you failed to give water or food to people who were tired or hungry.
- 8 You have a lot of farmland,
and people respect you.
- 9 But maybe you sent widows away without giving them anything.
And maybe you took advantage of orphans.
- 10 That is why traps are all around you,
and sudden trouble makes you afraid.
- 11 That is why it is so dark you cannot see,
and why a flood of water covers you.

12<sup>a</sup> God lives in the highest part of heaven and looks down on the highest stars.

<sup>a</sup>21:28 Show me ... live Or "Show me a wicked ruler's house. Show me where evil people live."

<sup>b</sup>22:6 paid you back See Deut. 24:12–13 for rules about making loans to the poor.

- 13 But you might say, 'What does God know?
Can he see through the dark clouds to judge us?'
- 14 Thick clouds hide us from his eyes,
so he cannot see us as he walks around the edge of the sky.'
- 15 "Job, you are walking on the old path that evil people walked on long ago.
- 16 They were destroyed before it was their time to die.
They were washed away by the flood.
- 17 They told God, 'Leave us alone!'
and said, 'God All-Powerful cannot do anything to us!'
- 18 And it was God who filled their houses with good things.
No, I would never follow the advice of evil people.
- 19 Those who do what is right are happy to see them destroyed.
The innocent laugh at them and say,
- 20 'Surely our enemies are destroyed!
Their wealth burned up in the fire!'
- 21 "Now, Job, give yourself to God and make peace with him.
Do this, and you will get many good things.
- 22 Accept his teaching.
Pay attention to what he says.
- 23 If you return to God All-Powerful, you will be restored.
But remove the evil from your house.
- 24 Think of your gold as nothing but dirt.
Think of your finest gold as rocks from a stream.
- 25 And let God All-Powerful be your gold.
Let him be your pile of silver.
- 26 Then you will enjoy God All-Powerful,
and you will look up to him.
- 27 When you pray, he will hear you.
And you will be able to do all that you promised him.
- 28 If you decide to do something, it will be successful.
And your future will be very bright!
- 29 When people are brought down and you ask God to help them,
he will rescue those who have been humbled.
- 30 Even those who are guilty will be forgiven.
They will be saved because you did what was right."

23 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:

- 2<sup>a</sup> "I am still complaining today.
I groan because God is still making me suffer.
- 3 I wish I knew where to find him.
I wish I knew how to go to where he lives.

- 4 I would present my case to him.
I would make my arguments to show that I am innocent.
- 5 He could give his response, and I would understand.
I would listen closely to what he says.
- 6 Would God use his power against me?
No, he would listen to me!
- 7 Since I am an honest man, he would let me tell my story.
Then my Judge would set me free!
- 8<sup>a</sup> If I go to the east, God is not there.
If I go to the west, I still don't see him.
- 9 When he is working in the north, I don't see him.
When he turns to the south, I still don't see him.
- 10 But God knows me.
He is testing me and will see that I am as pure as gold.
- 11 I have always lived the way God wants.
I have never stopped following him.
- 12 I always obey his commands.
I love the words from his mouth more than I love my food.
- 13<sup>a</sup> But God never changes, and who can stand against him?
He does anything he wants.
- 14 He will do to me what he planned,
and he has many other plans for me.
- 15 That is why I am terrified to stand before
him.
Just thinking about it makes me afraid.
- 16 The fear of God has made me lose my courage.
God All-Powerful makes me afraid.
- 17 What has happened to me is like a dark cloud over my face.
But the darkness will not keep me quiet.

24 1<sup>a</sup> "Why doesn't God All-Powerful set times for judgment?
And why can't his followers know when those times will be?

- 2<sup>a</sup> "People move property markers to get more of their neighbor's land.
People steal flocks and lead them to other grasslands.
- 3 They steal a donkey that belongs to an orphan.
They take a widow's cow until she pays what she owes them.
- 9<sup>a</sup> They take a nursing baby from its mother.
They take a poor person's child to guarantee a loan.
- 4 They force the poor to move out of their way
and get off the road.

- 5<sup>a</sup> "The poor are like wild donkeys that go out to the desert to find food.
From morning to night they work to gather food for their children.
- 6 They have to work in the fields, harvesting grain.
They work for the rich,<sup>b</sup> gathering grapes in their vineyards.*
- 7 They must sleep all night without clothes.
They have no covers to protect them from the cold.
- 8 They are soaked with rain in the mountains.
They stay close to the large rocks for shelter.
- 10 They have no clothes, so they work naked.
They carry piles of grain for others, but they go hungry.
- 11 They press out olive oil and walk on grapes in the winepress,* but they have nothing to drink.
- 12 In the city you can hear the sad sounds of dying people.
Those who are hurt cry out for help, but God does not listen.
- 13<sup>a</sup> "Some people rebel against the light.
They don't know what God wants.
They don't live the way he wants.
- 14 A murderer gets up at dawn and kills poor, helpless people.
And at night he becomes a thief.
- 15 A man who commits adultery* waits for
the night to come.
He thinks, 'No one will see me,' but still, he covers his face.
- 16 When it is dark, evil people go out and break into houses.
But during the day they lock themselves in their homes to avoid the light.
- 17 The darkest night is their morning.
They are friends with the terrors of darkness.
- 18<sup>a</sup> "You say, 'Evil people are taken away like things carried away in a flood.
The land they own is cursed,* so no one goes to work in their vineyards.
- 19 As hot, dry weather melts away the winter snows,
so the grave takes away those who have sinned.
- 20 Their own mothers will forget them.
Only the worms will want them.
No one will remember them.
They will be broken like a rotten stick!
- 21 These evil people hurt women who have no children to protect them,
and they refuse to help widows.
- 22 By his power God removes the powerful.
Even if they have a high position, they cannot be sure of their lives.

<sup>b</sup>24:6 the rich Or "the wicked."

- 23 They might feel safe and secure,
but God is watching how they live.
- 24 They might be successful for a while, but then they will be gone.
Like everyone else, they will be cut down like grain.<sup>f</sup>
- 25 "I swear these things are true!
Who can prove that I lied?
Who can show that I am wrong?"

Bildad Answers Job

25 <sup>1</sup>Then Bildad from Shuah answered:

- 2 "God is the ruler.
He makes people fear and respect him.
He keeps peace in his kingdom above.
- 3 No one can count his stars.<sup>g</sup>
His sun rises on all people.
- 4 How can anyone claim to be right before
God?
No human being<sup>b</sup> can really be pure.
- 5 In God's eyes even the moon is not pure and bright;
even the stars are not pure.
- 6 People are much less pure.
They are like maggots, as worthless as worms!"

Job Answers Bildad

26 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered:

- 2 "Bildad, what a great help you are to this tired, weary man!
You have really supported me!
- 3 You have given such wonderful advice to this foolish man!
You have provided so much useful information!<sup>c</sup>
- 4 Who helped you say these things?
Whose spirit inspired you to speak?
- 5 "The ghosts and their neighbors in the underworld<sup>d</sup> shake with fear.
- 6 But God can see clearly into that place of death.
Death<sup>e</sup> is not hidden from God.
- 7 God stretched the northern sky over empty space.
He hung the earth on nothing.
- 8 He fills the thick clouds with water.

<sup>e</sup>26:6 Death Or "Abaddon," a Hebrew name meaning "death" or "destruction." See Rev. 9:11.

- But he does not let its heavy weight break the clouds open.
- 9 He covers the face of the full moon.
He spreads his clouds over it and hides
it.
- 10 He drew the horizon on the ocean,
like a circle where light and darkness meet.
- 11 The foundations that hold up the sky shake with fear when God threatens
them.
- 12 With his own power God calmed the sea.
With his wisdom he destroyed Rahab.*
- 13 His breath made the skies clear.
His hand destroyed the snake that tried to get away.<sup>f</sup>
- 14 These are only a few of the amazing things God has done.
We hear only a small whisper of God's thundering power."

27 <sup>1</sup>Job continued his answer:

- 2 "God All-Powerful has been unfair to me;
he has made my life bitter.
But I swear by his life,
3 as long as I have life in me, as long as breath from God is in my nostrils,
- 4 I will not be a hypocrite.*
I will not lie.
- 5 You will never hear me say you men are right!
Until the day I die I will not be untrue to myself.
- 6 I will hold on to my innocence and never let go!
My conscience will always be clear!
- 7 May my enemies be punished like those who are evil.
May those who stood against me end up like all who have done wrong.
- 8 What hope do people without God have
when it is time to die,
when God takes their life away?
- 9 When they have troubles and cry out for help,
God will not listen to them!
- 10 It will be too late for them to enjoy talking with God All-Powerful.
They should have prayed to God all the time.

11 "I will teach you about God's power.

I will not hide anything about God
All-Powerful.

12 But you have seen it all with your own eyes.

So why do you say such useless things?

<sup>f</sup>26:13 snake ... get away Or "the escaping monster." This might be another name for Rahab. See Isa. 27:1.

- 13<sup>a</sup> “Here is what God has planned for those who are evil.
This is what cruel people will get from God All-Powerful.
- 14 They may have many children, but all of them will be killed in war.
Or their children will not have enough to eat.
- 15 All those who are left will die,
and the widows will not even cry for them.
- 16 Evil people collect silver as easily as dirt.
They may have so many clothes that they are piled up like clay.
- 17 But their piles of clothes will be worn by those who have lived right.
All that silver will be given to those who have done no wrong.
- 18 Evil people might build houses, but they will not last long.
They will be like a spider's web or a guard's tent.
- 19 They might be rich when they go to bed,
but when they open their eyes, all their riches will be gone.
- 20 Terrible fears will come over them like a flood,
like a storm in the night that blows everything away.
- 21 The east wind will carry them away, and they will be gone.
The storm will sweep them out of their homes.
- 22 They may try to run away from the power of the storm,
but it will come down on them without mercy.
- 23 It will make a sound like clapping hands as they run away.
It will whistle at them as they run from their homes.”

The Value of Wisdom

- 28<sup>1</sup> “There are mines where people get silver and places where people melt gold to make it pure.
- 2 Iron is dug out of the ground,
and copper is melted out of the rocks.
- 3 Miners carry lights deep into caves to search for these rocks in the deepest darkness.
- 4 Far from where people live, they dig deep into the ground,
down where no one else has been before.
There they work all alone, hanging from ropes.
- 5 Food grows on the ground above.
But underground it is different,
as if everything were melted by fire.

- 6 In the rocks there are sapphires*
and grains of pure gold.
- 7 Wild birds know nothing about the way to these places.
No falcon<sup>b</sup> has ever seen it.
- 8 Wild animals have never been there.
Lions have not traveled that way.
- 9 Miners dig the hardest rocks.
They dig away at the mountains and make them bare.
- 10 They cut tunnels through the rocks and see all the treasures they hold.
- 11 They even find places where rivers begin.
They bring to light what once was hidden.
- 12 “But where can anyone find wisdom?
Where can we get understanding?
- 13 People don't know where wisdom is.
It cannot be found by anyone on earth.
- 14 The deep ocean says, ‘It's not here with me.’
The sea says, ‘It's not here with me.’
- 15 You cannot buy wisdom with even the purest gold.
There's not enough silver in the world to pay for it.
- 16 You cannot buy it with gold from Ophir or with precious onyx* or sapphires.
- 17 Wisdom is worth more than gold or crystal.
It cannot be bought with expensive jewels set in gold.
- 18 It is far more valuable than coral* and jasper,
more precious than rubies.
- 19 The topaz from Ethiopia cannot match its value,
which is greater than the purest gold.
- 20 “So where does wisdom come from?
Where can we find understanding?
- 21 Wisdom is hidden from every living thing on earth.
Even birds in the sky cannot see it.
- 22 Death and destruction<sup>c</sup> say,
‘We have never seen wisdom;
we have only heard rumors about it.’
- 23 “Only God knows the way to wisdom.
Only he knows where wisdom is.
- 24 He can see to the very ends of the earth.
He sees everything under the sky.
- 25 God gave the wind its power.
He decided how big to make the oceans.
- 26 He decided where to send the rain and where the thunderstorms should go.
- 27 He looked at wisdom and discussed it.
He examined it and saw how much it is worth.

- 28 Then he said to humans, "To fear and respect the LORD is wisdom. To turn away from evil is understanding."

Job Continues His Speech

29 <sup>1</sup>Job continued to speak:

<sup>2</sup>"I wish my life could be the same as it was a few months ago, when God watched over me and cared for me.

<sup>4</sup> I wish for the days when I was successful, when I enjoyed God's friendship and blessing in my home.

<sup>5</sup> God All-Powerful was still with me then, and my children were all around me.

<sup>6</sup> Life was so good that I washed my feet in cream and had plenty of the finest oils.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>"Those were the days when I went to the city gate and sat in the public meeting of the elders.

<sup>8</sup> When the young men saw me coming, they stepped out of my way. And the old men stood up to show they respected me.

Those who saw what I did praised me, <sup>12</sup> because I helped the poor when they cried out.

I helped the orphans who had no one to care for them.

<sup>13</sup> People who were dying asked God to bless me. My help brought joy to widows in need.

<sup>15</sup> I was like eyes for the blind, like feet for the crippled.

<sup>16</sup> I was like a father to the poor. I helped people I didn't even know win their case in court.

<sup>19</sup> I was like a healthy plant with roots that have plenty of water and branches that are wet with dew.

<sup>20</sup> I thought each new day would bring more honor and be full of new possibilities.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>21</sup>"In the past people listened to me. They waited quietly for my advice.

My words fell gently on their ears.

<sup>23</sup> They waited for my words as they would for rain.

They drank them in like rain in the springtime.

My smile made them feel better.

<sup>25</sup> I was their leader and made decisions about their future.

I was like a king among his troops, comforting those who were sad.

30 <sup>1</sup>But now men younger than I make fun of me— men whose fathers were too worthless to put with my sheep dogs.

All their strength is gone.

<sup>3</sup> They are starving with nothing to eat, so they chew on the dry, ruined land.

My name has become a bad word to them.

<sup>10</sup> They hate me and stay far away from me, except when they come to spit in my face!

<sup>11</sup> God has taken the string from my bow and made me weak, so they feel free to do whatever they want to me.

<sup>a</sup>29:6 I had plenty of the finest oils Literally, "Around the anointed rock near me were streams of oil." This probably means Job had so much olive oil that there were streams of oil running down the altar from the part Job gave as a gift to God.

<sup>c</sup>29:20 Literally, "My glory is new with me and my bow in my hand renewed." The words "glory" and "bow" might both refer to a rainbow—the promise of good weather after a storm. Or this might be understood as, "My soul feels new every day, my hand always strong enough to shoot a new bow."

- 12 They attack me on my right side.
They knock my feet out from under me.
They build ramps to attack and destroy me like a city.
- 13 They guard the road so that I cannot escape.
They succeed in destroying me, without help from anyone.
- 14 They break a hole in the wall and come rushing through it,
and the crashing rocks fall on me.
- 15 I am shaking with fear.
They chased my honor away like dust in
the wind.
My safety disappears like a cloud.
- 16 "Now my life is almost gone, and soon I will die.
Days of suffering have grabbed me.
- 17 All my bones ache at night.
Pain never stops chewing on me.
- 18 God grabbed the collar of my coat and twisted my clothes out of shape.
- 19 He threw me into the mud,
and I became like dust and ashes.
- 20 "God, I cry out to you for help,
but you don't answer.
I stand up and pray,
but you don't pay attention to me.
- 21 You have become cruel to me;
you use your power to hurt me.
- 22 You let the strong wind blow me away.
You throw me around in the storm.
- 23 I know you will lead me to my death, to that place where all the living must go.
- 24 "Surely no one would attack a man who is already ruined,
when he is hurt and crying for help.
- 25 God, you know that I cried for those who were in trouble.
You know that I mourned* for the poor.
- 26 But when I hoped for good, trouble came instead.
When I looked for light, darkness came.
- 27 I constantly feel upset.
And my suffering has only just begun.
- 28 I am always sad and depressed, without any relief.
I stand up in the public meeting and cry
for help,
making sad sounds like the wild dogs,
like the ostriches* in the desert.
- 30 My skin is burned and peeling away.
My body is hot with fever.
- 31 My harp is tuned to play songs of sorrow.
My flute makes sad sounds like someone crying.

31 <sup>1</sup>"I made an agreement with my eyes not to look at a young woman in a way that would make me want her.
<sup>2</sup> What does God above have for us?

How does God All-Powerful repay people from his home high in heaven?<sup>a</sup>

- <sup>3</sup> He sends trouble to the wicked and disaster to those who do wrong.
- <sup>4</sup> God is the one who knows what I do and sees every step I take.
- <sup>5</sup> "I have not lied to anyone.
I never tried to cheat people.
- <sup>6</sup> If God would use accurate scales,<sup>b</sup>
he would know that I am innocent.
- <sup>7</sup> If I ever stepped off the right path,
if my eyes led my heart to do evil,
or if my hands are dirty with sin,
<sup>8</sup> then let others eat what I planted.
Let my crops be pulled up by the roots.
- <sup>9</sup> "If I have desired another woman or waited at my neighbor's door to sin with his wife, <sup>10</sup> then let my wife serve someone else,
and let other men sleep with her.
- <sup>11</sup> To do such a thing would be shameful,
a sin that must be punished.
- <sup>12</sup> Such sin is like a fire that burns until it destroys everything.
It would completely ruin my life's work.
- <sup>13</sup> "If I refused to be fair to my slaves
when they had a complaint against me, <sup>14</sup> then what will I do when I must face
God?
What will I say when he asks me to explain what I did?
- <sup>15</sup> The one who made me in my mother's womb also made them.
God shaped us all inside our mothers.
- <sup>16</sup> "I have never refused to help the poor.
I always gave widows what they needed.
- <sup>17</sup> I have never been selfish with my food.
I shared what I had with orphans.
- <sup>18</sup> All my life I have been like a father to orphans
and have taken care of widows.
- <sup>19</sup> Whenever I found people suffering because they didn't have clothes or saw a poor man with no coat, <sup>20</sup> I always gave them something to wear.
I used the wool from my own sheep to make them warm.
And they thanked me with all their heart.
- <sup>21</sup> I never threatened an orphan,

<sup>a</sup>31:1-2 Or possibly, "I made an agreement with my eyes not to look with desire at the Virgin or the sacred things that belong to God All-Powerful." Here, "the Virgin" refers to a goddess worshiped by the Canaanites.

<sup>b</sup>31:6 accurate scales Literally, "scales of righteousness." As a wordplay, this could mean either "accurate scales" or "scales that show a person is good."

- even when I knew I had support in court.<sup>a</sup>
- 22 If I ever did that, may my arm be pulled from its socket and fall from my shoulder!
- 23 But I didn't do any of these bad things. I fear God's punishment too much. His majesty scares me.<sup>b</sup>
- 24<sup>a</sup> I have never trusted in riches. I never said even to pure gold, 'You are my hope.'
- 25 I have been wealthy, but that didn't make me proud. I earned a lot of money, but that is not what made me happy.
- 26 I have never worshiped the bright sun or the beautiful moon.
- 27 I was never foolish enough to worship the sun and the moon.
- 28 This is also a sin that must be punished. If I had worshiped them, I would have been unfaithful to God All-Powerful.
- 29<sup>a</sup> I have never been happy when my enemies were destroyed. I have never laughed at my enemies when bad things happened to them.
- 30 I have never let my mouth sin by cursing* my enemies and wishing for them to die.
- 31 The people in my house know that I have never let anyone go hungry.
- 32 I always invited strangers into my home so that they would not have to sleep in the streets.
- 33 I have not tried to hide my sins as some people do. I have never hidden my guilt.
- 34 I was never so afraid of what people might say or of making enemies that I kept my sins secret and avoided going out.
- 35<sup>a</sup> How I wish someone would listen to me! I will sign my name to all I have said. Now let God All-Powerful answer me. Let him make a list of what he thinks I did wrong.
- 36 I would wear it around my neck. I would put it on my head like a crown.
- 37 Then I could explain everything I have done. I could come to God with my head held high like a prince.
- 38<sup>a</sup> I did not use my land in a wrong way. I never caused it to suffer.
- 39 I always paid the workers for the food I got from the land. I never let any of them starve.

- 40 If I ever did any of these bad things, let thorns and weeds grow in my fields instead of wheat and barley!"

Job's words are finished.

Elihu Adds to the Argument

32<sup>1</sup> Then Job's three friends gave up trying to answer him, because he was so sure that he was innocent. <sup>2</sup> But there was a young man there named Elihu son of Barakel. He was a descendant of a man named Buz. Elihu was from the family of Ram. He became very angry because Job kept saying he was innocent—that he was right and God was wrong. <sup>3</sup> Elihu was also angry with Job's three friends because they could not answer him, and yet they still considered him guilty of doing wrong. <sup>4</sup> Elihu was the youngest one there, so he had waited until everyone finished talking. <sup>5</sup> But when he saw that Job's three friends had nothing more to say, his anger forced him to speak. <sup>6</sup> So here's what Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said:

- "I am only a young man, and you are all older. That is why I was afraid to tell you what I think.
- 7 I thought to myself, 'Older people should speak first. They have lived many years, so they have learned many things.'
- 8 But it is the spirit in people, the breath from God All-Powerful, that makes them understand.
- 9 Old men are not the only wise people. They are not the only ones who understand what is right.
- 10<sup>a</sup> So please listen to me, and I will tell you what I think.
- 11 I waited patiently while you men talked. I listened to the answers you gave as you searched for the right words.
- 12 I listened carefully to what you said. Not one of you proved Job wrong. Not one of you answered his arguments.
- 13 You men cannot say that you have found wisdom. The answer to Job's arguments must come from God, not people.
- 14 Job was arguing with you, not me, so I will not use your arguments to answer him.
- 15<sup>a</sup> Job, these men lost the argument. They don't have anything more to say. They don't have any more answers.
- 16 I waited for them to answer you. But now they are quiet. They stand there with nothing more to say.
- 17 So now I will give you my answer. Yes, I will tell you what I think.

- 18 I have so much to say that I cannot hold it in.
- 19 I feel like a jar of wine that has never been opened.
I am like a new wineskin ready to burst.
- 20 I must speak so that I will feel better.
I must answer your arguments.
- 21 I will treat you the same as I would treat anyone else.
I will not praise you to win your favor.
- 22 I cannot treat one person better than another.
If I did, God my Maker would punish
me!

33 14“Now, Job, listen to me.
Listen carefully to what I say.

- 2 I am ready to speak.
- 3 My heart is honest, so my words are sincere.
I will speak the truth about what I
know.
- 4 God’s Spirit made me.
My life comes from God All-Powerful.
- 5 Listen to me and answer if you can.
Get your arguments ready to face me.
- 6 You and I are the same before God.
He used clay to make us both.
- 7 Don’t be afraid of me.
I will not be hard on you.

8“But, Job, I heard what you said.
These were your very words:

- 9 ‘I am pure and innocent;
I did nothing wrong; I am not guilty!’
- 10 But God found an excuse to attack me.
He treats me like an enemy.
- 11 He put chains on my feet and watches everything I do.’

12“But you are wrong about this, and I will prove it to you.

- God knows more than any of us.<sup>a</sup>
- 13 You are arguing with God!
Why do you think he should explain everything to you?
- 14 But maybe God does explain what he does but speaks in ways that people don’t understand.
- 15 He may speak in a dream, or in a vision*
at night,
when people are in a deep sleep lying in their beds.
- 16 He may whisper something in their ear,
and they are frightened when they hear his warnings.
- 17 God warns people to stop them from doing wrong
and to keep them from becoming proud.
- 18 He does this to save them from death.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>b</sup>33:18 death Literally, “the Pit,” the place where people go when they die. Also in verse 22.

He wants to keep them from being destroyed.

- 19“Or those who are sick in bed might be suffering punishment from God.
The pain that makes their bones ache might be a warning from him.
- 20 They feel so bad they cannot eat.
Even the best food makes them sick.
- 21 Their bodies might waste away until they become thin
and all their bones stick out.
- 22 They might be close to death,
their lives about to end.
- 23 But maybe one of God’s thousands of angels is watching over them, to speak for them and tell about the good things they have done.
- 24 Maybe the angel will be kind and say to God,
‘Save this one from the place of death!
I have found a way to pay for his life.’
- 25 Then that person’s body will become young and strong again.
He will be as he was when he was young.
- 26 He will pray and God will answer.
He will worship God and shout with joy.
He will again stand as right before God.
- 27 He will tell everyone, ‘I sinned.
I changed good into bad,
but God didn’t give me the punishment
I deserved!’
- 28 God saved me from going down to the
place of death.
Now I can enjoy life again.’

29“God does all these things for people again and again.

30 He wants them to be saved from death
so that they can enjoy life.

31“Job, pay attention and listen to me.
Be quiet and let me talk.

32 But if you have an answer, go ahead and speak.
Tell me your argument.
I would be happy to know that you are innocent!

33 But if you have nothing to say, then listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.”

34 1Then Elihu continued his speech:

- 2“Listen to what I say, you wise men.
Pay attention, you who know so much.
- 3 Your tongue tastes the food it touches,
and your ear tests the words it hears.
- 4 So let us test these arguments and decide for ourselves what is right.
Together we will learn what is good.
- 5 Job says, ‘I am innocent, and God is not being fair to me.
- 6 I am right, but I am judged to be a liar.

- I have done no wrong, but I am badly hurt.'
- 7 "Would anyone but Job say such things?
He has more thirst for insulting God than for water.
- 8 He is a friend of evil people.
He likes to spend time with the wicked.
- 9 I know this because he says,
'You will gain nothing if you try to please God.'
- 10 "You men can understand, so listen to me.
God would never do what is evil!
God All-Powerful would never do wrong.
- 11 He pays us back for what we have done.
He gives us what we deserve.
- 12 The truth is that God does no wrong.
God All-Powerful is always fair.
- 13 No one chose God to be in charge of the earth.
No one gave him responsibility for the whole world.
- 14 If God decided to take away his spirit and the breath of life he gave us, 15 then everything on earth would die.
We would all become dust again.
- 16 "If you men are wise,
you will listen to what I say.
- 17 Can someone be a ruler if he hates justice?
Job, God is not only powerful, but he is fair.
Do you think you can judge him guilty?
- 18 God is the one who says to kings, 'You are worthless!'
He says to leaders, 'You are evil!'
- 19 He does not respect leaders more than other people.
And he does not respect the rich more than the poor.
God made everyone.
- 20 Any of us can die suddenly, in the middle of the night.
Anyone can get sick and pass away.
Even powerful people die for no reason we can see.
- 21 "God watches what people do.
He sees every step they take.
- 22 There is no place dark enough for evil people to hide from God.
- 23 God does not need to set a time for people to come before him and be judged.
- 24 He does not have to ask questions when people do wrong, even if they are powerful leaders.
He simply destroys them
and chooses others to take their place.
- 25 When he learns what people have done,
he defeats them, and overnight they are gone.

- 26 He will punish them for the evil they have done,
and he will do it where everyone can see.
- 27 He will do this because they rebelled against him and ignored what he wanted.
- 28 They hurt the poor and made them cry to God for help.
And he hears their cry!
- 29 But if God decides not to help them,
no one can judge him guilty.
If he hides himself, no one can find him.
He is the ruler over every person and nation.
- 30 And if a ruler causes people to sin,
God will remove him from power.
- 31 "But what if someone says to God,
'I am guilty; I will not sin anymore?'
- 32 What if that person says, 'Show me the sins I am not able to see.
If I have done wrong, I will not do it again?'
- 33 Job, you want God to reward you,
but you refuse to change.
It is your decision, not mine.
Tell me what you think.
- 34 A wise person would listen to me.
A wise person would say,
- 35 'Job talks like an ignorant person.
What he says doesn't make sense!'
- 36 I think Job should be punished even more,
because he answers us like someone who is evil!
- 37 He adds rebellion to his other sins.
He sits there insulting us and arguing with God!"

35

<sup>1</sup>Elihu continued talking and said,

- 2 "Job, it is not fair for you to say,
'I am more right than God,'
- 3 because you also ask him,
'What's the use of trying to please you?
What good will it do me if I don't sin?'
- 4 "Job, I want to answer you and your friends here with you.
- 5 Look up at the sky.
Look at the clouds, which are so much higher than you.
- 6 If you sin, it does not hurt God.
Even if your sins are too many to count,
that does nothing to God.
- 7 And if you are good, that does not help God.
He gets nothing from you.
- 8 Job, the good and bad things you do affect only other people like yourself.
- 9 "If people are being hurt, they cry out and beg for protection from those who hurt them.

- <sup>10</sup> But they forget to say, 'Where is God, the one who made me?
He is the one who gives us songs to sing in the night.
- <sup>11</sup> He is the one who makes us smarter than any animal on earth and wiser than any bird.'
- <sup>12</sup> "Or if evil people ask God for help, he will not answer them, because they are too proud.
- <sup>13</sup> God will not listen to their worthless begging.
God All-Powerful will not pay attention to them.
- <sup>14</sup> So, Job, God will not listen to you when you say that you don't see him.
You say you are waiting for your chance to meet with him and prove that you are innocent.
- <sup>15</sup> "Job thinks that God does not punish evil and that he pays no attention to sin.
- <sup>16</sup> So he continues his worthless talking.
Everything he has said shows he does not know what he is talking about."
- 36 <sup>1</sup> Elihu continued talking and said,
- <sup>2</sup> "Be patient with me a little longer.
God has a few more words that he wants me to say.
- <sup>3</sup> I will share my knowledge with everyone.
I will prove that my Maker is right.
- <sup>4</sup> Job, I am telling the truth.
I know what I am talking about.
- <sup>5</sup> "God is very powerful,
but he does not hate people.
He is very powerful,
but he is also very wise.
- <sup>6</sup> He will not let evil people live.
He brings justice to the poor.
- <sup>7</sup> He watches over those who live right.
He lets them rule in high places.
- <sup>8</sup> So if people are punished,
if they are tied with chains and ropes,
they did something wrong.
- <sup>9</sup> And God will tell them what they did,
that they sinned and were proud.
- <sup>10</sup> He will force them to listen to his warning.
He will command them to stop sinning.
- <sup>11</sup> If they serve and obey him, he will make them successful and they will live a happy life.
- <sup>12</sup> But if they refuse to obey him, they will be destroyed.
They will die like fools.
- <sup>13</sup> "People who don't care about God are always bitter.
Even when he punishes them, they refuse to pray to him for help.
- <sup>14</sup> They will die while they are still young,
like the male prostitutes.
- <sup>15</sup> God saves those who suffer by using their suffering.
He uses their troubles to speak in a way that makes them listen.
- <sup>16</sup> "In fact, God wants to help you out of your troubles.
He wants to take away your burdens that are crushing you.
He wants to load your table with plenty of food.
- <sup>17</sup> But you are full of this talk about guilt, judgment, and justice!
- <sup>18</sup> Job, don't let your anger fill you with doubt about God.
And don't let the price of forgiveness turn you away.
- <sup>19</sup> Do you think your wealth will keep you out of trouble?
Will your great strength be of any help to you now?
- <sup>20</sup> Don't be like those who wish darkness would come and hide them.
They try to disappear into the night.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>21</sup> Job, don't let your suffering cause you to choose evil.
Be careful not to do wrong.
- <sup>22</sup> "Look, God's power makes him great!
He is the greatest teacher of all.
- <sup>23</sup> No one can tell him what to do.
No one can say, 'God, you have done wrong.'
- <sup>24</sup> Remember to praise him for what he has done,
as many others have done in song.
- <sup>25</sup> Everyone can see what he has done, even people in faraway countries.
- <sup>26</sup> Yes, God is great, but we cannot understand his greatness.
We don't know how long he has lived.
- <sup>27</sup> "God takes up water from the earth and changes it into mist and rain.
- <sup>28</sup> So the clouds pour out the water, and the rain falls on many people.
- <sup>29</sup> No one can understand how he spreads the clouds out or how the thunder rumbles from his home in the sky.
- <sup>30</sup> Look, he spreads lightning all over the sky and covers the deepest part of the ocean.
- <sup>31</sup> He uses them to control the nations and to give them plenty of food.
- <sup>32</sup> He grabs the lightning with his hands, and commands it to strike where he wants.
- <sup>33</sup> The thunder warns that a storm is coming.
So even the cattle know it is near.

- 37<sup>1</sup>“The thunder and lightning frighten me;
my heart pounds in my chest.
2 Listen to God’s thundering voice!
Listen to the sound coming from his mouth.
3 He sends his lightning to flash across the whole sky.
It lights up the earth from one end to the other.
4 After the flashes of lightning you can hear his roaring voice.
He thunders with his wonderful voice!
And while his voice thunders, the lightning flashes continue.
5 God’s thundering voice is amazing!
He does great things that we cannot understand.
6 He says to the snow,
‘Fall on the earth.’
And he says to the rain,
‘Pour down on the earth.’
7 God does this to stop everyone’s work and to show the people he made what he can do.
8 The animals run into their dens and stay there.
9 Whirlwinds come from the south.
The cold winds come from the north.
10 God’s breath makes ice and freezes even large bodies of water.
11 He fills the clouds with water and scatters his lightning through them.
12 He orders the clouds to be blown all around the earth.
The clouds do whatever he commands.
13 He causes the clouds to punish people with floods or to water his earth and show his love.
14“Job, stop for a minute and listen.
Think about the wonderful things God does.
15 Do you know how God controls the clouds?
Do you know how he makes his lightning flash?
16 Do you know how the clouds hang in the sky?
This is just one of the amazing works of the one who knows everything.
17 All you know is that you sweat, your clothes stick to you, and all is still and quiet when the heat wave comes from the south.
18 Can you help God spread out the sky and make it shine like polished brass?

19“Job, tell us what we should say to God!
We cannot think of what to say because of our ignorance.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup>37:19 We cannot ... ignorance Literally, “We cannot arrange our thoughts, because of the darkness.”

- 20 I would not tell God that I wanted to talk to him.
That would be like asking to be destroyed.
21 A person cannot look at the sun.
It is too bright as it shines in the sky after the wind blows the clouds away.
22 In the same way God’s golden glory shines from the Holy Mountain.<sup>b</sup>
He is surrounded by the brightest light.
23 We have seen that God All-Powerful really is all powerful!
But he is just and never treats anyone unfairly.<sup>c</sup> 24 That is why people fear and respect him.
He shows no respect for those who think they are wise.”

God Speaks to Job

38<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Job from a whirlwind and said,

- 2“Who is this ignorant person saying these foolish things?”<sup>d</sup>
3 Brace yourself<sup>e</sup> and get ready to answer the questions I will ask you.
4“Where were you when I made the earth?
If you are so smart, answer me.
5 And who decided how big the earth should be?
Who measured it with a measuring line?
6 What is the earth resting on?
Who put the first stone in its place
7 when the morning stars sang together and the angels<sup>f</sup> shouted with joy?
8“Who closed the flood gates as the sea gushed from the womb?
9 Who covered it with clouds and wrapped it in darkness?
10 I set the limits for the sea and put it behind locked gates.
11 I said to the sea, ‘You can come this far,
but no farther.
This is where your proud waves will stop.’
12“Did you ever in your life command the morning to begin or the day to dawn?
13 Did you ever tell the morning light to grab the earth and shake those who are evil out of their hiding places?
14 The morning light makes the hills and valleys easy to see.

- 7 They are happy to be away from the noise of the city.
They never have to listen to their drivers shouting at them.
- 8 They live in the mountains.
That is their pasture.
That is where they look for food to eat.
- 9 "Will a wild bull agree to serve you?
Will he stay in your barn at night?
- 10 Will he let you put ropes on him to plow your fields?
- 11 A wild bull is very strong,
but can you trust him to do your work?
- 12 Can you trust him to gather your grain and bring it to your threshing* place?
- 13 "An ostrich* gets excited and flaps its wings, but it cannot fly.
Its wings and feathers are not like the wings of a stork.
- 14 An ostrich lays her eggs on the ground and lets the sand keep them warm.
- 15 The ostrich forgets that someone might step on her eggs or that a wild animal might break them.
- 16 An ostrich leaves her little babies.
She treats them as if they were not her own.
If her babies die, she does not care that all her work was for nothing.
- 17 That's because I did not give wisdom to the ostrich.
She is foolish, and I made her that way.
- 18 But when the ostrich gets up to run, she laughs at the horse and its rider, because she can run faster than any horse.
- 19 "Did you give the horse its strength?
Did you put the mane<sup>a</sup> on its neck?
- 20 Did you make it able to jump like a locust or snort<sup>b</sup> so loudly that it scares people?
- 21 A horse is happy to be so strong.
It scratches the ground with its foot and runs into battle.
- 22 It laughs at fear; nothing makes it afraid!
It does not run away from battle.
- 23 The soldier's quiver* shakes on the horse's side.
The spear and weapons its rider carries shine in the sun.
- 24 The horse gets very excited and races over the ground.<sup>c</sup>
When it hears the trumpet blow, it cannot stand still.

- 25 When the trumpet sounds, it snorts, 'Hurray!'
It can smell the battle from far away and hear the shouts of commanders with all the other sounds of battle.
- 26 "Did you teach the hawk how to spread its wings and fly south<sup>d</sup>?
- 27 Are you the one who told the eagle<sup>e</sup> to fly high into the sky?
Did you tell it to build its nest high in the mountains?
- 28 It lives high on a peak at the top of a cliff.
That is its fortress.*
- 29 From there it looks far into the distance, searching for its food.
- 30 The eagles gather around dead bodies, and their young eat the blood."

40 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Job,

- <sup>2</sup>"You wanted to argue with God All-Powerful.
You wanted to correct me and prove that I was wrong.
So give me your answer!"

<sup>3</sup>Then Job answered the LORD:

- <sup>4</sup>"I am not worthy to speak!
What can I say to you?
I cannot answer you!
I will put my hand over my mouth.
- <sup>5</sup> I spoke once, but I will not speak again.
I spoke twice, but I will not say anything more."

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Job again from the storm:

- <sup>7</sup>"Brace yourself<sup>f</sup> and get ready to answer the questions I will ask you.
- <sup>8</sup>"Are you trying to show that I am unfair?
Are you trying to look innocent by saying that I am guilty?
- <sup>9</sup> Are your arms as strong as mine?
Do you have a voice like mine that is as loud as thunder?
- <sup>10</sup> If so, you can be proud and wear glory and honor like clothes.
- <sup>11</sup> If you are as powerful as God, then show your anger!
Punish those who are proud and humble them.
- <sup>12</sup> Yes, just look at the proud and make them humble.
Crush those evil people where they stand.
- <sup>13</sup> Bury them all in the dirt.
Wrap their bodies up and put them in their graves.

14 If you can do any of these things, then even I will praise you.
And I will admit that you can save yourself by your own power.

15 "Look at the behemoth.<sup>a</sup>
I made the behemoth, and I made you.
He eats grass like a cow.
16 But he has great strength in his body.
The muscles in his stomach are powerful.
17 His tail stands strong like a cedar tree.
His leg muscles are very strong.
18 His bones are as strong as bronze.
His legs are like iron bars.
19 The behemoth is the most amazing animal I made,
but I can defeat him.
20 He eats the grass that grows on the hills
where the wild animals play.
21 He lies under the lotus plants.
He hides among the reeds of the swamp.
22 The lotus plants hide him in their shade.
He lives under the willow trees that grow near the river.
23 If the river floods, the behemoth will not run away.
He is not afraid if the Jordan River splashes on his face.
24 No one can blind his eyes and capture
him.
No one can catch him in a trap.

41 1 "Can you catch Leviathan<sup>b</sup> with a fishhook?
Can you tie his tongue with a rope?
2 Can you put a rope through his nose or a hook through his jaw?
3 Will he beg you to let him go free?
Will he speak to you with gentle words?
4 Will he make an agreement with you and promise to serve you forever?
5 Will you play with Leviathan as you would play with a bird?
Will you put a rope on him so that your girls can play with him?
6 Will fishermen try to buy him from you?
Will they cut him into pieces and sell him to the merchants?
7 Can you throw spears into his skin or head?

8 "If you ever lay a hand on Leviathan, you will never do it again!
Just think about the battle that would be!
9 Do you think you can defeat him?
Well, forget it! There is no hope.
Just looking at him will scare you!
10 No one is brave enough to wake him up and make him angry.

<sup>a</sup>40:15 behemoth This might be a hippopotamus, a rhinoceros, or possibly an elephant.

<sup>b</sup>41:1 Leviathan This animal might be a crocodile or a giant sea monster.

"Well, no one can challenge me either!<sup>c</sup>
11 I owe nothing to anyone.
Everything under heaven belongs to me.<sup>d</sup> 12 "I will tell you about Leviathan's legs, his strength, and his graceful shape.
13 No one can pierce his skin.
It is like armor!<sup>e</sup>
14 No one can force him to open his jaws.
The teeth in his mouth scare people.
15 His back has rows of shields tightly sealed together.
16 They are so close to each other that no air can pass between them.
17 The shields are joined to each other.
They hold together so tightly that they cannot be pulled apart.
18 When Leviathan sneezes, it is like lightning flashing out.
His eyes shine like the light of dawn.
19 Burning torches come from his mouth.
Sparks of fire shoot out.
20 Smoke pours from his nose like burning weeds under a boiling pot.
21 His breath sets coals on fire,
and flames shoot from his mouth.
22 His neck is very powerful.
People are afraid and run away from
him.
23 There is no soft spot in his skin.
It is as hard as iron.
24 His heart is like a rock; he has no fear.
It is as hard as a millstone.*
25 When he gets up, even the strongest people<sup>f</sup> are afraid.
They run away when he swings his tail.
26 Swords, spears, and darts only bounce off
when they hit him.
These weapons don't hurt him at all!
27 He breaks iron as easily as straw.
He breaks bronze like rotten wood.
28 Arrows don't make him run away.
Rocks thrown at him seem as light as chaff.*
29 When a wood club hits him, it feels to him like a piece of straw.
He laughs when anyone throws a spear
at him.
30 The skin on his belly is like sharp pieces of broken pottery.
He leaves tracks in the mud like a threshing* board.
31 He stirs up the water like a boiling pot.
He makes it bubble like a pot of boiling
oil.
32 When he swims, he leaves a sparkling path behind him.

<sup>c</sup>41:10 Well, no one ... either Or "No one can stand and fight him."

<sup>d</sup>41:11 Or "No one has come near to Leviathan and survived—no one under heaven!"

<sup>e</sup>41:13 It is like armor Or "No one can approach him with a bridle."

He stirs up the water and makes it white with foam.

<sup>33</sup> No animal on earth is like him.

He is an animal made without fear.

He is king over all the wild animals.”

Job Answers the Lord

42 <sup>1</sup>Then Job answered the LORD:

<sup>2</sup>“I know you can do everything.

You make plans, and nothing can change or stop them.

<sup>3</sup> You asked, ‘Who is this ignorant person saying these foolish things?’<sup>a</sup>

I talked about things I did not understand.

I talked about things too amazing for me to know.

<sup>4</sup>“You said to me, ‘Listen, and I will speak. I will ask you questions, and you will answer me.’

<sup>5</sup> In the past I heard about you, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

I am so sorry.

As I sit in the dust and ashes,<sup>c</sup>

I promise to change my heart and my life.”

The Lord Gives Job's Wealth Back

<sup>7</sup>After the LORD finished talking to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz from Teman. He said, “I am angry with you and your two friends, because you did not tell the truth about me, as my servant Job did. <sup>8</sup>So now, Eliphaz, get seven bulls and seven rams. Take them to my servant Job. Kill them and offer them as a burnt offering* for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will answer his prayer. Then I will not give you the punishment you deserve. You should be punished, because you were very foolish. You did not say what is right about me, as my servant Job did.”

<sup>c</sup>42:6 dust and ashes People sat in dust and ashes to show that they were very sad about something.

<sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah obeyed the LORD. Then the LORD answered Job's prayer.

<sup>10</sup>Job prayed for his friends, and the LORD made Job successful again. God gave him twice as much as he had before. <sup>11</sup>Then all his brothers and sisters and all the people who knew him before came to his house. They all ate a big meal with him. They comforted him and were sorry that the LORD had brought him so much trouble. Each person gave Job a piece of silver and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD blessed Job with even more than he had in the beginning. Job got 14,000 sheep, 6000 camels, 2000 oxen, and 1000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>He also got seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>He named the first daughter Jemimah and the second daughter Keziah. He named the third daughter Keren Hapuch. <sup>15</sup>Job's daughters were among the most beautiful women in all the country. And, like their brothers, they each got a share of their father's property.<sup>d</sup>

Psalms

BOOK 1 (Psalms 1-41)

1 <sup>1</sup>Great blessings belong to those who don't listen to evil advice, who don't live like sinners, and who don't join those who make fun of God.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Instead, they love the LORD's teachings and think about them day and night.

<sup>3</sup> So they grow strong, like a tree planted by a stream—a tree that produces fruit when it should and has leaves that never fall.
Everything they do is successful.

<sup>4</sup> But the wicked are not like that.
They are like chaff* that the wind blows away.

<sup>e</sup>1:1 Or “The one who does not follow the advice of the wicked or turn onto Sinners Road or stay at Scoffers' House is blessed.”

- 5 When the time for judgment comes, the wicked will be found guilty.
Sinners have no place among those who do what is right.<sup>a</sup>
- 6 The LORD shows his people how to live, but the wicked have lost their way.

2 <sup>1</sup>Why are the nations so angry?
Why are the people making such foolish plans?
<sup>2</sup>Their kings and leaders join together to fight against the LORD and his chosen king.<sup>b</sup>
Let's break free from them!"

- 4 But the one who rules in heaven laughs at them.

The LORD makes fun of them.

- 5 He speaks to them in anger, and it fills them with fear.
6 He says, "I have chosen this man to be king,
and he will rule on Zion,* my holy mountain."

- 7 Let me tell you about the LORD's agreement*:
He said to me, "Today I have become your father,<sup>c</sup> and you are my son.

- 8 If you ask, I will give you the nations.
Everyone on earth will be yours.

- 9 You will rule over them with great power.
You will scatter your enemies like broken pieces of pottery!"

- 10 So, kings and rulers, be smart and learn this lesson.

- 11 Serve the LORD with fear and trembling.

- 12 Show that you are loyal to his son,<sup>d</sup> or the Lord will be angry and destroy you.

He is almost angry enough to do that now, but those who go to him for protection will be blessed.

3 *A song of David* written during the time he was running from his son Absalom.*

- <sup>1</sup>LORD, I have so many enemies.
So many people have turned against me.
<sup>2</sup>They say to themselves, "God will not rescue him!" *Selah**

- <sup>3</sup>But you, LORD, protect me.
You bring me honor;
you give me hope.

<sup>c</sup>2:7 I have become your father Literally, "I fathered you." Originally, this probably meant God was "adopting" the king as his son.

- 4 I will pray to the LORD, and he will answer me from his holy mountain. Selah

- 5 I can lie down to rest and know that I will wake up, because the LORD covers and protects me.

- 6 So I will not be afraid of my enemies,
even if thousands of them surround me.

- 7 LORD, get up!<sup>e</sup>
My God, come rescue me!
If you hit my enemies on the cheek,
you will break all their teeth.

- 8 LORD, the victory<sup>f</sup> is yours!
You are so good to your people. Selah

4 *To the director*: With stringed instruments.
A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup>God, you showed that I was innocent.
You gave me relief from all my troubles.
So listen to me now when I call to you for help.
Be kind to me and hear my prayer.

- <sup>2</sup>Men,<sup>g</sup> how long will you try to dishonor me?
Do you enjoy wasting your time
searching for new lies against me? *Selah**

- <sup>3</sup>You can be sure that anyone who serves the LORD faithfully is special to him.
The LORD listens when I pray to him.

- 4 Tremble with fear, and stop sinning.<sup>h</sup>
Think about this when you go to bed, and calm down. Selah

- 5 Give the right sacrifices* to the LORD,
and put your trust in him!

- 6 Many people say, "I wish I could enjoy the good life.
LORD, give us some of those blessings."<sup>i</sup>

- 7 But you have made me happier than they will ever be with all their wine and grain.

- 8 When I go to bed, I sleep in peace, because, LORD, you keep me safe.

<sup>e</sup>3:7 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

<sup>g</sup>4:2 Men Literally, "Sons of man." This may be a term of respect spoken to the leaders who were judging the writer of this psalm.

<sup>h</sup>4:4 Or "Be angry, but don't sin." See Eph. 4:26, which is based on the ancient Greek version.

<sup>i</sup>4:6 I wish ... blessings Or "Who will show us good. Lift up on us the light of your face, LORD."

5 *To the director*: With flutes.<sup>a</sup>
A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, listen to me
and understand what I am trying to say.
- <sup>2</sup> My God and King,
listen to my prayer.
- <sup>3</sup> Every morning, LORD, I lay my gifts before
you
and look to you for help.
And every morning you hear my prayers.
- <sup>4</sup> God, you don't want evil people near you.
They cannot stay in your presence.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> Fools<sup>c</sup> cannot come near you.
You hate those who do evil.
- <sup>6</sup> You destroy those who tell lies.
LORD, you hate those who make secret plans to hurt others.
- <sup>7</sup> But by your great mercy, I can enter your house.
I can worship in your holy Temple* with fear and respect for you.
- <sup>8</sup> LORD, show me your right way of living,
and make it easy for me to follow.
People are looking for my weaknesses,
so show me how you want me to live.
- <sup>9</sup> My enemies never tell the truth.
They only want to destroy people.
Their words come from mouths that are like open graves.
They use their lying tongues to deceive others.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>10</sup> Punish them, God!
Let them be caught in their own traps.
They have turned against you,
so punish them for their many crimes.
- <sup>11</sup> But let those who trust in you be happy
forever.
Protect and strengthen those who love
your name.
- <sup>12</sup> LORD, when you bless good people, you surround them with your love, like a large shield that protects them.

6 *To the director*: With stringed instruments, on the sheminith.* A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, don't punish me.
Don't correct me when you are so angry.
- <sup>2</sup> LORD, be kind to me.
I am sick and weak.
Heal me, LORD!
My bones are shaking.
- <sup>3</sup> I am trembling all over.

LORD, how long until you heal me?<sup>e</sup>

- <sup>4</sup> LORD, come back and make me strong
again.
Save me because you are so loyal and kind.
- <sup>5</sup> If I am dead, I cannot sing about you.
Those in the grave don't praise you.
- <sup>6</sup> LORD, I am so weak.
I cried to you all night.
My pillow is soaked;
my bed is dripping wet from my tears.
- <sup>7</sup> My enemies have caused me such sorrow that my eyes are worn out from crying.
- <sup>8</sup> Go away, you wicked people,
because the LORD has heard my cries.
- <sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my request for mercy.
The LORD has accepted my prayer.
- <sup>10</sup> All my enemies will be filled with fear and shame.
They will be sorry when disgrace
suddenly comes upon them.

7 *A song<sup>f</sup> of David* that he sang to the LORD about Cush from the tribe of Benjamin.*

- <sup>1</sup> LORD my God, I come to you for protection.
Save me from those who are chasing
me.
- <sup>2</sup> If you don't help me, I will be torn apart like an animal caught by a lion.
I will be carried away with no one to
save me.
- <sup>3</sup> LORD my God, I have done nothing wrong.
- <sup>4</sup> I have done nothing to hurt a friend<sup>g</sup> or to help his enemies.
- <sup>5</sup> If that is not the truth, then punish me.
Let an enemy chase me, catch me, and kill me.
Let him grind me into the dirt and put me in my grave. Selah<sup>h</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> LORD, get up<sup>h</sup> and show your anger!
My enemy is angry, so stand and fight against him.
Get me the justice that you demand.
- <sup>7</sup> Gather the nations around you,
and take your place as judge.
- <sup>8</sup> LORD, judge the people.
LORD, judge me.
Prove that I am right and that I am
innocent.

<sup>e</sup>6:3 LORD ... heal me Literally, "As for you, LORD, how long?"

<sup>h</sup>7:6 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

<sup>a</sup>Psalm 5 for the flutes This might be the name of a tune instead of a type of instrument.

<sup>c</sup>5:5 Fools Here, this means people who do not follow God and his wise teachings.

<sup>d</sup>5:9 They use ... others Or "They say nice things to others, but only to trap them."

- 9 Stop those who do evil.
Support those who do good.
God, you are fair.
You know what people are thinking.
- 10 God helps people who want to do right,
so he will protect me.
- 11 God is a good judge.
He always condemns evil.
- 12-13 If the wicked will not change,
then God is ready to punish them.
He has prepared his deadly weapons.
His sword is sharp.
His bow is strung, drawn back, and ready to shoot its flaming arrow.
- 14 The minds of the wicked are full of evil;
they are pregnant with wicked plans,
which give birth to lies.
- 15 They dig a pit to trap others, but they are the ones who will fall into
it.
- 16 The trouble they cause will come back on
them.
They plan harm for others,
but they are the ones who will be hurt.
- 17 I praise the LORD because he is good.
I praise the name of the LORD Most High.

8 *To the director*: With the gittith.*
A song of David.**

- 1 LORD our Lord, your name is the most wonderful in all the earth!
It brings you praise everywhere in heaven.
- 2 From the mouths of children and babies come songs of praise to you.
They sing of your power to silence your enemies who were seeking revenge.
- 3 I look at the heavens you made with your hands.
I see the moon and the stars you created.
- 4 And I wonder, "Why are people so important to you?
Why do you even think about them?
Why do you care so much about humans?
Why do you even notice them?"
- 5 But you made people<sup>b</sup> almost like gods and crowned them with glory and honor.
- 6 You put them in charge of everything you made.

<sup>a</sup>8:4 people ... humans Literally, "man ... son of man" or "Enosh ... son of Adam." These are Hebrew ways of saying humans—descendants of Adam and Enosh.

<sup>b</sup>8:5, 6 people, them, their Literally, "him, him, his." The writer is still talking about "man" and "son of man," which can be understood as one person or as all people.

- You put everything under their control.
- 7 People rule over the sheep and cattle and all the wild animals.
- 8 They rule over the birds in the sky and the fish that swim in the sea.
- 9 LORD our Lord, your name is the most wonderful name in all the earth!

9 *<sup>c</sup>To the director*: Use the Alamoth of Ben.<sup>d</sup>
A song of David.**

- 1 I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart.
I will tell about the wonderful things
you have done.
- 2 You make me happy, so I will rejoice in
you.
God Most High, I praise your name.
- 3 My enemies turned to run from you,
but they fell and were destroyed.
- 4 You listened to me from your throne like a good judge,
and you decided that I was right.
- 5 You told the nations how wrong they were.
You destroyed those evil people.
You erased their names from our memory forever and ever.
- 6 The enemy is finished!
You destroyed their cities.
There is nothing left to remind us of
them.
- 7 The LORD set up his throne to bring justice,
and he will rule forever.
- 8 He judges everyone on earth fairly.
He judges all nations honestly.
- 9 Many people are suffering—
crushed by the weight of their troubles.
But the LORD is a refuge for them,
a safe place they can run to.
- 10 LORD, those who know your name come to you for protection.
And when they come,
you do not leave them without help.
- 11 Sing praises to the LORD, who sits as King in Zion.<sup>e</sup> Tell the nations about the great things he has done.
- 12 He punishes murderers and remembers those who are in need.
When suffering people cry for help,
he does not ignore them.

<sup>c</sup>Psalm 9 In many Hebrew copies and in the ancient Greek version, Psalms 9 and 10 are combined as one psalm.

<sup>d</sup>Psalm 9 Alamoth of Ben This might be the name of a tune, "On the Death of the Son," a music style, or one of the orchestral groups in the Temple. See 1 Chron. 15:20.

<sup>e</sup>9:11 Sing ... Zion Or "Inhabitants of Zion, sing praises to the LORD." See "Zion" in the Word List.

- <sup>13</sup> I said this prayer: "Lord, be kind to me.
See how my enemies are hurting me.
Save me from the 'gates of death.'
<sup>14</sup> Then, at the gates of Jerusalem,<sup>a</sup> I can sing praises to you.
I will be so happy because you saved
me."
- <sup>15</sup> Those other nations have fallen into the pit they dug to catch others.
They have been caught in their own trap.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD showed that he judges fairly.
The wicked were caught by what they did to hurt others. *Higgayon<sup>b</sup> Selah**
- <sup>17</sup> The wicked will go to the place of death, as will all the nations that forget God.
- <sup>18</sup> It may seem that those who are poor and needy have been forgotten,
but God will not forget them.
He will not leave them without hope.
- <sup>19</sup> LORD, get up<sup>c</sup> and judge the nations.
Don't let anyone think they can win
against you.
- <sup>20</sup> Teach them a lesson.
Let them know they are only human.

Selah

- 10 <sup>1</sup>LORD, why do you stay so far away?
Why do you hide from people in times of trouble?
- <sup>2</sup> The wicked are proud and make evil plans to hurt the poor,
who are caught in their traps and made to suffer.
- <sup>3</sup> Those greedy people brag about the things they want to get.
They curse* the LORD and show that they hate him.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked are too proud to ask God for
help.
He does not fit into their plans.
- <sup>5</sup> They succeed in everything they do.
They don't understand how you can judge them.
They make fun of all their enemies.
- <sup>6</sup> They say to themselves, "Nothing bad will ever happen to us.
We will have our fun and never be punished."
- <sup>7</sup> They are always cursing, lying,
and planning evil things to do.
- <sup>8</sup> They hide just outside the villages,
waiting to kill innocent people,

<sup>b</sup>9:16 Higgayon Or "Meditation." Together with Selah this may mean a time to pause and think quietly.

<sup>c</sup>9:19 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36. Also in Ps. 10:12.

- always looking for any helpless person they can hurt.
- <sup>9</sup> They are like lions hiding in the bushes to catch weak and helpless animals.
They lay their traps for the poor,
who are caught in their nets.
- <sup>10</sup> Again and again they hurt people who are already weak and suffering.
- <sup>11</sup> They say to themselves, "God has forgotten about us.
He is not watching.
He will never see what we are doing."
- <sup>12</sup> LORD, get up and do something.
Punish those who are wicked, God.
Don't forget those who are poor and helpless.
- <sup>13</sup> The wicked turn against God because they think he will not punish
them.
- <sup>14</sup> But, Lord, you do see the pain and suffering they cause.
You see it, so punish them.
Those who were left helpless put their trust in you.
After all, you are the one who cares for orphans.
- <sup>15</sup> Break the arms of those who are wicked and evil.
Punish them for the evil they have done,
and stop them from doing any more.
- <sup>16</sup> LORD, you are King forever and ever, so I know you will remove the wicked nations from your land.
- <sup>17</sup> LORD, you have heard what the poor want.
Listen to their prayers, and do what they ask.
- <sup>18</sup> Protect the orphans and those who have been hurt.
Don't let powerful people drive us from our land!

11 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup>I trust in the LORD, so why did you tell me
to run and hide?
Why did you say, "Fly like a bird to your mountain?"
- <sup>2</sup> Like hunters, the wicked hide in the dark.
They get their bows ready and aim their arrows.
They shoot at good, honest people.
- <sup>3</sup> What would good people do if the wicked destroyed all that is good?<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup> The LORD is in his holy temple.
The LORD sits on his throne in heaven.
He sees everything that happens.

<sup>d</sup>11:3 Or "What if the foundations of society were really destroyed?"

He watches people closely.

- 5 The LORD examines those who are good and those who are wicked; he hates those who enjoy hurting others.
- 6 He will make hot coals and burning sulfur fall like rain on the wicked. They will get nothing but a hot, burning wind.
- 7 The LORD always does what is right, and he loves seeing people do right. Those who live good lives will be with him.<sup>a</sup>

*A song of David.**

- 1 Save me, LORD!
We can no longer trust anyone!
All the good, loyal people are gone.
- 2 People lie to their neighbors.
They say whatever they think people want to hear.
- 3 The LORD should cut off their lying lips and cut out their bragging tongues.
- 4 Those people think they can win any argument.
They say, "We are so good with words, no one will be our master."
- 5 They took advantage of the poor and stole what little they had.
But the LORD knows what they did, and he says,
"I will rescue those who are poor and helpless, and I will punish those who hurt them."<sup>b</sup>
- 6 The LORD's words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire,
like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure.
- 7 LORD, take care of the helpless.
Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world.
- 8 The wicked are all around us,
and everyone thinks evil is something to be praised!

*A song of David.**

- 1 How long will you forget me, LORD?
Will you forget me forever?
How long will you refuse to accept me?<sup>c</sup>
- 2 How long must I wonder if you have forgotten me?
How long must I feel this sadness in my heart?
How long will my enemy win against me?

<sup>b</sup>12:5 I will rescue ... hurt them Or "I will rescue poor, helpless people who were hurt and asked me for help."

<sup>c</sup>13:1 refuse to accept me Literally, "hide your face from me."

- 3 LORD my God, look at me and give me an answer.
Make me feel strong again, or I will die.
- 4 If that happens, my enemy will say, "I beat him!"
He will be so happy that he won.
- 5 But, LORD, I trust in your faithful love,
so let me rejoice because you saved me.
- 6 Then I will sing to the LORD because he was so good to me.

14 *To the director*:*
*A song of David.**

- 1 Only fools think there is no God.
People like that are evil and do terrible things.
They never do what is right.
- 2 The LORD looks down from heaven to see if there is anyone who is wise,
anyone who looks to him for help.
- 3 But everyone has gone the wrong way.
Everyone has turned bad.
No one does anything good.
No, not one person!
- 4 Those who are evil treat my people like bread to be eaten.
And they never ask for the LORD's help.
Don't they know what they are doing?
- 5 They will have plenty to fear,
because God is with those who do what is right.
- 6 You wicked people want to spoil the hopes of the poor,
but the LORD will protect them.
- 7 I wish the one who lives on Mount Zion* would bring victory to Israel*!
When the LORD makes his people successful again,
the people of Jacob* will be happy;
the people of Israel will be glad.

15 *A song of David.**

- 1 LORD, who can live in your Holy Tent<sup>d</sup>?
Who can live on your holy mountain?
- 2 Only those who live pure lives, do what is right, and speak the truth from their hearts.
- 3 Such people don't say bad things about others.
They don't do things to hurt their neighbors.
They don't tell shameful things about those close to them.
- 4 They hate those who fail to please God and honor those who respect the LORD.

<sup>d</sup>15:1 Holy Tent The special tent where the people of Israel worshiped God. Here, it is probably the Temple on the "holy mountain" (see "Zion" in the Word List) in Jerusalem.

If they make a promise to their neighbor,
they do what they promised.<sup>a</sup>

- 5 If they loan money to someone,
they do not charge them interest.
And they refuse to testify against an innocent person,
even if someone offers them money to do it.

Whoever lives like this will always stand strong.

16 *A miktam* of David.*

- 1 Protect me, God, because I depend on you.
2 Some of you<sup>b</sup> have said to the LORD,
“You are my Lord.
Every good thing I have comes from you.”
3 But you have also said about the gods<sup>c</sup> of this land,
“They are my powerful gods.
They are the ones who make me happy.”
4 But those who worship other gods will have many troubles.
I will not share in the gifts of blood they offer to their idols.
I will not even say their names.
5 LORD, you give me all that I need.
You support me.
You give me my share.
6 My share<sup>d</sup> is wonderful.
My inheritance<sup>e</sup> is very beautiful.
7 I praise the LORD because he taught me
well.
Even at night he put his instructions deep inside my mind.<sup>f</sup> 8 I always remember that the LORD is with me.<sup>g</sup>
He is here, close by my side,
so nothing can defeat me.
9 So my heart and soul will be very happy.
Even my body will live in safety, 10 because you will not leave me in the
place of death.
You will not let your faithful one rot in the grave.
11 You will teach me the right way to live.
Just being with you will bring complete happiness.
Being at your right side will make me happy forever.

<sup>a</sup>15:4 If they ... promised Or “They promised not to do bad things, and they do not do bad things.”

<sup>b</sup>16:2 Some of you Literally, “you” (singular). Most translations assume it should be “I,” giving a different meaning to verses 2 and 3, which are very difficult in the Hebrew text.

17 A prayer of David.<sup>h</sup>

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer for justice.
I am calling loudly to you.
I am being honest in what I say,
so please listen to my prayer.
2 You will make the right decision, because you can see the truth.
3 You were with me all night and looked deep into my heart.
You questioned me and found that
I did not say or do anything wrong.
4 Unlike most people, I have obeyed your commands,
so I have never been like those who are cruel and evil.
5 I have followed your way.
My feet never left your path.
6 Every time I call to you, God, you answer
me.
So listen to me now, and hear what I say.
7 Show your amazing kindness and rescue those who depend on you.
Use your great power
and protect them from their enemies.
8 Protect me like the pupil<sup>i</sup> of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
9 Save me from the wicked people who are trying to destroy me.
Protect me from those who come to hurt
me.
10 They think only of themselves and brag about what they will do.
11 They have been following me,
and now they are all around me.
They watch me, waiting to throw me to
the ground.
12 Like hungry lions, they want to kill and eat.
Like young lions, they hide, ready to attack.
13 LORD, get up<sup>j</sup> and face the enemy.
Make them surrender.
Use your sword and save me from these wicked people.
14 Use your power, LORD, and remove them from this life.
But as for the people you treasure, fill them with food.
Give them plenty for their children and their grandchildren.

<sup>h</sup>Psalm 17 A prayer of David Or “A prayer dedicated to David.”

<sup>i</sup>17:8 pupil The center of the eye, which everyone wants to protect.

<sup>j</sup>17:13 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

- 15 I have done only what is right, so I will see your face.
And seeing you,<sup>a</sup> I will be fully satisfied.

18<sup>b</sup> *To the director*<sup>c</sup>: A song of David,* the LORD's servant. He sang this song to the LORD when the LORD saved him from Saul and all his other enemies.*

<sup>1</sup> I love you, LORD!

You are my strength.

- 2 The LORD is my Rock,* my fortress,* my place of safety.
He is my God, the Rock I run to for protection.
He is my shield; by his power I am saved.<sup>c</sup>
He is my hiding place high in the hills.
- 3 I called to the LORD for help,
and he saved me from my enemies!
He is worthy of my praise!
- 4 Death had its ropes wrapped around me.
A deadly flood was carrying me away.
- 5 The ropes of the grave wrapped around me.
Death set its trap right there in front of me.
- 6 In my trouble I called to the LORD.
Yes, I cried out to my God for help.
There in his temple he heard my voice.
He heard my cry for help.
- 7 The earth shook and shivered.
The foundations of the mountains trembled.
They shook because he was angry.
- 8 Smoke came from his nose.
Burning flames came from his mouth.
Red-hot coals fell from him.
- 9 He tore open the sky and came down!
He stood on a thick, dark cloud.
- 10 He flew across the sky, riding on a Cherub angel*
racing on the wings of the wind.
- 11 He wrapped himself in darkness that covered him like a tent.
He was hidden by dark clouds heavy with water.
- 12 Out of the brightness before him,
hail broke through the clouds with flashes of lightning.
- 13 The LORD thundered from the sky;
God Most High let his voice be heard.<sup>d</sup>
- 14 He scattered his enemies with his arrows—
the lightning bolts that threw them into confusion.

<sup>d</sup>18:13 The ancient Greek version and some Hebrew copies add "with hailstones and bolts of lightning."

- 15 LORD, you shouted your command, and a powerful wind began to blow.<sup>e</sup>
Then the bottom of the sea could be seen,
and the earth's foundations were uncovered.
- 16 He reached down from above and grabbed me.
He pulled me from the deep water.
- 17 He saved me from my powerful enemies, who hated me.
They were too strong for me, so he saved me.
- 18 They attacked me in my time of trouble,
but the LORD was there to support me.
- 19 He was pleased with me, so he rescued me.
He took me to a safe place.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me for doing what is right.
He was good to me because I am innocent.
- 21 The LORD did this because I have obeyed him.
I have not turned against my God.
I always remembered his laws.
I never rejected his rules.
- 23 He knows I did nothing that was wrong.
I have kept myself from sinning.
- 24 So the LORD rewarded me for doing what is right.
He could see that I am innocent.
- 25 Lord, you are faithful to those who are faithful.
You are good to those who are good.
- 26 You never do wrong to those who have done no wrong.
But you outsmart the wicked, no matter how clever they are.
- 27 You help those who are humble,
but you humiliate the proud.
- 28 LORD, you provide the flame for my lamp.
You, God, turn the darkness around me into light.
- 29 With your help I can defeat an army.
If my God is with me, I can climb over enemy walls.
- 30 God's way is perfect.
The LORD's promise always proves to be true.
He protects those who trust in him.
- 31 There is no God except the LORD.
There is no Rock except our God.
- 32 God is the one who gives me strength.
He clears the path I need to take.
- 33 He makes my feet as steady as those of a deer.
Even on steep mountains he keeps me from falling.

<sup>e</sup>18:15 and ... blow Or "and a blast of breath came from your nose."

- 34 He trains me for war so that my arms can bend the most powerful bow.
- 35 Lord, you have given me your shield to protect me.
You support me with your right hand.
It is your help that has made me great.
- 36 You cleared a path for my feet
so that I could walk without stumbling.
- 37 I chased my enemies and caught them.
I did not stop until they were destroyed.
- 38 I struck them down, and they could not get up again.
They fell under my feet.
- 39 God, you made me strong in battle.
You made my enemies fall before me.
- 40 You made my enemies turn and run away.
I destroyed those who hated me.
- 41 They cried out for help,
but there was no one to save them.
They cried out to the LORD,
but he did not answer them.
- 42 I beat them to pieces like dust blown by
the wind.
I smashed them like mud in the streets.
- 43 You saved me from those who fought against me.
You made me the ruler over nations.
People I never knew now serve me.
- 44 As soon as they heard about me, they were ready to obey.
Those foreigners fall helpless before me!
- 45 They lose all their courage and come out of their hiding places shaking with fear.
- 46 The LORD lives!
I praise my Rock, the God who saves
me.
How great he is!
- 47 He is the God who punishes my enemies
for me,
the one who puts people under my control.
- 48 He saves me from my enemies!
- You, Lord, help me defeat those who attack me.
You save me from cruel people.
- 49 LORD, that is why I praise you among the nations.
That is why I sing songs of praise to
your name.
- 50 The Lord helps his king win battle after battle.
He shows his faithful love to his chosen one,<sup>a</sup>
to David* and his descendants forever.

A song of David.**

- 1 The heavens tell about the glory* of God.
The skies announce what his hands have made.
- 2 Each new day tells more of the story, and each night reveals more and more about God's power.<sup>b</sup>
- 3 You cannot hear them say anything.
They don't make any sound we can hear.
- 4 But their message goes throughout the world.
Their teaching reaches the ends of the earth.
- The sun's tent is set up in the heavens.
- 5 It comes out like a happy bridegroom from his bedroom.
It begins its path across the sky like an athlete eager to run a race.
- 6 It starts at one end of the sky and runs all the way to the other end.
Nothing can hide from its heat.
- 7 The LORD's teachings are perfect.
They give strength to his people.
The LORD's rules can be trusted.
They help even the foolish become wise.
- 8 The LORD's laws are right.
They make people happy.
The LORD's commands are good.
They show people the right way to live.

- 9 Learning respect for the LORD is good.
It will last forever.
The LORD's judgments are right.
They are completely fair.
- 10 His teachings are worth more than pure gold.
They are sweeter than the best honey dripping from the honeycomb.
- 11 His teachings warn his servants, and good things come to those who obey them.

- 12 People cannot see their own mistakes,
so don't let me commit secret sins.
- 13 Don't let me do what I know is wrong.
Don't let sin control me.
If you help me, I can be pure and free from sin.
- 14 May my words and thoughts please you.
LORD, you are my Rock*—the one who rescues me.

20 *To the director*:

- 1 May the LORD answer you in times of trouble.

<sup>b</sup>19:2 Or "Like the changing of the guards,<sup>1</sup> each day passes the news to the next day and each night passes information to the next night."

- May the God of Jacob* protect you.
 2 May he send you help from his Holy Place.*
 May he support you from Zion.*
 3 May he remember all the gifts you have offered.
 May he accept all your sacrifices.* Selah*
 4 May he give you what you really want.
 May he make all your plans successful.
 5 We will celebrate when he helps you.
 We will praise the name of God.
 May the LORD give you everything you ask for.

- 6 Now I know the LORD helps his chosen king.
 From his holy heaven he answered.
 With his great power he saved him.
 7 Some give the credit for victory to their chariots* and soldiers, but we honor the LORD our God.
 8 They fall in battle, totally defeated,
 but we survive and stand strong!
 9 LORD, save the king!
 Answer us when we call to you for help.

21 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- 1 LORD, your strength makes the king happy.
 He is so happy when you give him victory.
 2 And you gave him what he wanted.
 You gave him what he asked for. Selah*
 3 You gave the king such wonderful blessings.
 You put a golden crown on his head.
 4 He asked for life, and you gave it.
 You gave him life that goes on forever.
 5 You led him to victory that brought him great glory.
 You gave him honor and fame.
 6 You have given him blessings that will last forever.
 You have given him the joy of being near you.
 7 The king trusts in the LORD, and the faithful love of God Most High will keep him from falling.
 8 Lord, you will show all your enemies that you are strong.
 Your power will defeat those who hate you.
 9 When you appear,
 you will burn them up like a blazing furnace.
 In your anger, LORD, you will completely destroy them;
 they will be swallowed by flames of fire.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup>21:9 Or "You will make your king like a burning oven when you come to help him, LORD. And in his anger, he will completely destroy them."

- 10 Their families will be destroyed.
 They will be removed from the earth.
 11 That is because they made evil plans against you.
 They wanted to do things they could not do.
 12 You will make them turn and run away when you aim your arrows at their faces.
 13 LORD, we lift you up with our songs of praise.
 We sing and play songs about your power!

22 *To the director*: To the tune "The Deer of Dawn."<sup>b</sup> A song of David.**

- 1 My God, my God, why have you left me?
 You seem too far away to save me,
 too far to hear my cries for help!
 2 My God, I kept calling by day,
 and I was not silent at night.
 But you did not answer me.
 3 God, you are the Holy One.
 You sit as King upon the praises of Israel.*
 4 Our ancestors* trusted you.
 Yes, they trusted you, and you saved them.
 5 They called to you for help and escaped their enemies.
 They trusted you and were not disappointed!
 6 But I feel like a worm, less than human!
 People insult me and look down on me.
 7 Everyone who sees me makes fun of me.
 They shake their heads and stick out their tongues at me.
 8 They say, "Call to the LORD for help.
 Maybe he will save you.
 If he likes you so much, surely he will rescue you!"
 9 God, the truth is, you are the one who brought me into this world.
 You made me feel safe while I was still at my mother's breasts.
 10 You have been my God since the day I was born.
 I was thrown into your arms as I came from my mother's womb.
 11 So don't leave me!
 Trouble is near, and there is no one to help me.
 12 My enemies have surrounded me like angry bulls.
 They are like the powerful bulls of Bashan, and they are all around me.
 13 Their mouths are opened wide,
 like a lion roaring and tearing at its prey.

<sup>b</sup>Psalm 22 The Deer of Dawn This is probably the name of the tune for this song, but it might refer to a music style or type of instrument.

- 14 My strength is gone,
like water poured out on the ground.
My bones have separated.
My courage is gone.<sup>a</sup>
- 15 My mouth<sup>b</sup> is as dry as a piece of baked pottery.
My tongue is sticking to the roof of my mouth.
You have left me dying in the dust.
- 16 The “dogs” are all around me—
a pack<sup>c</sup> of evil people has trapped me.
They have pierced my hands and feet.<sup>d</sup>
- 17 I can see each one of my bones.
My enemies are looking at me;
they just keep staring.
- 18 They divide my clothes among themselves,
and they throw lots* for what I am wearing.
- 19 LORD, don’t leave me!
You are my strength—hurry and help me!
- 20 Save me from the sword.
Save my precious life from these dogs.

He listens when they cry for help.
- 25 Lord, because of you I offer praise in the great assembly.
In front of all these worshipers I will do all that I promised.

Those who are not yet born will be told about him.
- 30 Each generation will tell their children and I tell about all the wonderful things

you have done.
- 8 LORD, I love the house<sup>e</sup> where you live,
the place where your glory* is.

<sup>12</sup> I am safe from all danger as I stand here praising you, LORD, in the assembly of your people.

27 *A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, you are my Light and my Savior, so why should I be afraid of anyone?
The LORD is where my life is safe,
so I will be afraid of no one!
<sup>2</sup> Evil people might attack me.
They might try to destroy my body.
Yes, my enemies might attack me and try to destroy me,
but they will stumble and fall.
<sup>3</sup> Even if an army surrounds me, I will not be afraid.
Even if people attack me in war, I will trust in the LORD.
<sup>4</sup> I ask only one thing from the LORD.
This is what I want most:
Let me live in the LORD's house all my life, enjoying the LORD's beauty and spending time in his palace.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup> He will protect me when I am in danger.
He will hide me in his tent.<sup>b</sup>
He will take me up to his place of safety.
<sup>6</sup> If he will help me defeat the enemies around me,
I will offer sacrifices* in his tent with shouts of joy.
I will sing and play songs to honor the
LORD.
<sup>7</sup> LORD, hear my voice.
Be kind and answer me.
<sup>8</sup> My heart told me to come to you, LORD,
so I am coming to ask for your help.
<sup>9</sup> Don't turn away from me.
Don't be angry with your servant.
You are the only one who can help me.
My God, don't leave me all alone.
You are my Savior.
<sup>10</sup> Even if my mother and father leave me,
the LORD will take me in.
<sup>11</sup> I have enemies, LORD, so teach me your ways.
Show me the right way to live.
<sup>12</sup> My enemies have attacked me.
They have told lies about me and have tried to hurt me.
<sup>13</sup> But I really believe that I will see the LORD's goodness before I die.<sup>c</sup>

- <sup>14</sup> Wait for the LORD's help.
Be strong and brave,
and wait for the LORD's help.

28 *A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, you are my Rock.*
I am calling to you for help.
Don't close your ears to my prayers.
If you don't answer me,
I will be counted among the dead.
<sup>2</sup> I lift my hands and pray toward your Most Holy Place.*
Hear me when I call to you.
Show mercy to me.
<sup>3</sup> Don't treat me like the evil people who do wicked things.
They greet their neighbors like friends,
but secretly plan to hurt them.
<sup>4</sup> They do bad things to others,
so make bad things happen to them.
Give them the punishment they deserve.
<sup>5</sup> They don't notice what the LORD does.
They ignore all the good things he has
made.
So instead of building them up, he will destroy them.
<sup>6</sup> Praise the LORD!
He has heard my prayer for mercy.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD is my strength and shield.
I trusted him with all my heart.
He helped me, so I am happy.
I sing songs of praise to him.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD protects his chosen one.<sup>d</sup>
He saves him and gives him strength.
<sup>9</sup> Save your people.
Bless those who belong to you.
Lead them and honor them<sup>e</sup> forever.

29 *A song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, you heavenly angels!<sup>f</sup>
Praise the LORD's glory* and power.
<sup>2</sup> Praise the LORD and honor his name!
Worship the LORD in all his holy beauty.
<sup>3</sup> The LORD's voice can be heard over the
sea.
The voice of our glorious LORD God is like thunder over the great ocean.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD's voice is powerful.
It shows the LORD's glory.
<sup>5</sup> The LORD's voice shatters great cedar trees.
He breaks the great cedars of Lebanon.

Sirion<sup>a</sup> trembles like a young bull jumping up and down.
- 7 The LORD's voice cuts the air with flashes of lightning.
- 8 The LORD's voice shakes the desert.
Kadesh Desert<sup>b</sup> trembles at the LORD's voice.
- 9 The LORD's voice frightens the deer.<sup>c</sup>
He destroys the forests.
In his temple everyone shouts, "Glory to God!"
- 10 The LORD ruled as king at the time of the flood,
and he will rule as king forever.
- 11 May the LORD make his people strong.
May the LORD bless his people with peace.

30 *A song of David for the dedication* of the Temple.<sup>d</sup>*

- 1 LORD, you lifted me out of my troubles.
You did not give my enemies a reason to laugh,
so I will praise you.
- 2 LORD my God, I prayed to you,
and you healed me.
- 3 LORD, you lifted me out of the grave.
I was falling into the place of death, but you saved my life.
- 4 Praise the LORD, you who are loyal to him!
Praise his holy name!<sup>e</sup>
- 5 His anger lasts for a little while,
but then his kindness brings life.
The night may be filled with tears,
but in the morning we can sing for joy!
- 6 When I was safe and secure,
I thought nothing could hurt me.
- 7 Yes, LORD, while you were kind to me,
I felt that nothing could defeat me.<sup>f</sup>
But when you turned away from me,
I was filled with fear.
- 8 So, LORD, I turned and prayed to you.
I asked you to show me mercy.
- 9 I said, "What good is it if I die and go down to the grave?
The dead just lie in the dirt.
They cannot praise you.
They cannot tell anyone how faithful you are.
- 10 LORD, hear my prayer, and be kind to me.
LORD, help me!"

- 11 You have changed my sorrow into dancing.
You have taken away my sackcloth*
and clothed me with joy.
- 12 You wanted me to praise you and not be silent.
LORD my God, I will praise you forever!

31 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- 1 LORD, I come to you for protection.
Don't let me be disappointed.
You always do what is right, so save me.
- 2 Listen to me.
Come quickly and save me.
Be my Rock,* my place of safety.
Be my fortress* and protect me!
- 3 Yes, you are my Rock and my protection.
For the good of your name, lead me and guide me.
- 4 Save me from the traps my enemy has set.
You are my place of safety.
- 5 LORD, you are the God we can trust.
I put my life<sup>g</sup> in your hands.
Save me!
- 6 I hate those who worship false gods.
I trust only in the LORD.
- 7 Your kindness makes me so happy.
You have seen my suffering.
You know about the troubles I have.
- 8 You will not let my enemies take me.
You will free me from their traps.
- 9 LORD, I have many troubles, so be kind to me.
I have cried until my eyes hurt.
My throat and stomach are aching.
- 10 Because of my sin, my life is ending in grief;
my years are passing away in sighs of pain.
My life is ending in weakness.
My strength is draining away.
- 11 My enemies despise me,
and even my neighbors have turned away.
When my friends see me in the street,
they turn the other way.
They are afraid to be around me.
- 12 People want to forget me like someone already dead, thrown away like a broken dish.
- 13 I hear them whispering about me.
They have turned against me and plan to kill me.
- 14 LORD, I trust in you.
You are my God.
- 15 My life is in your hands.
Save me from those who are persecuting me.
- 16 Please welcome and accept your servant.<sup>h</sup>
Be kind to me and save me.

<sup>h</sup>31:16 Please ... servant Literally, "Let your face shine on your servant."

- 17 LORD, I am praying to you.
Don't let me be disappointed.
The wicked are the ones who should be disappointed.
Let them go to the grave in silence.
- 18 Those evil people brag and tell lies about those who do right.
They are so proud now,
but their lying lips will be silent.
- 19 Lord, you have hidden away many wonderful things for your followers.
You have done so many good things for those who trust in you.
You have blessed them so that all the world can see.
- 20 Others make plans to hurt them.
They say such bad things about them.
But you hide your people in your shelter and protect them.
- 21 Praise the LORD, because he showed me how wonderful his faithful love is when the city was surrounded by
enemies.
- 22 I was afraid and said, "I am in a place where he cannot see me."
But I prayed to you, and you heard my loud cries for help.
- 23 Love the LORD, all of you who are his loyal followers.
The LORD protects those who are loyal
to him.
But he punishes those who brag about their own power.
He gives them all the punishment they deserve.
- 24 Be strong and brave, all of you who are waiting for the LORD's help.

32 A maskil<sup>a</sup> of David.

- 1 It is a great blessing
when people are forgiven for the wrongs they have done,
when their sins are erased.<sup>a</sup>
- 2 It is a great blessing
when the LORD says they are not guilty,
when they don't try to hide their sins.
- 3 Lord, I prayed to you again and again,
but I did not talk about my sins.
So I only became weaker and more miserable.
- 4 Every day you made life harder for me.
I became like a dry land in the hot summertime. Selah<sup>a</sup>
- 5 But then I decided to confess my sins to
the LORD.
I stopped hiding my guilt and told you about my sins.
And you forgave them all! Selah

- 6 That is why your loyal followers pray to you while there is still time.
Then when trouble rises like a flood, it will not reach them.
- 7 You are a hiding place for me.
You protect me from my troubles.
You surround me and protect me,
so I sing about the way you saved me. Selah
- 8 The Lord says, "I will teach you and guide you in the way you should live.
I will watch over you and be your guide.
- 9 Don't be like a stupid horse or mule that will not come to you unless you put a bit in its mouth and pull it with reins."
- 10 Many pains will come to the wicked, but the LORD's faithful love will surround those who trust in him.
- 11 Good people, rejoice and be very happy in
the LORD.
All you who want to do right, rejoice!

- ## 33 <sup>1</sup>Rejoice in the LORD, good people! It is only right for good people to praise him.
- 2 Play the lyre<sup>a</sup> and praise the LORD.
Play the ten-stringed harp for him.
- 3 Sing a new song<sup>b</sup> to him.
Play it well and sing it loud!
- 4 The LORD's word is true,
and he is faithful in everything he does.
- 5 He loves goodness and justice.
The LORD's faithful love fills the earth.
- 6 The LORD spoke the command, and the world was made.
The breath from his mouth created everything in the heavens.
- 7 He gathered together the water of the sea.
He put the ocean in its place.
- 8 Everyone on earth should fear and respect
the LORD.
All the people in the world should fear
him,
because when he speaks, things happen.
And if he says, "Stop!"—then it stops.<sup>c</sup>
- 10 The LORD can ruin every decision the nations make.
He can spoil all their plans.
- 11 But the LORD's decisions are good forever.
His plans are good for generation after generation.
- 12 Great blessings belong to those who have the LORD as their God!
He chose them to be his own special
people.

<sup>b</sup>33:3 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.

<sup>c</sup>33:9 And if ... stops Or "He gives the command, and it stands!" The word "stand" can mean "stand forever" or "stop."

<sup>a</sup>32:1 erased Or "covered over" or "atoned."

- 13 The LORD looked down from heaven and saw all the people.
- 14 From his high throne he looked down
at all the people living on earth.
- 15 He created every person's mind,
and he knows what each one is doing.
- 16 A king is not saved by the power of his army.
A soldier does not survive by his own great strength.
- 17 Horses don't really bring victory in war.
Their strength cannot help you escape.
- 18 The LORD watches over his followers, those who wait for him to show his faithful love.
- 19 He saves them from death.
He gives them strength when they are hungry.
- 20 So we will wait for the LORD.
He helps us and protects us.
- 21 He makes us happy.
We trust his holy name.
- 22 LORD, we worship you,
so show your great love for us.

34 <sup>a</sup> *A song of David* when he pretended to be crazy so that Abimelech would send him away, which he did.*

- 1 I will praise the LORD at all times.
I will never stop singing his praises.
- 2 Humble people, listen and be happy,
while I brag about the LORD.
- 3 Praise the LORD with me.
Let us honor his name.
- 4 I went to the LORD for help, and he listened.
He saved me from all that I fear.
- 5 Look to the LORD for help.
You will be accepted.
You have no need to be ashamed.<sup>b</sup>
- 6 This poor man called to the LORD for help,
and he heard me.
He saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The LORD's angel builds a camp around his followers,
and he protects them.
- 8 Give the LORD a chance to show you<sup>c</sup>
how good he is.
Great blessings belong to those who depend on him!
- 9 The LORD's holy people should fear and respect him.
Those who respect him will always have what they need.
- 10 Even strong lions get weak and hungry, but those who go to the LORD for help will have every good thing.
- 11 Children, come and listen to me;
I will teach you to respect the LORD.

<sup>a</sup>Psalm 34 In Hebrew, each verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet.

<sup>b</sup>34:5 You will be accepted ... be ashamed Literally,
"Look at him and shine. Don't let your face be pale."

<sup>c</sup>34:8 Give ... show you Literally, "Taste and see."

- 12 Do you want to enjoy life?
Do you want to have many happy days?
- 13 Then avoid saying anything hurtful, and never let a lie come out of your mouth.
- 14 Stop doing anything evil, and do good.
Look for peace, and do all you can to help people live peacefully.
- 15 The LORD watches over those who do what is right,
and he hears their prayers.
- 16 But the LORD is against those who do evil,
so they are forgotten soon after they die.
- 17 Pray to the LORD, and he will hear you.
He will save you from all your troubles.
- 18 The LORD is close to those who have suffered disappointment.
He saves those who are discouraged.
- 19 Good people might have many problems,
but the LORD will take them all away.
- 20 He will protect them completely.
Not one of their bones will be broken.
- 21 But troubles will kill the wicked.
The enemies of those who live right will all be punished.
- 22 The LORD saves his servants.
All who go to him for protection will escape punishment.

35 *A song of David.**

- 1 LORD, oppose those who oppose me.
Fight those who fight me.
- 2 Pick up your shields, large and small.
Get up and help me!
- 3 Take a spear and javelin and fight those who are chasing me.
Tell me, "I will rescue you."
- 4 Some people are trying to kill me.
Disappoint them and make them
ashamed.
Make them turn and run away.
They are planning to hurt me.
Defeat and embarrass them.
- 5 Make them like chaff<sup>d</sup> blown by the wind.
Let them be chased by the LORD's angel.
- 6 Make their road dark and slippery.
Let the LORD's angel chase them.
- 7 I did nothing wrong, but they tried to trap
me.
For no reason at all, they dug a pit to catch me.
- 8 So let them fall into their own traps.
Let them stumble into their own nets.
Let some unknown danger catch them.
- 9 Then I will rejoice in the LORD.
I will be happy when he saves me.
- 10 With my whole self I will say,
"LORD, there is no one like you."

<sup>d</sup>35:5 wind This may be a wordplay, because the Hebrew word also means "spirit."

- You protect the poor from those who are stronger.
 You save the poor and helpless from those who try to rob them.”
- 11 There are witnesses<sup>a</sup> trying to harm me.
 They ask me questions that I know nothing about.
- 12 They pay me back evil for the good I have done.
 They make me so very sad.
- 13 When they were sick, I was sad and wore sackcloth.*
 I went without eating to show my sorrow.
 (May my prayers for them not be answered!)
- 14 I mourned* for them as I would for a friend or a brother.
 I bowed low with sadness, crying as I would for my own mother.
- 15 But when I had troubles, they laughed at me.
 They were not really friends.
 I was surrounded and attacked by people I didn't even know.
- 16 They made fun of me, using the worst language.
 They ground their teeth to show their anger.
- 17 My Lord, how long will you watch this happen?
 Save my life from these people who are attacking me like lions and trying to destroy me.
- 18 I will praise you in the great assembly.
 I will praise you there among the crowds.
- 19 Don't let my lying enemies keep on laughing at me.
 They have no reason to hate me.
 Surely they will be punished for their secret plans.<sup>b</sup>
- 20 They have no friendly words for others, but plan ways to hurt those who want to live in peace.
- 21 They are telling lies about me.
 They say, “Aha! We know what you did!”
- 22 LORD, surely you can see what is happening.
 So don't keep quiet.
 Lord, don't leave me.
- 23 Wake up! Get up!
 My God and my Lord, fight for me, and bring me justice.
- 24 Lord my God, judge me with your fairness.
 Don't let those people laugh at me.

<sup>a</sup>35:11 witnesses People who tell what they have seen or heard. Here, these people were probably telling lies.

<sup>b</sup>35:19 Surely ... plans Literally, “Will the people who hate me freely wink their eyes?”

- 25 Don't let them think, “Aha! We got what we wanted!”
 Don't let them say, “We destroyed him!”
- 26 Let my enemies be ashamed and embarrassed—
 all those who were happy about my troubles.
 Proud of themselves, they treated me as worthless.
 So let them be covered with shame and disgrace.
- 27 To those who want the best for me,
 I wish them joy and happiness.
 May they always say, “Praise the LORD, who wants what is best for his servant.”
- 28 So, Lord, I will tell people how good you are.
 I will praise you all day long.

*To the director*:
 A song of David,* the LORD's servant.*

- 1 Deep in the hearts of the wicked a voice tells them to do wrong.
 They have no respect for God.
- 2 They lie to themselves.
 They don't see their own faults,
 so they are not sorry for what they do.
- 3 Their words are wicked lies.
 They have stopped doing anything wise or good.
- 4 They make wicked plans in bed at night.
 They choose a way of life that does no good.
 And they never say no to anything evil.
- 5 LORD, your faithful love reaches to the sky.
 Your faithfulness is as high as the clouds.
- 6 Your goodness is higher than the highest mountains.
 Your fairness is deeper than the deepest ocean.
 LORD, you protect people and animals.
- 7 Nothing is more precious than your loving kindness.
 All people can find protection close to you.
- 8 They get strength from all the good things in your house.
 You let them drink from your wonderful river.
- 9 The fountain of life flows from you.
 Your light lets us see light.
- 10 Continue to love those who really know you,
 and do good to those who are true to you.<sup>c</sup>
- 11 Don't let proud people trap me.
 Don't let the wicked force me to run away.

<sup>c</sup>36:10 true to you Or “honest hearted.”

- 12 Put this on their grave markers:
 “Here fell the wicked.
 They were crushed.
 They will never stand up again.”

37 <sup>a</sup> *A song of David.**

- 1 Don't get upset about evil people.
 Don't be jealous of those who do wrong.
- 2 They are like grass and other green plants that dry up quickly and then die.
- 3 So trust in the LORD and do good.
 Live on your land and be dependable.<sup>b</sup>
- 4 Enjoy serving the LORD, and he will give you whatever you ask for.
- 5 Depend on the LORD.
 Trust in him, and he will help you.
- 6 He will make it as clear as day that you are right.
 Everyone will see that you are being fair.
- 7 Trust in the LORD and wait quietly for his
 help.
 Don't be angry when people make evil
 plans and succeed.
- 8 Don't become so angry and upset that you, too, want to do evil.
- 9 The wicked will be destroyed,
 but those who call to the LORD for help will get the land he promised.
- 10 In a short time there will be no more evil
 people.
 You can look for them all you want, but they will be gone.
- 11 Humble people will get the land God promised,
 and they will enjoy peace.
- 12 The wicked plan bad things for those who
 are good.
 They show their teeth in anger at them.
- 13 But our Lord will laugh at them.
 He will make sure they get what they deserve.
- 14 The wicked draw their swords to kill the poor and the helpless.
 They aim their arrows to murder all who live right.
- 15 But their bows will break, and their swords will pierce their own hearts.
- 16 A few good people are better than a large crowd of those who are evil.
- 17 The wicked will be destroyed, but the LORD cares for those who are good.

- 18 The LORD protects pure people all their life.
 Their reward will continue forever.
- 19 When trouble comes,
 good people will not be destroyed.
 When times of hunger come,
 good people will have plenty to eat.
- 20 But evil people are the LORD's enemies,
 and they will be destroyed.
 Their valleys will dry up and burn.
 They will be destroyed completely.
- 21 The wicked borrow money and never pay it back.
 But good people are kind and generous.
- 22 Everyone the Lord blesses will get the land he promised.
 Everyone he curses* will be destroyed.
- 23 The LORD shows us how we should live, and he is pleased when he sees people living that way.
- 24 If they stumble, they will not fall, because the LORD reaches out to steady
 them.
- 25 I was young, and now I am old, but I have never seen good people left with no one to help them;
 I have never seen their children begging
 for food.
- 26 They are kind and generous,
 and their children are a blessing.
- 27 Stop doing anything evil and do good,
 and you will always have a place to live.
- 28 The LORD loves what is right, and he will never leave his followers
 without help.
 He will always protect them, but he will destroy the families of the wicked.
- 29 Good people will get the land God promised
 and will live on it forever.
- 30 Those who do what is right give good advice.
 Their decisions are always fair.
- 31 They have learned God's teachings, and they will never stop living right.<sup>c</sup>
- 32 The wicked are always looking for ways to kill good people.
- 33 But the LORD will not let the wicked defeat them.
 He will not let good people be judged guilty.
- 34 Do what the LORD says, and wait for his
 help.
 He will reward you and give you the
 land he promised.
 You will see the wicked being forced to leave.

- 35 I once saw a wicked man who was powerful.
 He was like a strong, healthy tree.

<sup>a</sup>Psalm 37 In Hebrew, about every other verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet.

<sup>b</sup>37:3 be dependable Literally, “shepherd faithfulness.”

- 36 But then he was gone.
I looked for him, but I could not find him.
- 37 Be pure and honest.
Peace loving people will have many descendants.
- 38 But those who break the law will be destroyed completely.
And their descendants will be forced to leave the land.<sup>a</sup>
- 39 The LORD saves those who are good.
When they have troubles, he is their strength.
- 40 The LORD helps good people and rescues them.
They depend on him, so he rescues them from the wicked.

38 *A song of David* for the day of remembrance.<sup>b</sup>*

- 1 LORD, don't criticize me when you are angry.
Don't discipline me in anger.
- 2 You have hurt me.
You punished me and hurt me deeply.
- 3 You punished me severely, so my whole body is sore.
I sinned, and now all my bones hurt.
- 4 My guilt is like a heavy burden.
I am sinking beneath its weight.
- 5 I did a foolish thing,
and now I have infected sores that stink.
- 6 I am bent and bowed down.
I am depressed all day long.
- 7 I am burning with fever,
and my whole body hurts.
- 8 I hurt so much I cannot feel anything.
My pounding heart makes me scream!
- 9 My Lord, you heard my groaning.
You can hear my sighs.
- 10 My heart is pounding.
My strength is gone, and I am going blind.<sup>c</sup>
- 11 Because of my sickness,
my friends and neighbors will not visit me;
my family will not come near me.
- 12 My enemies say bad things about me.
They are spreading lies and rumors.
They talk about me all the time.
- 13 But I am like a deaf man and cannot hear.
I am like someone who cannot speak.
- 14 I am like those who cannot hear what people are saying about them.
I cannot answer to prove my enemies wrong.
- 15 LORD, you must defend me.
Lord my God, you must speak for me.

<sup>a</sup>37:38 forced to leave the land Or "destroyed." Literally, "cut off"

<sup>c</sup>38:10 I am going blind Or "My eyes have lost their sparkle." Literally, "Even the light of my eyes is no longer with me."

- 16 That's why I prayed, "Don't let my enemies smile at my pain.
Full of pride, they will laugh if I stumble and fall."
- 17 I know I am guilty of doing wrong.
I cannot forget my pain.
- 18 LORD, I told you about the bad things I did.
I am worried about my sins.
- 19 But my enemies are alive and healthy,
and they have told many lies.
- 20 I did nothing but good,
and they paid me back with evil.
I try to do what is right,
but that only makes them turn against me.
- 21 LORD, don't leave me.
My God, stay close to me.
- 22 Come quickly and help me.
My Lord, you are the one who saves me.

39 *To the director,* Jeduthun.<sup>d</sup> A song of David.**

- 1 I said, "I will be careful about what I say.
I will not let my tongue cause me to sin.
I will keep my mouth closed<sup>e</sup> when I am around wicked people."
- 2 So I didn't say anything.
I didn't even say anything good,
but I became even more upset.
- 3 I was very angry, and the more I thought about it, the angrier I became.
So I said something.
- 4 LORD, tell me, what will happen to me now?
Tell me, how long will I live?
Let me know how short my life really is.
- 5 You gave me only a short life.
Compared to you, my whole life is nothing.
The life of every human is like a cloud that quickly disappears. *Selah**
- 6 Our life is like an image in a mirror.<sup>f</sup>
We rush through life collecting things, but we don't know who will get them after we die.
- 7 So, Lord, what hope do I have?
You are my hope!
- 8 Save me from the bad things I did.
Don't let me be treated like a fool.
- 9 I will not open my mouth.

<sup>d</sup>Psalm 39 Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38–42.

<sup>f</sup>39:6 Our life ... mirror Or "This life is not real—it is only a shadow" or "People wander around in the dark—not knowing what will happen."

- I will not say anything.
 You did what should have been done.
- 10 But please stop punishing me.
 You will destroy me if you do not stop.
- 11 You punish people for doing wrong to teach them the right way to live.
 As a moth destroys cloth, you destroy what people love.
 Yes, our lives are like a small cloud that quickly disappears. Selah
- 12 LORD, hear my prayer!
 Listen to the words I cry to you.
 Look at my tears.
 I am only a traveler passing through this life with you.
 Like all my ancestors, I will live here
 only a short time.<sup>a</sup>
- 13 Leave me alone<sup>b</sup> and let me be happy
 before I am dead and gone.

40 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- 1 I called<sup>c</sup> to the LORD, and he heard me.
 He heard my cries.
- 2 He lifted me out of the grave.<sup>d</sup>
 He lifted me from that muddy place.<sup>e</sup>
 He picked me up, put me on solid ground, and kept my feet from slipping.
- 3 He put a new song<sup>f</sup> in my mouth,
 a song of praise to our God.
 Many will see what he did and worship
 him.
 They will put their trust in the LORD.
- 4 Great blessings belong to those who trust in the LORD,
 for those who do not turn to demons
 and false gods<sup>g</sup> for help.
- 5 LORD my God, you have done many amazing things!
 You have made great plans for us—too
 many to list.
 I could talk on and on about them,
 because there are too many to count.
- 6 Lord, you made me understand this:<sup>h</sup>
 You don't really want sacrifices* and grain offerings.
 You don't want burnt offerings* and sin offerings.*

<sup>d</sup>40:2 grave Literally, "pit of destruction." That is, "Sheol," the place of death.

<sup>e</sup>40:2 muddy place In many ancient stories, Sheol, the place of death, is a dark place with mud all around, like a grave.

<sup>f</sup>40:3 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.

<sup>h</sup>40:6 you made ... this Literally, "you have dug my ears." The ancient Greek version has "you prepared a body for me."

- 7 So I said, "Here I am, ready to do what was written about me
 in the book.
- 8 My God, I am happy to do whatever you want.
 I never stop thinking about your teachings."
- 9 I told the good news of victory<sup>i</sup> to the people in the great assembly.
 And, LORD, you know that I will never stop telling that good news.
- 10 I told about the good things you did.
 I did not hide these things in my heart.
 I spoke of how you can be trusted to save us.
 I did not hide your love and loyalty from those in the great assembly.
- 11 LORD, do not hide your mercy from me.
 Let your love and loyalty always protect
 me.
- 12 Troubles have surrounded me.
 They are too many to count!
 My sins have caught me,
 and I cannot escape them.
 They are more than the hairs on my head.
 I have lost my courage.
- 13 Please, LORD, rescue me!
 LORD, hurry and help me!
- 14 People are trying to kill me.
 Please disappoint them.
 Humiliate them completely!
 They wanted to hurt me.
 Make them run away in shame!
- 15 May those who make fun of me
 be too embarrassed to speak!
- 16 But may those who come to you be happy
 and rejoice.
 May those who love being saved by you always be able to say, "Praise the LORD!"<sup>j</sup>
- 17 My Lord, I am only a poor, helpless man,
 but please pay attention to me.
 You are my helper, the one who can save
 me.
 My God, don't be too late.

41 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- 1 Those who help the poor succeed will get many blessings.<sup>k</sup>
 When trouble comes, the LORD will save
 them.
- 2 The LORD will protect them and save their lives.
 He will bless them in this land.
 He will not let their enemies harm
 them.

<sup>i</sup>40:9 victory Or "goodness" or "righteousness."

<sup>k</sup>41:1 Or "Those who teach the poor will be very fortunate."

- 3 When they are sick in bed, the LORD will give them strength and make them well!
- 4 I say, "LORD, be kind to me.
I sinned against you, but forgive me and make me well."
- 5 My enemies say bad things about me.
They ask, "When will he die and be forgotten?"
- 6 If they come to see me, they don't say what they are really thinking.
They come to gather a little gossip and then go to spread their rumors.
- 7 Those who hate me whisper about me.
They think the worst about me.
- 8 They say, "He did something wrong.
That is why he is sick.
He will never get well."
- 9 My best friend, the one I trusted, the one who ate with me—even he has turned against me.
- 10 LORD, please be kind to me.
Let me get up, and I will pay them back.
- 11 Don't let my enemy defeat me.
Then I will know that you care for me.
- 12 I was innocent and you supported me.
You let me stand and serve you forever.
- 13 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel.*
He always was, and he always will be.

Amen* and Amen!

BOOK 2 (Psalms 42-72)

42 *To the director*:
A maskil* from the Korah family.*

- 1 Like a deer drinking from a stream,
I reach out to you, my God.<sup>a</sup>
- 2 My soul thirsts for the living God.
When can I go to meet with him?
- 3 Instead of food, I have only tears day and night,
as my enemies laugh at me and say,
"Where is your God?"
- 4 My heart breaks as I remember the pleasant times in the past, when I walked with the crowds as I led them up to God's Temple.*
I remember the happy songs of praise
as they celebrated the festival.

- 5-6 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, "Wait for God's help!
You will again be able to praise him,
your God, the one who will save you."

In my sadness I say, "I will remember you from here on this small hill,<sup>b</sup> where Mount Hermon and the Jordan River meet."

- 7 I hear the roar of the water coming from deep within the earth.
It shouts to the water below as it
tumbles down the waterfall.
God, your waves come one after another,
crashing all around and over me.<sup>c</sup>
- 8 By day the LORD shows his faithful love, and at night I have a song for him—a prayer for the God of my life.<sup>d</sup>
- 9 I say to God, my Rock,*
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I suffer this sadness that my enemies have brought me?"
- 10 Their constant insults are killing me.
They never stop asking, "Where is your God?"
- 11 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, "Wait for God's help!
You will again be able to praise him,
your God, the one who will save you."

43 *Defend me, God.
Argue my case against those people who don't know you.*

- Protect me from those evil liars.
- 2 God, you are my place of safety.
Why have you turned me away?
Why must I suffer this sadness that my enemies have brought me?
- 3 Send your light and your truth to guide me, to lead me to your holy mountain, to your home.
- 4 I want to go to God's altar,
to the God who makes me so very happy.
God, my God, I want to play my harp and sing praises to you!
- 5 Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, "Wait for God's help!
You will again have a chance to praise
him,
your God, the one who will save you."

44 *To the director*:
A maskil* from the Korah family.*

- 1 God, we have heard about you.
Our fathers* told us what you did in their lifetime.
They told us what you did long ago.
- 2 With your great power you took this land from other people,
and you gave it to us.

<sup>c</sup>42:7 God, your waves ... over me These word pictures describe the psalmist's feelings about the many troubles the Lord has allowed him to experience."

<sup>a</sup>42:1 Or "As a deer stretches out to drink water from a stream, so my soul thirsts for you, God."

- You crushed those foreigners and forced them to leave this land.
- 3 It was not our fathers' swords that took
the land.
It was not their strong arms that brought them victory.
It was your power.
It was because you accepted them and smiled down on them.
- 4 God, you are my king.
Give the command and lead Jacob's*
people to victory.
- 5 We need your help to push our enemies
back.
Only in your name can we trample
those who attacked us.
- 6 I don't put my trust in my bow.
My sword cannot save me.
- 7 You are the one who saved us from our
enemies.
You are the one who put our enemies to shame.
- 8 We have praised you all day long,
and we will praise your name forever.
*Selah**
- 9 But you left us and put us to shame.
You did not go with us into battle.
- 10 You let our enemies push us back.
You let them take our wealth.
- 11 You gave us away like sheep to be killed and eaten.
You scattered us among the nations.
- 12 You sold your people for nothing.
You did not even argue over the price.
- 13 You made us a joke to our neighbors.
They laugh and make fun of us.
- 14 You made us one of the stories that people love to tell.
People all over the world laugh at us
and shake their heads.
- 15 All I can think about is my shame.
Just look at my face, and you will see it.
- 16 All I can hear are the jokes and insults of
my enemies,
as I watch them take their revenge.
- 17 We have not forgotten you.
But you do all those things to us.
We did not break the agreement* you gave us.
- 18 We did not turn away from you.
We did not stop following you.
- 19 But you crushed us in this home of jackals.*
You left us in this place as dark as death.
- 20 Did we forget the name of our God?
Did we pray to foreign gods?
- 21 If we did, then God knows it,
because he knows our deepest secrets.
- 22 All day long we died for you.
We are like sheep being led away to be killed.
- 23 Lord, wake up!
Why are you sleeping?
Get up! Don't ignore us forever!

- 24 Why are you hiding from us?
Have you forgotten our pain and troubles?
- 25 We have been pushed down into the dirt.
We are lying face down in the dust.<sup>a</sup>
- 26 Get up and help us!
Rescue us because of your faithful love.

45 *To the director*<sup>a</sup>: To the tune

- 1 Beautiful thoughts fill my mind
as I speak these lines for the king.
These words come from my tongue
as from the pen of a skilled writer.
- 2 You are more handsome than anyone,
and you say such pleasant things.
So God will always bless you.
- 3 Put on your sword, mighty warrior,
so impressive in your splendid uniform.
- 4 Go out in your greatness to win the victory for what is true and right.
Let us see the amazing things you can do with your powerful right arm.<sup>c</sup>
- 5 Your sharp arrows will go deep into the hearts of your enemies, who will fall to the ground in front of
you.
- 6 God,<sup>d</sup> your throne will last forever.
Your justice is a sign of your power to rule.
- 7 You love what is right and hate what is evil.
So God, your God, chose you to be king and made you happier than any of your friends.<sup>e</sup>
- 8 From your clothes comes the wonderful smell of myrrh,* aloes,* and cassia.*
In palaces decorated with ivory, you enjoy the music of stringed instruments.
- 9 Here are ladies of honor, daughters of kings.
Your bride<sup>f</sup> stands at your right side, wearing a gown decorated with the finest gold.

<sup>a</sup>44:25 This shows that the people were being treated like slaves who must bow down to their masters.

<sup>d</sup>45:6 God This might be a song to God as king. Or here, the writer might be using the word "God" as a title for the king.

- <sup>10</sup> My lady,<sup>a</sup> listen to me.
Listen carefully and understand me.
Forget your people and your father's family,
<sup>11</sup> so that the king will be pleased with your beauty.
He will be your new husband,<sup>b</sup>
so you must honor him.
<sup>12</sup> People from Tyre will bring you gifts.
Their richest people will try to win your friendship.
- <sup>13</sup> The princess is so beautiful in her gown,
like a pearl set in gold.
<sup>14</sup> Clothed in beauty, she is led to the king, followed by her bridesmaids.
<sup>15</sup> Filled with joy and excitement, they enter into the king's palace.
- <sup>16</sup> Your sons will be kings like their ancestors.*
You will make them rulers throughout the land.
<sup>17</sup> You will be famous for generations.
People will praise you forever and ever.

- <sup>1</sup> God is our protection and source of strength.
He is always ready to help us in times of trouble.
<sup>2</sup> So we are not afraid when the earth quakes and the mountains fall into the sea.
<sup>3</sup> We are not afraid when the seas become rough and dark and the mountains tremble. *Selah**
- <sup>4</sup> There is a river whose streams bring happiness to God's city, to the holy city of God Most High.
<sup>5</sup> God is in that city, so it will never be destroyed.
He is there to help even before sunrise.
<sup>6</sup> Nations will shake with fear and kingdoms will fall when God shouts and makes the earth move.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD All-Powerful is with us.
The God of Jacob* is our place of safety. Selah
- <sup>8</sup> Look at the powerful things the LORD has done.
See the awesome things he has done on earth.
<sup>9</sup> He stops wars all over the world.

He breaks the soldiers' bows, shatters their spears, and burns their shields.<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>10</sup> God says, "Stop fighting and know that I am God!
I am the one who defeats the nations;
I am the one who controls the world."
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD All-Powerful is with us.
The God of Jacob is our place of safety. Selah

47 *To the director*<sup>c</sup>:
A song from the Korah family.*

- <sup>1</sup> Everyone, clap your hands.
Shout with joy to God!
<sup>2</sup> The LORD Most High is awesome.
He is the great King over all the earth.
<sup>3</sup> He helped us defeat other nations.
He put those people under our control.
<sup>4</sup> He chose our land for us.
He chose that wonderful land for Jacob,*
the one he loved. *Selah**
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD God goes up to his throne
at the sound of the trumpet and horn.
<sup>6</sup> Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
<sup>7</sup> God is the King of the whole world.
Sing songs of praise!<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup> God sits on his holy throne;
he rules all the nations.
<sup>9</sup> The leaders of the nations have come together with the people of the God of Abraham.*
All the rulers of the world belong to God.
He is over them all!

48 A song of praise from the Korah family.

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD is great!
He is praised throughout the city of our God, his holy mountain.
<sup>2</sup> His city is such a pleasant place.
It brings joy to people from around the world.
Mount Zion* is the true mountain of God.<sup>f</sup>
It is the city of the great King.
<sup>3</sup> In the palaces of that city, God is known as the fortress.*
<sup>4</sup> Once some kings met together and planned an attack against this city.
They marched toward the city,
<sup>5</sup> but when they saw it, they were amazed.
They all panicked and ran away.

<sup>f</sup>48:2 true mountain of God Literally, "the summit of Zaphon." In Canaanite stories, Mt. Zaphon was where the gods lived.

- 6 Fear grabbed them;
they trembled like a woman giving birth.
- 7 God, with a strong east wind,
you wrecked their big ships.
- 8 Yes, we heard the stories about your power.
But we also saw it in the city of our God,
the city of the LORD All-Powerful.
God makes that city strong forever. Selah*
- 9 God, in your Temple* we remember your loving kindness.
- 10 Your name is known everywhere, God,
and people throughout the earth praise you.
You have shown that you do what is right.
- 11 Mount Zion is happy, and the towns of Judah rejoice, because your decisions are fair.
- 12 Walk around Jerusalem,
and count its towers.
- 13 Look at the tall walls,
and see the palaces.
Then you can tell the next generation about them.
- 14 This God is our God forever and ever.
He will lead us from now to the end of time!

49 *To the director*: A song from the Korah family.*

- 1 Listen to this, all you nations.
Pay attention, all you people on earth.
- 2 Everyone, rich and poor, listen to me.
- 3 I have some very wise words for you.
My thoughts will give you understanding.
- 4 I listened to these sayings.
And now, with my harp, I will sing and make the hidden meaning clear.
- 5 Why should I be afraid when trouble comes?
There is no need to fear when evil enemies surround me.
- 6 They think their wealth will protect them.
They brag about how rich they are.
- 7 But no one has enough to buy back a life,
and you cannot bribe<sup>a</sup> God.
- 8 You will never get enough money to pay for your own life.
- 9 You will never have enough to buy the right to live forever and keep your body out of the grave.
- 10 Look, the wise die the same as fools and stupid people.<sup>b</sup>
They die and leave their wealth to others.

<sup>a</sup>49:7 bribe Here, this means offering a gift or sacrifice so that God will not punish a guilty person.

<sup>b</sup>49:10 stupid people Or "animals."

- 11 The grave will be their new home forever.
And how much land they owned will not make any difference.
- 12 People might be wealthy, but they cannot stay here forever.
They will die like the animals.
- 13 That is what happens to all who trust in themselves and to anyone who accepts their way of life. Selah*
- 14 They are just like sheep, but the grave will be their pen.
Death will be their shepherd.
When morning comes, the good people will enjoy victory,
as the bodies of the proud slowly rot in the grave, far away from their fancy houses.
- 15 But God will pay the price to save me from the grave.
He will take me to be with him. Selah
- 16 Don't be afraid of people just because they are rich.
Don't be afraid of people just because they have big, fancy houses.
- 17 They will not take anything with them when they die.
They will not take their wealth with them.
- 18 A wealthy man might tell himself how well he has done in life.
And other people might praise him.
- 19 But the time will come for him to die and go to his ancestors.
And he will never again see the light of day.
- 20 Wealthy people don't seem to understand that they will die like the animals.

50 One of Asaph's songs.

- 1 THE LORD God Most Powerful has spoken.
He calls to everyone on earth, from where the sun rises to where it sets.
- 2 God appeared from Zion,* the city of perfect beauty.<sup>c</sup>
- 3 Our God is coming and will not keep quiet.
Fire burns in front of him.
There is a great storm around him.
- 4 He tells the sky and the earth to be witnesses
as he judges his people.
- 5 He says, "My followers, gather around me.
Come, my worshipers, who made an agreement with me."
- 6 God is the judge,
and the skies tell how fair he is. Selah*

<sup>c</sup>50:2 God ... beauty Or "God shining from Zion is absolutely beautiful."

- <sup>7</sup> God says, "My people, listen to me!
People of Israel,* I will show my evidence against you.
I am God, your God.
- <sup>8</sup> The problem I have with you is not your sacrifices*
or the burnt offerings* you bring to me everyday.
- <sup>9</sup> Why would I want more bulls from your barns
or goats from your pens?
- <sup>10</sup> I already own all the animals in the forest.
I own all the animals on a thousand hills.
- <sup>11</sup> I know every bird in the mountains.
Everything that moves in the fields is mine.
- <sup>12</sup> If I were hungry, I would not ask you for food.
I already own the world and everything in it.
- <sup>13</sup> I don't eat the meat of bulls or drink the blood of goats."
- <sup>14</sup> You made promises to God Most High, so give him what you promised.
Bring your sacrifices and thank
offerings.*
- <sup>15</sup> God says, "Call me when trouble comes.
I will help you, and you will honor me."
- <sup>16</sup> But God says to the wicked,
"Stop quoting my laws!
Stop talking about my agreement*!
- <sup>17</sup> You hate for me to tell you what to do.
You ignore what I say.
- <sup>18</sup> You see a thief and run to join him.
You jump into bed with those who commit adultery.*
- <sup>19</sup> You say evil things and tell lies.
- <sup>20</sup> You sit around talking about people, finding fault with your own brothers.
- <sup>21</sup> When you did these things, I said
nothing.
So you thought that I<sup>a</sup> was just like you.
But I will not be quiet any longer.
I will correct you and make clear what I have against you.
- <sup>22</sup> You people who have forgotten God, understand what I am telling you,
or I will tear you apart,
and no one will be able to save you!
- <sup>23</sup> Whoever gives a thank offering shows me honor.
And whoever decides to live right will see my power to save."

- Because of your great compassion, erase all the wrongs I have done.
- <sup>2</sup> Scrub away my guilt.
Wash me clean from my sin.
- <sup>3</sup> I know I have done wrong.
I remember that sin all the time.
- <sup>4</sup> I did what you said is wrong.
You are the one I have sinned against.
I say this so that people will know that I am wrong and you are right.
What you decided is fair.
- <sup>5</sup> I was born to do wrong, a sinner before I left my mother's womb.
- <sup>6</sup> You want me to be completely loyal,
so put true wisdom deep inside of me.
- <sup>7</sup> Remove my sin and make me pure.<sup>b</sup>
Wash me until I am whiter than snow!
- <sup>8</sup> Let me hear sounds of joy and happiness
again.
Let the bones you crushed be happy
again.
- <sup>9</sup> Don't look at my sins.
Erase them all.
- <sup>10</sup> God, create a pure heart in me,
and make my spirit strong again.
- <sup>11</sup> Don't push me away or take your Holy Spirit* from me.
- <sup>12</sup> Your help made me so happy.
Give me that joy again.
Make my spirit strong and ready to obey
you.
- <sup>13</sup> I will teach the guilty how you want them
to live,
and the sinners will come back to you.
- <sup>14</sup> God, spare me from the punishment of death.<sup>c</sup>
My God, you are the one who saves me!
Let me sing about all the good things you do for me!
- <sup>15</sup> My Lord, I will open my mouth and sing your praises!
- <sup>16</sup> You don't really want sacrifices,* or I would give them to you.
- <sup>17</sup> The sacrifice that God wants is a humble spirit.
God, you will not turn away someone who comes with a humble heart and is willing to obey you.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>18</sup> God, please be good to Zion.*
Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
- <sup>19</sup> Then you can enjoy the kind of sacrifices
you want.<sup>e</sup>
You will receive whole burnt offerings,* and people will again offer bulls on your altar.

51 *To the director*: A song of David* written when Nathan the prophet came to him after David's sin with Bathsheba.*

- <sup>1</sup> God, be merciful to me because of your faithful love.

hyssop." See "hyssop" in the Word List.
<sup>c</sup>51:14 spare ... death Or "don't consider me guilty of murder."

52 *To the director*<sup>a</sup>: A maskil* of David written when Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, "David is in Ahimelech's house."*

- <sup>1</sup> Great warrior, why are you bragging about the evil you did?
You are a disgrace to God.
- <sup>2</sup> You are nothing but a hired killer,<sup>a</sup> making plans to hurt people and making up lies!
- <sup>3</sup> You love evil more than goodness.
You love lies more than truth. *Selah**
- <sup>4</sup> You and your lying tongue love to hurt people.
- <sup>5</sup> So God will ruin you forever!
He will grab you and pull you from your home,<sup>b</sup> like someone pulling up a plant by the roots!<sup>c</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> Good people will see this and learn to fear and respect God.
They will laugh at you and say,
- <sup>7</sup> "Look what happened to the warrior who did not depend on God.
That fool thought his wealth and lies would protect him."

- <sup>8</sup> But I am like a green olive tree growing in God's Temple.*
I will trust God's faithful love forever and ever.
- <sup>9</sup> God, I praise you forever for what you have done.
I will speak your name<sup>d</sup> before your followers because it is so good!

53 *To the director*<sup>a</sup>: Use the mahalath.<sup>e</sup>
A maskil* of David.*

- <sup>1</sup> Only fools think there is no God.
People like that are evil and do terrible things.
They never do what is right.
- <sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven to see if there is anyone who is wise,
anyone who looks to him for help.
- <sup>3</sup> But everyone has turned away from him.
Everyone has become evil.
No one does anything good.
No, not one person!
- <sup>4</sup> Those who are evil treat my people like bread to be eaten.
And they never ask for God's help.
Don't they understand what they are doing?

<sup>b</sup>52:5 home This means the body. This is a poetic way of saying, "God will end your life here on earth."

<sup>e</sup>Psalm 53 maalath Probably a musical term. It might be the name of an instrument or a tune, or it might mean a certain musical style.

- <sup>5</sup> They will be filled with fear—
a fear like they have never felt before!
People of Israel,* you will defeat those who attacked you,
because God has rejected them.
And he will scatter their bones.
- <sup>6</sup> I wish the one who lives on Mount Zion*
would bring victory to Israel!
When God makes Israel successful again,
the people of Jacob* will be very happy;
the people of Israel will be glad.

- <sup>1</sup> God, use your power and save me.
Use your great power to set me free.<sup>f</sup>
- <sup>2</sup> God, listen to my prayer.
Listen to what I say.
- <sup>3</sup> Strangers who don't even think about God have turned against me.
Those powerful men are trying to kill me. *Selah**
- <sup>4</sup> Look, my God will help me.
My Lord will support me.
- <sup>5</sup> He will punish the people who turned against me.
God, be faithful to me and destroy them.
- <sup>6</sup> LORD, I will give freewill offerings to you.
I will praise your good name.
- <sup>7</sup> You saved me from all my troubles.
I saw my enemies defeated.

55 *To the director*<sup>a</sup>: With instruments. A maskil* of David.*

- <sup>1</sup> God, hear my prayer.
Don't ignore my cry for help.
- <sup>2</sup> Please listen and answer me.
Let me speak to you and tell you what upsets me.
- <sup>3</sup> My enemies shout at me and threaten me.
In their anger they attack me.
They bring troubles crashing down on me.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart is pounding inside me.
I am afraid to die.
- <sup>5</sup> I am trembling with fear.
I am terrified!
- <sup>6</sup> Oh, I wish I had wings like a dove.
I would fly away and find a place to rest.
- <sup>7</sup> I would go far into the desert and stay there. *Selah**
- <sup>8</sup> I would run away.
I would escape from this storm of trouble.

<sup>f</sup>54:1 Literally, "God, save me with your name, judge me with your might."

- 9 My Lord, confuse their words and stop their plans.
I see so much cruelty and fighting in this city.
- 10 Day and night, in every neighborhood, the city is filled with evil and trouble.
- 11 There is so much crime in the streets.
People who hurt and cheat others are everywhere.
- 12 If it were an enemy insulting me,
I could bear it.
If it were my enemies attacking me,
I could hide.
- 13 But it is you, the one so close to me,
my companion, my good friend, who does this.
- 14 We used to share our secrets with one another, as we walked through the crowds together in God's Temple.*
- 15 I wish death would take my enemies by surprise!
I wish the earth would open up and swallow them alive,<sup>a</sup> because they plan such terrible things together.
- 16 I will call to God for help,
and the LORD will save me.
- 17 I speak to God morning, noon, and night.
I tell him what upsets me, and he listens to me!
- 18 I have fought in many battles,
but he has always rescued me and brought me back safely.
- 19 God, who has always ruled as king,
will hear me and punish my enemies.
- Selah*
- But they will never change.
They don't fear and respect God.
- 20 This one who was once my friend now attacks his friends.
He is breaking every promise he made.
- 21 His words about peace are as smooth as butter,
but he has only war on his mind.
His words are as slick as oil,
but they cut like a knife.
- 22 Give your worries to the LORD,
and he will care for you.
He will never let those who are good be defeated.
- 23 But, God, you will send those liars and murderers to the grave.
They will die before their life is half finished!
As for me, I will put my trust in you.

56 *To the director*: To the tune "The Dove in the Distant Oak." A miktam* of David written when the Philistines* captured him in Gath.*

- 1 God, people have attacked me, so be merciful to me.
They have been chasing me all day,
closing in to attack me.
- 2 My enemies come at me constantly.
There are too many fighters to count.<sup>b</sup>
- 3 When I am afraid, I put my trust in you.
- 4 I trust God, so I am not afraid of what people can do to me!
I praise God for his promise to me.
- 5 My enemies are always twisting my words.
They are always making plans against me.
- 6 They hide together and watch every move I make,
hoping for some way to kill me.
- 7 God, send them away because of the bad things they did.
Show your anger and defeat those people.
- 8 You know I am very upset.
You know how much I have cried.
Surely you have kept an account of all my tears.
- 9 I know that when I call for help, my enemies will turn and run.
I know that because God is with me!
- 10 I praise God for his promise.
I praise the LORD for his promise to me.
- 11 I trust God, so I am not afraid of what people can do to me!

- 12 God, I will keep the special promises I made to you.
I will give you my thank offering.
- 13 You saved me from death.
You kept me from being defeated.
So I will serve you in the light

I have come to you for protection,

- 2 I pray to God Most High for help,
and he takes care of me completely!

He will punish the one who attacks me.

<sup>b</sup>56:2 There are ... count Or "There are many attacking me from above."

4 My life is in danger.
My enemies are all around me.
They are like man-eating lions,
with teeth like spears or arrows and tongues like sharp swords.

5 God, rise above the heavens!
Let all the world see your glory.*

6 My enemies set a trap for my feet to bring me down.
They dug a deep pit to catch me,
but they fell into it.

7 God, I am ready, heart and soul,
to sing songs of praise.

8 Wake up, my soul!
Harps and lyres,* wake up, and let's wake the dawn!

9 My Lord, I will praise you before all

I will sing praises about you to every 1 You judges are not being fair in your decisions.

You are not judging people fairly.

2 No, you only think of evil things to do.
You do violent crimes in this country.

3 Those wicked people started doing wrong
as soon as they were born.

They have been liars from birth.

4 Their anger is as deadly as the poison of a snake.<sup>a</sup>

They shut their ears like a deaf cobra

snake charmers,
no matter how well they play.

6 God, they are like lions.
So LORD, break their teeth.

7 May they disappear like water down a drain.

May they be crushed like weeds on a path.<sup>b</sup>

8 May they be like snails melting away as they move.

May they be like a baby born dead, who never saw the light of day.

9 May they be destroyed suddenly, like the thorns that are burned to quickly heat a pot.

when they see the wicked getting the

They will feel like soldiers walking through the blood of their enemies!<sup>c</sup>

are rewarded.

Yes, there is a God judging the world!"<sup>d</sup>

1 God, save me from my enemies.

Protect me from those who stand
against me.

2 Save me from those who do wrong.
Save me from those murderers.

3 Look, powerful men are waiting for me.
LORD, they are waiting to kill me, even though I did not sin or commit
a crime.

4 I have done nothing wrong, but they are rushing to attack me.

Come and see for yourself!

5 You are the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel!
Get up and punish them.

Don't show any mercy to those traitors.

Selah*

6 Those evil men are like dogs
that come into town in the evening,
growling and roaming the streets.

7 Listen to their threats and insults.
They say such cruel things,
and they don't care who hears them.

8 LORD, laugh at them.
Make fun of them all.

9 I will sing my songs of praise to you.<sup>e</sup> God, you are my place of safety, high in the mountains.

10 God loves me, and he will help me win.
He will help me defeat my enemies.

11 Don't just kill them, or my people might forget.

My Lord and Protector, scatter and defeat them with your strength.

12 Those evil people curse<sup>a</sup> and tell lies.
Punish them for what they said.
Let their pride trap them.

13 Destroy them in your anger.
Destroy them completely!

Then people all over the world will know that God rules over the people of Jacob.*

Selah

14 Those evil men are like dogs
that come into town in the evening,
growling and roaming the streets.

<sup>e</sup>59:9 I will sing ... to you Or "My Strength, I am waiting for you." See Ps. 59:17.

- 15 They roam around looking for food, but even if they eat their fill, they still growl and complain.
- 16 But I will sing about your strength.
I will rejoice in your love every morning.
You have been my place of safety,
the place I can run to when troubles
come.
- 17 I will sing praises to you, my source of strength.
You, God, are my place of safety.
You are the God who loves me!

60 *To the director*: To the tune "Lily of the Agreement." A miktam* of David for teaching. Written when David fought Aram Naharaim and Aram Zobah, and Joab came back and defeated 12,000 Edomite soldiers at Salt Valley.*

- 1 God, you were angry with us.
You rejected us and destroyed our defenses.
Please make us strong again.
- 2 You shook the earth and split it open.
It is falling apart like a broken wall.
Please put it back together.
- 3 You have given your people many troubles.
We are dizzy and fall down like drunks.
- 4 But you have provided a flag to show your faithful followers
where to gather to escape the enemy's attack. *Selah**
- 5 Use your great power and give us victory!
Answer our prayer and save the people you love.
- 6 God has spoken in his Temple<sup>a</sup>:
"I will win the war and rejoice in victory!
I will divide this land among my people.
I will give them Shechem.
I will give them Succoth Valley.
Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
Ephraim* will be my helmet.
Judah* will be my royal scepter.*
Moab will be the bowl for washing my feet.
Edom will be the slave who carries my sandals.
I will defeat the Philistines* and shout in victory!"

- 9-10 But, God, it seems that you have left us!
You do not go out with our army.
So who will lead me into the strong,
protected city?
Who will lead me into battle against Edom?
- 11 Help us defeat the enemy!
No one on earth can rescue us.
- 12 Only God can make us strong.
Only God can defeat our enemies!

61 *To the director*: With stringed instruments. A song of David.**

- 1 God, hear my cry for help.
Listen to my prayer.
- 2 From a faraway land I call to you for help.
I feel so weak and helpless!
Carry me to a high rock
where no one can reach me.
- 3 You are my place of safety,
a strong tower that protects me from my
enemies.
- 4 I want to live in your tent<sup>b</sup> forever.
I want to hide where you can protect me. *Selah**
- 5 God, you heard what I promised to give
you,
but everything your worshipers have comes from you.
- 6 Give the king a long life.
Let him live forever!
- 7 Let him rule in your presence forever.
Protect him with your faithful love.
- 8 Then I will praise your name forever.
Every day I will do what I promised.

62 *To the director,* Jeduthun.* A song of David.**

- 1 I must calm down and turn to God;
only he can rescue me.
- 2 He is my Rock,* the only one who can
save me.
He is my high place of safety, where no
army can defeat me.
- 3 How long will you people attack me?
Do you all want to kill me?
I am like a leaning wall,
like a fence ready to fall.
- 4 You want only to destroy me,
to bring me down from my important position.
It makes you happy to tell lies about me.
In public, you say nice things,
but in private, you curse* me. *Selah**
- 5 I must calm down and turn to God;
he is my only hope.
- 6 He is my Rock, the only one who can save
me.
He is my high place of safety, where no
army can defeat me.
- 7 My victory and honor come from God.
He is the mighty Rock, where I am safe.
- 8 People, always put your trust in God!
Tell him all your problems.
God is our place of safety. Selah

<sup>b</sup>61:4 tent The place where God lives among his people. Here, it is the Temple in Jerusalem. See "Holy Tent" and "Temple" in the Word List.
<sup>c</sup>Psalm 62 Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-42.

- 9 People cannot really help.
You cannot depend on them.
Compared to God, they are nothing—
no more than a gentle puff of air!
- 10 Don't trust in your power to take things
by force.
Don't think you will gain anything by stealing.
And if you become wealthy,
don't put your trust in riches.
- 11 God says there is one thing you can really depend on, and I believe it:
"Strength comes from God!"
- 12 My Lord, your love is real.
You reward all people for what they do.

63 *A song of David* written when he was in the desert of Judah.*

- 1 God, you are my God.
I am searching so hard to find you.
Body and soul, I thirst for you in this dry and weary land without water.
- 2 Yes, I have seen you in your Temple.<sup>a</sup>
I have seen your strength and glory.*
- 3 Your faithful love is better than life,
so my lips praise you.
- 4 By my life, I will praise you.
In your name, I lift my hands in prayer.
- 5 When I sit down to satisfy my hunger,
my joyful lips hunger to praise you!
- 6 I remember you while lying on my bed.
I think about you in the middle of the
night.
- 7 That is because you are the one who helps me.
It makes me happy to be under your protection!
- 8 I stay close to you,
and you hold me with your powerful arm.
- 9 Those who are trying to kill me will be
destroyed.
They will go down to their graves.
- 10 They will be killed with swords.
Wild dogs will eat their dead bodies.
- 11 But the king will be happy with his God,
and those who promised to obey him will praise him when he defeats those liars.

64 *To the director*: A song of David.**

- 1 God, listen to my complaint.
Save me from the terrible threats of my
enemies!
- 2 Protect me from the secret plans of the wicked.
Hide me from that gang of evil people.
- 3 They sharpen their tongues to use like swords.

- They aim their poisonous words like arrows.
- 4 Suddenly, from their hiding places, they let their arrows fly.
They shoot to kill innocent people.
- 5 They encourage each other to do wrong.
They talk about setting traps and say,
"No one will see them here!"
- 6 No one will discover our crime.
We have the perfect plan!"
- Yes, people can be very tricky and hard to understand.
- 7 But suddenly, God will shoot his arrows,
and those wicked people will be hit.
- 8 He will use their own words against
them,
and they will be destroyed.
Then everyone who sees them will shake their heads in amazement.
- 9 People will see what God has done.
They will tell other people about him.
Then everyone will learn more about God.
They will learn to fear and respect him.
- 10 Good people are happy to serve the LORD.
They depend on him to protect them.
All those who want to do right will praise
him!

65 *To the director*: A praise song of David.**

- 1 God in Zion,* we praise you and give you what we promised.
- 2 Anyone can come to you,
and you will listen to their prayers.
- 3 When our sins become too heavy for us,
you wipe them away.
- 4 Oh, how wonderful it is to be the people you chose to come and stay in your Temple.*
And we are so happy to have the wonderful things that are in your Temple, your holy palace.
- 5 God, you answer our prayers and do what is right.
You do amazing things to save us.
People all over the world know they can
trust in you,
even those who live across the sea.
- 6 You made the mountains.
We see your power all around us.
- 7 You can calm the roughest seas or the nations raging around us.
- 8 People all around the world are amazed at the wonderful things you do.
You make all people, east and west, sing with joy.
- 9 You take care of the land.
You water it and make it fertile.
Your streams are always filled with water.
That's how you make the crops grow.
- 10 You pour rain on the plowed fields;
you soak the fields with water.
You make the ground soft with rain,
and you make the young plants grow.

<sup>a</sup>63:2 your Temple Or "your holiness."

- 11 You start the new year with a good harvest.
You end the year with many crops.<sup>a</sup>
- 12 The desert and hills are covered with grass.
- 13 The pastures are covered with sheep.
The valleys are filled with grain.
Everything is singing and shouting for joy.

66 *To the director*: A song of praise.*

- 1 Everything on earth, shout with joy to God!
- 2 Praise his glorious name!
Honor him with songs of praise!
- 3 Tell God, "Your works are wonderful!
Your great power makes your enemies bow down in fear before you.
- 4 Let the whole world worship you.
Let everyone sing praises to your name." *Selah**
- 5 Look at what God has done!
These things amaze us.
- 6 He changed the sea to dry land,<sup>b</sup>
and his people went across the water<sup>c</sup> on foot.
So let's celebrate because of what he has done!
- 7 He rules the world with his great power.
He watches people everywhere.
No one can rebel against him. Selah
- 8 People, praise our God.
Sing loud songs of praise to him.
- 9 He continues to give us life,
and he keeps us from falling.
- 10 God, you have tested us, as people test silver with fire.
- 11 You let us be trapped.
You put heavy burdens on us.
- 12 You let our enemies run over us.
We went through fire and water,
but you brought us to a safe place.
- 13-14 So I bring sacrifices* to your Temple.*
When I was in trouble, I asked for help and made promises to you.
Now I am giving you what I promised.
- 15 I bring my best sheep as burnt offerings.*
I offer the smoke from them up to you.
I give you sacrifices of bulls and goats. Selah

- 16 All you people who worship God, come and I will tell you what he has done for me.
- 17-18 I cried out to him for help,
and I praised him.
If I had been hiding sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened to me.
- 19 But God did listen to me;
he heard my prayer.
- 20 Praise God!
He did not turn away from me—he listened to my prayer.
He continues to show his love to me!

67 *To the director*: A song of praise.*

- 1 God, show mercy to us and bless us.
Please accept us! *Selah**
- 2 Let everyone on earth learn about you.
Let every nation see how you save people.
- 3 May people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.
- 4 May all nations rejoice and be happy because you judge people fairly.
You rule over every nation.
- 5 May the people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.
- 6 God, our God, bless us.
Let our land give us a great harvest.
- 7 May God bless us,
and may all people on earth fear and respect him.

68 *To the director*: A praise song of David.**

- 1 God, get up and scatter your enemies!
May all your enemies run from you.
- 2 May your enemies be scattered like smoke blown away by the wind.
May your enemies be destroyed like wax melting in a fire.
- 3 But let good people be happy.
Let them gather before God and enjoy themselves together.
- 4 Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Prepare the way for the one who rides on the clouds.
His name is YAH.<sup>d</sup>
Worship before him with joy.
- 5 God, who lives in his holy palace, is a father to orphans,
and he takes care of widows.
- 6 God provides homes for those who are lonely.
He frees people from prison and makes them happy.
But those who turn against him will live in the desert.

<sup>a</sup>65:11 In ancient Israel there were two calendars. The calendar for religious festivals began in the spring, at the barley harvest. The other calendar started in the fall, when they gathered other crops.

<sup>b</sup>66:6 changed the sea to dry land This was with Moses at the Red Sea. See Ex. 14.

<sup>c</sup>66:6 water Literally, "river." Although this word is not used for the Jordan River elsewhere, some think this line may refer to the later crossing there. See Josh. 3:14-17.

<sup>d</sup>68:4 YAH This is a Hebrew name for God. It is like the Hebrew name usually translated "LORD." Also in verse 18.

- 7 God, you led your people out of Egypt.
You marched across the desert. Selah*
- 8 The ground shook and rain poured from the sky
when God, the God of Israel,* came to Sinai.
- 9 God, you sent the rain
to make a tired, old land strong again.
- 10 Your people<sup>a</sup> came back to live there,
and you provided good things for the poor.
- 11 My Lord gave the command,
and many people went to tell the good news:
- 12 "The armies of powerful kings ran away!
At home, the women divide the things brought from the battle.
- 13 Those who stayed home will share in the wealth—metal doves with wings covered in silver and feathers sparkling with gold."
- 14 God All-Powerful scattered the kings like snow falling on Mount Zalmon.
- 15 Mount Bashan is a great mountain with many high peaks.
- 16 But, Bashan, why are you jealous of Mount Zion*?
That is where God has chosen to live.
The LORD will live there forever.
- 17 With his millions of chariots*
the Lord came from Sinai into the holy place.
- 18 You went up to your high place,
leading a parade of captives.
You received gifts from people,<sup>b</sup>
even those who turned against you.
The LORD God went up there to live.
- 19 Praise the Lord!
Every day he helps us with the loads we must carry.
He is the God who saves us. Selah
- 20 He is our God, the God who saves us.
My Lord God saves us from death.
- 21 God will smash the heads of his enemies.
He will punish those who fight against him.<sup>c</sup>
- 22 My Lord said, "If they run up to Bashan or down to the depths of the sea,
I will bring them back.
- 23 So you will march through pools of their blood, and there will be plenty left for your dogs."
- 24 God, everyone can see your victory parade—
the victory march of my God and King into his holy place!<sup>d</sup>
- 25 Singers come marching in front, followed by the musicians;
they are surrounded by young girls
playing tambourines.
- 26 Praise God in the meeting place.<sup>e</sup>
Praise the LORD, people of Israel*!
- 27 There is the smallest tribe, Benjamin, leading them.
And there comes a large group of leaders from Judah.
Following them are the leaders of Zebulun and Naphtali.
- 28 God, show us your power!
Show us the power you used for us in the past.
- 29 Kings will bring their wealth to you,
to your Temple* in Jerusalem.
- 30 Punish the people in Egypt.
They are like cattle in the marshes, like bulls among the calves.
You humiliated them.
You scattered them in war.
Now let them come crawling to you,
bringing their pieces of silver.
- 31 Messengers from Egypt will come bearing gifts.
Ethiopia will offer God their tribute.*
- 32 Kings on earth, sing to God!
Sing songs of praise to our Lord! Selah
- 33 Sing to him who rides his chariot through the ancient skies.
Listen to his powerful voice!
- 34 Tell everyone how powerful he is!
He rules over Israel.
His power fills the skies.
- 35 God, you are awesome in your Temple!
The God of Israel is the one who gives strength and power to his people.
Praise God!

69 *To the director*: To the tune "The Lilies."
A song of David.**

- 1 God, save me from all my troubles!
The rising water has reached my neck.
- 2 I have nothing to stand on.
I am sinking down, down into the mud.
I am in deep water,
and the waves are about to cover me.
- 3 I am getting weak from calling for help.
My throat is sore.
I have waited and looked for your help until my eyes are hurting.
- 4 I have more enemies than the hairs on my head.
They hate me for no reason.

<sup>d</sup>68:24 of my God ... holy place Or "led by my holy God and King!"

<sup>e</sup>68:26 in the meeting place Or "with the trumpets that announce the assembly!"

<sup>b</sup>68:18 received gifts from people Or "took people as gifts." Or "gave gifts to people," as in the ancient Syriac and Aramaic versions and in Eph. 4:8.

<sup>c</sup>68:21 Literally, "God will smash the heads of his enemies. He will smash the hairy skull walking in guilt."

- They try hard to destroy me.
My enemies tell lies about me.
They say I stole from them and they demand that I pay for things I did not steal.
- 5 God, you know my faults.
I cannot hide my sins from you.
- 6 My Lord God All-Powerful, don't let me
embarrass your followers.
God of Israel,* don't let me bring disgrace to those who worship you.
- 7 My face is covered with shame.
I carry this shame for you.
- 8 My own brothers treat me like a stranger.
They act as if I came from a foreign
land.
- 9 My strong devotion to your Temple* is destroying me.
Those who insult you are also insulting
me.
- 10 When I spend time crying and fasting,*
they make fun of me.
- 11 When I wear sackcloth* to show my sorrow,
they tell jokes about me.
- 12 They talk about me in public places.
The beer drinkers make up songs about
me.
- 13 As for me, LORD, this is my prayer to you:
Please accept me!
God, I want you to answer me with love.
I know I can trust you to save me.
- 14 Pull me from the mud,
and don't let me sink down deeper.
Save me from those who hate me.
Save me from this deep water.
- 15 Don't let the waves drown me.
Don't let the deep sea swallow me or the grave close its mouth on me.
- 16 Answer me, LORD, from the goodness of your faithful love.
Out of your great kindness turn to me and help me!
- 17 Don't turn away from your servant.
I am in trouble, so hurry and help me!
- 18 Come save my soul.
Rescue me from my enemies.
- 19 You know the shame I have suffered.
You know all my enemies.
You saw how they humiliated me.
- 20 I feel the pain of their insults.
The shame makes me feel like dying!
I wanted some sympathy,
but there was none.
I waited for someone to comfort me,
but no one came.
- 21 They gave me poison, not food.
They gave me vinegar, not wine.
- 22 Their tables are covered with food.
Let their fellowship meals destroy them.
- 23 Let them go blind and their backs become weak.
- 24 Show them how angry you are.
Let them feel what your anger can do.
- 25 Make their homes empty.

- Don't let anyone live there.
- 26 They try to hurt people you have already punished.
They tell everyone about the suffering
you gave them.
- 27 Punish them for the bad things they have
done.
Don't show them how good you can be.
- 28 Erase their names from the book of life.
Don't let their names appear on the list of those who do what is right.
- 29 I am sad and hurting.
God, lift me up and save me!
- 30 I will praise God's name in song.
I will honor him by giving him thanks.
- 31 The LORD will be happier with this than with the offering of an ox or a full-grown bull as a sacrifice.*
- 32 Poor people, you came to worship God.
You will be happy to know these things.
- 33 The LORD listens to poor, helpless people.
He does not turn away from those who are in prison.
- 34 Praise him, heaven and earth!
Sea and everything in it, praise him!
- 35 God will save Zion.*
He will rebuild the cities of Judah.
The people will settle there again and own the land.
- 36 The descendants of his servants will get that land.
Those who love his name will live
there.

70 *To the director*:
A song of David* to help people remember.*

- 1 Please, God, rescue me!
LORD, hurry and help me!
- 2 People are trying to kill me.
Please disappoint them.
Humiliate them!
They want to hurt me.
Make them run away in shame.
- 3 May those who make fun of me
be too embarrassed to speak.
- 4 But may those who come to you be happy
and rejoice.
May those who love being saved by you always be able to say, "Praise God!"<sup>a</sup>
- 5 I am only a poor, helpless man.
God, please hurry to me.
You are my helper, the one who can save
me.
LORD, don't be too late!

71 <sup>1</sup>LORD, I depend on you for protection.
Don't let me be disappointed.

<sup>2</sup> You always do what is right, so come and
save me.
Listen to me and save me.

<sup>a</sup>70:4 Praise God Literally, "God is great" or "May God be magnified."

- 3 Be my Rock,* my place of safety.
 Be my fortress,* and protect me!
 You are my Rock and my protection.
 4 My God, save me from wicked people.
 Save me from cruel, evil people.
 5 Lord God, you are my hope.
 I have trusted you since I was a young boy.
 6 I depended on you even before I was born.
 I relied on you even in my mother's womb.
 I have always prayed to you.<sup>a</sup>
 7 You are my source of strength,
 so I have been an example to others.
 8 I am always singing about the wonderful things you do.
 9 Don't throw me away just because I am old.
 Don't leave me as I lose my strength.
 10 My enemies make plans against me.
 They have met together and are making plans to kill me.
 11 They say, "Go get him!
 God has left him, so there is no one to help him."
 12 God, don't leave me!
 My God, hurry and help me!
 13 Defeat my enemies.
 Destroy them completely!
 They are trying to hurt me.
 Let them suffer shame and disgrace.
 14 Then I will always trust in you and praise you more and more.
 15 I will tell people how good you are.
 I will tell about all the times you saved me—
 too many times to count.
 16 I will tell about your greatness, my Lord God.
 I will talk only about you and your goodness.
 17 God, you have taught me since I was a young boy.
 And to this day I have told people about the wonderful things you do.
 18 Now that I am old and my hair is gray, don't leave me, God.
 I must tell the next generation about your power and greatness.
 19 God, your goodness reaches far above the skies.
 You have done wonderful things.
 God, there is no one like you.
 20 You have let me see troubles and hard times,
 but you will give me new life;
 you will lift me up from this pit of death!
 21 You will help me do even greater things.
 You will comfort me again!
 22 I will play the harp and praise you.
 My God, I will sing about your faithfulness.

<sup>a</sup>71:6 prayed to you Or "praised you."

- I will play songs on my lyre* for the Holy One of Israel.*
 23 I will shout for joy,
 singing songs of praise to you for saving me.
 24 My tongue will sing about your goodness all the time, because those who wanted to kill me have been defeated and disgraced.

72 To Solomon.<sup>b</sup>

- 1 God, help the king be like you and make fair decisions.
 Help the king's son know what justice is.
 2 Help the king judge your people fairly.
 Help him make wise decisions for your poor people.
 3 Let there be peace and justice throughout the land, known on every mountain and hill.
 4 May the king be fair to the poor.
 May he help the helpless and punish those who hurt them.
 5 May people always fear and respect you, God, as long as the sun shines and the moon is in the sky.
 6 Help the king be like rain falling on the fields,
 like showers falling on the land.
 7 Let goodness grow everywhere while he is king.
 Let peace continue as long as there is a moon.
 8 Let his kingdom grow from sea to sea, from the Euphrates River to the faraway places on earth.<sup>c</sup> 9 May all the people living in the desert bow down to him.
 May all his enemies bow before him with their faces in the dirt.
 10 May the kings of Tarshish* and all the faraway lands by the sea bring gifts to him.
 May the kings of Sheba and Seba bring their tribute* to him.
 11 May all kings bow down to our king.
 May all nations serve him.
 12 Our king helps the poor who cry out to him—
 those in need who have no one to help them.
 13 He feels sorry for all who are weak and poor.
 He protects their lives.
 14 He saves them from the cruel people who try to hurt them.
 Their lives are important to him.

<sup>b</sup>Psalm 72 To Solomon This might mean that this song was written by Solomon or dedicated to him, or that it is from some special collection of songs.

<sup>c</sup>72:8 faraway places on earth This usually means the countries around the Mediterranean Sea.

- 15 Long live the king!
Let him receive gold from Sheba.
Always pray for the king.
Ask God to bless him every day.
- 16 May the fields grow plenty of grain and the hills be covered with crops.
May the fields be as fertile as Lebanon, and may people fill the cities as grass covers a field.
- 17 May the king be famous forever.
May people remember his name as long as the sun shines.
May all nations be blessed through him,
and may they all bless him.
- 18 Praise the LORD God, the God of Israel*!
Only he can do such amazing things.
- 19 Praise his glorious name forever!
Let his glory* fill the whole world.
Amen* and Amen!

BOOK 3 (Psalms 73-89)

73 Asaph's song of praise.

- 1 God is so good to Israel*,
to those whose hearts are pure.
- 2 But I almost slipped and lost my balance.
I almost fell into sin.
- 3 I saw that wicked people were successful, and I became jealous of those proud
people.
- 4 They are healthy.
They don't have to struggle to survive.<sup>a</sup>
- 5 They don't suffer like the rest of us.
They don't have troubles like other
people.
- 6 So they are proud and hateful.
This is as easy to see as the jewels and fancy clothes they wear.
- 7 If they see something they like, they go and take it.
They do whatever they want.
- 8 They make fun of others and say cruel things about them.
In their pride they make plans to hurt
people.
- 9 They think they are gods!
They think they are the rulers of the earth.
- 10<sup>b</sup> Even God's people turn to them
and do what they say.
- 11 Those evil people say, "God does not know what we are doing!
God Most High does not know!"
- 12 Those proud people are wicked,
but they are rich and getting richer.
- 13 Clearly, then, I gain nothing by keeping

- my thoughts pure!
What good is it to keep myself from sin?
- 14 God, I suffer all day long,
and you punish me every morning.
- 15 I wanted to tell others these things,
but that would have made me a traitor*
to your people.
- 16 I tried hard to understand all this,
but it was too hard for me.
- 17 But then, God, I went to your Temple,* and I understood what will happen to the wicked.
- 18 Clearly, you have put them in danger.
You make it easy for them to fall and be
destroyed.
- 19 Trouble can come suddenly,
and they will be ruined.
Terrible things can happen to them,
and they will be finished.
- 20 Then they will be like a dream that we forget when we wake up.
You will make them disappear like the monsters in our dreams.

- 21-22<sup>c</sup> I was so stupid.
I thought about such people and became upset.
God, I was upset and angry with you!
I acted like a senseless animal.
- 23 But I am always with you.
You hold my hand.
- 24 You lead me and give me good advice, and later you will lead me to glory.<sup>c</sup>
- 25 In heaven, God, I have only you.
And if I am with you, what on earth could I want?
- 26 Maybe my mind<sup>d</sup> and body will become
weak,
but God is my source of strength.<sup>e</sup>
He is mine forever!
- 27 God, people who leave you will be lost.
You will destroy all who are not faithful to you.
- 28 As for me, all I need is to be close to God.
I have made the Lord God my place of safety.
And, God, I will tell about all that you
have done.

74 *A maskil* of Asaph.*

- 1 God, why have you turned away from us for so long?
Why are you still angry with us, your own flock?
- 2 Remember the people you bought so long ago.
You saved us, and we belong to you.
And remember Mount Zion,* the place where you lived.

- 3 God, come walk through these ancient ruins.
Come back to the Holy Place* that the enemy destroyed.
- 4 The enemy shouted their war cries in the Temple.*
They put up their flags there to show they had won the war.
- 5 Their soldiers attacked the doors, like workmen chopping down trees.
- 6 Using axes and hatchets, they smashed the carved panels inside.
- 7 They burned down your Holy Place.
It was built to honor your name, but they pulled it down to the ground.
- 8 The enemy decided to crush us completely.
They burned every holy place<sup>a</sup> in the country.
- 9 We do not see any of our signs.<sup>b</sup>
There are no more prophets.
And no one knows how long this will last.
- 10 God, how much longer will the enemy make fun of us?
Will you let them insult your name forever?
- 11 Why won't you help us?
Use your power to defeat our enemies!
- 12 God, you have been our King for a long time.
You have saved us many times on this earth.
- 13 With your great power you split open the sea and broke the heads of the sea monster.
- 14 Yes, you smashed the heads of Leviathan<sup>c</sup> and left his body for animals to eat.
- 15 You make the springs and rivers flow,
and you make the rivers dry up.
- 16 You control the day and the night.
You made the sun and the moon.
- 17 You set the limits for everything on earth.
And you created summer and winter.
- 18 LORD, remember, the enemy insulted you!
Those foolish people hate your name!
- 19 Don't give us like a helpless dove to those wild animals.
Never forget your poor, suffering people.
- 20 Remember the agreement you gave us, because violence fills every dark place in this land.

<sup>a</sup>74:8 holy place Or "El meeting place." This means every place where people went to meet with God.

<sup>b</sup>74:9 signs These were probably signal fires that people burned as a way of passing messages from one town to the next. In war, this was a way people showed other towns that the enemy had not yet destroyed their own town.

<sup>c</sup>74:13–14 sea monster ... Leviathan These were creatures from ancient stories. People believed that they kept the world from being a safe, orderly place. So this verse means that God controls every part of the world and everything in it.

- 21 Your people were treated badly.
Don't let them be hurt anymore.
Let your poor, helpless people praise you.
- 22 God, get up and defend yourself!
Remember, those fools challenged you.
- 23 Don't forget the shouts of your enemies.
They insulted you again and again.

75 *To the director*.* To the tune "Don't Destroy." One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- 1 We praise you, God!
We praise you because you<sup>d</sup> are near to us.
We tell about the amazing things you have done.
- 2 God says, "I have chosen a time for judgment,
and I will judge fairly.
- 3 The earth and all its people may shake,
but I am the one who keeps it steady.
*Selah**
- 4 "To those who are proud I say, 'Stop your boasting.'
I warn the wicked, 'Don't brag about how strong you are.
- 5 Don't be so sure that you will win.
Don't boast that victory is yours!"
- 6 There is no power on earth that can make a person important.<sup>e</sup>
- 7 God is the judge.
He decides who will be important.
He lifts one person up and brings another down.
- 8 The LORD has a cup in his hand.
It is filled with the poisoned wine of his anger.
He will pour out this wine,
and the wicked will drink it to the last drop.
- 9 I will always tell people how great God is.
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.*
- 10 He<sup>f</sup> will take away any power the wicked have and give it to those who are good.

76 *To the director*.* With instruments. One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- 1 People in Judah* know God.
People in Israel* respect his name.
- 2 His Temple* is in Salem.<sup>g</sup>
His house is on Mount Zion.*
- 3 There he shattered the arrows, shields, swords, and other weapons of war.
*Selah**

<sup>f</sup>75:10 He Or "I"

<sup>g</sup>76:2 Salem Another name for Jerusalem. This name means "Peace."

- 4 God, you are glorious coming back from the hills where you defeated your enemies.
- 5 They thought they were strong, but now they lie dead in the fields.
Their bodies are stripped of all they owned.
They could not defend themselves.<sup>a</sup>
- 6 The God of Jacob* shouted at them, and their army of chariots* and horses fell dead.
- 7 God, you are awesome!
No one can stand against you when you are angry.
- 8-9 You stood as judge and announced your decision.
You saved the humble people of the land.
From heaven you gave the decision, and the whole earth was silent and afraid.
- 10 Even human anger can bring you honor when you use it to punish your enemies.<sup>b</sup>

- 11 People, you made promises to the LORD your God.
Now give him what you promised.
People everywhere fear and respect God,
and they will bring gifts to him.
- 12 God defeats great leaders;
all the kings on earth fear him.

77 *To the director,* Jeduthun.<sup>c</sup> One of Asaph's songs.*

- 1 I cry out to God for help.
I cry out to you, God; listen to me!
- 2 My Lord, in my time of trouble I came to
you.
I reached out for you all night long.
My soul refused to be comforted.
- 3 I thought about you, God, and tried to tell you how I felt, but I could not.
- 4 You would not let me sleep.
I tried to say something, but I was too
upset.
- 5 I kept thinking about the past,
about things that happened long ago.
- 6 During the night, I thought about my songs.
I talked to myself, trying to understand what is happening.
- 7 I wondered, "Has our Lord rejected us
forever?
Will he ever accept us again?"
- 8 Is his love gone forever?
Will he never again speak to us?

- 9 Has God forgotten what mercy is?
Has his compassion changed to anger?"
*Selah**
- 10 Then I said to myself, "What bothers me
most is the thought that God Most High has lost his power."
- 11 LORD, I remember what you have done.
I remember the amazing things you did
long ago.
- 12 I think about those things.
I think about them all the time.
- 13 God, all that you do is holy.*
No god is as great as you are.
- 14 You are the God who does amazing
things.
You showed the nations your great
power.
- 15 By your power you saved your people,
the descendants of Jacob* and Joseph.
Selah
- 16 God, the water saw you and became afraid.
The deep water shook with fear.
- 17 The thick clouds dropped their water.
Thunder roared in the sky above.
Your arrows of lightning flashed through the clouds.
- 18 There were loud claps of thunder.
Lightning lit up the world.
The earth shook and trembled.
- 19 You walked through the water and crossed the deep sea,
but you left no footprints.
- 20 You led your people like sheep,
using Moses* and Aaron* to guide them.

78 *One of Asaph's maskils.**

- 1 My people, listen to my teachings.
Listen to what I say.
- 2 I will tell you a story.
I will tell you about things from the past that are hard to understand.
- 3 We have heard the story, and we know it
well.
Our fathers told it to us.
- 4 And we will not forget it.
Our people will be telling this story to the last generation.
We will all praise the LORD and tell about the amazing things he did.
- 5 He made an agreement* with Jacob.*
He gave the law to Israel.*
He gave the commands to our ancestors.*
He told them to teach the law to their children.
- 6 Then the next generation, even the children not yet born, would learn the law.
And they would be able to teach it to their own children.

<sup>a</sup>76:5 They ... themselves Literally, "The warriors could not find their hands."

<sup>b</sup>76:7-10 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

<sup>c</sup>Psalm 77 Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-42.

- 7 So they would all trust in God, never forgetting what he had done and always obeying his commands.
- 8 They would not be like their ancestors,
who were stubborn and refused to obey.
Their hearts were not devoted to God,
and they were not faithful to him.
- 9 The men from Ephraim* had their weapons,
but they ran from the battle.
- 10 They did not keep their agreement with God.
They refused to obey his teachings.
- 11 They forgot the great things he had done and the amazing things he had shown
them.
- 12 While their ancestors watched,
he showed his great power at Zoan in Egypt.
- 13 He split the Red Sea and led the people across.
The water stood like a solid wall on both sides of them.
- 14 Each day God led them with the tall
cloud,
and each night he led them with the light from the column of fire.
- 15 He split the rocks in the desert and gave them an ocean of fresh water.
- 16 He brought a stream of water out of the rock
and made it flow like a river!
- 17 But they continued sinning against him.
They rebelled against God Most High in the desert.
- 18 Then they decided to test God by telling him to give them the food they wanted.
- 19 They complained about him and said,
"Can God give us food in the desert?"
- 20 Yes, he struck the rock and a flood of water came out.
But can he give us bread and meat?"
- 21 The LORD heard what they said and became angry with Jacob's people.
He was angry with Israel,
- 22 because they did not trust in him.
They did not believe that God could save
them.
- 23-24 But then God opened the clouds above, and manna* rained down on them for food.
It was as if doors in the sky opened,
and grain poured down from a storehouse in the sky.
- 25 These people ate the food of angels.
God sent plenty of food to satisfy them.
- 26 He sent a strong wind from the east,
and by his power he made the south
wind blow.
- 27 He made quail fall like rain until they covered the ground.
There were so many birds that they were like sand on the seashore.
- 28 The birds fell in the middle of the camp,
all around their tents.
- 29 The people ate until they were full.
God had given them what they wanted.
- 30 But before they were fully satisfied,
while the food was still in their mouths,
- 31 God became angry and killed even the strongest of them.
He brought down Israel's best young men.
- 32 But the people continued to sin!
They did not trust in the amazing things
God could do.
- 33 So he ended their worthless lives; he brought their years to a close with disaster.
- 34 When he killed some of them, the others would turn back to him.
They would come running back to God.
- 35 They would remember that God was their Rock.*
They would remember that God Most High had saved them.
- 36 But they tried to fool him with their words;
they told him lies.
- 37 Their hearts were not really with him.
They were not faithful to the agreement
he gave them.
- 38 But God was merciful.
He forgave their sins and did not destroy them.
Many times he held back his anger.
He never let it get out of control.
- 39 He remembered that they were only
people,
like a wind that blows and then is gone.
- 40 Oh, they caused him so much trouble in
the desert!
They made him so sad.
- 41 Again and again they tested his patience.
They really hurt the Holy One of Israel.
- 42 They forgot about his power.
They forgot the many times he saved them from the enemy.
- 43 They forgot the miracles in Egypt,
the miracles in the fields of Zoan.
- 44 God turned the rivers into blood, and the Egyptians could not drink the
water.
- 45 He sent swarms of flies that bit them.
He sent the frogs that ruined their
lives.
- 46 He gave their crops to grasshoppers and their other plants to locusts.
- 47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their trees with sleet.
- 48 He killed their animals with hail and their cattle with lightning.
- 49 He showed the Egyptians his anger.
He sent his destroying angels against
them.
- 50 He found a way to show his anger.
He did not spare their lives.
He let them die with a deadly disease.

- 51 He killed all the firstborn* sons in Egypt.
He killed every firstborn in Ham's<sup>a</sup> family.
- 52 Then he led Israel like a shepherd.
He led his people like sheep into the desert.
- 53 He guided them safely.
They had nothing to fear.
He drowned their enemies in the sea.
- 54 He led his people to his holy land, to the mountain he took with his own
power.
- 55 He forced the other nations out before
them
and gave each family its share of the
land.
He gave each tribe of Israel a place to live.
- 56 But they tested God Most High and made him very sad.
They didn't obey his commands.
- 57 They turned against him and were unfaithful just like their ancestors.
They changed directions like a boomerang.*
- 58 They built high places* and made God
angry.
They built statues of false gods and made him jealous.
- 59 God heard what they were doing and became very angry.
So he rejected Israel completely!
- 60 He abandoned his place at Shiloh,<sup>b</sup> the Holy Tent* where he lived among the people.
- 61 He let foreigners capture the Box of the Agreement,*
the symbol of his power and glory.*
- 62 He showed his anger against his people and let them be killed in war.
- 63 Their young men were burned to death, and there were no wedding songs for their young women.
- 64 Their priests were killed,
but the widows had no time to mourn*
for them.
- 65 Finally, our Lord got up like a man waking from his sleep, like a soldier after drinking too much wine.
- 66 He forced his enemies to turn back defeated.
He brought them shame that will last
forever.
- 67 Then he rejected Joseph's family.
He did not accept Ephraim's family.
- 68 No, he chose the tribe of Judah,* and he chose Mount Zion,* the place he loves.
- 69 He built his holy Temple* high on that mountain.

<sup>b</sup>78:60 Holy Tent at Shiloh See 1 Sam. 4:4–11; Jer. 7:17.

- Like the earth, God built his Temple to last forever.
- 70 He chose David* to be his special servant.
He took him from the sheep pens.
- 71 He took him away from the job of caring for sheep
and gave him the job of caring for the descendants of Jacob—Israel, his chosen people.
- 72 And David led them with a pure heart and guided them very wisely.

79 One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- 1 God, some people from other nations came to fight your people.
They ruined your holy Temple.*
They left Jerusalem in ruins.
- 2 They left the bodies of your servants for the wild birds to eat.
They let wild animals eat the bodies of your followers.
- 3 Blood flowed like water all over
Jerusalem.
No one is left to bury the bodies.
- 4 The countries around us insult us.
The people around us laugh at us and make fun of us.
- 5 LORD, will you be angry with us forever?
Will your strong feelings<sup>c</sup> continue to burn like a fire?
- 6 Turn your anger against the nations that do not know you,
against the people who do not honor
you as God.
- 7 Those nations killed Jacob's* family
and destroyed their land.
- 8 Please don't punish us for the sins of our ancestors.*
Hurry, show us your mercy!
We need you so much!
- 9 Our God and Savior, help us!
That will bring glory to your name.
Save us and forgive our sins
for the good of your name.
- 10 Don't give the other nations a reason to
say,
"Where is their God? Can't he help
them?"
Let us see you punish those people.
Punish them for killing your servants.
- 11 Listen to the sad cries of the prisoners!
Use your great power to free those who are sentenced to die.
- 12 Punish the nations around us!
Pay them back seven times for what they did to us.
Punish them for insulting you.
- 13 We are your people, the sheep of your flock.
We will praise you forever.
We will praise you forever and ever!

<sup>c</sup>79:5 strong feelings The Hebrew word can mean any strong feelings such as zeal, jealousy, or love.

80 *To the director*: To the tune "Lilies of the Agreement." One of Asaph's songs of praise.*

- <sup>1</sup> Shepherd of Israel,* listen to us.
You lead your people<sup>a</sup> like sheep.
You sit on your throne above the Cherub angels.*
Let us see you.
- <sup>2</sup> Shepherd of Israel, show your greatness to the tribes of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Come and save your people.
- <sup>3</sup> God, accept us again.
Smile down on us and save us!
- <sup>4</sup> LORD God All-Powerful, when will you listen to our prayers?
How long will you be angry with us?
- <sup>5</sup> Instead of bread and water,
you gave your people tears.
- <sup>6</sup> You made us the target of everyone's hatred.
Our enemies make fun of us.
- <sup>7</sup> God All-Powerful, accept us again.
Smile down on us and save us!
- <sup>8</sup> When you brought us out of Egypt,
we were like your special vine.
You forced other nations to leave this
land,
and you planted that vine here.
- <sup>9</sup> You prepared the ground for it, and it sent its roots down deep and spread throughout the land.
- <sup>10</sup> It covered the mountains, and its leaves shaded even the giant cedar trees.
- <sup>11</sup> Its branches spread to the Mediterranean Sea,
its shoots to the Euphrates River.
- <sup>12</sup> God, why did you pull down the walls that protect your vine?
Now everyone who passes by picks its grapes.
- <sup>13</sup> Wild pigs come and ruin it.
Wild animals eat the leaves.
- <sup>14</sup> God All-Powerful, come back.
Look down from heaven at your vine and protect it.
- <sup>15</sup> Look at the vine you planted with your own hands.
Look at the young plant<sup>b</sup> you raised.
- <sup>16</sup> Our enemies have cut it down and burned it up.
Show them how angry you are and
destroy them.
- <sup>17</sup> Reach out and help your chosen one.<sup>c</sup>
Reach out to the people<sup>d</sup> you raised up.

<sup>a</sup>80:1 your people Literally, "Joseph," the father of Ephraim and Manasseh, whose names are often used to mean all the tribes in northern Israel.

- <sup>18</sup> Then we will never leave you.
Let us live, and we will worship you.
- <sup>19</sup> LORD God All-Powerful, accept us again.
Smile down on us and save us!

81 *To the director*: On the gittith.* One of Asaph's songs.*

- <sup>1</sup> Be happy and sing to God, our strength.
Shout with joy to the God of Jacob.*
- <sup>2</sup> Begin the music.
Play the tambourines.
Play the pleasant harps and lyres.*
- <sup>3</sup> Blow the ram's horn at the time of the new moon<sup>e</sup> and at the time of the full moon,<sup>f</sup> when our festival begins.
- <sup>4</sup> This is the law for the people of Israel.*
The God of Jacob gave the command.
- <sup>5</sup> God made this agreement with Joseph's
people,
when he led them out of Egypt.
In a language we didn't understand, God
said,
<sup>6</sup>"I took the load from your shoulder.
I let you drop the worker's basket.
- <sup>7</sup> When you were in trouble, you called for help, and I set you free.
I was hidden in the storm clouds, and I answered you.
I tested you by the water at Meribah.<sup>g</sup>"
*Selah**
- <sup>8</sup>"My people, I am warning you.
Israel, listen to me!
- <sup>9</sup> Don't worship any of the false gods that the foreigners worship.
- <sup>10</sup> I, the LORD, am your God.
I brought you out of Egypt.
Israel, open your mouth,
and I will feed you.
- <sup>11</sup>"But my people did not listen to me.
Israel did not obey me.
- <sup>12</sup> So I let them go their own stubborn way and do whatever they wanted.
- <sup>13</sup> If my people would listen to me and would live the way I want,
<sup>14</sup> then I would defeat their enemies.
I would punish those who cause them
trouble.
- <sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD would shake with fear.
They would be punished forever.
- <sup>16</sup> I would give the best wheat to my people.
I would give them the purest honey, until they were satisfied."

<sup>e</sup>81:3 new moon The first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days when the people shared fellowship offerings as part of their worship to God.

<sup>f</sup>81:3 full moon The middle of the Hebrew month. Many of the special meetings and festivals started at the time of a full moon.

- <sup>1</sup> God stands in the assembly of the gods.<sup>a</sup>
He stands as judge among the judges.
- <sup>2</sup> He says, "How long will you judge unfairly and show special favors to the wicked?"
Selah*
- <sup>3</sup> "Defend the poor and orphans.
Protect the rights of the poor.
- <sup>4</sup> Help those who are poor and helpless.
Save them from those who are evil.
- <sup>5</sup> "They<sup>b</sup> don't know what is happening.
They don't understand!
They don't know what they are doing.
Their world is falling down around
them!"
- <sup>6</sup> I, God Most High, say,
"You are gods,<sup>c</sup> my own sons.
- <sup>7</sup> But you will die as all people must die.
Your life will end like that of any ruler."
- <sup>8</sup> Get up, God! You be the judge!
You be the leader over all the nations!

83 One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- <sup>1</sup> God, don't keep quiet!
Don't close your ears!
Please say something, God.
- <sup>2</sup> Your enemies are getting ready to do something.
Those who hate you will soon attack.
- <sup>3</sup> They are making secret plans against your
people.
Your enemies are discussing plans against the people you love.
- <sup>4</sup> They say, "Come, let us destroy them completely.
Then no one will ever again remember the name Israel."*
- <sup>5</sup> God, they have all joined together.
They have united against you.
- <sup>6-7</sup> Their army includes the Edomites, Ishmaelites, Moabites, and Hagar's descendants,
the people of Byblos, Ammon, and Amalek,
the Philistines,* and the people of Tyre.
- <sup>8</sup> Even the Assyrians have joined them.
They have made Lot's descendants very powerful. Selah*

<sup>a</sup>82:1 assembly of the gods Other nations taught that El (God) and the other gods met together to decide what to do with the people on earth. But many times kings and leaders were also called "gods." So this psalm may be God's warning to the leaders of Israel.

<sup>b</sup>82:5 They This might mean that the poor don't understand what is happening. Or it might mean that the "gods" or leaders don't understand that they are ruining the world by not being fair and by not doing what is right.

- <sup>9</sup> God, defeat them just as you defeated Midian.
Do what you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.
- <sup>10</sup> You destroyed the enemy at Endor, and their bodies rotted on the ground.
- <sup>11</sup> Punish their leaders as you did Oreb and Zeeb.
Do what you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.
- <sup>12</sup> They said, "Let's make this land our own—
these fields of grass that belong to God!"
- <sup>13</sup> Make them like weeds blown by the wind.
Scatter them, like the wind scatters
straw.
- <sup>14</sup> Be like a fire that destroys a forest or like a flame that sets the hills on fire.
- <sup>15</sup> Chase them away with your blasts of wind;
frighten them with your storms.
- <sup>16</sup> LORD, cover them with shame until they come to you for help.
- <sup>17</sup> May they be forever ashamed and afraid.
Disgrace and defeat them.
- <sup>18</sup> Then they will know that your name is YAHWEH*—
that you alone are the LORD.
They will know that you are God Most High,
ruler over all the earth!

84 *To the director*: On the gittith.* A song of praise from the Korah family.*

- <sup>1</sup> LORD All-Powerful, the place where you live is so beautiful!
- <sup>2</sup> LORD, I cannot wait to enter your Temple.*
I am so excited!
Every part of me cries out to be with the Living God.
- <sup>3</sup> LORD All-Powerful, my King, my God, even the birds have found a home in your Temple.
They make their nests near your altar,
and there they have their babies.
- <sup>4</sup> Great blessings belong to those who live at your Temple!
They continue to praise you. Selah*
- <sup>5</sup> Great blessings belong to those who depend on you for strength!
Their heart's desire is to make the trip to your Temple.
- <sup>6</sup> They travel through Baca Valley, which God has made into a place of springs.
Autumn rains form pools of water there.
- <sup>7</sup> The people travel from town to town<sup>d</sup> on their way to Zion,* where they will meet with God.

<sup>d</sup>84:7 town to town Or "wall to wall."

- 8 LORD God All-Powerful, listen to my prayer.
God of Jacob,* listen to me. Selah
- 9 God, watch over the king, our protector.<sup>a</sup>
Be kind to him, the one you have chosen.
- 10 One day in your Temple is better than a thousand days anywhere else.
Serving as a guard at the gate of my God's house is better than living in the homes of the wicked.
- 11 The LORD God is our protector and glorious king.<sup>b</sup>
He blesses us with kindness and honor.
The LORD freely gives every good thing to those who do what is right.
- 12 LORD All-Powerful, great blessings belong to those who trust in you!

85 *To the director*:*

A song of praise from the Korah family.

- 1 LORD, you have been so kind to your land.
You have brought success again to the people of Jacob.*
- 2 You have forgiven the bad things your people did.
You have taken away the guilt of their sins! *Selah**
- 3 You stopped being angry with them.
Your terrible anger has gone away.
- 4 Our God and Savior, accept us again.
Don't be angry with us anymore.
- 5 Will you be angry with us forever?
Will your anger reach to our children and to their children?
- 6 Please, give us new life!
Make your people happy to be yours.
- 7 LORD, save us
and show us your love.
- 8 I heard what the LORD God said.
He said there would be peace for his people and his loyal followers.
So they must not go back to their foolish way of living.
- 9 He will soon save his faithful followers.
His glory will again live in our land.<sup>c</sup>
- 10 God's love will come together with his faithful people.
Goodness and peace will greet them
with a kiss.
- 11 People on earth will be loyal to God, and God in heaven will be good to them.<sup>d</sup>

This line could also mean "God, our Shield, look!"

<sup>b</sup>84:11 protector and glorious king Literally, "sun and shield."

<sup>c</sup>85:9 We ... land Or "We will soon live with honor in our land."

<sup>d</sup>85:11 Literally, "Loyalty will sprout from the ground, and goodness will look down from the sky."

- 12 The LORD will give us many good things.
The ground will grow many good crops.
- 13 Goodness will go before the Lord and prepare the way for him.

86 *A prayer of David.**

- 1 I am a poor, helpless man.
LORD, please listen to me and answer
my prayer!
- 2 I am your follower, so please protect me.
I am your servant, and you are my God.
I trust in you, so save me.
- 3 My Lord, be kind to me.
I have been praying to you all day.
- 4 My Lord, I put my life in your hands.
I am your servant, so make me happy.
- 5 My Lord, you are good and merciful.
You love all those who call to you for
help.
- 6 LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for mercy.
- 7 I am praying to you in my time of trouble.
I know you will answer me.
- 8 My Lord, there is no God like you.
No one can do what you have done.
- 9 My Lord, you made everyone.
I wish they all would come worship you and honor your name.
- 10 You are great and do amazing things.
You and you alone are God.
- 11 LORD, teach me your ways,
and I will live and obey your truths.
Help me make worshiping your name
the most important thing in my life.
- 12 My Lord God, I praise you with all my heart.
I will honor your name forever!
- 13 You have such great love for me.
You save me from the place of death.
- 14 Proud people are attacking me, God.
A gang of cruel men is trying to kill me.
They don't respect you.
- 15 My Lord, you are a kind and merciful
God.
You are patient, loyal, and full of love.
- 16 Show that you hear me and be kind to
me.
I am your servant, so give me strength.
I am your slave, as my mother was, so
save me!
- 17 LORD, show me a sign that you care for
me.
My enemies will see it and be disappointed,
because you helped and comforted me.

87 A song of praise from the Korah family.

- 1 The LORD built his city on the holy hills.
- 2 He loves the gates of Zion* more than any other place in Israel.*
- 3 Wonderful things are said about you, City of God. *Selah**

- 4 God says, "Some of my people live in Egypt<sup>a</sup> and Babylon.
Some of them were born in Philistia, Tyre, and even Ethiopia."
5 But about Zion he says,
"I know each and every person born
there."
It is the city built by God Most High.
6 The LORD keeps a list of all his people, and he knows where each of them was born. Selah
7 At the festivals, people will dance and sing,
"All good things come from Zion."

88 A song from the Korah family. To the director<sup>c</sup>: About a painful sickness. A maskil<sup>d</sup> of Heman the Ezrahite.

- 1 LORD God, you are my Savior.
I have been praying to you day and night.
2 Please pay attention to my prayers.
Listen to my prayers for mercy.
3 My soul has had enough of this pain!
I am ready to die.
4 People already treat me like a dead man,
like someone too weak to live.
5 Look for me among the dead,
like a body in the grave.
I am one of those you have forgotten,
cut off from you and your care.
6 You put me in that hole in the ground.
Yes, you put me in that dark place.
7 Your anger presses down on me like a heavy weight.
It's like one wave after another pounding against me. Selah*
8 You made my friends leave me.
They all avoid me like someone no one wants to touch.
Like a prisoner in my house, I cannot go out.
9 My eyes hurt from crying.
LORD, I pray to you constantly!
I lift my arms in prayer to you.
10 Do you do miracles for the dead?
Do ghosts rise up and praise you? No!
Selah

- 11 The dead in their graves cannot talk about your faithful love.
People in the world of the dead<sup>b</sup> cannot talk about your faithfulness.
12 The dead who lie in darkness cannot see the amazing things you do.
Those in the world of the forgotten cannot talk about your goodness.
13 LORD, I am asking you to help me!

<sup>a</sup>87:4 Egypt Literally, "Rahab." This name means the "Dragon." It became a popular name for Egypt.

<sup>b</sup>88:11 the world of the dead Or "Abaddon," a Hebrew name meaning "death" or "destruction." See Rev. 9:11.

- Early each morning I pray to you.
14 LORD, why have you abandoned me?
Why do you refuse to listen to me?
15 I have been sick and weak since I was young.
I have suffered your anger, and I am
helpless.
16 Your anger covers me like a flood.
Your attacks are killing me.
17 They surround me on every side.
I feel like a drowning man.
18 You caused my friends and loved ones to leave me.
Now darkness is my closest friend.

89 A maskil<sup>d</sup> from Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 1 I will sing forever about the LORD's love.
I will sing about his faithfulness forever
and ever!
2 I will say, "Your faithful love will last
forever.
Your loyalty is like the sky—there is no end to it!"
3 You said, "I made an agreement with my chosen king.
I made this promise to my servant
David*:
4 'There will always be someone from your family to rule.
I will make your kingdom continue forever and ever.'" Selah* 5 LORD, the heavens praise you for the amazing things you do.
The assembly of holy ones sings about your loyalty.
6 No one in heaven is equal to the LORD.
None of the "gods" can compare to the
LORD.
7 When God's holy ones—the angels around his throne—meet together,
they fear and respect him;
he is more awesome than all those around him.
8 LORD God All-Powerful, there is no one like you.
You are strong, LORD, and always faithful.
9 You rule the stormy sea.
You can calm its angry waves.
10 You defeated Rahab.*
You scattered your enemies with your own powerful arm.
11 Everything in heaven and earth belongs
to you.
You made the world and everything in
it.
12 You created everything north and south.
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing praises to your name.
13 You have the power!
Your power is great!
Victory is yours!

- 14 Your kingdom is built on truth and justice.
Love and faithfulness are servants before your throne.
- 15 LORD, your loyal followers are happy.
They live in the light of your kindness.
- 16 Your name always makes them happy.
They praise your goodness.
- 17 You are their amazing strength.
Their power comes from you.
- 18 The king, our protector, belongs to the LORD,
who is the Holy One of Israel.*
- 19 Lord, you once spoke in a vision to your followers:
“I have made a young soldier strong.
From among my people I chose him for an important position.
- 20 I have found my servant David and anointed* him as king with my special oil.
- 21 I will support him with my right hand,
and my arm will make him strong.
- 22 So no enemy will ever control him.
The wicked will never defeat him.
- 23 I will destroy his enemies before his eyes.
I will defeat those who hate him.
- 24 I will always love and support him.
I will always make him strong.
- 25 I will put him in charge of the sea.
He will control the rivers.
- 26 He will say to me, ‘You are my father.
You are my God, my Rock,* my Savior.’
- 27 And I will make him my firstborn* son.
He will be the great king on earth.
- 28 My love will protect him forever.
My agreement with him will never end.
- 29 I will make his family continue forever.
His kingdom will last as long as the skies.
- 30 If his descendants stop following my law
and stop obeying my commands, 31 if they break my laws
and ignore my commands, 32 I will punish them severely for their sins and wrongs.
- 33 But I will never take my love from him.
I will never stop being loyal to him.
- 34 I will not break my agreement with David.
I will never change what I said.
- 35 By my holiness, I made a promise to him,
and I would not lie to David.
- 36 His family will continue forever.
His kingdom will last as long as the sun.
- 37 Like the moon, it will continue forever.
The sky is a witness to the agreement that can be trusted.” Selah
- 38 But now, Lord, you have become angry with your chosen king,<sup>a</sup> and you have left him all alone.
- 39 You ended the agreement you made with your servant.

<sup>a</sup>89:38 chosen king Literally, “anointed one.”

- You threw the king's crown into the dirt.
- 40 You pulled down the walls of his city.
You destroyed all his fortresses.*
- 41 Everyone passing by steals from him.
His neighbors laugh at him.
- 42 You made all the king's enemies happy and let his enemies win the war.
- 43 You helped them defend themselves.
You did not help your king win the battle.
- 44 You did not let him win.
You threw his throne to the ground.
- 45 You cut his life short.
You shamed him. Selah
- 46 LORD, how long will this continue?
Will you ignore us forever?
Will your anger burn like a fire forever?
- 47 Remember how short my life is.
You created us to live a short life and then die.
- 48 Is there anyone alive who will never die?
Will anyone escape the grave? Selah
- 49 Lord, where is the love you showed in the past?
You promised David that you would be loyal to his family.
- 50-51 My LORD, please remember how people
insulted your servant.
LORD, I had to listen to all the insults from your enemies.
They insulted your chosen king wherever he went.
- 52 Praise the LORD forever!
Amen* and Amen!

BOOK 4 (Psalms 90-106)

90 The prayer of Moses,* the man of God.*

- 1 My Lord, you have been our home forever
and ever.
- 2 You were God before the mountains were born,
before the earth and the world were
made.
You have always been and will always be God!
- 3 You bring people into this world,
and you change them into dust again.
- 4 To you, a thousand years is like yesterday,
like a few hours in the night.
- 5 Our life is like a dream that ends when morning comes.
We are like grass
- 6 that grows and looks so fresh in the
morning,
but in the evening it is dry and dying.
- 7 Your anger could destroy us.
Your anger frightens us!
- 8 You know about all our sins.
You see every one of our secret sins.

- 9 Your anger can end our life.
Our lives fade away like a whisper.
- 10 We live about 70 years or, if we are strong, 80 years.
But most of them are filled with hard work and pain.
Then, suddenly, the years are gone, and we fly away.
- 11 No one really knows the full power of your anger,
but our fear and respect for you is as great as your anger.
- 12 Teach us how short our lives are so that we can become wise.
- 13 LORD, come back to us.
Be kind to your servants.
- 14 Fill us with your love every morning.
Let us be happy and enjoy our lives.
- 15 For years you have made life hard for us and have given us many troubles.
Now make us happy for just as long.
- 16 Let your servants see the wonderful things you can do for them.
And let their children see your glory.*
- 17 Lord, our God, be kind to us.
Make everything we do successful.
Yes, make it all successful.

- 91 1 You can go to God Most High to hide.
You can go to God All-Powerful for protection.
- 2 I say to the LORD, "You are my place of safety, my fortress.*
My God, I trust in you."
- 3 God will save you from hidden dangers and from deadly diseases.
- 4 You can go to him for protection.
He will cover you like a bird spreading its wings over its babies.
You can trust him to surround and protect you like a shield.
- 5 You will have nothing to fear at night and no need to be afraid of enemy arrows during the day.
- 6 You will have no fear of diseases that come in the dark
or terrible suffering that comes at noon.
- 7 A thousand people may fall dead at your side
or ten thousand right beside you,
but nothing bad will happen to you!
- 8 All you will have to do is watch, and you will see that the wicked are
punished.
- 9 You trust in the LORD for protection.
You have made God Most High your place of safety.
- 10 So nothing bad will happen to you.
No diseases will come near your home.
- 11 He will command his angels to protect you wherever you go.
- 12 Their hands will catch you so that you will not hit your foot on a rock.

- 13 You will have power to trample on lions and poisonous snakes.
- 14 The LORD says, "If someone trusts me, I will save them.
I will protect my followers who call to me for help.
- 15 When my followers call to me, I will answer them.
I will be with them when they are in trouble.
I will rescue them and honor them.
- 16 I will give my followers a long life and show them my power to save."

92 *A song of praise for the Sabbath.**

- 1 It is good to praise the LORD.
God Most High, it is good to praise your name.
- 2 It is good to sing about your love in the morning
and about your faithfulness at night.
- 3 It is good to play for you on the ten-stringed instrument and lyre* and to add the soft sounds of the harp to my praise.
- 4 LORD, you make us very happy because of what you did.
I gladly sing about it.
- 5 LORD, you did such great things.
Your thoughts are too hard for us to understand.
- 6 Stupid people don't know this.
Fools don't understand.
- 7 The wicked may sprout like grass, and those who do evil may blossom like flowers,
but they will be destroyed, never to be seen again.
- 8 But, LORD, you will be honored forever.
- 9 LORD, all your enemies will be destroyed, and all who do evil will be scattered.
- 10 But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
You have given me your blessing.<sup>a</sup>
- 11 My eyes will see the defeat of those waiting to attack me.
My ears will hear the cries of my evil
enemies.
- 12 Good people are like budding palm trees.
They grow strong like the cedar trees of Lebanon.
- 13 They are planted in the LORD's house.<sup>b</sup>
They grow strong there in the courtyards of our God.
- 14 Even when they are old,
they will continue producing fruit like young, healthy trees.

<sup>a</sup>92:10 You ... blessing Or "You poured your refreshing oil over me."

<sup>b</sup>92:13 house Or "Temple." See "Temple" in the Word List.

- 15 They are there to show everyone that the LORD is good.<sup>a</sup>
He is my Rock,*
and he does nothing wrong.<sup>b</sup>

93 <sup>1</sup>The LORD is King.
The LORD wears majesty and strength like clothes.
He is ready, so the whole world is safe.
It will not be shaken.
<sup>2</sup> Your kingdom has continued forever.
You have lived forever!
<sup>3</sup> LORD, the ocean roars.
The mighty ocean sounds like thunder
as the waves crash on the shore.
<sup>4</sup> The crashing waves of the sea are loud and powerful,
but the LORD above is even more
powerful.
<sup>5</sup> LORD, your laws will continue forever.<sup>c</sup>
Your holy Temple* will stand for a long time.

94 <sup>1</sup>The LORD is a God who punishes
people.
God, come punish them.
<sup>2</sup> You are the judge of the whole earth.
Give proud people the punishment they deserve.
<sup>3</sup> LORD, how long will the wicked have their fun?
How much longer?
<sup>4</sup> How much longer will those criminals brag about the evil they did?
<sup>5</sup> LORD, they hurt your people and make them suffer.
<sup>6</sup> They kill widows and foreigners living in our country.
They murder orphans.
<sup>7</sup> And they say the LORD does not see them doing these evil things!
They say the God of Jacob* does not know what is happening.
<sup>8</sup> You evil people are foolish.
When will you learn your lesson?
You are so stupid!
You must try to understand.
<sup>9</sup> God made our ears, so surely he can hear what is happening!
He made our eyes,
so surely he can see you!
<sup>10</sup> The one who disciplines nations will surely correct you.
He is the one who teaches us everything.

- <sup>11</sup> He knows what people are thinking.
He knows that their thoughts are like a puff of wind.
<sup>12</sup> LORD, great blessings belong to those you discipline,
to those you teach from your law.
<sup>13</sup> You help them stay calm when trouble comes.
You will help them until the wicked are put in their graves.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD will not leave his people.
He will not leave them without help.
<sup>15</sup> Justice will return and bring fairness.
And those who want to do right will be there to see it.
<sup>16</sup> No one helped me fight against the wicked.
No one stood with me against those who do evil.
<sup>17</sup> And if the LORD had not helped me,
I would have been silenced by death.
<sup>18</sup> I know I was ready to fall, but, LORD, your faithful love supported
me.
<sup>19</sup> I was very worried and upset, but you comforted me and made me
happy!
<sup>20</sup> You don't help crooked judges.
They use the law to make life hard for
the people.
<sup>21</sup> They attack those who do right.
They say innocent people are guilty and put them to death.
<sup>22</sup> But the LORD is my place of safety, high on the mountain.
God, my Rock,* is my safe place!
<sup>23</sup> He will punish those evil judges for the bad things they did.
He will destroy them because they
sinned.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

95 <sup>1</sup>Come, let us praise the LORD!
Let us shout praises to the Rock* who saves us.
<sup>2</sup> Let us go to worship the LORD.
Let us approach him with songs of thanks.<sup>d</sup>
Let us sing happy songs of praise to him.
<sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God,
the great King ruling over all the other
"gods."
<sup>4</sup> The deepest caves and the highest mountains belong to him.
<sup>5</sup> The ocean is his—he created it.
He made the dry land with his own hands.
<sup>6</sup> Come, let us bow down and worship him!
Let us kneel before the LORD who made
us.

<sup>d</sup>95:2 songs of thanks Or "thank offerings."

- <sup>7</sup> He is our God, and we are the people he cares for,
his sheep that walk by his side.

Listen to his voice today:

- <sup>8a</sup> "Don't be stubborn, as you were at Meribah,
as you were at Massah<sup>a</sup> in the desert.
<sup>9</sup> Your ancestors* doubted and tested me,
even after they saw what I could do!
<sup>10</sup> I was angry with them for 40 years.
I said, 'They are not faithful to me.
They refuse to do what I say.'
<sup>11</sup> So in my anger I made this vow*:
'They will never enter my land of rest.'"

96 <sup>1</sup> Sing a new song<sup>b</sup> to the LORD!
Let the whole world sing to the LORD!

- <sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD and praise his name!
Tell the good news every day about how he saves us!
<sup>3</sup> Tell all the nations how wonderful he is!
Tell people everywhere about the amazing things he does.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD is great and worthy of praise.
He is more awesome than any of the "gods."
<sup>5</sup> All the "gods" in other nations are nothing but statues,
but the LORD made the heavens.
<sup>6</sup> He lives in the presence of glory* and honor.
His Temple* is a place of power and beauty.
<sup>7</sup> Praise the LORD, all people of every nation;
praise the LORD's glory and power.
<sup>8</sup> Give the LORD praise worthy of his glory!
Come, bring your offerings into his courtyard.
<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in all his holy beauty.
Everyone on earth should tremble before
him.
<sup>10</sup> Tell the nations that the LORD is King!
The world stands firm and cannot be moved.
He will judge all people fairly.
<sup>11</sup> Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be happy!
Let the sea and everything in it shout for joy!
<sup>12</sup> Let the fields and everything in them be happy!
Let the trees in the forest sing for joy
<sup>13</sup> when they see the LORD coming!
He is coming to rule<sup>c</sup> the world.
He will rule all the nations of the world with justice and fairness.

<sup>c</sup>96:13 rule Or "judge." Also in 98:9.

97 <sup>1</sup> The LORD rules, and the earth is
happy.

- All the faraway lands are happy.
<sup>2</sup> Thick, dark clouds surround the LORD.
Goodness and justice make his kingdom
strong.
<sup>3</sup> A fire goes in front of the LORD and destroys his enemies.
<sup>4</sup> His lightning flashes in the sky.
The people see it and are afraid.
<sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.
<sup>6</sup> The skies tell about his goodness, and the nations see his glory.*
<sup>7</sup> People worship their idols.
They brag about their "gods."
But they will be embarrassed.
And all their "gods" will bow down before the LORD.
<sup>8</sup> Zion,* listen and be happy!
Cities of Judah,* be glad!
Rejoice because the LORD's decisions are
fair.
<sup>9</sup> LORD Most High, you really are the ruler of the earth.
You are much better than the "gods."
<sup>10</sup> Hate evil, you who love the LORD.
He protects his followers and saves them from evil people.
<sup>11</sup> Light and happiness shine on those who want to do right.
<sup>12</sup> Good people, be happy in the LORD!
Praise his holy name!

- <sup>1</sup> Sing a new song<sup>d</sup> to the LORD, because he has done amazing things!
His powerful and holy right arm<sup>e</sup>
has brought him another victory.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD showed the nations his power to save.
He showed them his goodness.
<sup>3</sup> He has kept his promise of love and loyalty to the people of Israel.*
People everywhere have seen our God's power to save.
<sup>4</sup> Everyone on earth, shout with joy to the
LORD.
Start singing happy songs of praise!
<sup>5</sup> Praise the LORD with harps.
Yes, praise him with music from the harps.
<sup>6</sup> Blow the pipes and horns, and shout for joy to the LORD our King!

<sup>d</sup>98:1 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.

<sup>e</sup>98:1 holy right arm This pictures God as a warrior-king. The right arm symbolizes his power and authority. "Holy" may refer to the special cleansing and dedication that Israelites performed before going into battle.

- 7 Let the sea and everything in it, the earth and all who live in it shout his praise!
8 Rivers, clap your hands!
All together now, mountains sing out!
9 Sing before the LORD because he is coming to judge the
world.
He will rule the world fairly.
He will rule the people with goodness.

- 99 <sup>1</sup>The LORD is King,
so let the nations shake with fear.
He sits as King above the Cherub angels,*
so let the whole earth shake.
2 The LORD in Zion* is great!
He is the great leader over all people.
3 Let all the nations praise your name.
Your name is great and awesome.
Your name is holy.
4 You are the powerful King who loves
justice.
You have made things right.
You have brought goodness and fairness to Jacob.*
5 Praise the LORD our God,
and bow down before his footstool,<sup>a</sup> for he is holy.
6 Moses* and Aaron* were some of his priests,
and Samuel was one of the men who called on his name.
They prayed to the LORD,
and he answered them.
7 God spoke from the tall cloud, and they obeyed his commands
and the law he gave them.
8 LORD our God, you answered their prayers.
You showed them that you are a forgiving God
and that you punish people for the evil
they do.
9 Praise the LORD our God.
Bow down toward his holy mountain and worship him.
The LORD our God is holy!

100 A song of thanks.

- 1 Earth, sing to the LORD!
2 Be happy as you serve the LORD!
Come before him with happy songs!
3 Know that the LORD is God.
He made us, and we belong to him.
We are his people, the sheep he takes care of.
4 Come through the gates to his Temple*
giving thanks to him.
Enter his courtyards with songs of praise.
Honor him and bless his name.

- 5 The LORD is good!
There is no end to his faithful love.
We can trust him forever and ever!

101 *A song of David.**

- 1 I will sing about love and justice.
LORD, I will sing to you.
2 I will be careful to live a pure life.
I will live in my house with complete honesty.
When will you come to me?
3 I will not even look at anything shameful.<sup>b</sup>
I hate all wrongdoing.
I want no part of it!
4 I will not be involved in anything dishonest.
I will have nothing to do with evil.
5 I will stop anyone who secretly says bad things about a neighbor.
I will not allow people to be proud and think they are better than others.
6 I will look throughout the land for those who can be trusted.
Only such people can live with me.
Only those who live pure lives can be my servants.
7 I will never let a dishonest person live in my house.
I will not let liars stay near me.
8 My goal each day will be to destroy the wicked living in our land.
I will force all who do evil to leave the city of the LORD.

102 A prayer for a time of suffering, when anyone feels weak and wants to tell their complaints to the LORD.

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for help.
2 Don't turn away from me when I have
troubles.
Listen to me, and answer me quickly
when I cry for help.
3 My life is passing away like smoke.
My life is like a fire slowly burning out.
4 My strength is gone—
I am like dry, dying grass.
I even forget to eat.
5 Because of my sadness, I am losing so much weight
that my skin hangs from my bones.
6 I am lonely, like an owl living in the desert,
like an owl living among old ruined buildings.
7 I cannot sleep.
I am like a lonely bird on the roof.
8 My enemies insult me all the time.
They make fun of me and use me as an example in their curses.*

<sup>a</sup>99:5 footstool This probably means the Temple.
See "Temple" in the Word List.

<sup>b</sup>101:3 anything shameful Or "an idol."

- 9 My great sadness is my only food.
My tears fall into my drink.
- 10 You were angry with me,
so you picked me up and threw me
away.
- 11 My life is almost finished, like the long shadows at the end of the day.
I am like dry and dying grass.
- 12 But you, LORD, will rule as king forever!
Your name will continue forever and ever!
- 13 You will rise up and comfort Zion.*
The time has come for you to be kind to Zion.
- 14 Your servants love her stones.
They love even the dust of that city!
- 15 The nations will worship the LORD's name.
All the kings on earth will honor you.
- 16 The LORD will rebuild Zion, and people will again see her glory.*
- 17 He will listen to the prayers of those in poverty.
He will not ignore them.
- 18 Write these things for future generations,
so that they will praise the LORD.
- 19 The LORD will look down from his Holy Place* above.
He will look down at the earth from heaven.
- 20 And he will hear the prisoner's prayers.
He will free those who were condemned to die.
- 21 Then people in Zion will tell about the
LORD.
They will praise his name in Jerusalem
- 22 when nations gather together and kingdoms come to serve the LORD.
- 23 My strength failed me.
My life is cut short.
- 24 So I said, "Don't let me die while I am still young.
God, you will live forever and ever!
- 25 Long ago, you made the world.
You made the sky with your own hands!
- 26 The earth and sky will end,
but you will live forever!
They will wear out like clothes,
and like clothes, you will change them.
- 27 But you never change.
You will live forever!
- 28 We are your servants today.
Our children will live here,
and their descendants will come here to worship you."

- 4 He saves us from the grave,
and he gives us love and compassion.
- 5 He gives us plenty of good things.
He makes us young again,
like an eagle that grows new feathers.
- 6 The LORD does what is fair.
He brings justice to all who have been hurt by others.
- 7 He taught his laws to Moses.*
He let Israel* see the powerful things he can do.
- 8 The LORD is kind and merciful.
He is patient and full of love.
- 9 He does not always criticize.
He does not stay angry with us forever.
- 10 We sinned against him, but he didn't give us the punishment
we deserved.
- 11 His love for his followers is as high above us as heaven is above the earth.
- 12 And he has taken our sins as far away from us as the east is from the west.
- 13 The LORD is as kind to his followers
as a father is to his children.
- 14 He knows all about us.
He knows we are made from dust.
- 15 He knows our lives are short,
that they are like grass.
He knows we are like a little wildflower that grows so quickly,
- 16 but when the hot wind blows, it dies.
Soon, you cannot even see where the flower was.
- 17 But the LORD has always loved his
followers,
and he will continue to love them
forever and ever!
- 18 He will be good to all their descendants, to those who are faithful to his
agreement*
and who remember to obey his commands.
- 19 The LORD set his throne up in heaven,
and he rules over everything.
- 20 Angels, praise the LORD!
You angels are the powerful soldiers who obey his commands.
You listen to him and obey his commands.
- 21 Praise the LORD, all his armies.<sup>a</sup>
You are his servants,
and you do what he wants.
- 22 Everything the LORD has made should praise him
throughout the world that he rules!
My soul, praise the LORD!

103 *A song of David.**

- 1 My soul, praise the LORD!
Every part of me, praise his holy* name!
- 2 My soul, praise the LORD
and never forget how kind he is!
- 3 He forgives all our sins and heals all our sicknesses.

<sup>a</sup>103:21 armies This word can mean "armies," "angels," or the "stars and planets." This word is part of the name translated "LORD All-Powerful." It shows that God is in control of all the powers in the universe.

- 104 <sup>1</sup>My soul, praise the LORD!
 LORD my God, you are very great!
 You are clothed with glory* and honor.
- <sup>2</sup> You wear light like a robe.
 You spread out the skies like a curtain.
- <sup>3</sup> You built your home above them.<sup>a</sup>
 You use the thick clouds like a chariot* and ride across the sky on the wings of
 the wind.
- <sup>4</sup> You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your servants.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> You built the earth on its foundations,
 so it can never be moved.
- <sup>6</sup> You covered it with water like a blanket.
 The water covered even the mountains.
- <sup>7</sup> But you gave the command, and the water turned back.
 You shouted at the water, and it rushed away.
- <sup>8</sup> The water flowed down from the mountains into the valleys, to the places you made for it.
- <sup>9</sup> You set the limits for the seas, and the water will never again rise to cover the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Lord, you cause water to flow from springs into the streams that flow down between the mountains.
- <sup>11</sup> The streams provide water for all the wild animals.
 Even the wild donkeys come there to drink.
- <sup>12</sup> Wild birds come to live by the pools;
 they sing in the branches of nearby
 trees.
- <sup>13</sup> You send rain down on the mountains.
 The earth gets everything it needs from what you have made.
- <sup>14</sup> You make the grass grow to feed the animals.
 You provide plants for the crops we grow—the plants that give us food
 from the earth.
- <sup>15</sup> You give us the wine that makes us happy, the oil that makes our skin soft,<sup>c</sup>
 and the food that makes us strong.
- <sup>16</sup> The great cedar trees of Lebanon belong to the LORD.
 He planted them and gives them the water they need.
- <sup>17</sup> That's where the birds make their nests,
 and the storks live in the fir trees.

<sup>b</sup>104:4 Or "You make your angels spirits and your servants flames of fire." This may be a wordplay referring to the Cherub and Seraph angels.

- <sup>18</sup> The high mountains are a home for wild goats.
 The large rocks are hiding places for rock badgers.
- <sup>19</sup> Lord, you made the moon to show us
 when the festivals begin.
 And the sun always knows when to set.
- <sup>20</sup> You made darkness to be the night—
 the time when wild animals come out and roam around.
- <sup>21</sup> Lions roar as they attack, as if they are asking God for the food he gives them.
- <sup>22</sup> When the sun rises, they leave and go back to their dens to rest.
- <sup>23</sup> Then people go out to do their work,
 and they work until evening.
- <sup>24</sup> LORD, you created so many things!
 With your wisdom you made them all.
 The earth is full of the living things you
 made.
- <sup>25</sup> Look at the ocean, so big and wide!
 It is filled with all kinds of sea life.
 There are creatures large and small—too many to count!
- <sup>26</sup> Ships sail over the ocean, and playing there is Leviathan,<sup>d</sup>
 the great sea creature you made.
- <sup>27</sup> Lord, all living things depend on you.
 You give them food at the right time.
- <sup>28</sup> You give it, and they eat it.
 They are filled with good food from your open hands.
- <sup>29</sup> When you turn away from them,
 they become frightened.
 When you take away their breath,<sup>e</sup> they die, and their bodies return to the dust.
- <sup>30</sup> But when you send out your life-giving breath,<sup>f</sup> things come alive, and the world is like new again!
- <sup>31</sup> May the LORD's glory continue forever!
 May the LORD enjoy what he made.
- <sup>32</sup> He just looks at the earth, and it trembles.
 He just touches the mountains,
 and smoke rises from them.
- <sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD for the rest of my life.
 I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.
- <sup>34</sup> May my words be pleasing to him.

<sup>d</sup>104:26 Leviathan This might mean any large sea animal, like a whale. But it probably means "the sea monster," the "Dragon," or "Rahab." This creature represents the great power of the ocean, the power that God controls.

The LORD is the one who makes me happy.

<sup>35</sup> I wish sinners would disappear from the earth.

I wish the wicked would be gone forever.

My soul, praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

105 <sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD and call out to him!

Tell the nations what he has done!

<sup>2</sup> Sing to him; sing praises to him.

Tell about the amazing things he has done.

<sup>3</sup> Be proud of his holy name.

You followers of the LORD, be happy!

<sup>4</sup> Depend on the LORD for strength.

Always go to him for help.

<sup>5</sup> Remember the amazing things he has done.

Remember his miracles* and his fair decisions.

You are descendants of Jacob,* the people God chose.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is our God.

He rules the whole world.

<sup>8</sup> He will remember his agreement* forever.

He will always keep the promises he made to his people.

<sup>9</sup> He will keep the agreement he made with Abraham and the promise he made to Isaac.*

<sup>10</sup> He gave it as a law to Jacob.

He gave it to Israel* as an agreement that will last forever!

<sup>11</sup> He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan.*"

It will be your very own."

<sup>12</sup> At the time God said this, there were only a few of his people, and they were strangers there.

<sup>13</sup> They traveled around from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

<sup>14</sup> But the Lord did not let anyone mistreat them.

He warned kings not to harm them.

<sup>15</sup> He said, "Don't hurt my chosen people. Don't harm my prophets.*"

<sup>16</sup> He caused a famine* in that country, and people did not have enough food.

<sup>17</sup> But he sent a man named Joseph to go ahead of them.

Joseph was sold like a slave.

<sup>18</sup> They tied a rope around his feet and put an iron ring around his neck.

<sup>19</sup> Joseph was a slave until what he said had really happened.

The LORD's message proved that Joseph was right.

<sup>20</sup> So the king of Egypt set him free.

That nation's leader let him out of jail.

<sup>21</sup> He put Joseph in charge of his house.

Joseph took care of everything the king owned.

<sup>22</sup> Joseph gave instructions to the other leaders.

He taught the older men.

<sup>23</sup> Then Israel came to Egypt.

Jacob lived there in Ham's country.<sup>a</sup>

They made plans against his servants.

<sup>31</sup> The Lord gave the command, and the flies and gnats came. They were everywhere!

<sup>32</sup> He made the rain become hail.

Lightning struck throughout their land.

<sup>33</sup> He destroyed their vines and fig trees.

He destroyed every tree in their country.

<sup>34</sup> He gave the command, and the locusts and grasshoppers came.

There were too many to count!

<sup>35</sup> They ate all the plants in the country, including all the crops in their fields.

<sup>36</sup> Then the Lord killed every firstborn* in their country.

He killed their oldest sons.

<sup>37</sup> He led his people out of Egypt.

They were carrying gold and silver, and none of them stumbled or fell behind.

He used his column of fire to give his people light at night.

<sup>40</sup> They asked for food, and he sent them quail.

He also gave them plenty of bread from heaven.

<sup>41</sup> He split the rock, and water came bubbling out.

A river began flowing in the desert!

<sup>42</sup> The Lord remembered his holy promise that he had made to his servant Abraham.

<sup>a</sup>105:23 Ham's country Or "Egypt." The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Gen. 10:6–20.

- 44 Then he gave his people the lands of other nations.
His people got what others had worked for.
- 45 He did this so that his people would obey his laws and follow his teachings.

Praise the LORD!

- 106 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Give thanks to the LORD because he is good!
His faithful love will last forever!
- 2 No one can describe how great the LORD really is.
No one can praise him enough.
- 3 Those who obey his commands are happy.
They do good things all the time.
- 4 LORD, remember me when you show kindness to your people.
Remember to save me too!
- 5 Let me share in the good things that you do for your chosen people.
Let me rejoice with your nation.
Let me join with your people in praise.
- 6 We sinned just as our ancestors* did.
We were wrong; we did bad things!
- 7 Lord, our ancestors learned nothing from the miracles* you did in Egypt.
They forgot your kindness at the Red Sea and rebelled against you.
- 8 But the Lord saved our ancestors for the honor of his name.
He saved them to show his great power.
- 9 He gave the command, and the Red Sea became dry.
He led them through the deep sea on land as dry as the desert.
- 10 He saved our ancestors and rescued them from their enemies.
- 11 He covered their enemies with the sea.
Not one of them escaped!
- 12 Then our ancestors believed what he said.
They sang praises to him.
- 13 But they quickly forgot about what he did.
They did not listen to his advice.
- 14 They became hungry in the desert, and they tested him in the wilderness.
- 15 He gave them what they asked for, but he also gave them a terrible disease.
- 16 The people became jealous of Moses.*
They became jealous of Aaron,* the LORD's holy priest.
- 17 The ground opened up and swallowed Dathan.
Then the ground closed up and covered Abiram's group.
- 18 Then a fire burned that mob of people.
It burned those wicked people.

- 19 The people made a golden calf at Mount Horeb.*
They worshiped a statue!
- 20 They traded their glorious God for a statue of a grass-eating bull!
- 21 They forgot all about God, the one who saved them,
the one who did the miracles in Egypt.
- 22 He did amazing things there in Ham's country<sup>a</sup>!
He did awesome things at the Red Sea!
- 23 God wanted to destroy those people, but Moses, the leader he chose, stood in the way.
God was very angry, but Moses begged him to stop,
so God did not destroy the people.<sup>b</sup>
- 24 But then they refused to go into the wonderful land of Canaan.*
They did not believe that God would help them defeat the people there.
- 25 Our ancestors complained in their tents and refused to obey the LORD.
- 26 So he swore that they would die in the desert.
- 27 He promised to scatter them among the nations and to let other people defeat their descendants.
- 28 At Baal Peor they joined in worshiping Baal*
and ate sacrifices to honor the dead.<sup>c</sup>
- 29 The LORD became angry with his people, so he made them sick.
- 30 But Phinehas prayed<sup>d</sup> to God, and God stopped the sickness.
- 31 He considered what Phinehas did a good work,
and it will be remembered forever and ever.
- 32 At Meribah the people made the LORD angry and created trouble for Moses.
- 33 They upset Moses,
and he spoke without stopping to think.
- 34 The LORD told the people to destroy the other nations living in Canaan.

<sup>a</sup>106:22 Ham's country Or "Egypt." The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Gen. 10:6–20.

<sup>b</sup>106:23 Or "God said he would destroy them. But Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach and repelled his anger from destroying." This compares Moses to a soldier standing at a break in a wall defending the city against enemy soldiers.

<sup>c</sup>106:28 the dead This might refer to "lifeless gods" or to dead friends or relatives honored with meals eaten at their graves.

<sup>d</sup>106:30 prayed Or "intervened," or "judged." Phinehas not only prayed to God, but he also did something to stop the people from doing these sins. See Num. 25:1–16.

But the Israelites did not obey him.
 35 They mixed with the other people and did what those people were doing.
 36 They began worshipping the false gods
 those people worshiped.
 And their idols* became a trap.
 37 They even offered their own children
 as sacrifices to demons.
 38 They killed their innocent sons and daughters
 and offered them to the false gods of Canaan.
 So the land was polluted with the sin of murder.
 39 They were unfaithful to him, and they became dirty with the sins of
 other nations.
 40 So the LORD became angry with his
 people.
 He rejected those who belonged to him.
 41 He gave his people to other nations and let their enemies rule over them.
 42 Their enemies controlled them
 and made life hard for them.
 43 He saved his people many times, but they turned against him and did
 what they wanted to do.
 His people did many bad things.
 44 But whenever they were in trouble,
 he listened to their prayers.
 45 He always remembered his agreement,* and because of his faithful love, he comforted them.
 46 Other nations took them as prisoners, but he caused them to be kind to his
 people.
 47 LORD our God, save us!
 Bring us back together from those
 nations.
 Then we will give thanks to your holy name
 and joyfully praise you.
 48 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel!
 He always was and will always be worthy of praise.
 Let all the people say, "Amen!"

Praise the LORD!

BOOK 5 (Psalms 107-150)

107 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, because he is good!
 His faithful love will last forever!

- 2 Everyone the LORD has saved should repeat that word of thanks.
 Praise him, all who have been rescued from the enemy.
 3 He gathered his people together from many different countries.
 He brought them from east and west,
 north and south.<sup>a</sup>

- 4 Some of them wandered in the dry desert.
 They were looking for a place to live,
 but they could not find a city.
 5 They were hungry and thirsty and growing weak.
 6 Then they called to the LORD for help,
 and he saved them from their troubles.
 7 He led them straight to the city where they would live.
 8 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
 and for the amazing things he does for
 people.
 9 He satisfies those who are thirsty.
 He fills those who are hungry with good things.
 10 Some of God's people were prisoners, locked behind bars in dark prisons.
 11 That was because they had fought against what God said.
 They refused to listen to the advice of God Most High.
 12 God made life hard for those people because of what they did.
 They stumbled and fell,
 and there was no one to help them.
 13 They were in trouble, so they called to the LORD for help,
 and he saved them from their troubles.
 14 He took them out of their dark prisons.
 He broke the ropes that held them.
 15 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
 and for the amazing things he does for
 people.
 16 He breaks down their bronze gates.
 He shatters their iron bars.
 17 Some people became fools and turned against God,
 and they suffered for the evil they did.
 18 They became so sick that they refused to eat,
 so they almost died.
 19 They were in trouble, so they called to
 the LORD for help,
 and he saved them from their troubles.
 20 He gave the command and healed them,
 so they were saved from the grave.
 21 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
 and for the amazing things he does for
 people.
 22 Offer sacrifices* of thanks to him.
 Sing with joy about all that he has done.
 23 Some sailed the sea in ships.
 Their work carried them across the
 water.
 24 They saw what the LORD can do.
 They saw the amazing things he did at
 sea.
 25 He gave the command, and a strong wind began to blow.
 The waves became higher and higher.
 26 The waves lifted them high into the sky and dropped them into the deep sea.

<sup>a</sup>107:3 south Or "the Sea." This might refer to all the coastal areas around the Mediterranean Sea.

- The storm was so dangerous that the men lost their courage.
- 27 They were stumbling and falling like someone who is drunk.
Their skill as sailors was useless.
- 28 They were in trouble, so they called to the LORD for help,
and he saved them from their troubles.
- 29 He stopped the storm
and calmed the waves.
- 30 The sailors were happy that the sea was calm again, and the LORD led them safely to where they wanted to go.
- 31 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
and for the amazing things he does for people.
- 32 Praise God in the great assembly.
Praise him when the older leaders meet together.
- 33 He changed rivers into a desert.
He stopped springs from flowing.
- 34 He made the fertile land become salty, because the people living there did such evil things.
- 35 He changed the desert into a land with pools of water.
He caused springs to flow from dry ground.
- 36 He led the hungry to that good land, and they built a city to live in.
- 37 They planted seeds in their fields and grapes in their vineyards,* and they had a good harvest.
- 38 The LORD blessed them.
Their families grew,
and they had many animals.
- 39 But because of disaster and troubles, their families became small and weak.
- 40 The LORD shamed their leaders.
He let them wander through the desert,
where there are no roads.
- 41 But then he rescued the poor from their misery,
and now their families are large like flocks of sheep.
- 42 Good people see this and are happy.
But the wicked see it and don't know what to say.
- 43 Whoever is wise will remember these things and begin to understand the LORD's faithful love.

108 *A praise song of David.**

- 1 God, I am ready, heart and soul,
to sing songs of praise.
Wake up, my soul!
- 2 Harps and lyres,* wake up,
and let's wake the dawn!
- 3 LORD, I will praise you before all people.
I will sing praises about you to every nation.

- 4 Your faithful love is higher than the highest clouds in the sky!
- 5 Rise above the heavens, God.
Let all the world see your glory.*
- 6 Use your great power and help us!
Answer my prayer and save the people you love.
- 7 God has made this promise in his Temple:
"I will win the war and rejoice in victory!
I will divide this land among my people.
I will give them Shechem.
I will give them Succoth Valley.
- 8 Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
Ephraim* will be my helmet.
Judah* will be my royal scepter.*
- 9 Moab will be the bowl for washing my feet.
Edom will be the slave who carries my sandals.
I will defeat the Philistines* and shout in victory!"
- 10-11 But, God, it seems that you have left us!
You do not go out with our army.
So who will lead me into the strong, protected city?
Who will lead me into battle against Edom?
- 12 Help us defeat the enemy!
No one on earth can rescue us.
- 13 Only God can make us strong.
Only God can defeat our enemies!

109 *To the director*: A praise song of David.**

- 1 God, I praise you!
Hear my prayer and do something!
- 2 Wicked people are telling lies about me.
They are saying things that are not true.
- 3 They are saying hateful things about me.
They are attacking me for no reason.
- 4 I loved them, but they were against me.
So I said a prayer.
- 5 I did good things to them,
but they are doing bad things to me.
I loved them,
but they hated me.
- 6 They said, "Choose someone evil to represent him.
Let the one at his side really be his accuser.
- 7 Let even his prayer be used as evidence against him,
and let the court find him guilty.
- 8 Let his life be cut short,
and let someone else take over his work.
- 9 Let his children become orphans and his wife a widow.
- 10 Make his children wander around as beggars,

forced from homes that lie in ruins.

- 11 Let the people he owes take everything he owns.
Let strangers get everything he worked for.
- 12 Let no one be kind to him.
Let no one show mercy to his children.
- 13 May his family come to an end.
May his name be unknown to future generations.
- 14 May the LORD remember the sins of his father, and may his mother's sins never be erased.
- 15 May the LORD remember their sins forever, and may he cause people to forget his family completely.
- 16 He never did anything good.
He never loved anyone.
He made life hard for the poor and the helpless.
- 17 He loved to curse* others,
so let those bad things happen to him.
He never blessed others,
so don't let good things happen to him.
- 18 Cursing was a daily part of his life,
like the clothes he wears.
Cursing others became a part of him,
like the water he drinks and the oil he puts on his body.
- 19 So let curses cover him like the robe he wears and always surround him like a belt.*
- 20 My enemies said these evil things against me.
But may those curses be the way the LORD punishes them.
- 21 My Lord God, treat me in a way that brings honor to your name.
Save me because of your faithful love.
- 22 I am only a poor, helpless man.
I am so sad; my heart is broken.
- 23 I feel my life is over, fading like a shadow at day's end.
I feel like a bug that someone brushed away.
- 24 My knees are weak from fasting.*
I have lost weight and become thin.
- 25 My enemies insult me.
They look at me and shake their heads.
- 26 LORD my God, help me!
Show your faithful love and save me!
- 27 Then they will know that you did it.
They will know that it was your power, LORD, that helped me.
- 28 They curse me, but you can bless me.
They attacked me, so defeat them.
Then I, your servant, will be happy.
- 29 Humiliate my enemies!
Let them wear their shame like a coat.
- 30 I give thanks to the LORD.
I praise him in front of everyone.
- 31 He stands by the helpless and saves them from those who try to put them to death.

110 *A praise song of David.**

- 1 The LORD said to my lord,<sup>a</sup>
"Sit at my right side, while I put your enemies under your control."
- 2 The LORD will cause your kingdom to grow, beginning at Zion,* until you rule the lands of your enemies!
- 3 Your people will gladly join you when you gather your army together.
You will wear your special clothes and meet together early in the morning.
Your young men will be all around you like dew on the ground.<sup>b</sup>
- 4 The LORD has made a promise with an oath*
and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever—the kind of priest Melchizedek was."
- 5 My Lord is at your right side.
He will defeat the other kings when he becomes angry.
- 6 He will judge the nations.
The ground will be covered with dead bodies.
He will punish the leaders of powerful nations all around the world.
- 7 The king will drink from a stream on the way.
Then he will lift his head and become strong!<sup>c</sup>

- ## 111 <sup>d</sup>1Praise the LORD!
- I thank the LORD with all my heart in the assembly of his good people.
- 2 The LORD does wonderful things, more than anyone could ask for.<sup>e</sup>
  - 3 He does glorious and wonderful things!
There is no end to his goodness.
  - 4 He does amazing things so that we will remember that the LORD is kind and merciful.
  - 5 He gives food to his followers.
He remembers his agreement* forever.

<sup>b</sup>110:3 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. Literally, "Your people will be freewill offerings on your day of power. In holy splendor from the womb of dawn your dew of youth will be yours."

<sup>c</sup>110:7 lift his head and become strong Literally, "lift his head." Here, the poet probably means two things: "he will raise his head after drinking the water," and "he will become strong or important."

<sup>d</sup>Psalm 111 In Hebrew, each line of this psalm begins with the next letter in the alphabet.

- 6 He has shown his people how powerful he is by giving them the land of other nations.
- 7 Everything he does is good and fair.
All his commands can be trusted.
- 8 His commands will continue forever.
They must be done with truth and honesty.
- 9 He rescued his people and made his agreement with them forever.
His name is awesome and holy.
- 10 Wisdom begins with fear and respect for the LORD.
Those who obey him are very wise.
Praises will be sung to him forever.

- 112 <sup>a</sup> Praise the LORD!
Great blessings belong to those who fear and respect the LORD,
who are happy to do what he commands.
- 2 Their descendants will be given power on earth.
Those who do right will be greatly blessed.
- 3 Their family will be very rich,
and their goodness will continue forever.
- 4 A light shines in the dark for those who are good,
for those who are merciful, kind, and fair.
- 5 It is good for people to be kind and generous and to be fair in business.
- 6 Such good people will never fall.
They will always be remembered.
- 7 They will not be afraid of bad news.
They are confident because they trust in the LORD.
- 8 They remain confident and without fear,
so they defeat their enemies.
- 9 They freely give to the poor.
Their goodness will continue forever.
They will be honored with victory.
- 10 The wicked become angry when they see this.
They grind their teeth in anger, but then they disappear.
They will never get what they want most.

- 113 Praise the LORD!
Servants of the LORD, praise him!
Praise the LORD's name.
- 2 May the LORD's name be praised now and forever.
- 3 May the LORD's name be praised from where the sun rises to where it goes down.

- 4 The LORD is higher than all nations.
His glory* rises to the skies.
- 5 There is no one like the LORD our God.
He sits on his throne high in heaven.
- 6 He is so high above us that he must look down to see the sky and the earth.
- 7 He lifts the poor out of the dirt and rescues beggars from the garbage dump.
- 8 He puts them in important positions, giving them a place among the leaders of his people.
- 9 He gives children to the woman whose home is empty.
He makes her a happy mother.

Praise the LORD!

- 114 The people of Israel* escaped from Egypt.
Yes, Jacob's* descendants left that foreign country.
- 2 Then Judah* became God's special people,
and Israel became his kingdom.
- 3 The Red Sea saw this and ran away.
The Jordan River turned and ran.
- 4 The mountains danced like rams.
The hills danced like lambs.
- 5 Red Sea, why did you run away?
Jordan River, why did you turn and run away?
- 6 Mountains, why did you dance like rams?
Hills, why did you dance like lambs?
- 7 The earth shook in front of the Lord, the God of Jacob.
- 8 He is the one who caused water to flow from a rock.
He made a spring of water flow from that hard rock.

- 115 LORD, you should receive the honor, not us.
The honor belongs to you
because of your faithful love and loyalty.
- 2 Why should the nations wonder where our God is?
- 3 Our God is in heaven, and he does whatever he wants.
- 4 The "gods" of those nations are only statues that some human made from gold and silver.
- 5 Those statues have mouths, but cannot talk.
They have eyes, but cannot see.
- 6 They have ears, but cannot hear.
They have noses, but cannot smell.
- 7 They have hands, but cannot feel.
They have feet, but cannot walk.
No sounds come from their throats.
- 8 The people who make and trust in those statues will become like them!

<sup>a</sup>Psalm 112 In Hebrew, each line of this psalm begins with the next letter in the alphabet.

- 9 People of Israel,* trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 10 Aaron's* family, trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 11 Followers of the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 12 The LORD remembers us.
He will bless us.
He will bless Israel.
He will bless Aaron's family.
- 13 The LORD will bless his followers, great and small.
- 14 May the LORD give more and more to you and to your children.
- 15 May you receive blessings from the LORD,<sup>a</sup>
who made heaven and earth.
- 16 Heaven belongs to the LORD,
but he gave the earth to people.
- 17 The dead don't praise him.
Those in the grave don't praise the
LORD.
- 18 But we will praise the LORD now and
forever!

Praise the LORD!

- 116 <sup>1</sup>I love the LORD for hearing me,
for listening to my prayers.
- <sup>2</sup> Yes, he paid attention to me,
so I will always call to him whenever I need help.
- <sup>3</sup> Death's ropes were around me.
The grave was closing in on me.
I was worried and afraid.
- <sup>4</sup> Then I called on the LORD's name.
I said, "LORD, save me!"
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD is good and merciful;
our God is so kind.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD takes care of helpless people.
I was without help, and he saved me.
- <sup>7</sup> My soul, relax!
The LORD is caring for you.
- <sup>8</sup> Lord, you saved my soul from death.
You stopped my tears.
You kept me from falling.
- <sup>9</sup> I will continue to serve the LORD in the land of the living.
- <sup>10</sup> I continued believing even when I said,
"I am completely ruined!"
- <sup>11</sup> Yes, even when I was upset and said,
"There is no one I can trust!"
- <sup>12</sup> What can I give the LORD for all that he has done for me?
- <sup>13</sup> He saved me,
so I will give him a drink offering,
and I will call on the LORD's name.

- <sup>14</sup> I will give the LORD what I promised.
I will go in front of all his people now.
- <sup>15</sup> Very dear to the LORD are the lives of his followers.
He cares when they face death.
- <sup>16</sup> LORD, I am your servant!
Yes, I am your slave, as my mother was.
You set me free from the chains of death.
- <sup>17</sup> I will give you a thank offering.
I will call on the LORD's name.
- <sup>18</sup> I will stand before the gathering of his
people
and give the LORD what I promised.
- <sup>19</sup> I will do this in Jerusalem, in the courtyards of the LORD's Temple.*

Praise the LORD!

- 117 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise him, all you people.
- <sup>2</sup> He loves us very much!
The LORD will be faithful to us forever!

Praise the LORD!

- 118 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD because he is good!
- His faithful love will last forever!
- <sup>2</sup> Israel,* say it:
"His faithful love will last forever!"
- <sup>3</sup> Aaron's family,<sup>b</sup> say it:
"His faithful love will last forever!"
- <sup>4</sup> You people worshiping the LORD, say it:
"His faithful love will last forever!"
- <sup>5</sup> I was in trouble, so I called to the LORD
for help.
The LORD answered and made me free.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD is with me, so I will not be afraid.
No one on earth can do anything to harm me.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is my helper.
I will see my enemies defeated.
- <sup>8</sup> It is better to trust in the LORD
than to trust in people.
- <sup>9</sup> It is better to trust in the LORD
than to trust in great leaders.
- <sup>10</sup> Many enemies surrounded me, but with the LORD's power I defeated
them.
- <sup>11</sup> They surrounded me again and again, but I defeated them with the LORD's
power.
- <sup>12</sup> They surrounded me like a swarm of bees,
but they were quickly destroyed like a fast-burning bush.
I defeated them with the LORD's power.

<sup>a</sup>115:15 May ... the LORD Or "The LORD welcomes you with a blessing."

<sup>b</sup>118:3 Aaron's family That is, the priests.

- 13 My enemy attacked me and almost destroyed me,
but the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and my reason for singing.<sup>a</sup>
He saved me!
- 15 You can hear the victory celebration in the homes of those who live right.
The LORD has shown his great power again!
- 16 The LORD's arm is raised in victory.
The LORD has shown his great power again.
- 17 I will live and not die,
and I will tell what the LORD has done.
- 18 The LORD punished me,
but he did not let me die.
- 19 Gates of goodness, open for me,
and I will come in and worship the LORD.
- 20 Those are the LORD's gates, and only good people can go through them.
- 21 Lord, I thank you for answering my prayer.
I thank you for saving me.
- 22 The stone that the builders rejected became the cornerstone.*
- 23 The LORD made this happen, and we think it is wonderful!
- 24 This is the day the LORD has made.
Let us rejoice and be happy today!
- 25 [The people say,] "Praise the LORD!
The LORD saved us!"<sup>b</sup>
- 26 Welcome to the one who comes in the name of the LORD."
- [The priests answer,] "We welcome you to the LORD's house!
- 27 The LORD is God, and he accepts us.
Tie up the lamb for the sacrifice* and carry it to the horns of the altar.*"
- 28 LORD, you are my God, and I thank you.
My God, I praise you!
- 29 Praise the LORD because he is good.
His faithful love will last forever.

because your promise gives me new life.

- 51 People full of pride are always making fun
of me,
but I have not stopped following your
teachings.
- 52 I remember the laws you gave us long ago, LORD,
and they bring me comfort.
- 53 I am overcome with anger when I see
wicked people,
who have stopped following your
teachings.
- 54 Your laws are the songs I sing
wherever I am living.

your instructions.

but I have not forgotten your teachings.
- 62 In the middle of the night, I get up to thank you
because your laws are so fair.

When will you comfort me?
- 83 Even when I am like a dried wineskin on the trash pile,
I will not forget your laws.
- 84 How long must I wait for you to punish those who persecute me?
- 85 Proud people have tried to trap me and make me disobey your teachings.
- 86 All your commands can be trusted.
Those people are wrong to persecute me.
Help me!

- 94 I am yours, so save me!
I have done my best to know your instructions.
- 95 The wicked tried to destroy me, but your rules made me wise.

a light that shows the path I should take.

120 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- <sup>1</sup> I was in trouble.
I called to the LORD for help,
and he answered me!
- <sup>2</sup> I said, "LORD, save me from liars, from those who say things that are not true."
- <sup>3</sup> Liars, do you know what the Lord has for
you?
Do you know what you will get?
- <sup>4</sup> You will get a soldier's sharp arrow and hot coals to punish you.
- <sup>5</sup> How I hate living here among these
people!
It's like living in Meshech or in the tents of Kedar.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> I have lived too long with those who hate
peace.
- <sup>7</sup> I ask for peace, but they want war.

<sup>a</sup>120:5 Meshech ... Kedar Places where the people were known as wild and savage fighters.

121 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- <sup>1</sup> I look up to the hills,
but where will my help really come from?
- <sup>2</sup> My help will come from the LORD,
the Creator of heaven and earth.
- <sup>3</sup> He will not let you fall.
Your Protector will not fall asleep.
- <sup>4</sup> Israel's* Protector does not get tired.
He never sleeps.
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD is your Protector.
The LORD stands by your side, shading and protecting you.
- <sup>6</sup> The sun cannot harm you during the day,
and the moon cannot harm you at night.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD will protect you from every danger.
He will protect your soul.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD will protect you as you come and go,<sup>b</sup>
both now and forever!

122 *A song of David* for going up to the Temple.**

- <sup>1</sup> I was happy when the people said,
"Let us go to the LORD's Temple."
- <sup>2</sup> Here we are, standing at the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> This is New Jerusalem!
The city has been rebuilt as one united city.
- <sup>4</sup> This is where the tribes come, the tribes who belong to the LORD.
The people of Israel* come here to praise the LORD's name.
- <sup>5</sup> The kings from David's* family put their thrones here.
They set up their thrones to judge the
people.
- <sup>6</sup> Pray for peace in Jerusalem:
"May those who love you find peace."
- <sup>7</sup> May there be peace within your walls.
May there be safety in your great
buildings."
- <sup>8</sup> For the good of my family and neighbors,
I pray that there will be peace here.
- <sup>9</sup> For the good of the Temple* of the LORD
our God,
I pray that good things will happen to this city.

123 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, I look up and pray to you.
You sit as King in heaven.
- <sup>2</sup> A slave looks to his master to provide what he needs,
and a servant girl depends on the woman she serves.
So we depend on the LORD our God, waiting for him to have mercy on us.

<sup>b</sup>121:8 come and go This may refer to going to war.

- 3 LORD, be merciful to us, because we have been insulted much too long.
4 We have had enough of the hateful words of those proud people who make fun of us and show us no respect.

124 *A song of David* for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 What would have happened to us if the LORD had not been on our side?
Tell us about it, Israel.*
2 What would have happened to us if the LORD had not been on our side
when people attacked us?
3 They would have swallowed us alive
when they became angry with us.
4 Their armies would have been like a flood washing over us,
like a river drowning us.
5 Those proud people would have been like water rising up to our mouth and drowning us.
6 Praise the LORD!
He did not let our enemies tear us apart.
7 We escaped like a bird from the net of a hunter.
The net broke, and we escaped!
8 Our help came from the LORD,
the one who made heaven and earth!

125 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.*
They will never be shaken.
They will continue forever.
2 Like the mountains that surround
Jerusalem,
the LORD surrounds and protects his people now and forever.
3 The wicked will not always control the land of those who do right.
If they did, even those who do right might start doing wrong.
4 LORD, be good to those who are good,
to those who have pure hearts.
5 But, LORD, when you punish those who do evil,
also punish those who have stopped
following your way.

Let Israel* always enjoy peace!

126 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 It will be like a dream when the LORD comes back with the captives of Zion.<sup>a</sup>

- 2 We will laugh and sing happy songs!
Then the other nations will say,
“The LORD did a great thing for Zion!”
3 Yes, we will be happy because the LORD did a great thing for us.
4 So, LORD, bring back the good times, like a desert stream filled again with flowing water.
5 Then those who were sad when they planted
will be happy when they gather the harvest!
6 Those who cried as they carried the seeds<sup>b</sup> will be happy when they bring in the crops!

127 *A song from Solomon for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 If it is not the LORD who builds a house,
the builders are wasting their time.
If it is not the LORD who watches over the
city,
the guards are wasting their time.
2 It is a waste of time to get up early and stay up late,
trying to make a living.
The LORD provides for those he loves,
even while they are sleeping.
3 Children are a gift<sup>c</sup> from the LORD, a reward from a mother's womb.
4 A young man's sons are like the arrows in a soldier's hand.
5 The man who fills his quiver* with sons will be very blessed.
He will never be defeated when he opposes his enemy at the city gates.<sup>d</sup>

128 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 Great blessings belong to those who fear and respect the LORD
and live the way he wants.
2 You will get what you work for.
You will enjoy the LORD's blessings, and all will go well for you.
3 At home, your wife will have many children, like a vine full of grapes.
The children around your table will be like an orchard full of olive trees.
4 Yes, the LORD will really bless those who respect him.

Zion.” See “Zion” in the Word List.

<sup>c</sup>127:3 gift Literally, “inheritance.” This usually means the land God gave to each family in Israel.

<sup>d</sup>127:5 city gates This can refer to either a battle to protect the city or to a court case held in this public place.

- 5 May the LORD bless you from Mount Zion.*

May you enjoy the blessings of Jerusalem all your life.

- 6 And may you live to see your grandchildren.

Let Israel* always enjoy peace!

129 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 All my life enemies have attacked me.
Say it again, Israel.*
- 2 All my life enemies have attacked me,
but they have never defeated me.
- 3 They beat me until I had deep cuts.
My back looked like a freshly plowed field.
- 4 But the LORD does what is right;
he cut the ropes and set me free from those wicked people.
- 5 May those who hate Zion* be put to shame.
May they be stopped and chased away.
- 6 They will be like grass on a flat roof that dies before it has time to grow.
- 7 The one who goes to harvest it will not find enough to cut and stack.
- 8 May no one walking by those wicked people ever say, “May the LORD bless you! We bless you in the name of the LORD.”

130 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 LORD, I am in deep trouble,
so I am calling to you for help.
- 2 My Lord, listen to me.
Listen to my cry for help.
- 3 LORD, if you punished people for all their sins,
no one would be left alive.
- 4 But you forgive people,
so they fear and respect you.
- 5 I am waiting for the LORD to help me.
My soul waits for him.
I trust what he says.
- 6 I am waiting for my Lord,
like a guard waiting and waiting for the morning to come.
- 7 Israel,* trust in the LORD.
The LORD is the one who is faithful and true.
He saves us again and again,
- 8 and he is the one who will save the people of Israel from all their sins.

131 *A song of David* for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 LORD, I am not proud.
I don't pretend to be more important than others.
I am not interested in doing great things or trying to reach impossible goals.

- 2 But I am calm and quiet,
like a child content in its mother's arms.

- 3 Israel,* trust in the LORD.
Trust in him now and forever!

132 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 LORD, remember how David* suffered.
- 2 He made a promise to you, LORD, an oath to the Mighty God of Jacob.*
- 3 He said, “I will not go into my house or lie down on my bed.
- 4 I will not sleep
or let my eyes rest,
- 5 until I find a home for the LORD,
a tent for the Mighty God of Jacob!”
- 6 We heard about this in Ephrathah.<sup>a</sup>
We found the Box of the Agreement* at Kiriath Jearim.<sup>b</sup>
- 7 Now, let's go to the Lord's house.
Let's worship at his throne.<sup>c</sup>
- 8 LORD, get up<sup>d</sup> and go to your resting place;
go with the Box that shows your power.
- 9 May your priests be clothed in victory and your loyal followers be filled with joy.
- 10 For the sake of your servant David,
don't reject your chosen king.<sup>e</sup>
- 11 The LORD made a promise to David, an oath* of loyalty to him:
“I will always put one of your descendants on your throne.
- 12 If your descendants obey my agreement
and the laws I teach them, then the king will always be someone from your family.”
- 13 The LORD has chosen Zion* to be the place for his Temple,* the place he wanted for his home.
- 14 He said, “This will always be my place of rest.
This is where I want to sit on my throne.
- 15 I will bless this city with plenty of food.
Even the poor will have enough to eat.
- 16 I will clothe the priests with salvation, and my followers will be filled with joy.

<sup>b</sup>132:6 Kiriath Jearim Literally, “fields of the forest.” The Hebrew word meaning “forest” is like the name of this city.

<sup>c</sup>132:7 at his throne Literally, “at his footstool.” This can mean the Box of the Agreement, the Holy Tent, or the Temple. God is like a king sitting on his throne and resting his feet on the place where people worship him.

<sup>d</sup>132:8 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

- 17 This is where I will make David's family strong.
I will never let the lamp of my chosen king stop burning.
- 18 I will cover his enemies with shame, and on his head will be a shining crown."

133 *A song of David* for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 Oh, how wonderful, how pleasing it is when God's people all come together as one<sup>a</sup>!
- 2 It is like the sweet-smelling oil that is poured over the high priest's<sup>b</sup> head, that runs down his beard flowing over his robes.
- 3 It is like a gentle rain<sup>c</sup> from Mount Hermon falling on Mount Zion.*
It is there that the LORD has promised his blessing of eternal life.

134 *A song for going up to the Temple.**

- 1 Praise the LORD, all his servants who serve in the Temple* at night.
- 2 Lift your hands toward the Temple, and praise the LORD.
- 3 May the LORD, who made heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.*

- ## 135 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
- Praise the name of the LORD!
Praise him, you servants of the LORD,
2 you who serve in the LORD's Temple,*
in the courtyard of the Temple of our God.
- 3 Praise the LORD, because he is good.
Praise his name, because it brings such joy!
- 4 The LORD chose Jacob* to be his own.
Yes, he chose Israel* to be his own people.
- 5 I know the LORD is great!
Our Lord is greater than all the gods!
- 6 The LORD does whatever he wants,
in heaven and on earth, in the seas and the deep oceans.
- 7 He brings the clouds from the other side of the earth.
He sends the lightning and the rain,
and he opens the doors to release the winds.
- 8 He destroyed the firstborn* males of the people in Egypt and their animals.
- 9 He did great wonders and miracles* in Egypt.

<sup>a</sup>133:1 when ... as one Or "when brothers live together in peace."

<sup>c</sup>133:3 gentle rain Or "mist" or "snow." The Hebrew can mean either "the oil is like the mist ..." or "Aaron's beard is like the snow ..."

He used them against Pharaoh* and his officials.

- 10 He defeated many nations and killed powerful kings.
- 11 He defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites, Og, king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms in Canaan.*
- 12 Then he gave their land to Israel, his people.
- 13 LORD, your name will be famous forever!
LORD, people will remember you forever and ever.
- 14 The LORD defends his people;
he is kind to his servants.
- 15 The gods of other nations are only gold and silver idols that people have made.
- 16 They have mouths, but cannot speak.
They have eyes, but cannot see.
- 17 They have ears, but cannot hear.
They have mouths, but no breath.
- 18 Those who make idols and trust in them will become just like the idols they have made.
- 19 Family of Israel, praise the LORD!
Aaron's* family, praise the LORD!
- 20 Levi's family, praise the LORD!
All you who worship the LORD, praise the LORD!
- 21 The LORD should be praised from Zion,*
from Jerusalem, his home.

Praise the LORD!

 His faithful love will last forever.

137 <sup>1</sup>We sat by the rivers in Babylon and cried as we remembered Zion.*

- 2 We hung our harps nearby, there on the willow trees.<sup>a</sup>
 3 There in Babylon, those who captured us told us to sing.
 Our enemies told us to entertain them.
 They said, "Sing us one of your songs about Zion."
 4 But we cannot sing the LORD's songs in a foreign country!
 5 Jerusalem, if I ever forget you, may I never play a song again.
 6 If I fail to remember you, may I never sing again.
 I will always remember Jerusalem as my greatest joy!
 7 LORD, be sure to punish the Edomites for what they did when Jerusalem was captured.
 They shouted, "Destroy its buildings! Pull them down to the ground!"
 8 Babylon, you will be destroyed!
 Bless the one who pays you back for what you did to us.
 9 Bless the one who grabs your babies and smashes them against a rock.

<sup>a</sup>137:2 These instruments were used to praise God in the Temple in Jerusalem. Since it was destroyed, the people had no reason to play the songs.

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, I praise you with all my heart.
 I sing songs of praise to you before the gods.
 2 I bow down toward your holy Temple,* and I praise your name for your love and loyalty.
 You are famous, and doing what you promised will make you even more famous!
 3 When I called to you for help, you answered me and gave me strength.
 4 LORD, all the kings on earth will praise you when they hear what you say.
 5 They will sing about what the LORD has done, because the glory* of the LORD is very great.
 6 The LORD has the highest place above all others,
 but he still cares for the humble.
 Even from there, so high above, he knows what the proud do.
 7 If I am in trouble, you keep me alive.
 If my enemies are angry, you save me from them.
 8 LORD, I know you will do what you have promised.
 LORD, your faithful love will last forever.
 You are the one who made us, so don't leave us!

139 *To the director*:
 A praise song of David.**

- <sup>1</sup> LORD, you have tested me, so you know all about me.
 2 You know when I sit down and when I get up.
 You know my thoughts from far away.
 3 You know where I go and where I lie down.
 You know everything I do.
 4 LORD, you know what I want to say, even before the words leave my mouth.
 5 You are all around me—in front of me and behind me.
 I feel your hand on my shoulder.
 6 I am amazed at what you know; it is too much for me to understand.
 7 Your Spirit is everywhere I go.
 I cannot escape your presence.
 8 If I go up to heaven, you will be there.
 If I go down to the place of death, you will be there.
 9 If I go east where the sun rises or go to live in the west beyond the sea,
 10 even there you will take my hand and lead me.
 Your strong right hand will protect me.
 11 Suppose I wanted to hide from you and said,
 "Surely the darkness will hide me.

- The day will change to night and cover me.”
- 12 Even the darkness is not dark to you.
The night is as bright as the day.
Darkness and light are the same.
- 13 You formed the way I think and feel.<sup>a</sup>
You put me together in my mother's womb.
- 14 I praise you because you made me in such a wonderful way.
I know how amazing that was!
- 15 You could see my bones grow as my body took shape, hidden in my mother's womb.<sup>b</sup>
- 16 You could see my body grow each passing day.<sup>c</sup>
You listed all my parts, and not one of them was missing.
- 17 Your thoughts are beyond my understanding.<sup>d</sup>
They cannot be measured!
- 18 If I could count them, they would be more than all the grains of sand.
But when I finished, I would have just begun.<sup>e</sup>
- 19 You murderers, get away from me!
God, kill those wicked people—
those who say bad things about you.
Your enemies use your name falsely.<sup>f</sup>
- 21 LORD, I hate those who hate you.
I hate those who are against you.
- 22 I hate them completely!
Your enemies are also my enemies.
- 23 God, examine me and know my mind.
Test me and know all my worries.
- 24 Make sure that I am not going the wrong way.<sup>g</sup>
Lead me on the path that has always been right.<sup>h</sup>

140 *To the director*: A praise song of David.**

- 1 LORD, save me from people who are evil.
Protect me from those who are cruel, 2 from those who plan to do evil and always cause trouble.
- 3 Their words are as harmful as the fangs of a snake,
as deadly as its venom. *Selah**

<sup>a</sup>139:13 the way I think and feel Literally, “my kidneys,” which were thought to be the center of emotions.

<sup>b</sup>139:15 mother's womb Literally, “deepest parts of the earth,” meaning a place we know nothing about.

- 4 LORD, save me from the wicked!
Protect me from these cruel people who plan to hurt me.
- 5 These proud people are trying to trap me.
They spread nets to catch me;
they set traps in my path. Selah
- 6 LORD, you are my God.
LORD, listen to my prayer.
- 7 My Lord God, you are the powerful one who saves me.
You protect my head in battle.
- 8 LORD, don't let the wicked have what they want.
Don't let their plans succeed. Selah
- 9 My enemies are planning trouble for me.
LORD, make that trouble fall on them.
- 10 Pour burning coals on their heads.
Throw them into the fire.
Throw them into pits they can never escape.
- 11 Don't let those cruel liars enjoy success here.
Let disaster hunt them down.
- 12 I know the LORD will provide justice for the poor and will defend the helpless.
- 13 Those who do what is right will praise your name;
those who are honest will live in your presence.

141 *A praise song of David.**

- 1 LORD, I call to you for help.
Listen to me as I pray.
Please hurry and help me!
- 2 Accept my prayer like a gift of burning incense,
the words I lift up like an evening sacrifice.*
- 3 LORD, help me control what I say.
Don't let me say anything bad.
- 4 Take away any desire to do evil.
Keep me from joining the wicked in doing wrong.
Help me stay away from their feasts.
- 5 If good people correct me,
I will consider it a good thing.
If they criticize me,
I will accept it like a warm welcome.<sup>i</sup>
But my prayer will always be against the wicked and the evil they do.
- 6 Let their judges be put to death.<sup>j</sup>
Then everyone will know that I told the truth.

- 7 Like rocks in a field that a farmer has plowed, so our bones will be scattered in the grave.
- 8 My Lord God, I look to you for help.
I look to you for protection; don't let me die.
- 9 Those evil people are trying to trap me.
Don't let me fall into their traps.
- 10 Let the wicked fall into their own traps,
while I walk away unharmed.

142 *A maskil* of David written when he was in the cave. A prayer.*

- 1 I cry out to the LORD.
I beg the LORD to help me.
- 2 I tell him my problems;
I tell him about my troubles.
- 3 I am ready to give up.
But you, LORD, know the path I am on,
and you know that my enemies have set a trap for me.
- 4 I look around,
and I don't see anyone I know.
I have no place to run.
There is no one to save me.
- 5 LORD, I cry out to you for help:
"You are my place of safety.
You are all I need in life."
- 6 Listen to my prayer.
I am so weak.
Save me from those who are chasing me.
They are stronger than I am.
- 7 Help me escape this trap,<sup>a</sup>
so that I can praise your name.
Then good people will celebrate with me,
because you took care of me.

143 *A praise song of David.**

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my call for help and answer my prayer.
Show me how good and loyal you are.
- 2 Don't judge me, your servant.
No one alive could be judged innocent by your standards.
- 3 My enemies are chasing me.
They have crushed me into the dirt.
They are pushing me into the dark grave,
like people who died long ago.
- 4 I am ready to give up.
I am losing my courage.
- 5 But I remember what happened long ago.
I am thinking about all you have done.
I am talking about what you made with your hands!
- 6 I lift my hands in prayer to you.
I am waiting for your help, like a dry land waiting for rain. *Selah**

- 7 Hurry and answer me, LORD!
I have lost my courage.
Don't turn away from me.
Don't let me die and become like the people lying in the grave.
- 8 Show me your faithful love this morning.
I trust in you.
Show me what I should do.
I put my life in your hands!
- 9 LORD, I come to you for protection.
Save me from my enemies.
- 10 Show me what you want me to do.
You are my God.
Let your good Spirit lead me over level ground.
- 11 LORD, let me live
so that people will praise your name.
Show me how good you are and save me from my trouble.
- 12 Show me your love
and defeat my enemies.
Destroy those who are trying to kill me because I am your servant.

144 *A song of David.**

- 1 The LORD is my Rock.*
Praise the LORD!
He prepares me for war.
He trains me for battle.
- 2 He loves me and protects me.
He is my safe place high on the mountain.
He rescues me.
He is my shield.
I trust in him.
He helps me rule my people.
- 3 LORD, why are people important to you?
Why do you even notice us?
- 4 Our life is like a puff of air.
It is like a passing shadow.
- 5 LORD, tear open the skies and come down.
Touch the mountains, and smoke will rise from them.
- 6 Send the lightning and make my enemies run away.
Shoot your "arrows" and make them run away.
- 7 Reach down from heaven and save me!
Don't let me drown in this sea of enemies.
Save me from these foreigners.
- 8 They are all liars,
even when they swear to tell the truth.
- 9 God, I will sing a new song<sup>b</sup> for you.
I will play a ten-stringed harp and sing praise to you.

<sup>a</sup>142:7 trap Literally, "frame around my soul."

- 10 You are the one who gives victory to kings.
You saved your servant David* from the sword of his enemy.
- 11 Save me from these foreigners.
They are all liars,
even when they swear to tell the truth.
- 12 Save us so that our sons will be as strong as trees, and our daughters as beautiful as the carved columns of a palace.
- 13 Save us so that our barns will be filled with crops,
and there will be thousands of sheep in our fields.
- 14 Then our soldiers will be safe, and no enemy will try to break in.
Then we will not go to war,
and people will not be screaming in our streets.
- 15 How wonderful to have such blessings!
Yes, great blessings belong to those who have the LORD as their God.

145 *A song of David.**

- 1 I will tell of your greatness, my God and King.
I will praise your name forever and ever.
- 2 I will praise you every day.
I will praise your name forever and ever.
- 3 The LORD is great and deserves all our praise!
No one can fully understand his greatness!
- 4 Each generation will praise you and tell the next generation about the great things you do.
- 5 Your majesty and glory* are wonderful.
I will tell about your miracles.*
- 6 People will tell about the amazing things you do.
I will tell about the great things you do.
- 7 They will tell about the good things you do.
They will sing about your goodness.
- 8 The LORD is kind and merciful, patient and full of love.
- 9 The LORD is good to everyone.
He shows his mercy to everything he made.
- 10 LORD, all you have made will give thanks to you.
Your loyal followers will praise you.
- 11 They will tell how great your kingdom is.
They will tell how great you are.
- 12 So others will learn about the mighty things you do, about the glory of your kingdom—how marvelous it is!
- 13 Your kingdom will never end,
and you will rule forever.

The LORD can be trusted in all that he says.

- He is loyal in all that he does.<sup>a</sup>
- 14 The LORD lifts up people who have fallen.
He helps those who are in trouble.
- 15 All living things look to you for their food,
and you give them their food at the right time.
- 16 You open your hands and give every living thing all that it needs.
- 17 Everything the LORD does is good.
Everything he does shows how loyal he is.
- 18 The LORD is near to everyone who sincerely calls to him for help.
- 19 He listens to his followers and does what they want.
He answers their prayers and saves them.
- 20 The LORD protects everyone who loves him, but he destroys all who do evil.
- 21 I will praise the LORD!
Let everyone praise his holy name forever and ever!

- ## 146 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
- My soul, praise the LORD!
- 2 I will praise the LORD all my life.
I will sing praises to him as long as I live.
- 3 Don't depend on your leaders for help.
Don't depend on people, because they cannot save you.
- 4 People die and are buried.
Then all their plans to help are gone.
- 5 It is a great blessing for people to have the God of Jacob* to help them.
They depend on the LORD their God.
- 6 He made heaven and earth.
He made the sea and everything in it.
He can be trusted to do what he says.
- 7 He does what is right for those who have been hurt.
He gives food to the hungry.
The LORD frees people locked up in prison.
- 8 The LORD makes the blind see again.
The LORD helps those who are in trouble.
The LORD loves those who do right.
- 9 The LORD protects strangers in our country.
He cares for widows and orphans,
but he destroys the wicked.
- 10 The LORD will rule forever!
Zion,* your God will rule forever and ever!

Praise the LORD!

<sup>a</sup>145:13 The LORD ... he does This is found in the ancient Greek and Syriac versions and a Hebrew scroll from Qumran, but not in the standard Hebrew text.

- 147 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD because he is good.
Sing praises to our God.
It is good and pleasant to praise him.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem.
He brings back the Israelites who were taken as prisoners.
- <sup>3</sup> He heals their broken hearts and bandages their wounds.
- <sup>4</sup> He counts the stars and knows each of them by name.
- <sup>5</sup> Our Lord is great and powerful.
There is no limit to what he knows.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD supports the humble,
but he shames the wicked.
- <sup>7</sup> Give thanks to the LORD.
Praise our God with harps.
- <sup>8</sup> He fills the sky with clouds.
He sends rain to the earth.
He makes the grass grow on the mountains.
- <sup>9</sup> He gives food to the animals.
He feeds the young birds.
- <sup>10</sup> War horses and powerful soldiers are not what he cares about.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD enjoys people who worship him and trust in his faithful love.
- <sup>12</sup> Jerusalem, praise the LORD!
Zion,* praise your God!
- <sup>13</sup> He makes your gates strong,
and he blesses the people in your city.
- <sup>14</sup> He brought peace to your country,
so you have plenty of grain for food.
- <sup>15</sup> He gives a command to the earth,
and it quickly obeys.
- <sup>16</sup> He makes the snow fall until the ground is as white as wool.
He makes sleet blow through the air like dust.
- <sup>17</sup> He makes hail fall like rocks from the sky.
No one can stand the cold he sends.
- <sup>18</sup> Then he gives another command, and warm air begins to blow.
The ice melts, and water begins to flow.
- <sup>19</sup> He gave his commands to Jacob.*
He gave his laws and rules to Israel.*
- <sup>20</sup> He did not do this for any other nation.
He did not teach his laws to other
people.

Praise the LORD!

- 148 <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Angels above, praise the LORD from heaven!
- <sup>2</sup> Praise him, all you angels!
Praise him, all his army<sup>a</sup>!
- <sup>3</sup> Sun and moon, praise him!
Stars and lights in the sky, praise him!

Waters above the sky, praise him!

<sup>a</sup>148:2 his army This can mean "angels," "stars and planets," or "soldiers in an army."

- <sup>5</sup> Let them praise the LORD's name, because he gave the command and created them all!
- <sup>6</sup> He made all these continue forever.
He made the laws that will never end.
- <sup>7</sup> Everything on earth, praise him!
Great sea animals and all the oceans,
praise the LORD!
- <sup>8</sup> Praise him, fire and hail, snow and clouds,
and the stormy winds that obey him.
- <sup>9</sup> Praise him, mountains and hills,
fruit trees and cedar trees.
- <sup>10</sup> Praise him, wild animals and cattle,
reptiles and birds.

Proverbs

Introduction

1 <sup>1</sup>These are the proverbs* of Solomon, the son of David* and king of Israel.* <sup>2</sup>They will help you learn to be wise, to accept correction, and to understand wise sayings. <sup>3</sup>They will teach you to develop your mind in the right way. You will learn to do what is right and to be honest and fair. <sup>4</sup>These proverbs will make even those without education smart. They will teach young people what they need to know and how to use what they have learned. <sup>5</sup>Even the wise could become wiser by listening to these proverbs. They will gain understanding and learn to solve difficult problems. <sup>6</sup>These sayings will help you understand proverbs, stories with hidden meanings, words of the wise, and other difficult sayings.

<sup>7</sup>Knowledge begins with fear and respect for the LORD, but stubborn fools hate wisdom and refuse to learn.

Advice to a Son

<sup>8</sup>My son,<sup>a</sup> listen to your father when he corrects you, and don't ignore what your mother teaches you. <sup>9</sup>What you learn from your parents will bring you honor and respect, like a crown or a gold medal.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10</sup>My son, those who love to do wrong will try to trick you. Don't listen to them.

<sup>11</sup>They will say, "Come with us. Let's hide and beat to death anyone who happens to walk by. <sup>12</sup>We will swallow them whole, as the grave swallows the dying. <sup>13</sup>We will take everything they have and fill our houses with stolen goods. <sup>14</sup>So join us, and you can share everything we get."

<sup>15</sup>My son, don't follow them. Don't even take the first step along that path. <sup>16</sup>They run to do something evil, and they cannot wait to kill someone.

<sup>17</sup>You cannot trap birds with a net if they see you spreading it out. <sup>18</sup>But evil people cannot see the trap they set for themselves. <sup>19</sup>This is what happens to those who are greedy. Whatever they get destroys them.

The Good Woman—Wisdom

<sup>22</sup>"Fools, how long will you love being ignorant? How long will you make fun of wisdom? How long will you hate knowledge? <sup>23</sup>I wanted to tell you everything I knew and give you all my knowledge, but you didn't listen to my advice and teaching.

<sup>28</sup>"Fools will call for me, but I will not answer. They will look for me, but they will not find me. <sup>29</sup>That is because they hated knowledge. They refused to fear and respect the LORD. <sup>30</sup>They ignored my advice and refused to be corrected. <sup>31</sup>They filled their lives with what they wanted. They went their own way, so they will get what they deserve.

<sup>32</sup>"Fools die because they refuse to follow wisdom. They are content to follow their foolish ways, and that will destroy them. <sup>33</sup>But those who listen to me will live in safety and comfort. They will have nothing to fear."

<1:20 Wisdom Wisdom is pictured here as a good woman trying to get the attention of this young man, calling him to be wise and obey God. In a later passage (9:13–18), Foolishness is represented as another woman who is urging him toward a life of sin.

<sup>a</sup>1:8 My son The proverbs in this section may have been directed originally to a teenage boy, perhaps a prince, who was becoming a young man. They are intended to teach him how to be a responsible person and leader who loves and respects God.

<sup>b</sup>1:9 Literally, "They are like a wreath of favor to your head and a necklace around your neck."

Listen to Wisdom

2<sup>1</sup>My son, pay attention to what I say. Remember my commands. <sup>2</sup>Listen to wisdom, and do your best to understand. <sup>3</sup>Ask for good judgment. Cry out for understanding. <sup>4</sup>Look for wisdom like silver. Search for it like hidden treasure. <sup>5</sup>If you do this, you will understand what it means to respect the LORD, and you will come to know God.

<sup>9</sup>If you listen to him, you will understand what is just and fair and how to do what is right. <sup>10</sup>You will gain wisdom, and knowledge will bring you joy.

<sup>11</sup>Planning ahead will protect you, and understanding will guard you. <sup>12</sup>These will keep you from following the wrong path and will protect you from those who have evil plans. <sup>13</sup>Such people have left the straight path and now walk in darkness.* <sup>14</sup>They enjoy doing evil and are happy with the confusion it brings. <sup>15</sup>Their ways are crooked; they lie and cheat.

<sup>16</sup>Wisdom will save you from that other woman, another man's wife, who tempts you with sweet words. <sup>17</sup>She married when she was young, but then she left her husband. She forgot the marriage vows she made before God. <sup>18</sup>Going into her house leads to death. She will lead you to the grave. <sup>19</sup>All who enter lose their life and never return.

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom will help you follow the example of good people and stay on the right path. <sup>21</sup>Honest people will live in the land, and those who do right will remain there. <sup>22</sup>But the wicked will be forced to leave. Those who lie and cheat will be thrown out of the land.

The Blessing of Wisdom

3<sup>1</sup>My son, don't forget my teaching. Remember what I tell you to do. <sup>2</sup>What I teach will give you a good, long life, and all will go well for you.

<sup>3</sup>Don't ever let love and loyalty leave you. Tie them around your neck, and write them on your heart. <sup>4</sup>Then God will be pleased and think well of you and so will everyone else.

<sup>5</sup>Trust the LORD completely, and don't depend on your own knowledge. <sup>6</sup>With every step you take, think about what he wants, and he will help you go the right way. <sup>7</sup>Don't trust in your own wisdom, but fear and respect the LORD and stay away from evil. <sup>8</sup>If you do this, it will be like a refreshing drink and medicine for your body.

<sup>9</sup>Honor the LORD with your wealth and the first part of your harvest. <sup>10</sup>Then your barns will be full of grain, and your barrels will be overflowing with wine.

<sup>11</sup>My son, don't reject the LORD's discipline, and don't be angry when he corrects you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD corrects the one he loves, just as a father corrects a child he cares about.

<sup>13</sup>Those who find wisdom are fortunate; they will be blessed when they gain understanding. <sup>14</sup>Profit that comes from wisdom is better than silver and even the finest gold. <sup>15</sup>Wisdom is worth more than fine jewels. Nothing you desire has more value.

<sup>19</sup>With wisdom and understanding, the LORD created the earth and sky. <sup>20</sup>With his knowledge, he made the oceans and the clouds that produce rain.

<sup>21</sup>My son, don't ever let wisdom out of your sight. Hold on to wisdom and careful planning. <sup>22</sup>They will bring you a long life filled with honor. <sup>23</sup>As you go through life, you will always be safe and never fall. <sup>24</sup>When you lie down, you will not be afraid. When you rest, your sleep will be peaceful. <sup>25-26</sup>You have no reason to fear some sudden disaster. The LORD will be your strength. Never fear the destruction that comes to the wicked. The LORD will protect you from that trap.

<sup>27</sup>Do everything you possibly can for those who need help. <sup>28</sup>If your neighbor needs something you have, don't say, "Come back tomorrow." Give it to him immediately.

<sup>29</sup>Don't make plans to harm your neighbor, who lives near you and trusts you.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>30</sup>Don't take people to court without good reason, especially when they have done nothing to harm you.

<sup>31</sup>Don't envy those who are violent. Never choose to be like them. <sup>32</sup>Such crooked people are disgusting to the LORD. But he is a friend to those who are good and honest.

<sup>33</sup>The LORD curses* a wicked family, but he blesses the homes of those who live right.

<sup>34</sup>He will humiliate those who make fun of others, but he is kind to those who are humble.

<sup>35</sup>The way the wise live will bring them honor, but the way fools live will bring them shame.

A Father's Advice About Wisdom

4<sup>1</sup>Children, listen to your father's teaching. <sup>2</sup>Pay attention and you will learn how to learn. <sup>3</sup>The advice I give is good, so don't ever forget what I teach you.

<sup>4</sup>When I was my father's little boy and my mother's dear son,<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>my father taught me this: "Pay attention to what I say. Obey my commands and you will have a good life. <sup>6</sup>Try to get wisdom and understanding. Don't forget my teaching or ignore what I say. <sup>6</sup>Don't turn away from wisdom, and she will protect you. Love her, and she will keep you safe.

<sup>7</sup>The first step to becoming wise is to look for wisdom, so use everything you have to get understanding. <sup>8</sup>Love wisdom, and she will make you great. Hold on to wisdom, and she will bring you honor. <sup>9</sup>Wisdom will reward you with a crown of honor and glory."

<sup>10</sup>Son, listen to me. Do what I say, and you will live a long time. <sup>11</sup>I am teaching you about wisdom and guiding you on the right path. <sup>12</sup>As you walk on it, you will not step into a trap. Even if you run, you will not trip and fall. <sup>13</sup>Always remember this teaching. Don't forget it. It is the key to life, so guard it well.

The Wisdom of Avoiding Adultery

5 Son, listen to this piece of wisdom from me. Pay attention to what I know to be true. <sup>2</sup>Remember to live wisely, and what you learn will keep your lips from saying the wrong thing. <sup>3</sup>Now, another man's wife might be very charming, and the words from her lips so sweet and inviting. <sup>4</sup>But in the end, she will bring only bitterness and pain. It will be like bitter poison and a sharp sword. <sup>5</sup>She is on a path leading to death, and she will lead you straight to the grave. <sup>6</sup>Don't follow her. She has lost her way and does not even know it. Be careful. Stay on the road that leads to life.

<sup>7</sup>Now, my sons, listen to me. Don't forget the words I say. <sup>8</sup>Stay away from the woman who commits adultery.* Don't even go near her house. <sup>9</sup>If you do, others will get the honor you should have had. Some stranger will get everything you worked years to get. <sup>10</sup>People you don't know will take all your wealth. Others will get what you worked for. <sup>11</sup>At the end of your life, you will be sad that you ruined your health and lost everything you had. <sup>12-13</sup>Then you will say, "Why didn't I listen to my parents? Why didn't I pay attention to my teachers? I didn't want to be disciplined. I refused to be corrected. <sup>14</sup>So now I have suffered through just about every kind of trouble anyone can have, and everyone knows it."

<sup>21</sup>The LORD clearly sees everything you do. He watches where you go. <sup>22</sup>The sins of the wicked will trap them. Those sins will be like ropes holding them back. <sup>23</sup>Evil people will die because they refuse to be disciplined. They will be trapped by their own desires.

Dangers of Debt

6 My son, don't make yourself responsible for the debts of others. Don't make such deals with friends or strangers. <sup>2</sup>If you do, your words will trap you. <sup>3</sup>You will be under the power of other people, so you must go and free yourself. Beg them to free you from that debt. <sup>4</sup>Don't wait to rest or sleep. <sup>5</sup>Escape from that trap like a deer running from a hunter. Free yourself like a bird flying from a trap.

The Dangers of Being Lazy

<sup>6</sup>You lazy people, you should watch what the ants do and learn from them. <sup>7</sup>Ants have no ruler, no boss, and no leader. <sup>8</sup>But in the summer, ants gather all of their food and save it. So when winter comes, there is plenty to eat.

<sup>9</sup>You lazy people, how long are you going to lie there? When will you get up? <sup>10</sup>You say, "I need a rest. I think I'll take a short nap." <sup>11</sup>But then you sleep and sleep and become poorer and poorer. Soon you will have nothing. It will be as if a thief came and stole everything you owned.

Troublemakers

<sup>12</sup>Some people are just troublemakers. They are always thinking up some crooked plan and telling lies. <sup>13</sup>They use secret signals to cheat people; they wink their eyes, shuffle their feet, and point a finger. <sup>14</sup>They are always planning to do something bad. <sup>15</sup>But they will be punished. Disaster will strike, and they will be destroyed. There will be no one to help them.

What the Lord Hates

- <sup>16</sup> The LORD hates these seven things: <sup>17</sup> eyes that show pride, tongues that tell lies,
 hands that kill innocent people, <sup>18</sup> hearts that plan evil things to do,
 feet that run to do evil, <sup>19</sup> witnesses in court who tell lies,
 and anyone who causes family members to fight.

Warning Against Adultery

<sup>20</sup>My son, remember your father's command, and don't forget your mother's teaching. <sup>21</sup>Remember their words always. Tie them around your neck and keep them over your heart. <sup>22</sup>Let this teaching lead you wherever you go. It will watch over you while you sleep. And when you wake up, it will give you good advice.

<sup>23</sup>Your parents give you commands and teachings that are like lights to show you the right way. This teaching corrects you and trains you to follow the path to life. <sup>24</sup>It stops you from going to an evil woman, and it protects you from the smooth talk of another man's wife. <sup>25</sup>Such a woman might be beautiful, but don't let that beauty tempt you. Don't let her eyes capture you. <sup>26</sup>A prostitute might cost a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man could cost you your life. <sup>27</sup>If you drop a hot coal in your lap, your clothes will be burned. <sup>28</sup>If you step on one, your feet will be burned. <sup>29</sup>If you sleep with another man's wife, you will be punished.

<sup>30-31</sup>A hungry man might steal to fill his stomach. If he is caught, he must pay seven times more than he stole. It might cost him everything he owns, but other people understand. They don't lose all their respect for him. <sup>32</sup>But a man who commits adultery* is a fool. He brings about his own destruction. <sup>33</sup>He will suffer disease and disgrace and never be free from the shame. <sup>34</sup>The woman's husband will be jealous and angry and do everything he can to get revenge. <sup>35</sup>No payment—no amount of money—will stop him.

Wisdom Will Keep You From Adultery

7 <sup>1</sup>My son, remember my words. Don't forget what I have told you. <sup>2</sup>Consider my teaching as precious as your own eyes. Obey my commands, and you will have a good life. <sup>3</sup>Tie them around your finger. Write them on your heart. <sup>4</sup>Treat wisdom like the woman you love and knowledge like the one dearest to you. <sup>5</sup>Wisdom will save you from that other woman, the other man's wife, who tempts you with such sweet words.

<sup>6</sup>One day I was looking out my window <sup>7</sup>at some foolish teenagers and noticed one who had no sense at all. <sup>8</sup>He was walking through the marketplace and came to the corner where a certain woman lived. He then turned up the road that goes by her house.

<sup>9</sup>The day was ending. The sun had set, and it was almost dark. <sup>10</sup>Suddenly, there she was in front of him, dressed like a prostitute. She had plans for him. <sup>11</sup>She was a wild and rebellious woman who would not stay at home. <sup>12</sup>She walked the streets, always looking for someone to trap. <sup>13</sup>She grabbed the young man and kissed him. Without shame, she looked him in the eye and said, <sup>14</sup>"I offered a fellowship offering* today. I gave what I promised to give, <sup>15</sup>and I still have plenty of food left. So I came out to find you, and here you are! <sup>16</sup>I have clean sheets on my bed—special ones from Egypt. <sup>17</sup>My bed smells wonderful with myrrh,* aloes,* and cinnamon. <sup>18</sup>Come, let's enjoy ourselves all night. We can make love until dawn. <sup>19</sup>My husband has gone on a business trip. <sup>20</sup>He took enough money for a long trip and won't be home for two weeks."

<sup>24</sup>Now, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to what I say. <sup>25</sup>Don't let your heart lead you to an evil woman like that. Don't go where she wants to lead you. <sup>26</sup>She has brought down some of the most powerful men; she has left many dead bodies in her path. <sup>27</sup>Her house is the place of death. The road to it leads straight to the grave.

Wisdom—the Good Woman

- 8 <sup>1</sup>Listen, Wisdom is calling.
 Yes, Understanding is shouting for us.
<sup>2</sup> Wisdom stands at the top of the hill,
 by the road where the paths meet.
<sup>3</sup> She is near the entrance to the city, calling from the open gates.
<sup>4</sup> "I am calling out to all of you.
 I am speaking to everyone."
<sup>5</sup> You who are ignorant, learn to be wise.
 You who are foolish, get some common sense.
<sup>6</sup> Listen, I have something important to say,
 and I am telling you what is right.
<sup>7</sup> My words are true,
 and I will not say anything that is wrong.
<sup>8</sup> Everything I say is right;
 there is nothing false or crooked about it.
<sup>9</sup> These things are clear to any intelligent person.
 They are right
 to anyone with knowledge.
<sup>10</sup> Choose discipline over silver and knowledge over the finest gold.

8:20 won't be ... weeks Literally, "will not come home until the full moon." The fellowship meal shows that this happened at the time of the new moon, the first day of the Hebrew month.

- <sup>11</sup> Wisdom is better than pearls, and nothing you desire compares with her.

The Value of Wisdom

- <sup>12</sup>“I am Wisdom.
I live with Good Judgment.
I am at home with Knowledge and Planning.
<sup>13</sup> To respect the LORD means to hate evil.
I hate pride and boasting,
evil lives and hurtful words.
<sup>14</sup> I have good advice and common sense to offer.
I have understanding and power.
<sup>15</sup> With my help kings rule,
and governors make good laws.
<sup>16</sup> With my help leaders govern, and important officials make good decisions.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup> I love those who love me,
and those who look for me will find me.
<sup>18</sup> With me there are riches and honor.
I have lasting wealth to give to you.
<sup>19</sup> What I give is better than fine gold.
What I produce is better than pure silver.
<sup>20</sup> I lead people the right way—
along the paths of justice.
<sup>21</sup> I give riches to those who love me,
and I fill their houses with treasures.
<sup>22</sup>“The LORD made me in the beginning, long before he did anything else.
<sup>23</sup> I was formed a long time ago,
before the world was made.
<sup>24</sup> I was born before there was an ocean,
before the springs began to flow.
<sup>25</sup> I was born before the mountains and hills were set into place,
before the earth and fields were made,
before the dust of this world was formed.
<sup>27</sup> I was there
when he set up the skies, when he drew a circle in the ocean to make a place for the land.
<sup>28</sup> I was there when he put the clouds in the sky and made the deep springs flow.
<sup>29</sup> I was there when he set the limits on the sea to make it stop where he said.
I was there
when he laid the foundations of the earth.
<sup>30</sup> I grew up as a child by his side,<sup>b</sup> laughing and playing all the time.
<sup>31</sup> I played in the world he made and enjoyed the people he put there.

<sup>a</sup>8:16 and important ... decisions Or “as well as important officials, all the judges on earth.”

<sup>b</sup>8:30 I grew ... his side Or “I was beside him like a skilled worker.”

- <sup>32</sup>“Now, children, listen to me.
If you follow my ways,
you will be happy too.
<sup>33</sup> Listen to my teaching and be wise;
don’t ignore what I say.
<sup>34</sup> Whoever waits at my door and listens for me will be blessed.
<sup>35</sup> Those who find me find life,
and the LORD will reward them.
<sup>36</sup> But those who do not find me put their lives in danger.
Whoever hates me loves death.”

Wisdom’s Invitation

9<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house; she has made it strong with seven columns.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>She has cooked meat, mixed wine, and put food on the table. <sup>3</sup>She has sent her servant girls to announce from the highest hill in the city,<sup>d</sup> “Whoever needs instruction, come.” She invites all the simple people and says, <sup>5</sup>“Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have prepared. <sup>6</sup>Leave your old, foolish ways and live!
Advance along the path of understanding.”

<sup>7</sup>Criticize a person who is rude and shows no respect, and you will only get insults. Correct the wicked, and you will only get hurt.
<sup>8</sup>Don’t correct such people, or they will hate you. But correct those who are wise, and they will love you. <sup>9</sup>Teach the wise, and they will become wiser. Instruct those who live right, and they will gain more knowledge.

<sup>10</sup>Wisdom begins with fear and respect for the LORD. Knowledge of the Holy One leads to understanding. <sup>11</sup>Wisdom will help you live longer; she will add years to your life. <sup>12</sup>If you become wise, it will be for your own good. If you are rude and show no respect, you are the one who will suffer.

Foolishness—the Other Woman

<sup>13</sup>Foolishness is that other woman, who is loud, stupid, and knows nothing. <sup>14</sup>She sits on her chair at the door of her house, up on the highest hill of the city. <sup>15</sup>When people walk by, she calls out to them. They show no interest in her, but still she says, <sup>16</sup>“Whoever needs instruction, come.” She invites all the simple people and says, <sup>17</sup>“Stolen water is sweet. Stolen bread tastes good.” <sup>18</sup>Those simple people don’t realize that her house is full of ghosts and that her guests have entered the world of the dead.

Solomon’s Proverbs

10<sup>1</sup>These are the proverbs* of Solomon:
A wise son makes his father happy; a foolish one makes his mother sad.

<sup>c</sup>9:1 seven columns In ancient Israel, a good house was one that had four main rooms with seven columns to support the roof.

<sup>d</sup>9:3 Or “She has sent out her servant girls and invited people to come to the highest hill in the city to eat with her.”

<sup>23</sup>Correct someone, and later they will thank you. That is much better than just saying something to be nice.

<sup>24</sup>Someone might steal from their parents and say, "I did nothing wrong." But that person is as bad as an enemy who smashes everything in the house.

<sup>25</sup>Greedy people might sue you in court, but those who trust the LORD are rewarded.

<sup>26</sup>It is foolish to be too confident. Those who ask for advice are wise and will escape disaster.

<sup>28</sup>When the wicked rise to power, everyone hides. When they are defeated, good people multiply.

29 Some people refuse to bend when someone corrects them. Eventually they will break, and there will be no one to repair the damage.

<sup>2</sup>When the rulers are good, the people are happy. When the rulers are evil, the people complain.

<sup>3</sup>A son who loves wisdom makes his father happy. One who wastes his money on prostitutes will lose his wealth.

<sup>4</sup>A nation will be strong when it has a fair and just king. A nation will be weak when it has a king who is selfish and demands gifts.

<sup>5</sup>If you give false praise to others in order to get what you want, you are only setting a trap for yourself.

<sup>6</sup>Evil people are defeated by their sin, but good people will sing and be happy.

<sup>8</sup>Proud people who laugh at what is right cause problems that divide whole cities, but people who are wise are able to calm those who are angry.

<sup>9</sup>If someone who is wise tries to settle a problem with a fool, the fool will argue and say stupid things, and they will never agree.

<sup>10</sup>If you always try to be honest, murderers will hate you, but those who do what is right will want you to be their friend.

<sup>11</sup>Fools are quick to express their anger, but wise people are patient and control themselves.

<sup>13</sup>In one way the poor and those who steal from them are the same—the LORD made them both.

<sup>14</sup>If a king judges the poor fairly, he will rule for a long time.

<sup>15</sup>Punishment and discipline can make children wise, but children who are never corrected will bring shame to their mother.

<sup>16</sup>If the wicked are ruling the nation, sin will be everywhere, but those who live right will win in the end.

<sup>17</sup>Correct your children whenever they are wrong. Then you will always be proud of them. They will never make you ashamed.

<sup>18</sup>If a nation is not guided by God, the people will lose self-control, but the nation that obeys God's law will be happy.

<sup>19</sup>Servants will not learn a lesson if you only talk to them. They might understand you, but they will not obey.

<sup>20</sup>There is more hope for a fool than for someone who speaks without thinking.

<sup>21</sup>Give your servants everything they want, and they will learn to be wasteful.

<sup>22</sup>An angry person causes arguments, and someone who is quick-tempered is guilty of many sins.

<sup>23</sup>Your pride can bring you down. Humility will bring you honor.

<sup>24</sup>You are your own worst enemy if you take part in a crime. You will not be able to tell the truth even when people threaten you.

<sup>25</sup>Fear can be a trap, but if you trust in the LORD, you will be safe.

<sup>26</sup>Many people want the friendship of a ruler, but the LORD is the only one who judges people fairly.

<sup>27</sup>Good people think the wicked are disgusting, and the wicked feel disgust for those who are honest.

Wise Sayings of Agur Son of Jakeh

30 <sup>1</sup>These are the wise sayings of Agur son of Jakeh from Massa. He says, "God, I am tired, so tired. How can I keep going?"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup>I am stupid. I am not as smart as other people are. <sup>3</sup>I have not learned to be wise. I know nothing about the Holy One.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Who has ever gone up to heaven and come back down? Who gathered the winds in his hand? Who can gather up all the water in his lap? Who set the limits for the world? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Do you know?

<sup>5</sup>You can trust this: Every word that God speaks is true. God is a safe place for those who go to him. <sup>6</sup>So don't try to change what God says. If you do, he will punish you and prove that you are a liar.

<sup>7</sup>LORD, I ask you to do two things for me before I die. <sup>8</sup>Don't let me tell lies. And don't make me too rich or too poor—give me only enough food for each day. <sup>9</sup>If I have too much, I might deny that I need you, LORD. But if I am too poor, I might steal and bring shame to the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup>Never say bad things about a slave to his master. If you do, he will curse* you, and you will suffer for it.

<sup>12</sup>Some people think they are pure, but they have done nothing to remove the filth of their sin.

<sup>13</sup>Some people are so proud of themselves, and they look down on everyone else.

<sup>14</sup>There are people whose teeth are like swords and their jaws like knives. They take everything they can from the poor.

<sup>15</sup>Greedy people know only two things<sup>a</sup>: "Give me," and "Give me." There are three other things that are never satisfied—really, four things that never have enough: <sup>16</sup>the place of death, a woman with no children, dry ground that needs rain, and a fire that will never stop by itself.

<sup>18</sup>There are three things that are hard for me to understand—really, four things that I don't understand: <sup>19</sup>an eagle flying in the sky, a snake moving on a rock, a ship moving across the ocean, and a man in love with a woman.

<sup>20</sup>A woman who is not faithful to her husband acts innocent. She eats, wipes her mouth, and says she has done nothing wrong.

<sup>21</sup>There are three things that make trouble on the earth—really, four that the earth cannot bear: <sup>22</sup>a slave who becomes a king, fools who have everything they need, <sup>23</sup>a woman whose husband hated her but still married her, and a servant girl who becomes ruler over the woman she serves.

<sup>24</sup>There are four things on the earth that are small but very wise:

- <sup>25</sup> Ants are small and weak, but they save their food all summer;
- <sup>26</sup> badgers are small animals, but they make their homes in the rocks;
- <sup>27</sup> locusts have no king, but they are able to work together;
- <sup>28</sup> lizards are small enough to catch with your hands, but you can find them living in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup>There are three things that act important when they walk—really, there are four:

- <sup>30</sup> a lion—he is the warrior of the animals and runs from nothing,
- <sup>31</sup> a rooster walking proudly,<sup>b</sup> a goat, and a king among his people.

<sup>32</sup>If you have been foolish enough to become proud and make plans against other people, stop and think about what you are doing.

<sup>33</sup>Stirring milk causes butter to form. Hitting someone's nose causes blood to flow. And making people angry causes trouble.

Wise Words for a King

31 <sup>1</sup>These are the wise sayings that King Lemuel's mother taught him:

<sup>8</sup>Speak up for people who cannot speak for themselves. Help people who are in trouble. <sup>9</sup>Stand up for what you know is right, and judge all people fairly. Protect the rights of the poor and those who need help.

The Perfect Wife

- <sup>10c</sup> How hard it is to find the perfect wife.<sup>d</sup> She is worth far more than jewels.
- <sup>11</sup> Her husband depends on her. He will never be poor.
- <sup>12</sup> She does good for her husband all her life. She never causes him trouble.
- <sup>13</sup> She is always gathering wool and flax<sup>e</sup> and enjoys making things with her hands.
- <sup>14</sup> She is like a ship from a faraway place. She brings home food from everywhere.
- <sup>15</sup> She wakes up early in the morning, cooks food for her family, and gives the servants their share.
- <sup>16</sup> She looks at land and buys it. She uses the money she has earned and plants a vineyard.
- <sup>17</sup> She works very hard.

- She is strong and able to do all her work.
- 18 She works late into the night to make sure her business earns a profit.
- 19 She makes her own thread and weaves her own cloth.
- 20 She always gives to the poor and helps those who need it.
- 21 She does not worry about her family when it snows. She has given them all good, warm clothes.
- 22 She makes sheets and spreads for the beds, and she wears clothes of fine linen.
- 23 Her husband is a respected member of the city council, where he meets with the other leaders.
- 24 She makes clothes and belts and sells them to the merchants.*
- 25 She is a strong person,<sup>a</sup> and people respect her. She looks to the future with confidence.
- 26 She speaks with wisdom and teaches others to be loving and kind.
- 27 She oversees the care of her house. She is never lazy.
- 28 Her children say good things about her. Her husband brags about her and says,
- 29 "There are many good women, but you are the best."
- 30 Grace and beauty can fool you, but a woman who respects the LORD should be praised.
- 31 Give her the reward she deserves. Praise her in public for what she has done.

Ecclesiastes

1 <sup>1</sup>These are the words from the Teacher, a son of David and king of Jerusalem.

Things Never Change

<sup>4</sup>People live and people die, but the earth continues forever. <sup>5</sup>The sun rises and the sun goes down, and then it hurries to rise again in the same place.

<sup>6</sup>The wind blows to the south, and the wind blows to the north. The wind blows around and around. Then it turns and blows back to the place it began.

<sup>7</sup>All rivers flow again and again to the same place. They all flow to the sea, but the sea never becomes full.

<sup>8</sup>Words cannot fully explain things,<sup>d</sup> but people continue speaking.<sup>e</sup> Words come again and again to our ears, but our ears don't become full. And our eyes don't become full of what we see.

b1:2 meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means "vapor or breath" or "something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time."

c1:3 in this life Literally, "under the sun." Also in verses 9, 13.

d1:8 Words cannot fully explain things Literally, "All words are weak."

e1:8 but people continue speaking The Hebrew could also be translated, "People cannot speak."

Nothing Is New

<sup>9</sup>All things continue the way they have been since the beginning. The same things will be done that have always been done. There is nothing new in this life.

<sup>10</sup>Someone might say, "Look, this is new," but that thing has always been here. It was here before we were.

<sup>11</sup>People don't remember what happened long ago. In the future, they will not remember what is happening now. And later, other people will not remember what the people before them did.

Does Wisdom Bring Happiness?

<sup>12</sup>I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I decided to study and to use my wisdom to learn about everything that is done in this life. I learned that it is a very hard thing that God has given us to do. <sup>14</sup>I looked at everything done on earth, and I saw that it is all a waste of time. It is like trying to catch the wind.<sup>f</sup> <sup>15</sup>If something is crooked, you cannot say it is straight. And if something is missing, you cannot say it is there.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, "I am very wise. I am wiser than all the kings who ruled Jerusalem before me. I know what wisdom and knowledge really are."

f1:14 trying to catch the wind Or "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving," and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind." Also in verse 17.

<sup>17</sup>I decided to learn how wisdom and knowledge are better than thinking foolish thoughts. But I learned that trying to become wise is like trying to catch the wind. <sup>18</sup>With much wisdom comes frustration. The one who gains more wisdom also gains more sorrow.

Does "Having Fun" Bring Happiness?

2 I said to myself, "I should have fun—I should enjoy everything as much as I can." But I learned that this is also useless. <sup>2</sup>It is foolish to laugh all the time. Having fun does not do any good.

<sup>3</sup>So I decided to fill my body with wine while I filled my mind with wisdom. I tried this foolishness because I wanted to find a way to be happy. I wanted to see what was good for people to do during their few days of life.

Does Hard Work Bring Happiness?

<sup>4</sup>Then I began doing great things. I built houses, and I planted vineyards* for myself. <sup>5</sup>I planted gardens, and I made parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees. <sup>6</sup>I made pools of water for myself, and I used them to water my growing trees. <sup>7</sup>I bought men and women slaves, and there were slaves born in my house. I owned many great things. I had herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. I owned more things than any other person in Jerusalem did.

<sup>8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I took treasures from kings and their nations. I had men and women singing for me. I had everything any man could want.

<sup>9</sup>I became very rich and famous. I was greater than anyone who lived in Jerusalem before me. My wisdom was always there to help me. <sup>10</sup>Anything my eyes saw and wanted, I got for myself. My mind was pleased with everything I did. And this happiness was the reward for all my hard work.

<sup>11</sup>But then I looked at everything I had done and the wealth I had gained. I decided it was all a waste of time! It was like trying to catch the wind.<sup>a</sup> There is nothing to gain from anything we do in this life.<sup>b</sup>

Maybe Wisdom Is the Answer

<sup>12</sup>Then I decided to think about what it means to be wise or to be foolish or to do crazy things. And I thought about the one who will be the next king. The new king will do the same as the kings before him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>I saw that wisdom is better than foolishness in the same way that light is better than darkness.

a2:11 trying to catch the wind Or "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving," and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind." Also in verses 17, 26.

b2:11 in this life Literally, "under the sun." Also in verses 17, 22.

c2:12 And I thought ... before him The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

<sup>14</sup>Wise people use their minds like eyes to see where they are going. But for fools, it is as if they are walking in the dark.

I also saw that fools and wise people both end the same way. <sup>15</sup>I thought to myself, "The same thing that happens to a fool will also happen to me. So why have I tried so hard to become wise?" I said to myself, "Being wise is also useless." <sup>16</sup>Whether people are wise or foolish, they will still die, and no one will remember either one of them forever. In the future, people will forget everything both of them did. So the two are really the same.

Is There Real Happiness in Life?

<sup>17</sup>This made me hate life. It was depressing to think that everything in this life is useless, like trying to catch the wind.

<sup>18</sup>I began to hate all the hard work I had done, because I saw that the people who live after me will get the things that I worked for. I will not be able to take them with me. <sup>19</sup>Some other person will control everything I worked and studied for. And I don't know if that person will be wise or foolish. This is also senseless.

<sup>20</sup>So I became sad about all the work I had done. <sup>21</sup>People can work hard using all their wisdom and knowledge and skill. But they will die and other people will get the things they worked for. They did not do the work, but they will get everything. That makes me very sad. It is also not fair and is senseless.

<sup>22</sup>What do people really have after all their work and struggling in this life? <sup>23</sup>Throughout their life, they have pain, frustrations, and hard work. Even at night, a person's mind does not rest. This is also senseless.

<sup>24-25</sup>There is no one who has tried to enjoy life more than I have. And this is what I learned: The best thing people can do is eat, drink, and enjoy the work they must do. I also saw that this comes from God.<sup>d</sup> <sup>26</sup>If people do good and please God, he will give them wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But those who sin will get only the work of gathering and carrying things. God takes from the bad person and gives to the good person. But all this work is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.

A Time for Everything

3 <sup>1</sup>There is a right time for everything, and everything on earth will happen at the right time.

- <sup>2</sup> There is a time to be born and a time to die.
There is a time to plant
and a time to pull up plants.
- <sup>3</sup> There is a time to kill and a time to heal.

d2:24-25 Or "<sup>24</sup>The best people can do is eat, drink, and enjoy their work. I also saw that this comes from God. <sup>25</sup>No one can eat or enjoy life without God."

- There is a time to destroy and a time to build.
- 4 There is a time to cry
and a time to laugh.
There is a time to be sad
and a time to dance with joy.
- 5 There is a time to throw weapons down and a time to pick them up.<sup>a</sup>
There is a time to hug someone and a time to stop holding so tightly.
- 6 There is a time to look for something and a time to consider it lost.
There is a time to keep things and a time to throw things away.
- 7 There is a time to tear cloth and a time to sew it.
There is a time to be silent and a time to speak.
- 8 There is a time to love
and a time to hate.
There is a time for war
and a time for peace.

God Controls His World

<sup>9</sup>Do people really gain anything from their hard work? <sup>10</sup>I saw all the hard work God gave us to do. <sup>11</sup>God gave us the ability to think about his world,<sup>b</sup> but we can never completely understand everything he does. And yet, he does everything at just the right time.

<sup>12</sup>I learned that the best thing for people to do is to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live. <sup>13</sup>God wants everyone to eat, drink, and enjoy their work. These are gifts from God.

<sup>14</sup>I learned that anything God does will continue forever. People cannot add anything to the work of God, and they cannot take anything away from it. God did this so that people would respect him. <sup>15</sup>What happened in the past has happened, and what will happen in the future will happen. But God wants to help those who have been treated badly.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>16</sup>I also saw these things in this life<sup>d</sup>: I saw that the courts should be filled with goodness and fairness, but there is evil there now. <sup>17</sup>So I said to myself, "God has planned a time for everything, and he has planned a time to judge everything people do. He will judge good people and bad people."

Are People Like Animals?

<sup>18</sup>I thought about what people do to each other. And I said to myself, "God wants people to see that they are like animals. <sup>19</sup>The same thing happens to animals and to people—they die. People and animals have the same 'breath.'<sup>e</sup> Is a dead animal different from a dead person? It is all so senseless! <sup>20</sup>The bodies of people and animals end the same way. They came from the earth, and, in the end, they will go back to the earth. <sup>21</sup>Who knows what happens to a person's spirit? Who knows if a human's spirit goes up to God while an animal's spirit goes down into the ground?"

<sup>22</sup>So I saw that the best thing people can do is to enjoy what they do, because that is all they have. Besides, no one can help another person see what will happen in the future.

Is It Better to Be Dead?

4 <sup>1</sup>Again I saw that many people are treated badly. I saw their tears, and I saw that there was no one to comfort them. I saw that cruel people had all the power, and I saw that there was no one to comfort the people they hurt. <sup>2</sup>I decided that it is better for those who have died than for those who are still alive. <sup>3</sup>And it is even better for those who die at birth, because they never saw the evil that is done in this world.<sup>f</sup>

Why Work So Hard?

<sup>4</sup>Then I thought, "Why do people work so hard?" I saw people try to succeed and be better than other people. They do this because they are jealous. They don't want other people to have more than they have. This is senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Some people say, "It is foolish to fold your hands and do nothing. If you don't work, you will starve to death." <sup>6</sup>Maybe that is true. But I say it is better to be satisfied with the few things you have than to always be struggling to get more.

<sup>7</sup>Again I saw something else that didn't make sense: <sup>8</sup>I saw a man who has no family, not a son or even a brother. But he continues to work very hard. He is never satisfied with what he has. And he works so hard that he never stops and asks himself, "Why am I working so hard? Why don't I let myself enjoy my life?" This is also a very bad and senseless thing.

Friends and Family Give Strength

<sup>9</sup>Two people are better than one. When two people work together, they get more work done.

<sup>10</sup>If one person falls, the other person can reach out to help. But those who are alone when they fall have no one to help them.

<sup>11</sup>If two people sleep together, they will be warm. But a person sleeping alone will not be warm.

<sup>g</sup>4:4 trying to catch the wind Or "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving," and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind." Also in verse 16.

<sup>c</sup>3:15 Or "What happens now also happened in the past. What happens in the future has also happened before. God makes things happen again and again."

<sup>12</sup>An enemy might be able to defeat one person, but two people can stand back-to-back to defend each other. And three people are even stronger. They are like a rope that has three parts wrapped together—it is very hard to break.

People, Politics, and Popularity

<sup>13</sup>A young leader who is poor but wise is better than a king who is old but foolish. That old king does not listen to warnings. <sup>14</sup>Maybe the young ruler was born a poor man in the kingdom. And maybe he came from prison to rule the country. <sup>15</sup>But I have watched people in this life,<sup>a</sup> and I know this: People will follow that young man. He will become the new king. <sup>16</sup>Many people will follow this young man. But later, those same people will not like him. This is also senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.

Be Careful About Making Promises

5 <sup>1</sup>Be very careful when you go to worship God. It is better to listen to God than to give sacrifices* like fools. Fools often do bad things, and they don't even know it. <sup>2</sup>Be careful when you make promises to God. Be careful about what you say to him. Don't let your feelings cause you to speak too soon. God is in heaven, and you are on the earth. So you need to say only a few things to him. This saying is true:

<sup>3</sup> Bad dreams come from too many worries, and too many words come from the mouth of a fool.

<sup>4</sup>If you make a promise to God, keep your promise. Don't be slow to do what you promised. God is not happy with fools. Give God what you promised to give him. <sup>5</sup>It is better to promise nothing than to promise something and not be able to do it. <sup>6</sup>So don't let your words cause you to sin. Don't say to the priest,<sup>b</sup> "I didn't mean what I said." If you do this, God might become angry with your words and destroy everything you have worked for. <sup>7</sup>You should not let your useless dreams and bragging bring you trouble. You should respect God.

For Every Ruler There Is a Ruler

<sup>8</sup>In some country you will see poor people who are forced to work very hard. You will see that this is not fair to them. It is against their rights. But don't be surprised! The ruler who forces them to work has another ruler who forces him. And there is still another ruler who forces both of these rulers. <sup>9</sup>Even the king is a slave—his country owns him.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>b</sup>5:6 priest Or "angel" or "messenger." This might be an angel, a priest, or a prophet.

<sup>c</sup>5:8-9 The ruler ... owns him Or "One ruler is cheated by a higher ruler. And they are cheated by

Wealth Cannot Buy Happiness

<sup>10</sup>Those who love money will never be satisfied with the money they have. Those who love wealth will not be satisfied when they get more and more. This is also senseless.

<sup>11</sup>The more wealth people have, the more "friends" they have to help spend it. So the rich really gain nothing. They can only look at their wealth.

<sup>12</sup>Those who work hard all day come home and sleep in peace. It is not important if they have little or much to eat. But the rich worry about their wealth and are not able to sleep.

<sup>15</sup>People come into the world with nothing. And when they die, they leave with nothing. They might work hard to get things, but they cannot take anything with them when they die. <sup>16</sup>It is very sad that people leave the world just as they came. So what does a person gain from "trying to catch the wind"? <sup>17</sup>They only get days that are filled with sadness and sorrow. In the end, they are troubled, sick, and angry.

Enjoy Your Life's Work

<sup>18</sup>I have seen what is best for people to do on earth: They should eat, drink, and enjoy the work they have during their short time here. God has given them these few days, and that is all they have.

<sup>19</sup>If God gives some people wealth, property, and the power to enjoy those things, they should enjoy them. They should accept the things they have and enjoy their work—that is a gift from God. <sup>20</sup>People don't have many years to live, so they must remember these things all their life. God will keep them busy with the work they love to do.<sup>f</sup>

Wealth Does Not Bring Happiness

6 <sup>1</sup>I have seen another thing in this life that is not fair and is very hard to understand. <sup>2</sup>God gives some people great wealth, riches, and honor. They have everything they need and everything they could ever want. But then God does not let them enjoy those things. Some stranger comes and takes everything. This is a very bad and senseless thing.

<sup>3</sup>A man might live a long time and have 100 children. But if he is not satisfied with those good things, and if no one remembers him after his death, I say that a baby who dies at birth is better off than that man. <sup>4</sup>It is an even higher ruler. <sup>9</sup>Even the king gets his share of the profit. The wealth of the country is divided among them."

<sup>d</sup>5:13 in this life Literally, "under the sun." Also in 6:1.

senseless when a baby is born dead. The baby is quickly buried in a dark grave, without even a name.<sup>5</sup> The baby never saw the sun and never knew anything. But the baby finds more rest than the man who never enjoyed what God gave him.<sup>6</sup> He might live 2000 years. But if he does not enjoy life, then the baby who was born dead has found the easiest way to the same end.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>People work and work to feed themselves, but they are never satisfied.<sup>8</sup> In the same way a wise person is no better than a fool is. It is better to be a poor person who knows how to accept life as it is.<sup>9</sup> It is better to be happy with what you have than to always want more and more. Always wanting more and more is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10-11</sup>You are only what you were created to be—a human, and it is useless to argue about it. People cannot argue with God about this because he is more powerful than they are, and a long argument will not change that fact.

<sup>12</sup>Who knows what is best for people during their short life on earth? Their life passes like a shadow. No one can tell them what will happen later.

A Collection of Wise Teachings

7<sup>1</sup>A good reputation is better than expensive pleasures.<sup>c</sup>

The day someone dies is better than the day they were born.

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to a funeral than to a party, because everyone must die, and the living need to remember this.

<sup>3</sup> Sorrow is even better than laughter, because when our face is sad, our heart becomes good.

<sup>7</sup> Even the wise will forget their wisdom, if someone pays them enough. That money destroys their understanding.

<sup>b</sup>6:9 Or "Having what you can see is better than chasing after the things you want. This is also like trying to catch the wind."

<sup>d</sup>7:6 Or "The cackling of fools, like the crackling of thorns under a pot, is senseless."

It is better to be gentle and patient than to be proud and impatient.

What happened?"

Wisdom does not lead us to ask that question.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is better if you also have property. Wise people<sup>e</sup> will get more than enough wealth. <sup>12</sup>Wisdom and money can protect you. But knowledge gained through wisdom is even better—it can save your life.

<sup>13</sup>Look at what God has made. You cannot change a thing, even if you think it is wrong. <sup>14</sup>When life is good, enjoy it. But when life is hard, remember that God gives us good times and hard times. And no one knows what will happen in the future.

People Cannot Really Be Good

<sup>15</sup>In my short life, I have seen everything. I have seen good people die young, and I have seen evil people live long lives. <sup>16-17</sup>So why ruin your life? Don't be too good or too bad, and don't be too wise or too foolish. Why should you die before your time?

<sup>18</sup>Try to be a little of this and a little of that.<sup>f</sup> Even God's followers will do some good things and some bad things. <sup>19-20</sup>Surely there is no one on earth who always does good and never sins. But wisdom can make one person stronger than ten leaders in a city.

<sup>21</sup>Don't listen to everything people say. You might hear your own servant saying bad things about you. <sup>22</sup>And you know that many times you too have said bad things about other people.

<sup>23</sup>I used my wisdom and thought about all these things. I wanted to be wise, but I couldn't do it. <sup>24</sup>I cannot understand why things are as they are. It is too hard for anyone to understand. <sup>25</sup>I studied and I tried very hard to find true wisdom. I tried to find a reason for everything.

I did learn that it is foolish to be evil, and it is crazy to act like a fool. <sup>26</sup>I also found that some women are dangerous like traps. Their hearts are like nets, and their arms are like chains. It is worse than death to be caught by these women. God's followers should run away from them. Let the sinners be caught by them.

<sup>27-28</sup>The Teacher says, "I added all this together to see what answer I could find. I am still looking for answers, but I did find this: I found one good man in a thousand. But I did not find even one good woman.

<sup>29</sup>“There is one other thing I have learned. God made people good, but they have found many ways to be bad.”

Wisdom and Power

8 <sup>1</sup>No one can understand and explain things the way wise people can. Their wisdom makes them happy. It changes a sad face into a happy one.

<sup>2</sup>I say you should always obey the king's command. Do this because you made a promise to God. <sup>3</sup>Don't be afraid to give suggestions to the king, and don't support something that is wrong. But remember, the king gives the commands that please him. <sup>4</sup>He has the authority to give commands, and no one can tell him what to do. <sup>5</sup>People will be safe if they obey his command. But wise people know the right time to do this, and they also know when to do the right thing.

<sup>6</sup>There is a right time and a right way to do everything. You must decide what you should do, even when it might cause problems <sup>7</sup>and you are not sure what will happen. No one can tell you what will happen in the future.

<sup>8</sup>No one has the power to keep their spirit from leaving or to stop their death. During war, no soldier has the freedom to go wherever he wants. In the same way evil does not allow anyone who does wrong to go free.

<sup>9</sup>I saw all this. I thought very hard about the things that happen in this world. I saw that people always struggle for the power to rule others, and this is bad for them.

<sup>10</sup>I also saw great and beautiful funerals for evil people. While the people were going home after the funeral services, they said good things about the evil people who had died. This happened even in the same towns where the evil people had done many bad things. This is senseless.

Justice, Rewards, and Punishment

<sup>11</sup>Sometimes people are not immediately punished for the bad things they do. Their punishment is slow to come, and that makes other people want to do bad things too.

<sup>12</sup>A sinner might do a hundred evil things and still live a long time. But I know that it is still better to obey and respect God. <sup>13</sup>Evil people don't respect God, so they will not get good things or live long lives. Their lives will not be like the shadows that become longer and longer as the sun goes down.

<sup>14</sup>There is something else that happens on earth that does not seem fair. Bad things should happen to bad people, and good things should happen to good people. But sometimes bad things happen to good people, and good things happen to bad people. This is not fair.

<sup>15</sup>So I decided it was more important to enjoy life because the best thing people can do in this life<sup>a</sup> is to eat, drink, and enjoy life. At least that will help people enjoy the hard work God gave them to do during their life on earth.

We Cannot Understand All God Does

<sup>16</sup>I carefully studied the things people do in this life. I saw how busy people are. They work day and night, and they almost never sleep. <sup>17</sup>I also saw the many things that God does, and I saw that people cannot understand all the work that God does on earth. You might try and try to understand, but you cannot. Even if some wise man says he understands what God does, it is not true. No one can understand all this.

Is Death Fair?

9 <sup>1</sup>I thought about all this very carefully. I saw that God controls what happens to the good and wise people and what they do. People don't know if they will be loved or hated, and they don't know what will happen in the future.

<sup>2</sup>But, there is one thing that happens to everyone—we all die! Death comes to good people and bad people. Death comes to those who are pure and to those who are not pure. Death comes to those who give sacrifices* and to those who don't give sacrifices. Good people will die just as sinners do. Those who make promises to God will die just as those who are afraid to make those promises.

<sup>3</sup>Of all the things that happen in this life, the worst thing is that all people end life the same way. But it is also very bad that people always think evil and foolish thoughts. And those thoughts lead to death. <sup>4</sup>There is hope for those who are still alive—it does not matter who they are. But this saying is true:

A living dog is better than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup>The living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. They have no more reward. People will soon forget them. <sup>6</sup>After people are dead, their love, hate, and jealousy are all gone. And they will never again share in what happens on earth.

Enjoy Life While You Can

<sup>7</sup>So go and eat your food now and enjoy it. Drink your wine and be happy. It is all right with God if you do these things. <sup>8</sup>Wear nice clothes and make yourself look good. <sup>9</sup>Enjoy life with the wife you love. Enjoy every day of your short life. God has given you this short life on earth—and it is all you have. So enjoy the work you have to do in this life. <sup>10</sup>Every time you find work to do, do it the best you can. In the grave there is no work. There is no thinking, no knowledge, and there is no wisdom. And we are all going to the place of death.

<sup>a</sup>8:15 in this life Literally, “under the sun.” Also in verse 16 and 9:3, 9, 11, 13.

Life Is Not Fair

<sup>11</sup>I also saw other things in this life that were not fair. The fastest runner does not always win the race; the strongest soldier does not always win the battle; wise people don't always get the food; smart people don't always get the wealth; educated people don't always get the praise they deserve. When the time comes, bad things can happen to anyone!

<sup>12</sup>You never know when hard times will come. Like fish in a net or birds in a snare, people are often trapped by some disaster that suddenly falls on them.

The Power of Wisdom

<sup>13</sup>I also saw a person doing a wise thing in this life, and it seemed very important to me.

<sup>14</sup>There was a small town with a few people in it. A great king fought against that town and put his armies all around it. <sup>15</sup>But there was a wise man in that town. He was poor, but he used his wisdom to save his town. After everything was finished, the people forgot about the poor man. <sup>16</sup>But I still say that wisdom is better than strength. They forgot about the poor man's wisdom, and the people stopped listening to what he said. But I still believe that wisdom is better.

10 <sup>1A</sup> few dead flies will make even the best perfume stink. In the same way, a little foolishness can ruin much wisdom and honor.

<sup>4</sup>Don't quit your job simply because the boss is angry with you. If you remain calm and helpful, you can correct even great mistakes.<sup>b</sup>

not important. <sup>7</sup>I have seen servants riding on horses, while rulers were walking beside them like slaves.

Every Job Has Its Dangers

<sup>8</sup>If you dig a hole, you might fall into it. If you break down a wall, you might be bitten by a snake. <sup>9</sup>If you are moving large stones, you might be hurt by them. If you cut down a tree, you are in danger of it falling on you.

<sup>10</sup>But wisdom will make any job easier. It is very hard to cut with a dull knife. But if you sharpen the knife, the job is easier.

<sup>11</sup>Someone might know how to control snakes. But that skill is useless if a snake bites when that person is not around.

<sup>13</sup>Fools begin by saying something foolish. But in the end, they speak nonsense. <sup>14</sup>Fools are always talking about what they will do, but you never know what will happen. People cannot tell what will happen in the future.

The Value of Work

<sup>16</sup>It is very bad for a country if the king is like a child. And it is very bad for a country if its rulers use all their time eating. <sup>17</sup>But it is very good for a country if the king comes from a good family.<sup>d</sup> And it is very good for a country if the rulers control their eating and drinking. They eat and drink to become strong, not to become drunk.

<sup>18</sup> If someone is too lazy to work, their house will begin to leak, and the roof will fall in.

<sup>19</sup>People enjoy eating, and wine makes life happier. But money solves a lot of problems.

Gossip

<sup>20</sup>Don't say bad things about the king. Don't even think bad things about him. And don't say bad things about rich people, even if you are alone in your home. A little bird might fly and tell them everything you said.

Boldly Face the Future

11 <sup>1</sup>Do good wherever you go.<sup>e</sup> After a while, the good you do will come back to you.

<sup>3</sup>There are some things you can be sure of. If clouds are full of rain, they will pour water on the earth. If a tree falls—to the south or to the north—then it will stay where it falls.

<sup>4</sup>But there are some things that you cannot be sure of. You must take a chance. If you wait for perfect weather, you will never plant your seeds. If you are afraid that every cloud will bring rain, you will never harvest your crops.

<sup>5</sup>You don't know where the wind blows. And you don't know how a baby grows in its mother's womb. In the same way, you don't know what God will do—and he makes everything happen.

<sup>6</sup>So begin planting early in the morning, and don't stop working until evening. You don't know what might make you rich. Maybe everything you do will be successful.

<sup>7</sup>It is good to be alive. It is nice to see the light from the sun. <sup>8</sup>You should enjoy every day of your life, no matter how long you live. But remember that you will die, and you will be dead much longer than you were alive. And after you are dead, you cannot do anything.

Serve God While You Are Young

<sup>9</sup>So young people, enjoy yourselves while you are young. Be happy. Do whatever your heart leads you to do. Do whatever you want, but remember that God will judge you for everything you do. <sup>10</sup>Don't let your anger control you, and don't let your body lead you to sin.<sup>b</sup> People do foolish things in the dawn of life while they are young.

The Problems of Old Age

12<sup>1</sup>Remember your Creator while you are young, before the bad times come—before the years come when you say, “I have wasted my life.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Remember your Creator while you are young, before the time comes when the sun and the moon and the stars become dark to you—before problems come again and again like one storm after another.

<sup>3</sup>At that time your arms will lose their strength. Your legs will become weak and bent. Your teeth will fall out, and you will not be able to chew your food. Your eyes will not see clearly. <sup>4</sup>You will become hard of hearing. You will not hear the noise in the streets. Even the stone grinding your grain will seem quiet to you. You will not be able to hear the women singing. But even the sound of a bird singing will wake you early in the morning because you will not be able to sleep.

<sup>5</sup>You will be afraid of high places. You will be afraid of tripping over every small thing in your path. Your hair will become white like the flowers on an almond tree. You will drag yourself along like a grasshopper when you walk. You will lose your desire,<sup>d</sup> and then you will go to your eternal home. The mourners* will gather in the streets as they carry your body to the grave.

Death

- <sup>6</sup> Remember your Creator while you are young, before the silver rope snaps and the golden bowl is crushed like a jar broken at the well, like a stone cover on a well that breaks and falls in.
- <sup>7</sup> Your body came from the earth. And when you die, it will return to the earth. But your spirit came from God, and when you die, it will return to him.

<sup>8</sup>Everything is so meaningless. The Teacher says that it is all a waste of time!<sup>e</sup>

Final Words of Advice

<sup>9</sup>The Teacher was very wise. He used his wisdom to teach the people. He very carefully studied and arranged<sup>f</sup> many wise teachings. <sup>10</sup>The Teacher tried very hard to find the right words, and he wrote the teachings that are true and dependable.

<sup>11</sup>Words from the wise are like sharp goods.* When these sayings are written down and saved, they can be used to guide people, just as a shepherd uses a sharp stick to make his sheep go the right way. <sup>12</sup>So, son, study these sayings, but be careful about other teachings. People are always writing books, and too much study will make you very tired.

<sup>13-14</sup>Now, what should we learn from everything that is written in this book?<sup>g</sup> The most important thing a person can do is to respect God and obey his commands, because he knows about everything people do—even the secret things. He knows about all the good and all the bad, and he will judge people for everything they do.

<sup>e</sup>12:8 meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means “vapor,” “breath,” or “something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time.”

912:13-14 Now ... book Literally, “The sum of the matter, when all is heard, is ...”

<sup>c</sup>12:1 I have wasted my life Literally, “I take no pleasure in them.” This might mean “I don't like the things I did when I was young” or “I don't enjoy life now that I am old.”

Song of Songs

1 <sup>1</sup>Solomon's Most Wonderful Song.

The Woman to the Man She Loves

- <sup>2</sup> Cover me with kisses, for your love is better than wine.
<sup>3</sup> Your perfume smells wonderful, but your name<sup>a</sup> is sweeter than the best perfume.
That is why the young women love you.
<sup>4</sup> Take me with you.
Let's run away.

The king took me into his room.

The Women of Jerusalem to the Man

We will rejoice and be happy for you.
Remember, your love is better than
wine.
With good reason, the young women
love you.

She Speaks to the Women

- <sup>5</sup> Daughters of Jerusalem,
I am dark and beautiful,
as black as the tents of Kedar and Salma.<sup>b</sup> <sup>6</sup> Don't look at how dark I am,
at how dark the sun has made me.
My brothers were angry with me.
They forced me to take care of their vineyards,*
so I could not take care of myself.<sup>c</sup>

She Speaks to Him

- <sup>7</sup> I love you with all my soul!
Tell me, where do you feed your sheep?
Where do you lay them down at noon?
[I should come to be with you,
or I will be like a hired woman<sup>d</sup> caring for the sheep of your friends.

He Speaks to Her

- <sup>8</sup> You are such a beautiful woman.
Surely you know what to do.
Go, follow the sheep.

Feed your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

- <sup>9</sup> My darling, you are more exciting to me than any mare among the stallions<sup>e</sup> pulling Pharaoh's chariots.<sup>f</sup> [Those horses have beautiful decorations at the side of their faces and around their necks.]
<sup>10–11</sup> Here are the decorations made for you, a golden headband<sup>g</sup> and a silver necklace.
Your cheeks are so beautiful decorated with gold.
Your neck is so beautiful laced with silver.

She Speaks

- <sup>12</sup> The smell of my perfume reaches out to the king lying on his couch.
<sup>13</sup> My lover is like the small bag of myrrh* around my neck,
lying all night between my breasts.
<sup>14</sup> My lover is like a bunch of henna flowers near the vineyards* of En Gedi.

He Speaks

- <sup>15</sup> My darling, you are so beautiful!
Oh, you are beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves.

She Speaks

- <sup>16</sup> You are so handsome, my lover!
Yes, and so charming!
Our bed is so fresh and pleasant.<sup>h</sup> <sup>17</sup> The beams of our house are cedar.
The rafters are fir.

2 <sup>1</sup>I am a rose on the plain of Sharon,<sup>i</sup> a lily<sup>j</sup> in the valleys.

<sup>g</sup>1:10–11 headband The meaning of this Hebrew word here is uncertain. It might be a headband with decorations dangling at the cheeks.

<sup>j</sup>2:1 lily A kind of flower. Here, it is probably a red flower.

He Speaks

- 2 My darling, among other women,
you are like a lily among thorns!

She Speaks

- 3 My lover, among other men,
you are an apple tree among the wild trees in the forest!

She Speaks to the Women

- I enjoy sitting in my lover's shadow;
his fruit is so sweet to my taste.
4 My lover took me to the wine house;
his intent toward me was love.
5 Strengthen me with raisins<sup>a</sup>; refresh me with apples, because I am weak with love.<sup>b</sup> 6 My lover's left arm is under my head,
and his right arm holds me.
7 Women of Jerusalem, promise me by the
gazelles* and wild deer,
don't awaken love,
don't arouse love, until I am ready.<sup>c</sup>

She Speaks Again

- 8 I hear my lover's voice.
Here it comes,
jumping over the mountains,
skipping over the hills.
9 My lover is like a gazelle*
or a young deer.
Look at him standing behind our wall,
staring out the window,
looking through the lattice.<sup>d</sup> 10 My lover speaks to me,
"Get up, my darling, my beautiful one.
Let's go away!"
11 Look, winter is past,
the rains have come and gone.
12 The flowers are blooming in the fields.
It's time to sing!<sup>e</sup>
Listen, the doves have returned.
13 Young figs are growing on the fig trees.
Smell the vines in bloom.
Get up, my darling, my beautiful one.
Let's go away!"

He Speaks

- 14 My dove,
hiding in the caves high on the cliff,
hidden here on the mountain,
let me see you,
let me hear your voice.
Your voice is so pleasant,
and you are so beautiful!

She Speaks to the Women

- 15 Catch the foxes for us—
the little foxes that spoil the vineyard.*

Our vineyard is now in bloom.

- 16 My lover is mine,
and I am his!
My lover feeds among the lilies,
17 while the day breathes its last breath
and the shadows run away.
Turn, my lover,
be like a gazelle* or a young deer on the cleft mountains!<sup>f</sup>

She Speaks

- 3<sup>1</sup> At night on my bed,
I look for the man I love.
I looked for him,
but I could not find him.
2 I will get up now!
I will go around the city.
In the streets and squares,
I will look for the man I love.
I looked for him,
but I could not find him.
3 The guards patrolling the city found me.
I asked them, "Have you seen the man I love?"

- 4 I had just left the guards
when I found the man I love!
I held him.
I would not let him go,
while I took him to my mother's house,
to the room of one who bore<sup>g</sup> me.

She Speaks to the Women

- 5 Women of Jerusalem, promise me by the
gazelles* and wild deer,
don't awaken love,
don't arouse love, until I am ready.<sup>h</sup>

The Women of Jerusalem Speak

- 6 Who is this woman
coming from the desert?
[with this large group of people?]
The dust rises behind them like clouds of smoke from burning myrrh* and frankincense* and other spices.<sup>i</sup>

- 7 Look, Solomon's traveling chair.<sup>k</sup>
There are 60 soldiers guarding it, strong soldiers of Israel.
8 All of them are trained fighting men with their swords at their side, ready for any danger of the night.

<sup>f</sup>2:17 the cleft mountains Or "the mountains of Bethel" or "the mountains of spice."

<sup>g</sup>3:4 bore Or "taught." See 8:2.

<sup>j</sup>3:6 spices Literally, "powders of the trader." These were imported spices and incense.

<sup>k</sup>3:7 traveling chair A kind of chair that the rich traveled in. These chairs were covered and had poles that slaves used to carry them. Also in verse 9.

- 9 King Solomon made a traveling chair for himself.
The wood came from Lebanon.
- 10 The poles were made from silver,
and the supports were made from gold.
The seat was covered with purple cloth.
It was inlaid with love by the women of Jerusalem.
- 11 Women of Zion, come out and see King Solomon.
See the crown<sup>a</sup> his mother put on him
the day he was married,
the day he was so happy!

He Speaks to Her

- 4 <sup>1</sup>My darling, you are so beautiful!
Oh, you are beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves
under your veil.
Your hair is long and flowing,
like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
- 2 Your teeth are white like ewes<sup>b</sup>
just coming from their bath.
They all give birth to twins;
not one of them has lost a baby.
- 3 Your lips are like a red silk thread.
Your mouth is beautiful.
Your cheeks under your veil are like two slices of pomegranate.*
- 4 Your neck is long and thin like David's tower.
That tower was built to be decorated<sup>c</sup>
with a thousand shields on its walls, with the shields of powerful soldiers.
- 5 Your breasts are like twin fawns,* like twins of a gazelle,* feeding among the lilies.
- 6 I will go to that mountain of myrrh* and to that hill of frankincense*
while the day breathes its last breath,
and the shadows run away.
- 7 My darling, you are beautiful all over.
Every part of you is perfect.
- 8 Come with me, my bride, from Lebanon.
Come with me from Lebanon.
Come from the peak of Amana,<sup>d</sup> from the top of Senir<sup>e</sup> and Hermon, from the lion's caves,
from the mountain of the leopards.
- 9 My darling,<sup>f</sup> my bride,

<sup>a</sup>3:11 crown This might be a wreath of flowers he wore on his head at his wedding.

<sup>e</sup>4:8 Senir The Amorite word for "Snow Mountain." This means Mount Hermon.

- you excite me!
You have stolen my heart
with just one quick look from your eyes, with just one of the jewels from your
necklace.
- 10 Your love is so beautiful, my darling, my bride!
Your love is better than wine.
The smell of your perfume is better than any kind of spice!
- 11 My bride, your lips drip honey.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes smell as sweet as perfume.<sup>g</sup>
- 12 My darling, my bride, you are pure,
like a locked garden.
You are like a locked pool,
a closed fountain.
- 13 Your limbs are like a garden filled with pomegranates and other pleasant fruit,
with all the best spices:
henna,<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>nard,* saffron,<sup>i</sup> calamus,<sup>j</sup> and cinnamon.<sup>k</sup>
Your limbs are like a garden filled with trees of frankincense,* myrrh,* and aloe.*
- 15 You are like a garden fountain—
a well of fresh water—flowing down from the mountains of Lebanon.

She Speaks

- 16 Wake up, north wind.
Come, south wind.
Blow on my garden.
Spread its sweet smell.
Let my lover enter his garden and eat its pleasant fruit.

He Speaks

- 5 <sup>1</sup>My darling my bride, I have entered my garden.
I have gathered my myrrh* and spice.
I have eaten my honey and honeycomb.
I have drunk my wine and milk.

The Women Speak to the Lovers

Dearest friends, eat, drink!
Be drunk with love!

She Speaks

- 2 I am asleep,
but my heart is awake.
I hear my lover knocking, saying,

<sup>h</sup>4:13-14 henna A plant with sweet-smelling, blue-yellow flowers that grows in clusters (groups) like grapes.

<sup>k</sup>4:13-14 cinnamon A kind of plant used as a spice and in making perfume.

"Open to me, my darling, my love, my dove, my perfect one!
My head is soaked with dew.
My hair is wet with the mist of the night."

- <sup>3</sup>"I have taken off my robe.<sup>a</sup>
I don't want to put it on again.
I have washed my feet.
I don't want to get them dirty again."
- <sup>4</sup> But my lover put his hand through the opening,<sup>b</sup> and I felt sorry for him.<sup>c</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> I got up to open for my lover,
myrrh<sup>d</sup> dripping from my hands,
myrrh scented lotion dripped from my fingers onto the handles of the lock.
- <sup>6</sup> I opened for my lover, but my lover had turned away and was gone!
I nearly died
when he came and went.<sup>d</sup>
I looked for him,
but I couldn't find him.
I called for him,
but he didn't answer me.
- <sup>7</sup> The guards patrolling the city found me.
They hit me.
They hurt me.
The guards on the wall
took my robe from me.
- <sup>8</sup> I tell you, women of Jerusalem,
if you find my lover, tell him I am weak with love.<sup>e</sup>

The Women of Jerusalem Answer Her

- <sup>9</sup> Beautiful woman, how is your lover different from other lovers?
Is your lover better than other lovers?
Is that why you ask us to make this promise?

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>10</sup> My lover is tanned and radiant.
He would stand out among 10,000 men.
- <sup>11</sup> His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is curly and as black as a raven.
- <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves by a stream, like doves in a pool of milk,
like a jewel in its setting.

<sup>a</sup>5:3 robe Or "veil," a piece of cloth used to cover a person's face. Also in verse 7.

<sup>b</sup>5:4 put ... opening Or "pulled his hand from the opening." In one sense, this might refer to a lock and key. Some ancient keys were shaped like a hand.

The key was inserted through a hole in the door, and the "fingers" fit into special holes that allowed the bolt to slide, locking and unlocking the door.

<sup>e</sup>5:8 I am weak with love Or "I am lovesick."

- <sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like a garden of spices, like flowers used for perfume.
His lips are like lilies,<sup>f</sup> dripping with liquid myrrh.*
- <sup>14</sup> His arms are like gold rods, filled with jewels.
His body is like smooth ivory with sapphires* set in it.
- <sup>15</sup> His legs are like marble pillars on bases of fine gold.
He stands tall
like the finest cedar tree in Lebanon!
- <sup>16</sup> Yes, women of Jerusalem, my lover is everything I desire.
His mouth is the sweetest of all.
This is my lover;
this is my darling.

The Women of Jerusalem Speak to Her

- 6 <sup>1</sup>Beautiful woman,
where has your lover gone?
Which way did your lover go?
Tell us so that we can help you look for him.

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>2</sup> My lover has gone down to his garden, to the flower beds of spices.
He went to feed in the gardens and to gather the lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> I belong to my lover,
and my lover belongs to me.
He is the one feeding among the lilies.

He Speaks to Her

- <sup>4</sup> My darling, you are as beautiful as Tirzah,<sup>g</sup>
as pleasant as Jerusalem, as awesome as the stars in the sky.<sup>h</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> Don't look at me!
Your eyes excite me too much!
And your hair is long and flowing,
like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
- <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are white like ewes'
just coming from their bath.
They all give birth to twins.
Not one of them has lost a baby.
- <sup>7</sup> Your cheeks under your veil are like slices of pomegranate.*
- <sup>8</sup> There might be 60 queens and 80 slave women,*
and young women too many to count, <sup>9</sup> but there is only one woman for me,
my dove, my perfect one.
She is the favorite of her mother,
her mother's favorite child.

<sup>h</sup>6:4 the stars in the sky Or "an army ready for war." The meaning of the Hebrew word here and in verse 10 is uncertain.

The young women see her and praise her.
Even the queens and slave women praise her.

The Women Praise Her

- <sup>10</sup> Who is that young woman?
She shines out like the dawn.
She is as pretty as the moon.
She is as bright as the sun.
She is as awesome as the stars in the sky.

He Speaks to Her

- <sup>11</sup> I went down to the grove of walnut trees,
to see the fruit of the valley,
to see if the vines were in bloom,
to see if the pomegranates* had budded.
<sup>12</sup> I was so excited when she put me in the royal chariot.<sup>a</sup>

The Women of Jerusalem Call to Her

- <sup>13</sup> Come back, come back, Shulamith<sup>b</sup>!
Come back, come back, so we may look at you.

Why are you staring at Shulamith,
as she dances the Mahanaim dance<sup>c</sup>?

He Praises Her Beauty

- 7 <sup>1</sup>Princess,<sup>d</sup> your feet are beautiful in those sandals.
The curves of your thighs are like jewelry made by an artist.
<sup>2</sup> Your navel is like a round cup<sup>e</sup>;
may it never be without wine.
Your belly is like a pile of wheat surrounded by lilies.
<sup>3</sup> Your breasts are like twin fawns* of a young gazelle.*
<sup>4</sup> Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon that looks toward Damascus.
<sup>5</sup> Your head is like Carmel,
and the hair on your head is like silk.
Your long flowing hair captures even a king.
<sup>6</sup> You are so beautiful and so pleasant,
a lovely, delightful young woman!
<sup>7</sup> You are tall—
as tall as a palm tree.

<sup>a</sup>6:12 the royal chariot Or “the chariots of my noble people.” See “chariot” in the Word List.

<sup>b</sup>6:13 Shulamith Or “Shulamite.” The word might be the feminine form of the name “Solomon.” This could mean she was or would become the bride of Solomon. This name might also mean “perfect,” “at peace,” or “woman from Shunem.”

<sup>e</sup>7:2 round cup Or “turned bowl,” a stone bowl made on a lathe and used for mixing wine before it is poured into cups. This might also mean a bowl shaped like a crescent or half-moon.

And your breasts are like the clusters of fruit on that tree.

- <sup>8</sup> I would love to climb that tree and take hold of its branches.

May your breasts be like clusters of grapes and your fragrance<sup>f</sup> like apples.

- <sup>9</sup> May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing straight to my love,
flowing gently to the sleeper's lips.

She Speaks to Him

- <sup>10</sup> I belong to my lover,
and he wants me.
<sup>11</sup> Come, my lover,
let's go out into the field;
let's spend the night in the villages.
<sup>12</sup> Let's get up early and go to the vineyards.*
Let's see if the vines are in bloom.
Let's see if the blossoms have opened and if the pomegranates* are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.
<sup>13</sup> Smell the mandrakes<sup>g</sup>
and all the pleasant flowers by our door.
I have saved many pleasant things for you,
my lover,
pleasant things, new and old.

- 8 <sup>1</sup>If you were a baby, like my little brother nursing at his mother's breasts, and if I found you outside,
I could kiss you,
and no one would say it was wrong.
<sup>2</sup> I would lead you into my mother's house,
to the room of she who taught me.
I would give you spiced wine squeezed from my pomegranate.*

She Speaks to the Women

- <sup>3</sup> His left arm is under my head, and his right hand holds me.
<sup>4</sup> Women of Jerusalem, promise me,
don't awaken love,
don't arouse love, until I am ready.<sup>h</sup>

The Women of Jerusalem Speak

- <sup>5</sup> Who is this woman coming from the desert, leaning on her lover?

She Speaks to Him

- I woke you under the apple tree, where your mother gave birth to you,
where you were born.
<sup>6</sup> Keep me near you like a seal* you wear over your heart,
like a signet ring* you wear on your hand.

<sup>g</sup>7:13 mandrakes Plants with roots that look like people. People thought these plants had the power to make people fall in love.

Love is as strong as death.
 Passion is as strong as the grave.<sup>a</sup>
 Its sparks become a flame, and it grows to become a great fire!<sup>b</sup>
 7 A flood cannot put out love.
 Rivers cannot drown love.
 Would people despise a man for giving everything he owns for love?

Her Brothers Speak

8 We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
 What should we do for our sister when a man comes asking to marry her?

9 If she were a wall,
 we would put silver trim<sup>c</sup> around her.
 If she were a door,
 we would put a cedar board around her.

She Answers Her Brothers

10 I am a wall,
 and my breasts are my towers.

<sup>c</sup>8:9 trim Or "supports." Often horizontal beams and towers were built into walls to strengthen and support them. But here, this seems to be a decoration.

And he is satisfied with me!<sup>d</sup>

He Speaks

11 Solomon had a vineyard* at Baal Hamon.
 He put men in charge of the vineyard.
 Each man brought in grapes worth 1000
 shekels<sup>e</sup> of silver.

12 Solomon, you can keep your 1000
 shekels.

Give 200 shekels to each man for the grapes he brought.
 But I will keep my own vineyard.

He Speaks to Her

13 There you are, sitting in the garden.
 Friends are listening to your voice.
 Let me hear it too!

She Speaks to Him

14 Hurry, my lover!
 Be like a gazelle* or a young deer on the mountains of spice.

<sup>d</sup>8:10 he is satisfied with me Literally, "in his eyes I find peace." In Hebrew this is also like the names "Solomon" and "Shulamith."

<sup>e</sup>8:11 1000 shekels About 25 pounds (11.5 kg). Also in verse 12.

Isaiah

1 <sup>1</sup>This is the vision* of Isaiah son of Amoz.
 God showed Isaiah what would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. Isaiah saw this during the time when Uzziah,* Jotham,* Ahaz,* and Hezekiah* were kings of Judah.

God's Case Against Israel

<sup>2</sup>Heaven and earth, listen! This is what the LORD says:

"I raised my children and helped them grow up,
 but they have turned against me.

3 A bull knows its master, and a donkey knows where its owner feeds it.

But Israel* does not know me.
 My people do not understand."

<sup>4</sup>Oh, what a sinful nation! Their guilt is like a heavy weight that they must carry. They are evil, destructive children.<sup>f</sup> They left the LORD and insulted the Holy One of Israel. They turned away and treated him like a stranger.

<sup>5</sup>What good will it do to keep punishing you? You will continue to rebel. Your whole head and heart are already sick and aching.<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head, every part of your body has wounds, cuts, and open sores. You have not taken care of them. Your wounds have not been cleaned and bandaged.

<sup>7</sup>Your land is in ruins, and your cities are in flames. Your enemies have taken your land, and foreigners are taking what it produces. It looks like some foreigners destroyed it.<sup>h</sup> children of evil parents."

<sup>g</sup>1:5 Your whole ... aching Or "Every head and heart is already sick and aching."

<sup>h</sup>1:7 It looks ... destroyed it Or "It looks like the land of the foreigners that was destroyed." This might refer to civil war in Israel or to some time when God destroyed foreign nations, such as Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>f</sup>1:4 They ... children Or "They are destructive

Warnings for Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup>The city of Jerusalem<sup>a</sup> is now like an empty shed left in a vineyard.* It is like an old straw hut abandoned in a field of cucumbers or like a city surrounded by enemies. <sup>9</sup>If the LORD All-Powerful had not allowed a few people to live, we would have been destroyed completely like the cities of Sodom* and Gomorrah.* And that almost happened!

<sup>10</sup>You officers of Sodom, listen to the LORD's message. You people of Gomorrah,<sup>b</sup> listen to God's teaching. <sup>11</sup>The LORD says, "Why do you continue giving me all these sacrifices*? I have had enough of your sacrifices of rams and the fat from well-fed animals. I don't want the blood of those bulls, sheep, and goats. <sup>12</sup>When you people come to meet with me, you trample everything in my yard. Who told you to do this?

<sup>13</sup>"Don't keep bringing me those worthless sacrifices. I hate the incense* you give me. I cannot stand your festivals for the New Moon,* the Sabbath,* and other special meeting days. I hate the evil you do during those holy* times together. <sup>14</sup>I hate your monthly meetings and councils. They have become like heavy weights to me, and I am tired of carrying them.

<sup>15</sup>"When you raise your arms to pray to me, I will refuse to look at you. You will say more and more prayers, but I will refuse to listen because your hands are covered with blood.

<sup>16</sup>"Wash yourselves and make yourselves clean. Stop doing the evil things I see you do. Stop doing wrong. <sup>17</sup>Learn to do good. Treat people fairly. Punish those who hurt others. Speak up for the widows and orphans. Argue their cases for them in court."

<sup>18</sup>"Come, let's discuss this. Even if your sins are as dark as red dye, that stain can be removed and you will be as pure as wool that is as white as snow.

<sup>19</sup>"If you listen to what I say, you will get the good things from this land. <sup>20</sup>But if you refuse to listen and rebel against me, your enemies will destroy you."

The LORD himself said this.

Unfaithful Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>Look at Jerusalem. She was a faithful city. What made her become like a prostitute? In the past, Jerusalem was filled with justice, and goodness should live there now. Instead, there are murderers.

<sup>22</sup>Once you were like pure silver, but now you are like the impurities that people throw away when the silver is purified. You are like good wine that has been weakened with water. <sup>23</sup>Your rulers are rebels and friends of thieves. They demand bribes and accept money for doing wrong. They take money to cheat people, and they don't speak up for widows and orphans. They will not even listen to their cries for help.

<sup>24</sup>Because of this, the LORD God All-Powerful, the Mighty One of Israel, says, "Look, I will get relief from my enemies. You will not cause me any more trouble. <sup>25</sup>People use lye to clean silver. In the same way, I will clean away all your wrongs. I will remove all the impurities from you. <sup>26</sup>I will bring back the kind of judges you had in the beginning. Your counselors will be like those you had long ago. Then you will be called 'The Good and Faithful City.'"

<sup>27</sup>God is good and does what is right, so he will rescue Zion* and the people who come back to him. <sup>28</sup>But all the criminals and sinners will be destroyed. Those who stopped following the LORD will be removed.

<sup>29</sup>In the future, you will be ashamed of the oak trees and special gardens<sup>c</sup> you chose to worship, <sup>30</sup>because you will be like an oak tree whose leaves are dying. You will be like a garden dying without water. <sup>31</sup>Powerful people will be like small, dry pieces of wood, and what they did will be like the sparks that start a fire. These people and their works will both burn up, and no one will be able to put out that fire.

God's Message to Judah and Jerusalem

2 <sup>1</sup>Isaiah son of Amoz saw this message about Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> In the last days the mountain of the LORD's Temple* will be the highest of all mountains. It will be raised higher than the hills.

There will be a steady stream of people from all nations going there.

<sup>3</sup> People from many places will go there and say,

"Come, let's go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the Temple of the God of Jacob.* Then God will teach us his way of living, and we will follow him."

His teaching, the LORD's message, will begin in Jerusalem on Mount Zion* and will go out to all the world.

<sup>4</sup> Then God will act as judge to end arguments between nations. He will decide what is right for people from many lands.

They will stop using their weapons for war.

They will hammer their swords into plows and use their spears to make tools for harvesting.

All fighting between nations will end. They will never again train for war.

<sup>6</sup>Family of Jacob, you have abandoned your people. This is clear because they have been filled with bad influences from the East,<sup>a</sup> and now your people try to tell the future like the Philistines.* They have completely accepted those strange ideas. <sup>7</sup>Jacob's land has been filled with silver and gold from other places. There are many treasures there. His land has been filled with horses and many chariots.*

<sup>8</sup>His land is full of gods that the people bow down to worship. They made those idols* themselves. <sup>9</sup>The people have become worse and worse. They have become very low, and you leaders did nothing to lift them up!<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10</sup>You should be afraid of the LORD! Go hide in the dirt and behind the rocks. Hide from his glorious power!

<sup>11</sup>Proud people will stop being proud. They will bow down to the ground with shame, and only the LORD will still stand high.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has a special day planned when he will punish the proud and boastful people. They will be brought down.

<sup>13</sup>They might be like the tall cedar trees from Lebanon* or the great oak trees from Bashan,* but they will be cut down. <sup>14</sup>They might be like the tall mountains and high hills <sup>15</sup>or like the tall towers and high walls, but they will be brought down. <sup>16</sup>They might be like great ships from Tarshish,<sup>c</sup> filled with such wonderful cargo, but they will be brought down.

<sup>17</sup>At that time those proud people will fall. They will bow low to the ground, and only the LORD will stand high. <sup>18</sup>All the idols will be gone. <sup>19</sup>People will go into the holes in the ground and the cracks in the rocks because they fear the LORD and his great power as he stands to shake the earth.

<sup>20</sup>At that time people will throw away their idols they made from gold and silver. They made these statues to worship, but they will throw them into holes in the ground where bats and moles live. <sup>21</sup>They will go down into cracks in the rocks and boulders because they are afraid of the LORD and his glorious power as he stands to shake the earth.

<sup>22</sup>Stop trusting other people to save you. Do not think too highly of them; they are only humans who have not stopped breathing yet.

3 <sup>1</sup>Understand what I am telling you: The Lord God All-Powerful will take away everything Judah and Jerusalem depend on. He will take away all the food and water. <sup>2</sup>He will take away all the heroes and soldiers. He will take away all the judges,* the prophets,* the fortunetellers,* and the elders.* <sup>3</sup>He will take away the army officers and important officials. He will take away the skilled counselors, the magicians, and those who try to tell the future.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD says, "I will put young boys in charge of you. They will be your leaders. <sup>5</sup>The people will turn against each other. Young people will not respect those who are older. The common people will not respect important leaders."

<sup>6</sup>At that time a man will grab one of his brothers from his own family and tell him, "You have a coat,<sup>d</sup> so you will be our leader. You will be the leader over all these ruins."

<sup>7</sup>But the brother will refuse and say, "I cannot help you. I don't have enough food or clothes for my own family. You will not make me your leader."

<sup>8</sup>This will happen because Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen. They turned against the LORD. They said and did things against him, right in front of his glorious eyes.

<sup>9</sup>The look on their faces shows that they are guilty. They are like the people of Sodom; they don't care who sees their sin. But it will be very bad for them. They will get what they deserve.

<sup>10</sup>Tell the good people who do what is right that good things will happen to them. They will receive a reward for what they do. <sup>11</sup>But it will be very bad for wicked people, because they, too, will get what they deserve. They will get what they did to others. <sup>12</sup>Even children will defeat my people, and women will rule over them.

My people, your guides lead you the wrong way, and they destroy the path you should follow.

God's Decision About His People

The LORD says, "You people have burned the vineyard,<sup>e</sup> and what you stole from the poor is still in your houses. <sup>15</sup>What gives you the right to hurt my people? What gives you the right to push the faces of the poor into the dirt?" The Lord God All-Powerful said this.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord will put sores on the heads of those women in Zion. The LORD will make their heads bald. <sup>18</sup>Then the Lord will take

<sup>b</sup>2:9 They ... up Or "The people have become very low. Surely you will not forgive them!"

<sup>24</sup>Those women now have sweet-smelling perfume, but it will get moldy and stink. Now they wear belts, but then they will have only ropes to wear. Now they have their hair fixed in fancy ways, but then their heads will be shaved—they will have no hair.<sup>b</sup> Now they have party dresses, but then they will have only mourning* clothes. They have beauty marks on their faces now, but then they will have another mark. It will be a mark burned into their skin to show that they are slaves.

<sup>25</sup>Your men will be killed with swords. Your heroes will die in war. <sup>26</sup>There will be crying and sadness in the meeting places by the city gates. Jerusalem will sit there empty, like a woman who has lost everything to thieves and robbers and now just sits on the ground and cries.

4<sup>1</sup>At that time seven women will grab one man and say, “Please marry us! We will supply our own food and make our own clothes. You won’t have to do anything else if you let us wear your name and take away our shame.”

<sup>2</sup>At that time the LORD’s plant<sup>c</sup> will be very beautiful and glorious. The people in Israel who survived will be very proud of what the land grows. <sup>3</sup>And all those who are left in Zion and Jerusalem will be called holy.* Their names were on the list of people in Jerusalem who were allowed to live.

everyone<sup>g</sup> for protection. <sup>6</sup>It will be a shelter to protect the people from the heat of the sun and from all kinds of storms and rain.

Judah, God’s Vineyard

5<sup>1</sup>Now I will sing a song for my friend, my love song about his vineyard.*

My friend had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup> He dug and cleared the field and planted the best grapevines there.
He built a tower in the middle and cut a winepress into the stone.
He expected good grapes to grow there,
but there were only rotten ones.

<sup>3</sup> My friend said, “You people living in Jerusalem and you people of Judah,<sup>h</sup> think about me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup> What more could I do for my vineyard?
I did everything I could.
I hoped for good grapes to grow,
but there were only rotten ones.
Why did that happen?

<sup>5</sup>“Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
I will pull up the thornbushes that protect
it,
and I will burn them.
I will break down the stone wall and use the stones for a walkway.
<sup>6</sup> I will turn my vineyard into useless land.
No one will care for the plants or work
in the field.
Weeds and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on
it.”

<sup>7</sup>The vineyard that belongs to the LORD All-Powerful is the house of Israel. The grapevine, the plant he loves, is the man of Judah.<sup>i</sup>

The Lord hoped for justice, but there was only killing.
He hoped for fairness,
but there were only cries from people being treated badly.

<sup>8</sup>Look at you people! You join houses to houses and fields to fields until there is no room for anyone else. But [when the punishment comes,] you will be forced to live alone. You will be the only people in the whole land. <sup>9</sup>I heard the LORD All-Powerful make this oath*: “I swear, all these houses will be destroyed. These big, fancy houses will be empty. <sup>10</sup>A ten-acre vineyard will make only a

<sup>a</sup>3:20 charms Things people wore on bracelets and necklaces. People thought these things would protect them from evil or danger.

<sup>b</sup>3:24 they will have no hair This means that they will become slaves.

<sup>c</sup>4:2 the LORD’s plant This might refer to the country of Judah or to the future king or Messiah. See Isa. 5:7.

<sup>e</sup>4:4 daughters of Zion This can refer either to the small towns around Jerusalem or to the women living there.

<sup>f</sup>4:5 cloud of smoke ... fire The signs God used to show that he was with his people.

<sup>g</sup>4:5 everyone Literally, “glory,” but this can also mean “soul” or “person.” See Ps. 16:9.

little wine,<sup>a</sup> and many sacks of seed will grow only a little grain.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>11</sup>How terrible it will be for you people who rise early in the morning and go looking for beer to drink. You stay awake late at night, getting drunk on wine. <sup>12</sup>At your parties with your wine, harps, drums, flutes, and other musical instruments, you don't see what the LORD has done. You don't notice what his hands have made.

<sup>13</sup>My people don't really know God. So they will be captured and taken away. Everyone, the respected leaders and the common people as well, will be hungry and thirsty. <sup>14</sup>They will die, and the place of death will open its mouth wide and swallow many of them. Then the noisy crowds and all the beautiful, happy people who are now so comfortable will go down into the grave.

<sup>15</sup>Everyone, common people and leaders alike, will be humbled. Those who are now so proud will bow their heads in shame. <sup>16</sup>The LORD All-Powerful will judge fairly, and people will honor him. They will respect the Holy God when he brings justice. <sup>17</sup>Then sheep will be able to go wherever they want and graze on the land that rich people once owned.

<sup>20</sup>Look at those people! They say good is bad and bad is good. They think light is dark and dark is light. They think sour is sweet and sweet is sour. <sup>21</sup>They think they are so smart. They think they are very intelligent. <sup>22</sup>They are famous for drinking wine and are heroes known for mixing drinks. <sup>23</sup>And if you pay them enough money, they will forgive a criminal. But they will not let good people be judged fairly. <sup>24</sup>So bad things will happen to them. Their descendants will be destroyed completely, just as fire burns straw and leaves. Their descendants will be like plants with rotten roots, whose flowers have all blown away like dust in the wind.

Those people refused to obey the teachings<sup>d</sup> of the LORD All-Powerful. They hated the message from the Holy One of Israel. <sup>25</sup>So the LORD became angry with his people, and he raised his hand to punish them. Even the mountains shook with fear. Dead bodies were left in the streets like garbage. But even after all that, the LORD is still angry. His hand is still raised to punish the people.

God Will Bring Armies to Punish Israel

<sup>26</sup>Look! God is giving a sign to the nations far away. He is raising a flag and whistling for them to come.

Now the enemy is coming from a faraway land and will soon enter the country. They are moving very quickly. <sup>27</sup>The enemy soldiers never get tired and stumble. They never get sleepy and fall asleep. Their weapon belts are always ready. Their sandal straps never break. <sup>28</sup>Their arrows are sharp. Their bows are strung and ready to shoot. The horses' hooves are as hard as flint. Clouds of dust rise from behind their chariots.*

<sup>29</sup>The shouts of the enemy sound like the roar of lions. Like strong, young lions, they growl and grab their prey. The captives struggle and try to escape, but there is no one to save them. <sup>30</sup>Then there is a roar as loud as the ocean waves, and the captives turn their faces to the ground. And there is only darkness closing in as the light fades away in a black cloud.

God Calls Isaiah to Be a Prophet

6 <sup>1</sup>In the year that King Uzziah<sup>e</sup> died,<sup>e</sup> I saw the Lord sitting on a very high and wonderful throne. His long robe filled the Temple.* <sup>2</sup>Seraph angels* stood around him. Each angel had six wings. They used two wings to cover their faces, two wings to cover their bodies, and two wings to fly. <sup>3</sup>The angels were calling to each other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD All-Powerful. His Glory* fills the whole earth." <sup>4</sup>The sound was so loud that it caused the frame around the door to shake, and the Temple was filled with smoke.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>5</sup>I was frightened and said, "Oh, no! I will be destroyed. I am not pure enough to speak to God, and I live among people who are not pure enough to speak to him."<sup>g</sup> But I have seen the King, the LORD All-Powerful."

<sup>6</sup>There was a fire on the altar.* One of the Seraph angels used a pair of tongs to take a hot coal from the fire. Then the angel flew to me with it in his hand. <sup>7</sup>Then he touched my mouth with the hot coal and said, "When this hot coal touched your lips, your guilt was taken away, and your sins were erased."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Who can I send? Who will go for us?"

So I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

<sup>f</sup>6:4 smoke This showed that God was in the Temple. See Ex. 40:34-35.

<sup>g</sup>6:5 I am not pure ... him Literally, "I am a man of unclean lips and live among people of unclean lips."

<sup>c</sup>5:18 ropes Literally, "useless ropes." The Hebrew words here are like those meaning "useless things," that is, idols.

<sup>d</sup>5:24 teachings This can also mean "laws." Sometimes this means the laws God gave Moses to teach to the people of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said, "Go and tell the people, 'Listen closely, but don't understand. Look closely, but don't learn.' <sup>10</sup>Confuse them. Make them unable to understand what they hear and see. If you don't do this, they might really look with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their minds. Then they might come back to me and be healed!"

He answered, "Do this until the cities are destroyed and all the people are gone. Do this until there is no one left living in the houses and the land is destroyed and empty."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord will make the people go far away, and there will be large areas of empty land in the country. <sup>13</sup>A tenth of the people will be allowed to stay in the land, but it will be destroyed again. They will be like an oak tree. When the tree is chopped down, a stump is left. This stump will be a very special seed that will grow again.

Trouble With Aram

7<sup>1</sup>Ahaz* was the son of Jotham,* who was the son of Uzziah.* Rezin* was the king of Aram,* Pekah son of Remaliah<sup>a</sup> was the king of Israel. When Ahaz was king of Judah, Rezin and Pekah went up to Jerusalem to attack it, but they were not able to defeat the city.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>2</sup>The family of David* received a message that said, "The armies of Aram and Ephraim* have joined together in one camp." When King Ahaz heard this message, he and the people became frightened. They shook with fear like trees of the forest blowing in the wind.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD told Isaiah, "You and your son Shear Jashub<sup>c</sup> should go out and talk to Ahaz. Go to the place where the water flows into the Upper Pool,<sup>d</sup> on the street that leads up to Laundryman's Field.

<sup>4</sup>"Tell Ahaz, 'Be careful, but be calm. Don't be afraid. Don't let those two men, Rezin and Remaliah's son,<sup>e</sup> frighten you! They are like two burning sticks. They might be hot now, but soon they will be nothing but smoke. Rezin, Aram, and Remaliah's son became angry<sup>f</sup> and made plans against you. They said, <sup>6</sup>"Let's go fight against Judah and divide it among ourselves. Then we will make Tabeel's son the new king of Judah.'""

<sup>a</sup>7:1 Pekah son of Remaliah A king of northern Israel. He ruled about 740–731 B.C.

<sup>b</sup>7:1 Rezin and Pekah ... the city Or "Rezin and Pekah went up to attack Jerusalem, but they were not able to fight."

<sup>7-9</sup>But the Lord God says, "Their plan will not succeed. Damascus is the capital of Aram, and Rezin is the ruler of Damascus for now. Samaria is the capital of Ephraim, and Remaliah's son is the ruler of Samaria for now. But their plan will not happen. If you don't believe this, you will not survive.<sup>f</sup>"

Immanuel—God Is With Us

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Ahaz* again <sup>11</sup>and said, "Ask for a sign from the LORD your God to prove to yourself that this is true. You can ask for any sign you want. The sign can come from a place as deep as Sheol<sup>g</sup> or as high as the skies.<sup>h</sup>"

<sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask for a sign as proof. I will not test the LORD."

<sup>13</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Family of David, listen very carefully! Is it not enough that you would test the patience of humans? Will you now test the patience of my God? <sup>14</sup>But the LORD will still show you this sign:

The young woman is pregnant<sup>i</sup> and will give birth to a son.

She will name him Immanuel.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>15</sup> He will eat milk curds and honey<sup>k</sup> as he learns to choose good and refuse evil.

<sup>16</sup> But before he is old enough to make that choice, the land of the two kings you fear will be empty.

<sup>17</sup>"But the LORD will bring troubled times to you. These troubles will be worse than anything that has happened since the time Israel separated from Judah. This will happen to your people and to your father's family when God brings the king of Assyria* to fight against you.

<sup>18</sup>"At that time the LORD will call for the 'Fly' that is now near the streams of Egypt, and he will call for the 'Bee' that is now in the country of Assyria. Those enemies will come to your country. <sup>19</sup>They will settle in the deep valleys and in the caves, by the thornbushes and watering holes. <sup>20</sup>The LORD will use Assyria to punish Judah. Assyria will

<sup>f</sup>7:7-9 If you ... survive This is a wordplay that can also mean "If you don't believe, you should not be trusted."

<sup>g</sup>7:11 The sign ... Sheol Or "Make your request deep." The Hebrew word for "request" is like the word for Sheol.

<sup>i</sup>7:14 And here ... pregnant Or "Look at this young woman. She is pregnant." The ancient Greek version (quoted in Mt. 1:23) translates "young woman" in this passage with a word meaning "virgin" and has "Look! The virgin will become pregnant."

<sup>k</sup>7:15 milk curds and honey This refers to some of the first solid foods, something like yogurt, that were fed to a baby. This is also the food that even the poor can find to eat. Also in verse 22.

be hired and used like a razor to shave off Judah's beard and to remove the hair from his head and body.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>"At that time someone might keep only one young cow and two sheep alive. <sup>22</sup>But there will be enough milk for them to eat milk curds. In fact, everyone left in the country will eat milk curds and honey. <sup>23</sup>There are now fields that have 1000 grapevines, and each grapevine is worth 1000 pieces of silver. But those fields will be covered with weeds and thorns. <sup>24</sup>That land will be wild and used only as a hunting ground where people go with bows and arrows. <sup>25</sup>People once worked the soil and grew food on these hills, but at that time they will not go there, because the fields will be covered with weeds and thorns. It will be a place where cattle graze and sheep wander."

Assyria Is Coming Soon

<sup>2</sup>I found some men who could be trusted to serve as witnesses: Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah. They watched me write those words. <sup>3</sup>Then I went to my wife, the woman prophet. She became pregnant and had a son. The LORD told me, "Name the boy Maher Shalal Hash Baz." <sup>4</sup>He said that because before the boy learns to say "Mama" and "Daddy," God will take all the wealth and riches from Damascus<sup>e</sup> and Samaria<sup>f</sup> and give them to the king of Assyria.*

<sup>5</sup>The LORD spoke to me again. <sup>6</sup>He said, "These people<sup>g</sup> refuse to accept the slow-moving waters of Shiloah.<sup>g</sup> They prefer Rezin* and Remaliah's son." <sup>7</sup>But the Lord will bring the king of Assyria and all his power against them. The Assyrians will come like their swift moving river, like water that rises and spills over its banks. <sup>8</sup>This water will be like a flash flood as it passes through Judah. It will rise to Judah's throat and almost drown him.

But he will spread his wings over your whole country, Immanuel.<sup>h</sup>

a7:20 shave ... body This means that the people of Judah would be humiliated and treated like slaves.

b8:1 scroll This Hebrew word might also mean a clay or stone tablet.

c8:1 ordinary pen Literally, "stylus of a man." This might be a pen for writing on clay.

d8:1 Maher Shalal Hash Baz This means "There will soon be looting and stealing."

e8:4 Damascus A city in the country of Aram (Syria).

f8:6 These people Probably Judeans who wanted to join Rezin and Pekah.

g8:6 Shiloah A channel that carried water from Gihon Spring to a pool at the south end of the City of David (Jerusalem). Men from David's family were anointed to be kings there.

h8:8 But he ... Immanuel Or "Immanuel, it will spread throughout your whole country." This might be a promise of God's protection, or it might be a warning about Assyria's power.

<sup>9</sup> All you nations, prepare for war.

You will be defeated.

Listen, all you faraway countries!

Prepare for battle.

You will be defeated.

<sup>10</sup> Make your plans for the fight.

Your plans will be defeated.

Give orders to your armies,
but your orders will be useless, because God is with us!

Warnings to Isaiah

<sup>11</sup>The LORD spoke to me with his great power and warned/ me not to be like these people.<sup>k</sup> He said, <sup>12</sup>"Don't think there is a plan against you just because the people say there is. Don't be afraid of what they fear. Don't let them frighten you!"

<sup>13</sup>The LORD All-Powerful is the one you should fear. He is the one you should respect.<sup>l</sup> He is the one who should frighten you. <sup>14</sup>If you people would respect the LORD, he would be a safe place<sup>m</sup> for you. But you don't respect him, so he is like a stone that you stumble over. He is a rock that makes the two families of Israel fall. The LORD has become a trap to all the people of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>(Many people will trip over this rock. They will fall and be broken. They will be caught in the trap.)

But I will wait for the LORD.

I will wait for him to save us.

<sup>18</sup>My children and I are signs and proofs for the people of Israel. We have been sent by the LORD All-Powerful, who lives on Mount Zion.*

<sup>19</sup>The people will say, "Go to the fortune-tellers* and wizards* who mumble and chirp like birds. Ask them what to do." But I say, "Shouldn't people go to their God for help? Why go to the dead to get help for the living?"

<sup>20</sup>You should follow the teachings and the agreement.<sup>o</sup> I swear, if you follow those other things, there is no future for you. <sup>21</sup>When the enemy comes, there will be hard times

i8:10 God is with us In Hebrew this is like the name Immanuel.

j8:11 warned Or "prevented."

k8:11 these people Probably Judeans who wanted to join Rezin and Pekah.

l8:13 respect Literally, "consider holy."

m8:14 safe place Or "holy place."

n8:16 Write this agreement Or "Take a document."

This could refer to the large scroll in verse 1 or to the promise that follows in verse 17.

o8:20 agreement This usually means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here, it probably means the agreement in verse 17.

and hunger. And when he becomes hungry, he will become angry. He will say curses in the name of his king and his gods. Then he will lift his head upwards [like a roaring lion].<sup>22</sup> And when the captives turn their faces to the ground, there is only a depressing darkness closing in—the dark sadness of people forced to leave their country.

A New Day Is Coming

9<sup>1</sup>But there will be an end to the gloom those people suffered. In the past, people thought the land of Zebulun and Naphtali was not important. But later, that land will be honored—the land along the sea, the land east of the Jordan River, and Galilee where people from other nations live. <sup>2</sup>Those people lived in darkness, but they will see a great light. They lived in a place as dark as death, but a great light will shine on them.

<sup>3</sup>God, you will make the nation grow, and you will make the people happy. They will rejoice in your presence as they do at harvest time. It will be like the joy when people take their share of things they have won in war. <sup>4</sup>That will happen because you will lift the heavy yoke<sup>a</sup> off their shoulders and take away their heavy burden. You will take away the rod that the enemy used to punish your people, as you did when you defeated Midian.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Every boot that marched in battle and every uniform stained with blood will be destroyed and thrown into the fire. <sup>6</sup>This will happen when the special child is born. God will give us a son who will be responsible for leading the people. His name will be “Wonderful Counselor, Powerful God, Father Who Lives Forever, Prince of Peace.” <sup>7</sup>His power will continue to grow, and there will be peace without end. This will establish him as the king sitting on David’s<sup>a</sup> throne and ruling his kingdom. He will rule with goodness and justice forever and ever. The strong love<sup>b</sup> that the LORD All-Powerful has for his people will make this happen!

God Will Punish Israel

Those people are very proud and boastful now. They say, <sup>10</sup>“Yes, those bricks fell, but we will rebuild with strong stone. Yes, those little trees were chopped down, but we will plant new trees. And they will be large, strong trees.”

enemies. <sup>12</sup>As for Israel, the Arameans are in front of him and the Philistines<sup>a</sup> are behind him. And they are both eating away at him. But even after all that, the LORD is still angry. His arm is still raised and ready to punish Israel.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD punished the people, but they did not stop sinning and come back to him. They did not come to the LORD All-Powerful for help. <sup>14</sup>So the LORD cut off Israel’s head and tail. He took away the branch and the stalk in one day. <sup>15</sup>(The head means the elders<sup>a</sup> and important leaders. The tail means the prophets who told lies.)

<sup>16</sup>Their guides are leading them the wrong way, so those who follow them will be destroyed. <sup>17</sup>All of them are evil. So the LORD is not happy with the young men, and he will not show mercy to their widows and orphans. That is because they are evil hypocrites.<sup>a</sup> They tell lies.

But even after all that, the LORD is still angry. His arm is still raised and ready to punish them.

<sup>18</sup>That evil was like a small fire that started among the weeds and thorns and then spread to the larger bushes in the forest. Finally, it became a giant fire, and everything went up in smoke.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD All-Powerful was angry, so the land was burned. The people were fuel for the fire. No one showed any compassion to anyone else. <sup>20</sup>People looked to the right and grabbed whatever they could, but they were still hungry. They grabbed whatever was on their left, but still they were not satisfied. So they turned on themselves and began to eat the bodies of their own children. <sup>21</sup>Manasseh fought against Ephraim, and Ephraim fought against Manasseh. Then both of them turned on Judah.

But even after all that, the LORD is still angry. His arm is still raised and ready to punish them.

10<sup>1</sup>Just look at those lawmakers who write evil laws and make life hard for the people. <sup>2</sup>They are not fair to the poor. They take away the rights of the poor and allow people to steal from widows and orphans.

<sup>3</sup>Lawmakers, you will have to explain what you have done. What will you do then? Your destruction is coming from a faraway country. Where will you run for help? Your money and your riches will not help you. <sup>4</sup>You will have to bow down like a prisoner. You will fall down like a dead man, but that will not help you. God will still be angry and ready to punish you.

God Will Punish Assyria’s Pride

<sup>5</sup>The Lord says, “I will use Assyria<sup>a</sup> like a stick. In my anger I will use Assyria to punish Israel. <sup>6</sup>I will send Assyria to fight against the people who do evil. I am angry with them, and I will command Assyria to fight against them. Assyria will defeat them and take their wealth. Israel will be like dirt for Assyria to walk on in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>But Assyria does not understand that I will use him. He does not think of himself as my tool. He only wants to destroy other people. He plans to destroy many nations.

<sup>8</sup>Assyria says to himself, 'All of my officers are like kings! <sup>9</sup>The city of Calno is no better than the city of Carchemish. Arpad is like Hamath, and Samaria is like Damascus.

<sup>10</sup>I defeated those evil kingdoms and now I control them. The idols* those people worship are better than the idols of Jerusalem and Samaria. <sup>11</sup>I defeated Samaria and her gods. I will also defeat Jerusalem and the idols her people have made."

<sup>12</sup>When the Lord finishes doing what he planned to Jerusalem and Mount Zion,* he will punish Assyria. The king of Assyria is very proud. His pride made him do many bad things, so God will punish him.

<sup>13</sup>The king of Assyria said, "I am very wise. By my own wisdom and power I have done many great things. I have defeated many nations. I have taken their wealth and their people as slaves. I am a very powerful man.

<sup>14</sup>With my own hands I have taken the riches of all these people—like someone taking eggs from a bird's nest. A bird often leaves its nest and eggs, and there is nothing to protect the nest. There is no bird to chirp and fight with its wings and beak, so anyone can come take the eggs. And there is no one to stop me from taking all the people on earth."

<sup>15</sup>An ax is not better than the one who cuts with it. A saw is not better than the one who uses it. Is a stick stronger than the one who picks it up? It can't do anything to the person who is using it to punish someone!

<sup>16</sup>But Assyria doesn't understand this. So the LORD All-Powerful will send a terrible disease against him. He will lose his wealth and power like a sick man losing weight. Then Assyria's glory will be destroyed. It will be like a fire burning until everything is gone.

<sup>17</sup>The Light of Israel<sup>a</sup> will be like a fire. The Holy One will be like a flame. He will be like a fire that first begins to burn the weeds and thorns <sup>18</sup>and then spreads to burn up the tall trees and vineyards.* Finally, everything will be destroyed—even the people. Assyria will be like a rotting log. <sup>19</sup>There will be a few trees left standing in the forest—so few that even a child could count them.

<sup>20</sup>Then the people from Jacob's* family who are left living in Israel will stop depending on the one who beat them. They will learn to depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>a</sup>10:17 The Light of Israel This is a name for God, like "The Holy One" in the next sentence. See "Israel" in the Word List.

<sup>22</sup>Your people are as many as the sands of the sea, but only a few of them will be left to come back to the LORD. They will return to God, but first, your country will be destroyed. God has announced that he will destroy the land, and then justice will come into the land; it will be like a river flowing full. <sup>23</sup>The Lord God All-Powerful really will destroy this land.

<sup>24</sup>The Lord God All-Powerful says, "My people living in Zion,* don't be afraid of Assyria! Yes, he will beat you, and it will be just as the time when Egypt beat you with a stick. <sup>25</sup>But after a short time my anger will stop. I will be satisfied that Assyria has punished you enough."

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD All-Powerful will beat Assyria with a whip, just as he defeated Midian at Raven Rock.<sup>c</sup> He will punish his enemies, as he did when he raised his stick over the sea<sup>d</sup> and led his people from Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>He will take away the troubles Assyria brought you—troubles that are like heavy weights carried with a yoke* on your neck. But that yoke will be taken off your neck. The burden will be lifted from your shoulders.

The Army of Assyria Invades Israel

<sup>28</sup>e The army of Assyria will enter near the "Ruins" (Aiath). The army will walk on the "Threshing Floor" (Migron). It will keep its food in the "Storehouse" (Micmash). <sup>29</sup>The army will cross the river at the "Crossing" (Maabarah) and sleep at Geba. Ramah will be afraid. The people at Gibeah of Saul<sup>f</sup> will run away.

<sup>33</sup>Look, the Lord God All-Powerful will use his great power and chop down that great tree. Their highest officials will be brought down. Their most important leaders will be humbled. <sup>34</sup>The LORD will cut down his

<sup>f</sup>10:29 Geba, Ramah ... Gibeah of Saul Towns north of Jerusalem.

<sup>g</sup>10:30 Bath Gallim Gallim, a city south of Jerusalem. This name means "daughter of the waves," and might refer to birds that make loud noises by the shore.

<sup>h</sup>10:31 Gebim An unknown city. This name is like the Hebrew word for "pit" or "cistern," a hole in the ground for storing water.

enemies as an ax is used to cut down the tall trees in Lebanon.*

The King of Peace Is Coming

11 <sup>1</sup>A small tree<sup>a</sup> will begin to grow from the stump of Jesse.<sup>b</sup> That branch will grow from Jesse's roots. <sup>2</sup>The LORD's Spirit* will always be with that new king to give him wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power. The Spirit will help him know and respect the LORD. <sup>3</sup>He will find joy in obeying the LORD.

This king will not judge people by the way things look. He will not judge by listening to rumors. <sup>4-5</sup>He will judge the poor fairly and honestly. He will be fair when he decides what to do for the poor of the land. If he decides people should be beaten, he will give the command, and they will be beaten. If he decides people must die, he will give the command, and those evil people will be killed. Goodness and fairness will be like a belt he wears around his waist.

<sup>6</sup>Then wolves will live at peace with lambs, and leopards will lie down in peace with young goats. Calves, lions, and bulls will all live together in peace. A little child will lead them. <sup>7</sup>Bears and cattle will eat together in peace, and all their young will lie down together and will not hurt each other. Lions will eat hay like cattle. <sup>8</sup>Even snakes will not hurt people. Babies will be able to play near a cobra's<sup>c</sup> hole and put their hands into the nest of a poisonous snake.

<sup>9</sup>People will stop hurting each other. People on my holy* mountain will not want to destroy things because they will know the LORD. The world will be full of knowledge about him, like the sea is full of water.

<sup>10</sup>At that time there will be someone special from Jesse's family. He will be like a flag that all the nations gather around. The nations will come to him and ask him what they should do. And the place where he is will be filled with glory.*

<sup>11</sup>At that time the Lord will again reach out and take his people who are left in countries like Assyria, North Egypt, South Egypt, Ethiopia, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and other faraway countries around the world. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will gather the people of Israel* and Judah who were forced to leave their country. They were scattered to all the faraway places on earth. But the LORD will raise the flag as a sign for the other nations, and he will gather his people together again.

<sup>13</sup>Then Ephraim* will not be jealous of Judah, and Judah will have no enemies left. And Judah will not cause trouble for Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup>But Ephraim and Judah will attack the Philistines.* These two nations will be like birds flying down to catch a small animal. Together, they will take the riches from the people in the East.<sup>d</sup> Ephraim and Judah will control Edom, Moab, and the people in Ammon.<sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup>Just as the LORD divided the Red Sea near Egypt,<sup>f</sup> he will raise his arm in anger over the Euphrates River and hit it. It will divide into seven small rivers. They will be so small that the people can walk across with their sandals on. <sup>16</sup>Then God's people who are left in Assyria will have a way to leave. It will be just like the time God took the people out of Egypt.

A Song of Praise to God

12 <sup>1</sup>At that time you will say,
"I praise you, LORD!

You have been angry with me,
but don't be angry with me now.
Show your love to me.

<sup>2</sup> God is the one who saves me.
I trust him, and I am not afraid.

The LORD YAH is my strength.
He saves me, and I sing songs of praise about him.<sup>g</sup>"

<sup>3</sup> You people will get your water from the spring of salvation.
Then you will be happy.

<sup>4</sup> At that time you will say,
"Praise the LORD and call out his name!
Tell everyone what he has done and how wonderful he is."

<sup>5</sup> Sing songs of praise about the LORD, because he has done great things.
Spread this news about God throughout the whole world.
Let all people know these things.

<sup>6</sup> People of Zion,* shout about these things!
The Holy One of Israel is with you in a powerful way.
So sing and be happy!

God's Message to Babylon

13 <sup>1</sup>God showed Isaiah son of Amoz this message<sup>h</sup> about Babylon:

<sup>2</sup>"Raise a flag on that mountain<sup>i</sup> where nothing grows.
Call out to the men.
Wave your arms to let them know they should enter through the gates for important leaders.

<sup>e</sup>11:14 Edom, Moab, Ammon Three countries east of Israel. They were Israel's enemies for many years.

<sup>f</sup>11:15 the LORD ... Egypt Or "the LORD will dry up the tongue of the Sea of Egypt."

<sup>g</sup>12:2 The LORD YAH ... him Literally, "YAH, YAHWEH is my strength and praise. And he becomes my salvation." This comes from the victory song of Moses in Ex. 15:2.

<sup>3</sup>"I have separated these men from the people,
and I myself will command them.
I have gathered these proud, happy soldiers of mine
to show how angry I am.

<sup>4</sup>"Listen to that loud noise in the mountains.
It sounds like crowds of people.
People from many kingdoms are gathering
together.
The LORD All-Powerful is calling his army together.
<sup>5</sup> They are coming from a faraway land.
They are coming from beyond the horizon.
The LORD will use this army as a weapon to show his anger.
They will destroy the whole country."

<sup>6</sup>The LORD's special day is near. So cry and be sad for yourselves. A time is coming when the enemy will steal your wealth. God
All-Powerful will make that happen.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>People will lose their courage. Fear will make them weak. <sup>8</sup>Everyone will be afraid. They will stare at each other with shock on their faces.
Fear will grip them like the pains of a woman in childbirth.

God's Judgment Against Babylon

<sup>9</sup>Look, the LORD's special day is coming! It will be a terrible day. God will be very angry.
He will destroy the country and wipe out the sinful people who live there. <sup>10</sup>The skies will be dark. The sun, the moon, and the stars will not shine.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord says, "I will cause bad things to happen to the world. I will punish the evil people for their sin. I will make proud people lose their pride. I will stop the bragging of cruel people. <sup>12</sup>There will be only a few people left. They will be as rare as pure gold.
<sup>13</sup>In my anger I will shake the sky, and the earth will be moved from its place."

That will happen on the day the LORD All-Powerful shows his anger. <sup>14</sup>Then the people from Babylon will run away like wounded deer or sheep that have no shepherd. Everyone will turn and run back to their own country and people. <sup>15</sup>Anyone caught by the enemy will be killed with a sword. <sup>16</sup>Everything in their houses will be stolen. Their wives will be raped, and their little children will be beaten to death while they watch.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord says, "Look, I will cause the armies of Media to attack Babylon. Nothing will stop them, even if someone offers them gold and silver. <sup>18</sup>They will walk on the bows of the young soldiers of Babylon. The enemy soldiers will not show any kindness or mercy even to the babies and young children.

<sup>19</sup>Babylon will be destroyed like the time God destroyed Sodom* and Gomorrah.*

"Babylon is the most beautiful of all kingdoms. The Babylonians<sup>b</sup> are very proud of their city. <sup>20</sup>But Babylon will not continue to be beautiful. People will not continue to live there in the future. Arabs will not put their tents there. Shepherds will not bring their sheep to let them eat there. <sup>21</sup>The only animals living there will be wild animals from the desert. People will not be living in their houses in Babylon. The houses will be full of owls and large birds. Wild goats<sup>c</sup> will play in the houses. <sup>22</sup>Wild dogs and wolves will howl in the great and beautiful buildings. Babylon will be finished. The end is near, and it will not be delayed."

Israel Will Return Home

14<sup>1</sup>The LORD will again show his love to Jacob.* He will again choose the people of Israel.* He will give them their land. Then the non-Israelites<sup>d</sup> will join the Israelites, and both will become one family—Jacob's family.
<sup>2</sup>Those nations will bring the Israelites back to their land. The men and women from the other nations will become slaves to Israel. In the past, those people forced the Israelites to become their slaves. But in the future the Israelites will defeat those nations, and Israel will then rule over them. <sup>3</sup>In the past, you were slaves. People forced you to work hard.
But the LORD will take away the hard work
you were forced to do.

A Song About the King of Babylon

<sup>4</sup>At that time you will begin to sing this song about the king of Babylon:

The king was cruel when he ruled us,
but now his rule is finished.
<sup>5</sup> The LORD breaks the scepter* of evil rulers;
he takes away their power.
<sup>6</sup> In anger, the king of Babylon beat the
people.
He never stopped beating them.
He was an evil ruler who ruled in anger.
He never stopped hurting people.
<sup>7</sup> But now, the whole country rests and is quiet.
Now the people begin to celebrate.
<sup>8</sup> You were an evil king,
and now you are finished.
Even the pine trees are happy.
The cedar trees of Lebanon rejoice.

<sup>c</sup>13:21 Wild goats The Hebrew word means "hairy,"
"goat," or "goat-demon."

<sup>d</sup>14:1 non-Israelites This usually means those who live in a country but are not yet citizens of that country. Here, it is the non-Israelites who decided to follow God.

<sup>a</sup>13:6 A time ... happen This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The word meaning "stealing things in war" sounds like the word meaning "God All-Powerful."

- They say, "The king chopped us down,
but now the king has fallen,
and he will never stand again."
9 The place of death is excited that you are coming.
Sheol<sup>a</sup> is waking the spirits of all the leaders of the earth for you.
Sheol is making the kings stand up from their thrones to meet you.
10 They will make fun of you, saying,
"Now you are as dead as we are.
Now you are just like us."
11 Your pride has been sent down to Sheol.
The music from your harps announces the coming of your proud spirit.
Maggots will be the bed you lie on,
and other worms will cover your body like a blanket.
12 You were like the morning star,
but you have fallen from the sky.
In the past, all the nations on earth bowed down before you,
but now you have been cut down.
13 You always told yourself,
"I will go to the skies above.
I will put my throne above God's stars.
I will sit on Zaphon,<sup>a</sup> the holy<sup>a</sup> mountain where the gods meet.
14 I will go up to the altar above the tops of the clouds.
I will be like God Most High."
15 But that did not happen.
You were brought down to the deep pit—Sheol, the place of death.
16 People will come to look at your dead body.
They will think about you and say,
"Is this the same man who caused great fear in all the kingdoms on earth, 17 who destroyed cities and turned the land into a desert, who captured people in war and would not let them go home?"
18 The kings of other nations lie buried with honor, each king with his own grave.
19 But you were thrown out of your grave like a branch cut from a tree and thrown away.
You are like a dead man who fell in battle, trampled under the feet of other soldiers.
Now you look like any other dead man wrapped in burial clothes.
20 Other kings have their own graves,
but you will not join them,
because you ruined your own country and killed your own people.
So your wicked descendants will be stopped.

- 21 Prepare to kill his children,
because their father is guilty.
His children will never take control of the land.
They will never fill the world with their cities.

22The LORD All-Powerful said, "I will stand and fight against those people. I will destroy the famous city, Babylon. I will destroy all the people there. I will destroy their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren." The LORD himself said this.

23"I will change Babylon. It will be a place for animals,<sup>b</sup> not people. It will be a swamp. I will use the 'broom of destruction' to sweep Babylon away." The LORD All-Powerful said this.

God Will Also Punish Assyria

24The LORD All-Powerful made this promise: "This will happen exactly as I meant for it to happen. It will happen just the way I planned. 25I will destroy the king of Assyria in my country. I will walk on him on my mountains. He forced my people to be his slaves; he put a yoke<sup>c</sup> on their necks. But that pole will be taken off Judah's neck, and that burden will be removed. 26This is what I plan to do for this land. I will use my power to punish all those nations."

27When the LORD makes a plan, no one can keep it from happening. When the LORD raises his arm to punish people, no one can stop him.

God's Message to Philistia

28This message<sup>c</sup> was given the year King Ahaz died<sup>d</sup>:

29Country of Philistia, don't be happy that the king who beat you is now dead. It is true that his rule has ended, but his son will come and rule. It will be like one snake giving birth to a more dangerous one. The new king will be like a quick and dangerous snake to you. 30But even the poorest of my people will be able to eat safely. And their children will be able to lie down and feel safe. But I will make your family die from hunger, and your enemy will kill anyone who survives.

- 31 People near the city gates, cry!
People in the city, cry out!
Everyone in Philistia,
your courage will melt like hot wax.

Look to the north!
There is a cloud of dust.
An army is coming,
and everyone in that army is strong.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>32</sup> But what will the messengers from that nation report about us?
They will say, "The LORD made Zion* strong,
and his poor people went there for safety."

God's Message to Moab

15 <sup>1</sup>This is a message about Moab*:

- One night armies took the wealth from Ar in Moab,
and the city was destroyed.
- One night armies took the wealth from Kir in Moab,
and the city was destroyed.
- <sup>2</sup> The king's family and the people of Dibon<sup>a</sup> go to the places of worship<sup>b</sup> to cry.
The people of Moab are crying for Nebo<sup>c</sup> and Medeba.<sup>d</sup>
They have shaved their heads and beards to show their sadness.
- <sup>3</sup> Everywhere in Moab, on the housetops and in the streets,
people are wearing sackcloth.*
Everyone is crying.
- <sup>4</sup> In Heshbon and Elealeh they are crying loudly.
You can hear their voices as far away as Jahaz.
Even the soldiers are frightened.
They are shaking with fear.
- <sup>5</sup> My heart cries, full of sorrow for Moab.
Its people run away to Zoar for safety.
They run to Eglath Shelishiyah.
The people are crying
as they go up the road to Luhith.
They are crying loudly
as they walk on the road to Horonaim.
- <sup>6</sup> But Nimrim Brook is as dry as a desert.
The grass has dried up,
and the plants are all dead.
Nothing is green.
- <sup>7</sup> So the people gather up everything they own and cross the border at Arabah stream.
- <sup>8</sup> You can hear crying everywhere in Moab—
as far away as Eglaim and Beer Elim.
- <sup>9</sup> The water of Dimon<sup>e</sup> is full of blood, and I will bring even more troubles to Dimon.

<sup>a</sup>15:2 Dibon A city in the country of Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning "to be very sad."

<sup>b</sup>15:2 places of worship Or "high places." See "high places" in the Word List.

<sup>c</sup>15:2 Nebo A city in the country of Moab and the name of a false god.

<sup>d</sup>15:2 Medeba A city in the country of Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning "to be very sad."

<sup>e</sup>15:9 Dimon This is probably the city of Dibon. Dimon is like the Hebrew word meaning "blood."

A few people living in Moab have escaped the enemy, but I will send lions to eat them.

16 <sup>1</sup>You people should send a gift to the king of the land. You should send a lamb from Sela, through the desert, to the mountain in the city of Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup>

- <sup>2</sup> The women of Moab* try to cross the river Arnon.
They run around looking for help,
like little birds that have fallen from their nest.
- <sup>3</sup> They say, "Help us!
Tell us what to do.
Protect us from our enemies
as shade protects us from the noon sun.
We are running from our enemies.
Hide us!
Don't give us to our enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> People from Moab were forced to leave their homes.
So let them live in your land.
Hide them from their enemies."
- The robbing will stop.
The enemy will be defeated.
The men who hurt the people will be gone from the land.
- <sup>5</sup> Then a new king will come.
He will be from David's family.<sup>g</sup>
He will be loyal, loving, and kind.
He will be a king who judges fairly.
He will do what is right and good.

- <sup>6</sup> We have heard that the people of Moab are very proud and conceited.
They are hot-tempered braggars,
but their boasts are only empty words.
- <sup>7</sup> Because of their pride, everyone in Moab will mourn.*
They will wish for the way things used to be.
They will wish for the raisin cakes from Kir Hareseth.<sup>h</sup>
- <sup>8</sup> The fields of Heshbon and the vines of Sibmah no longer grow grapes.
Foreign rulers have destroyed the vines.
The enemy has reached Jazer and has spread into the desert and down to the sea.<sup>i</sup>
- <sup>9</sup> I will cry with the people of Jazer and Sibmah, because the grapes have been destroyed.

<sup>g</sup>16:5 David's family The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David's family would be kings in Judah.

<sup>i</sup>16:8 Foreign rulers ... the sea Or "These grapes made many foreign rulers drunk. The vines spread far to the city of Jazer, then into the desert and down to the sea."

I will cry with the people of Heshbon and Elealeh because there will be no harvest.
There will be no summer fruit, and there will be no shouts of joy for the harvest.

<sup>10</sup> There will be no joy and happiness in the orchard.

I will end the happy singing and shouting in the vineyard.*

The grapes are ready to make wine,
but they will all be ruined.

<sup>11</sup> So I will hum a sad song for Moab and Kir Heres,<sup>a</sup> like a harp playing a funeral song.

<sup>12</sup> The people of Moab will go to their high places* to worship.

They will go to their temple to pray,
but it will not help them.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said these things about Moab many times. <sup>14</sup>And now the LORD says, "In three years (counting as exactly as a hired helper would) all those people and the things they are proud of will be gone. Only a few of their weakest people will be left."

God's Message to Aram

17 <sup>1</sup>This is a message<sup>b</sup> about Damascus:

"Damascus is now a city, but it will be destroyed.

Only ruined buildings will be left there.

<sup>2</sup> People will leave the cities of Aroer.<sup>d</sup>

Flocks of sheep will wander freely in those empty towns;
there will be no one to bother them.

<sup>3</sup> The fort cities of Ephraim* will be destroyed.

The government in Damascus will be finished.

Those left in Aram* will lose everything, just like the people of Israel," says the LORD All-Powerful.

Yes, Israel* will be like a sick man who has become weak and thin.

<sup>5</sup>"That time will be like the grain harvest in Rephaim Valley.<sup>e</sup> The workers gather the plants that grow in the field. Then they cut the heads of grain from the plants and collect the grain.

<sup>7</sup>Then the people will look up to the one who made them. Their eyes will see the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup>They will not trust the great things they have made. They will not go to the special gardens<sup>f</sup> and altars<sup>g</sup> they made for false gods. <sup>9</sup>At that time all the walled cities will be empty. They will be like the mountains and the forests<sup>h</sup> in the land before the Israelites came. In the past, all the people ran away because the Israelites were coming. In the future, the country will be empty again. <sup>10</sup>This will happen because you have forgotten the God who saves you. You have not remembered that God is your place of safety.

You brought some very good grapevines from faraway places. You might plant those grapevines, but they will not grow. <sup>11</sup>You will plant your grapevines one day and try to make them grow, and the next day they will blossom. But at harvest time, you will go to gather the fruit from the plants, and you will see that everything is dead. A sickness will kill all the plants.

<sup>12</sup> Listen to all these people!

Their loud crying sounds like the noise from the sea.

Listen, it is like the crashing of waves in the sea.

<sup>13</sup> And like the waves,
they will rush away when God speaks harshly to them.

They will be like chaff* blown away by the wind.

They will be like weeds chased by a storm.

<sup>14</sup> That night, the people will be frightened.
By morning, nothing will be left.

So our enemies will get nothing.

They will come to our land, but nothing will be there.

God's Message to Ethiopia

<sup>h</sup>17:9 mountains and the forests With a minor change in the Hebrew, this could be "the Horites and Amorites."

<sup>i</sup>18:2 reed boats These boats were made by tying many reeds (a type of water plant) together.

Fast messengers, go to the people who are tall and smooth,
who are feared far and wide.
Go to that powerful nation that defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers.
Go warn them!

<sup>3</sup> Like a flag on a hill, everyone on earth will see what happens.
Like a trumpet call,
everyone in the country will hear it.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said, "I will be in the place prepared for me.<sup>a</sup> I will quietly watch these things happen: On a beautiful summer day, at noon, people will be resting. (It will be during the hot harvest time when there is no rain, but only early morning dew.) <sup>5</sup>Then something terrible will happen. Earlier in the year, the flowers bloomed and the new grapes formed buds and began to grow. But before the crop is harvested, the enemy will come and cut the plants. They will break the vines and throw them away. <sup>6</sup>The vines will be left for the birds from the mountains and the wild animals to eat. The birds will feed on them throughout the summer, and that winter the wild animals will eat the vines."

<sup>7</sup>At that time a special offering will be brought to the LORD All-Powerful from the people who are tall and smooth, from those who are feared far and wide, from that powerful nation that defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers.<sup>b</sup> This offering will be brought to the LORD's place on Mount Zion.*

God's Message to Egypt

19<sup>1</sup>A message<sup>c</sup> about Egypt: Look, the LORD is coming on a fast cloud. He will enter Egypt, and all the false gods of Egypt will shake with fear. Egypt's courage will melt away like hot wax.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD says, "I will cause the Egyptians to fight against themselves. Men will fight their brothers. Neighbors will be against neighbors. Cities will be against cities. Kingdoms will be against kingdoms.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>The Egyptians will be afraid and confused. They will ask their false gods and wise men what they should do. They will ask their wizards and magicians, but I will ruin their plans." <sup>4</sup>The Lord God All-Powerful says, "I will give Egypt to a hard master. A powerful king will rule over the people."

<sup>5</sup>The water in the Nile River will dry up and disappear. <sup>6</sup>All the rivers will smell very bad.<sup>e</sup> The canals in Egypt will be dry, and the water will be gone. All the water plants will rot. <sup>7</sup>All the plants along the riverbanks will die and blow away. Even the plants at the widest part of the river will dry up, blow away, and disappear.

<sup>8</sup>The fishermen, all those who catch fish from the Nile River, will become sad and they will cry. They depend on the Nile River for their food, but it will be dry. <sup>9</sup>Those who make cloth from flax, who weave it into linen, will all be sad. <sup>10</sup>Those who weave cloth will be broken, and those who work for money will be depressed.

<sup>13</sup>The leaders of Zoan have been fooled. The leaders of Noph<sup>g</sup> have believed lies, so they lead Egypt the wrong way. <sup>14</sup>The LORD confused them, so they wander around and lead Egypt the wrong way. Everything they do is wrong. They are like drunks rolling in their vomit. <sup>15</sup>There is nothing the leaders can do. (They are "the heads and the tails.") They are "the tops and the stalks of plants."<sup>h</sup>)

<sup>16</sup>At that time the Egyptians will be like frightened women. They will be afraid of the LORD All-Powerful, because he will raise his arm to punish the people. <sup>17</sup>The land of Judah brings fear to everyone in Egypt. Anyone in Egypt who hears the name Judah will be afraid. This will happen because the LORD All-Powerful has planned terrible things to happen to Egypt. <sup>18</sup>At that time there will be five cities in Egypt where people speak Hebrew.<sup>i</sup> One of these cities will be named "Destruction City."<sup>j</sup> The people in these cities will promise to follow the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>19</sup>At that time there will be an altar<sup>k</sup> for the LORD in the middle of Egypt. At the border of Egypt there will be a monument to show honor to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>This will be a sign to show that the LORD All-Powerful does amazing things. Any time the people cry for help from the LORD, he will send help. He will send

<sup>b</sup>18:7 Or "At that time the people who are tall and smooth, who are feared far and wide, that powerful nation who defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers, those people will be brought to the LORD All-Powerful as a special gift."

<sup>d</sup>19:2 Kingdoms will be against kingdoms Or "States will be against states." This means Egyptians will fight other Egyptians.

someone to save and defend the people—to rescue the people from those who hurt them.

<sup>21</sup>At that time the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and they really will know the LORD. They will serve him and give him many sacrifices.* They will make promises<sup>a</sup> to the LORD, and they will do what they promise. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will punish the Egyptians, but then he will heal them, and they will come back to him. The LORD will listen to their prayers and heal them.

<sup>23</sup>At that time there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria.* Then the Assyrians will go to Egypt, and the Egyptians will go to Assyria. Egypt will work with Assyria.<sup>b</sup> <sup>24</sup>Then Israel, Assyria, and Egypt will join together and control the land. This will be a blessing for the land. <sup>25</sup>The LORD All-Powerful will bless these countries. He will say, “Egypt, you are my people. Assyria, I made you. Israel, I own you. You are all blessed!”

Assyria Will Defeat Egypt and Ethiopia

20 <sup>1</sup>Sargon<sup>c</sup> was the king of Assyria.* He sent his military commander to fight against Ashdod. The commander went there and captured the city. <sup>2</sup>At that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said, “Go, take the sackcloth* off your waist and the sandals off your feet.” So Isaiah obeyed the LORD and went without clothes or sandals.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, “My servant Isaiah has gone without clothes or sandals for three years. This is a sign for Egypt and Ethiopia. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria will defeat Egypt and Ethiopia. Assyria will take prisoners and lead them away from their countries. The people, young and old, will be led away without clothes or sandals. They will be completely naked. <sup>5</sup>Those who looked to Ethiopia for help will be shattered. Those who were amazed by Egypt’s glory will be ashamed.”

<sup>6</sup>People living along the coast will say, “We trusted those countries to help us. We ran to them so that they would rescue us from the king of Assyria. But look at them. They have been captured, so how can we escape?”

God’s Message About Babylon

21 <sup>1</sup>This is a message<sup>d</sup> about the Desert by the Sea<sup>e</sup>:

It is coming like a storm blowing through the Negev.*

It is coming in from the desert, from a frightening nation.

I see traitors turning against you.

I see people taking your wealth.

Elam, go against them!

Media, surround the city!

I will put an end to all their moaning.

<sup>3</sup> I saw those terrible things, and now I am afraid.

My fear makes my stomach hurt like the pain of giving birth.

What I hear frightens me.

What I see makes me shake with fear.

<sup>4</sup> I am worried and shaking with fear.

My pleasant evening has become a nightmare.

<sup>5</sup> People are rushing around shouting their orders:

“Set the table!

Post the guard!

Get something to eat and drink!

Officers, get up!

Polish your shields!”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said to me, “Go find someone to guard this city. He must report whatever he sees. <sup>7</sup>Whether he sees a chariot and a team of horses or men riding donkeys or camels, he must listen carefully.”<sup>f</sup>

“My master, every day I have been in the watchtower<sup>h</sup> watching.

Every night I have been standing on duty.

The messenger said,

“Babylon has been defeated!

It has fallen to the ground!

All the statues of her false gods were thrown to the ground and broken to pieces.”

<sup>10</sup>My people, you will be like the grain crushed on my threshing* floor. I have told you everything I heard from the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel.

<sup>f</sup>21:7 Or “Whether he sees a column of teams of horsemen, columns of donkeys, or columns of camels, he must listen carefully.”

<sup>h</sup>21:8 watchtower A tall building where guards stood and watched to see if anyone was coming near their city.

<sup>i</sup>21:9 a man ... horses Or “a column of teams of horsemen.” This might be a team of horses pulling a war chariot or mounted archers in the Assyrian army who often worked in pairs.

God's Message About Dumah

<sup>11</sup>This is a message about Dumah<sup>a</sup>:

There is someone calling to me from Seir,<sup>b</sup>

"Guard, how much of the night is left?
How much longer will it be night?"

<sup>12</sup> The guard answered, "Morning is coming, but then night will come again.

If you have something else to ask,
then come back<sup>c</sup> later and ask."

God's Message About Arabia

<sup>13</sup>This is a message about Arabia:

A caravan* from Dedan spent the night near some trees in the Arabian Desert.

<sup>14</sup> They gave water to some thirsty travelers.
The people of Tema gave them food.

<sup>15</sup> They were running from swords that were ready to kill.

They were running from bows
that were ready to shoot.

They were running from a hard battle.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord told me this would happen.
He said, "In one year, the way a hired helper counts time, all Kedar's* glory will be gone.

<sup>17</sup>Only a few of the archers,* the great soldiers of Kedar, will be left alive." The LORD, the God of Israel, told me this.

God's Message About Jerusalem

22 <sup>1</sup>This is a message<sup>d</sup> about the Valley of Vision<sup>e</sup>:

Jerusalem, what is wrong?

Why has everyone gone up to hide in their upper rooms?

<sup>2</sup> This city was so happy,
but now there is a terrible uproar.
There are bodies lying everywhere,
but they were not killed with swords.

The people died,
but not while fighting.

<sup>3</sup> All your officers ran away together, but they have all been captured without bows.<sup>f</sup>

All the leaders ran away together,
but they were found and captured.

<sup>4</sup> So I say, "Don't look at me!
Let me cry!

Don't rush to comfort me about the destruction of Jerusalem."

<sup>5</sup>The LORD chose a special day for there to be riots and confusion. People trampled on each other in the Valley of Vision. The city walls were pulled down. People in the valley shouted up at those on the mountain. <sup>6</sup>Horse soldiers from Elam took their bags of arrows and rode into battle. Soldiers from Kir rattled their shields. <sup>7</sup>Your favorite valley was filled with chariots.* Horse soldiers were stationed in front of the city gates. <sup>8</sup>Then the cover protecting Judah<sup>g</sup> was removed, and the people turned to the weapons they kept at the Forest Palace.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>9-11</sup>Then you noticed how many cracks there were in the walls around the City of David,* so you began collecting water from the Lower Pool.<sup>i</sup> You counted the houses and used stones from them to repair the walls.
Then you built a pool between the double walls<sup>j</sup> for storing water from the Old Pool.<sup>k</sup>

You did all this to protect yourselves, but you did not trust the God who made all these things. You did not even notice the one who made all these things so long ago. <sup>12</sup>So the Lord God All-Powerful told the people to cry and mourn* for their dead friends. He told them to shave their heads and wear mourning clothes. <sup>13</sup>But look, everyone was happy.
The people rejoiced, saying,

"Kill the cattle and sheep, and let's celebrate.

Let's eat meat and drink wine,
Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

<sup>14</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said this to me and I heard it with my own ears: "You are guilty of doing wrong, and I promise that you will die before this guilt is forgiven." The Lord God
All-Powerful said these things.

God's Message to Shebna

<sup>15</sup>The Lord God All-Powerful told me this:
"Go to Shebna, the palace manager. <sup>16</sup>Ask him, 'What are you doing here? None of your relatives are buried here, are they? Then what right do you have to prepare a tomb* for yourself in this high place? Why are you cutting a tomb out of this rock?

<sup>17-18</sup>"What a big man you are! But the LORD will crush you. He will roll you into a small ball

<sup>a</sup>21:11 Dumah This Hebrew word means "silence." It may refer to Edom or to a city in Arabia.

<sup>c</sup>21:12 come back This can also mean "change your heart" or "repent."

<sup>e</sup>22:1 Valley of Vision This probably means one of the valleys near Jerusalem. Also in verse 5.

<sup>f</sup>22:3 but they have ... bows Or "but the archers captured them."

<sup>g</sup>22:8 cover protecting Judah This might be the wall around Jerusalem, but see Isa. 4:4.

<sup>h</sup>22:8 Forest Palace A part of Solomon's palace where his weapons and wealth were stored.

<sup>i</sup>22:9-11 Lower Pool The pool at the southern tip of the City of David, just below the Upper Pool (the Pool of Siloam).

<sup>j</sup>22:9-11 pool between the double walls This is probably the Upper Pool (Pool of Siloam).

Spring on the eastern slopes of the city.

and throw you far away into the open arms of another country, and there you will die.

"You are very proud of your chariots.* But in that faraway land, your new ruler will have better chariots. And your chariots will not look important in his palace." <sup>19</sup>The Lord said, "I will force you out of your position here. Your new leader will take you away from your important job. <sup>20</sup>At that time I will call for my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup>I will take your robe and put it on him. I will give him your scepter.* I will give him the important job you have, and he will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah's family.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>22</sup>"I will put the key to David's* house around his neck. If he opens a door, no one will be able to close it. If he closes a door, no one will be able to open it. <sup>23</sup>He will be like a favorite chair in his father's house. I will make him like a strong peg in a solid board. <sup>24</sup>All the honored and important things of his father's house will hang on him. All the adults and little children will depend on him. They will be like little dishes and big water bottles hanging on him."

<sup>25</sup>The Lord All-Powerful said, "At that time the peg that is now in the solid board will get weak and break. It will fall to the ground, and everything hanging on it will be destroyed. Then everything I said in this message will happen. It will happen because the Lord said it would."

23 God's Message About Tyre

<sup>1</sup>This is a message<sup>b</sup> about Tyre:

Ships traveling from Cyprus* heard this message:

"Cry, you ships from Tarshish!<sup>c</sup>
Your harbor has been destroyed."

The merchants* of Sidon sent traders across the sea and filled the city with riches.

<sup>3</sup> They traveled the seas looking for grain. The men from Tyre bought grain that grows near the Nile River and sold it to other nations.

<sup>4</sup> Sidon, you should be very sad, because now the Sea and the Fort of the Sea<sup>d</sup> say,

"I have no children.
I have never felt the pain of birth;
I have never given birth to children.

<sup>c</sup>23:1 ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship. Also in verse 14.

I have never raised young men and women."

<sup>5</sup> When Egypt hears the news about Tyre, it will feel the pain of sorrow.

<sup>6</sup> You ships, try to escape to Tarshish*! Cry out, you people living near the sea!

<sup>7</sup> Can this be that happy city that was founded so long ago?

Is it that same city whose people traveled so far to settle other lands?<sup>e</sup>

<sup>8</sup> This city produced so many leaders. Its merchants were like princes.

Its traders had the whole world's respect.

So who made these plans against Tyre?

<sup>9</sup> It was the Lord All-Powerful.

He decided to destroy the great things they were so proud of.

He wanted to disgrace those who were so highly respected.

Cross the sea as if it were a river.

No one will stop you now.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord raised his arm over the sea to make the kingdoms angry enough to fight against Tyre.

He commanded Canaan*

to destroy her place of safety.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>12</sup> He said, "Daughter Sidon,<sup>g</sup> you have been hurt badly, so you will no longer rejoice like a bride.

Go ahead, go to Cyprus<sup>h</sup> for help,

but you will not find a place to rest there either."

It is not even a country now.

Assyria* built war towers to attack it.

The soldiers took everything from the beautiful houses.

Assyria destroyed Babylon.

They turned it into a pile of ruins and made it a place for wild animals.

<sup>14</sup> So be sad, you ships from Tarshish.

Your place of safety has been destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>People will forget about Tyre for 70 years—that is, about the length of a king's rule. After 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute in this song:

<sup>16</sup>"Oh, woman who men forgot, take your harp and walk through the city.

Play your song well and sing it often.
Maybe someone will remember you."

<sup>e</sup>23:7 traveled ... other lands? Or "came from so far to live here?"

<sup>f</sup>23:11 Or "He raised his arm over the sea and shook nations. He gave a command about Canaan to destroy its fortresses."

<sup>17</sup>After 70 years, the LORD will review Tyre's case, and he will give her a decision. Tyre will again have trade. She will be like a prostitute for all the nations on earth. <sup>18</sup>But Tyre will not keep the money she earns. The profit from her trade will be saved for the LORD. Tyre will give that money to the people who serve the LORD to buy good food and nice clothes.

God Will Punish Israel

24 <sup>1</sup>Look, the LORD is destroying this land.<sup>a</sup> He will clean out the land completely and force all the people to go far away. <sup>2</sup>At that time whatever happens to the common people will also happen to the priests. Slaves and masters will be the same. Women slaves and their women masters will be the same. Buyers and sellers will be the same. Those who borrow and those who lend will be the same. Bankers and those who owe the bank will be the same. <sup>3</sup>Everyone will be forced out of the land. All the wealth will be taken. This will happen because the LORD commanded it. <sup>4</sup>The country will be empty and sad. The world will be empty and weak. The great leaders of the people in this land will become weak.

<sup>5</sup>The people have ruined the land. They did what God said was wrong. They did not obey God's laws. They made an agreement* with God a long time ago, but they broke their agreement with God. <sup>6</sup>The people living in this land are guilty of doing wrong, so God promised to destroy the land. The people will be punished, and only a few of them will survive.

- <sup>13</sup> At harvest time, people knock olives from the trees.
But a few olives are left in the trees.
It will be like that in this land and among the nations.
- <sup>14</sup> Those who are left will begin shouting louder than the ocean.
They will rejoice about the LORD's greatness.
- <sup>15</sup> They will say, "People in the east, praise the LORD!"

People in faraway lands, praise the name of the LORD, the God of Israel."

- <sup>16</sup> We hear songs of praise for God from every place on earth.
They praise the God who does what is right.
But I say, "Enough!
I have had enough.
What I see is terrible.
Traitors* are turning against people and hurting them."

- <sup>17</sup> I see troubles for you people living in this land.
I see fear, pits, and problems all around.
- <sup>18</sup> People will hear about the danger,
and they will be afraid.
Some of them will run away,
but they will fall into holes and be trapped.
Some of them will climb out of the holes,
but they will be caught in another trap.
The floodgates in the sky above will open,
and the floods will begin.
The foundations of the earth will shake.
- <sup>19</sup> There will be earthquakes, and the earth will split open.
- <sup>20</sup> The sins of the world are very heavy,
so the earth will fall under the weight.
It will shake like an old house.
It will fall like a drunk.
It will not be able to stand.
- <sup>21</sup> At that time the LORD will judge the heavenly armies in heaven and the earthly kings on earth.
- <sup>22</sup> Many people will be gathered together.
They have been locked in the Pit.
They have been in prison.<sup>b</sup>
But finally, after a long time, they will be judged.
- <sup>23</sup> The LORD will rule as king on Mount Zion* in Jerusalem.
His Glory* will be shown to the city leaders with such brightness that the moon will be embarrassed and the sun will be ashamed.

A Song of Praise to God

- 25 <sup>1</sup>LORD, you are my God.
I honor you and praise your name,
because you did amazing things.
The words you said long ago are completely true;
everything happened exactly as you said
it would.
- <sup>2</sup> And you destroyed the city that was protected by strong walls.
Now it is only a pile of rocks.
The foreign palace has been destroyed.
It will never be rebuilt.

- <sup>3</sup> That is why powerful nations will honor you.
Powerful people from strong cities will fear you.
- <sup>4</sup> And, LORD, you are a safe place for poor people in trouble.
You are like a shelter from floods and shade from the heat when powerful men attack.
They are like rain streaming down the walls that protect us from the storm.
- <sup>5</sup> Like the heat of summer in a dry land,
the angry shouts of those foreigners brought us to our knees.
But like a thick cloud that blocks the summer heat,
you answered their challenge.

God's Banquet for His Servants

<sup>6</sup>The LORD All-Powerful will give a feast for all the people on this mountain. At the feast, there will be the best foods and wines. The meat will be good and tender, the wine pure and clear.

<sup>7</sup>But now there is a veil covering all nations and people. This veil is called "death." <sup>8</sup>But death will be destroyed forever.<sup>a</sup> And the Lord God will wipe away every tear from every face. In the past, all of his people were sad, but God will take away that sadness from the earth. All of this will happen because the LORD said it would.

- <sup>9</sup> At that time people will say,
"Here is our God!
He is the one we have been waiting for.
He has come to save us.
We have been waiting for our LORD.
So we will rejoice and be happy when he saves us."
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD's power is on this mountain, and Moab<sup>b</sup> will be defeated.
The Lord will trample the enemy like someone walking on straw in a pile of waste.
- <sup>11</sup> They will reach out their arms to escape like someone trying to swim.
But their pride will sink with each stroke they take.
- <sup>12</sup> He will destroy their high walls and safe places.
He will throw them down into the dust on the ground.

A Song of Praise to God

26 <sup>1</sup>At that time people will sing this song in Judah:

We have a strong city with strong walls and defenses.

<sup>a</sup>25:8 But death ... forever Some Greek versions have "But death will be swallowed in victory."

<sup>b</sup>25:10 Moab Or "the enemy." This name is like a Hebrew word meaning "enemy."

- But the Lord gives us our salvation.<sup>c</sup>
- <sup>2</sup> Open the gates for the good people to enter.
They are the God's faithful followers.
- <sup>3</sup> LORD, you give true peace to people who depend on you,
to those who trust in you.
- <sup>4</sup> So trust the LORD always, because in the LORD YAH<sup>d</sup> you have a place of safety forever.
- <sup>5</sup> But he will destroy the proud city and punish those who live there.
He will throw that high city down to the ground.
It will fall into the dust.
- <sup>6</sup> Then poor and humble people will walk on those ruins.
- <sup>7</sup> Honesty is the path good people follow.
They follow the path that is straight and true.
And God, you make that way smooth and easy to follow.
- <sup>8</sup> But, LORD, we are waiting for your way of justice.
We want to honor you and your name.
- <sup>9</sup> At night my soul longs to be with you,
and the spirit in me wants to be with you at the dawn of every new day.
When your way of justice comes to the world,
people will learn the right way of living.
- <sup>10</sup> Evil people will not learn to do good,
even if you show them only kindness.
They will still do wrong, even if they live
in a good world.
They never see the LORD's greatness.
- <sup>11</sup> LORD, your arm is raised to punish them,
but they don't see it.
Show them how strong your love<sup>e</sup> is for
your people.
Then those who are evil will be ashamed.
Yes, your fire will destroy your enemies.
- <sup>12</sup> LORD, you have succeeded in doing everything we tried to do,
so give us peace.

God Will Give New Life to His People

- <sup>13</sup> LORD, you are our God, but in the past, we followed other lords.
We belonged to other masters,<sup>f</sup>

<sup>c</sup>26:1 Or "We have a strong city that provides us with salvation. It has strong walls and defenses."

<sup>d</sup>26:4 LORD YAH Or "YAH YAHWEH," a Hebrew name for God.

<sup>e</sup>26:11 strong ... love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

<sup>f</sup>26:13 we followed ... masters This is a wordplay. It could also be translated, "Husbands other than you married us." One word sounds like "Baal," the other like a title for God.

- but now we want people to remember only one name—yours.
- 14 Those dead lords will not come to life. Those ghosts will not rise from death. You decided to destroy them, and you destroyed everything that makes us think about them.
- 15 You helped the nation you love. You made our nation bigger and brought honor to yourself.<sup>a</sup>
- 16 LORD, people remember you when they are in trouble. So because of your punishment, we called out to you.
- 17 LORD, because of you we were in pain, like a woman giving birth, who struggles and cries out when it is time.
- 18 But we struggled in pain for nothing. We gave birth only to wind. We did nothing to save the land. No one was born to live in the world.
- 19 <sup>1</sup>But the LORD says,<sup>1</sup>
“Your people have died, but they will live again. The bodies of my people will rise from death. Dead people in the ground, stand and be happy! The dew covering you is like the dew sparkling in the light of a new day. It shows that a new time is coming, when the earth will give birth to the dead who are in it.”

Judgment: Reward or Punishment

- 20 My people, go into your rooms and lock your doors. Hide in there for a short time until the LORD's anger is finished.
- 21 Look! The LORD is coming out from his place<sup>b</sup> to judge the people of the world for the bad things they have done. The earth will reveal the blood that has been spilled on it. It will no longer hide the proof of those murders.

27 <sup>1</sup>At that time the LORD will judge Leviathan,<sup>c</sup> the crooked snake. He will use his great sword, his hard and powerful sword, to punish Leviathan, that twisting, turning snake. He will kill the monster of the sea.<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>2</sup> At that time people will sing about the pleasant vineyard.*
- <sup>3</sup>“I, the LORD, will care for the vineyard. I will water it at the right time. I will guard it day and night. No one will hurt it.
- <sup>4</sup> I am not angry. But if there is war and someone builds a wall of thornbushes,<sup>e</sup> then I will march to it and burn it.
- <sup>5</sup> But if anyone comes to me for safety and wants to make peace with me, then let them come and make peace.
- <sup>6</sup> In the future, Jacob* will take root firmly on his soil. Then Israel* will sprout and bloom, and the world will be filled with his fruit.”

God Will Send Israel Away

<sup>7</sup>Israel was not hurt as badly as the enemy who tried to hurt it. Not as many of its people were killed as those who tried to kill them.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord will settle his argument with Israel by sending the people far away. He will speak harshly to Israel. His words will burn like the hot desert wind.

<sup>9</sup>How will Jacob's guilt be forgiven? What will happen so his sins can be taken away? The rocks of the altar* will be crushed to dust; the statues<sup>f</sup> and altars for worshiping false gods will all be destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>The great city will be empty; it will be like a desert. All the people will be gone—they will run away. The city will be like an open pasture. Young cattle will eat grass there. The cattle will eat leaves from the branches of the vines. <sup>11</sup>The vines will become dry, and the branches will break off. Women will use them for firewood.

The people refuse to understand. So God, their Maker, will not comfort them or be kind to them.

<sup>12</sup>At that time the LORD will begin separating his people from others. He will begin at the Euphrates River and will gather his people from there<sup>g</sup> to the River of Egypt.<sup>h</sup>

You people of Israel will be gathered together one by one. <sup>13</sup>Many of my people are now lost in Assyria.* Some of my people have run away to Egypt. But at that time a great trumpet will be blown, and all those people will come back to Jerusalem. They

<sup>g</sup>27:12 He will begin ... from there Literally, “He will begin threshing at the stream of the river.” This Hebrew word for stream is like the word meaning “head of grain.”

Some ancient stories tell of Rahab fighting with God.

will bow down before the LORD on that holy* mountain.

Warnings to Northern Israel

28

<sup>1</sup>Look at Samaria!

The drunks of Ephraim* are proud of that city.

It sits on a hill with a rich valley around it.

The Samaritans think their city is a beautiful crown of flowers.

But they are drunk with wine, and this “beautiful crown” is just a dying plant.

He will come into the country like a storm of hail and rain.

Like a powerful river of water flooding the country, he will throw that crown<sup>a</sup> down to the ground.

But that beautiful crown of flowers is just a dying plant.

It will be like the first figs of summer.

As soon as someone sees a ripe one, they pick it and eat it.

<sup>5</sup>At that time the LORD All-Powerful will become the “Beautiful Crown.” He will be the “Wonderful Crown of Flowers” for his people who are left. <sup>6</sup>Then he will give wisdom to the judges who rule his people. He will give strength to the people who are in battles at the city gates. <sup>7</sup>But now those leaders are drunk. The priests and prophets are all drunk with wine and beer. They stumble and fall down. The prophets are drunk when they see their dreams. The judges are drunk when they make their decisions. <sup>8</sup>Every table is covered with vomit. There is not a clean place anywhere.

God Wants to Help His People

<sup>9</sup>[The people say,] “Who does he think he is trying to teach and explain his message to? Does he think we are babies who were at their mother’s breast only a very short time ago? <sup>10</sup>[He speaks to us as though we were babies.]

“Saw lasaw saw lasaw
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw
Ze’er sham ze’er sham.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>b</sup>28:10 Saw lasaw ... ze’er sham This is probably a Hebrew song to teach little children how to write. It sounds like baby talk or a foreign language, but it can also be translated, “A command here, a

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD will use this strange way of talking, and he will use other languages to speak to these people.

<sup>12</sup>In the past, the Lord spoke to them and said, “Here is a resting place. This is the peaceful place. Let the tired people come and rest. This is the place of peace.”

But the people did not want to listen to him. <sup>13</sup>So the LORD’s message will be as meaningless as a foreign language<sup>c</sup>:

“Saw lasaw saw lasaw.
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw.
Ze’er sham ze’er sham.”

When the people try to walk, they will fall backwards. They will be defeated, trapped, and captured.

No One Escapes God’s Judgment

<sup>14</sup>You leaders in Jerusalem should listen to the LORD’s message, but now you refuse to listen to him. <sup>15</sup>You have said, “We have made an agreement with death. We have a contract with death. So we will not be punished. Punishment will pass us without hurting us. We will hide behind our tricks and lies.”

<sup>16</sup>Because of these things, the Lord God says, “I will put a rock—a cornerstone—in the ground in Zion.* This will be a very precious stone.<sup>d</sup> Everything will be built on this very important rock. Anyone who trusts in that rock will not be disappointed.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>17</sup>“Workers use a string and weight to show their work is straight and true. I will use justice as the string and goodness as the weight when I lay that foundation. But your safe places were built on lies. So they will be destroyed and washed away when the troubles come against you like hail storms and floods. <sup>18</sup>Your agreement with death will be erased. Your contract with Sheol* will not help you.

“Someone will come and punish you. He will make you like the dirt he walks on. <sup>19</sup>He will come and take you away. Your punishment will be terrible. Your punishment will come early in the morning, and it will continue late into the night.

“Then you will understand this story: <sup>20</sup>A man tried to sleep on a bed that was too short for him. He had a blanket that was not wide enough to cover him. [The bed and blanket were useless, and so were your agreements.]”

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will fight as he did at Mount Perazim. He will be angry as he was in Gibeon command there. A rule here, a rule there. A lesson here, a lesson there.” Also in verse 13.

Valley.<sup>a</sup> He will do what he must do. It will be what some stranger should do, but he will finish his work. Yes, this is a stranger's job. <sup>22</sup>Now don't complain about these things. If you fight against them, you will only tighten the ropes around you.

The words I heard will not change. They came from the LORD All-Powerful, the ruler of all the earth, and these things will be done.

The Lord Punishes Fairly

<sup>23</sup>Listen closely to the message I am telling you. <sup>24</sup>Does a farmer plow his field all the time? No, he doesn't work the soil all the time. <sup>25</sup>A farmer prepares the ground, and then he plants the seed. He plants different kinds of seeds different ways. He scatters dill seeds, he throws cumin seeds on the ground, and he plants wheat in rows. A farmer plants barley in its special place, and he plants spelt* seeds at the edge of his field.

<sup>26</sup>Our God is using this to teach you a lesson. This example shows us that God is fair when he punishes his people. <sup>27</sup>Does a farmer use large boards with sharp teeth to crush dill seeds? No, and he doesn't use a wagon to crush cumin seeds. A farmer uses a small stick to break the hulls from these seeds of grain. <sup>28</sup>People grind grain to make flour, but they don't grind it forever. The Lord does the same thing when he punishes his people. He might frighten them with the wagon wheel, but he does not allow the horses<sup>b</sup> to walk on them. <sup>29</sup>This lesson comes from the LORD All-Powerful, who gives wonderful advice. He is very wise.

God Punishes Jerusalem

29<sup>1</sup>God says, "Look at Ariel,<sup>c</sup> the city where David* camped. Keep on having your festivals, year after year. <sup>2</sup>But I will punish Ariel. The city will be filled with sadness and crying, but it will always be my Ariel.

<sup>3</sup>"I will put armies all around you, Ariel. I will raise war towers against you. <sup>4</sup>You will be pulled to the ground. Your voice will rise from the ground like the voice of a ghost. Your words come like a whisper from the dirt."

<sup>5</sup>There will be so many foreigners that they will be like dust. Cruel people will be like the chaff* blowing in the wind. Then suddenly, <sup>6</sup>the LORD All-Powerful will punish you with earthquakes, thunder, and loud noises. There will be storms, strong winds, and a burning, destructive fire. <sup>7</sup>Many nations will fight against Ariel. It will be a nightmare. Armies will surround Ariel and punish her. <sup>8</sup>But it will also be like a dream to those armies. They will not get what they want. It will be like a hungry man dreaming about food. When the man wakes up, he is still hungry. It will be like a thirsty man dreaming about water. When the man wakes up, he is still thirsty. The same thing is true about all the nations fighting against Zion.* Those nations will not get what they want.

You will become drunk, but not from wine.

Look and be amazed!

You will stumble and fall, but not from beer.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD will make you sleepy.

He will close your eyes. (The prophets are your eyes.)

He will cover your heads. (The prophets are your heads.)

<sup>11</sup>To you my words are like the words in a book that is closed and sealed.<sup>d</sup> You can give the book to someone who can read and tell that person to read it. But that person will say, "I cannot read the book. It is closed and I cannot open it." <sup>12</sup>Or you can give the book to someone who cannot read and tell that person to read it. That person will say, "I cannot read the book because I don't know how to read."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, "These people come to honor me with words, but I am not really important to them. The worship they give me is nothing but human rules they have memorized. <sup>14</sup>So I will continue to amaze them by doing powerful and amazing things. Their wise men will lose their wisdom. Even the most intelligent among them will not be able to understand."

<sup>15</sup>Look at them! They try to hide things from the LORD. They think he will not understand. They do their evil things in darkness. They tell themselves: "No one can see us. No one will know who we are."

<sup>16</sup>You turn things upside down. You think the clay is equal to the potter.* You think that something that is made can tell the one who made it, "You did not make me!" This is like a pot telling its maker, "You know nothing."

A Better Time Is Coming

<sup>17</sup>This is the truth: After a very short time, Lebanon will become rich farmland, and the farmland will be like thick forests. <sup>18</sup>The deaf will hear the words in the book. The blind will see through the darkness and fog. <sup>19</sup>The LORD will make poor people happy. The poorest people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.*

<sup>d29:11 sealed</sup> A piece of clay or wax was put on the closed book to show that the book should not be opened.

1 Chron. 14:8-17.

<sup>c29:1 Ariel</sup> A name for the altar at the Temple in Jerusalem. This name means "hearth" or "fireplace" but sounds like the word meaning "Lion of God." Also in verse 7.

<sup>20</sup>This will happen when the people who are mean and cruel have come to an end. It will happen when those who enjoy doing bad things are gone. <sup>21</sup>(They lie about good people. They try to trap people in court. They try to destroy innocent people.)

<sup>22</sup>So the LORD, who made Abraham free, speaks to Jacob's* family. He says, "Now the people of Jacob will not be embarrassed and ashamed. <sup>23</sup>They will look around at all the children they have I made with my hands, and they will say that my name is holy.* They will honor<sup>a</sup> the Holy One of Jacob. They will respect the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>Many of these people did not understand, so they did what was wrong. They complained, but now they will learn their lesson."

Israel Should Trust in God, Not Egypt

30 <sup>1</sup>The LORD said, "Look at these children. They don't obey me. They make plans, but they don't ask me to help them. They make agreements with other nations, but my Spirit* does not want those agreements. These people are adding more and more sins to the ones they have already done. <sup>2</sup>They are going down to Egypt for help, but they did not ask me if that was the right thing to do. They hope they will be saved by the Pharaoh.* They want Egypt to protect them.

<sup>3</sup>But I tell you, hiding in Egypt will not help you. Pharaoh will not be able to protect you. <sup>4</sup>Your leaders have gone to Zoan, and your representatives have gone to Hanes.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>But they will be disappointed. They are depending on a nation that cannot help them. Egypt is useless—it will not help. Egypt will bring nothing but shame and embarrassment."

God's Message to Judah

There is a dangerous place full of lions, adders,<sup>e</sup> deadly snakes,<sup>f</sup> and useless people. And there are people who load their wealth onto donkeys and their treasures on the backs of camels. They carry them to a people who cannot help. <sup>7</sup>That useless nation is Egypt. Egypt's help is worth nothing, so I call Egypt the "Do-Nothing Dragon."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Now write this on a sign so that all people can see it, and write this in a book. Write these things for a future time. This will be far, far in the future:<sup>h</sup>

<sup>9</sup>These people are like children who refuse to obey. They lie and refuse to listen to the LORD's teachings. <sup>10</sup>They tell the prophets, "Don't see dreams<sup>i</sup> about things we should do. Don't tell us the truth. Say nice things to us and make us feel good. See only good things for us. <sup>11</sup>Stop seeing things that will really happen. Get out of our way. Stop telling us about the Holy One of Israel."

Judah's Help Comes Only From God

<sup>12</sup>The Holy One of Israel says, "You people have refused to accept this message from the LORD. You want to depend on fighting and lies to help you. <sup>13</sup>You are guilty of these things. So you are like a tall wall with cracks in it. That wall will fall and break into small pieces. <sup>14</sup>You will be like a large clay jar that breaks into many small, useless pieces. You cannot use them to get a hot coal from the fire or to get water from a pool in the ground."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, says, "If you come back to me you will be saved. Only by remaining calm and trusting in me can you be strong."

But you don't want to do that. <sup>16</sup>You say, "No, we need fast horses for battle." That is true—you will need fast horses, but only to run away because your enemy will be faster than your horses. <sup>17</sup>One enemy soldier will make threats, and a thousand of your men will run away. And when five of them make threats, all of you will run away. The only thing that will be left of your army will be a flagpole on a hill.

God Will Help His People

<sup>18</sup>So the LORD is waiting to show his mercy to you. He wants to rise and comfort you. The LORD is the God who does the right thing, so he will bless everyone who waits for his help.

<sup>19</sup>You people who live in Jerusalem on Mount Zion* will not continue crying. The LORD will hear your crying, and he will comfort you. When he hears you, he will help you.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord might give you sorrow and pain like the bread and water you eat every day. But God is your teacher, and he will not continue to hide from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes. <sup>21</sup>If you wander from the right path, either to the right or to the left, you will hear a voice behind you saying, "You should go this way. Here is the right way."

<sup>d</sup>30:6 Negev animals Or "Creatures of the South," a phrase that can refer to Egypt.

<sup>h</sup>30:8 Write ... future Or "Write this for the future as a witness forever."

<sup>23</sup>At that time the LORD will send you rain. You will plant seeds, and the ground will grow food for you. You will have a very large harvest. You will have plenty of food in the fields for your animals. There will be large fields for your sheep. <sup>24</sup>Your cattle and donkeys will have all the food they need. There will be much food. You will have to use shovels and pitchforks to spread all the food<sup>b</sup> for your animals to eat. <sup>25</sup>Every mountain and hill will have streams filled with water. These things will happen after many people are killed and the enemy's towers are pulled down.

<sup>26</sup>At that time the light from the moon will be as bright as the sun, and the light from the sun will be seven times brighter than it is now. One day of sunlight will be like a whole week's worth. This will happen when the LORD bandages his broken people and heals the hurts from their beatings.

<sup>29</sup>You will sing happy songs, like the nights when you begin a festival. You will be very happy walking to the LORD's mountain and listening to the flute on the way to worship the Rock* of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The LORD will cause all people to hear his great voice and to see his powerful arm come down in anger. That arm will be like a great fire that burns everything. His power will be like a great storm with much rain and hail.

<sup>31</sup>Assyria* will be frightened by the LORD's voice and the stick that will beat him. <sup>32</sup>And as the LORD beats Assyria, his people will keep the rhythm with their drums and harps.

<sup>33</sup>Topheth<sup>c</sup> has been made ready for a long time. It is ready for the king.<sup>d</sup> It was made very deep and wide. There is a very big pile of wood and fire there, and the LORD's breath will come like a stream of burning sulfur to start the fire.

<sup>a</sup>30:22 You ... rags Or “You will throw those gods away like menstrual clothes.”

<sup>b</sup>30:24 food This was special food that had been allowed to ferment. This made the meat of the animal tender and good.

Israel Should Depend on God's Power

31 <sup>1</sup>Look at the people going down to Egypt for help. They think the horses they get will save them. They hope the many chariots* and powerful soldiers will protect them. But the people don't trust the Holy One of Israel. They didn't ask the LORD for help. <sup>2</sup>But he is the wise one who is bringing the disaster. And they will not be able to stop what he commanded. The Lord will attack those who are evil and all who try to help them.

<sup>3</sup>The Egyptians are only human, not God. The horses from Egypt are only animals, not spirit. The LORD will stretch out his arm, and the helper will be defeated. And those who wanted help will fall. They will all be destroyed together.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD told me: “When a lion or its cub catches an animal to eat, the lion stands over the dead animal and roars, and nothing can frighten it away. If men come and yell at the lion, the lion will not be afraid. They might make a lot of noise, but the lion will not run away.”

In the same way, the LORD All-Powerful will come down to Mount Zion.* He will fight on that hill. <sup>5</sup>Just as birds fly over their nest to protect it, so the LORD All-Powerful will defend<sup>e</sup> Jerusalem. He will save her. He will “pass over” and save Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>People of Israel, you should come back to the God you turned away from. <sup>7</sup>That is because when those things happen, people will reject the gold and silver idols* you made when you sinned against me.

<sup>8</sup>It is true that Assyria* will be defeated with a sword, but it will not be a human sword that defeats him. Assyria will be destroyed, but that destruction will not come from a man's sword. Assyria will run away from God's sword, but the young men will be caught and made slaves. <sup>9</sup>Their place of safety will be destroyed. Their leaders will be defeated, and they will abandon their flag.

The LORD, whose fireplace is on Zion and whose oven<sup>f</sup> is in Jerusalem, is the one who said this.

Leaders Should Be Good and Fair

32 <sup>1</sup>Listen to what I say! A king should rule in a way that brings justice. Leaders should make fair decisions when they lead the people. <sup>2</sup>If this would happen, the king<sup>g</sup> would be like a shelter to hide from the wind and rain, like streams of water in a dry land, and like the cool shadow of a large rock in a hot land. <sup>3</sup>Then people would actually see what they look at. They would actually listen to what they hear. <sup>4</sup>People who are now confused would be able to understand. Those who cannot speak clearly now would be able to speak clearly and quickly. <sup>5</sup>Fools would not be called great men. People would not respect men who make secret plans.

<sup>6</sup>Fools<sup>a</sup> say foolish things, and in their minds they plan evil things to do. They want to do what is wrong. They say bad things about the LORD. They don't let hungry people eat their food. They don't let thirsty people drink the water. <sup>7</sup>They use evil like a tool and plan ways to steal from the poor. They tell lies about the poor and keep them from being judged fairly.

<sup>8</sup>But a good leader plans good things to do, and that will make him a leader over other leaders.

Hard Times Are Coming

<sup>9</sup>Some of you women are calm now; you feel safe. But you should stand and listen to the words I say. <sup>10</sup>You feel safe now, but after one year you will be troubled. That is because you will not gather grapes next year—there will be no grapes to gather.

<sup>11</sup>Women, you are calm now, but you should be afraid. You feel safe now, but you should be worried. Take off your nice clothes and put on sackcloth.* Wrap it around your waist. <sup>12</sup>Beat your breasts in sorrow. Cry because your fields are empty. Your vineyards* once gave grapes, but now they are empty. <sup>13</sup>Cry for the land of my people. Cry because only thorns and weeds will grow there. Cry for the city and for all the houses that were once filled with joy.

<sup>14</sup>People will leave the capital city. The palace and towers will be left empty. People will not live in houses—they will live in caves. Wild donkeys and sheep will live in the city—animals will go there to eat grass.

<sup>15</sup>This will continue until God gives us his Spirit* from above. Then the desert will become rich farmland and the farmland will be like thick forests. <sup>16</sup>That is, what is now a desert will be filled with right decisions, and what is now a farmland will be filled with justice. <sup>17</sup>That justice will bring peace and safety forever. <sup>18</sup>My people will be safe in their homes and in their calm, peaceful fields.

<sup>19</sup>But before this happens, the forest must fall and the city must be torn down. <sup>20</sup>Some of you live away from the cities. You plant seeds by every stream and let your cattle and donkeys roam free. You will be very blessed.

The Lord Will Show His Power

33 <sup>1</sup>Look at you. You attack others when you have not been attacked. You turn against others when no one has turned against you. So when you stop your attacks, you will be attacked. When you stop turning against others, they will turn against you.

We have waited for your help.

Give us strength every morning.

Save us when we are in trouble.

Your greatness causes the nations to run away.

<sup>4</sup>You people stole things in war. Those things will be taken from you. Many will come and take your wealth. It will be like the times when locusts* come and eat all your crops.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is very great. He lives in a very high place. He fills Zion* with justice and goodness.

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, you are rich with wisdom and knowledge of God. You are rich with salvation. You respect the LORD, and that makes you rich.

<sup>7</sup>But listen! The messengers are crying outside. The messengers<sup>b</sup> who bring peace are crying very hard. <sup>8</sup>The roads are empty; there is no one walking along the paths. People don't respect each other. They have broken the agreements they made, and they refuse to believe what witnesses<sup>c</sup> tell them. <sup>9</sup>The land is sick and dying. Lebanon* is dying and Sharon Valley* is dry and empty. Bashan* and Carmel* once grew beautiful plants—but now those plants have stopped growing.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD says, "Now, I will stand and show people how great and powerful I am.

<sup>11</sup>You people have done useless things. These things are like hay and straw. They are worth nothing! Your spirit<sup>d</sup> will be like a fire and burn you. <sup>12</sup>People will be burned until their bones become lime.<sup>e</sup> They will burn quickly like thorns and dry bushes.

<sup>13</sup>"You people in faraway lands, listen to what I have done. You people who are near me, learn about my power."

<sup>14</sup>The sinners in Zion are afraid. Those who do wrong shake with fear. They say, "Can any of us live through this fire that destroys? Who can live near this fire that burns forever?"<sup>f</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Good, honest people who refuse to hurt others for money will live through that fire. They refuse to take bribes or listen to plans to murder other people. They refuse to look at plans for doing bad things. <sup>16</sup>They will live safely in high places. They will be protected in high rock fortresses. They will always have food and water.

<sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the King in his beauty. You will see the great land. <sup>18-19</sup>When you think about the troubles you had in the past, you will wonder, “Where are those foreigners who spoke languages we could not understand. Where are the officials and tax collectors from other lands? Where are the spies who counted our defense towers?”

God Will Protect Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup>Look at Zion,* the city of our religious festivals. Look at Jerusalem—that beautiful place of rest. Jerusalem is like a tent that will never be moved. The pegs that hold her in place will never be pulled up. Her ropes will never be broken, <sup>21-23</sup>because the LORD is our powerful leader there. That land is a place with streams and wide rivers, but there will be no enemy boats or powerful ships on those rivers. You men who work on such boats can stop your work with the ropes. You cannot make the mast* strong enough. You will not be able to open your sails, because the LORD is our judge.* He makes our laws. He is our king. He saves us. The LORD will give us our wealth. Even crippled people will get their share. <sup>24</sup>No one living there will say, “I am sick,” because everyone living there has had their guilt removed.

God Will Punish His Enemies

34 <sup>1</sup>All you nations, come near and listen! Listen, all you people. The earth and everyone on it should listen to these things. Everything in this world should hear this. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is angry with all the nations and their armies. He will destroy them all and put them to death. <sup>3</sup>Their bodies will be thrown outside. The stink will rise from the bodies, and the blood will flow down the mountains. <sup>4</sup>The skies will be rolled shut like a scroll,<sup>a</sup> and the stars will die and fall like leaves from a vine or a fig tree. All the stars<sup>b</sup> in the sky will rot away. <sup>5</sup>The LORD says, “This will happen when my sword in the sky is covered with blood.”

Look, the LORD’s sword will cut through Edom.* He judged them guilty, and they must die.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>He decided there should be a time for killing in Bozrah<sup>d</sup> and in Edom. So the LORD’s sword is covered with blood and fat. The blood is from the “goats.” The fat is from the kidneys of the “rams.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>So the rams, the cattle, and the strong bulls will be killed. The land will be filled with their blood. The dirt will be covered with their fat.

<sup>c</sup>34:5 guilty, and they must die The Hebrew means they were considered completely to God, and if he does not get them, they must die.

<sup>8</sup>This will happen because the LORD has chosen a time for punishment. He has chosen a year when people must pay for the wrong they did to Zion.* <sup>9</sup>Edom’s rivers will be like hot tar.* Edom’s ground will be like burning sulfur. <sup>10</sup>The fires will burn day and night—no one will stop the fire. The smoke will rise from Edom forever. The land will be destroyed forever and ever. No one will ever travel through that land again. <sup>11</sup>Birds and small animals will own that land. Owls and ravens will live there. People will call it the “Empty Desert.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>The freemen<sup>g</sup> and leaders will all be gone, and there will be nothing left for them to rule.

<sup>13</sup>Thorns and wild bushes will grow in all the beautiful homes there. Wild dogs and owls will live in them. Wild animals will make their homes there. Big birds will live in the grasses that grow there. <sup>14</sup>Wild cats will live there with hyenas.<sup>h</sup> Wild goats<sup>i</sup> will call to their friends. Night animals<sup>j</sup> will spend some time there and find a place to rest. <sup>15</sup>Snakes will make their homes there and lay their eggs. The eggs will open, and small snakes will crawl from the dark places. Birds that eat dead things will gather there like women visiting their friends.

<sup>16</sup>Look at the LORD’s scroll* and read what is written there. Nothing is missing. It is written in that scroll that these animals will be together. God said he will gather them together, so his Spirit* will gather them together. <sup>17</sup>God decided what he should do with them, and then he chose a place for them. He drew a line and showed them their land. So the animals will own that land forever. They will live there year after year.

God Will Comfort His People

35 <sup>1</sup>The dry desert will rejoice. The desert will be glad and blossom. <sup>2</sup>It will be covered with flowers and dance with joy. It will be as beautiful as the forest of Lebanon,* the hill of Carmel,* and the Sharon Valley.* This will happen because all people will see the Glory of the LORD.* They will see the beauty of our God.

<sup>3</sup>Make the weak arms strong again. Strengthen the weak knees. <sup>4</sup>People are afraid and confused. Say to them, “Be strong! Don’t be afraid!” Look, your God will come and punish your enemies. He will come and

<sup>f</sup>34:11 Empty Desert Literally, “They will measure this city with the measuring string called ‘emptiness’ and stone weights called ‘nothingness.’” These words described the empty earth in Gen. 1:2.

<sup>g</sup>34:12 freemen Important citizens of a town or country. These people came from “good families” and had never been slaves.

<sup>h</sup>34:14 hyenas A kind of wild dog that often eats the meat of dead animals that other animals killed.

give you your reward. The LORD will save you. <sup>5</sup>Then the eyes of the blind will be opened so that they can see, and the ears of the deaf will be opened so that they can hear. <sup>6</sup>Crippled people will dance like deer, and those who cannot speak now will use their voices to sing happy songs. This will happen when springs of water begin to flow in the dry desert. <sup>7</sup>Now people see mirages<sup>a</sup> that look like water, but then there will be real pools of water. There will be wells in the dry land where water flows from the ground. Tall water plants will grow where wild animals once ruled.

<sup>8</sup>There will be a road there. This highway will be called "The Holy Road." Evil people will not be allowed to walk on that road. No fools<sup>b</sup> will walk on it. Only good people will walk there. <sup>9</sup>There will be no dangers on that road. There will be no lions there to hurt people or any dangerous animals on it. That road will be for the people God saves.

<sup>10</sup>God will make his people free, and they will come back to him. They will come into Zion* rejoicing. They will be happy forever. Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads. Their gladness and joy will fill them completely. Sorrow and sadness will be gone far, far away.

The Assyrians Invade Judah

<sup>3</sup>Three men from Jerusalem went out to talk with the commander. These men were Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Joah son of Asaph, and Shebna. Eliakim was the palace manager, Joah was the record keeper, and Shebna was the royal secretary.

<sup>4</sup>The commander told them, "Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says:

'What are you trusting in to help you?

<sup>5</sup>I tell you, if you are trusting in power and great battle plans, that is useless.

<sup>c</sup>36:2 aqueduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another. Here, this is the Shiloah, a channel that carried water from Gihon Spring to the Old Pool and the Pool of Siloam.

Those are nothing but empty words. Now I ask you, who do you trust so much that you are willing to rebel against me? <sup>6</sup>Are you depending on Egypt to help you? Egypt is like a broken walking stick. If you lean on it for support, it will only stab you and hurt you. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, cannot be trusted by anyone who depends on him for help.

<sup>7</sup>But maybe you will say, "We trust the LORD our God to help us." But I know that Hezekiah destroyed the altars* and high places* where people worshiped the LORD. Hezekiah told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship only at this one altar here in Jerusalem."

<sup>8</sup>If you still want to fight, my master, the king of Assyria, will make this agreement with you. I promise that I will give you 2000 horses if you can find enough men to ride them into battle. <sup>9</sup>But even then, you couldn't beat even one of my master's lowest ranking officers. So why do you still depend on Egypt's chariots* and horse soldiers?

<sup>10</sup>Now, do you think I came to this country to destroy it without the LORD's help. No, the LORD said to me, "Go up against this country and destroy it!"

<sup>11</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the commander, "Please, speak to us in Aramaic.* We understand that language. Don't speak to us in Hebrew.<sup>e</sup> If you use our language, the people on the city walls will understand you."

<sup>12</sup>But the commander said, "My master did not send me to speak only to you and your master. I was also sent to speak to those people sitting there on the wall. They will not have enough food or water either; they, too, will eat their own waste and drink their own urine like you!"

'Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He cannot save you from my power. <sup>15</sup>Don't believe Hezekiah when he says, "Trust in the LORD! The LORD will save us. He will not let the king of Assyria defeat the city."

<sup>16</sup>Don't listen to Hezekiah. Listen to the king of Assyria. The king of Assyria says, "Do this favor for me; come out to me, and then everyone will be free to have grapes from their own vines, figs from their own trees, and water from their own well. <sup>17</sup>You can do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own. In that new land, you will have good grain, new wine, bread, and vineyards.*"

<sup>f</sup>36:12 They ... like you The Assyrian army planned to surround Jerusalem and not let people bring any food or water into the city. They thought the people would become hungry enough to eat their own waste.

<sup>18</sup>Don't let Hezekiah change your mind when he says, "The LORD will save us." Did any of the gods of other nations save their land from the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of their cities, Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they save Samaria* from my power? <sup>20</sup>Did any of the gods in the other countries save their land from me? So why do you think the LORD will save Jerusalem from me?"

<sup>21</sup>But the people were silent. They did not say a word to the commander because King Hezekiah had given them a command. He said, "Don't say anything to him."

<sup>22</sup>Then the palace manager (Eliakim son of Hilkiah), the royal secretary (Shebna), and the record keeper (Joah son of Asaph) went to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah everything the Assyrian commander had said.

Hezekiah Asks God to Help

37 <sup>1</sup>When King Hezekiah listened to their message, he tore his clothes to show he was upset. Then he put on sackcloth* and went to the LORD's Temple.*

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah sent Eliakim, the palace manager, Shebna, the royal secretary, and the elders of the priests to the prophet, Isaiah son of Amoz. They wore the special clothes that showed they were sad and upset. <sup>3</sup>They said to Isaiah, "King Hezekiah has commanded that today will be a special day for sorrow and sadness. It will be a very sad day—as sad as when a baby should be born, but there is not enough strength for the birth. <sup>4</sup>The commander's master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to say bad things about the living God. Maybe the LORD your God will hear it and prove the enemy is wrong. So pray for those who are still left alive."

<sup>5</sup>When King Hezekiah's officers came to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup>he said to them, "Give this message to your master, Hezekiah: The LORD says, 'Don't be afraid of what you heard from the commanders! Don't believe what those "boys" from the king of Assyria said to make fun of me. <sup>7</sup>Look, I will send a spirit against the king of Assyria. He will get a report that will make him return to his own country. And I will cut him down with a sword in his own country.'"

The Assyrian Army Leaves Jerusalem

king of Assyria got a report that said, "King Tirhakah<sup>a</sup> of Ethiopia* is coming to fight you."

So the king of Assyria sent messengers to Hezekiah again. <sup>10</sup>He told them, "Tell King Hezekiah of Judah these things:

'Don't be fooled by the god you trust when he says, "Jerusalem will not be defeated by the king of Assyria." <sup>11</sup>You have heard what the kings of Assyria did to all the other countries. We destroyed them completely. Will you be saved? No! <sup>12</sup>Did the gods of those people save them? No, my ancestors* destroyed them all. They destroyed the cities of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden living in Tel Assar. <sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath? The king of Arpad? The king of the city of Sepharvaim? The kings of Hena and Ivvah?"

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received the letters from the messengers and read them. Then he went up to the LORD's Temple* and laid the letters out in front of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>He prayed to the LORD: <sup>16</sup>"LORD All-Powerful, God of Israel, you sit as King above the Cherub angels.* You alone are the God who rules all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth. <sup>17</sup>LORD, please listen to me. LORD, open your eyes and look at this message. Hear the words that Sennacherib sent to insult the living God! <sup>18</sup>It is true, LORD. The kings of Assyria did destroy all those nations. <sup>19</sup>They did throw the gods of those nations into the fire, but they were not real gods. They were only wood and stone—statues that people made. That is why the kings of Assyria could destroy them. <sup>20</sup>But you are the LORD our God, so please save us from the king of Assyria. Then all the other nations will know that you are the LORD, the only God."

God's Answer to Hezekiah

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says this, 'You prayed to me about the message that came from King Sennacherib of Assyria. I have heard you.'<sup>b</sup>

'The virgin daughter Zion<sup>c</sup> does not think you are important.
She makes fun of you.

<sup>b</sup>37:21 I have heard you This is from the ancient Greek version and 2 Kings 19:20.

<sup>c</sup>37:22 The virgin daughter Zion The city of Jerusalem, which is in danger of attack by the Assyrians. See "Zion" in the Word List.

- Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head at you and laughs behind your back.
- 23 But who was it that you insulted and made fun of?
Who was it that you spoke against?
You were speaking against the Holy One of Israel.
You acted like you were great and he was nothing.
- 24 You sent your officers to insult the Lord.
This is what you said:
"I took my many chariots* up the high mountains deep inside Lebanon.
I cut down its tallest cedars and its best fir trees.
I have been on its highest mountain and deep inside its forests.
- 25 I dug wells and drank water from new places.
I dried up the rivers of Egypt and walked where the water was."
- 26 'How could you say this, Sennacherib?
Did no one ever tell you that I, the Lord, planned these things long ago?
From ancient times I decided what would happen.
And now I have made it happen.
I let you tear down strong cities and change them into piles of rocks.
- 27 The people living there had no power.
They were afraid and confused.
They were about to be cut down like grass and plants in the field.
They were like grass growing on the housetops, dying before it grows tall.
- 28 I know all about your battles;
I know when you rested,
when you went out to war,
and when you came home.
I also know when you got upset at me.
- 29 Yes, you were upset at me.
I heard your proud insults.
So I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth.
Then I will turn you around and lead you back the way you came."

The Lord's Message for Hezekiah

<sup>30</sup>Then the Lord said, "I will give you a sign to show you that these words are true. You will not be able to plant seeds this year, so next year you will eat grain that grew wild from the previous year's crop. But in the third year, you will eat grain from seeds that you planted. You will harvest your crops, and you will have plenty to eat. You will plant vineyards* and eat grapes from them.

<sup>31</sup>"The people from the family of Judah who have escaped and are left alive will be like plants that send their roots deep into the ground and produce fruit above the ground.

<sup>32</sup>That is because a few people will come out of Jerusalem alive. There will be survivors coming from Mount Zion.*" The strong love<sup>a</sup> of the LORD All-Powerful will do this.

<sup>33</sup>So the LORD says this about the king of Assyria:

- "He will not come into this city
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not bring his shields up against this city or build up a hill of dirt to attack its walls.
- 34 He will go back the way he came.
He will not come into this city.
The LORD says this!
- 35 I will protect this city and save it.
I will do this for myself and for my servant David."

The Assyrian Army Is Destroyed

<sup>36</sup>That night the angel of the LORD went out and killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies. <sup>37</sup>So King Sennacherib of Assyria went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup>One day Sennacherib was in the temple of his god Nisroch, worshipping him. His sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword and ran away to Ararat.* So Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon became the new king of Assyria.

Hezekiah's Illness

38<sup>1</sup>At that time Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him and told him, "The LORD told me to tell you this: 'You will die soon. So you should tell your family what they should do when you die. You will not get well.'"

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah turned toward the wall that faced the Temple* and began praying to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>"LORD, remember that I have faithfully served you with all my heart. I have done what you say is good." Then Hezekiah cried very hard.

<sup>4</sup>Then Isaiah received this message from the LORD: <sup>5</sup>"Go to Hezekiah and tell him that the LORD, the God of your ancestor* David,* says, 'I heard your prayer, and I saw your tears. I will add 15 years to your life. <sup>6</sup>I will save you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will protect this city.'"

<sup>22</sup>Hezekiah asked Isaiah, "What is the sign that proves I will get well and go to the LORD's Temple*?"

<sup>a</sup>37:32 strong love The Hebrew word can mean strong feelings such as zeal, jealousy, or love.

<sup>7</sup>This is the sign from the LORD to show you that he will do what he says: <sup>8</sup>"Look, I am causing the shadow that is on the steps of Ahaz<sup>a</sup> to move back ten steps. The sun's shadow will go back up the ten steps that it has already been on."

Hezekiah's Song

<sup>9</sup>This is the letter from Hezekiah when he became well:

- <sup>10</sup> I thought I would live a full life.
But now, in the middle of my life, the time has come for me to die.
- <sup>11</sup> So I said, "I will not see the LORD YAH<sup>b</sup> in the land of the living again.
I will not see the people living on earth.
- <sup>12</sup> My home, my shepherd's tent, is being pulled down and taken from me.
I am finished like the cloth someone rolls up and cuts from the loom.*
You ended my life in such a short time.
- <sup>13</sup> All night I cried as loud as a lion, but my hopes were crushed like a lion eating bones.
You finished my life in such a short time.
- <sup>14</sup> I cried like a bird and moaned like a dove.
My eyes became tired, but I continued looking to the heavens.
Lord, I am so depressed.
Promise to help me."
- <sup>15</sup> What can I say?
He told me what would happen, and he will make it happen.
I have had these troubles in my soul, so now I will be humble all my life.
- <sup>16</sup> Lord, use this hard time to make my spirit live again.
Help my spirit become strong and healthy.
Help me become well!
Help me live again!
- <sup>17</sup> Look, my troubles are gone!
I now have peace.
You love me very much.
You did not let me rot in the grave.
You took my sins and threw them away.
- <sup>18</sup> The dead cannot praise you.
People in Sheol* cannot sing praises to you.
Those who have died and gone below are not trusting in your faithfulness.
- <sup>19</sup> People who are alive, people like me, are the ones who will praise you.
Fathers should tell their children about how faithful you are.

<sup>b</sup>38:11 LORD YAH Or "YAHWEH," a Hebrew name for God. See "YAHWEH" in the Word List.

- <sup>20</sup> So I say, "The LORD saved me.
So we will sing and play songs in the LORD's Temple* all our lives."

Messengers From Babylon

39<sup>1</sup>At that time Merodach Baladan son of Baladan was king of Babylon. He sent some men with letters and a gift to Hezekiah when he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>2</sup>This made Hezekiah very happy, so he showed them all the valuable things in his storehouses. He showed them the silver, the gold, the spices, and the expensive perfumes. He showed them the building where he stored the weapons. He showed them everything in his treasures and everything in his house and throughout his kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?"

Hezekiah said, "These men came all the way from Babylon just to see me."

<sup>4</sup>So Isaiah asked him, "What did they see in your house?"

Hezekiah said, "They saw everything in my palace. I showed them all my wealth."

<sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said this to Hezekiah, "Listen to this message from the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>6</sup>The time is coming when everything in your house and everything your ancestors* have saved until today will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left! The LORD All-Powerful said this. <sup>7</sup>The Babylonians will take your own sons, and your sons will become officers<sup>c</sup> in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah told Isaiah, "This message from the LORD is good." (Hezekiah said this because he thought, "There will be real peace and security during my lifetime.")

Israel's Punishment Will End

40<sup>1</sup>Your God says,
"Comfort, comfort my people.
<sup>2</sup> Speak kindly to Jerusalem and tell her,
"Your time of service is finished.
You have paid the price for your sins.
I, the LORD, have punished you twice for every sin you committed."

<sup>3</sup> Listen, there is someone shouting:
"Prepare a way in the desert for the LORD.
Make a straight road there for our God.

<sup>4</sup> Every valley must be filled.
Every mountain and hill should be made flat.

The crooked roads should be made straight,
and the rough ground made smooth.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Glory of the LORD* will be shown to everyone.
Together, all people will see it.
Yes, this is what the LORD himself said!"

<sup>c</sup>39:7 officers Or "eunuchs." See "eunuch" in the Word List.

- 6 A voice said, "Speak!"
 So the man said, "What should I say?"
 The voice said, "People are like grass.
 Any glory they enjoy is like a wildflower.
 7 When a wind from the LORD blows on
 them,
 the grass dies and the flower falls.
 Yes, all people are like grass.
 8 Grass dies and flowers fall,
 but the word of our God lasts forever."

Salvation: God's Good News

- 9 Zion,* you have good news to tell.
 Go up on a high mountain and shout
 the good news.
 Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.
 Don't be afraid; speak loudly.
 Tell this news to all the cities of Judah:
 "Look, here is your God!"
 10 The Lord God is coming with power.
 He will use his power to rule all the
 people.
 He will bring rewards for his people.
 He will have their payment with him.
 11 Like a good shepherd, he takes care of his
 people.
 He gathers them like lambs in his arms.
 He holds them close, while their mothers walk beside him.

God Made the World; He Rules It

- 12 Who measured the oceans in the palm of his hand?
 Who used his hand to measure the sky?
 Who used a bowl to measure all the dust
 of the earth?
 Who used scales to measure the mountains and hills?
 13 Who could know the LORD's mind?
 Who could be his teacher or give him
 advice?
 14 Did the Lord ask for anyone's help?
 Did anyone teach him to be fair?
 Did anyone teach him knowledge?
 Did anyone teach him to be wise?
 15 Look, all the nations in the world are like one small drop in the bucket.
 If the Lord took all the faraway nations and put them on his scales,
 they would be like small pieces of dust.
 16 All the trees in Lebanon are not enough to burn on the altar* for the Lord.
 And all the animals in Lebanon are not enough to kill for a sacrifice.
 17 Compared to God, all the nations of the world are nothing.
 Compared to him, they are worth nothing at all.

People Cannot Imagine What God Is Like

- 18 Can you compare God to anything?
 Can you make a picture of God?
 19 No, but some people make statues from rock or wood,

and they call them gods.
 One worker makes a statue.
 Then another worker covers it with gold and makes silver chains for it.

- 20 For the base he chooses special wood,
 a kind of wood that will not rot.
 Then he finds a good wood worker, and the worker makes a "god" that will not fall over.
 21 Surely you know the truth, don't you?
 Surely you have heard.
 Surely someone told you long ago.
 Surely you understand who made the
 earth.
 22 It is the Lord who sits above the circle of the earth.
 And compared to him, people are like grasshoppers.
 He rolled open the skies like a piece of cloth.
 He stretched out the skies like a tent to sit under.
 23 He takes away the power of rulers.
 He makes the world's leaders completely worthless.
 24 They are like plants that are planted in
 the ground.
 But before they can send their roots into
 the ground,
 God blows on the "plants";
 they become dead and dry,
 and the wind blows them away like
 straw.
 25 The Holy One says: "Can you compare me to anyone?
 No one is equal to me."
 26 Look up to the skies.
 Who created all those stars?
 Who created all those "armies" in the sky?
 Who knows every star by name?
 He is very strong and powerful,
 so not one of these stars is lost.
 27 People of Jacob,* this is true.
 Israel, you should believe it.
 So why do you say, "The LORD cannot see the way I live;
 he will not find me and punish me"?
 28 Surely you know the truth.
 Surely you have heard.
 The LORD is the God who lives forever!
 He created all the faraway places on
 earth.
 He does not get tired and weary.
 You cannot learn all he knows.
 29 He helps tired people be strong.
 He gives power to those without it.
 30 Young men get tired and need to rest.
 Even young boys stumble and fall.

40:27 The LORD ... punish me Or "My way is hidden from the LORD; he ignores my case."

- <sup>31</sup> But those who trust in the LORD will become strong again—like eagles that grow new feathers.<sup>a</sup>
They will run and not get weak.
They will walk and not get tired.

The Lord Is the Eternal Creator

- 41 <sup>1</sup>The Lord says, “Faraway countries, be quiet and listen to me!
Nations be brave.<sup>b</sup>
Come to me and speak.
We will meet together
and decide who is right.
<sup>2</sup> Who woke up the man who is coming from the east?
He called Justice to march with him.
He uses his sword to crush nations.
He uses his bow and conquers kings—they run away like straw blown by the wind.
<sup>3</sup> He chases armies and is never hurt.
He goes places he has never been before.
<sup>4</sup> Who was able to make all this happen?
Who controlled the lives of everyone from the beginning?
I, the LORD, am the one.
I was here at the beginning,
and I will be here when all things are finished.
<sup>5</sup> People along the coast saw this,
and they were frightened.
Nations at the ends of the earth shook with fear.
They have come near.
They have arrived.

<sup>6</sup>“Workers help each other. They encourage each other to be strong. <sup>7</sup>One worker cuts wood to make a statue. He encourages the man who works with gold. Another worker uses a hammer and makes the metal smooth. Then he encourages the man at the anvil.<sup>c</sup> This last worker says, ‘This work is good; the metal will not come off.’ Then he nails the statue to a base so that it will not fall over. And it never moves!”

Only the Lord Can Save Us

- <sup>8</sup> The Lord says, “You, Israel,* are my servant.
Jacob,* I chose you.
You are from the family of my friend,
Abraham.
<sup>9</sup> You were in a faraway country,

<sup>a</sup>40:31 like ... feathers This probably refers to the ancient belief that eagles regain their youth when they molt (lose and grow back their feathers). See Ps. 103:5. This line could also be translated, “They will rise up like eagles on their wings.”
<sup>b</sup>41:1 be brave Or “be strong again,” as in Isa. 40:31.
<sup>c</sup>41:7 anvil A heavy metal block. A worker puts hot metal on an anvil and beats the hot metal to change its shape.

- but I reached out to you.
I called you from that faraway place.
I said, ‘You are my servant.’
I chose you,
and I have not rejected you.
<sup>10</sup> Don’t worry—I am with you.
Don’t be afraid—I am your God.
I will make you strong.
I will help you.
I will support you with my right hand that brings victory.
<sup>11</sup> Look, some people are angry with you,
but they will be ashamed and disgraced.
Your enemies will be lost and disappear.
<sup>12</sup> You will look for the people who were against you,
but you will not be able to find them.
Those who fought against you will disappear completely.
<sup>13</sup> I am the LORD your God,
who holds your right hand.
And I tell you, ‘Don’t be afraid!
I will help you.’
<sup>14</sup> People of Israel, descendants of Jacob, you may be weak and worthless,<sup>d</sup>
but do not be afraid.
I myself will help you.”

This is what the LORD himself says.

- “I am the Holy One of Israel,
the one who saves you.
<sup>15</sup> Look, I have made you like a new threshing* board with many sharp teeth.
You will trample mountains and crush them.
You will make the hills<sup>e</sup> like chaff.*
<sup>16</sup> You will throw them into the air, and the wind will blow them away and scatter them.
Then you will be happy in the LORD.
You will be proud of the Holy One of Israel.
<sup>17</sup> “The poor and needy look for water, but they cannot find any.
Their tongues are dry with thirst.
I, the LORD, will answer their prayers.
I, the God of Israel, will not leave them to die.
<sup>18</sup> I will make rivers flow on dry hills.
I will make springs of water flow through the valleys.
I will change the desert into a lake filled with water.
There will be springs of water in that dry land.
<sup>19</sup> I will make trees grow in the desert.
There will be cedar, acacias, olive trees,
cypress, fir trees, and pines.

- <sup>20</sup> I will do this so that people will see it and know who did it.
They will notice what happened.
Then they will understand that the LORD's hand made it happen, that the Holy One of Israel created it
all."

The Lord Challenges the False Gods

<sup>21</sup>The LORD, the king of Jacob,* says, "Come, present your arguments. Show me your proof.
<sup>22</sup>Let your idols* come in and tell us what will happen. Idols, tell us what happened in the beginning. We will listen closely so that we can make a decision. Tell us what will happen in the future. <sup>23</sup>What signs did you give in the past to prove that you really are gods? Do something! Do anything, good or bad, so that we can see that you are alive. Then we might fear and respect you.

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

- <sup>25</sup>"I called someone in the north<sup>b</sup> to come.
He is coming from the east where the sun rises,
and he honors my name.
He tramples kings the way a potter softens clay with his feet.

<sup>26</sup>"Who told us about this before it happened so that we could say he was right?
None of your idols told us anything.
They didn't say a word,
and they cannot hear anything you say.
<sup>27</sup> I, the LORD, was the first one to tell Zion* about these things.
I sent a messenger to Jerusalem to say,
'Look, your people are coming back!'"

- <sup>28</sup> I looked at those false gods.
Not one of them said anything.
They had no advice to offer.
I asked them questions,
but they didn't say a word.
<sup>29</sup> Those gods are all less than nothing.
They cannot do anything.
They are worthless.

The Lord's Special Servant

- 42 <sup>1</sup>"Here is my servant,
the one I support.
He is the one I have chosen,
and I am very pleased with him.
I have filled him with my Spirit,*
and he will bring justice to the nations.
<sup>2</sup> He will not cry out or shout or try to make himself heard in the streets.

- <sup>3</sup> He will not break even a crushed reed.<sup>c</sup>
He will not put out even the weakest flame.
He will bring true justice.
<sup>4</sup> He will not grow weak or give up until he has brought justice to the world.

And people in faraway places will hope to receive his teachings."

The Lord Is Ruler and Maker of the World

<sup>5</sup>The LORD, the true God, said these things.
(He created the sky and spread it out over the earth. He formed the earth and everything it produced. He breathes life into all the people on earth. He gives a spirit to everyone who walks on the earth.)

- <sup>6</sup>"I, the LORD, was right to call you.
I will hold your hand and protect you.
You will be the sign of my agreement* with the people.
You will be a light for the other nations.
<sup>7</sup> You will make the blind able to see.
You will free those who are held as captives.
You will lead those who live in darkness out of their prison.

<sup>8</sup>"I am YAHWEH.*
That is my name.
I will not give my glory* to another.
I will not let statues take the praise that should be mine.
<sup>9</sup> In the past, I told you what would happen,
and it happened!
Now I am telling you something new,
and I am telling you now, before it happens."

A Song of Praise to the Lord

- <sup>10</sup> Sing a new song<sup>d</sup> to the LORD;
praise him everywhere on earth—
all you who sail on the seas,
everything in the sea,
and all you people in faraway places!
<sup>11</sup> Deserts and cities, villages of Kedar,*
praise the LORD!
People living in Sela, sing for joy!
Sing from the top of your mountain.
<sup>12</sup> Give glory to the LORD.
Praise him, all you people in faraway lands!
<sup>13</sup> The LORD will go out like a strong soldier.
Like a man going into battle, he will be full of excitement.
He will shout with a loud cry,
and he will defeat his enemies.

<sup>a</sup>41:24 fool Literally, "horrible thing." The Hebrew word usually describes idols and other wicked things that God hates.

<sup>b</sup>41:25 someone in the north This probably means Cyrus, a king of Persia. He ruled about 550–530 B.C.

God Is Very Patient

- <sup>14</sup>“For a long time I have said nothing.
I have controlled myself and kept quiet.
But now I will cry out like a woman giving birth.
My breathing is getting faster and louder.
- <sup>15</sup> I will destroy the hills and mountains.
I will dry up all the plants that grow
there.
I will change rivers to dry land and dry up pools of water.
- <sup>16</sup> Then I will lead the blind along a path
they never knew to places where they have never been before.
I will change darkness into light for them.
I will make the rough ground smooth.
I will do these things for them;
I will not abandon my people.
- <sup>17</sup> But some of them have left me.
They say to their gold statues, ‘You are my gods.’
They trust their false gods, but they will be disappointed and shamed.

Israel Refused to Listen to God

- <sup>18</sup>“Deaf people, listen to me!
Blind people, look and see!
- <sup>19</sup> In all the world, no one is more blind than my servant.<sup>a</sup>
No one is more deaf than my messenger.
No one is more blind than my chosen people, the servant of the LORD.
- <sup>20</sup> My people see what they should do,
but they do not obey me.
They can hear with their ears,
but they refuse to listen to me.”
- <sup>21</sup> The LORD wants them to do what is right.
He wants them to honor his wonderful teachings.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>22</sup> But look at his people.
Others have defeated them and have stolen from them.
The young men are afraid.
They are locked in prisons.
People have taken advantage of them,
and there is no one to protect them.
Others take their money,
and there is no one to say, “Give it back!”

<sup>23</sup>If any of you listens to this message, you should listen to what was said before. <sup>24</sup>Who let people defeat Jacob*? Who let them take what belonged to Israel*? The LORD allowed them to do this. We sinned against him, so he let people take away our wealth. The people did not want to live the way he wanted.

a42:19 my servant Here, this probably means the people of Israel.

b42:21 Or “The LORD will make his teachings very wonderful. He will do this because he is good.”

They refused to listen to his teaching. <sup>25</sup>So he poured out his anger on them and brought wars against them. It was as if there were fires all around them, but they didn’t know what was happening. It was as if they were burning, but they didn’t try to understand.

God Is Always With His People

43 <sup>1</sup>Jacob,* the LORD created you. Israel,* he made you, and now he says, “Don’t be afraid. I saved you. I named you. You are mine. <sup>2</sup>When you have troubles, I am with you. When you cross rivers, you will not be hurt. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not hurt you.
<sup>3</sup>That’s because I, the LORD, am your God. I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior. I gave Egypt to pay for you. I gave Ethiopia and Seba to make you mine. <sup>4</sup>You are precious to me, and I have given you a special place of honor.
I love you. That’s why I am willing to trade others, to give up whole nations, to save your life.

<sup>5</sup>“So don’t be afraid, because I am with you.
I will gather your children and bring them to you. I will gather them from the east and from the west. <sup>6</sup>I will tell the north: Give my people to me. I will tell the south: Don’t keep my people in prison. Bring my sons and daughters to me from the faraway places. <sup>7</sup>Bring to me all the people who are mine—the people who have my name. I made them for myself.
I made them, and they are mine.

<sup>8</sup>“Bring out the people who have eyes but are blind. Bring out the people who have ears but are deaf.” <sup>9</sup>All people and all nations should also be gathered together. Which of their gods said this would happen? Which of their gods would tell what happened in the beginning? They should bring their witnesses. The witnesses should speak the truth.
This will show they are right.”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD says, “You people are my witnesses and the servant I chose. I chose you so that you would help people believe me. I chose you so that you would understand that ‘I Am He’—I am the true God. There was no God before me, and there will be no God after me. <sup>11</sup>I myself am the LORD, and there is no other Savior. <sup>12</sup>I am the one who spoke to you, saved you, and told you those things.
It was not some stranger who was with you.
You are my witnesses, and I am God.” (This is what the LORD himself said.) <sup>13</sup>“I have always been God. When I do something, no one can change what I have done. And no one can save people from my power.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD, the Holy One of Israel, saves you, and he says, “I will send armies to Babylon for you. Many people will be captured.
Those Chaldeans* will be taken away in their own boats. (They are so proud of those c43:8 blind ... deaf This probably means the Israelites who would not believe God. See Isa. 6:9–10.

boats.)<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>I am the LORD your Holy One. I made Israel. I am your King.”

God Will Save His People Again

<sup>16</sup>The LORD is making roads through the sea. He is making a path for his people, even through rough waters. The LORD says, <sup>17</sup>“Those who fight against me with their chariots,* horses, and armies will be defeated. They will never rise again. They will be destroyed. They will be put out like the flame in a lamp. <sup>18</sup>So don’t remember what happened in earlier times. Don’t think about what happened a long time ago, <sup>19</sup>because I am doing something new! Now you will grow like a new plant. Surely you know this is true. I will even make a road in the desert, and rivers will flow through that dry land. <sup>20</sup>The wild animals will thank me. The large animals and birds will honor me when I put water in the desert and make rivers flow through that dry land. I will do this to give water to my chosen people. <sup>21</sup>I made them, and they will sing songs of praise to me.

<sup>22</sup>“Jacob,* you did not pray to me. Israel,* you became tired of me. <sup>23</sup>You have not brought your sheep as sacrifices* to me. You have not honored me with your sacrifices. I did not force you to give gifts to me like slaves. I did not force you to burn incense* until you became tired. <sup>24</sup>So you did not use your money to buy things to honor me. But you did force me to be like your slave. You sinned until the bad things you did made me very tired.

<sup>25</sup>“I, I am the one who wipes away all your sins. I do this to please myself. I will not remember your sins. <sup>26</sup>But you should remember me. Let’s meet together and decide what is right. Tell your story and prove that you are innocent. <sup>27</sup>Your first father sinned, and your lawyers<sup>b</sup> committed crimes against me. <sup>28</sup>I will make your Temple* leaders unfit to serve there. I will destroy Jacob.<sup>c</sup> Bad things will happen to Israel.

The Lord Is the Only God

44 <sup>1</sup>“Jacob,* you are my servant. Israel,* I chose you. Listen to me! <sup>2</sup>I am the LORD, and I made you. I am the one who created you. I have helped you since you were in your mother’s womb. Jacob, my servant, don’t be afraid. Jeshurun,<sup>d</sup> I chose you.

<sup>3</sup>“I will pour water for thirsty people, and streams will flow through the desert. I will pour my Spirit* on your children, and I will bless* your family. <sup>4</sup>They will sprout like grass in the spring and grow like trees by streams of water.

<sup>5</sup>“One man will call himself, ‘I am the LORD’s.’ Another will use the name, ‘Jacob.’ Another man will sign his name as ‘The LORD’s Hand.’ And another will use the name, ‘Israel.’”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD is the king of Israel. The LORD All-Powerful is the one who will set Israel free. And he says, “I am the only God. There are no other gods. I am the Beginning and the End. <sup>7</sup>There is no other God like me. If there is, that god should speak now. Let him lay out everything he has done since the time I made these ancient people. Let him show me the signs he gave long ago that prove he knew what would happen in the future.

<sup>8</sup>“Don’t be afraid! Don’t worry. I am the one who always told you what would happen. You are my proof.<sup>f</sup> There is no other God; I am the only one. There is no other ‘Rock’<sup>g</sup>; I know I am the only one.”

False Gods Are Useless

<sup>9</sup>Some people make idols,* but they are worthless. They love their statues, which are useless. Those who serve as witnesses for these statues cannot even see. They don’t know enough to be ashamed.

<sup>10</sup>Who made these false gods? Who covered these useless statues? <sup>11</sup>Workers made them, and the workers are only human. If they all would come together before me, we could discuss this. Then they would all be ashamed and afraid.

<sup>a</sup>43:14 I will send ... boats Or with minor changes to the Hebrew, “I will send someone against Babylon to break open the gates, and the shouts of victory from the Chaldeans will be changed to crying.”

<sup>g</sup>44:13 string line In ancient times, this was a piece of string with wet paint on it. It was used to make straight lines on wood or stone.

<sup>h</sup>44:13 compass A tool used to draw circles and copy measurements.

<sup>14</sup>To split the cedar tree, the worker took some oak or cypress [wedges]. To make sure he had plenty of wood, he planted some pines. But it was the rain that made them grow.

<sup>15</sup>When the man wanted a fire, he took some of the wood to keep him warm. He also used some of it to bake his bread. But then he used that same wood to make a statue to worship as a god! That god is only a statue that he made, but he bows down to it! <sup>16</sup>He burns half of the wood in the fire. He uses the fire to cook his meat, and he eats the meat until he is full. He burns the wood to keep himself warm. He says, "Good! Now I am warm, and I can see by the light of the fire." <sup>17</sup>There is a little of the wood left, so he makes a statue and calls it his god. He bows down before it and worships it. He prays to it and says, "You are my god, save me!"

<sup>18</sup>People like that don't know what they are doing! They don't understand. It is as if they have mud in their eyes so they cannot see. Their minds cannot understand. <sup>19</sup>They don't realize what they are doing. They aren't smart enough to think, "I burned half of the wood in the fire. I used the hot coals to bake my bread and cook the meat I ate. And I used the wood that was left to make this terrible thing. I am worshipping a block of wood!"

<sup>20</sup>Someone like that is deceived. They don't know what they are doing.<sup>a</sup> They cannot save themselves, and they will not admit, "This statue I am holding is a lie!"

The Lord, the True God, Helps Israel

- <sup>21</sup>"Jacob,* remember these things!
Israel,* remember, you are my servant.
I made you, and you are my servant.
So, Israel, don't forget me.
- <sup>22</sup>Your sins were like a big cloud,
but I wiped them all away.
Your sins are gone,
like a cloud that disappeared into thin air.
I rescued and protected you,
so come back to me."
- <sup>23</sup>The skies are happy because the LORD did great things.
The earth is happy down to its deepest parts.
The mountains sing with thanks to God.
And all the trees in the forest are happy.
They sing because the LORD has saved Jacob.
He has done great things for Israel.
- <sup>24</sup>The LORD made you what you are.
He did this while you were still in your mother's womb.
The LORD says, "I, the LORD, made everything.
I put the skies there myself.
I spread out the earth before me."

<sup>25</sup>False prophets* tell lies, but the Lord shows that their lies are false. He makes fools of those who do magic. He confuses even the wise. They think they know a lot, but he makes them look foolish. <sup>26</sup>The Lord sends his servants to tell his messages to the people, and he makes those messages come true. He sends messengers to tell the people what they should do, and he proves that the advice is good.

God Chooses Cyrus to Rebuild Judah

The Lord says to Jerusalem, "People will live in you again."

He says to the cities of Judah, "You will be rebuilt."

He says to them, "I will repair your ruins."

- <sup>27</sup>He tells the deep waters, "Become dry!
I will make your streams dry too."

- <sup>28</sup>He says to Cyrus,* "You are my shepherd.
You will do what I want.

You will say to Jerusalem, 'You will be rebuilt!'

You will tell the Temple,* 'Your foundations will be put in place!'"

God Chooses Cyrus to Make Israel Free

45 <sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD said to Cyrus,* his chosen king<sup>b</sup>:

"I took you by your right hand to help you defeat nations, to strip other kings of their power,
and to open city gates that will not be closed again.

- <sup>2</sup>I will go in front of you and make the mountains flat.

I will break the city gates of bronze and cut the iron bars on the gates.

- <sup>3</sup>I will give you the wealth that is stored in secret places.

I will give you those hidden treasures.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,
the God of Israel,* who calls you by name.

- <sup>4</sup>I do this for my servant, Jacob.*
I do it for my chosen people, Israel.

Cyrus, I am calling you by name.
You don't know me, but I know you.<sup>c</sup>

- <sup>5</sup>I am the LORD, the only God.
There is no other God except me.

I put your clothes on you,<sup>d</sup>
but still you don't know me.

- <sup>6</sup>I am doing this so that everyone will know that I am the only God.

From the east to the west people will know that I am the LORD and that there is no other God.

- <sup>7</sup>I made the light and the darkness.
I bring peace, and I cause trouble.
I, the LORD, do all these things.

<sup>c45:4</sup> I know you Or "I will give you a title."

8“May the clouds in the skies above drop goodness on the earth like rain.
May the earth open
and let salvation grow.
And may victory<sup>a</sup> grow with it!
I, the LORD, created him.<sup>b</sup>

God Controls His Creation

9“Look at these people! They are arguing with the one who made them. Look at them argue with me. They are like pieces of clay from a broken pot. Clay does not say to the one molding it, ‘Man, what are you doing?’ Things that are made don’t have the power to question the one who makes them. <sup>10</sup>A father gives life to his children, and they cannot ask, ‘Why are you giving me life?’ They cannot question their mother and ask, ‘Why are you giving birth to me?’”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD God is the Holy One of Israel.* He created Israel, and he says,

“My children, you asked me to show you a sign.

You told me to show you what I have done.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>12</sup> I made the earth, and I created the people on it.
I used my own hands to make the skies.
And I command all the armies in the sky.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>13</sup> I was right to give power to Cyrus,<sup>e</sup>
and I will make his work easy.
He will rebuild my city,
and he will set my people free without bribes or payment.”
The LORD All-Powerful said this.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD says, “Egypt and Ethiopia are rich, but, Israel, you will get those riches.
The tall people from Seba will be yours.
They will walk behind you with chains around their necks.
They will bow down before you
and ask you to pray for them and say,
‘The true God really is with you,
and there is no other God.’”

<sup>15</sup> You are the God people cannot see.
You are the God who saves Israel.

<sup>16</sup> Many people make false gods,
but they will be disappointed.
All of them will go away ashamed.

<sup>b</sup>45:8 I ... created him Or “I created it (salvation or victory).”

<sup>c</sup>45:11 My children ... done Or “Those who are coming asked for my children. They commanded me, ‘to give them,’ the people I made with my own hands.”

<sup>d</sup>45:12 armies in the sky Sometimes this means the angels, and sometimes it means the stars.

<sup>17</sup> But Israel will be saved by the LORD.
That salvation will continue forever.
Never again will Israel be shamed.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is God.
He made the skies and the earth.
He put the earth in its place.
He did not want the earth to be empty
when he made it.
He created it to be lived on.

“I am the LORD.
There is no other God.

<sup>19</sup> I have spoken openly, not in secret.
I did not hide my words in a dark and secret place.
I did not tell the people of Jacob*
to look for me in empty places.
I am the LORD, and I speak the truth.
I say only what is right.

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

<sup>20</sup>“You people who escaped from other nations, gather together before me. (These people carry statues of false gods. They pray to useless gods, but they don’t know what they are doing. <sup>21</sup>Tell them to come to me. Let them present their case and discuss these things.)

“Who told you about this before it happened? Who told you this so long ago? I, the LORD, am the one who said these things. I am the only God, the one who does what is right. I am the one who saves, and there is no other! <sup>22</sup>So all you people in faraway places, turn to me and be saved, because I am God, and there is no other.

<sup>23</sup>“When I make a promise, that promise is true. It will happen. And I swear by my own power that everyone will bow before me and will take an oath* to obey me. <sup>24</sup>They will say, ‘Goodness and strength come only from the LORD.’”

And all who show their anger against him will be humiliated. <sup>25</sup>The LORD will help the people of Israel live right<sup>f</sup> and praise their God.

False Gods Are Useless

46 <sup>1</sup>The Lord says, “Bel* has fallen to the ground. Nebo<sup>g</sup> is kneeling before me.

“Men put those idols* on the backs of animals. They are only heavy burdens that must be carried. They do nothing but make people tired. <sup>2</sup>But they all bowed down and fell to the ground. They couldn’t escape; they were all carried away like prisoners.

<sup>3</sup>“Family of Jacob,* listen to me! You who are left from the family of Israel, listen! I have carried you since you left your mother’s womb. I carried you when you were born, <sup>4</sup>and I will still be carrying you when you are old. Your hair will turn gray, and I will still carry you. I made you, and I will carry you to safety.

<sup>5</sup>“Can you compare me to anyone? No one is equal to me. You cannot understand everything about me. There is nothing like me. <sup>6</sup>Some people are rich with gold and silver. Gold falls from their purses, and they weigh their silver on scales. They pay an artist to make a false god from wood. Then they bow down and worship that false god. <sup>7</sup>They put their false god on their shoulders and carry it. That false god is useless; people have to carry it! People set the statue on the ground, and it cannot move. That false god never walks away from its place. People can yell at it, but it will not answer. That false god is only a statue; it cannot save people from their troubles.

<sup>8</sup>“Sinners, change your heart and mind. Think about this again. Remember it and be strong. <sup>9</sup>Remember what happened long ago. Remember, I am God and there is no other God. There is no other like me.

<sup>10</sup>“In the beginning, I told you what would happen in the end. A long time ago, I told you things that have not happened yet. When I plan something, it happens. I do whatever I want to do. <sup>11</sup>I am calling a man from the east to do what I want. He will come like an eagle from a faraway country. He will do all that I have planned. Everything I said will happen just as I said it would.

<sup>12</sup>“Listen to me, you stubborn<sup>a</sup> people! You are far from doing what is right. <sup>13</sup>But I am close to making things right. Salvation will not be delayed much longer. I will bring salvation to Zion* and to my wonderful Israel.”

God's Message to Babylon

47 <sup>1</sup>“Fall down and sit in the dirt, Virgin Daughter Babylon.

You have no throne, so sit on the ground, daughter of the Chaldeans.<sup>b</sup>

You are not the ruler now.

You are no longer the beautiful young princess that people said you were.

<sup>2</sup> Get the millstones ready and grind the grain into flour.

Take off your veil and fancy clothes.

Lift your skirt and get ready to cross the rivers.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Men will see your naked body and use you for sex.

I will make you pay for the bad things you did, and I will not let anyone help you.

<sup>4</sup>“My people say, ‘God saves us.

His name is the LORD All-Powerful, the Holy One of Israel.’” <sup>5</sup>“So Babylon, sit down and shut up.

Daughter of the Chaldeans, go into the dark prison.

You will no longer be ‘The Queen of the Kingdoms.’

<sup>6</sup>“I was angry with my people.

They were mine, but I turned against them.

I let you punish them, but you showed them no mercy.

Even for those who were old you made the work hard.

<sup>7</sup> You said, ‘I will live forever.

I will always be the queen.’

You didn’t care what you did to my people.

You didn’t think about what might happen later.

<sup>8</sup> So now listen, you who love only pleasure!

Feeling so safe, you tell yourself,

‘I alone am important, and no one else matters.

I will never be a widow or lose my children.’

<sup>9</sup> These two things will happen to you:

First, you will lose your children and then your husband.

And none of your magic spells will help you.

<sup>10</sup> You do bad things but still feel safe.<sup>d</sup>

You say to yourself, ‘No one sees the wrong I do.’

You thought that your wisdom and knowledge would save you.

You tell yourself, ‘I alone am important, and no one else matters.’

<sup>11</sup>“But disaster is coming your way.

You don’t know when it will happen, but disaster is coming.

And there is nothing you can do to stop it.

<sup>12</sup> You worked hard all your life

learning magic and spells.

So start using that magic.

Maybe those spells will help you.

Maybe you will be able to frighten someone.

<sup>13</sup> You have many advisors.

Are you tired of the advice they give?

Then send out your men who read the stars.

They can tell when the month starts, so maybe they can tell you when your troubles will come.

<sup>14</sup> But they cannot even save themselves.

They will burn like straw.

They will burn so fast that there will be no coals left to cook bread.

There will be no fire left to sit by.

<sup>15</sup> That’s what will happen to those you have worked with, the people you did business with all your life.

They will all go their own way.
There will be no one left to save you.”

God Rules His World

48<sup>1</sup>The LORD says, “Family of Jacob,* listen to me!
You people call yourself ‘Israel,’ but you are from Judah’s family.
You use the LORD’s name to make promises.
You claim to worship the God of Israel,
but you are not honest and sincere.

<sup>2</sup>“Yes, you call yourselves citizens of the holy city,<sup>a</sup>
those who depend on the God of Israel.
The LORD All-Powerful is his name.

<sup>3</sup>“Long ago I told you what would happen.
I told you about these things.
And suddenly I made them happen.
<sup>4</sup> I did that because I knew you were stubborn.
You were like iron that will not bend,
with heads as hard as bronze.
<sup>5</sup> So long ago I told you what would happen.
I told you about those things long before they happened.
I did this so that you could not say,
‘The gods we made did this.
Our idols,* our statues, made this happen.’”

God Punishes Israel to Make Them Pure

<sup>6</sup>“You heard what I said would happen.
And you can see it has all been done.
Shouldn’t you tell this to others?
Now I will tell you about new things, secrets you have not known before.
<sup>7</sup> This is something that is happening now,
not long ago.
You have not heard about it before today.
So you cannot say, ‘We already knew that.’
<sup>8</sup> But even in the past you didn’t listen.
You didn’t learn anything.
You never listen to what I say.
I have always known that you would turn
against me.
You have rebelled against me from the time you were born.

<sup>9</sup>“But I will be patient.
I will do this for myself.
People will praise me for not becoming angry and destroying you.
You will praise me for waiting.

<sup>10</sup>“Look, I will make you pure,
but not in the way you make silver pure.
I will make you pure by giving you
troubles.

<sup>11</sup> I will do this for myself—for me!
I will not let you treat me as if I am not important.

I will not let some false god take my glory* and praise.

<sup>12</sup>“Jacob,* listen to me!
Israel,* I called you to be my people.
So listen to me!
I am the Beginning,
and I am the End.
<sup>13</sup> I made the earth with my own hands.
My right hand made the sky.
And if I call them,
they will come to stand before me.

<sup>14</sup>“All of you, come here and listen to me.
Did any of the false gods say these things would happen? No!
The LORD’s friend<sup>b</sup> will do what he wants to Babylon and the Chaldeans.*

<sup>15</sup>“I told you that I would call him.
I will lead him,
and I will make him succeed.
<sup>16</sup> Come here and listen to me!
I was there when Babylon began as a nation.
And from the beginning, I spoke clearly so that people could know what I said.”

Now, the Lord God sends me and his Spirit* to tell you these things. <sup>17</sup>The LORD, the Savior, the Holy One of Israel, says,

“I am the LORD your God.
I teach you for your own good.
I lead you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup> If you had obeyed me, then peace would have come to you like a full flowing river.
Good things would have come to you again and again,
like the waves of the sea.
<sup>19</sup> If you had obeyed me, you would have had as many children as there are grains of sand.
And they would always have been mine and would never have been destroyed.”

<sup>20</sup> My people, leave Babylon!
My people, run from the Chaldeans!
Tell the news with joy.
Spread the news around the world.
Tell them, “The LORD rescued his servant
Jacob.”

<sup>21</sup> They never got thirsty as he led them through the desert, because he made water flow from a rock.
He split the rock,
and water flowed out.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD also said,
“There is no peace for evil people.”

<sup>a</sup>48:2 holy city That is, Jerusalem.

<sup>b</sup>48:14 friend Or “partner.” This probably means Cyrus, king of Persia. He ruled about 550–530 B.C.

God Calls His Special Servant

- 49 <sup>1</sup>Hear me, people by the sea.
Listen to me, you faraway nations.
The LORD called me before I was born.
He called my name while I was still in my mother's womb.
- <sup>2</sup> He used me to speak for him.
He used me like a sharp sword, but he also held me in his hand to
protect me.
He used me like a sharp arrow,
but he also kept me safe in his arrow bag.
- <sup>3</sup> He told me, "Israel,* you are my servant.
I will do wonderful things with you."
- <sup>4</sup> I said, "I worked hard for nothing.
I wore myself out, but I did nothing useful.
I used all my power, but I did not really do anything.
So the LORD must decide what to do with
me.
He must decide my reward."
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD is the one who made me in my mother's womb,
so that I could be his servant.
He wanted me to lead Jacob* and Israel back to him.
The LORD gives me honor.
I get my strength from my God.
- <sup>6</sup> And now he says, "You are a very important servant to me.
You must bring back to me the tribes of Jacob.
You must bring back the people of Israel
who are still alive.
But I have something else for you to do that is even more important:
I will make you a light for the other
nations.
You will show people all over the world
the way to be saved."
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD, the Holy Protector of Israel, speaks to his servant.
People hate that servant.
Nations despise him.
He is now a slave to rulers.
The Lord says to him,
"Kings will see you and stand to honor
you.
Great leaders will bow down to you."

This will happen for the LORD. The Holy One of Israel is the one who chose you, and he can be trusted.

The Day of Salvation

- <sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"There will be a special time when I show
my kindness.
Then I will answer your prayers.

- There will be a special day when I will save you.
Then I will help you and protect you.
And you will be the proof of my agreement* with the people.
The country is destroyed now, but you will give the land back to the people who own it.
- <sup>9</sup> You will tell the prisoners,
'Come out of your prison!'
You will tell those who are in darkness,
'Come out of the dark!'
The people will eat along the road, and they will have food even on empty
hills.
- <sup>10</sup> They will not be hungry or thirsty.
The hot sun and wind will not hurt
them.
Their Comforter will lead them.
He will lead them by springs of water.
- <sup>11</sup> I will make a road for my people.
The mountains will be made flat,
and the low roads will be raised.
- <sup>12</sup> "Look! People are coming to me from faraway places.
They are coming to me from the north and from the west.
They are coming to me from Aswan in Egypt."
- <sup>13</sup> Heavens and earth, be happy!
Mountains, shout with joy!
The LORD comforts his people.
He is good to his poor people.
- <sup>14</sup> But now Zion* says, "The LORD has left
me;
the Lord has forgotten me."
- <sup>15</sup> But the Lord says,
"Can a woman forget her baby?
Can she forget the child who came from her body?
Even if she can forget her children,
I cannot forget you.
- <sup>16</sup> I drew a picture of you on my hand.
You are always before my eyes.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>17</sup> Your children will come back to you, and those who destroyed you will leave.
- <sup>18</sup> Look up! Look all around you!
All of your children are gathering together and coming to you."
- The LORD says,
"On my life, I promise you this:
Your children will be like jewels that you tie around your neck.
Your children will be like the necklace that a bride wears.

<sup>a</sup>49:16 / ... eyes Or "I see your figure before me always." This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word "figure" also means "walls."

- <sup>19</sup>“You are destroyed and defeated now.
Your land is useless.
But after a short time, you will have many people in your land.
And those who destroyed you will be far, far away.
<sup>20</sup> You were sad for the children you lost,
but they will tell you,
‘This place is too small!
Give us a bigger place to live!’
<sup>21</sup> Then you will say to yourself,
‘Who gave me all these children?’
I was sad and lonely.
My children were taken away.
They were gone.
So who gave me these children?
Look, I was the only one left.
Where did all these children come from?”

- <sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord God says:
“Look, I will wave my hand to the nations.
I will raise my flag for everyone to see.
Then they will bring your children to you.
They will carry your children on their shoulders,
and they will hold them in their arms.
<sup>23</sup> Kings will be their teachers.
The daughters of kings will care for
them.
The kings and their daughters will bow down to you.
They will kiss the dirt at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,
and anyone who trusts in me will not be disappointed.”
<sup>24</sup> If a strong soldier takes a prisoner, can you set him free?
If a powerful soldier guards someone,
can the prisoner escape?
<sup>25</sup> Here is the LORD’s answer:
“The prisoners will escape.
Those captured by the strong soldier will be set free.
That’s because I will fight your battles,
and I will save your children.
<sup>26</sup> Those people hurt you, but I will force them to eat their own bodies.
Their own blood will be the wine that makes them drunk.
Then everyone will know that the LORD saved you.
Everyone will know that the Powerful
One of Jacob* saved you.”

Israel Punished Because of Their Sin

- 50 <sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says:
“People of Israel, you say that I divorced your mother, Jerusalem.
But where is the legal paper that proves
I divorced her?
My children, did I owe money to someone?

- Did I sell you to pay a debt?
No, you were sold because of the bad things you did.
Your mother was sent away because of the bad things you did.
<sup>2</sup> I came home and found no one there.
I called and called, but no one answered.
Do you think I cannot get you back?
Do you think I cannot save you?
Look, if I gave the command, the ocean would dry up!
I can turn rivers into a desert.
The fish would die without water, and their bodies would rot.
<sup>3</sup> I can make the skies dark.
I can cover the skies in darkness as black as sackcloth.”

God’s Servant Depends on God

<sup>4</sup>The Lord God gave me the ability to teach, so now I teach these sad people. Every morning he wakes me and teaches me like a student. <sup>5</sup>The Lord God helps me learn, and I have not turned against him. I will not stop following him. <sup>6</sup>I will let those people beat me and pull the hair from my beard. I will not hide my face when they say bad things to me and spit at me. <sup>7</sup>The Lord God will help me, so the bad things they say will not hurt me. I will be strong. I know I will not be disappointed.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is with me. He shows that I am innocent, so no one will be able to show I am guilty. If someone wants to try to prove I am wrong, that person should come to me, and we will have a trial. <sup>9</sup>But look, the Lord God helps me, so no one can prove me guilty. As for them, they will all be like worthless old clothes, eaten by moths.

<sup>10</sup>People who respect the LORD also listen to his servant. That servant lives completely trusting in God without knowing what will happen. He really trusts in the LORD’s name and depends on his God.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD says, “Look, you people want to do whatever you want. So light your own fires and torches, but you will be punished.
You will fall into your fires and torches and be burned. I will make that happen.”

Israel Should Be Like Abraham

51 <sup>1</sup>“Some of you people try hard to live good lives. You go to the LORD for help. Listen to me. You should look at Abraham your father. He is the rock you were cut from. <sup>2</sup>Abraham is your father, so look at him.
Look at Sarah, who gave birth to you. Abraham was alone when I called him. Then I blessed him, and he began a great family with many descendants.”

<sup>3</sup>In the same way, the LORD will bless Zion.*
He will feel sorry for her and her people, and he will do something great for her. He will turn the desert into a garden. It will be like the Garden of Eden. The land was empty, but it will become like the LORD's garden. People there will be very happy. They will sing victory songs to thank God for what he did.

- <sup>4</sup>“My people, listen to me!
My decisions will be like lights showing people how to live.
- <sup>5</sup> I will soon save you and show that I am fair.
I will use my power and judge all nations.
All the faraway places are waiting for me.
They wait for my power to help them.
- <sup>6</sup> Look up to the heavens!
Look around you at the earth below!
The skies will disappear like clouds of smoke.
The earth will become like worthless old clothes.
The people on earth will die,
but my salvation will continue forever.
My goodness will never end.
- <sup>7</sup> You people who understand goodness should listen to me.
You people who follow my teachings should hear the things I say.
Don't be afraid of evil people.
Don't let their insults upset you.
- <sup>8</sup> They will be like old clothes eaten by moths.
They will be like wool eaten by worms.
But my goodness will last forever.
My salvation will continue forever and ever.”

God's Own Power Will Save His People

- <sup>9</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Arm of the LORD, clothe yourself with strength.
Show your power the way you did long ago,
as you have from ancient times.
You are the one who destroyed Rahab.*
You defeated the Dragon.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>10</sup> You dried up the water that was in the deep sea.
You made a road through the deepest parts of the sea.
Your people crossed over and were saved.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD will save his people.
They will return to Zion<sup>a</sup> with joy.
They will be very happy.
Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads forever.
They will be singing with joy.
All sadness will be gone far away.

<sup>a</sup>51:9 Rahab ... Dragon This is Rahab the great sea monster. Some ancient stories tell about Rahab fighting with God.

- <sup>12</sup> The LORD says, “I am the one who comforts you.
So why should you be afraid of people?
They are only humans who live and die like the grass.”
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD made you.
With his power he made the earth and spread the sky over the earth.
But you forgot him,
so you are always afraid that angry men will hurt you.
Those men planned to destroy you,
but where are they now?
- <sup>14</sup> People in prison will soon be made free.
They will not die and rot in prison.
They will have plenty of food.
- <sup>15</sup>“I am the LORD your God,
the one who stirs up the sea and makes the waves roar.”
(The LORD All-Powerful is his name.)

God Punished Israel

- <sup>17</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Jerusalem, get up!
The LORD was very angry with you.
So you were punished.
It was like a cup of poison you had to drink,
and you drank it all.
- <sup>18</sup>Jerusalem had many people, but none of them became leaders for her. None of the children she raised became guides to lead her.
- <sup>19</sup>Troubles came to you, Jerusalem, in pairs:
Your land was destroyed and lies in ruins, and your people suffered from famine and war.
- But no one felt sorry for you or showed you mercy. <sup>20</sup>Your people became weak. They fell on the ground and lay there. They were lying on every street corner, like animals caught in a net. They were punished by the LORD's anger until they could not accept any more punishment. When God said he would give them more punishment, they became very weak.
- <sup>21</sup>Listen to me, poor Jerusalem. You are weak like a drunk, but you are not drunk from wine. You are weak [from that “cup of poison”].
- <sup>22</sup>Your God will fight for his people. The LORD says to you, “Look, I am taking this ‘cup of poison’ away from you. I am taking my anger away from you. You will not be punished by my anger again. <sup>23</sup>I will now use my anger to punish the people who hurt you. They tried to kill you. They told you, ‘Bow down before us, and we will walk on you.’ They forced you to bow down before them, and then they walked on your back like dirt. You were like a road for them to walk on.”

Israel Will Be Saved

- 52 <sup>1</sup>Wake up! Wake up!
Zion,* clothe yourself with strength.
Holy city of Jerusalem, stand up and put on your beautiful clothes!
Those filthy foreigners<sup>a</sup> will not enter you again.
<sup>2</sup> Jerusalem, get up and shake off the dust!
Daughter Zion,<sup>b</sup> you were a prisoner,
but take the chains off your neck.
<sup>3</sup> The LORD says,
“You were not sold for money.
So I will not use money to set you free.”

<sup>4</sup>The Lord God says, “First, my people went down to Egypt and became slaves. Then Assyria made them slaves. <sup>5</sup>Now look what has happened. Another nation has taken my people. That country did not pay to take my people, but they rule over them and laugh at them, and they say bad things about me all the time.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD says, “This happened so that my people will learn about me. My people will know who I am. My people will know my name, and they will know that I Am He<sup>c</sup> is speaking to them.”

<sup>7</sup>How wonderful it is to see someone coming over the hills to tell good news. How wonderful to hear him announce, “There is peace! We have been saved!” and to hear him say to Zion, “Your God is the king!”

- <sup>8</sup> The city guards<sup>d</sup> are shouting.
They are all rejoicing together.
They can all see the LORD returning to Zion.
<sup>9</sup> Ruins of Jerusalem, be happy again!
Rejoice because the LORD comforted his people and set Jerusalem
free.
<sup>10</sup> The LORD showed his holy strength to all the nations.
All the faraway countries saw how God saved his people.
<sup>11</sup> So leave Babylon!
Leave that place!
Priests, you carry the things that are used in worship.

<sup>c</sup>52:6 I Am He This is like YAHWEH, the Hebrew name for God. It shows that God lives forever, and that he is always with his people. See Ex. 3:13–17.

<sup>d</sup>52:8 guards Men who stand on the city walls and watch for messengers or trouble coming to the city. Here, this probably means the prophets.

So make yourselves pure.
Don’t touch anything that is not pure.

- <sup>12</sup> You will leave Babylon, but they will not force you to leave in a hurry.
You will not be forced to run away.
The LORD will be in front of you.
The God of Israel will be behind you.<sup>e</sup>

God’s Suffering Servant

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, “Look, my servant will succeed in what he has to do, and he will be raised to a position of high honor. <sup>14</sup>It is true that many were shocked when they saw him. He was beaten so badly that he no longer looked like a man. <sup>15</sup>But it is also true that many nations will be amazed at him. Kings will look at him and be unable to speak. They will see what they had never been told. They will understand what they had never heard.”

<sup>2</sup>He was always close to the Lord. He grew up like a young plant, like a root growing in dry ground. There was nothing special or impressive about the way he looked, nothing we could see that would cause us to like him. <sup>3</sup>People made fun of him, and even his friends left him. He was a man who suffered a lot of pain and sickness. We treated him like someone of no importance, like someone people will not even look at but turn away from in disgust.

<sup>4</sup>The fact is, it was our suffering he took on himself; he bore our pain. But we thought that God was punishing him, that God was beating him for something he did. <sup>5</sup>But he was being punished for what we did. He was crushed because of our guilt. He took the punishment we deserved, and this brought us peace. We were healed because of his pain. <sup>6</sup>We had all wandered away like sheep. We had gone our own way. And yet the LORD put all our guilt on him.

<sup>7</sup>He was treated badly, but he never protested. He said nothing, like a lamb being led away to be killed. He was like a sheep that makes no sound as its wool is being cut off. He never opened his mouth to defend himself. <sup>8</sup>He was taken away by force and judged unfairly. The people of his time did not even notice that he was killed.<sup>h</sup> But he was put to <sup>e</sup>52:12 The LORD ... behind you This shows that God will protect his people. Compare Ex. 14:19, 20.

<sup>f</sup>52:15 They will see ... heard Or “Those who were not told the message saw what happened. Those who did not hear understood.”

death<sup>a</sup> for the sins of his<sup>b</sup> people. <sup>9</sup>He had done no wrong to anyone. He had never even told a lie. But he was buried among the wicked. His tomb was with the rich.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD was pleased with this humble servant who suffered such pain.<sup>c</sup> Even after giving himself as an offering for sin, he will see his descendants and enjoy a long life. He will succeed in doing what the LORD wanted. <sup>11</sup>After his suffering he will see the light,<sup>d</sup> and he will be satisfied with what he experienced.

The Lord says, “My servant, who always does what is right, will make his people right with me; he will take away their sins. <sup>12</sup>For this reason I will treat him as one of my great people. I will give him the rewards of one who wins in battle, and he will share them with his powerful ones. I will do this because he gave his life for the people. He was considered a criminal, but the truth is, he carried away the sins of many. Now he will stand before me and speak for those who have sinned.”

God Brings His People Home

54 <sup>1</sup>Woman, be happy!
You have not had any children,
but you should be very happy.

The LORD says,
“The woman who is alone<sup>e</sup> will have more children than the woman with a husband.”

- <sup>2</sup> Make your tent bigger.
Open your doors wide.
Don't think small!
Make your tent large and strong,
because you will grow in all directions.
Your children will take over many nations and live in the cities that were
destroyed.
- <sup>4</sup> Don't be afraid!
You will not be disappointed.
People will not say bad things against you.
You will not be embarrassed.
When you were young, you felt shame.
But you will forget that shame now.
You will not remember the shame you felt when you lost your husband.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>b</sup>53:8 his This is the reading in a Hebrew copy among the Dead Sea Scrolls. The standard Hebrew text has “my.”

<sup>e</sup>54:1 The woman ... alone This Hebrew word is like the word “destroyed.” This probably means “Jerusalem, the city that is destroyed.”

<sup>f</sup>54:4 husband In Hebrew this word is like the name

- <sup>5</sup> Your real husband is the one who made you.
His name is the LORD All-Powerful.
The Holy One of Israel is your Protector,<sup>g</sup> and he is the God of all the earth!
- <sup>6</sup> You were like a woman whose husband had left her.
You were very sad in your spirit.
You were like a woman who married
young,
and then her husband left her.
But the Lord has called you back to him.
- <sup>7</sup> God says, “I left you,
but only for a short time.
But with all my love,
I will bring you back to me again.
- <sup>8</sup> I became angry and turned away from you for a short time.
But I will comfort you with kindness
forever.”
The LORD your Savior said this.
- <sup>9</sup> God says, “Remember, in Noah's time I punished the world with the flood.
But I made a promise to Noah that I would never again destroy the world with a flood.
In the same way, I promise that I will never again be angry with you and say bad things to you.
- <sup>10</sup> “The mountains may disappear,
and the hills may become dust,
but my faithful love will never leave you.
I will make peace with you,
and it will never end.”
The LORD who loves you said this.
- <sup>11</sup> “You poor city!
Enemies came against you like storms,
and no one comforted you.
But I will rebuild you.
I will use a beautiful mortar to lay the stones of your walls.
I will use sapphire stones when I lay the foundation.
- <sup>12</sup> The stones on top of the wall will be made from rubies.
I will use shiny jewels for the gates.
I will use precious stones to build the walls around you.
- <sup>13</sup> Your children will all be followers of God.
And they will have real peace.
- <sup>14</sup> You will be built on goodness.
You will be safe from cruelty and fear.
So you will have nothing to fear.

Baal. This means that the LORD is Jerusalem's true God, not the false god Baal.

<sup>g</sup>54:5 Protector Or “Redeemer,” someone who cared for and protected the family of a dead relative. Often this person bought back (redeemed) the poor relatives from slavery, making them free again.

Nothing will come to hurt you.

- <sup>15</sup> I will never send anyone to attack you.
And if any army tries to attack you, you will defeat them.

<sup>16</sup>“Look, I made the blacksmith.* He blows on the fire to make it hotter. Then he takes the hot iron and makes the kind of tool he wants to make. In the same way, I made the ‘Destroyer’ to destroy things.

<sup>17</sup>“People will make weapons to fight against you, but their weapons will not defeat
you. Some people will say things against you, but anyone who speaks against you will be proved wrong.”

The LORD says, “That is what my servants get! They get the good things<sup>a</sup> that come from
me.

God Gives “Food” That Really Satisfies

55 <sup>1</sup>“All you people who are thirsty,
come!
Here is water for you to drink.
Don’t worry if you have no money.
Come, eat and drink until you are full!
You don’t need money.

The milk and wine are free.

- <sup>2</sup> Why waste your money on something that is not real food?
Why should you work for something that does not really satisfy you?
Listen closely to me and you will eat what is good.

You will enjoy the food that satisfies your soul.

- <sup>3</sup> Listen closely to what I say.
Listen to me so that you will live.
I will make an agreement with you that will last forever.
It will be an agreement you can trust,
like the one I made with David*— a promise to love him and be loyal to him forever.

- <sup>4</sup> I made David a witness of my power for all nations.
I promised him that he would become a ruler and commander of many
nations.”

- <sup>5</sup> There are nations in places you don’t know,
but you will call for them to come.
They don’t know you,
but they will run to you.
This will happen because the LORD, your God, wants it.
It will happen because the Holy One of Israel honors you.

- <sup>6</sup> So you should look for the LORD
before it is too late.
You should call to him now,
while he is near.

<sup>a</sup>54:17 good things Or “victory.”

- <sup>7</sup> Evil people should stop living evil lives.
They should stop thinking bad thoughts.
They should come to the LORD again,
and he will comfort them.
They should come to our God
because he will freely forgive them.

People Cannot Understand God

- <sup>8</sup> The LORD says, “My thoughts are not like yours.
Your ways are not like mine.
<sup>9</sup> Just as the heavens are higher than the
earth,
so my ways are higher than your ways, and my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.”
This is what the LORD himself said.

- <sup>10</sup>“Rain and snow fall from the sky and don’t return until they have watered the ground.
Then the ground causes the plants to sprout and grow,
and they produce seeds for the farmer and food for people to eat.
<sup>11</sup> In the same way, my words leave my mouth,
and they don’t come back without results.
My words make the things happen that I want to happen.
They succeed in doing what I send them to do.

- <sup>12</sup>“So you will go out from there with joy.
You will be led out in peace.
When you come to the mountains and hills, they will begin singing.
All the trees in the fields will clap their hands.

- <sup>13</sup> Large cypress trees will grow where there were thornbushes.
Myrtle trees will grow where there were weeds.
All this will happen to make the LORD known,
to be a permanent reminder of his goodness and power.”

All Nations Will Follow the Lord

56 <sup>1</sup>The LORD said these things, “Be fair to all people. Do what is right, because soon my salvation will come to you.
My goodness will soon be shown to the whole world. <sup>2</sup>I will bless those who refuse to do wrong and who obey the law about the Sabbath.*”

<sup>3</sup>Some foreigners will choose to follow the LORD. They should not say, “The LORD will not really accept me like the rest of his people.” A eunuch* should not say, “I am only a dry piece of wood. [I cannot have any children.]”

<sup>4</sup>They should not say that because the LORD says, “Some eunuchs obey the laws about the Sabbath. They choose to do what I want, and they follow my agreement.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>So I will put a memorial stone in my Temple* for them. Their name will be remembered in my city! Yes, I will give those eunuchs something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a name that will last forever! They will not be cut off<sup>b</sup> from my people.”

<sup>6</sup>“Some foreigners have chosen to follow the LORD. They do this so that they can serve him and love his name and be his servants. They keep the Sabbath as a special day of worship, and they will continue to follow closely my agreement.* <sup>7</sup>So I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them happy in my house of prayer. The offerings and sacrifices* they give me will please me, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” <sup>8</sup>The Lord God said these things.

The Israelites were forced to leave their country, but the Lord will gather them together again. He says, “I will bring them back together again!”

They don’t know what they are doing.

They are like dogs that will not bark.

They lie on the ground and sleep.

Oh, they love to sleep.

<sup>11</sup> They are like hungry dogs.

They are never satisfied.

The shepherds don’t know what they are doing.

Like their sheep, they have all wandered away.

They are greedy.

All they want is to satisfy themselves.

<sup>12</sup> They come and say,

“I will drink some wine.

I will drink some beer.

I will do the same thing tomorrow,

but I will drink even more.”

Israel Does Not Follow God

57 <sup>1</sup>All the good people are gone, and no one even noticed.

The loyal followers were gathered up, but no one knows why.

The reason they were gathered up is that trouble is coming.

<sup>2</sup> But peace will come too, and those who trust him will get to rest in their own beds.

<sup>a</sup>56:4 agreement This usually means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. (See “agreement” in the Word List.) Here, it might mean the agreement of Isaiah 55:3.

<sup>b</sup>56:5 cut off To be removed from the list of the people of Israel. This included a person’s being forced to leave family, land, and the people of Israel.

Your father committed adultery, and your mother was unfaithful.

<sup>4</sup> You are children out of control, full of lies.

You make fun of me.

You make faces

and stick out your tongue at me.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>5</sup> All you want is to worship false gods under every green tree.

You kill children by every stream and sacrifice them in the rocky places.

<sup>6</sup> You love to worship the smooth rocks in the rivers.

You pour wine on them to worship them.

You give sacrifices* to them, but those rocks are all you get.

Do you think this makes me happy?

You make your bed on every hill and high mountain.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>7</sup> You go up to those places and offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup> You hide the things that help you remember me behind the doors and doorframes.<sup>f</sup>

You were with me,

but you got up to go to them.

You spread out your bed and gave yourself to them.<sup>g</sup>

You love their beds

and enjoy looking at their naked bodies.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>9</sup> You use your oils and perfumes to look nice for Molech.*

You sent your messengers to faraway lands, and this will bring you down to the place of death.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10</sup> All of them made you tired, but you never gave up.

You found new strength, because you enjoyed them.

<sup>11</sup> You did not remember me.

You did not even notice me!

So who were you worrying about?

Who were you afraid of?

Why did you lie?

Look, I have been quiet for a long time.

Is that why you didn’t honor me?

<sup>d</sup>57:4 make faces ... tongue This probably refers to the god Bel, which is usually shown making a face and sticking out his tongue.

<sup>e</sup>57:6 every hill and high mountain The people worshiped false gods in these places. The people thought these false gods would give them good crops and more children.

<sup>f</sup>57:8 doorframes The Israelites were supposed to put special things on their doorframes to help them remember God. See Deut. 6:9.

<sup>g</sup>57:8 gave yourself to them Or “And made agreements with them.”

<sup>h</sup>57:8 naked bodies This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means “memorial,” as in Isaiah 56:5.

<sup>i</sup>57:9 this will ... death Or “You even send them down to Sheol!”

- <sup>12</sup> I could tell about your 'good works' and all the 'religious' things you do, but that will not help you.
- <sup>13</sup> When you need help, you cry to those false gods that you have gathered around you. Let them help you!
- But I tell you, the wind will blow them all away.
A puff of wind will blow them all away. But the one who depends on me will get the land I promised and enjoy my holy mountain.<sup>a</sup>"

The Lord Will Save His People

- <sup>14</sup> Clear the road! Clear the road! Make the way clear for my people!
- <sup>15</sup> God is high and lifted up. He lives forever. His name is holy. He says, "I live in a high and holy place, but I also live with people who are humble and sorry for their sins. I will give new life to those who are humble in spirit. I will give new life to those who are sorry for their sins."
- <sup>16</sup> I will not accuse my people forever. I will not always be angry. If I continued to show my anger, then the human spirit, the life I gave them, would die before me.
- <sup>17</sup> Israel's evil greed made me angry, so I punished them. I turned away from them because I was angry. But they continued to do wrong. They did whatever they wanted.
- <sup>18</sup> I have seen their way of life, but I will heal them. I will guide and comfort them and those who mourn* for them.
- <sup>19</sup> I will teach them a new word: peace. I will give peace to those who are near and to those who are far away. I will heal them."
The LORD himself said this.

<sup>20</sup>But evil people are like the angry ocean. They cannot be quiet and peaceful. They are angry, and like the ocean, they stir up mud. My God says, <sup>21</sup>"There is no peace for evil people."

People Must Be Told to Follow God

- 58 <sup>1</sup>Shout as loud as you can and don't stop. Shout like a trumpet! Tell the people what they did wrong. Tell the family of Jacob* about their sins.
- <sup>2</sup> They still come every day to worship me.

They act just like they want to learn my ways.
They pretend to be a nation that lives right and obeys the commands of their God. They ask me to judge them fairly. They want their God to be near them.

<sup>3</sup>They say, "We fast* to show honor to you. Why don't you see us? We starve our bodies to show honor to you. Why don't you notice us?"

But the LORD says, "You do things to please yourselves on those special days of fasting. And you punish your servants, not your own bodies. <sup>4</sup>You are hungry, but not for food. You are hungry for arguing and fighting, not for bread. You are hungry to hit people with your evil hands. This is not the way to fast if you want your prayers to be heard in heaven! <sup>5</sup>Do you think I want to see people punish their bodies on those days of fasting? Do you think I want people to look sad and bow their heads like dead plants? Do you think I want people to wear mourning* clothes and sit in ashes to show their sadness? That is what you do on your days of fasting. Do you think that is what the LORD wants?"

<sup>6</sup>"I will tell you the kind of day I want—a day to set people free. I want a day that you take the burdens off others. I want a day when you set troubled people free and you take the burdens from their shoulders. <sup>7</sup>I want you to share your food with the hungry. I want you to find the poor who don't have homes and bring them into your own homes. When you see people who have no clothes, give them your clothes! Don't hide from your relatives when they need help."

<sup>8</sup>If you do these things, your light will begin to shine like the light of dawn. Then your wounds will heal. Your "Goodness" will walk in front of you, and the Glory of the LORD* will come following behind you. <sup>9</sup>Then you will call to the LORD, and he will answer you. You will cry out to him, and he will say, "Here I am."

Stop causing trouble and putting burdens on people. Stop accusing people of wrongdoing<sup>b</sup> and saying hurtful things. <sup>10</sup>Feel sorry for hungry people and give them food. Help those who are troubled and satisfy their needs. Then your light will shine in the darkness. You will be like the bright sunshine at noon.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will always lead you and satisfy your needs in dry lands. He will give strength to your bones. You will be like a garden that has plenty of water, like a spring that never goes dry.

<sup>12</sup>Your cities have been destroyed for many years, but you will rebuild them and their foundations will last for a long time. You will be called “Fence Fixer” and “Builder of Roads and Houses.”

<sup>13</sup>That will happen when you stop sinning against God’s law about the Sabbath* and when you stop doing things to please yourself on that special day. You should call the Sabbath a happy day. You should honor the LORD’s special day by not saying and doing things that you do every other day of the week. <sup>14</sup>Then you could enjoy the LORD. As the LORD himself says, “I could carry you up to the highest mountain and let you enjoy the land that I gave to your father Jacob.”

Evil People Should Change Their Lives

59 <sup>1</sup>Look, the LORD’s power is enough to save you. He can hear you when you ask him for help. <sup>2</sup>It is your sins that separate you from your God. The LORD turns away from you when he sees them. <sup>3</sup>That’s because your hands are covered with blood from the people you murdered. You tell lies and say evil things. <sup>4</sup>You can’t be trusted, even in court. You lie about each other and depend on false arguments to win your cases. You create pain and produce wickedness. <sup>5</sup>You hatch evil, like eggs from a poisonous snake. Anyone who eats the eggs will die. And if you break one of them open, a poisonous snake will come out.

Your lies are like spider webs. <sup>6</sup>They cannot be used for clothes, and you cannot cover yourself with them.

Your hands are always busy sinning and hurting others. <sup>7</sup>Your feet run toward evil. You are always ready to kill innocent people. You think of nothing but evil. Everywhere you go you cause trouble and ruin. <sup>8</sup>You don’t know how to live in peace. You don’t do what is right and fair. You are crooked, and anyone who lives like that will never know true peace.

Israel’s Sin Brings Trouble

- <sup>9</sup> All fairness and goodness is gone.
There is only darkness around us,
so we must wait for the light.
We hope for a bright light,
but all we have is darkness.
- <sup>10</sup> We are like people without eyes.
We walk into walls like blind people.
We stumble and fall as if it was night.
Even in the daylight, we cannot see.
At noontime, we fall like dead men.
- <sup>11</sup> We are always complaining;
we growl like bears and moan like doves.
We are waiting for justice,
but there is none.
We are waiting to be saved,
but salvation is still far away.
- <sup>12</sup> That’s because we committed crimes against our God.
Our own sins speak out against us.
We know we are guilty.
We know we have sinned.

- <sup>13</sup> We rebelled against the LORD and lied to him.
We turned away from our God and left him.
We planned to hurt others
and to rebel against God.
From hearts filled with lies,
we talked about it and made our plans.
- <sup>14</sup> We pushed Justice away.
Fairness stands off in the distance.
Truth has fallen in the streets.
Goodness is not allowed in the city.
- <sup>15</sup> Loyalty is gone, and people who try to do good are robbed.

The LORD looked and saw there was no justice.

He did not like what he saw.

- <sup>16</sup> He did not see anyone speak up for the people.
He was shocked to see that no one stood up for them.
So with his own power he saved them.
His desire to do what is right gave him strength.
- <sup>17</sup> He put on the armor of goodness,
the helmet of salvation,
the uniform of punishment, and the coat of strong love.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>18</sup> He will give his enemies the punishment
they deserve.
They will feel his anger.
He will punish all his enemies.
People along the coast will get the punishment they deserve.
- <sup>19</sup> People from the west to the east will fear
the LORD and respect his Glory.*
He will come quickly, like a fast-flowing river
driven by a wind<sup>b</sup> from the LORD.
- <sup>20</sup> Then a redeemer<sup>c</sup> will come to Zion* to save the people of Jacob* who have turned away from sin.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD says, “As for me, this is the agreement that I will make with these people. I promise my Spirit* that I put on you and my words that I put in your mouth will never leave you. They will be with you and your children and your children’s children, for now and forever.

God Is Coming

60 <sup>1</sup>“Jerusalem, get up and shine!<sup>d</sup>
Your Light is coming!
The Glory of the LORD* will shine on you.

- 2 Darkness now covers the earth, and the people are in darkness.
But the LORD will shine on you,
and his Glory will appear over you.
- 3 Then the nations will come to your light.
Kings will come to your bright sunrise.
- 4 Look around you!
See all the people gathering around.
Those are your sons coming from far
away,
and your daughters are there beside
them.
- 5 "At that time you will see your people, and your faces will shine with happiness.
First, you will be afraid,
but then you will be excited.
All the riches from across the seas will be set before you.
The riches of the nations will come to
you.
- 6 Herds of camels from Midian and Ephah will cross your land.
Long lines of camels will come from Sheba.
They will bring gold and incense.*
People will sing praises to the LORD.
- 7 People will collect all the sheep from Kedar and give them to you.
They will bring you rams from Nebaioth.
You will offer those animals on my altar,*
and I will accept them.
I will make my wonderful Temple*
even more beautiful.
- 8 Look at the people.
They are rushing toward you like clouds quickly crossing the sky.
They are like doves flying to their nests.
- 9 The faraway lands are waiting for me.
The great cargo ships are ready to sail.
They are ready to bring your children from faraway lands.
They will bring silver and gold with
them
to honor the LORD your God, the Holy
One of Israel.
The LORD does wonderful things for you.
- 10 Children from other lands will rebuild your walls.
Their kings will serve you.
- "When I was angry, I hurt you,
but now I want to be kind to you.
So I will comfort you.
- 11 Your gates will always be open.
They will not be closed, day or night.
Nations and kings will bring their wealth
to you.
- 12 Any nation or kingdom that does not serve you will be destroyed.
- 13 All the great things of Lebanon* will be given to you.
People will bring pine trees, fir trees,

- and cypress trees to you.
These trees will be used for lumber to make my Holy Place<sup>a</sup> more beautiful.
This place is like a stool in front of my throne,
and I will honor it.<sup>b</sup>
- 14 In the past, people hurt you,
but they will bow down before you.
In the past, people hated you,
but they will bow down at your feet.
They will call you 'The City of the LORD's,'
'Zion' of the Holy One of Israel.'
- 15 "People hated you.
You were left all alone with no one passing through.
But I will make you great from now on.
You will be happy forever and ever.
- 16 Nations will give you what you need, like a child drinking milk from its mother.
But you will 'drink' riches from kings.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who saves you.
You will know that I, the Great God of Jacob,* protect you.
- 17 "You now have copper,
but I will bring you gold.
You now have iron,
but I will bring you silver.
I will change your wood into copper and your rocks into iron.
I will change your punishment into peace.
And those who punished you will be replaced with those who are kind to you.
- 18 There will never again be news of violence in your country.
People will never again attack your
country
and steal from you.
You will name your walls, 'Salvation'
and your gates, 'Praise.'
- 19 "The sun will no longer be your light
during the day.
The light from the moon will no longer be your light at night.
The LORD will be your light forever.
Your God will be your glory.
- 20 Your sun will never go down again.
Your moon will never again be dark.
That's because the LORD will be your light
forever,
and the dark days of mourning* will end.
- 21 "All your people will be good.
They will get the land forever.
They are the young plant in my garden<sup>c</sup>

<sup>b</sup>60:13 I will honor it Or "I will give it glory."

that will grow to be a wonderful tree.
I made them with my own hands.<sup>d</sup>

- 22 The smallest family will become a large family group.

The smallest tribe will become a powerful nation.

When the time is right,

I, the LORD, will come quickly.

I will make these things happen.”

The Lord's Message of Freedom

61 <sup>1</sup>The Spirit* of the Lord God is on me. The LORD has chosen me to tell good news to the poor and to comfort those who are sad. He sent me to tell the captives and prisoners that they have been set free. <sup>2</sup>He sent me to announce that the time has come for the LORD to show his kindness, when our God will also punish evil people. He has sent me to comfort those who are sad, <sup>3</sup>those in Zion* who mourn.* I will take away the ashes on their head, and I will give them a crown. I will take away their sadness, and I will give them the oil of happiness. I will take away their sorrow, and I will give them celebration clothes. He sent me to name them ‘Good Trees’ and ‘The LORD’s Wonderful Plant.’

<sup>4</sup>Then the old cities that were destroyed will be rebuilt. Those ancient ruins will be made new, as they were in the beginning.

<sup>5</sup>Then your enemies will come to care for your sheep, and their children will work in your fields and in your gardens. <sup>6</sup>You will be called, ‘The LORD’s Priests,’ ‘The Servants of our God.’ You will be proud of all the riches that have come to you from all the nations on earth.

<sup>7</sup>In the past, other people shamed you and said bad things to you. You were shamed much more than any other people. So in your land you will get two times more than other people. You will get the joy that continues forever. <sup>8</sup>That’s because I am the LORD and I love justice. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. So I will give the people what they deserve. I will make an agreement with my people forever. <sup>9</sup>Their descendants will be known throughout the earth, and everyone will know their children. Whoever sees them will know that the LORD has blessed them.

God's Servant Brings Salvation

<sup>10</sup> The LORD makes me very happy.
I am completely happy with my God.
He dressed me in the clothes of salvation.
He put the victory coat on me.
I look like a man dressed for his wedding,
like a bride covered with jewels.

<sup>11</sup> The earth causes plants to grow, and a garden makes the seeds planted
there rise up.

In the same way, the LORD will make goodness and praise
grow throughout the nations.

New Jerusalem: A City Full of Goodness

62 <sup>1</sup>I love Zion,* so I will continue to speak for her.
I love Jerusalem,
so I will not stop speaking.
I will speak until goodness<sup>b</sup> shines like a bright light,
until salvation burns bright like a flame.
<sup>2</sup> Then all nations will see your goodness.
All kings will see your honor.
Then you will have a new name that the LORD himself will give you.
<sup>3</sup> You will be like a beautiful crown that the LORD holds up,
like a king’s crown in the hand of your God.
<sup>4</sup> You will never again be called ‘The People God Left.’
Your land will never again be called
‘The Land God Destroyed.’
You will be called ‘The People God
Loves.’
Your land will be called ‘God’s Bride,’ because the LORD loves you,
and your land will be his.<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup> As a young man takes a bride and she belongs to him, so your land will belong to your children.<sup>d</sup>
As a man is happy with his new wife,
so your God will be happy with you.

<sup>6</sup> Jerusalem, I put guards on your walls.
They will not be silent.
They will keep praying day and night.

Guards, keep praying to the LORD.
Remind him of his promise.
Don’t ever stop praying.

<sup>7</sup> Don’t give him any rest until he rebuilds
Jerusalem
and makes it a place that everyone on earth will praise.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD made a promise and guaranteed
it by his own power.
And he will use that power to keep his promise.

The Lord said, “I promise that I will never again give your food to your enemies.
I promise that they will never again take the wine you make.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever gathers the food will eat it and
praise the LORD.

<sup>b</sup>62:1 goodness Or “victory.”

This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means “He will be the lord of the land.”

<sup>d</sup>62:5 your land ... children Or “Your builders will marry you.”

<sup>a</sup>60:21 They ... hands Or “They are the plant I planted, which I made with my own hands, to show how wonderful I am.”

Whoever gathers the grape will drink the wine in the courtyards of my Temple."

- 10 Come through the gates!
Clear the way for the people!
Prepare the road!
Move all the stones off the road!
Raise a flag as a sign for the nations!
- 11 Listen, the LORD is speaking to all the faraway lands:
"Tell the people of Zion,
'Look, your Savior is coming.
He is bringing your reward to you.
He is bringing it with him.'"
- 12 His people will be called "The Holy
People,"
"The Saved People of the LORD."
And you, Jerusalem, will be called "The City God Wants,"
"The City God Is With."

The Lord Punishes the Nations

63 <sup>1</sup>Who is this coming from Edom,*
from the city of Bozrah?
His clothes are stained bright red.
He is glorious in his clothes.
He is walking tall with his great power.
He says, "I have the power to save you,
and I speak the truth."

2 "Why are your clothes bright red?
They are like the clothes of someone who tramples grapes to make wine."

3 He answers, "I walked in the winepress*
by myself.
No one helped me.
I was angry, and I trampled the grapes.
The juice<sup>a</sup> splashed on my clothes, so now they are stained."

4 I chose a time to punish people.
Now the time has come for me to save and protect my people.

5 I looked around, but I saw no one to help
me.
I was surprised that no one supported
me.

So I used my own power to save my
people.
My own anger supported me.

6 In my anger I trampled down the nations.
I punished them in anger and spilled their blood<sup>b</sup> on the ground."

The Lord Has Been Kind to His People

7 I will remember that the LORD is kind,
and I will remember to praise the LORD.
He gave many good things to the family of Israel.*
He has been very kind to us.

He has shown us mercy.

8 He said, "These are my people.
These are my real children."
So he saved them.

9 The people had many troubles,
but he was not against them.
He loved them and felt sorry for them,
so he saved them.

He sent his special angel to save them.
He picked them up and carried them,
just as he did long ago.

10 But they turned against him and made his Holy Spirit* very sad.
So the Lord became their enemy and fought against them.

11 Then they remembered what happened
long ago.

They remembered Moses and those with him.

So where is the one who brought them through the sea
along with the shepherds who led his flock?

Where is the one who sent his Holy Spirit
to live among them?

12 He was by Moses' side and led him with his wonderful hand.

He divided the water,
so that the people could walk through the sea.

He made his name famous
by doing those great things.

13 He led the people through the deep sea.
Like a horse running through the desert,
they walked without falling.

14 Like cattle going down to the valley,
The Spirit of the LORD led them.
This is how you led your people and made your name wonderful.

A Prayer for God to Help His People

15 LORD, look down from the heavens.
See what is happening now.

Look down at us from your great and holy home in heaven.

Where is your strong love<sup>c</sup> for us?

Where is your compassion?

Why are you hiding your kind love from
me?

16 Look, you are our father!
Abraham does not know us.
Israel* does not recognize us.
LORD, you are our father!

You are the one who has always saved
us!

17 LORD, why are you pushing us away from
you?

Why are you making it hard for us to follow you?

Come back to us!

We are your servants.

<sup>c</sup>63:15 strong love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

- Come to us and help us!
Our tribes belong to you.
- 18 Your holy people had their land only a short time.
Then our enemies trampled down your holy Temple.*
- 19 Some people don't follow you.
They don't wear your name.
And we have been like them for a very long time.

- 64 <sup>1</sup>If you would tear open the skies and come down to earth, then everything would change.
Mountains would melt before you.
- 2 The mountains would burst into flames like burning bushes.
The mountains would boil like water on the fire.
Then your enemies would learn about you.
And all nations would shake with fear when they see you.
- 3 But you have done awesome things that we did not expect.
You came down, and mountains shook in fear before you.
- 4 No one has ever heard of such a God.
No one has ever heard such a story.
No one has ever seen any God except you,
who does such great things for those who trust him.

- 5 You welcome people who enjoy doing good and who remember you by living the way you want them to.
But we sinned against you,
and you became angry with us.<sup>a</sup>
But you always saved us!
- 6 We are all dirty with sin.
Even our good works are not pure.
They are like bloodstained rags.
We are all like dead leaves.
Our sins have carried us away like wind.
- 7 We don't call to you for help.
We aren't excited about following you,
so you have turned away from us.
We are helpless before you,
because we are full of sin.
- 8 But, LORD, you are our father.
We are like clay, and you are the potter.*
Your hands made us all.
- 9 LORD, don't continue to be angry with us!
Don't remember our sins forever!
Please, look at us!
We are all your people.
- 10 Your holy* cities are as empty as the desert.
Zion* has become a desert.
Jerusalem is destroyed.

<sup>a</sup>64:5 we sinned ... us Or "But you became angry with us and we sinned."

- 11 Our ancestors* worshiped you in our holy Temple.*
That wonderful Temple has now been burned.
All our precious possessions have been destroyed.
- 12 Will these things always keep you from helping?
Will you continue to say nothing?
Will you punish us forever?

All People Will Learn About God

- 65 <sup>1</sup>The LORD says, "I helped people who had not come to me for advice. Those who found me were not looking for me.<sup>b</sup> I spoke to a nation that does not use my name. I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!'
<sup>2</sup>All day long I stood ready to accept those who turned against me. But they kept doing whatever they wanted to do, and all they did was wrong. <sup>3</sup>They keep doing things, right in front of me, that make me angry. They offer sacrifices* and burn incense* in their special gardens.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>They sit among the graves, waiting to get messages from the dead. They eat the meat of pigs, and their pots are full of soup made from unclean meat. <sup>5</sup>But they tell others, 'Don't come near me! Don't touch me because I am holy!' They are like smoke in my eyes, and their fire burns all the time."

Israel Must Be Punished

- <sup>6</sup>"Look, here is a letter that lists all your sins. It is a bill that must be paid. I will not be quiet until I pay this bill, and I will pay it by punishing you. <sup>7</sup>I am doing this because of your sins and the sins of your ancestors.* They did these sins when they burned incense* in the mountains. They shamed me on those hills, and I punished them first."

- <sup>8</sup>The LORD says, "When there is new wine in the grapes, people squeeze out the wine. But they don't completely destroy the grapes because the grapes can still be used. I will do the same thing to my servants. I will not destroy them completely. <sup>9</sup>I will keep some of the people of Jacob.* Some of the people of Judah will get my mountains. I will choose the people who will get the land. My servants will live there. <sup>10</sup>Then Sharon Valley* will be a field for sheep. The Valley of Achor<sup>d</sup> will be a place for cattle to rest. All this will be for my people—for the people who come to me for help.

- <sup>11</sup>"But you people left the LORD, so you will be punished. You forgot about my holy* mountain.<sup>a</sup> You began to worship Luck. You held feasts for the false god, Fate.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>But I decided what would happen to you: you will be killed with a sword. You will all be killed because I called to you, but you refused to answer me. I spoke to you, but you would not listen. You did what I said is evil and chose to do what I did not like.”

<sup>b</sup>65:1 I helped ... me Or "I was ready to answer those who did not come to me for advice. I was ready to be found by those who did not look for me."

<sup>13</sup> So this is what the Lord God says:

“My servants will eat,
but you evil people will be hungry.
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty.
My servants will be happy,
but you will suffer shame.

<sup>14</sup> My servants will shout for joy, but you will cry out in pain.<sup>c</sup>
Your spirits will be broken, and you will be very sad.

<sup>15</sup> Your names will be like curses to my chosen servants.”

The Lord God will kill you, and then he will call his servants by a new name.

<sup>16</sup> The Lord says, “People now ask blessings
from the earth.

But in the future they will ask blessings from the faithful God.

People now trust in the power of the earth when they make a promise.

But in the future they will trust in the God who is faithful.

That’s because the troubles in the past will all be forgotten.

They will be hidden from my sight.”

A New Time Is Coming

<sup>17</sup>“I am creating a new heaven and a new earth.

The troubles of the past will be forgotten.
No one will remember them.

<sup>18</sup> My people will be happy and rejoice
forever and ever
because of what I will make.

I will make a Jerusalem that is full of joy,
and I will make her people happy.

<sup>19</sup>“Then I will rejoice with Jerusalem.

I will be happy with my people.
There will never again be crying and sadness in that city.

<sup>20</sup> In that city there will never be a baby who lives only a few days, and every older person will live for a long, long time.

A person who lives 100 years will be called young.

<sup>c</sup>65:14 My servants ... pain Literally, “My servants will rejoice with good hearts, and you will scream with painful hearts.”

And whoever doesn’t live that long will be considered cursed.

<sup>21</sup>“In that city whoever builds a house will live there;
whoever plants a vineyard* will eat the grapes from that garden.

<sup>22</sup> Never again will one person build a house and another person live there.

Never again will one person plant a garden
and another eat the fruit from it.
My people will live as long as the trees.
My chosen people will get full use of whatever they make.

<sup>23</sup> Never again will a woman suffer childbirth and have her baby die.
Women will not fear childbirth.
I will bless all my people and their children.

<sup>24</sup> I will answer them before they call for help.
I will help them before they finish asking.

<sup>25</sup> Wolves and little lambs will eat together.
Lions will eat hay like cattle,
and snakes will eat only dust.
They will not hurt or destroy each other on my holy mountain.”

This is what the LORD said.

God Will Judge All Nations

66 <sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is where I rest my feet.
So do you think you can build a house for
me?

Do I need a place to rest?

<sup>2</sup> I am the one who made all things.
They are all here because I made them,” says the LORD.

“These are the people I care for:
the poor, humble people who obey my
commands.

<sup>3</sup> Some people kill bulls as a sacrifice,
but they also beat people.
They kill sheep as a sacrifice,*
but they also break the necks of dogs.
They offer up grain offerings,
but they also offer the blood of pigs.<sup>d</sup>
They burn incense,*
but they also love their worthless idols.*
They choose their own ways,
and they love their terrible idols.

<sup>4</sup> So I decided to use their own tricks.
I will punish them using what they are most afraid of.

I will do this because I called to them,
but they did not answer.

I spoke to them,
but they did not listen.

<sup>d</sup>66:3 dogs ... pigs God did not want his people to offer dogs and pigs as sacrifices.

They did what I said is evil.
They chose to do what I did not like.*

- <sup>5</sup> You who obey the LORD's commands, listen to what he says:
"Your brothers hated you.
They turned against you because you followed me.
Your brothers said, 'When the LORD shows his glory,* then we will rejoice with you.'
But they will be punished."

Punishment and a New Nation

<sup>6</sup>Listen! There is a loud noise coming from the city and from the Temple.* It is the LORD punishing his enemies. He is giving them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>7-8</sup>"A woman does not give birth before she feels the pain. A woman must feel the pain of childbirth before she can see the boy she gives birth to. Who ever heard of such a thing? In the same way, no one ever saw a new world begin in one day. No one has ever heard of a new nation that began in one day.
But when Zion feels the pain, she will give birth to her children. <sup>9</sup>In the same way, I will not cause pain without allowing something new to be born."

The LORD says this: "I promise that if I cause you the pain of birth, I will not stop you from having your new nation." Your God said this.

- <sup>10</sup> Jerusalem and all her friends, be happy!
All of you who were sad for her, be happy and rejoice with her!
<sup>11</sup> Be happy that you will receive mercy like milk coming from her breast.
Jerusalem's "milk" will satisfy you!
You will drink it and enjoy her glory.*
- <sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"Look, I will give Jerusalem peace that will flow in like a river.
Wealth from all the nations will come flowing into her like a flood.
And like little babies, you will drink that 'milk.'
I will hold you in my arms,
and bounce you on my knees.
<sup>13</sup> I will comfort you like a mother comforting her child.
You will be comforted in Jerusalem."
- <sup>14</sup> When you see these things, you will be happy.
You will be free and grow like grass.
The LORD's servants will see his power,
but his enemies will see his anger.
- <sup>15</sup> Look, the LORD is coming with fire.
His armies are coming with clouds of dust.
He is angry,
and he will punish his enemies with flames.

- <sup>16</sup> The LORD will judge the people.
Then he will destroy many people with his sword and with fire.

<sup>17</sup>These are the people who wash themselves and make themselves pure so that they can go into their special gardens<sup>a</sup> to worship their idols. They follow one another into the gardens to eat meat from pigs, rats, and other dirty things. But they will all be destroyed together.

<sup>18</sup>"They have evil thoughts and do evil things, so I am coming to punish them. I will gather all nations and all people. Everyone will be gathered together to see my Glory.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>I will put a mark on some of the people. I will send some of these saved people to the nations of Tarshish,* Libya,<sup>c</sup> Lud<sup>d</sup> (the land of archers*), Tubal,<sup>e</sup> Greece, and all the faraway lands. Those people have never heard my teachings. They have never seen my Glory.
So the saved people will tell the nations about my glory. <sup>20</sup>And they will bring all your brothers and sisters from those other nations to my holy mountain,<sup>f</sup> Jerusalem. Your brothers and sisters will ride on horses, mules, camels, and in chariots* and wagons. They will be like the gifts that the Israelites bring on clean plates to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>I will also choose some of these people to be priests and Levites.*" The LORD himself said this.

The New Heavens and the New Earth

<sup>22</sup>"I will make a new world—new heavens and a new earth that will last forever. In the same way, your names and your children will always be with me. <sup>23</sup>Everyone will come to worship me on every worship day; they will come every Sabbath* and every first day of the month.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>24</sup>"Whoever goes out of the city will see the dead bodies of those who sinned against me.
The worms eating those bodies will never die,
and the fires burning them will never go out.
It will be horrible to anyone who sees it."

<sup>a</sup>66:17 special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.

<sup>b</sup>66:18 my Glory See "Glory of the LORD" in the Word List.

<sup>c</sup>66:19 Libya A country in North Africa, west of Egypt.

<sup>d</sup>66:19 Lud This country was probably in the country that is now western Turkey.

<sup>e</sup>66:19 Tubal This country was probably in what is now eastern Turkey.

<sup>f</sup>66:20 my holy mountain This is probably Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

See "new moon" in the Word List.

Jeremiah

1 <sup>1</sup>These are the messages of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah. Jeremiah belonged to the family of priests who lived in the town of Anathoth.<sup>a</sup> That town is in the land that belongs to the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>The LORD began to speak to Jeremiah during the days when Josiah, son of Amon, was king of the nation of Judah.* The LORD began to speak to Jeremiah in the 13th year that Josiah<sup>b</sup> was king. <sup>3</sup>The LORD continued to speak to Jeremiah while Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah. He continued to speak to Jeremiah during the eleven years and five months that Zedekiah, also a son of Josiah, was king of Judah. In the fifth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year as king, the people who lived in Jerusalem were taken away into exile.*

God Calls Jeremiah

<sup>4</sup>The LORD's message came to me:

<sup>5</sup>"Before I made you in your mother's womb,
I knew you.
Before you were born,
I chose you for a special work.
I chose you to be a prophet* to the nations."

<sup>6</sup>Then I said, "But, Lord God, I don't know how to speak. I am only a boy."

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to me,

"Don't say, 'I am only a boy.'
You must go everywhere I send you and say everything I tell you to say.

<sup>8</sup> Don't be afraid of anyone.
I am with you, and I will protect you."
This message is from the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD reached out with his hand and touched my mouth. He said to me,

"Jeremiah, I am putting my words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup> Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms.
You will pull up and tear down.

<sup>a</sup>1:1 priests ... of Anathoth These priests probably belonged to the family of the priest Abiathar. Abiathar was a high priest in Jerusalem during the time David was king. He was sent away to Anathoth by King Solomon. See 1 Kings 2:26.

You will destroy and overthrow.
You will build up and plant."

Two Visions

<sup>11</sup>The LORD's message came to me: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered, "I see a stick made from almond wood."

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to me, "You have seen very well, and I am watching<sup>c</sup> to make sure that my message to you comes true."

<sup>13</sup>The LORD's message came to me again: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered, "I see a pot of boiling water. That pot is tipping over from the north."

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to me, "Something terrible will come from the north.

It will happen to all the people who live in this country.

<sup>15</sup> In a short time I will call all the people in the northern kingdoms."
This is what the LORD said.

"The kings of those countries will come and set up their thrones near the gates of Jerusalem.

They will attack the city walls of Jerusalem.

They will attack all the cities in Judah.

<sup>16</sup> And I will announce judgment against my people, because they are evil and have turned away from me.

They offered sacrifices to other gods and worshiped idols* they made with their own hands.

Stand up and speak to the people.
Tell them everything that I tell you to say.
Don't be afraid of the people.
If you are afraid of them,
I will give you good reason to be afraid of them.

<sup>18</sup> As for me, today I will make you like a strong city, an iron column,
a bronze wall.

You will be able to stand

against everyone in the land, against the kings of the land of Judah,
the leaders of Judah,
the priests of Judah,
and against the people of the land of Judah.

- <sup>19</sup> All those people will fight against you,
but they will not defeat you,
because I am with you,
and I will save you.”
This message is from the LORD.

Judah Was Not Faithful

2 <sup>1</sup>The LORD’s message came to me: <sup>2</sup>“Jeremiah, go and speak to the people of Jerusalem. Say to them:

“At the time you were a young nation, you were faithful to me.

You followed me like a young bride.
You followed me through the desert, through a land that had never been used for farmland.

- <sup>3</sup> The people of Israel* were a holy gift to
the LORD.
They were the first fruit to be gathered
by the Lord.

Any people who tried to hurt them were judged guilty.
Bad things happened to those wicked
people.”

This message is from the LORD.

- <sup>4</sup> Family of Jacob,* hear the LORD’s message.
Tribes of Israel, listen.

- <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:
“Do you think that I was not fair to your ancestors*?
Is that why they turned away from me?
Your ancestors worshiped worthless idols,*
and they became worthless themselves.

- <sup>6</sup> Your ancestors did not say,
‘The LORD brought us out of Egypt.
He led us through the desert,
through a dry and rocky land.
He led us through a dark and dangerous
land.
No one lives there;
people don’t even travel through that
land.

But the Lord led us through that land.
So where is he now?’

- <sup>7</sup> “I brought you into a good land,
a land filled with many good things.
I did this so that you could eat the fruit and crops that grow there.
But you only made my land ‘dirty.’
I gave that land to you,
but you made it a bad place.

- <sup>8</sup> “The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’

The people who know the law did not want to know me.

The leaders of the people of Israel
turned against me.

The prophets spoke<sup>a</sup> in the name of the false god Baal.*
They worshiped worthless idols.”

- <sup>9</sup> The LORD says, “So now I will accuse you
again,
and I will also accuse your grandchildren.

- <sup>10</sup> Go across the sea to the Islands of Kittim.<sup>b</sup>
Send someone to the land of Kedar.*
Look very carefully.

See if anyone has ever done anything like this.

- <sup>11</sup> Has any nation ever stopped worshiping their old gods
so that they could worship new gods?
No! And their gods are not really gods at all!

But my people stopped worshiping their glorious God and started worshiping idols that are worth nothing.

- <sup>12</sup> “Skies, be shocked at what happened!
Shake with great fear!”

This message is from the LORD.

- <sup>13</sup> “My people have done two evil things.
They turned away from me,
and they dug their own water cisterns.<sup>c</sup>
I am the source of living water;
those cisterns are broken and cannot hold water.

- <sup>14</sup> “Israel is not a slave, is he?
He was not born a slave, was he?
Then why did the enemy carry him away
as a captive?

- <sup>15</sup> Like a lion the enemy has roared at Israel.
They have destroyed your<sup>d</sup> land.
Your cities have been burned,
and no one is left in them.

- <sup>16</sup> People from Memphis and Tahpanhes<sup>e</sup> have smashed the top of your head.

- <sup>17</sup> This trouble is your own fault.
The LORD your God was leading you the right way,<sup>f</sup>
but you turned away from him.

<sup>b</sup>2:10 Islands of Kittim The name means the Island of Cyprus. But the name was often used for the other islands and coastlands of the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>c</sup>2:13 they dug ... cisterns That is, they made false gods.

- 18 People of Judah,* think about this:
How did it help you to go to Egypt and drink from the Nile River?
How did it help you to go to Assyria and drink from the Euphrates River?
- 19 You have done wrong, and that will only bring punishment to
you.
Trouble will come to you,
and it will teach you a lesson.
Think about it and understand how bad it is to turn away from your God.
It is wrong not to fear and respect me.”
This message is from Lord God
All-Powerful.
- 20 “Judah, long ago you broke free from me, like an ox that breaks its yoke and the ropes that held it.
You said to me, ‘I will not serve you!’
On every high hill and under every green tree,
you acted like a prostitute.<sup>a</sup>
- 21 Judah, I planted you like a special vine.
You were all from good seed.
How did you turn into a different vine that grows bad fruit?
- 22 Even if you wash yourself with lye,
even if you use much soap,
I can still see your guilt.”
This message is from the LORD God.
- 23 “Judah, how can you say to me, ‘I am not guilty because I have not worshipped the Baal idols?’
Think about what you did in the valley.
Think about what you have done.
You are like a fast she-camel that runs from place to place.
- 24 You are like a wild donkey that lives in
the desert.
At mating time, she sniffs the wind.
No one can control her when she is in heat.
At mating time, every male that wants her will get her.
She is easy to find.
- 25 Judah, stop chasing after idols!
Stop wanting those other gods.
But you say, ‘It is no use! I cannot stop!
I love those other gods.
I can’t stop chasing them.’
- 26 “A thief is ashamed
when people catch him stealing.
The people of Israel should be ashamed too
and so should their kings and leaders, priests and prophets.
- 27 They say to pieces of wood,
‘You are my father.’
They say to a rock,
‘You gave birth to me.’
All these people will be ashamed.

They don’t look to me for help.
They have turned their backs to me.
But when the people of Judah get into trouble, they say to me, ‘Come and save us!’

28 But where are the idols you made for yourselves?
Let’s see if they come and save you when you are in trouble!
People of Judah, you have as many idols
as you have cities!

- 29 “Why do you argue with me?
You have all turned against me.”
This message is from the LORD.
- 30 “I punished you people of Judah,
but it did not help.
You did not come back
when you were punished.
With your swords you killed the prophets who came to you.
Like a dangerous lion, you killed the prophets.”
- 31 People of this generation, pay attention to the LORD’s message!
- “Have I been like a desert to the people of Israel?
Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to them?
My people say, ‘We are free to go our own
way.
We will not come back to you!’
Why do they say these things?
- 32 A young woman does not forget her jewelry.
A bride does not forget to wear her wedding dress.
But my people have forgotten me too many times to count.
- 33 “Judah, you have become so good at finding lovers.
Even the worst women could learn
some evil ways from you.
- 34 You have blood on your hands!
It is the blood of poor, innocent people.
You did not catch them breaking into your house.
You killed them for no reason!
- 35 But still, you say, ‘I am innocent.
God is not angry with me.’
So I will also judge you guilty of lying,
because you say,
‘I have done nothing wrong.’
- 36 You go from one place to another looking
for help,
always changing your mind.
But Egypt will also disappoint you,
just as Assyria did.
- 37 So you will eventually leave Egypt too,
and you will hide your face in shame.
You trusted these countries, but the LORD rejected them, so they cannot help you win.

<sup>a</sup>2:20 On every ... prostitute This means the people worshipped their false gods in these places.

3 <sup>1</sup>If a man divorces his wife and she goes and marries someone else, the first husband cannot take her back. If he did,<sup>a</sup> it would make the land unclean.*

Judah,* you and all your false gods are like a prostitute with many lovers!

So why do you think you can come back to me?"

This message is from the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>"Look up to the bare hilltops, Judah.

Is there any place where you have not had sex with your lovers?

You sat by the road waiting for lovers, like an Arab in the desert.

You made the land 'dirty' with all the evil sins you did when you were unfaithful to me.

<sup>3</sup> You sinned, so the rain has not come. There has not been any springtime rains.

But still you refuse to be ashamed.

The look on your face is like that of a prostitute who refuses to be ashamed.

<sup>4</sup> But didn't you just call me 'Father?'

Didn't you say,

'You have been my friend since I was a child?'

<sup>5</sup> You also said,

'God will not always be angry with me. His anger will not continue forever.'

"Judah, you say that, but you do as much evil as you can."

The Two Bad Sisters: Israel and Judah

<sup>6</sup>The LORD spoke to me during the time King Josiah was ruling the nation of Judah.* He said, "Jeremiah, you saw the bad things Israel<sup>b</sup> did! You saw how she was unfaithful to me. She was unfaithful to me with every idol* on every hill and under every green tree. <sup>7</sup>I said to myself, 'Israel will come back to me after she has finished doing these evil things.' But she did not come back to me. And Israel's unfaithful sister, Judah, saw what she did. <sup>8</sup>Israel was unfaithful, and she knew why I sent her away. Israel knew that I divorced her because she committed the sin of adultery. But that did not make her unfaithful sister afraid. Judah was not afraid. She also went out and acted like a prostitute. <sup>9</sup>Judah did not care that she was acting like a prostitute. So she made her country 'dirty.' She committed the sin of adultery by worshipping idols made out of stone and wood. <sup>10</sup>Israel's unfaithful sister did not come back to me with her whole heart. She only pretended that she came back to me." This message is from the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said to me, "Israel was not faithful to me, but she had a better excuse than unfaithful Judah. <sup>12</sup>Jeremiah, look toward the north and speak this message:

'Come back, you faithless people of Israel.' This message is from the LORD.

'I will stop frowning at you.

I am full of mercy.'

The LORD says,

'I will not be angry with you forever.

<sup>13</sup> But you must recognize your sin.

You turned against the LORD your God.

That is your sin.

You worshiped the idols of other nations.

You worshiped them under every green tree.

You did not obey me."

This message is from the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD says, "You people are unfaithful, but come back to me because I am your master. I will take one person from every city and two people from every family and bring you to Zion." <sup>15</sup>Then I will give you new rulers who will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>16</sup>In those days there will be many of you in the land." This message is from the LORD.

"At that time people will never again say, 'I remember the days when we had the Box of the LORD's Agreement.*' They will not even think about the Holy Box anymore. They will not even remember or miss it. They will never make another Holy Box. <sup>17</sup>At that time the city of Jerusalem will be called the 'LORD's Throne.' All nations will come together in the city of Jerusalem to give honor to the name of the LORD. They will not follow their stubborn, evil hearts anymore. <sup>18</sup>In those days the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from a land in the north to the land I gave to their ancestors.*"

<sup>19</sup>"I, the LORD, said,

'I want to treat you like my own children.

I want to give you a pleasant land, a land more beautiful than any other nation.'

I thought that you would call me 'Father.'

I thought that you would always follow me.

<sup>20</sup> But you have been like a woman who is unfaithful to her husband.

Family of Israel, you have been unfaithful to me!"

This message is from the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> You can hear crying on the bare hills.

The people of Israel are crying and praying for mercy.

They became very evil.

They forgot the LORD their God.

<sup>a</sup>3:1 If he did It was against the Law of Moses for a man to marry a woman he had divorced if that woman had become another man's wife. See Deut. 24:1-4.

<sup>b</sup>3:6 Israel Here, the name Israel means the northern kingdom of Israel. Israel was destroyed by the Assyrians about 100 years before Jeremiah's time.

<sup>22</sup>“People of Israel, you are unfaithful to me, but come back to me.
Come back and I will forgive<sup>a</sup> you for being unfaithful.

“Just say, ‘Yes, we will come back, because you are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup> It was foolish to worship idols on the hills.

All the loud parties on the mountains were wrong.

Surely the salvation of Israel comes from the LORD our God.

<sup>24</sup> That terrible false god Baal* has eaten everything our fathers owned.

This has happened since we were children.

That terrible false god took our fathers’ sheep and cattle and their sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame.

Let our shame cover us like a blanket.

We have sinned against the LORD our God.

We and our fathers have sinned.

We have not obeyed the LORD our God from the time we were children.”

4 <sup>1</sup>This message is from the LORD.

“Israel, if you want to come back,
then come back to me.

Throw away your idols.*

Don’t wander farther away from me.

<sup>2</sup> If you do these things, then you will be able to use my name to make a promise.

You will be able to say,
‘As the LORD lives.’

You will be able to use these words in a truthful, honest, and right way.

If you do these things,
the nations will be blessed by the Lord.

They will brag about what the Lord has done.”

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem:

“Your fields have not been plowed.

Plow those fields!

Don’t plant seeds among the thorns.

<sup>4</sup> Become the LORD’s people.

Change your hearts.<sup>b</sup>

Men of Judah and people of Jerusalem, if you don’t change,
then I will become very angry.

My anger will spread fast like a fire,
and it will burn you up.

No one will be able to put out that fire because of the evil you have done.”

<sup>b</sup>4:4 Change your hearts Literally, “Be circumcised to the LORD. Cut away the foreskin of your hearts.” See “circumcise” in the Word List. Jeremiah is saying that real circumcision must be from inside a person’s heart (mind).

Disaster From the North

<sup>5</sup>“Give this message to the people of Judah:

Tell everyone in the city of Jerusalem:
‘Blow the trumpet all over the country.’
Shout out loud and say,
‘Come together!

Let us all escape to the strong cities for

Run for your lives! Don’t wait!

Do this because I am bringing disaster from the north.<sup>c</sup>

I am bringing terrible destruction.”

<sup>7</sup> A lion has come out of his cave.

A destroyer of nations has begun to march.

He has left his home to destroy your land.
Your towns will be destroyed.

There will be no one left to live in them.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is angry with us, so put on sackcloth* and cry out loud!

<sup>9</sup> The LORD says, “When this happens, the king and his officers will lose their courage.

The priests will be filled with fear,
and the prophets will be shocked.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I, Jeremiah, said, “Lord God, you have tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem. You said to them, ‘You will have peace.’ But now the sword is pointing at their throats!”

<sup>11</sup> At that time this message will be given to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:

“A hot wind blows from the bare hills.

It comes from the desert to my people.

It is not like the gentle wind that is used to separate the grain from the chaff.*

<sup>12</sup> It is a stronger wind than that,
and it comes from me.

Now I will announce my judgment against the people of Judah.”

<sup>13</sup> Look! The enemy rises up like a cloud.

His chariots* look like a windstorm.

His horses are faster than eagles.

It will be very bad for us!

We are ruined!

<sup>14</sup> People of Jerusalem, wash the evil from your hearts.

Make your hearts pure so that you can be saved.

Don’t continue making evil plans.

<sup>15</sup> Listen! The voice of a messenger from the land of Dan<sup>d</sup> is speaking.

<sup>c</sup>4:6 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

<sup>d</sup>4:15 land of Dan The people from the tribe of Dan lived near the border in the northern part of Israel. They would be the first to be attacked by an enemy from the north.

- Someone is bringing bad news from the hill country of Ephraim<sup>a</sup>:
16<sup>a</sup>Report it to this nation.<sup>b</sup> Spread the news to the people in Jerusalem.
Enemies are coming from a faraway
country.
They are shouting words of war against the cities of Judah.
17 The enemy has surrounded Jerusalem like men guarding a field.
Judah, you turned against me,
so the enemy is coming against you.”
This message is from the LORD.
18<sup>a</sup>“The way you lived and the things you did brought this trouble to you.
It is your evil that made your life so hard.
Your evil life brought the pain that hurts deep in your heart.”

Jeremiah's Cry

- 19 My sadness and worry is making my stomach hurt.
I am bent over in pain.
I am so afraid.
My heart is pounding inside me.
I cannot keep quiet, because I have heard the trumpet blow.
The trumpet is calling the army to war.
20 Disaster follows disaster.
The whole country is destroyed!
Suddenly my tents are destroyed.
My curtains are torn down.
21 LORD, how long must I see the war flags?
How long must I hear the war trumpets?
22 The Lord said, “My people are foolish.
They don't know me.
They are stupid children.
They don't understand.
They are skillful at doing evil,
but they don't know how to do good.”

Disaster Is Coming

- 23 I looked at the earth.
It was empty;
there was nothing on it.
I looked at the sky,
and its light was gone.<sup>c</sup> 24 I looked at the mountains, and they were shaking.
All the hills were trembling.
25 I looked, but there were no people.
All the birds of the sky had flown away.
26 I looked, and the good land had become a desert.

<sup>a</sup>4:15 hill country of Ephraim This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel.

<sup>c</sup>4:23 the earth . . . gone Jeremiah is comparing his country to the time before people were put on the earth. See Gen. 1:1.

All the cities in that land were destroyed by the LORD and his great anger.

- 27 This is what the LORD says:
“The whole country will be ruined, but I will not completely destroy the
land.
28 So the people in the land will cry for the dead.
The sky will grow dark.
I have spoken and will not change.
I have made a decision, and I will not change my mind.”
29 The people of Judah* will hear the sound of the horse soldiers and the archers,*
and the people will run away!
Some of them will hide in caves;<sup>d</sup>
some will hide in the bushes;
some will climb up into the rocks.
All the cities of Judah will be empty.
No one will live in them.
30 Judah, you have been destroyed.
So what are you doing now?
Why are you putting on your best red dress?
Why are you putting on your gold
jewelry?
Why are you putting on your eye makeup?
You make yourself beautiful,
but it is a waste of time.
Your lovers hate you.
They are trying to kill you.
31 I hear a cry like a woman in labor, a scream like a woman giving birth to her first baby.
It is the cry of daughter Zion.<sup>e</sup>
She is lifting her hands in prayer, saying, “Oh! I am about to faint!
Murderers are all around me!”

The Evil of the People of Judah

5<sup>1</sup>The Lord says, “Walk the streets of Jerusalem. Look around and think about these things. Search the public squares of the city. See if you can find one good person, one who does honest things and who searches for the truth. If you find one good person, I will forgive Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>The people make promises and say, ‘As the LORD lives.’ But they don't really mean it!”

- 3 LORD, I know that you want people to be loyal to you.
You hit the people of Judah,*
but they did not feel any pain.
You destroyed them,
but they refused to learn their lesson.
They became very stubborn.

<sup>e</sup>4:31 daughter Zion Another name for Jerusalem. See “Zion” in the Word List.

- They refused to be sorry for the bad things they did.
- 4 But I said to myself,
 "It must be only the poor who are so foolish.
 They have not learned the way of the LORD.
 They don't know the teachings of their God."
- 5 So I will go to the leaders of Judah.
 I will talk to them.
 Surely the leaders know the way of the LORD.
 Surely they know the law of their God."
 But the leaders had all joined together to break away from serving the LORD.
- 6 They turned against God,
 so a lion from the forest will attack them.
 A wolf from the desert will kill them.
 A leopard is hiding near their cities.
 It will tear to pieces anyone who comes out of the city.
 That's because the people of Judah have sinned again and again.
 They have wandered away from the LORD many times.
- 7 The Lord said, "Judah, give me one good reason why I should forgive you.
 Your children have abandoned me.
 They made promises to idols* that are not really gods!
 I gave your children everything they needed,
 but they were still unfaithful to me!
 They spent their time with prostitutes."
- 8 They are like horses that have had plenty to eat and are ready to mate.
 They are like a horse that is calling its neighbor's wife.
- 9 Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?"
 This message is from the LORD.
 "You know I should punish a nation such as this.
 I should give it the punishment it deserves."
- 10 "Go along the rows of Judah's grapevines.
 Cut down the vines. (But don't completely destroy them.)
 Cut off all their branches, because they don't belong to the LORD."
- 11 The family of Israel and the family of Judah have been unfaithful to me in every way."
 This message is from the LORD.
- 12 "Those people lied about the LORD.
 They said, 'He will not do anything to us.
 Nothing bad will happen to us.
 We will never see an army attack us.
 We will never starve.'
- 13 The prophets* are only empty wind.<sup>a</sup>
 The word of God is not in them.<sup>b</sup> Bad things will happen to them."
- 14 The LORD God All-Powerful said these things:
 "The people said I would not punish them.
 So, Jeremiah, the words I give you will be like fire,
 and these people will be like wood.
 That fire will burn them up completely."
- 15 Family of Israel, this message is from the LORD.
 "I will soon bring a nation from far away to attack you.
 It is an old nation;
 it is an ancient nation.
 The people of that nation speak a language that you do not know.
 You cannot understand what they say."
- 16 Their arrow bags are like open graves.
 All their men are strong soldiers.
- 17 They will eat all the crops that you gathered.
 They will eat all your food.
 They will destroy your sons and daughters.
 They will eat your flocks and your herds.
 They will eat your grapes and your figs.
 They will destroy your strong cities with their swords.
 They will destroy the strong cities that you trust in.
- 18 This message is from the LORD:
 "But, Judah, when these terrible days come,
 I will not fully destroy you."
- 19 The people of Judah will ask you,
 'Jeremiah, why has the LORD our God done this bad thing to us?'
 Give them this answer:
 'You people of Judah have left the LORD,
 and you have served foreign idols in your own land.
 You did these things,
 so now you will serve foreigners in a land that does not belong to you.'
- 20 "Tell this message to the family of Jacob, and tell it in the nation of Judah."
- 21 Hear this message,
 you foolish people who have no sense.
 You have eyes, but you don't see!
 You have ears, but you don't listen!
- 22 Surely you are afraid of me."
 This message is from the LORD.
 "You should shake with fear in front of me.
 I am the one who made the sandy shores to hold back the sea."

<sup>a</sup>5:13 wind This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word for wind is like the word for spirit.

<sup>b</sup>5:13 The word ... them Literally, "And the 'He said' is not in them."

- I made it that way to keep the water in its place forever.
 The waves may pound the beach, but they will not destroy it.
 The waves may roar as they come in, but they cannot go beyond the beach.
 23 But the people of Judah are stubborn. They are always planning ways to turn against me.
 They turned away from me and left me.
 24 The people of Judah never say to themselves, ‘Let’s fear and respect the LORD our God. He gives us autumn and spring rains at just the right time.
 He makes sure that we have the harvest at just the right time.’
 25 People of Judah, you have done wrong. So the rains and the harvest have not come.
 Your sins have kept you from enjoying the good things from the LORD.
 26 There are evil men among my people. They are like men who make nets for catching birds.<sup>a</sup>
 They set their traps, but they catch people instead of birds.
 27 Their houses are full of lies, like a cage full of birds.
 Their lies made them rich and powerful.
 28 They have grown big and fat from the evil they have done.
 There is no end to the evil they do. They will not plead the case of children who have no parents.
 They will not help these orphans. They will not let the poor be judged fairly.
 29 Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”
 This message is from the LORD.
 “You know I should punish a nation such as this.
 I should give it the punishment it deserves.
 30 “A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land of Judah.
 31 The prophets tell lies. The priests will not do what they were chosen to do,<sup>b</sup> and my people love it this way!
 But what will you people do when your punishment comes?

The Enemy Surrounds Jerusalem

- 6 “Run for your lives, people of Benjamin! Run away from the city of Jerusalem! Blow the war trumpet in the city of Tekoa!

<sup>b</sup>5:31 priests ... were chosen to do The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

- Put up the warning flag in the city of Beth Hakkerem!
 Do these things because disaster is coming from the north.<sup>c</sup> Terrible destruction is coming to you.
 2 Jerusalem,<sup>d</sup> you are like a beautiful meadow.<sup>e</sup>
 But I will destroy you!
 3 Enemy shepherds will surround you with all their flocks.
 They will set up their tents all around you,
 and each one will let his sheep eat the grass.
 4 “Get ready to fight against Jerusalem. Get up! We will attack the city at noon. But it is already getting late.
 The evening shadows are growing long.
 5 So get up! We will attack the city at night! Let’s destroy the strong walls that are around Jerusalem.”
 6 This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Cut down the trees around Jerusalem, and build a siege mound<sup>f</sup> against it. This city should be punished because inside there is no justice—only slavery.
 7 As a well keeps its water fresh, so Jerusalem keeps its wickedness fresh. I hear about the robbing and violence in this city all the time.
 I see nothing but pain and sickness there all the time.
 8 Listen to this warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn my back on you. I will make your land an empty desert. No one will be able to live there.”
 9 This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Gather<sup>g</sup> the people of Israel* who were left on their land.
 Gather them the way you would gather the last grapes on a grapevine.
 Check each vine, like the workers check each vine when they pick the grapes.”
 10 Who can I speak to?
 Who can I warn?
 Who will listen to me?

<sup>f</sup>6:6 siege mound A large pile of dirt and rock that an army put against the wall of a city they were attacking. This made it easier for the enemy soldiers to climb over the wall into the city.

<sup>g</sup>6:9 Gather Or “glean.” There was a law that a farmer must leave some grain in his field during harvest, so that poor people and travelers could find something to eat. See Lev. 19:9; 23:22.

- The people of Israel have closed their ears,
so they cannot hear my warnings.
They don't like the LORD's teachings.
They don't want to hear his message.
- 11 But I am full of the LORD's anger, and I am tired of holding it in!
The Lord said, "Pour out my anger on the children playing in the streets and on the young soldiers gathered there as well.
A man and his wife will both be captured as well as all the old people.
- 12 Their houses will be given to others.
Their fields and their wives will be given to other people.
I will raise my hand and punish the people of Judah.*"
This message is from the LORD.
- 13 "All the people of Israel want more and
more money.
All of them, from the least important to
the most important, are like that.
Even the prophets* and priests tell lies.
- 14 They should bandage the wounds my people have suffered,
but they treat their wounds like small
scratches.
They say, 'It's all right, everything is all
right.'
But it is not all right!
- 15 They should be ashamed of the evil things
they do,
but they are not ashamed at all.
They don't know enough to be
embarrassed by their sins.
So they will be punished with everyone
else.
They will be thrown to the ground
when I punish the people."
This is what the LORD said.
- 16 This is what the LORD says:
"Stand at the crossroads and look.
Ask where the old road is.
Ask where the good road is, and walk on that road.
If you do, you will find rest for yourselves.
But you people have said, 'We will not walk on the good road.'
- 17 I chose watchmen to watch over you.
I told them, 'Listen for the sound of the war trumpet.'
But they said, 'We will not listen!'
- 18 So listen, all you nations, and pay attention, you people in those countries.<sup>a</sup>
- 19 Hear this, people of the earth:
I am going to bring disaster to the people of Judah
because of all the evil they planned,
- and because they ignored my messages.
They refused to obey my law.
- 20 "Why do you bring me incense* from the country of Sheba?<sup>b</sup>
Why do you bring me sweet-smelling cane from a faraway country?
Your burnt offerings* don't make me
happy.
Your sacrifices don't please me."
- 21 So this is what the LORD says:
"I will give the people of Judah problems.
They will be like stones that make people fall.
Fathers and sons will stumble over them.
Friends and neighbors will die."
- 22 This is what the LORD says:
"An army is coming from the north.<sup>c</sup>
A great nation is coming from faraway places on earth.
- 23 The soldiers carry bows and spears.
They are cruel; they have no mercy.
They are so powerful.
They sound like the roaring ocean as they ride their horses.
That army is coming, ready for battle.
It is coming to attack you, Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup>"
- 24 We have heard the news about that army,
and we are paralyzed with fear.
We feel trapped by our troubles,
in pain like a woman giving birth.
- 25 Don't go out into the fields.
Don't go on the roads
because the enemy has swords,
and there is danger everywhere.
- 26 My people, put on sackcloth* and roll in the ashes.<sup>e</sup>
Cry loudly for the dead.
Cry as if you lost an only son.
Do this because the destroyer will come against us very quickly.
- 27 "Jeremiah, I want you to be like a worker who tests metals.
You will test my people
and watch how they live.
- 28 My people have turned against me,
and they are very stubborn.
They say bad things about people.
They are like bronze and iron that are covered with rust and tarnish.

<sup>e</sup>6:26 roll in the ashes This is one way people showed that they were sad or crying for a dead person.

- <sup>29</sup> [They are like a worker who tried to make silver pure.]
 The bellows<sup>a</sup> blew strongly, and the fire became hotter, but only lead came from the fire.<sup>b</sup>
 The worker wasted his time trying to make that silver pure.
 In the same way the evil was not removed from my people.
- <sup>30</sup> My people will be called 'Rejected Silver.'
 They will be given that name because the LORD did not accept them."

Jeremiah's Temple Sermon

"Hear the message from the LORD, all you people of the nation of Judah.* All you who come through these gates to worship the LORD, hear this message. <sup>3</sup>The LORD is the God of the people of Israel.* This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: Change your lives and do good things. If you do this, I will let you live in this place.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>Don't trust the lies that some people say. They say, "This is the Temple" of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD!<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>If you change your lives and do good things, I will let you live in this place. You must be fair to each other. <sup>6</sup>You must be fair to strangers. You must help widows and orphans. Don't kill innocent people! And don't follow other gods, because they will only ruin your lives. <sup>7</sup>If you obey me, I will let you live in this place. I gave this land to your ancestors* for them to keep forever.

<sup>8</sup>"But you are trusting lies that are worthless. <sup>9</sup>Will you steal and murder? Will you commit adultery*? Will you falsely accuse other people? Will you worship the false god Baal* and follow other gods that you have not known? <sup>10</sup>If you commit these sins, do you think that you can stand before me in this house that is called by my name? Do you think you can stand before me and say, "We are safe," just so you can do all these terrible things? <sup>11</sup>This Temple is called by my name. Is this Temple nothing more to you than a hideout for robbers? I have been watching you."<sup>e</sup> This message is from the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>"You people of Judah, go now to the town of Shiloh. Go to the place where I first made a house for my name. The people of Israel also did evil things. Go and see what I did to that place because of the evil they did.<sup>e</sup> <sup>13</sup>You people of Israel were doing all these evil things. This message is from the LORD! I spoke to you again and again, but you refused to listen to me. I called to you, but you did not answer. <sup>14</sup>So I will destroy the house called by my name in Jerusalem. I will destroy that Temple as I destroyed Shiloh. And that house in Jerusalem that is called by my name is the Temple you trust in. I gave that place to you and to your ancestors. <sup>15</sup>I will throw you away from me just as I threw away all your brothers from Ephraim.*<sup>f</sup>

<sup>16</sup>"As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people of Judah. Don't beg for them or pray for them. Don't beg me to help them. I will not listen to your prayer for them. <sup>17</sup>I know you see what they are doing in the towns of Judah. You can see what they are doing in the streets of the city of Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>This is what the people of Judah are doing: The children gather wood. The fathers use the wood to make a fire. The women make the dough and then make cakes of bread to offer to the Queen of Heaven.* The people of Judah pour out drink offerings to worship other gods. They do this to make me angry. <sup>19</sup>But I am not the one they are really hurting." This message is from the LORD. "They are only hurting themselves. They are bringing shame on themselves."

<sup>20</sup>So this is what the LORD says: "I will show my anger against this place. I will punish people and animals. I will punish the trees in the field and the crops that grow in the ground. My anger will be like a hot fire—one will be able to stop it."

Obedience Is Better Than Sacrifice

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel,* says: "Go and offer as many burnt offerings* and sacrifices as you want. Eat the meat of those sacrifices yourselves. <sup>22</sup>I brought your ancestors* out of Egypt. I spoke to them, but I did not give them any commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. <sup>23</sup>I only gave them this command: 'Obey me and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do all that I command, and good things will happen to you.'

<sup>24</sup>"But your ancestors did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were stubborn and did what they wanted to do. They did not become good. They became even more evil—they went backward, not forward. <sup>25</sup>From the day that your ancestors left Egypt to this day, I have sent my servants to you. My servants are the prophets.* I sent them to you again and again. <sup>26</sup>But your ancestors did

<sup>a</sup>6:29 bellows A tool for blowing air on a fire to make the fire hotter.

<sup>b</sup>6:29 lead came from the fire Workers melted metals like silver to make the metals pure. Lead was the first metal to melt, so the workers poured the lead out, leaving the other metal pure. Here, Jeremiah is saying the people are all bad—they are all lead and no silver!

<sup>d</sup>7:4 This is ... LORD Many people in Jerusalem thought the Lord would always protect the city where his Temple was, so it didn't matter how evil they were.

<sup>e</sup>7:12 Go ... they did Shiloh was probably destroyed by the Philistines in the time of Eli and Samuel. See 1 Sam. 4.

not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were very stubborn and did evil even worse than their fathers did.

<sup>27</sup>"Jeremiah, you will tell these things to the people of Judah.* But they will not listen to you. You will call to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>So you must tell them these things: 'This is the nation that did not obey the LORD its God. These people did not listen to God's teachings. They don't know the true teachings.'

The Valley of Slaughter

<sup>29</sup>"Jeremiah, cut off your hair and throw it away.<sup>a</sup> Go up to the bare hilltop and cry, because the LORD has rejected this generation of people. He has turned his back on these people. And in anger he will punish them. <sup>30</sup>Do this because I have seen the people of Judah* doing evil things." This message is from the LORD. "They have set up their idols,* and I hate those idols. They have set up idols in the Temple* that is called by my name. They have made my house 'dirty!' <sup>31</sup>The people of Judah built the high places* of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom where they killed their own sons and daughters and burned them as sacrifices. This is something I never commanded. Something like this never even entered my mind! <sup>32</sup>So I warn you. The days are coming," says the LORD, "when people will not call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom anymore. No, they will call it the Valley of Slaughter. They will give it this name because they will bury the dead people in Topheth until there is no more room to bury anyone else. <sup>33</sup>Then the bodies of the dead people will become food for the birds of the sky. Wild animals will eat the bodies of those people. There will be no one left alive to chase the birds or animals away. <sup>34</sup>I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. There will be no more sounds of the bride and bridegroom in Judah or Jerusalem. The land will become an empty desert."

8<sup>1</sup>This message is from the LORD: "At that time men will take the bones of the kings and important rulers of Judah from their tombs.* They will take the bones of the priests and prophets* from their tombs. They will take the bones of all the people of Jerusalem from their tombs. <sup>2</sup>They will spread the bones on the ground under the sun, the moon, and the stars. The people of Jerusalem love to worship the sun, the moon, and the stars. No one will gather the bones and bury them again. So the bones of those people will be like dung thrown on the ground.

<sup>3</sup>"I will force the people of Judah to leave their homes and their land. They will be taken away to foreign lands. Some of the people of Judah who were not killed in the war will wish that they had been killed." This message is from the LORD.

Sin and Punishment

<sup>4</sup>"Jeremiah, say this to the people of Judah*:

'This is what the LORD says:
You know if a man falls down,
he gets up again.

And if a man goes the wrong way,
he turns around and comes back.

<sup>5</sup> The people of Judah went the wrong way.
But why do the people of Jerusalem continue going the wrong way?
They believe their own lies.

They refuse to turn around and come back.

<sup>6</sup> I have listened to them very carefully, but they don't say what is right.
They are not sorry for their sins.

They don't think about the evil they
have done.

They do things without thinking.

They are like horses running into a battle.

<sup>7</sup> Even the birds in the sky know the right time to do things.
The storks, doves, swifts, and thrushes know when it is time to fly to a new home.

But my people don't know what the LORD wants them to do.

<sup>8</sup>"You keep saying, "We have the LORD's teachings. So we are wise!"
But this is not true, because the scribes*
have lied with their pens.

<sup>9</sup> These "wise people" refused to listen to the LORD's teachings.
So they are not really wise at all.
These "wise people" were trapped.
They became shocked and ashamed.

<sup>10</sup> So I will give their wives to other men.
I will give their fields to new owners.
All the people of Israel* want more and
more money.

All of them, from the least important to
the most important, are like that.
Even the prophets* and priests tell lies.

<sup>11</sup> They should bandage the wounds my people have suffered,
but they treat their wounds like small
scratches.

They say, "It's all right, everything is all right."

But it is not all right!

<sup>12</sup> They should be ashamed of the evil things
they do,
but they are not ashamed at all.
They don't know enough to be
embarrassed by their sins.

So they will be punished with everyone
else.

<sup>a</sup>7:29 cut ... away This showed that Jeremiah was sad.

They will be thrown to the ground
when I punish the people.”

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>13</sup>“I will take away their fruit and crops so that there will be no harvest, says the
LORD.

There will be no grapes on the vine and no figs on the fig tree.

Even the leaves will become dry and die.

I will take away the things I gave them.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>“They will say, ‘Why are we just sitting here?

Come, let’s run to the strong cities.

If the LORD our God is going to make us die, then let’s die there.

We have sinned against the LORD,
so God gave us poisoned water to drink.

<sup>15</sup> We hoped to have peace,
but nothing good has come.

We hoped that he would forgive us,
but only disaster has come.

<sup>16</sup> From the land of the tribe of Dan, we hear the snorting<sup>b</sup> of the enemy’s horses.

The ground shakes from the pounding of their hooves.

They have come to destroy the land
and everything in it.

They have come to destroy the city and all the people who live there.”

<sup>17</sup>“People of Judah, I am sending poisonous snakes<sup>c</sup> to attack you.

These snakes cannot be controlled.

They will bite you.”

This message is from the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> God, I am very sad and afraid.

<sup>19</sup> Listen to my people.

Everywhere in this country, people are crying for help.

They say, “Is the LORD still at Zion*?
Is Zion’s King still there?”

But God says, “The people of Judah worshiped their worthless foreign idols.*

That made me very angry!

Why did they do that?”

<sup>20</sup> And the people say,

“Harvest time is over.

Summer is gone, and still we have not been saved.”

<sup>21</sup> My people are hurt, so I am hurt.
I am too sad to speak.

<sup>22</sup> Surely there is some medicine in Gilead.
Surely there is a doctor in Gilead.

So why are the wounds of my people not healed?

9<sup>1</sup>If my head were filled with water, and if my eyes were a fountain of tears,

I would cry day and night for my people who have been destroyed.

<sup>2</sup> If only I had a place in the desert—a house where travelers spend the night—

so I could leave my people.

I could go away from them,

because they are all unfaithful to God.

They have all turned against him.

<sup>3</sup>“They use their tongues like a bow;
lies fly from their mouths like arrows.

Lies, not truth, have grown strong in this
land.

They go from one sin to another.

They don’t know me.”

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>4</sup>“Watch your neighbors!

Don’t trust your own brothers,

because every brother is a cheat.

Every neighbor talks behind your back.

<sup>5</sup> Everyone lies to their neighbor.

No one speaks the truth.

The people of Judah* have taught their tongues to lie.

They sinned until they were too tired to come back.

<sup>6</sup> One bad thing followed another,
and lies followed lies.

The people refused to know me.”

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>7</sup> So the LORD All-Powerful says,
“A worker heats metal in a fire to test it and see if it is pure.

I will test the people of Judah like that.

I have no other choice.

My people have sinned.

<sup>8</sup> The people of Judah have tongues as sharp as arrows.

Their mouths speak lies.

They all speak kindly to their neighbors, but they are secretly planning ways to attack them.

<sup>9</sup> Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”

This message is from the LORD.

“You know I should punish a nation such as this.

I should give it the punishment it deserves.”

<sup>10</sup> I, Jeremiah, will cry for the mountains.
I will sing a funeral song for the empty

<sup>a</sup>8:13 I will take away ... gave them The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

<sup>b</sup>8:16 snorting The sound caused by forcing breath very hard through the nose.

<sup>c</sup>8:17 poisonous snakes This probably means one of Judah’s enemies.

- fields,
because all the animals were taken
away.
No one travels there now.
The sounds of cattle cannot be heard.
The birds have flown away,
and the animals are gone.
- 11 The Lord says,<sup>a</sup> "I will make the city of Jerusalem a pile of garbage.
It will be a home for jackals.*
I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah,
so no one will live there."
- 12 Is there a man who is wise enough to understand these things?
Is there someone who has been taught
by the LORD?
Can anyone explain his message?
Why was the land ruined?
Why was it made like an empty desert where no one goes?
- 13 The LORD answered,
"It is because the people of Judah stopped
following my teachings.
I gave them my teachings,
but they refused to listen to me.
They did not follow my teachings.
- 14 The people of Judah lived their own way.
They were stubborn.
They followed the false god Baal.*
Their fathers taught them to follow those false gods."
- 15 So the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says,
"I will soon make the people of Judah eat bitter food and drink poisoned
water.
- 16 I will scatter the people of Judah
throughout other nations.
They will live in strange nations that they and their fathers never knew about.
I will send men with swords.
They will kill the people of Judah.
They will kill them until all the people
are gone."
- 17 This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
"Now think about these things!
Call for the women who get paid to cry
at funerals.
Send for the people who are good at that job.
- 18 The people say,
'Let those women come quickly and cry
for us.
Then our eyes will fill with tears
- that flow over our eyelids like streams of
water.'
- 19 "The sound of loud crying is heard from Zion:
'We are really ruined!
We are so ashamed!
We must leave our land, because our houses have been destroyed.
Now our houses are only piles of rock.'
- 20 Now, women of Judah, listen to the message from the LORD.
Listen to the words from his mouth.
Teach your daughters how to cry loudly.
Each of them must learn to sing this funeral song:
- 21 "Death has climbed in through our windows
and has come into our palaces.
Death has come to our children who play in the streets and to the young men who meet in the public places."
- 22 This is what you should say:
"The LORD says, 'Dead bodies will lie in the fields like dung.
Their bodies will lie on the ground like grain a farmer has cut.
But there will be no one to gather
them.'"
- 23 This is what the LORD says:
"The wise must not brag about their wisdom.
The strong men must not brag about their strength.
The rich must not brag
about their money.
- 24 But if someone wants to brag, then let them brag about this:
Let them brag that they learned to know
me.
Let them brag that they understand that I am the LORD,
that I am kind and fair,
and that I do good things on earth.
I love this kind of bragging."
This message is from the LORD.
- 25 This is what the LORD says: "The time is coming when I will punish all those who are circumcised* only in the body. <sup>26</sup>I am talking about the people of the nations of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all those who live in the desert. The circumcision they do is not the kind the LORD wants. But the people of Israel are not really circumcised either. They are not circumcised in their hearts."

<sup>a</sup>9:11 The Lord says This is implied from the context.

10 The Lord and the Idols
<sup>2</sup>This is what he says:

- “Don’t live like people from other nations.
Don’t be afraid of special signs in the sky.<sup>a</sup>
The other nations are afraid of what they see in the sky.
But you must not be afraid of them.”
- 3 The customs of other people are worth nothing.
Their idols<sup>b</sup> are nothing but wood from the forest.
Their idols are made by workers with their chisels.<sup>b</sup>
- 4 They make their idols beautiful with silver and gold.
They use hammers and nails to fasten their idols down so that they will not fall over.
- 5 The idols of the other nations are like a scarecrow in a cucumber field.
They cannot walk.
They cannot talk, and the people must carry them.
So don’t be afraid of their idols.
They cannot hurt you.
And they cannot help you either.”
- 6 LORD, there is no one like you.
You are great!
Your name is great and powerful!
- 7 Everyone should respect you, King of all the nations.
You deserve their respect.
There are many wise men among the nations,
but not one of them is as wise as you.
- 8 All the people of the other nations are stupid and foolish.
Their teachings come from worthless wooden statues.
- 9 They use silver from the city of Tarshish and gold from the city of Uphaz and make their statues.
Carpenters and metalworkers make the idols.
They put blue and purple clothes on them.
“Wise men” make these “gods.”
- 10 But the LORD is the only true God.
He is the only God who is alive.
He is the King who rules forever.
The earth shakes when he is angry.
The people of the nations cannot stop his anger.
- 11 The Lord says, “Tell them this message:
‘These false gods did not make heaven and earth.

<sup>a</sup>10:2 special signs in the sky People believed that such things as comets, meteors, or eclipses of the sun and moon could be used to learn what was going to happen in the future.

<sup>b</sup>10:3 chisels Sharp tools used to carve wood or stone.

They will be destroyed and disappear from heaven and earth.”<sup>c</sup>

- 12 God is the one who used his power and made the earth.
He used his wisdom and built the world.
With his understanding
he stretched the sky over the earth.
- 13 God causes the loud thunder, and he causes great floods of water to fall from the sky.
He makes clouds rise in the sky every place on earth.
He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings out the wind from his storehouses.
- 14 People are so stupid!
Metalworkers are fooled by the idols that they themselves made.
These statues are nothing but lies.
They are stupid.<sup>d</sup>
- 15 These idols are worth nothing.
They are something to make fun of.
In the time of judgment
they will be destroyed.
- 16 But Jacob’s God<sup>e</sup> is not like the idols.
He made everything,
and Israel is the family that God chose to be his own people.
His name is LORD All-Powerful.

Destruction Is Coming

- 17 Get everything you own and prepare to leave.
People of Judah,* you are trapped in the city,
and the enemy is all around it.
- 18 This is what the LORD says:
“This time, I will throw the people of Judah out of this country.
I will bring pain and trouble to them.
I will do this so that they will learn their lesson.”<sup>f</sup>
- 19 I am hurt badly.
I am injured and I cannot be healed.
But I told myself, “This is my sickness;
I must suffer through it.”
- 20 My tent is ruined.
All its ropes are broken.

<sup>c</sup>10:11 Tell this message ... earth This part was written in Aramaic, not Hebrew. This was the language people used often when writing to people in other countries. It was also the language spoken in Babylon.

<sup>d</sup>10:14 They are stupid Literally, “They have no spirit.” This might also mean “They are not alive.”

<sup>e</sup>10:16 Jacob’s God Literally, “Jacob’s share.” This means that God and Jacob (the people of Israel) had a special relationship—God belonged to Israel, and Israel belonged to God.”

<sup>f</sup>10:18 they will learn their lesson The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

My children left me.

They are gone.

No one is left to put up my tent.

No one is left to fix a shelter for me.

- <sup>21</sup> The shepherds are stupid.

They don't try to find the LORD.

They are not wise,

so their flocks are scattered and lost.

- <sup>22</sup> Listen! A loud noise!

The noise is coming from the north.<sup>a</sup>

It will destroy the cities of Judah.

Judah will become an empty desert.

- <sup>23</sup> LORD, I know people don't really know how to live right.

- <sup>24</sup> LORD, correct us!

But be fair!

Don't punish us in anger!

- <sup>25</sup> If you are angry,
then punish the other nations.

They don't know or respect you.

They don't worship you.

Those nations destroyed Jacob's family.

They destroyed Israel completely.

They destroyed Israel's homeland.

The Agreement Is Broken

11<sup>1</sup>This is the message from the LORD:
<sup>2</sup>"Jeremiah, listen to the words of this agreement and tell them to the people living in Jerusalem and the rest of Judah.* <sup>3</sup>Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel,* says: 'Bad things will happen to anyone who does not obey this agreement. <sup>4</sup>I am talking about the agreement I made with your ancestors*
when I brought them out of that furnace<sup>b</sup> called Egypt.' At that time I told them, 'Listen to me and obey all the commands I give you.
Then you will be my people and I will be your God.'

<sup>5</sup>"I did this to keep the promise that I had made to your ancestors. I promised to give them a very fertile land—a land flowing with milk and honey. And you are living in that country today."

I answered, "Amen,* LORD."

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, tell this message in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the words of this agreement, and then obey these laws. <sup>7</sup>I gave a warning to your ancestors at the time I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I have warned them again and again to this day. I told them to obey me. <sup>8</sup>But your ancestors did not listen to me. They were stubborn and did what their own evil hearts wanted. The agreement says that bad things will happen to them if they don't obey. So I made all the bad things happen to them. I commanded them to obey the agreement, but they did not.'"

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, I know that the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem have made secret plans. <sup>10</sup>They are committing the same sins that their ancestors did. Their ancestors refused to listen to my message. They followed and worshiped other gods. The family of Israel and the family of Judah have broken the agreement I made with their ancestors."

<sup>11</sup>So this is what the LORD says: "I will soon make something terrible happen to the people of Judah. They will not be able to escape.
They will be sorry and cry to me for help, but I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup>The people in the towns of Judah and in the city of Jerusalem will go and pray to their idols* for help. They burn incense* to those idols. But their idols will not be able to help the people of Judah when that terrible disaster comes.

<sup>13</sup>"People of Judah, you have many idols—there are as many idols as there are towns in Judah. You have built many altars for worshiping that disgusting god Baal*—there are as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>"As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people of Judah. Don't beg for them.
Don't say prayers for them. I will not listen.
They will suffer and then call to me for help,
but I will not listen.

- <sup>15</sup>"Judah is the one I love, but why is she in my temple?

She has done too many evil things.

Judah, do you think vows* and sacrifices will keep you from being destroyed?

Will I then allow you to enjoy your evil
ways?"

- <sup>16</sup> The LORD gave you a name.

He called you, "A green olive tree, beautiful to look at."

But with a powerful storm, the LORD will set that tree on fire,
and its branches will be burned up.<sup>c</sup>

- <sup>17</sup> The LORD All-Powerful planted you, and he said that disaster will come to
you.

That is because the family of Israel and the family of Judah have done evil
things.

They offered sacrifices to Baal,
and that made him angry!

Evil Plans Against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>The LORD showed me that the men of Anathoth<sup>d</sup> were making plans against me.

<sup>c</sup>11:15–16 The meaning of these verses is uncertain.

<sup>d</sup>11:18 men of Anathoth Anathoth was Jeremiah's hometown. The people who were plotting against him there included his own relatives. See Jer. 12:6.

<sup>a</sup>10:22 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

<sup>b</sup>11:4 furnace Literally, "iron furnace." That is, an oven hot enough to soften iron so that it can be hammered into something useful.

The LORD showed me what they were doing, so I knew they were against me. <sup>19</sup>Before the LORD showed me that the people were against me, I was like a gentle lamb waiting to be butchered. I did not understand that they were against me. They were saying this about me: "Let us destroy the tree and its fruit! Let us kill him! Then people will forget him." <sup>20</sup>But, LORD, you are a fair judge. You know how to test people's hearts and minds. I will tell you my arguments, and I will let you give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>21</sup>The men from Anathoth were planning to kill Jeremiah. They said to him, "Don't prophesy* in the name of the LORD, or we will kill you." The LORD made a decision about the men from Anathoth. <sup>22</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said, "I will soon punish these men from Anathoth. Their young men will die in war. Their sons and daughters will die from hunger. <sup>23</sup>No one from the city of Anathoth will be left. No one will survive. I will punish them and cause something bad to happen to them."

Jeremiah Complains to God

- 12 <sup>1</sup>LORD, if I argue with you, you are always right.
But I want to ask you about some things that don't seem right.
Why are wicked people successful?
Why do people you cannot trust have such easy lives?
- <sup>2</sup> You have put these wicked people here like plants with strong roots.
They grow and produce fruit.
With their mouths they say that you are near and dear to them, but in their hearts they are really far away from you.
- <sup>3</sup> But you know my heart, LORD.
You see me and test my mind.
Drag the evil people away like sheep to be killed.
Choose them for the day of slaughter.
- <sup>4</sup> How much longer will the land be dry?
How long will the grass be dry and dead?
The birds and the animals of this land have all died,
and it is the fault of the wicked.
But they are saying,
"Jeremiah will not live long enough to see what happens to us."

God's Answer to Jeremiah

- <sup>5</sup>"Jeremiah, if running in a race against men makes you tired, how will you race against horses?
If you trip and fall in a safe place,
what will you do in a dangerous place?
What will you do in the thornbushes that grow along the Jordan River?
- <sup>6</sup> These men are your own brothers.
Members of your own family are making plans against you.

People from your own family are shouting at you.

Don't trust them,
even when they speak to you like friends.

The Lord Rejects Judah

- <sup>7</sup>"I have abandoned my house.
I have left my own property.<sup>a</sup>
I have given Judah,* the one I love, to her enemies.
- <sup>8</sup> My own people turned against me like a wild lion.
They roared at me,
so I turned away from them.
- <sup>9</sup> My own people have become like a dying animal surrounded by vultures.
These birds are circling around her.
Come on, wild animals.
Come get something to eat.
- <sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have ruined my vineyard.*
They have trampled the plants in my field.
They have made my beautiful field a desert.
- <sup>11</sup> They have turned it into an empty desert.
It is dry and dead.
The whole land has been ruined,
and no one is left to care for it.
- <sup>12</sup> The empty hills are covered with soldiers who have come to destroy everything.
The LORD is using them to punish that land from one end to the other.
No one is safe.
- <sup>13</sup> The people will plant wheat,
but they will harvest only thorns.
They will work hard until they are very tired,
but they will get nothing for all their work.
They will be ashamed of their crop.
The LORD's anger caused this."

The Lord's Promise to Israel's Neighbors

<sup>14</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will tell you what I will do for all those who live around the land of Israel.* They are very wicked. They have destroyed the land I gave to the people of Israel. I will pull the evil people up and throw them out of their land, and I will pull the people of Judah up with them. <sup>15</sup>But after I pull them up out of their land, I will feel sorry for them. I will bring each family back to its own property and to its own land. <sup>16</sup>I want these people to learn their lessons well. In the past they taught my people to use Baal's* name to make promises. Now, I want them to learn to use my name. I want them to say, 'As the LORD lives ....' If they do that, I will allow them to be successful, and I will let them live among my people. <sup>17</sup>But if a nation does not listen to my message, I will completely destroy it. I will pull it up like a dead plant.” This message is from the LORD.

The Sign of the Loincloth

13 <sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD said to me: “Jeremiah, go and buy a linen loincloth.<sup>a</sup> Then put it around your waist. Don’t let it get wet.”

<sup>2</sup>So I bought a linen loincloth, just as the LORD told me to do, and I put it around my waist. <sup>3</sup>Then the message from the LORD came to me a second time. <sup>4</sup>This was the message: “Jeremiah, take the loincloth you bought and are wearing, and go to Perath.<sup>b</sup> Hide the loincloth there in a crack in the rocks.”

<sup>5</sup>So I went to Perath and hid the loincloth there, just as the LORD told me to do. <sup>6</sup>Many days later the LORD said to me, “Now, Jeremiah, go to Perath. Get the loincloth that I told you to hide there.”

<sup>7</sup>So I went to Perath and dug the loincloth out of the crack in the rocks where I had hidden it. But now I could not wear the loincloth, because it was ruined. It was not good for anything.

<sup>8</sup>Then the message from the LORD came to me. <sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD said: “The loincloth is ruined and not good for anything. In the same way, I will ruin the proud people of Judah* and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>I will ruin them because they refuse to listen to my messages. They are stubborn and do only what they want to do. They follow and worship other gods. They will be like this linen loincloth. They will be ruined and not good for anything. <sup>11</sup>A loincloth is wrapped tightly around a man’s waist. In the same way, I wrapped the family of Israel* and the family of Judah around me.” This message is from the LORD. “I did that so that they would be my people and bring me fame, praise, and honor. But my people did not listen to me.”

Warnings to Judah

<sup>12</sup>“Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah,* ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel,* says: Every wineskin* should be filled with wine.’ They will laugh and say to you, ‘Of course, we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ <sup>13</sup>Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I will make everyone who lives in this land helpless, like a drunken man. I am talking about the kings who sit on David’s* throne. I am also talking about the priests, the prophets,* and all the people who live in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>I will make them stumble and fall against each another, even the fathers and sons.’ This message is from the LORD. ‘I will not feel sorry or have pity for them. I will not allow compassion to stop me from destroying the people of Judah.’”

- <sup>15</sup> Listen and pay attention.
The LORD has spoken to you.
Do not be proud.
- <sup>16</sup> Honor the LORD your God.
Praise him or he will bring darkness.
Praise him before you fall on the dark hills.
You people of Judah are hoping for light, but the Lord will turn the light into thick darkness.
He will change it into the deepest gloom.
- <sup>17</sup> If you people of Judah don’t listen to him, I will hide and cry.
Your pride will cause me to cry.
I will cry very hard.
My eyes will overflow with tears, because the LORD’s flock<sup>c</sup> will be captured.
- <sup>18</sup> Tell these things to the king and his wife, “Come down from your thrones.
Your beautiful crowns have fallen from your heads.”
- <sup>19</sup> The cities in the Negev* are locked.
No one can open them.
All the people of Judah have been taken away as captives.
They were carried away as prisoners.
- <sup>20</sup> Jerusalem, look!
The enemy is coming from the north!<sup>d</sup>
Where is your flock<sup>e</sup>?
God gave that beautiful flock to you.
- <sup>21</sup> What will you say when the LORD asks you to account for that flock?
You were supposed to teach the people.
Your leaders were supposed to lead them.
So you will suffer pain and trouble, like a woman giving birth.
- <sup>22</sup> You might ask yourself,
“Why has this bad thing happened to me?”
It happened because of your many sins.
Because of your sins, your skirt was torn off,
and your sandals were taken away.
They did this to embarrass you.

<sup>d</sup>13:20 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

<sup>e</sup>13:20 flock Here, the word “flock” refers to all the towns around Jerusalem, as if Jerusalem were the shepherd and the towns of Judah were her flock.

<sup>a</sup>13:1 loincloth A common undergarment in ancient Judah. It was a short skirt that was wrapped around the hips. It reached about halfway down the thighs.

<sup>b</sup>13:4 Perath Probably a village near Jerusalem. This town is called Parah in the list of the cities of the land of Benjamin in Josh. 18:23. But this name also means the Euphrates River.

<sup>23</sup> A black man cannot change the color of his skin, and a leopard cannot change its spots.
In the same way, Jerusalem, you cannot change and do good.
You always do bad things.

<sup>24</sup> "I will force you to leave your homes.
You will run in all directions.
You will be like chaff* blown away by the desert wind.

<sup>25</sup> This is what will happen to you.
This is your part in my plans."
This message is from the LORD.

"Why will this happen?
Because you forgot me.
You trusted false gods.

<sup>26</sup> Jerusalem, I will pull your skirt up over your face.

Everyone will see you,
and you will be ashamed.

<sup>27</sup> I saw the terrible things you did.<sup>a</sup>
I saw you laughing and having sex with your lovers.

I know about your plans to be like a prostitute.

I have seen you on the hills and in the fields.

It will be very bad for you, Jerusalem.
How long will you continue doing your dirty sins?"

Drought and False Prophets

14<sup>1</sup>This is the LORD's message to Jeremiah about the drought<sup>b</sup>:

<sup>2</sup>"The nation of Judah* cries for people who have died.

The people in the cities of Judah grow weaker and weaker.

They lie on the ground.

People in Jerusalem, cry to God for help.

<sup>3</sup> The leaders of the people send their servants to get water.

The servants go to the water storage places,
but they don't find any water.

The servants come back with empty jars,
so they are ashamed and embarrassed.

They cover their heads from shame.

<sup>4</sup> No one prepares the ground for crops.<sup>c</sup>
No rain falls on the land.

The farmers are depressed.

So they cover their heads from shame.

<sup>5</sup> Even the mother deer in the field leaves her newborn baby alone,

<sup>a</sup>13:27 I saw ... you did This is probably talking about worshiping false gods. But part of that worship was having sex with temple prostitutes.

<sup>b</sup>14:1 drought A time when no rain falls, and the crops become dry and die.

because there is no grass.

They sniff the wind like jackals.*
But their eyes cannot find any food, because there are no plants to eat.

<sup>7</sup>"We know that this is our fault.

We are now suffering because of our sins.

LORD, do something to help us for the good of your name.

We admit that we have left you many times.

We have sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup> God, you are the hope of Israel*!
You save Israel in times of trouble.

But now it seems like you are a stranger in the land,

like a traveler who only stays one night.

<sup>9</sup> You seem like a man who has been attacked by surprise, like a soldier who does not have the power to save anyone.

But, LORD, you are with us.

We are called by your name, so don't leave us without help!"

<sup>10</sup>This is what the LORD says about the people of Judah: "The people of Judah really love to leave me. They don't stop themselves from leaving me. So now the LORD will not accept them. Now he will remember the evil they do. He will punish them for their sins."

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, don't pray for good things to happen to the people of Judah. <sup>12</sup>They might begin to fast* and pray to me, but I will not listen to their prayers. Even if they offer burnt offerings* and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. I will destroy the people of Judah with war. I will take away their food, and they will starve. And I will destroy them with terrible diseases."

<sup>13</sup>But I said, "Lord God, the prophets were telling the people something different. They were telling the people of Judah, 'You will not suffer from war or from hunger. The Lord will give you peace in this land.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, those prophets are telling lies in my name.
I did not send them or command them or speak to them. Their prophecies came from false visions, worthless magic, and their own wishful thinking. <sup>15</sup>So this is what I say about the prophets who are speaking in my name.
I did not send them. They said, 'No enemy with swords will ever attack this country.
There will never be hunger in this land.' So those prophets will die from hunger or by an enemy's sword. <sup>16</sup>And the people they spoke to will be thrown into the streets. The people will die from hunger and war. I will punish them, and no one will be there to bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters.

- <sup>17</sup>“Jeremiah, speak this message to the people of Judah:
 ‘My eyes fill with tears night and day without stopping.
 I cry for my virgin daughter,<sup>a</sup> my dear people, because someone hit them and crushed them.
 They have been hurt very badly.
<sup>18</sup> If I go into the country,
 I see the bodies of those killed in war.
 If I go into the city,
 I see people sick from hunger.
 The priests and prophets continue their work,
 but they don’t understand what is happening.’”
- <sup>19</sup> LORD, have you completely rejected the nation of Judah?
 Do you hate Zion*?
 You hurt us so badly that we cannot be made well again.
 Why did you do that?
 We were hoping for peace,
 but nothing good has come.
 We were hoping for a time of healing,
 but only terror came.
- <sup>20</sup> LORD, we know that we are wicked.
 We know that our ancestors* did evil things.
 Yes, we sinned against you.
- <sup>21</sup> LORD, for the good of your name, don’t push us away.
 Don’t take away the honor from your glorious throne.
 Remember your agreement with us and do not break it.
- <sup>22</sup> Foreign idols* don’t have the power to bring rain.
 The sky does not have the power to send down showers of rain.
 You are our only hope.
 You are the one who made all these things.

15 <sup>1</sup>The LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, even if Moses and Samuel were here to pray for the people of Judah, I would not feel sorry for them. Send the people of Judah away from me! Tell them to go! <sup>2</sup>They might ask you, ‘Where will we go?’ Tell them this is what the LORD says:

- “I have chosen some people to die.
 They will die.
 I have chosen some to be killed with swords.
 They will be killed with swords.
 I have chosen some to die from hunger.
 They will die from hunger.

- I have chosen some to be taken away to a foreign country.
 They will be prisoners there.
<sup>3</sup> I will send four kinds of destroyers against them.’
 This message is from the LORD.
 ‘I will send the enemy with a sword to kill.
 I will send the dogs to drag their bodies away.
 I will send birds of the air and wild animals to eat and destroy their bodies.
<sup>4</sup> I will make the people of Judah an example of something terrible for all the people on earth.
 I will do this to the people of Judah
 because of what Manasseh<sup>b</sup> did in Jerusalem.
 Manasseh was the son of King Hezekiah.
 Manasseh was a king of Judah.’
- <sup>5</sup>“No one will feel sorry for you, city of Jerusalem.
 No one will be sad and cry for you.
 No one will go out of their way to even ask how you are.
<sup>6</sup> Jerusalem, you left me.”
 This message is from the LORD.
 “Again and again you left me!
 So I will punish and destroy you.
 I am tired of holding back your punishment.
<sup>7</sup> I will separate the people of Judah with my pitchfork.<sup>c</sup>
 I will scatter them at the city gates of the land.
 My people have not changed,
 so I will destroy them.
 I will take away their children.
<sup>8</sup> Many women will lose their husbands.
 There will be more widows than there is sand in the sea.
 I will bring a destroyer at noontime.
 The destroyer will attack the mothers of the young men of Judah.
 I will bring pain and fear on the people of Judah.
 I will make this happen very quickly.
<sup>9</sup> The enemy will attack with swords and kill the people.
 They will kill the survivors* from Judah.
 A woman with seven children will lose them.
 She will cry until she becomes weak and struggles to breathe.
 She will be upset and confused,
 because her bright day has become dark.”

<sup>b</sup>15:4 Manasseh Manasseh was the most evil king of Judah according to 2 Kings 21:1–16. He worshiped many gods.

<sup>c</sup>15:7 pitchfork A tool with sharp points for throwing hay from one place to another.

Jeremiah Complains to God Again

- 10 Mother, I am sorry that you gave birth to me.
I am the one who must accuse and criticize the whole land.
I have not loaned or borrowed anything,
but everyone curses me.
- 11 Surely, LORD, I have served you well.
In times of disaster and trouble, I prayed to you about my enemies.

God Answers Jeremiah

- 12 "Jeremiah, you know that no one can shatter a piece of iron.
I mean the kind of iron that is from the north.<sup>a</sup>
And no one can shatter a piece of bronze either.
- 13 The people of Judah* have many treasures.
I will give these riches to other people.
They will not have to buy them,
because Judah has many sins.
The people sinned in every part of Judah.
- 14 People of Judah, I will make you slaves of
your enemies.
You will be slaves in a land that you never knew.
I am very angry.
My anger is like a hot fire,
and you will be burned."

- 15 LORD, you understand me.
Remember me and take care of me.
People are hurting me.
Give them the punishment they
deserve.
You are being patient with them.
But don't destroy me while you remain patient with them.
Think about me.
Think about the pain I suffer for you.
- 16 Your words came to me, and I ate them up.
They made me very happy.
I was glad to be called by your name,
LORD All-Powerful.
- 17 I never sat with the crowd
as they laughed and had fun.
I sat by myself because of your influence on me.
You filled me with anger at the evil
around me.
- 18 I don't understand why I still hurt.
I don't understand why my wound is not cured and cannot be healed.
I think you have changed.
You are like a spring of water that became dry.
You are like a spring whose water has stopped flowing.

<sup>a</sup>15:12 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

- 19 Then the LORD said, "Jeremiah, if you change and come back to me,
I will not punish you.
If you change and come back to me,
then you may serve me.
If you speak important things, not worthless words,
then you may speak for me.
The people of Judah should change and come back to you.
But don't you change and be like them.
I will make you strong.
The people will think you are strong,
like a wall made of bronze.
The people of Judah will fight against you,
but they will not defeat you.
They will not defeat you,
because I am with you.
I will help you, and I will save you."

This message is from the LORD.

- 21 "I will save you from these evil people.
They frighten you, but I will save you from them."

The Day of Disaster

16 <sup>1</sup>The LORD's message came to me:
<sup>2</sup>"Jeremiah, you must not get married.
You must not have sons or daughters in this place."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters who are born in the land of Judah* and about their mothers and fathers: <sup>4</sup>"They will die from terrible diseases. And no one will cry for them or bury them. Their bodies will lie on the ground like dung. Or they will die in war or starve to death. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth."

<sup>5</sup>So the LORD says, "Jeremiah, don't go into a house where people are eating a funeral meal. Don't go there to cry for the dead or to show your sorrow. Don't do these things, because I have taken back my blessing. I will not be kind to the people of Judah. I will not feel sorry for them." This message is from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Important people and common people will die in the land of Judah. No one will bury them or cry for them. No one will cut himself or shave his head to show sorrow for them.
<sup>7</sup>No one will bring food to those who are crying for the dead. No one will comfort those whose mother or father has died. No one will offer a drink to comfort those who are crying for the dead.

<sup>8</sup>Jeremiah, don't go into a house where the people are having a party. Don't go into that house and sit down to eat and drink.
<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel* says: I will soon stop the sounds of people having fun. I will stop the happy sounds of people enjoying a wedding party.
This will happen during your lifetime. I will do these things very soon.

<sup>10</sup>“Jeremiah, you will tell the people of Judah these things, and the people will ask you, ‘Why has the LORD said these terrible things to us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we done against the LORD our God?’ <sup>11</sup>You must tell them: ‘Terrible things will happen to you because your ancestors’ stopped following me.’ This message is from the LORD. ‘They stopped following me and began to follow and serve other gods. They worshiped those other gods. Your ancestors left me and stopped obeying my law. <sup>12</sup>But you people have sinned more than your ancestors. You are very stubborn, and you are doing only what you want to do. You are not obeying me. Because you do only what you want to do, <sup>13</sup>I will throw you out of this country. I will force you to go to a foreign land. You will go to a land that you and your ancestors never knew. There you can serve false gods all you want to. I will not help you or show you any favors.’

<sup>14</sup>“People make promises and say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives—the Lord who brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt ....’ But the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people will not say that. <sup>15</sup>They will say something new. They will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives—the Lord who brought the Israelites out of the northern land, who brought them out of all the countries where he had sent them ....’ Why will they say that? Because I will bring the Israelites back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>“I will soon send for many fishermen to come to this land.” This message is from the LORD. “They will catch the people of Judah. After that happens, I will send for many hunters<sup>a</sup> to come to this land. They will hunt the people of Judah on every mountain and hill and in the cracks of the rocks. <sup>17</sup>I see everything they do. The people of Judah cannot hide the things they do. Their sin is not hidden from me. <sup>18</sup>I will pay the people of Judah back for the evil things they did—I will punish them two times for every sin. I will do this because they have made my land ‘dirty.’ They made my land ‘dirty’ with their terrible idols.* I hate those idols, but they have filled my country with their idols.”

You are a safe place to run to in time of trouble.
The nations will come to you from all around the world.
They will say, “Our fathers had false gods.
They worshiped those worthless idols,
but the idols did not help them.

No, they can only make statues that are not really gods.”

<sup>21</sup> The Lord says, “I will teach those who make idols.
Right now I will teach them about my power and my strength.
Then they will know that I am God.
They will know that I am the LORD.

Guilt Written on the Heart

17 “The sins of Judah* are written where they cannot be erased—cut into stone with an iron pen, cut deep with a hard tip into the stone that is the hearts of the people.
Their sins are carved into the horns of their altars.<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup> Their children remember the altars that were dedicated to false gods.
They remember the wooden poles that were dedicated to Asherah.*
They remember those things under the green trees and on the hills.
<sup>3</sup> They remember those things on the mountains in the open country.
The people of Judah have many treasures.
I will give those things to other people.
People will destroy all the high places* in your country.
You worshiped there,
and that was a sin.
<sup>4</sup> You will lose the land I gave you.
I will let your enemies take you to be their slaves.
That is because I am very angry.
My anger is like a hot fire, and you will be burned forever.”

Trusting in People and Trusting in God

<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:
“Bad things will happen to those who put their trust in people.
Bad things will happen to those who depend on human strength.
That is because they have stopped trusting the LORD.
<sup>6</sup> They are like a bush in a desert where no one lives.
It is in a hot and dry land.
It is in bad soil.
That bush does not know about the good things that God can give.
<sup>7</sup> But those who trust in the LORD will be blessed.
They know that the LORD will do what he says.

<sup>b</sup>17:1 horns of their altars The corners of altars were shaped like horns, and the blood of sacrifices was smeared on them. So Jeremiah may mean that the people’s sins have made their altars unfit for sacrifices.

<sup>a</sup>16:16 fishermen ... hunters This means the enemy soldiers from Babylon.

- 8 They will be strong like trees planted near a stream that send out roots to the water.
They have nothing to fear when the days get hot.
Their leaves are always green.
They never worry, even in a year that has no rain.
They always produce fruit.

- 9 "Nothing can hide its evil as well as the human mind.
It can be very sick,
and no one really understands it.
- 10 But I am the LORD,
and I can look into a person's heart.
I can test a person's mind and decide what each one should have.
I can give each person the right payment for what they do.
- 11 Sometimes a bird will hatch an egg that it did not lay.
Those who cheat to get money are like that bird.
But when their lives are half finished, they will lose the money.
At the end of their lives, it will be clear that they were fools."
- 12 From the very beginning, our Temple* has been a glorious throne for God.
It is a very important place.
- 13 LORD, you are the hope of Israel.*
You are like a spring of living water.
Those who stop following the LORD will have a very short life.<sup>a</sup>

Jeremiah's Third Complaint

- 14 LORD, if you heal me,
I surely will be healed.
Save me,
and I surely will be saved.
LORD, I praise you!
- 15 The people of Judah* continue to ask me questions.
They say, "Jeremiah, what about the message from the LORD?
Let's see that message come true."
- 16 LORD, I did not run away from you.
I followed you.
I became the shepherd<sup>b</sup> you wanted.
I did not want the terrible day to come.
LORD, you know what I said.
You see all that is happening.
- 17 LORD, don't ruin me.
I depend on you in times of trouble.

<sup>a</sup>17:13 will have a very short life Literally, "he will be written in the dirt." This might mean that a person's name was written on a list of people who would soon die, or that a person's life will soon be gone—like a name written in the sand.

<sup>b</sup>17:16 shepherd God's people are sometimes called his "sheep," and the person who takes care of them is called the "shepherd."

- 18 People are hurting me.
Make them ashamed,
but don't disappoint me.
Let them be filled with fear,
but don't give me any reason to fear.
Bring the terrible day of disaster to my enemies.
Break them, and break them again.

Keeping the Sabbath Day Holy

<sup>19</sup>This is what the LORD said to me: "Jeremiah, go and stand at the People's Gate,<sup>c</sup> where the kings of Judah* go in and out. Tell the people my message, and then go to all the other gates of Jerusalem and do the same."

<sup>20</sup>Say to the people, "Listen to this message from the LORD. Listen, kings of Judah. Listen, all you people of Judah. All you who come through these gates into Jerusalem, listen to me! <sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD says: 'Be careful that you don't carry a load on the Sabbath* day. And don't bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. <sup>22</sup>Don't bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don't do any work on that day. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. I gave this same command to your ancestors,* <sup>23</sup>but they did not obey me. They did not pay attention to me. Your ancestors were very stubborn. I punished them, but it did not do any good. They did not listen to me. <sup>24</sup>But you must be careful to obey me, says the LORD. You must not bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. You will do this by not doing any work on that day.

<sup>25</sup>"If you obey this command, the kings and leaders will be from David's* family. It will be the kings who sit on David's throne and the leaders from Judah and Jerusalem who come through the gates of Jerusalem riding on chariots* and on horses. And Jerusalem will have people living in it forever. <sup>26</sup>People will come to Jerusalem from the towns and villages of Judah, from the land where the tribe of Benjamin lives,<sup>d</sup> from the western foothills, from the hill country, and from the Negev.* All these people will bring burnt offerings,* sacrifices, grain offerings, incense,* and thank offerings to the Temple* of the LORD in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>"But if you don't listen to me and obey me, bad things will happen. If you carry loads into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, you are not keeping it as a holy day. So I will start a fire that cannot be put out. That fire will start at the gates of Jerusalem, and it will burn until it burns even the palaces."

<sup>d</sup>17:26 the land where ... Benjamin lives The land of Benjamin was just north of the land of Judah.

The Potter and the Clay

18 <sup>1</sup>This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>"Jeremiah, go down to the potter's* house. I will give you my message there."

<sup>3</sup>So I went down to the potter's house. I saw the potter working with clay at the wheel. <sup>4</sup>He was making a pot from clay. But there was something wrong with the pot. So the potter used that clay again, and he made another pot. He used his hands to shape the pot the way he wanted it to be.

<sup>5</sup>Then this message from the LORD came to me: <sup>6</sup>"Family of Israel,* you know that I can do the same thing with you. You are like the clay in the potter's hands, and I am like the potter. <sup>7</sup>There may come a time when I will speak about a nation or a kingdom that I will pull up by its roots. Or maybe I will say that I will pull that nation or kingdom down and destroy it. <sup>8</sup>But if the people of that nation change their hearts and lives and stop doing evil things, I will change my mind and not follow my plans to bring disaster to them. <sup>9</sup>There may come another time when I speak about a nation that I will build up or plant. <sup>10</sup>But if I see that nation doing evil things and not obeying me, I will think again about the good I had planned to do for that nation.

<sup>11</sup>"So, Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: I am preparing troubles for you right now. I am making plans against you. So stop doing the evil things you are doing. Each person must change and start doing good things.' <sup>12</sup>But the people of Judah will answer, 'It will not do any good to try. We will continue to do what we want. We will do what our stubborn, evil hearts want.'"

<sup>13</sup> Listen to what the LORD says:

"Ask the other nations this question:

'Have you ever heard of anyone doing the evil things that Israel has done?'

And Israel is special to God.

Israel is like God's bride!

<sup>14</sup> You know that rocks never leave the fields by themselves.<sup>a</sup>

You know that the snow on the mountains of Lebanon never melts.

You know that cool, flowing streams don't become dry.

<sup>15</sup> But my people have forgotten about me. They make offerings to worthless idols.* My people stumble in the things they do. They stumble around in the old paths of their ancestors.*

<sup>a</sup>18:14 You know ... themselves In Hebrew this sounds like, "Would anyone leave the Rock, Shaddai?" Rock and Shaddai are two names for God, but this could also be translated, "Does Lebanon's snow ever melt from Shaddai's mountain?" Here, this is probably Mount Hermon.

My people would rather walk along back roads and poor highways than to follow me on the good roads.

<sup>16</sup> So Judah's country will become an empty desert.

People will whistle and shake their heads every time they pass by.

They will be shocked at how the country was destroyed.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter the people of Judah.*

They will run from their enemies.

I will scatter the people of Judah like an east wind that blows things away.

I will destroy them.

They will not see me coming to help them.

No, they will see me leaving."

Jeremiah's Fourth Complaint

<sup>18</sup>Then the enemies of Jeremiah said, "Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost, and the advice from the wise men will still be with us. We will still have the words of the prophets.* So let us tell lies about him. That will ruin him. We will not pay attention to anything he says."

<sup>19</sup> LORD, listen to me!

Listen to my arguments and decide who is right.

<sup>20</sup> I have been good to the people of Judah,* but now they are paying me back with evil.

They are trying to trap me and kill me.

<sup>21</sup> So make their children starve in a famine.* Let their enemies defeat them with swords.

Let their wives be without children.

Turn their wives into widows.

Let the men from Judah be put to death.

Let the young men be killed in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let there be crying in their houses.

Make them cry when you suddenly bring an enemy against them.

Let all this happen because my enemies tried to trap me.

They hid traps for me to step in.

<sup>23</sup> LORD, you know about their plans to kill me.

Don't forgive their crimes.

Don't erase their sins.

Destroy my enemies!

Punish them while you are angry!

The Broken Jar

19 <sup>1</sup>The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, go and buy a clay jar from a potter.* <sup>2</sup>Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the front of the Potsherd Gate.<sup>b</sup> Take some of the elders* of the people and some priests with you. Tell them what I tell you. <sup>3</sup>Say to those who are with you, 'King of Judah* and people of Jerusalem, listen to this message from the LORD! This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel,* says: I will soon make a terrible thing happen to this place! Everyone who hears about it will be amazed and full of fear. <sup>4</sup>I will do these things because the people of Judah have stopped following me. They have made this a place for foreign gods. The people of Judah have burned sacrifices in this place to other gods. The people long ago did not worship those gods. Their ancestors* did not worship them. These are new gods from other countries. The kings of Judah filled this place with the blood of innocent children. <sup>5</sup>The kings of Judah built high places* for the god Baal.* They use those places to burn their sons in the fire. They burned their sons as burnt offerings to the god Baal. I did not tell them to do that. I did not ask them to offer their sons as sacrifices. I never even thought of such a thing. <sup>6</sup>Now people call this place Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom. But I give you this warning. This message is from the LORD: The days are coming, when people will call this place the Valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup>At this place, I will ruin the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The enemy will chase them, and I will let the people of Judah be killed with swords in this place. I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild animals. <sup>8</sup>I will completely destroy this city. People will whistle and shake their heads when they pass by Jerusalem. They will be shocked when they see how the city was destroyed. <sup>9</sup>The enemy will bring its army around the city. That army will not let people go out to get food, so the people in the city will begin to starve. They will become so hungry that they will eat the bodies of their own sons and daughters, and then they will begin to eat each other.'

<sup>10</sup>'Jeremiah, tell this to the people, and while they are watching, break the jar. <sup>11</sup>Then say this: 'The LORD All-Powerful says, I will break the nation of Judah and the city of Jerusalem, just as someone breaks a clay jar! And like a broken jar, the nation of Judah cannot be put together again. The dead people will be buried here in Topheth until there is no more room. <sup>12</sup>I will do this to these people and to this place. I will make this city like Topheth.' This message is from the LORD. <sup>13</sup>'The houses in Jerusalem will become as "dirty" as this place, Topheth. The kings' palaces will be ruined like this place, Topheth, because the people worshiped false gods on the roofs of their houses.<sup>a</sup> They worshiped the stars and burned sacrifices to honor them. They gave drink offerings to false gods.'

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the LORD had told him to speak. Jeremiah went to the LORD's Temple* and stood in the courtyard* of the Temple. Jeremiah said to all the people: <sup>15</sup>'This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel says: 'I said I would bring many disasters to Jerusalem and the villages around it. I will soon make this happen because the people are very stubborn. They refuse to listen and obey me.'

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20<sup>1</sup>Pashhur son of Immer was a priest. He was the highest officer in the Temple* of the LORD. When he heard Jeremiah say those things in the Temple yard, <sup>2</sup>he had Jeremiah the prophet* beaten. And he had Jeremiah's hands and feet locked between large blocks of wood. This was at the Upper Gate of Benjamin of the Temple. <sup>3</sup>The next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out from between the blocks of wood. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for you is not Pashhur. Now his name for you is, 'Surrounded by Terror.' <sup>4</sup>That is your name because of what the LORD says: 'I will soon make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. You will watch enemies killing your friends with swords. I will give all the people of Judah* to the king of Babylon. He will take them away to the country of Babylon, and his army will kill the people of Judah with their swords. <sup>5</sup>The people of Jerusalem worked hard to build things and become wealthy, but I will give all these things to their enemies. The king in Jerusalem has many treasures, but I will give all the treasures to the enemy. The enemy will take them and carry them away to the country of Babylon. <sup>6</sup>And, Pashhur, you and all the people living in your house will be taken away. You will be forced to go and live in the country of Babylon. You will die in Babylon, and you will be buried in that foreign country. You told lies to your friends. You said these things would not happen. But all your friends will also die and be buried in Babylon.'

Jeremiah's Fifth Complaint

<sup>7</sup> LORD, you tricked me, and I certainly was fooled.

You are stronger than I am, so you won. I have become a joke.

People laugh at me and make fun of me all day long.

<sup>8</sup> Every time I speak, I shout.

I am always shouting about violence and destruction.

I tell the people about the message that I received from the LORD.

But they only insult me and make fun of me.

<sup>9</sup> Sometimes I say to myself,

"I will forget about him.

I will not speak anymore in his name."

But when I say that, his message is like a fire burning inside me!
It feels like it is burning deep in my bones!

I get tired of trying to hold his message inside.

And finally, I am not able to hold it in.

<sup>10</sup> I hear people whispering against me.
Everywhere, I hear things that frighten me.

Even my friends are speaking against me.

People are just waiting for me to make a mistake.

They are saying,
“Let us lie and say that he did something bad.

Maybe we can trick Jeremiah.

Then we will have him.

We will finally be rid of him.

Then we will grab him and take our revenge on him.”

<sup>11</sup> But the LORD is with me.

He is like a strong soldier.

So those who are chasing me will fall.

They will not defeat me.

They will fail.

They will be disappointed.

They will be ashamed, and they will never forget that shame.

<sup>12</sup> LORD All-Powerful, you test good people.

You look deeply into a person's mind.

I told you my arguments against these people.

So let me see you give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!

He saves the lives of the poor!

He saves them from the wicked!

Jeremiah's Sixth Complaint

<sup>14</sup> Curse the day that I was born!

Don't bless the day my mother had me.

<sup>15</sup> Curse the man who told my father the news that I was born.

“It's a boy!” he said.

“You have a son.”

He made my father very happy
when he told him the news.

<sup>16</sup> Let that man be like the cities the LORD destroyed.<sup>a</sup>

He had no pity on them.

Let him hear shouts of war in the morning;

let him hear battle cries at noontime,

<sup>17</sup> because he did not kill me while I was in my mother's womb.

If he had killed me then,
my mother would have been my grave,
and I would not have been born.

<sup>18</sup> Why did I have to come out of her body?
All I have seen is trouble and sorrow,
and my life will end in shame.

God Rejects King Zedekiah's Request

21 <sup>1</sup>This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. This was when King Zedekiah of Judah sent Pashhur<sup>b</sup> son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maa-seiah to Jeremiah. They brought a message for Jeremiah. <sup>2</sup>They said to Jeremiah, “Pray to the LORD for us. Ask him what will happen. We want to know, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the LORD will do great things for us, as he did in the past. Maybe he will make Nebuchadnezzar stop attacking us and leave.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Jeremiah answered Pashhur and Zephaniah. He said, “Tell King Zedekiah, <sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: You have weapons of war in your hands that you are using to defend yourselves from the Babylonians and their king. But I will make those weapons worthless.

“The army from Babylon is outside the wall all around the city. Soon I will bring that army into Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>I myself will fight against you people of Judah. I will fight against you with my own powerful hand. I am very angry with you, so I will fight against you with my own powerful arm. I will fight very hard against you and show how angry I am. <sup>6</sup>I will kill everything living in Jerusalem, both people and animals. They will die from a terrible disease that will spread all through the city. <sup>7</sup>After that happens,” says the LORD, “I will give King Zedekiah of Judah and all his officials to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And I will give to Nebuchadnezzar the people who remain alive in Jerusalem—those who did not die from the terrible disease and the people who did not die in war or from hunger. I will give them all to King Nebuchadnezzar. The people of Judah will be captured by their enemies who want to kill them. Nebuchadnezzar's army will use their swords to kill the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar will not show any mercy. He will not feel sorry for them.”

<sup>8</sup>“Also tell the people of Jerusalem, ‘This is what the LORD says: Understand that I will let you choose to live or die. <sup>9</sup>Anyone who stays in Jerusalem will die in war or from hunger or disease. But anyone who goes out of Jerusalem and surrenders to the Babylonians attacking you will live. Only those who leave the city will win anything in this war—their lives! <sup>10</sup>I have decided to make trouble for the city of Jerusalem. I will not help this city!’” This message is from the LORD. “I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. He will burn it with fire.”

- <sup>11</sup>"Say this to Judah's royal family:
'Listen to the message from the LORD.
<sup>12</sup> Family of David,* this is what the LORD says:
You must judge people fairly every day.
Protect the victims from the criminals.
If you don't do that,
then I will become very angry.
My anger will be like a fire that no one will be able to put out.
This will happen because you have done evil things.'
<sup>13</sup>"Jerusalem, I am against you.
You sit on top of the mountain.
You sit like a queen over this valley.
You people of Jerusalem say,
'No one can attack us.
No one can come into our strong city.'
But listen to this message from the LORD:
<sup>14</sup>"You will get the punishment you deserve.
I will start a fire in your forests that will completely burn everything around you."

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22<sup>1</sup>The LORD said, "Jeremiah, go down to the king's palace. Go to the king of Judah" and tell this message there: <sup>2</sup>"Listen to this message from the LORD, King of Judah. You rule from David's* throne, so listen. King, you and your officials must listen well. All of your people who come through the gates of Jerusalem must listen to the message from the LORD. <sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says: Do what is right and fair. Protect those who have been robbed from the ones who robbed them. Don't hurt or do anything wrong to orphans or widows. Don't kill innocent people. <sup>4</sup>If you obey these commands, kings who sit on David's throne will continue to come through the gates into the city of Jerusalem. They will come through the gates with their officials. The kings, their officials, and their people will come riding in chariots* and on horses. <sup>5</sup>But if you don't obey these commands, this is what the LORD says: I, the LORD, promise that this king's palace will be destroyed—it will become a pile of rocks."

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says about the palace where the king of Judah lives:

"The palace is tall like the forests of Gilead, like the mountains of Lebanon.
But I will make it like a desert,
as empty as a city where no one lives.
<sup>7</sup> I will send men to destroy the palace,
each armed with weapons.
They will cut up your strong, beautiful cedar beams
and throw them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup>"People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, 'Why has the LORD done such a terrible thing to Jerusalem? Jerusalem was such a great city.'

<sup>9</sup>This will be the answer to that question: 'God destroyed Jerusalem because the people of Judah stopped following the agreement of the LORD their God. They worshiped and served other gods.'"

Judgment Against King Jehoahaz

- <sup>10</sup> Don't cry for the king who has died.<sup>a</sup>
Don't cry for him.
But cry very hard for the king who must leave this place.<sup>b</sup> Cry for him because he will never return or see his homeland again.

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says about Jehoahaz<sup>c</sup> son of Josiah, who became king of Judah after his father Josiah died: "Jehoahaz has gone away from Jerusalem. He will never return. <sup>12</sup>Jehoahaz will die in the place where the Egyptians have taken him, and he will not see this land again."

Judgment Against King Jehoiakim

- <sup>13</sup>"It will be very bad for King Jehoiakim.
He is doing wrong so that he can build his palace.
He is cheating people so that he can build rooms upstairs.
He is not paying his own people.
He is making them work for nothing.

- <sup>14</sup>"Jehoiakim says,
'I will build myself a great palace, with huge rooms upstairs.'
So he built it with large windows.
He used cedar wood for paneling, and he painted it red.

- <sup>15</sup>"Jehoiakim, having a lot of cedar in your house
does not make you a great king.
Your father Josiah was satisfied to have food and drink.
He did what was right and fair,
so everything went well for him.
<sup>16</sup> Josiah helped poor and needy people,
so everything went well for him.
Jehoiakim, what does it mean "to know
God"?
It means living right and being fair.
That is what it means to know me.
This message is from the LORD.

<sup>a</sup>22:10 the king who has died That is, King Josiah who was killed in battle against the Egyptians in 609 B.C.

<sup>b</sup>22:10 the king ... place This means Josiah's son, Jehoahaz. He became king after Josiah died. He is also called Shallum. King Neco of Egypt defeated Josiah. And Neco took Jehoahaz off the throne of Judah and made him a prisoner in Egypt.

- <sup>17</sup>“Jehoiakim, your eyes look only for what benefits yourself.
You are always thinking about getting more for yourself.
You are willing to kill innocent people.
You are willing to steal things from other people.”
- <sup>18</sup> So this is what the LORD says to King Jehoiakim son of Josiah:
“The people of Judah* will not cry for Jehoiakim.
They will not say to each another,
‘Brother, I am so sad!
Sister, I am so sad!’
They will not cry for Jehoiakim.
They will not say about him,
‘Master, I am so sad!
King, I am so sad!’
- <sup>19</sup> The people of Jerusalem will bury Jehoiakim like a donkey.
They will drag his body away and throw it outside the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>20</sup>“Judah, go up to the mountains of Lebanon and cry out.
Let your voice be heard in the mountains of Bashan.
Cry out in the mountains of Abarim, because all your ‘lovers’ will be destroyed.
- <sup>21</sup>“Judah, you felt safe,
but I warned you.
I warned you,
but you refused to listen.
You have lived like this from the time you were young.
And from the time you were young,
you have not obeyed me, Judah.
- <sup>22</sup> Judah, the punishment I give will come like a storm, and it will blow all your shepherds away.
You thought some of the other nations would help you.
But these nations will also be defeated.
Then you will really be disappointed.
You will be ashamed of all the evil things you did.
- <sup>23</sup>“King, you seem so safe in your palace of cedar.
It’s as if you live in Lebanon!<sup>a</sup>
But when your punishment comes, you will groan.
You will be in pain like a woman giving birth!”

<sup>a</sup>22:23 It’s as if ... Lebanon The king’s palace in Jerusalem was built with wood from the mountains of Lebanon, which was famous for its cedar trees.

Judgment Against King Jehoiachin

<sup>24</sup>“As surely as I live,” says the LORD, “I will do this to you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah: Even if you were a silver ring* on my right hand, I would still pull you off. <sup>25</sup>Jehoiachin, I will give you to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonians. Those are the people you are afraid of. They want to kill you. <sup>26</sup>I will throw you and your mother into another country where neither of you was born. You and your mother will die in that country. <sup>27</sup>Jehoiachin, you will want to come back to your land, but you will never be allowed to come back.”

- <sup>28</sup> Jehoiachin is like a broken pot that someone threw away.
He is like a pot that no one wants.
Why will Jehoiachin and his children be thrown out and sent away into a foreign land?
- <sup>29</sup> Land, land, land of Judah!
Listen to this message from the LORD!
- <sup>30</sup> The LORD says, “Write this down about Jehoiachin:
‘He does not have children anymore!
Jehoiachin will not be successful because none of his children will sit on the throne of David.*
None of his children will rule in Judah.’”

23 <sup>1</sup>“It will be very bad for the shepherds of the people of Judah. They are destroying the sheep. They are making the sheep run from my pasture in all directions.” This message is from the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>They are responsible for my people. And this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to them: “You shepherds have made my sheep run away in all directions. You have forced them to go away, and you have not taken care of them. But I will take care of you—I will punish you for the evil things you did.” This message is from the LORD: <sup>3</sup>“I sent my sheep to other countries. But I will gather together my sheep that are left, and I will bring them back to their pasture. When my sheep are back in their pasture, they will have many children and grow in number. <sup>4</sup>I will place new shepherds over my sheep. They will take care of my sheep, and my sheep will never again feel afraid. None of my sheep will be lost.” This message is from the LORD.

The Good “Branch”

- <sup>5</sup> This message is from the LORD:
“The time is coming,
when I will raise up a good ‘branch’
from David’s family.
He will be a king who will rule in a wise way.
He will do what is fair and right in the land.
- <sup>6</sup> When he rules, Judah* will be saved,
and Israel* will live in safety.

This will be his name:
The LORD Makes Things Right for Us.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>“So the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people will not make a promise by saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, the one who brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt ....’”<sup>8</sup>But people will say something new: ‘As surely as the LORD lives, the one who brought the Israelites out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had sent them ....’ Then the people of Israel will live in their own land.”

Judgments Against False Prophets

- <sup>9</sup> A message to the prophets:
I am very sad—my heart is broken.
All my bones are shaking.
Because of the LORD and his holy words,
I am like a man who is drunk.
- <sup>10</sup> The land of Judah* is full of people who commit adultery.*
They are unfaithful in many ways.
The LORD cursed the land,
and it became very dry.
The plants are dried and dying in the pastures.
The fields have become like the desert.
The prophets are evil.
They use their influence and power in the wrong way.
- <sup>11</sup>“The prophets and even the priests are evil.
I have seen them doing evil things in my own Temple.”<sup>**</sup>
This message is from the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup>“I will stop giving my messages to them.”
They will walk in darkness.
The road will be slippery for those prophets and priests,
and they will fall in that darkness.
I will bring disaster on them;
I will punish them.”
This message is from the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup>“I saw the prophets of Samaria* doing wrong things.
I saw them prophesy* in the name of the false god Baal.*
They led the people of Israel away from the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> I have even seen the prophets of Jerusalem doing sinful things.
They are committing adultery* and living a life of lies.
They support their fellow prophets and never stop doing evil.
They have become like Sodom*;
they are all like Gomorrah.”<sup>**</sup>
- <sup>15</sup> So this is what the LORD All-Powerful says about those Jerusalem prophets:

“I will make them suffer.
Their food will be bitter, their water like poison.
I will punish them because they started a spiritual sickness that spread through the whole country.

- <sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: “Don’t pay attention to what those prophets are saying to you.
They are trying to fool you.
They talk about visions,* but they did not get their visions from me.
Their visions come from their own minds.
- <sup>17</sup> Some of the people hate the real messages from the LORD,
so the prophets give them a different message.
They say, ‘You will have peace.’
Some of the people are very stubborn.
They do only what they want to do.
So the prophets say,
‘Nothing bad will happen to you!’
- <sup>18</sup> But none of these prophets has stood in the heavenly council.<sup>b</sup>
None of them has seen or heard the message from the LORD.
None of them has paid close attention to his message.
- <sup>19</sup> Now the punishment from the LORD will come like a storm.
His anger will be like a tornado.
It will come crashing down on the heads of those wicked people.
- <sup>20</sup> The LORD’s anger will not stop until he finishes what he plans to do.
When that day is over,
you will understand this clearly.
- <sup>21</sup> I did not send those prophets,
but they ran to tell their messages.
I did not speak to them,
but they spoke in my name.
- <sup>22</sup> If they had stood in my heavenly council, then they would have told my messages to the people of Judah.
They would have stopped the people from doing bad things.
They would have stopped them from doing evil.”
- <sup>23</sup> This message is from the LORD.
“I am God, and I am always near.
I am not far away.
- <sup>24</sup> Someone might try to hide from me in some hiding place.
But it is easy for me to see that person, because I am everywhere in heaven and earth.”
This is what the LORD said.

<sup>a</sup>23:6 The LORD Makes Things Right for Us This is a wordplay. In Hebrew this is like the name Zedekiah, the king of Judah at the time this prophecy was probably given. But Jeremiah is talking about another king.

<sup>b</sup>23:18 heavenly council The people in the Old Testament often talk about God as the leader of a council of heavenly beings (angels). Compare 1 Kings 22:19–23; Isa. 6:1–8 and Job 1 and 2.

<sup>25</sup>"There are prophets who tell lies in my name. They say, 'I have had a dream! I have had a dream!' I heard them say those things. <sup>26</sup>How long will this continue? They think up lies and then they teach them to the people. <sup>27</sup>They are trying to make the people of Judah forget my name by telling each other these false dreams. They are trying to make my people forget me, just as their ancestors* forgot me and worshiped the false god Baal.* <sup>28</sup>Straw is not the same as wheat! In the same way, the dreams of those prophets are not messages from me. If people want to tell about their dreams, let them. But those who hear my message must speak it truthfully. <sup>29</sup>You must treat my message carefully, like a fire or like a hammer that can smash a rock." This message is from the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>This message is from the LORD. "So I am against the false prophets.* They keep stealing my words from one another. <sup>31</sup>I am against the false prophets." This message is from the LORD. "They use their own words and pretend that it is a message from me. <sup>32</sup>I am against the false prophets who tell false dreams." This message is from the LORD. "They mislead my people with their lies and false teachings. I did not send them to teach the people. I never commanded them to do anything for me. They cannot help the people of Judah at all." This message is from the LORD.

The Sad Message From the Lord

<sup>33</sup>"The people of Judah,* or a prophet,* or a priest may ask you, 'Jeremiah, what is the announcement of the LORD?' You will answer them and say, 'You are a heavy load<sup>d</sup> to the LORD, and I will throw down this heavy load.' This message is from the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>"A prophet, or a priest, or maybe one of the people might say, 'This is an announcement from the LORD ....' Because of that lie, I will punish that person and their whole family. <sup>35</sup>This is what you will say to one another: 'What did the LORD answer?' or 'What did the LORD say?' <sup>36</sup>But you will never again use the expression, 'The announcement of the LORD.' That is because his message should not be a heavy load for anyone. But you changed the words of our God. He is the living God, the LORD All-Powerful!

<sup>37</sup>"If you want to learn about God's message, ask a prophet, 'What answer did the LORD give you?' or 'What did the LORD say?' <sup>38</sup>But don't say, 'What was the announcement from the LORD?' If you use these words, the LORD will say this to you: 'You should not have called my message an announcement from the LORD.' I told you not to use those words. <sup>39</sup>But you called my message a heavy load, so I will pick you up like a heavy load and throw you away from me. I gave the city of Jerusalem to your ancestors.* But I will throw you and that city away from me, <sup>40</sup>and I will make you a disgrace forever. You will never forget your shame."

The Good Figs and the Bad Figs

24<sup>1</sup>The LORD showed me these things: I saw two baskets of figs arranged in front of the Temple* of the LORD. (I saw this vision after King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took Jehoiachin<sup>b</sup> as a prisoner. Jehoiachin, the son of King Jehoiakim, and all his important officials were taken away from Jerusalem. They were taken to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also took away all the carpenters and metalworkers of Judah.)* <sup>2</sup>One basket had very good figs in it, the kind that ripen early in the season. But the other basket had rotten figs. They were too rotten to eat.

I answered, "I see figs. The good figs are very good, and the rotten figs are very rotten. They are too rotten to eat."

<sup>4</sup>Then the message from the LORD came to me. <sup>5</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, said, "The people of Judah were taken from their country. Their enemy brought them to Babylon. Those people will be like these good figs. I will be kind to them. <sup>6</sup>I will protect them. I will bring them back to the land of Judah. I will not tear them down—I will build them up. I will not pull them up—I will plant them so that they can grow. <sup>7</sup>I will make them want to know me. They will know that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I will do this because the prisoners in Babylon will turn to me with their whole hearts.

<sup>8</sup>But King Zedekiah of Judah will be like those figs that are too rotten to eat. Zedekiah, his high officials, all those who are left in Jerusalem, and those people of Judah who are living in Egypt will be like the rotten figs.

<sup>9</sup>I will punish them. Their punishment will shock all the people on earth. People will make fun of those people from Judah. People will tell jokes about them and curse them in all the places where I scatter them. <sup>10</sup>I will bring war, famine,* and disease against them. I will attack them until they have all been killed. Then they will no longer be on the land that I gave to them and to their ancestors.*"

A Summary of Jeremiah's Message

25<sup>1</sup>This is the message that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah.* This message came in the fourth year that Jehoiakim<sup>c</sup> son of Josiah was king of Judah. The fourth year of his time as king was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet* spoke to all the people of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem:

<sup>3</sup>I have given you messages from the LORD again and again for these past 23 years. I have been a prophet since the 13th year that Josiah son of Amon was the king of Judah. I have spoken messages from the LORD to you from that time until today. But you have not listened. <sup>4</sup>The LORD has sent his servants, the prophets, to you over and over again. But you have not listened to them. You have not paid any attention to them.

<sup>5</sup>Those prophets said, "Change your lives and stop doing evil! If you change, you can return to the land that the LORD gave you and your ancestors* long ago. He gave you this land to live in forever. <sup>6</sup>Don't follow other gods. Don't serve or worship them. Don't worship idols* that someone has made. That only makes me angry with you. By doing this you only hurt yourselves."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>"But you did not listen to me." This message is from the LORD. "You worshiped idols that someone made, and that made me angry. And it only hurt you."

<sup>8</sup>So this is what the LORD All-Powerful says, "You have not listened to my messages. <sup>9</sup>I will soon send for all the tribes of the north."<sup>b</sup> This message is from the LORD. "I will soon send for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He is my servant. I will bring those people against the land of Judah and against the people of Judah. I will bring them against all the nations around you too. I will destroy all those countries. I will make those lands like an empty desert forever. People will see those countries, and whistle at how badly they were destroyed. <sup>10</sup>I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in those places. There will be no more happy sounds of the brides and bridegrooms. I will take away the sound of people grinding meal. I will take away the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup>That whole area will be an empty desert. All these people will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years.

<sup>12</sup>"But when the 70 years have passed, I will punish the king of Babylon. I will punish the nation of Babylon." This message is from the LORD. "I will punish the land of the Babylonians for their sins. I will make that land a desert forever. <sup>13</sup>I said many bad things will happen to Babylon, and all of them will happen. Jeremiah spoke about those foreign nations. And all the warnings are written in this book. <sup>14</sup>Yes, the people of Babylon will have to serve many nations and many great kings. I will give them the punishment they deserve for all the things they have done."

Judgment on the Nations of the World

<sup>15</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, said this to me: "Jeremiah, take this cup of wine from my hand. It is the wine of my anger. I am sending you to different nations. Make all the nations drink from this cup. <sup>16</sup>They will drink this wine. Then they will vomit and act like crazy people. They will do this because of the war that I will soon bring against them."

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup of wine from the LORD's hand. I went to those nations and I made them drink from the cup. <sup>18</sup>I poured this wine for the people of Jerusalem and Judah.* I made the kings and leaders of Judah drink from the cup. I did this so that they would become an empty desert. I did this so that place would be destroyed so badly that people would whistle and say curses about it. And it happened—Judah is like that now.

<sup>19</sup>I also made Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, drink from the cup. I made his officials, his important leaders, and all his people drink from the cup of the LORD's anger.

<sup>20</sup>I also made all the Arabs and all the kings of the land of Uz drink from the cup.

I made all the kings of the land of the Philistines* drink from the cup. These were the kings of the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of the city Ashdod.

<sup>22</sup>I made all the kings of Tyre and Sidon drink from the cup.

I also made all the kings of the faraway countries drink from that cup. <sup>23</sup>I made the people of Dedan, Tema, and Buz drink from the cup. I made all those who cut their hair at their temples drink from the cup. <sup>24</sup>I made all the kings of Arabia drink from the cup. These kings live in the desert. <sup>25</sup>I made all the kings from Zimri, Elam, and Media drink from the cup. <sup>26</sup>I made all the kings of the north, those who were near and far, drink from the cup. I made them drink one after the other. I made all the kingdoms that are on earth drink from the cup of the anger of the LORD. But the king of Babylon will drink from this cup after all these other nations.

<sup>27</sup>"Jeremiah, say to those nations, this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'Drink this cup of my anger. Get drunk from it and vomit. Fall down and don't get up. Don't get up because I am bringing wars against you.'

<sup>28</sup>"They will refuse to take the cup from your hand. They will refuse to drink it, but you will tell them, 'This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: You will surely drink from this cup! <sup>29</sup>I am already making these bad things happen to Jerusalem, the city that is called by my name. Maybe you people think that you will not be punished, but you are wrong. You will be punished! I am giving the command for war to come against all the people of the earth.” This message is from the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>“Jeremiah, you will give them this message:

‘The LORD shouts from above.

He shouts from his holy Temple.*

He shouts against his people.

His shouts are loud like the songs of people walking on grapes to make wine.

<sup>31</sup> The noise spreads to all the people on earth.

What is all the noise about?

The LORD tells why he is punishing all the nations.

He has given his arguments against them.

He has judged them,

and now he is killing the wicked with his sword.”

This message is from the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: “Disasters will soon spread from country to country.

They will come like a powerful storm to all the faraway places on earth!”

<sup>33</sup>The dead bodies of those people will reach from one end of the country to the other. No one will cry for them. No one will gather up their bodies and bury them. They will be left lying on the ground like dung.

<sup>34</sup> Shepherds, you should be leading the sheep.

Start crying, you great leaders!

Roll around on the ground in pain, you leaders of the sheep.

It is now time for your slaughter.

You will be scattered everywhere, like pieces flying from a broken jar.

<sup>35</sup> There will be no place for the shepherds to hide.

They will not escape.

I hear the leaders of the sheep crying, because the LORD is destroying their pastures.

And because of his terrible anger and by the attacks of the enemy army, their land will become an empty desert.

son of Josiah was king of Judah.* <sup>2</sup>The LORD said, “Jeremiah, stand in the Temple* yard of the LORD. Give this message to all the people of Judah who are coming to worship at the Temple of the LORD. Tell them everything that I tell you to speak. Don’t leave out any part of my message. <sup>3</sup>Maybe they will listen and obey my message. Maybe they will stop living such evil lives. If they change, I will change my mind about my plans to punish them. I am planning this punishment because of the many evil things they have done. <sup>4</sup>You will say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I gave my teachings to you. You must obey me and follow my teachings. <sup>5</sup>You must listen to what my servants say to you. The prophets* are my servants. I have sent my prophets to you again and again, but you did not listen to them. <sup>6</sup>If you don’t obey me, I will make my Temple in Jerusalem just like my Holy Tent at Shiloh.<sup>b</sup> People all over the world will think of Jerusalem when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities.’”

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah say all these words at the LORD’s Temple. <sup>8</sup>Jeremiah finished speaking everything the LORD had commanded him to say to the people. Then the priests, the prophets, and all the people grabbed Jeremiah. They said, “You will die for saying such terrible things! <sup>9</sup>How dare you say such a thing in the name of the LORD! How dare you say that this Temple will be destroyed like the one at Shiloh! How dare you say that Jerusalem will become a desert with no one living in it!” All the people gathered around Jeremiah in the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Now the rulers of Judah heard about everything that was happening. So they came out of the king’s palace. They went up to the LORD’s Temple. They took their places at the entrance of the New Gate. The New Gate is a gate leading to the LORD’s Temple. <sup>11</sup>Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers and all the other people. They said, “Jeremiah should be killed. He said bad things about Jerusalem. You heard him say those things.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers of Judah and all the other people. He said, “The LORD sent me to say these things about this Temple and this city. Everything that you have heard is from the LORD. <sup>13</sup>You people, change your lives! You must start doing good! You must obey the LORD your God. If you do that, he will change his mind. He will not do the bad things he told you about. <sup>14</sup>As for me, I am in your power. Do to me what you think is good and right. <sup>15</sup>But if you kill me, be sure of one thing. You will be guilty of killing an innocent person. You will make this city and everyone living in it guilty too. The LORD really did send me to you. The message you heard really is from the Lord.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the rulers and all the people spoke. They said to the priests and the prophets, “Jeremiah must not be killed. What he told us comes from the LORD our God.”

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the elders* stood up and spoke to all the people. <sup>18</sup>They said, “Micah the prophet was from the city of Moresheth. He was a prophet during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Micah said this to all the people of Judah:

‘This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

Zion* will be destroyed.

It will become a plowed field.

Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.

overgrown with bushes.’ Micah 3:12

<sup>19</sup>“King Hezekiah of Judah and the people of Judah did not kill Micah. You know that Hezekiah respected the LORD and wanted to please him. So the LORD changed his mind and didn’t do the bad things to Judah that he said he would do. If we hurt Jeremiah, we will bring many troubles on ourselves. And those troubles will be our own fault.”

<sup>20</sup>In the past there was another man who spoke the LORD’s message. His name was Uriah son of Shemaiah from the city of Kiriath Jearim. Uriah said the same things against this city and this land that Jeremiah did. <sup>21</sup>King Jehoiakim, his army officers, and the leaders of Judah heard Uriah and became angry. King Jehoiakim wanted to kill Uriah, but Uriah heard about it. Uriah was afraid, so he escaped to the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>But King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Achor and some other men to Egypt. <sup>23</sup>They brought Uriah from Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim ordered Uriah to be killed with a sword. Uriah’s body was thrown into the burial place where the poor are buried.

<sup>24</sup>There was an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan who supported Jeremiah. He kept Jeremiah from being killed by the priests and prophets.

The Lord Made Nebuchadnezzar Ruler

27<sup>1</sup>A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came during the fourth year that Zedekiah<sup>b</sup> son of Josiah was king of Judah.* <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD said to me: “Jeremiah, make a yoke* out of straps and poles. Put that yoke on the back of your neck. <sup>3</sup>Then send a message to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon. Send the message with the messengers of these kings who have come to Jerusalem to see King Zedekiah of Judah. <sup>4</sup>Tell them to give the message to their masters. Tell them that this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Tell your masters that <sup>5</sup>I made the earth and all the people on it. I made all the animals on the earth. I did this with my great power and my strong arm. I can give the earth to anyone I want. <sup>6</sup>Now I have given all your countries to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He is my servant. I will make even the wild animals obey him. <sup>7</sup>All nations will serve Nebuchadnezzar and his son and his grandson. Then the time will come for Babylon to be defeated. Many nations and great kings will make Babylon their servant.

<sup>8</sup>“But if some nations or kingdoms refuse to serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and refuse to be put under his control, I will punish them, says the LORD. I will destroy them with war, hunger, and disease. I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy any nation that fights against him. <sup>9</sup>So don’t listen to your prophets. Don’t listen to those who use magic to tell what will happen in the future. Don’t listen to those who say they can interpret dreams. Don’t listen to those who talk to the dead or to people who practice magic. All of them tell you, “You will not be slaves to the king of Babylon.” <sup>10</sup>But they are telling you lies. They will only cause you to be taken far from your homeland. I will force you to leave your homes, and you will die in another land.

<sup>12</sup>I gave the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah. I said, “Zedekiah, you must place your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and obey him. If you serve the king of Babylon and his people, you will live. <sup>13</sup>If you don’t agree to serve the king of Babylon, you and your people will die from war, hunger, and disease. This is what the LORD said would happen. <sup>14</sup>But the false prophets* are saying, ‘You will never be slaves to the king of Babylon.’

“Don’t listen to those prophets, because they are telling you lies. <sup>15</sup>I didn’t send them,” says the LORD. “They are telling lies and saying that the message is from me. So I will send you people of Judah away. You will die, and the prophets who spoke to you will die also.”

<sup>16</sup>Then I told the priests and all the people that this is what the LORD says: “Those false prophets are saying, ‘The Babylonians took many things from the LORD’s Temple.* These things will be brought back soon.’ Don’t listen to them because they are telling you lies. <sup>17</sup>Don't listen to those prophets. Serve the king of Babylon. Accept your punishment, and you will live. There is no reason for you to cause this city of Jerusalem to be destroyed. <sup>18</sup>If they are prophets and their message is from the LORD, let them pray. Let them pray about the things that are still in the LORD's Temple. Let them pray about the things that are still in the king's palace. And let them pray about the things that are still in Jerusalem. Let them pray that all those things will not be taken away to Babylon.

<sup>a</sup>26:18 empty hill Or “high place,” a term usually used for local shrines (places for worship) where people often worshiped idols.

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 <sup>1</sup>In the fifth month of the fourth year that Zedekiah<sup>b</sup> was king of Judah,* the prophet<sup>a</sup> Hananiah son of Azzur spoke to me. Hananiah was from the town of Gibeon. Hananiah was in the LORD's Temple* when he spoke to me. The priests and all the people were there also. This is what Hananiah said: <sup>2</sup>"The LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke'<sup>a</sup> that the king of Babylon has put on the people of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Before two years are over, I will bring back all the things that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from the LORD's Temple. Nebuchadnezzar has carried those things to Babylon. But I will bring them back here to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>I will also bring the king of Judah, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, back to this place. And I will bring back all the people of Judah that Nebuchadnezzar forced to leave their homes and go to Babylon,' says the LORD. 'So I will break the yoke that the king of Babylon put on the people of Judah.'

<sup>5</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah answered the prophet Hananiah. They were standing in the Temple of the LORD. The priests and all the people there could hear Jeremiah's answer.

<sup>6</sup>Jeremiah said to Hananiah, "Amen*! May the LORD do that. May the LORD make the message you say come true. May he bring the things of the LORD's Temple back to this place from Babylon. And may he bring all those who were forced to leave their homes back to this place.

<sup>7</sup>"But listen to what I have to say to you and to all the people. <sup>8</sup>There were prophets long before you and I became prophets, Hananiah. They spoke against many countries and great kingdoms and always warned that war, hunger, and disease would come to them. <sup>9</sup>So the prophet who says that we will have peace must be tested. People can know that he really was sent by the LORD only if his message comes true."

<sup>10</sup>Jeremiah was wearing a yoke around his neck. The prophet Hananiah took the yoke from Jeremiah's neck and broke it. <sup>11</sup>Then Hananiah spoke loudly so that all the people could hear him. He said, "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way, I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He put that yoke on all the nations of the world, but I will break it before two years are over.'"

After Hananiah said that, Jeremiah left the Temple.

<sup>12</sup>Then the message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. This happened after Hananiah had taken the yoke off Jeremiah's neck and had broken it. <sup>13</sup>The LORD said to Jeremiah, "Go and tell Hananiah that this is what the LORD says: 'You have broken a wooden yoke, but I will make a yoke of iron in the place of the wooden yoke. <sup>14</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, is the one saying this. I will put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations. I will do that to make them serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and they will be slaves to him. I will even give Nebuchadnezzar control over the wild animals.'"

<sup>15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you. But you have made the people of Judah trust in lies. <sup>16</sup>So this is what the LORD says: 'Soon I will take you from this world, Hananiah. You will die this year, because you taught the people to turn against the LORD.'"

A Letter to the Captives in Babylon

29 <sup>1</sup>Jeremiah sent a letter to the captives* in Babylon. He sent it to the elders,* the priests, the prophets,* and all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>(This letter was sent after King Jehoiachin, the queen mother, the officials and the leaders of Judah* and Jerusalem, the carpenters, and the metalworkers had been taken from Jerusalem.) <sup>3</sup>King Zedekiah of Judah sent Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of

Hilkiah to King Nebuchadnezzar. Jeremiah gave them the letter to take to Babylon. This is what the letter said:

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel,* says to all the people he sent into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>5</sup>"Build houses and live in them. Settle in the land. Plant gardens and eat the food you grow. <sup>6</sup>Get married and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons, and let your daughters be married. Do this so that they also may have sons and daughters. Have many children and grow in number in Babylon. Don't become fewer in number. <sup>7</sup>Also, do good things for the city I sent you to. Pray to the LORD for the city you are living in, because if there is peace in that city, you will have peace also." <sup>8</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says, "Don't let your prophets and those who practice magic fool you. Don't listen to the dreams they have. <sup>9</sup>They are telling lies, and they are saying that their message is from me. But I didn't send it." This message is from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>This is what the LORD says: "Babylon will be powerful for 70 years. After that time, I will come to you people who are living in Babylon. I will keep my good promise to bring you back to Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>I say this because I know the plans that I have for you." This message is from the LORD. "I have good plans for you. I don't plan to hurt you. I plan to give you hope and a good future. <sup>12</sup>Then you will call my name. You will come to me and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>You will search for me, and when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me.

<sup>14</sup>I will let you find me." This message is from the LORD. "And I will bring you back from your captivity. I forced you to leave this place. But I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have sent you," says the LORD, "and I will bring you back to this place."

<sup>15</sup>You people might say, "But the LORD has given us prophets here in Babylon."

<sup>16</sup>But this is what the LORD says about your relatives who were not carried away to Babylon. I am talking about the king who is sitting on David's* throne now and all the other people who are still in the city of Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, "I will soon bring war, hunger, and disease against those who are still in Jerusalem. And I will make them the same as bad figs that are too rotten to eat. <sup>18</sup>I will attack those who are still in Jerusalem with war, hunger, and disease. I will cause such pain that all the kingdoms of the earth will be frightened at what has happened to those people. They will be destroyed. People will whistle with amazement when they hear what happened. And people will use them as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to people. People will insult them wherever I force them to go. <sup>19</sup>I will make all these things happen because the people of Jerusalem have not listened to my message." This message is from the LORD. "I sent my message to them again and again. I used my servants, the prophets, to give my messages to them, but they didn't listen." This message is from the LORD. <sup>20</sup>"You people are captives. I forced you to leave Jerusalem and go to Babylon. So listen to the message from the LORD."

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah: "These two men have been telling you lies. They have said that their message is from me. I will give these two prophets to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And he will kill these prophets in front of all you people who are captives in Babylon. <sup>22</sup>All the Jewish captives will use these men as examples when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. The captives will say: 'May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab. The king of Babylon burned those two in the fire!' <sup>23</sup>They did very bad things among the people of Israel. They committed the sin of adultery* with their neighbors' wives. They also spoke lies and said those lies were a message from me, the LORD. I did not tell them to do that. I know what they have done. I am a witness." This message is from the LORD.

God's Message to Shemaiah

<sup>24</sup>Also give a message to Shemaiah from the Nehelam family. <sup>25</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: "Shemaiah, you sent letters to all the people in Jerusalem and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. You also sent letters to all the priests. You sent those letters in your own name and not by the authority of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Shemaiah, this is what you said in your letter to Zephaniah: 'Zephaniah, the LORD has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the LORD's Temple.* You should arrest anyone who acts like a crazy person<sup>a</sup> and acts like a prophet.* You should put that person's feet between large blocks of wood and put neck irons<sup>b</sup> on him. <sup>27</sup>Now Jeremiah is acting like a prophet. So why didn't you arrest him? <sup>28</sup>Jeremiah has sent this message to us in Babylon: You people in Babylon will be there for a long time, so build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what you grow.”

<sup>29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup>Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup>“Jeremiah, send this message to all the captives* in Babylon: ‘This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family: Shemaiah has spoken to you, but I didn't send him. He has made you believe a lie. <sup>32</sup>Because Shemaiah has done that, this is what the LORD says: I will soon punish Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family. I will completely destroy his family, and he will not share in the good things I will do for my people.’” This message is from the LORD. “I will punish Shemaiah because he has taught the people to turn against the LORD.”

Promises of Hope

30 <sup>1</sup>This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The LORD, the God of the people of Israel,* said, “Jeremiah, write in a book the words I have spoken to you. Write this book for yourself. <sup>3</sup>Do this because the days will come”—this message is from the LORD—“when I will bring my people, Israel and Judah,* back from exile.” This message is from the LORD. “I will put the people back in the land that I gave to their ancestors.* Then my people will own that land again.”

<sup>4</sup>The LORD spoke this message about the people of Israel and Judah. <sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD said:

“We hear people crying from fear.
There is fear, not peace.

<sup>6</sup>“Ask this question and consider it:
Can a man have a baby? Of course not!
Then why do I see every strong man holding his stomach
like a woman having labor pains?
Why is everyone's face turning white like a dead man?

This is a time of great trouble.
There will never be another time like this,
but Jacob will be saved.

<sup>8</sup>“At that time,” says the LORD All-Powerful, “I will break the yoke* from the necks of the people of Israel and Judah, and I will break the ropes holding you. People from foreign countries will never again force my people to be slaves. <sup>9</sup>The people of Israel and Judah will not serve foreign countries. No, they will serve the LORD their God. I will send them

David* their king,<sup>a</sup> and they will serve him.

<sup>10</sup>“So Jacob, my servant, don't be afraid!”

This message is from the LORD.

“Israel, don't be afraid.

I will save you from that faraway place.

You are captives<sup>b</sup> in that faraway land,
but I will save your descendants.

I will bring them back from that land.

Jacob will have peace again.

People will not bother Jacob.

There will be no enemy to frighten my people.

<sup>11</sup> People of Israel and Judah, I am with you.”

This message is from the LORD.

“I will save you.

I sent you to those nations,

but I will completely destroy all of them.

It is true; I will destroy those nations,
but I will not destroy you.

You must be punished for the bad things
you did,

but I will discipline you fairly.”

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“You people of Israel and Judah have a wound that cannot be cured.

You have an injury that will not heal.

<sup>13</sup> There is no one to care for your sores,
so you will not be healed.

<sup>14</sup> You became friends with many nations,
but those nations don't care about you.
Your ‘friends’ have forgotten you.

I hurt you like an enemy.

I punished you very hard.

I did this because of your great guilt.

I did this because of your many sins.

<sup>15</sup> Israel and Judah, why are you still crying about your wound?

There is no cure for it.

I, the LORD, did this to you because of your great guilt.

I did this because of your many sins.

<sup>16</sup> Those nations destroyed you,
but now they have been destroyed.

Israel and Judah, your enemies will become captives.*

They stole things from you,
but others will steal from them.

They took things from you in war,
but others will take things from them in war.

<sup>17</sup> And I will bring your health back and heal your wounds,” says the LORD, “because other people said you were outcasts.<sup>c</sup>

They said, ‘No one cares about Zion.’”

<sup>a</sup>30:9 David their king This means another king of Israel who will be great like King David.

<sup>b</sup>30:10 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

<sup>c</sup>30:17 outcasts People who are thrown out of a group by others who don't like or respect them.

- 18 This is what the LORD says:
 “Jacob’s people are now in captivity,
 but they will come back.
 And I will have pity on Jacob’s houses.
 The city<sup>a</sup> is now only an empty hill covered with ruined buildings,
 but the city will be rebuilt on its hill.
 And the king’s palace will be rebuilt where it should be.”
- 19 People in those places will sing songs of
 praise,
 and there will be the sound of laughter.
 I will give them many children.
 Israel and Judah will not be small.
 I will bring honor to them.
 No one will look down on them.
- 20 Jacob’s family will be like the family of Israel long ago.
 I will make Israel and Judah strong,
 and I will punish those who hurt them.
- 21 One of their own people will lead them.
 That ruler will come from my people.
 People can come close to me only if I ask them to.
 So I will ask that leader to come to me,
 and he will be close to me.
- 22 You will be my people,
 and I will be your God.”
- 23 The LORD was very angry!
 He punished the people.
 The punishment came like a storm.
 It came like a tornado against those wicked people.
- 24 The LORD will be angry
 until he is through punishing them.
 He will be angry until he finishes
 the punishment he planned.
 When that day comes,
 you people of Judah will understand.

The New Israel

31 <sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD said, “At that time I will be the God of all the tribes of Israel.* And they will be my people.”

- 2 This is what the LORD says:
 “The people who escaped the enemy’s sword will find comfort in the desert.
 Israel will go there looking for rest.”
- 3 From far away, the LORD will appear to his people.

The Lord says, “I love you people with a love that continues forever.
 That is why I have continued showing you kindness.

- 4 Israel, my bride, I will rebuild you.
 You will be a country again.
 You will pick up your tambourines again.
 You will dance with all the other people who are having fun.

<sup>a</sup>30:18 city This probably refers to Jerusalem. But it might also mean all the cities of Israel and Judah.

- 5 You farmers of Israel will plant vineyards*
 again.
 You will plant the vineyards on the hills around the city of Samaria.
 The farmers will enjoy the fruit
 from the vineyards.
- 6 There will be a time when watchmen<sup>b</sup>
 shout this message:
 ‘Come, let’s go up to Zion*
 to worship the LORD our God!’
 Even the watchmen in the hill country of Ephraim<sup>c</sup> will shout that message.”
- 7 This is what the LORD says:
 “Be happy and sing for Jacob*!
 Shout for Israel, the greatest of the
 nations!
 Sing your praises and shout:
 ‘The LORD has saved his people!<sup>d</sup>
 He has saved those who are left alive from the nation of Israel.’
- 8 Remember, I will bring Israel from that country in the north.
 I will gather the people of Israel from the faraway places on earth.
 Some of the people will be blind and crippled.
 Some of the women will be pregnant and ready to give birth.
 But many people will come back.
- 9 They will come back crying,
 but I will lead them and comfort them.
 I will lead them by streams of water.
 I will lead them on an easy road,
 where they will not stumble.
 I will lead them in that way
 because I am Israel’s father.
 And Ephraim* is my firstborn* son.

- 10 “Nations, listen to this message from the
 LORD!
 Tell this message in the faraway lands by
 the sea:
 ‘God scattered the people of Israel,
 but he will bring them back together.
 And he will watch over his flock
 like a shepherd.’
- 11 The LORD will bring Jacob back.
 He will save his people from those who are stronger.
- 12 The people of Israel will come to the top of Zion,
 and they will shout with joy.
 Their faces will shine with happiness about the good things the LORD gives
 them.

<sup>b</sup>31:6 watchmen This usually means a guard who stands on the city walls watching for people coming to the city. Here, it probably means the prophets.

<sup>c</sup>31:6 hill country of Ephraim This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel.

<sup>d</sup>31:7 The LORD has saved his people Or “LORD, save your people!” This is often a shout of victory.

He will give them grain, new wine,
olive oil, young sheep and cattle.
They will be like a garden
that has plenty of water.
And the people of Israel will not be troubled anymore.

- 13 Then the young women of Israel
will be happy and dance.
And the men, young and old,
will join in the dancing.
I will change their sadness into happiness.
I will comfort my people, making them happy instead of sad.
- 14 I will give the priests plenty of food.
And my people will be filled and satisfied with the good things I give them.”
This message is from the LORD.

- 15 This is what the LORD says:
“A sound is heard in Ramah—bitter crying and great sadness.
Rachel<sup>a</sup> cries for her children,
and she refuses to be comforted,
because her children are gone.”
- 16 But the LORD says, “Stop crying.
Don’t fill your eyes with tears.
You will be rewarded for your work.”
This message is from the LORD.
“The people of Israel will come back from their enemy’s land.
- 17 Israel, there is hope for you.”
This message is from the LORD.
“Your children will come back to their own land.
- 18 I have heard Ephraim crying.
I heard Ephraim say this:
‘LORD, you punished me, and I learned my lesson.

I was like a calf that was never trained.
Please stop punishing me,
and I will come back to you.

- You really are the LORD my God.
- 19 LORD, I wandered away from you.
But I learned about the bad things I did.
So I changed my heart and life.
I am ashamed and embarrassed about the foolish things I did when I was young.’
- 20 You know that Ephraim is my dear son.
I love that child.
Yes, I often criticized Ephraim,
but I still think about him.
I love him very much,
and I really do want to comfort him.”
This message is from the LORD.

- 21 “People of Israel, repair the road signs.
Put up signs that show the way home.
Watch the road.

Remember the road you are leaving on.
Israel, my bride, come home.

- Come back to your towns.
- 22 Unfaithful daughter,
how long will you wander around?

“The LORD has created something new in
the land:
A woman surrounding a man.<sup>b</sup>”

<sup>23</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I will again do good things for the people of Judah.* I will bring back those who were taken away as prisoners. At that time the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘May the LORD bless you, good home and holy mountain!’”

<sup>24</sup>“People in all the towns of Judah will live together in peace. Farmers and those who move around with their flocks will live peacefully together in Judah. <sup>25</sup>I will give rest and strength to those who are weak and tired.”

<sup>26</sup>After hearing that, I, Jeremiah, woke up and looked around. My sleep was very pleasant.

<sup>27</sup>“The days are coming,” says the LORD,
“when I will help the family of Israel and Judah to grow. I will help their children and animals to grow too. It will be like planting and caring for a plant. <sup>28</sup>In the past I watched over Israel and Judah, but I watched for the time to pull them up. I tore them down. I destroyed them. I gave many troubles to them. But now I will watch over them to build them up and make them strong.” This message is from the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“People will not use this saying anymore:

‘The parents ate the sour grapes,
but the children got the sour taste.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>30</sup>No, people will die for their own sins. Those who eat sour grapes will get the sour taste.”

The New Agreement

<sup>31</sup>This is what the LORD said, “The time is coming when I will make a new agreement with the family of Israel* and with the family of Judah.* <sup>32</sup>It will not be like the agreement* I made with their ancestors.* I made that agreement when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. I was their master, but they broke that agreement.” This message is from the LORD.

<sup>b31:22</sup> A woman surrounding a man The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. It might be part of some saying that was familiar to the people in Jeremiah’s time.

<sup>c31:23</sup> good home and holy mountain This was a blessing for the Temple and for Mount Zion, the mountain the Temple was built on.

<sup>d31:29</sup> The parents ... sour taste This means the children were suffering for things their parents did.

<sup>a31:15</sup> Rachel Jacob’s wife. Here, this means all the women who are crying for their husbands and children who have died in the war with Babylon.

<sup>33</sup>"In the future I will make this agreement with the people of Israel." This message is from the LORD. "I will put my teachings in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>34</sup>People will not have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the LORD, because all people, from the least important to the most important, will know me." This message is from the LORD. "I will forgive them for the evil things they did. I will not remember their sins."

The Lord Will Never Leave Israel

<sup>35</sup> The LORD makes the sun shine in the day, and he makes the moon and the stars shine at night.

He stirs up the sea so that its waves crash on the shore.

The LORD All-Powerful is his name.

This is what the LORD says:

<sup>36</sup>"The descendants of Israel* will never stop being a nation.

That would happen only if I lost control of the sun, moon, stars, and sea."

<sup>37</sup> The LORD says, "I will never reject the descendants of Israel.

That would happen only if people could measure the sky above, and learn all the secrets of the earth below.

Only then would I reject them for the bad things they have done."

This message is from the LORD.

The New Jerusalem

<sup>38</sup>This message is from the LORD, "The days are coming when the city of Jerusalem will be rebuilt for the LORD. The whole city will be rebuilt—from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>The measuring line<sup>a</sup> will stretch from the Corner Gate straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to the place named Gorah. <sup>40</sup>The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown and all the terraces down to the bottom of Kidron Valley all the way to the corner of Horse Gate will be holy to the LORD. The city of Jerusalem will never again be torn down or destroyed."

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 <sup>1</sup>This is the message from the LORD that came to Jeremiah during the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.*<sup>b</sup> The tenth year of Zedekiah was the 18th year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>At that time the army of the king of Babylon was surrounding the city of Jerusalem, and Jeremiah was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard. This courtyard was at the palace of the king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>King Zedekiah of Judah had put Jeremiah in prison in that place. Zedekiah didn't like the things Jeremiah prophesied.* Jeremiah had said, "This is what the LORD says: 'I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar will capture this city. <sup>4</sup>King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the army of the Babylonians. But he will surely be given to the king of Babylon. And Zedekiah will speak to the king of Babylon face to face. He will see him with his own eyes. <sup>5</sup>The king of Babylon will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will stay there until I have punished him.' This message is from the LORD. 'If you fight against the army of the Babylonians, you will not succeed.'"

<sup>6</sup>While Jeremiah was a prisoner, he said, "This message from the LORD came to me. This was the message: <sup>7</sup>'Jeremiah, your cousin, Hanamel, will come to you soon. He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say to you, 'Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth. Buy it because you are my nearest relative. It is your right and your responsibility to buy that field.'"

<sup>8</sup>"Then it happened just as the LORD said. My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. Hanamel said to me, 'Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth, in the land of the tribe of Benjamin. Buy that land for yourself because it is your right to buy it and own it.'"

So I knew that this was a message from the LORD. <sup>9</sup>I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out 17 shekels<sup>c</sup> of silver for him. <sup>10</sup>I signed the deed* and had a copy of the deed sealed up.<sup>d</sup> I got some men to witness what I had done, and I weighed out the silver on the scales. <sup>11</sup>Then I took the sealed copy of the deed, which contained the demands and limits of my purchase, and the copy that was not sealed. <sup>12</sup>I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah. I did this while my cousin Hanamel and the other witnesses were there. They also signed the deed. There were also many people of Judah sitting in the courtyard who saw me give the deed to Baruch.

<sup>13</sup>With all the people watching, I said to Baruch, <sup>14</sup>"This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: 'Take both copies of the deed—the sealed copy and the copy that was not sealed—and put them in a clay jar. Do this so that these deeds will last a long time.' <sup>15</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, 'In the future my people will once again buy houses, fields, and vineyards* in the land of Israel.'"

<sup>c</sup>32:9 shekel 2/5 of an ounce (11.5 g).

<sup>d</sup>32:10 sealed up Important documents were rolled up and tied with a string. Then a piece of clay or wax was put on the string. Then a person's mark was put in that clay or wax. This way, people could prove nothing in the document was changed.

<sup>16</sup>After I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:

<sup>17</sup>"LORD God, with your great power you made the earth and the sky. There is nothing too hard for you to do. <sup>18</sup>LORD, you are loyal and kind to thousands of people, but you also bring punishment to children for their fathers' sins. Great and powerful God, your name is the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>19</sup>You plan and do great things, LORD. You see everything that people do. You give a reward to those who do good things, and you punish those who do bad things—you give them what they deserve. <sup>20</sup>LORD, you have been doing powerful miracles in the land of Egypt until now, in Israel and elsewhere. You are the one who made yourself as famous as you are today. <sup>21</sup>LORD, you used powerful miracles and brought your people Israel out of Egypt. You used your own powerful hand to do this. Your power was amazing!

<sup>22</sup>"LORD, you gave the Israelites this land that you promised to give to their ancestors* long ago. It is a very good land filled with many good things. <sup>23</sup>They came into this land and took it for their own. But they didn't obey you. They didn't follow your teachings or do what you commanded. So you made all these terrible things happen to them.

<sup>24</sup>"And now the enemy has surrounded the city. They are building ramps so that they can get over the walls of Jerusalem and capture it. Because of war, hunger, and disease, the city of Jerusalem will fall to the Babylonian army. The Babylonians are attacking the city now. LORD, you said this would happen, and now you see it is happening.

<sup>25</sup>"Lord God, all those bad things are happening. But now you are telling me, 'Jeremiah, buy the field with silver and choose some men to witness the purchase.' You are telling me this while the Babylonian army is ready to capture the city. Why should I waste my money like that?"

<sup>26</sup>Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup>"Jeremiah, I am the LORD. I am the God of every person on the earth. You know that nothing is impossible for me." <sup>28</sup>The LORD also said, "I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the Babylonian army and to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. The army will capture the city. <sup>29</sup>The Babylonian army is already attacking the city of Jerusalem. They will soon enter the city and start a fire. They will burn down this city. There are houses in this city where the people of Jerusalem made me angry by offering sacrifices to the false god Baal* on the housetops. And they poured out drink offerings to other idol gods. The Babylonian army will burn down those houses. <sup>30</sup>I have watched the people of Israel and the people of Judah. Everything they do is evil. They have done evil things since they were young. The people of Israel have made me very angry because they worship idols* that they made with their own hands." This message is from the LORD. <sup>31</sup>"From the time that Jerusalem was built until now, the people of this city have made me angry. This city has made me very angry, so I must remove it from my sight. <sup>32</sup>I will destroy Jerusalem because of all the evil things the people of Israel and Judah have done. The people, their kings, leaders, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem have all made me angry.

<sup>33</sup>"They should have come to me for help, but they turned their backs to me. I tried to teach them again and again, but they would not listen to me. I tried to correct them, but they would not listen. <sup>34</sup>They have made their idols, and I hate those idols. They put their idols in the Temple* that is called by my name, so they made my Temple 'dirty.'

<sup>35</sup>"In the Valley of Ben Hinnom,<sup>a</sup> they built high places* to the false god Baal. They built those worship places so that they could burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices. I never commanded them to do such a terrible thing. I never even thought the people of Judah would do such a terrible thing.

<sup>36</sup>"You people are saying, 'The king of Babylon will capture Jerusalem. He will use war, hunger, and disease to defeat this city.' But this is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: <sup>37</sup>I have forced the people of Israel and Judah to leave their land. I was very angry with them, but I will bring them back to this place. I will gather them from the land where I forced them to go. I will bring them back to this place. I will let them live in peace and safety. <sup>38</sup>The people of Israel and Judah will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>I will give them the desire to be one, united people. They will have one goal—to worship me all their lives. They and their children will want to do this.

<sup>40</sup>"I will make an agreement with the people of Israel and Judah that will last forever. In this agreement I will never turn away from them. I will always be good to them. I will make them want to respect me. Then they will never turn away from me. <sup>41</sup>They will make me happy. I will enjoy doing good to them. And I will surely plant them in this land and make them grow. I will do this with all my heart and soul."

<sup>a</sup>32:35 Valley of Ben Hinnom This valley is also called "Gehenna." This name comes from the Hebrew name "Ge Hinnom—Hinnom's Valley." This place became an example of how God punishes wicked people.

<sup>42</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I have brought this great disaster to the people of Israel and Judah. In the same way I will bring good things to them. I promise to do good things for them. <sup>43</sup>You people are saying, 'This land is an empty desert. There are no people or animals here. The Babylonian army defeated this country.' But in the future people will once again buy fields in this land. <sup>44</sup>They will use their money and buy fields. They will sign and seal their agreements. They will witness the people signing their deeds. They will again buy fields in the land where the tribe of Benjamin lives, in the area around Jerusalem, in the towns of the land of Judah, in the hill country, in the western foothills, and in the area of the southern desert. This will happen because I will bring them back home." This message is from the LORD.

The Promise of God

33 <sup>1</sup>While Jeremiah was still locked up in the courtyard* of the guards, the message from the LORD came to him a second time: <sup>2</sup>"The LORD made the earth, and he keeps it safe. The LORD is his name. He says, <sup>3</sup>Judah, pray to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you important secrets. You have never heard these things before.' <sup>4</sup>The LORD is the God of Israel. This is what he says about the houses in Jerusalem and about the palaces of the kings of Judah: 'The enemy will pull these houses down. They will build ramps up to the top of the city walls. They will use swords and fight the people in these cities.

<sup>5</sup>"The people in Jerusalem have done many bad things. I am angry with them. I have turned against them, so I will kill many people there. The Babylonian army will come to fight against Jerusalem. There will be many dead bodies in the houses in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>"But then I will heal the people in that city. I will let them enjoy peace and safety. <sup>7</sup>I will make good things happen to Judah and Israel again and make them strong as in the past. <sup>8</sup>They sinned against me, but I will wash away that sin. They fought against me, but I will forgive them. <sup>9</sup>Then Jerusalem will be a wonderful place. The people will be happy. People from other nations will praise it when they hear about the good things happening there. They will hear about the good things I am doing for Jerusalem.'

<sup>10</sup>"You people are saying, 'Our country is an empty desert. There are no people or animals living there.' It is now quiet in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. But it will be noisy there soon. <sup>11</sup>There will be sounds of joy and happiness. There will be the happy sounds of a bride and groom. There will be the sounds of people bringing their gifts to the LORD's Temple.* They will say, 'Praise the LORD All-Powerful! The LORD is good! His faithful love will last forever!' They will say this because I will again do good things to Judah. It will be as it was in the beginning." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, "This place is empty now. There are no people or animals living here. But there will be people in all the towns of Judah. There will be shepherds, and there will be pastures where they will let their flocks rest. <sup>13</sup>Shepherds will count their sheep as the sheep walk in front of them. They will be counting their sheep all around the country—in the hill country, in the western foothills, in the Negev,* and in all the other towns of Judah."

The Good Branch

<sup>14</sup>This message is from the LORD: "I made a special promise to the people of Israel and Judah. The time is coming when I will do what I promised. <sup>15</sup>At that time I will make a good 'branch' grow from David's* family. That branch will do what is good and right for the country. <sup>16</sup>When he rules, Judah will be saved. The people of Jerusalem will live in safety. This will be his name: 'The LORD Makes Things Right For Us.'"

<sup>17</sup>The LORD says, "Someone from David's family will always sit on the throne and rule the family of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And there will always be priests from the family of Levi. They will always stand before me and offer burnt offerings* and sacrifice grain offerings and give sacrifices to me."

<sup>19</sup>This message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>20</sup>The LORD says, "I have an agreement with day and night. I agreed that they will continue forever. You cannot change that agreement. Day and night will always come at the right time. If you could change that agreement, <sup>21</sup>then you could change my agreement* with David and Levi. Then descendants from David would not be the kings, and the family of Levi would not be priests. <sup>22</sup>But I will give many descendants to my servant David and to the tribe of Levi. They will be as many as the stars in the sky—no one can count all the stars. And they will be as many as the grains of sand on the seashore—no one can count the grains of sand."

<sup>23</sup>Jeremiah received this message from the LORD: <sup>24</sup>"Jeremiah, have you heard what the people are saying? They are saying, 'The LORD turned away from the two families of Israel and Judah. He chose those people, but now he does not even accept them as a nation.'"

<sup>25</sup>The LORD says, "If my agreement with day and night does not continue, and if I had not made the laws for the sky and earth, maybe I would leave those people. <sup>26</sup>Then maybe I would turn away from Jacob's* descendants. And then maybe I would not let David's descendants rule over the descendants of Abraham,* Isaac,* and Jacob. But David is my servant, and I will be kind to those people. I will again cause good things to happen to them."

A Warning to Zedekiah

34<sup>1</sup>The message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The message came at the time when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and all the towns around it. Nebuchadnezzar had with him all his army and the armies of all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled.

<sup>2</sup>This was the message: “This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: Jeremiah, go to King Zedekiah of Judah and give him this message: ‘Zedekiah, this is what the LORD says: I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon very soon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah, you will not escape from the king of Babylon. You will surely be caught and given to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will talk to you face to face, and you will go to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>But listen to the promise of the LORD, King Zedekiah of Judah. This is what the LORD says about you: You will not be killed with a sword. <sup>5</sup>You will die in a peaceful way. People made funeral fires to honor your ancestors,* the kings who ruled before you became king. In the same way people will make a funeral fire to honor you. They will cry for you and sadly say, “Oh, my master!” I myself make this promise to you.’” This message is from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah gave the message from the LORD to Zedekiah in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>This was while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem. The army of Babylon was also fighting against the cities of Judah that had not been captured. These cities were Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in the land of Judah.

The People Break an Agreement

<sup>8</sup>King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem to give freedom to all the Hebrew slaves. A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah after Zedekiah had made that agreement. <sup>9</sup>Everyone was supposed to free their Hebrew slaves. All male and female Hebrew slaves were to be set free. No one was supposed to keep another person from the tribe of Judah in slavery. <sup>10</sup>So all the leaders of Judah and all the people accepted this agreement. They would free their male and female slaves so that they would no longer serve them. Everyone agreed, and so all the slaves were set free. <sup>11</sup>But after that,<sup>a</sup> the people who had slaves changed their minds.

<sup>a</sup>34:11 after that In the summer of 588 B.C., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem. So the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem for a short time to fight the Egyptians. The people of Jerusalem thought God had helped them, and things were back to normal, so they didn't keep their promise. They took the slaves they had set free back into slavery.

So they took the people they had set free and made them slaves again.

<sup>12</sup>Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I brought your ancestors* out of the land of Egypt, where they were slaves. When I did that, I made an agreement* with them. <sup>14</sup>I said to your ancestors, “At the end of every seven years, everyone must set their Hebrew slaves free. If you have fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you, you must let them go free after they have served you for six years.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or pay attention to me. <sup>15</sup>A short time ago you changed your hearts to do what is right. Everyone set free their fellow Hebrews who were slaves. And you even made an agreement before me in the Temple* that is called by my name. <sup>16</sup>But now you have changed your minds. You have shown that you do not honor my name, because each of you has taken back the male and female slaves that you had set free. You have forced them to become slaves again.’

<sup>17</sup>“So this is what the LORD says: ‘You people have not obeyed me. You have not given freedom to your fellow Hebrews. So, because you have not given them freedom, I will give a special kind of freedom—freedom to die in war or by disease or by hunger! This message is from the LORD. When the other nations see what I have done to you, they will all be shocked. <sup>18</sup>I will hand over those who broke my agreement and have not kept the promises they made before me. They cut a calf into two pieces before me and walked between the two pieces.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>These are the people who walked between the two pieces of the calf when they made the agreement before me: the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the important officials of the court, the priests, and the people of the land. <sup>20</sup>So I will give them to their enemies and to everyone who wants to kill them. Their bodies will become food for the birds of the air and for the wild animals of the earth. <sup>21</sup>I will give King Zedekiah of Judah and his leaders to their enemies and to everyone who wants to kill them. I will give Zedekiah and his people to the army of the king of Babylon, even though that army has left Jerusalem.<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>But I will give the order,” says the LORD, “to bring the Babylonian army back to Jerusalem. That army will fight against Jerusalem. They will capture it, set it on fire, and burn it down. And I will destroy the towns in the land of Judah. They will become empty deserts. No one will live there.”

<sup>b</sup>34:18 They ... two pieces This is part of a ceremony people used when they made an important agreement. An animal was cut into two pieces. Those who were making the agreement would walk between the pieces. Then they would say something like, “May this same thing happen to me if I don't keep the agreement.” See Gen. 15.

<sup>c</sup>34:21 left Jerusalem In the summer of 588 B.C., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem. So the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem for a short time to fight the Egyptians. See Jer. 37:5. See also the footnote to Jer. 34:11.

The Recabite Family's Good Example

35<sup>1</sup>During the time when Jehoiakim was king of Judah, the message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. This was the message from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Jeremiah, go to the Recabite family.<sup>a</sup> Invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the Temple* of the LORD. Offer them wine to drink.”

<sup>3</sup>So I went to get Jaazaniah<sup>b</sup> son of Jeremiah,<sup>c</sup> who was the son of Habazziniah. And I got all of Jaazaniah's brothers and sons and the whole family of the Recabites together. <sup>4</sup>Then I brought them into the Temple of the LORD. We went into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah. Hanan was a man of God.<sup>d</sup> The room was next to the room where the princes of Judah stay. It was over the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum. Maaseiah was the doorkeeper in the Temple. <sup>5</sup>Then I put some bowls full of wine and some cups in front of the Recabite family. And I said to them, “Drink some wine.”

<sup>6</sup>But the Recabite family answered, “We never drink wine. We never drink it because our ancestor” Jonadab son of Recab gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine.’ <sup>7</sup>Also you must never build houses, plant seeds, or plant vineyards.* You must never do any of those things. You must live only in tents. If you do that, you will live a long time in the land where you move from place to place.’ <sup>8</sup>So we have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. None of us ever drinks wine, and neither do our wives, sons, or daughters. <sup>9</sup>We never build houses to live in, we never own vineyards or fields, and we never plant crops. <sup>10</sup>We have lived in tents and have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked the country of Judah, we did go into Jerusalem. We said to each other, ‘Come, we must enter the city of Jerusalem so that we can escape the Babylonian army and the Aramean army.’ So we have stayed in Jerusalem.”

of Israel, says to go and tell this message to the people of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem: ‘You should learn a lesson and obey my message.’ This message is from the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine, and that command has been obeyed. To this day the descendants of Jonadab have obeyed their ancestor's command. They do not drink wine. But I am the LORD, and I have given you people of Judah messages again and again. But you did not obey me. <sup>15</sup>I sent my servants the prophets to you people of Israel and Judah. I sent them to you again and again. They said, “You must each stop doing evil things and do what is right. Don't follow other gods. Don't worship or serve them. If you obey me, you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.” But you have not paid attention to my message. <sup>16</sup>The descendants of Jonadab obeyed the commands that their ancestor gave them, but the people of Judah have not obeyed me.’

<sup>17</sup>“So this is what the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘I said that many bad things would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. I will soon make all those bad things happen. I spoke to the people, but they refused to listen. I called out to them, but they didn't answer me.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to the Recabite family, “This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have obeyed the commands of your ancestor Jonadab. You have followed all of his teachings. You have done everything he commanded.’” <sup>19</sup>So the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab to serve me.’”

King Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll

36<sup>1</sup>The message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. This was during the fourth year that Jehoiakim<sup>e</sup> son of Josiah was king of Judah. This was the message from the LORD: <sup>2</sup>“Jeremiah, get a scroll* and write on it all the messages I have spoken to you. I have spoken to you about the nations of Israel and Judah and all the other nations. Write all the words that I have spoken to you from the time that Josiah was king, until now. <sup>3</sup>Maybe the people of Judah will hear what I am planning to do to them and will stop doing bad things. If they will do that, I will forgive them for the terrible sins they have committed.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah called a man named Baruch son of Neriah. Jeremiah spoke the messages the LORD had given him. While he spoke, Baruch wrote the messages on the scroll. <sup>5</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I cannot go to the LORD's Temple.* I am not allowed to go there. <sup>6</sup>So I want you to go to the Temple of <sup>a</sup>35:2 Recabite family A group of people descended from Jonadab son of Recab. The family was very loyal to the Lord. See 2 Kings 10:15–28 for the story of Jonadab. Also in verses 6, 18.

<sup>b</sup>35:3 Jaazaniah He was the head of the Recabite family at that time.

<sup>c</sup>35:3 Jeremiah This is not the prophet Jeremiah, but a different man with the same name.

the LORD. Go there on a day of fasting* and read to the people from the scroll. Read to the people the messages from the LORD that you wrote on the scroll as I spoke them to you. Read them to all the people of Judah who come into Jerusalem from the towns where they live. <sup>7</sup>Perhaps they will ask the LORD to help them. Perhaps each person will stop doing bad things. The LORD has announced that he is very angry with them.” <sup>8</sup>So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet* told him to do. Baruch read aloud the scroll that had the LORD’s messages written on it. He read it in the LORD’s Temple.

<sup>9</sup>In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king, a fast was announced. All those who lived in the city of Jerusalem and everyone who had come into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah were supposed to fast before the LORD. <sup>10</sup>At that time Baruch read the scroll that contained Jeremiah’s words. He read the scroll in the Temple of the LORD to all the people who were there. Baruch was in the room of Gemariah in the upper courtyard when he read from the scroll. That room was located at the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple. Gemariah was the son of Shaphan. Gemariah was a scribe* in the Temple.

<sup>11</sup>A man named Micaiah heard all the messages from the LORD that Baruch read from the scroll. Micaiah was the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. <sup>12</sup>When Micaiah heard the messages from the scroll, he went down to the secretary’s room in the king’s palace. All the royal officials were sitting there in the king’s palace. These are the names of the officials: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah; all the other royal officials were there too. <sup>13</sup>Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll.

<sup>14</sup>Then all the officials sent a man named Jehudi to Baruch. (Jehudi was the son of Nathaniah, son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Cushi.) Jehudi said to Baruch, “Bring the scroll that you read from and come with me.”

Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went with Jehudi to the officials.

<sup>15</sup>Then the officials said to Baruch, “Sit down and read the scroll to us.”

So Baruch read the scroll to them.

<sup>16</sup>When the royal officials heard all the messages from the scroll, they were afraid and looked at one another. They said to Baruch, “We must tell King Jehoiakim about these messages on the scroll.” <sup>17</sup>Then the officials asked Baruch, “Tell us, Baruch, where did you get these messages that you wrote on the scroll? Did you write down what Jeremiah said to you?”

<sup>19</sup>Then the royal officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don’t tell anyone where you are hiding.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the royal officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. They went to King Jehoiakim and told him all about the scroll.

<sup>21</sup>So King Jehoiakim sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought the scroll from the room of Elishama the scribe. Then Jehudi read the scroll to the king and all the servants who stood around the king. <sup>22</sup>The time this happened was in the ninth month,<sup>a</sup> so King Jehoiakim was sitting in the part of the palace used for winter. There was a fire burning in a small fireplace in front of the king. <sup>23</sup>Jehudi began to read from the scroll. But after he would read two or three columns, King Jehoiakim would grab the scroll. Then he would cut those columns off the scroll with a small knife and throw them into the fireplace. Finally, the whole scroll was burned in the fire. <sup>24</sup>And, when King Jehoiakim and his servants heard the message from the scroll, they were not afraid. They did not tear their clothes to show sorrow for doing wrong.

<sup>25</sup>Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah tried to talk King Jehoiakim out of burning the scroll, but he would not listen to them. <sup>26</sup>Instead King Jehoiakim commanded some men to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. These men were Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel. But they could not find Baruch and Jeremiah, because the LORD had hidden them.

<sup>27</sup>King Jehoiakim burned the scroll on which Baruch had written all the words that Jeremiah had spoken to him. Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah:

<sup>28</sup>“Get another scroll. Write all the messages on it that were on the first scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned. <sup>29</sup>Also tell King Jehoiakim of Judah that this is what the LORD says: ‘Jehoiakim, you burned that scroll. You said, “Why did Jeremiah write that the king of Babylon will surely come and destroy this land and kill all the people and animals in it?”’ <sup>30</sup>So this is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: Jehoiakim’s descendants will not sit on David’s* throne. When Jehoiakim dies, he will not get a king’s funeral, but his body will be thrown out on the ground. His body will be left out in the heat of the day and the cold frost of the night. <sup>31</sup>I, the LORD, will punish Jehoiakim and his children, and I will punish his officials. I will do this because they are wicked. I have promised to bring terrible disasters on them and on all those who live in Jerusalem and on the people from Judah. I will bring all the bad things on them, just as I promised, because they have not listened to me.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe. As Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote on the scroll the same messages that were on the scroll that King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. And many other words like those messages were added to the second scroll.

Jeremiah Is Put Into Prison

37 <sup>1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. He appointed Zedekiah son of Josiah to be the king of Judah in the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. <sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of Judah did not pay attention to the messages the LORD had given to Jeremiah the prophet.*

<sup>3</sup>King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah the prophet with a message. This was the message they brought to Jeremiah: “Jeremiah, pray to the LORD our God for us.”

<sup>4</sup>At that time Jeremiah had not yet been put into prison, so he was free to go anywhere he wanted. <sup>5</sup>Also at that time Pharaoh’s army had marched from Egypt toward Judah. The Babylonian army had surrounded the city of Jerusalem in order to defeat it. Then they had heard about the army from Egypt marching toward them. So the army from Babylon left Jerusalem to fight with the army from Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>This message from the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>7</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘Jehucal and Zephaniah, I know that King Zedekiah of Judah sent you to me to ask questions. Tell King Zedekiah this: Pharaoh’s army marched out of Egypt to come here to help you against the army of Babylon. But Pharaoh’s army will go back to Egypt. <sup>8</sup>After that, the army from Babylon will come back here and attack Jerusalem. Then they will capture and burn it.’ <sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘People of Jerusalem, don’t fool yourselves. Don’t say to yourselves, “The army of Babylon will surely leave us alone.” They will not. <sup>10</sup>People of Jerusalem, even if you could defeat all the Babylonian army that is attacking you, there would still be a few wounded men left in their tents. Even those few wounded men would come out of their tents and burn Jerusalem down.”’

got to the Benjamin Gate of Jerusalem,<sup>b</sup> the captain in charge of the guards arrested him. The captain’s name was Irijah son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Hananiah. So Irijah the captain arrested Jeremiah and said, “Jeremiah, you are leaving us to join the Babylonian side.”

<sup>14</sup>Jeremiah said to Irijah, “That is not true! I am not leaving to join the Babylonians.” But Irijah refused to listen to Jeremiah. And Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the royal officials of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Those officials were very angry with Jeremiah. They gave an order for Jeremiah to be beaten. Then they put him in a prison. The prison was in the house of Jonathan, a scribe* for the king of Judah. His house had been made into a prison. <sup>16</sup>They put Jeremiah into a cell under the house of Jonathan. The cell was in a dungeon* under the ground. Jeremiah was there for a long time.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the palace. Zedekiah talked to Jeremiah in private. He asked Jeremiah, “Is there any message from the LORD?”

Jeremiah answered, “Yes, there is a message from the LORD. Zedekiah, you will be given to the king of Babylon.” <sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What have I done wrong? What crime have I done against you or your officials or the people of Jerusalem? Why have you thrown me into prison? <sup>19</sup>King Zedekiah, where are your prophets now? They told you a false message. They said, ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land of Judah.’ <sup>20</sup>But now, my lord, king of Judah, please listen to me. Please let me bring my request to you. This is what I ask: Don’t send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe. If you send me back, I will die there.”

<sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be put under guard in the courtyard. And he ordered that Jeremiah should be given bread from the street bakers. He was given bread until there was no more bread in the city. So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Jeremiah Is Thrown Into a Cistern

38 <sup>1</sup>Some of the royal officials heard what Jeremiah was saying. They were Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah. Jeremiah was telling all the people this message: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, hunger, or disease. But everyone who surrenders to the army of Babylon will live and escape with their lives.’

<sup>a</sup>37:12 the land of Benjamin Jeremiah was going to his hometown, Anathoth, which was in the land of Benjamin.

of the king of Babylon. He will capture this city.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the royal officials who heard what Jeremiah was telling the people went to King Zedekiah. They said to the king, “Jeremiah should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are still in the city and everyone else by what he is saying. He is not looking for peace; he is just trying to cause trouble.”

<sup>5</sup>So King Zedekiah said to the officials, “Jeremiah is in your control. I cannot do anything to stop you.”

<sup>6</sup>So the officials took Jeremiah and put him into Malkijah’s cistern. Malkijah was the king’s son. The cistern was in the Temple* yard where the king’s guard stayed. They used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. The cistern didn’t have any water in it, only mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

<sup>7</sup>But a man named Ebed Melech heard that the officials had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Ebed Melech was from Ethiopia, and he was a eunuch* in the king’s palace. King Zedekiah was sitting at the Benjamin Gate, so Ebed Melech left the king’s palace and went to talk to the king at the gate. <sup>8-9</sup>Ebed Melech said, “My lord and king, these officials have done evil. They have treated Jeremiah the prophet* badly. They have thrown him into a cistern and left him there to die.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>11</sup>So Ebed Melech took the men with him. But first he went to a room under the storeroom in the king’s palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from that room. Then he let the rags down with some ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. <sup>12</sup>Ebed Melech, the Ethiopian, said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. When we pull you out, these rags will pad your underarms. Then the ropes will not hurt you.” So Jeremiah did as Ebed Melech said. <sup>13</sup>The men pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah stayed under guard in the Temple yard.

Zedekiah Asks Jeremiah Some Questions

<sup>14</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent someone to get Jeremiah the prophet.* He had Jeremiah brought to the third entrance to the Temple* of the LORD. Then the king said, “Jeremiah, I am going to ask you something. Don’t hide anything from me, but tell me everything honestly.”

<sup>15</sup>Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, you will probably kill me. And even if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

<sup>16</sup>But King Zedekiah secretly swore an oath* to Jeremiah. Zedekiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, who gives us breath and life, I will not kill you, Jeremiah. And I promise not to give you to the officials who want to kill you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “The LORD God All-Powerful is the God of Israel. This is what he says, ‘If you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, your life will be saved, and Jerusalem will not be burned down. And you and your family will live. <sup>18</sup>But if you refuse to surrender, Jerusalem will be given to the Babylonian army. They will burn Jerusalem down, and you will not escape from them.’”

<sup>19</sup>But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the men of Judah who have already gone over to the side of the Babylonian army. I am afraid that the soldiers will give me to those men, and they will treat me badly and hurt me.”

<sup>20</sup>But Jeremiah answered, “The soldiers will not give you to the men of Judah. King Zedekiah, obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then things will go well for you, and your life will be saved. <sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to surrender to the army of Babylon, the LORD has shown me what will happen. This is what he has told me: <sup>22</sup>All the women who are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out. They will be brought to the important officials of the king of Babylon. Your women will make fun of you with a song. This is what they will say:

‘Your friends were stronger than you,
and they led you the wrong way.
You trusted them,
but now your feet are stuck in the mud,
and your friends have left you.’

<sup>23</sup>“All your wives and children will be brought out. They will be given to the Babylonian army. You yourself will not escape from the army of Babylon. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and Jerusalem will be burned down.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Don’t tell anyone that I have been talking to you. If you do, you might die. <sup>25</sup>If the officials find out that I talked to you, they will come to you and say, ‘Jeremiah, tell us what you said to King Zedekiah and what he said to you. Be honest with us, and tell us everything, or we will kill you.’ <sup>26</sup>If they say this to you, tell them, ‘I was begging the king not to send me back to the cell in the dungeon* under Jonathan’s house. If I were to go back there, I would die.’”

So Jeremiah told them everything the king had ordered him to say. Then they left Jeremiah alone. No one had heard what Jeremiah and the king had talked about.

<sup>28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the Temple yard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39<sup>1</sup>This is how Jerusalem was captured: During the tenth month of the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He surrounded the city to defeat it. <sup>2</sup>And on the ninth day of the fourth month in Zedekiah's eleventh year, the wall of Jerusalem was broken through. <sup>3</sup>Then all the royal officials of the king of Babylon came into the city of Jerusalem. They came in and sat down at the Middle Gate. These are the names of the officials: Nergal-Sharezer, the governor of the district of Samgar, a very high official; Nebo Sarsekim, another very high official; and various other important officials were there also.

<sup>4</sup>King Zedekiah of Judah saw the officials from Babylon, so he and the soldiers with him ran away. They left Jerusalem at night. They went out through the king's garden and out through the gate that was between the two walls. Then they went toward the desert. <sup>5</sup>The Babylonian army chased Zedekiah and the soldiers with him. They caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured Zedekiah and took him to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar was at the town of Riblah in the land of Hamath. At that place, Nebuchadnezzar decided what to do to Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>There at the town of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons and he killed all the royal officials of Judah while Zedekiah watched. <sup>7</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar tore out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on Zedekiah and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>The army of Babylon set fire to the king's palace and the houses of the people of Jerusalem. And they broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards. He took all the people who had surrendered to him and all the people still in Jerusalem and made them captives.* He carried them away to Babylon. <sup>10</sup>But commander Nebuzaradan left behind some of the poor people of Judah who owned nothing. Nebuzaradan gave them vineyards* and farmland in Judah.

<sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also gave an order about Jeremiah to commander Nebuzaradan: <sup>12</sup>"Find Jeremiah and take care of him. Don't hurt him. Give him whatever he asks for."

<sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's special guards, Nebushazban, a chief officer in the army of Babylon, Nergal-Sharezer, a high official, and all the other officers of the army of Babylon sent for Jeremiah. <sup>14</sup>They had Jeremiah taken out of the Temple* yard where he had been under the guard of the king of Judah. They turned Jeremiah over to Gedaliah<sup>a</sup> son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. Gedaliah had orders to take Jeremiah back home. So Jeremiah was taken home, and he stayed among his own people.

The Lord's Message to Ebed Melech

<sup>15</sup>While the guards were watching Jeremiah in the Temple* yard, a message from the LORD came to him. This was the message: <sup>16</sup>"Jeremiah, go and tell Ebed Melech<sup>b</sup> the Ethiopian this message: 'This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: Very soon I will make my messages about this city of Jerusalem come true. My messages will come true through disaster, not through something good. You will see everything come true with your own eyes. <sup>17</sup>But I will save you on that day, Ebed Melech.' This is the message from the LORD. 'You will not be given to the people you are afraid of. <sup>18</sup>I will save you, Ebed Melech. You will not die from a sword, but you will escape and live. That will happen because you have trusted in me.'" This message is from the LORD.

Jeremiah Is Set Free

40<sup>1</sup>The message from the LORD came to Jeremiah after he was set free at the city of Ramah. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards, found Jeremiah in Ramah. Jeremiah was bound with chains. He was with all the captives* from Jerusalem and Judah. They were being taken away in captivity to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>When commander Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah, he spoke to him. He said, "Jeremiah, the LORD, your God, announced that this disaster would come to this place. <sup>3</sup>And now the LORD has done everything just as he said he would do. This disaster happened because you people of Judah sinned against the LORD. You didn't obey the LORD. <sup>4</sup>But now, Jeremiah, I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon, and I will take good care of you. But if you don't want to come with me, then don't come. Look, the whole country is open to you. Go anywhere you want. <sup>5</sup>Or go back to Gedaliah<sup>c</sup> son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or you can go anywhere you want."

Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. <sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. He stayed with Gedaliah among those who were left behind in the land of Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

<sup>7</sup>There were some soldiers from the army of Judah, officers and their men, still out in the open country when Jerusalem was destroyed. They heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge of those who were left in the land. Those who were left were men, women, and children who were very poor. They were not carried off to Babylon as captives.* <sup>8</sup>So the soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and his brother Jonathan, sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and the men who were with them.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, made an oath* to make the soldiers and their men feel more secure. This is what he said: "You soldiers, don't be afraid to serve the Babylonian people. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon. If you do this, things will go well for you. <sup>10</sup>I myself will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Chaldeans* who come here. You leave that work to me. You should harvest the wine, the summer fruit, and the oil. Put what you harvest in your storage jars. Live in the towns that you control."

<sup>11</sup>All the people of Judah who were in the countries of Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left some people of Judah in the land. And they heard that the king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to be governor over them. <sup>12</sup>When the people of Judah heard this news, they came back to the land of Judah. They came back to Gedaliah at Mizpah from all the countries where they had been scattered. So they came back and gathered a large harvest of wine and summer fruit.

<sup>13</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the officers of the army of Judah who were still in the open country came to Gedaliah. Gedaliah was at the town of Mizpah. <sup>14</sup>Johanan and the officers with him said to Gedaliah, "Do you know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonites, wants to kill you? He has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you." But Gedaliah son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

<sup>15</sup>Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah. Johanan said to Gedaliah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know anything about it. We should not let Ishmael kill you. That would cause all the people of Judah who are gathered around you to be scattered to different countries again. And that would mean that the few survivors* of Judah would be lost."

<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Don't kill Ishmael. The things you are saying about Ishmael are not true."

41 <sup>1</sup>In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah (the son of Elishama) came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael came with ten of his men. They came to the town of Mizpah. Ishmael was a member of the king's family. He had been one of the officers of the king of Judah. Ishmael and his men ate a meal with Gedaliah. <sup>2</sup>While they were eating together, Ishmael and his ten men got up and killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam with a sword. Gedaliah was the man the king of Babylon had chosen to be governor of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah who were with Gedaliah at the town of Mizpah. He also killed the Babylonian soldiers who were there with Gedaliah.

<sup>4-5</sup>The day after Gedaliah was murdered, 80 men came to Mizpah. They were bringing grain offerings and incense* to the LORD's Temple.* They had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves.<sup>4</sup> They came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. None of these men knew that Gedaliah had been murdered. <sup>6</sup>Ishmael left Mizpah and went to meet the 80 men. He cried<sup>b</sup> while he walked out to meet them. Ishmael met them and said, "Come with me to meet with Gedaliah son of Ahikam." <sup>7-8</sup>As soon as they were in the city, Ishmael and the men with him began to kill the 80 men and throw them into a deep cistern! But ten of the men said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have hidden some things in a field. We have wheat and barley and oil and honey." So Ishmael stopped and didn't kill them with the others. <sup>9</sup>Ishmael threw the dead bodies into the cistern until it was full, and that cistern was very big! It had been built by a king of Judah named Asa. King Asa had made the cistern so that during war there would be water in the city.<sup>c</sup> Asa did this to protect his city from King Baasha of Israel.)

<sup>10</sup>Ishmael captured all the other people in the town of Mizpah and started to cross over to the country of the Ammonites. They included the king's daughters, and all those who were left there. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards, had chosen Gedaliah to watch over those people.

<sup>11</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about <sup>a</sup>41:4-5 shaved ... cut themselves The men did this to show that they were sad about the destruction of the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>b</sup>41:6 He cried Ishmael was acting like he was sad about the destruction of the Temple.

all the evil things Ishmael had done. <sup>12</sup>So Johanan and the army officers with him took their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught Ishmael near the big pool of water that is at the town of Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>When the captives that Ishmael had taken saw Johanan and the army officers, they were very happy. <sup>14</sup>Then all the captives who Ishmael had taken from the town of Mizpah ran to Johanan son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup>But Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and ran away to the Ammonites.

<sup>16</sup>So Johanan son of Kareah and all his army officers rescued the captives. Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah and then he had taken those people from Mizpah. Among the survivors were soldiers, women, children, and court officials. Johanan brought them back from the town of Gibeon.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>17-18</sup>Johanan and the other army officers were afraid of the Chaldeans.* The king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah to be governor of Judah. But Ishmael murdered Gedaliah, and Johanan was afraid that the Chaldeans would be angry. So they decided to run away to Egypt. On the way to Egypt, they stayed at Geruth Kimham, near the town of Bethlehem.

42 <sup>1</sup>While they were at Geruth Kimham, Johanan son of Kareah and Jezeaniah son of Hoshaiah went to Jeremiah the prophet.* All the army officers went with Johanan and Jezeaniah. All the people, from the least important to the most important, went to Jeremiah. <sup>2</sup>They said to him, 'Jeremiah, please listen to what we ask. Pray to the LORD your God for all those who are survivors* from the family of Judah. Jeremiah, you can see that there are not many of us left. At one time there were many of us. <sup>3</sup>Jeremiah, pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.'

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet answered, 'I understand what you want me to do. I will pray to the LORD your God, as you asked me to do. I will tell you everything he says. I will not hide anything from you.'

<sup>5</sup>Then the people said to Jeremiah, 'If we don't do everything the LORD your God tells us, then we hope the LORD will be a true and faithful witness against us. We know he will send you to tell us what to do. <sup>6</sup>It doesn't matter if we like the message or if we don't like the message. We will obey the LORD our God. We are sending you to the LORD for a message from him. We will obey what he says. Then good things will happen to us. Yes, we will obey the LORD our God.'

<sup>7</sup>At the end of ten days, the message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>Then Jeremiah called together Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him. He also called all the other people together, from the least important to the most important. <sup>9</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says. You sent me to him. I asked the LORD what you wanted me to ask. This is what he says: <sup>10</sup>'If you will stay in Judah, I will make you strong—I will not destroy you. I will plant you, and I will not pull you up. I will do this because I am sad about the terrible things that I made happen to you. <sup>11</sup>Now you are afraid of the king of Babylon. But don't be afraid of him. Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon,' says the LORD, 'because I am with you. I will save you. I will rescue you. He will not get his hands on you. <sup>12</sup>I will be kind to you, and the king of Babylon will also treat you with mercy. He will bring you back to your land.' <sup>13</sup>But you might say, 'We will not stay in Judah.' If you say that, you will disobey the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>And you might say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt. We will not be bothered with war there. We will not hear the trumpets of war, and in Egypt we will not be hungry.' <sup>15</sup>If you say that, listen to this message from the LORD, you survivors from Judah. This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'If you decide to go and live in Egypt, this will happen: <sup>16</sup>You are afraid of the sword of war, but it will defeat you there. And you are worried about hunger, but you will be hungry in Egypt. You will die there. <sup>17</sup>Everyone who decides to go live in Egypt will die by war, hunger, or disease. Not one person who goes to Egypt will survive. Not one of them will escape the terrible things that I will bring to them.'

<sup>18</sup>'This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: 'I showed my anger against Jerusalem. I punished the people who lived there. In the same way I will show my anger against everyone who goes to Egypt. People will use you as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. You will become like a curse word. People will be ashamed of you, and they will insult you. And you will never see Judah again.'

<sup>19</sup>'Survivors of Judah, the LORD told you: 'Don't go to Egypt.' I warn you right now, <sup>20</sup>you are making a mistake that will cause your deaths. You sent me to the LORD your God. You said to me, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us everything the LORD our God says to do. We will obey him.' <sup>21</sup>So today, I have told you the message from the LORD. But you have not obeyed the LORD your God. You have not done all that he sent me to tell you to do. <sup>22</sup>So now be sure you understand this: You want to go live in Egypt. But these things will happen to you in Egypt: You will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness.'

43 <sup>1</sup>So Jeremiah finished telling the people the message from the LORD their God. He told them everything that the LORD their God had sent him to tell them.

<sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and some other men were proud and stubborn. They became angry with Jeremiah. They said to him, “Jeremiah, you are lying! The LORD our God didn’t send you to say to us, ‘You must not go to Egypt to live there.’” <sup>3</sup>Jeremiah, we think that Baruch son of Neriah is encouraging you to be against us. He wants you to give us to the Babylonians. He wants you to do this so they can kill us. Or he wants you to do this so that they can make us captives* and take us to Babylon.”

<sup>4</sup>So Johanan, the army officers, and all the people disobeyed the LORD’s command. The LORD had commanded them to stay in Judah. <sup>5</sup>But instead of obeying the LORD, Johanan and the army officers took the survivors from Judah to Egypt. In the past the enemy had taken the survivors to other countries, but they had come back to Judah. <sup>6</sup>Now Johanan and all the army officers took all the men, women, and children and led them to Egypt. Among those people were the king’s daughters. (Nebuzaradan had put Gedaliah in charge of those people. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards.) Johanan also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah. <sup>7</sup>These people didn’t listen to the LORD. So they all went to Egypt to the town of Tahpanhes.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>In the town of Tahpanhes, Jeremiah received this message from the LORD: <sup>9</sup>“Jeremiah, get some large stones. Take them and bury them in the clay and brick sidewalk in front of Pharaoh’s official building in Tahpanhes. Do this while the people of Judah are watching you. <sup>10</sup>Then say to those who are watching you: ‘This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: I will send for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to come here. He is my servant, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. Nebuchadnezzar will spread his canopy<sup>b</sup> above these stones. <sup>11</sup>He will come here and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those who are to die. He will bring captivity to those who are to be taken captive. And he will bring the sword to those who are to be killed with a sword. <sup>12</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will start a fire in the temples of the false gods of Egypt. He will burn the temples and he will take the idols* away. Shepherds pick the bugs and thorns off their clothes to make them clean. In the same way Nebuchadnezzar will pick Egypt clean. Then he will safely leave Egypt. <sup>13</sup>He will destroy the memorial stones* that are in the temple of the Sun God<sup>c</sup> in Egypt, and he will burn down the temples of the false gods of Egypt.’”

The Lord Warns the People of Judah

44 <sup>1</sup>Jeremiah received a message from the LORD for all the people of Judah living in Egypt. The message was for the people of Judah living in the towns of Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and southern Egypt. This was the message: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘You people saw the disasters that I brought on the city of Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. The towns are empty piles of stones today. <sup>3</sup>They were destroyed because the people living in them did evil. They gave sacrifices to other gods, and that made me angry! Your people and your ancestors* did not worship those gods in the past. <sup>4</sup>I sent my servants, the prophets, to those people again and again. They spoke my message and said to the people, “Don’t do this terrible thing. I hate for you to worship idols.”’” <sup>5</sup>But they didn’t listen to the prophets or pay attention to them. They didn’t stop doing wicked things. They didn’t stop making sacrifices to other gods. <sup>6</sup>So I showed my anger against them. I punished the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. My anger made Jerusalem and the towns of Judah the empty piles of stone they are today.’”

<sup>7</sup>“So this is what the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Why are you hurting yourselves by continuing to worship idols? You are separating the men and women, the children and babies from the family of Judah. And so you leave yourselves without anyone left from the family of Judah. <sup>8</sup>Why do you people want to make me angry by making idols? Now you are living in Egypt. And now you are making me angry by offering sacrifices to the false gods of Egypt. You will destroy yourselves, and it will be your own fault. The people of all the other nations on the earth will say bad things about you and make fun of you. <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten about the wicked things your ancestors did? And have you forgotten about the wicked things the kings and queens of Judah did? Have you forgotten about the wicked things you and your wives did in Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup>Even to this day the people of Judah have not made themselves humble. They have not shown any respect for me, and they have not followed my teachings. They have not obeyed the laws I gave you and your ancestors.’”

<sup>11</sup>“So this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘I have decided to make terrible things happen to you. I will destroy the whole family of Judah. <sup>12</sup>There were a few survivors from Judah. They came here to Egypt. But I will destroy the few survivors from the family of Judah. They will be killed with swords or die from hunger. The people of other nations will point at them and wish evil for them. People will be shocked and frightened by what has happened to them. The name Judah will become a curse word and an insult. <sup>13</sup>I will punish those who have gone to live in Egypt. I will use war, hunger, and disease to punish them. I will punish them just as I punished the city of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Not one of the few survivors of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape my punishment. None of them will survive to come back to Judah. They want to come back to Judah and live there. But not one of them will go back to Judah, except a few people who escape.”

<sup>15</sup>There were many people from Judah living in southern Egypt. Many of the women from Judah were meeting together in a large group and making sacrifices to other gods, and their husbands knew what they were doing. Those men said to Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup>“We will not listen to the message from the LORD that you spoke to us. <sup>17</sup>We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven,* and we will do everything we promised. We will offer sacrifices and pour out drink offerings in worship to her. We did that in the past. Our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did that in the past. All of us did those things in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. When we worshiped the Queen of Heaven, we had plenty of food. We were successful. Nothing bad happened to us. <sup>18</sup>But then we stopped making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven, and we stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. And we have had problems ever since we stopped worshiping her. Our people have been killed by war and hunger.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the women spoke up<sup>a</sup> and said to Jeremiah, “Our husbands knew what we were doing. We had their permission to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. We had their permission to pour out drink offerings to her. Our husbands also knew that we were making cakes that looked like her.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the men and women who told him these things. <sup>21</sup>He said, “The LORD remembered that you made sacrifices in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. You and your ancestors, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land did that. He remembered what you had done and thought about it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD hated the terrible things you did, and he could not be patient with you any longer. So he made your country an empty desert. No one lives there now. Other people say bad things about that country. <sup>23</sup>The reason all those bad things happened to you is because you made sacrifices to other gods. You sinned against the LORD. You didn’t obey him or follow his teachings or the laws he gave you. You didn’t keep your part of the agreement.<sup>b</sup>”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the men and women. He said, “All you people of Judah who are now in Egypt, listen to this message from the LORD. <sup>25</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘You women did what you said you would do. You said, “We will keep the promises we made. We promised to make sacrifices and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.” So go ahead. Do what you promised you would do. Keep your promises.’ <sup>26</sup>But listen to this message from the LORD, all you people of Judah who are living in Egypt: ‘I use my own great name to make this promise: None of the people of Judah who are now living in Egypt will ever again use my name to make promises. They will never again say, “As surely as the Lord God lives ....”’ <sup>27</sup>I am watching over the people of Judah, but I am not watching over them to take care of them. I am watching over them to bring them harm. The people of Judah who live in Egypt will die from hunger or be killed in war until they are completely destroyed. <sup>28</sup>Some people of Judah will escape being killed by the sword. They will come back to Judah from Egypt. But only a few people of Judah will escape. Then the survivors* of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word proves to be true. They will know whether it was my word or their word that came true. <sup>29</sup>I will give you people proof,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will punish you here in Egypt. Then you will know for sure that my promises to harm you will really happen. <sup>30</sup>This will be your proof that I will do what I say.’ This is what the LORD says: ‘Pharaoh Hophra is the king of Egypt. His enemies want to kill him. I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies. Just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah to his enemy Nebuchadnezzar, in the same way I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies.”

A Message to Baruch

45 <sup>1</sup>In the fourth year that Jehoiakim<sup>c</sup> son of Josiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet* spoke these things to Baruch son of Neriah. Baruch wrote them on a scroll.* This is what Jeremiah said to Baruch: <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you: <sup>3</sup>Baruch, you have said, “It is very bad for me. The LORD has given me sorrow along with my pain. I am very tired. I am worn out because of my suffering. I cannot find rest.” <sup>4</sup>Jeremiah, tell Baruch that this is what the LORD says: I will tear down what I have built, and I will pull up what I have planted. I will do that everywhere in Judah. <sup>5</sup>Baruch, you are looking for great things for yourself. Don’t look for them, because I will make terrible things happen to all the people.’ This is what the LORD said. ‘You will have to go many places. But I will let you escape alive wherever you go.”

The Lord's Messages About the Nations
46<sup>1</sup>These messages about different nations came to Jeremiah the prophet.*

Messages About Egypt

<sup>3</sup>“Get your large and small shields ready.
 March out for battle.

<sup>4</sup> Get the horses ready.
 Soldiers, get on your horses.
 Go to your places for battle.
 Put your helmets on.

Sharpen your spears.
 Put your armor* on.

<sup>5</sup> What do I see?
 That army is afraid.
 The soldiers are running away.
 Their brave soldiers are defeated.
 They run away in a hurry.
 They don't look back.
 There is danger all around.”
 This is what the LORD said.

<sup>6</sup>“Fast men cannot run away.
 Strong soldiers cannot escape.
 They will all stumble and fall.
 This will happen in the north, by the Euphrates River.

<sup>7</sup> Who is coming like the Nile River?
 Who is coming like that strong, fast
 river?

<sup>8</sup> It is Egypt that comes like the rising Nile River.
 It is Egypt that comes like that strong, fast river.
 Egypt says, ‘I will come and cover the
 earth.
 I will destroy the cities and the people in them.’

<sup>9</sup> Horse soldiers, charge into battle.
 Chariot drivers, drive fast.
 March on, brave soldiers.
 Soldiers from Cush and Put, carry your shields.
 Soldiers from Lydia, use your bows.

<sup>10</sup>“But on that day, the Lord God All-Powerful will win.
 He will give his enemies the
 punishment they deserve.

His sword will kill until it is finished,
 until it has satisfied its thirst for blood.
 Yes, the Lord God All-Powerful will kill them as a sacrifice
 in the land of the north by the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup>“Egypt, go to Gilead and get some medicine.

You will make up many medicines, but they will not help.
 You will not be healed.

<sup>12</sup> The nations will hear you crying.
 Your cries will be heard all over the
 earth.

One ‘brave soldier’ will run into another ‘brave soldier.’
 And both ‘brave soldiers’ will fall down
 together.”

<sup>13</sup>This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about Nebuchadnezzar coming to attack Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>“Announce this message in Egypt.
 Tell it in the city of Migdol.
 Tell it in Memphis and Tahpanhes.

‘Get ready for war,
 because people all around you are being killed with swords.’

<sup>15</sup> Egypt, your strong soldiers will be killed.
 They will not be able to stand because the LORD will push them down.

<sup>16</sup> They will stumble again and again.
 They will fall over each other.
 They will say, ‘Get up, let's go back to our own people.
 Let us go back to our homeland.
 Our enemy is defeating us.
 We must get away.’

<sup>17</sup> In their homelands, those soldiers will say, ‘Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is only a lot of noise.
 His time of glory is over.’”

<sup>18</sup> This message is from the King.
 The King is the LORD All-Powerful.

“I promise, as surely as I live,
 a powerful leader will come.
 He will be like Mount Tabor or Mount Carmel among smaller mountains.

<sup>19</sup> People of Egypt, pack your things.
 Get ready for captivity,
 because Memphis will be a ruined,
 empty land.
 Those cities will be destroyed,
 and no one will live there.

<sup>20</sup>“Egypt is like a beautiful cow.
 But a horsefly<sup>b</sup> is coming from the

<sup>a</sup>46:2 the fourth year ... Jehoia<sup>a</sup>kim This was about north<sup>a</sup> to attack her.

- 21 The hired soldiers in Egypt's army are like fat calves.

They will all turn and run away.

They will not stand strong against the attack.

Their time of destruction is coming.

They will soon be punished.

- 22 Egypt is like a snake hissing and trying to escape.

The enemy comes closer and closer, and the Egyptian army is trying to slither away.

The enemy will attack Egypt with axes, like men cutting down trees."

- 23 This is what the LORD says:

"They will chop down Egypt's forest.

There are many trees in that forest, but they will all be cut down.

There are more enemy soldiers than locusts.*

There are so many soldiers that no one can count them.

- 24 Egypt will be ashamed.

The enemy from the north will defeat her."

<sup>25</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, "Very soon I will punish Amon,<sup>b</sup> the god of Thebes, and I will punish Pharaoh, Egypt, and her gods. I will punish the kings of Egypt, and I will punish the people who depend on Pharaoh. <sup>26</sup>I will let all of them be defeated by their enemies—their enemies want to kill them. I will give the people to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his servants.

"Long ago, Egypt lived in peace. And after all these times of trouble, Egypt will live in peace again." This is what the LORD said.

A Message for Northern Israel

- 27<sup>c</sup>"Jacob,* my servant, do not be afraid. Do not be frightened, Israel.

I will save you from those faraway places.

I will save your children from the countries where they are captives.*

Jacob will have peace and safety again, and no one will make him afraid."

- 28 This is what the LORD says.

"Jacob, my servant, do not be afraid. I am with you.

I sent you away to many different places.

But I will not destroy you completely.

But I will destroy all those nations.

You must be punished for the bad things you did.

So I will not let you escape your punishment.

I will discipline you, but I will be fair."

A Message About the Philistine People

47<sup>1</sup>This is the message from the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet* about the Philistines.* This message came before Pharaoh attacked the city of Gaza.

- 2 This is what the LORD says:

"Look, the enemy is gathering in the north<sup>c</sup> like rising water.

They will come like a river spilling over its banks.

They will cover the whole country like a flood.

They will cover the towns and the people living in them.

Everyone in the country will cry for help.

Everyone will cry out in pain.

- 3 They will hear the sound of running horses, the noisy chariots,* the rumbling wheels.

Fathers will not be able to protect their children.

They will be too weak to help,

- 4 because the time has come to destroy all the Philistines.

The time has come to destroy

Tyre and Sidon's remaining helpers.

The LORD will destroy the Philistines, the survivors from the Island of Crete.<sup>d</sup>

- 5 The people from Gaza will be sad and shave their heads.

The people from Ashkelon will be silenced.

Survivors from the valley, how long will you cut yourselves?<sup>e</sup>

- 6 "Sword of the LORD, you have not stopped. How long will you keep fighting?

Go back into your scabbard!<sup>f</sup>

Stop! Be still!

- 7 But how can the sword of the LORD rest? The LORD gave it a command.

He commanded it to attack the city of Ashkelon and the seacoast."

<sup>b</sup>46:25 Amon For many centuries Amon was the most important god of Egypt. At the time of this prophecy, he was not worshiped as much in northern Egypt. But he was still the most important god in southern Egypt, especially around the old Egyptian capital city of Thebes.

<sup>c</sup>47:2 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

<sup>d</sup>47:4 Island of Crete Literally, "Island of Caphtor." Sometimes this means Crete, and sometimes it means Cyprus. The Bible says the Philistines originally came from Caphtor.

<sup>e</sup>47:5 sad ... cut yourselves The people did these things to show their sadness.

A Message About Moab

48<sup>1</sup>This message is about the country of Moab. This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:<sup>a</sup>

"It will be bad for Mount Nebo.<sup>b</sup>
Mount Nebo will be ruined.
The town of Kiriathaim will be humbled.
It will be captured.
The strong place will be humbled.
It will be shattered.

<sup>2</sup> Moab will not be praised again.
Men in Heshbon will plan Moab's defeat.
They will say, 'Come, let us put an end to that nation.'

Madmenah, you will also be silenced.
The sword will chase you.

They are cries of much confusion and destruction.

<sup>4</sup> Moab will be destroyed.
Her little children will cry for help.

<sup>5</sup> Moab's people go up the path to Luhith.
They are crying bitterly as they go.
On the road down to the town of Horonaim, cries of pain and suffering can be heard.

<sup>6</sup> Run away! Run for your lives!
Run away like a weed<sup>c</sup> blowing through the desert.

<sup>7</sup>"You trust in the things you made and in your wealth, so you will be captured.
The god Chemosh<sup>d</sup> will be taken into captivity,
and his priests and officials will be taken with him.

<sup>8</sup> The Destroyer will come against every town.
Not one town will escape.
The valley will be ruined.
The high plain will be destroyed.
The LORD said this would happen,
so it will happen.

<sup>9</sup> Spread salt over the fields in Moab.
The country will be an empty desert.<sup>d</sup>
Moab's towns will become empty.
No one will live in them.

<sup>10</sup> Bad things will happen to those who don't obey the LORD and don't use their swords to kill those people.

Moab is like wine left to settle.
Moab has never been poured from one jar to another.

He has not been taken into captivity.
So he tastes as he did before,
and his smell has not changed."

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"But I will soon send men to pour you from your jars.<sup>e</sup>
Then they will empty the jars and smash them to pieces."

<sup>13</sup>Then the people of Moab will be ashamed of their false god, Chemosh. They will be like the people of Israel who trusted that god in Bethel<sup>f</sup> but were ashamed when he did not help them.

<sup>14</sup>"You cannot say, 'We are good soldiers.
We are brave men in battle.'

The enemy will enter its towns and destroy them.
Its best young men will be killed in the slaughter."

This message is from the King.
The King's name is the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>16</sup>"The end of Moab is near.
Moab will soon be destroyed.

<sup>17</sup> All you who live around Moab should cry for that country.
You know how famous Moab is.
So cry for it.
Say, 'The ruler's power is broken.
Moab's power and glory is gone.'

<sup>18</sup>"You people living in Dibon,<sup>g</sup>
come down from your place of honor.
Sit on the ground in the dust,
because the Destroyer is coming.
And he will destroy your strong cities.

<sup>19</sup>"You people living in Aroer, stand next to the road and watch.
See the man running away.
See that woman running away.
Ask them what happened.

<sup>20</sup>"Moab will be ruined and filled with shame.
Moab will cry and cry.
Announce at the Arnon River<sup>h</sup>
that Moab is destroyed.

<sup>21</sup> People on the high plain have been punished.
Judgment has come to the towns of Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath.

<sup>f</sup>48:13 in Bethel This means the temple that King Jeroboam built in the town of Bethel (see 1 Kings 12:28–33). It is not clear if this means the people still worshiped the Lord there, but in a wrong way, or if they worshiped a false god, perhaps the Canaanite god El or Baal.

- <sup>22</sup> Judgment has come to the towns of Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim.
- <sup>23</sup> Judgment has come to the towns of Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon.
- <sup>24</sup> Judgment has come to the towns of Keriath and Bozrah.
Judgment has come to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
- <sup>25</sup> Moab's strength has been cut off.
Its arm has been broken."
This is what the LORD said.
- <sup>26</sup> "The people of Moab thought they were greater than the LORD.
So punish them until they act like a drunk, falling and rolling around in his vomit.
Then people will make fun of them.
- <sup>27</sup> "Moab, you made fun of Israel.
Israel was caught by a gang of thieves.
Every time you spoke about Israel,
you shook your head and acted as if you were better than Israel.
- <sup>28</sup> People in Moab, leave your towns.
Go live among the rocks;
be like a dove that makes its nest at the opening of a cave."
- <sup>29</sup> "We have heard about Moab's pride.
He was very proud.
He thought he was important.
He was always bragging.
He was very, very proud."
- <sup>30</sup> The LORD says, "I know Moab gets angry quickly and brags about himself, but his boasts are lies.
He cannot do what he says.
- <sup>31</sup> So I cry for Moab.
I cry for everyone in Moab.
I cry for the men from Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>32</sup> I cry with the people of Jazer for Jazer.
Sibmah, in the past your vines spread all the way to the sea.
They reached as far as the town of Jazer.
But the Destroyer has taken your fruit and grapes.
- <sup>33</sup> Joy and happiness are gone from the large vineyards* of Moab.
I stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses.*
There is no singing and dancing from people walking on the grapes to make wine.
There are no shouts of joy.

<sup>34</sup> "The people of the towns of Heshbon and Elealeh are crying. Their cry is heard even as far away as the town of Jahaz. Their cry is heard from the town of Zoar, as far away as the towns of Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up. <sup>35</sup>I will stop Moab from making burnt offerings on the high places.* I will stop them from making sacrifices to their gods." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>36</sup> "I am very sad for Moab. My heart cries like the sad sound of a flute playing a funeral song. I am sad for the people from Kir Hareseth. Their money and riches have all been taken away. <sup>37</sup>Everyone has a shaved head. Everyone's beard is cut off. Everyone's hands are cut and bleeding.<sup>a</sup> Everyone is wearing sackcloth* around their waists. <sup>38</sup>People are crying for the dead everywhere in Moab—on every housetop and in every public square. There is sadness because I have broken Moab like an empty jar." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>40</sup> The LORD says, "Look! An eagle is diving down from the sky.
It is spreading its wings over Moab.

<sup>41</sup> The towns of Moab will be captured.
The strong hiding places will be defeated.

At that time Moab's soldiers will be filled with fear, like a woman giving birth.

<sup>42</sup> The nation of Moab will be destroyed, because they thought that they were more important than the LORD."

"People of Moab, fear, deep holes, and traps<sup>b</sup> wait for you.

<sup>44</sup> People will be afraid and run away, and they will fall into the deep holes. Anyone who climbs out of the deep holes will be caught in the traps.

I will bring the year of punishment to Moab."

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>45</sup> "People have run from the powerful enemy.

They ran to safety in the town of Heshbon.

But a fire started in Heshbon.

That fire started in Sihon's town,<sup>c</sup> and it is destroying the leaders of Moab. It is destroying those proud people.

<sup>46</sup> It will be bad for you, Moab.
Chemosh's people are being destroyed. Your sons and daughters are being taken away as prisoners and captives.*

<sup>a</sup>48:37 Everyone ... cut and bleeding The people did these things to show their sadness for people who had died.

<sup>47</sup>"Moab's people will be taken away as captives. But in days to come, I will bring them back." This message is from the LORD.

This ends the judgment on Moab.

49 A Message About Ammon

"Ammonites, do you think that the people of Israel don't have children? Do you think there are no children to take the land when the parents die? Maybe that is why Milcom* took Gad's<sup>a</sup> land?"

<sup>2</sup> The LORD says, "The time will come in Rabbah of Ammon<sup>b</sup> when people hear the sounds of battle. Rabbah of Ammon will be destroyed. It will be an empty hill covered with ruined buildings, and the towns around it will be burned. Those people forced the people of Israel to leave their own land. But later, Israel will force them to leave."

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>3</sup>"People in Heshbon, cry because the town of Ai is destroyed!
 Women in Rabbah of Ammon, cry!
 Put on sackcloth* and cry.
 Run to the city for safety,
 because the enemy will take away the god Milcom,
 with his priests and officials.

<sup>4</sup> You brag about your strength,
 but you are losing your strength.
 You trust in your wealth to save you.
 You think no one would even think of attacking you."

<sup>5</sup> But this is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

"I will bring troubles to you from every side.
 You will all run away,
 and no one will be able to bring you together again."

<sup>6</sup>"The Ammonites will be taken away as captives.* But the time will come when I will bring the Ammonites back." This message is from the LORD.

A Message About Edom

<sup>7</sup>This message is about Edom. This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

<sup>a</sup>49:1 Gad's One of the tribes of Israel. Their land was on the east side of the Jordan River, near the country of Ammon.

"Is there no more wisdom in Teman*? Are the wise men of Edom not able to give good advice?

Have they lost their wisdom?

<sup>8</sup> You people living in Dedan, run away and hide, because I will punish Esau* for the bad things he did.

<sup>9</sup>"Workers pick grapes from grapevines, but they leave a few grapes on the plants.

If thieves come at night,
 they don't take everything.

<sup>10</sup> But I will take everything from Esau.
 I will find all his hiding places.
 He will not be able to hide from me.
 His children, relatives, and neighbors will all die.

 His wives will have no one to depend on."

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says: "Some people don't deserve to be punished, but they suffer. But, Edom, you deserve to be punished, so you will really be punished. You will not escape the punishment you deserve. You will be punished." <sup>13</sup>The LORD says, "By my own power, I make this promise: I promise that the city of Bozrah will be destroyed. It will become a ruined pile of rocks. People will use it as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities. People will insult that city, and all the towns around Bozrah will become ruins forever."

<sup>14</sup> I heard a message from the LORD:
 He sent this messenger to the nations.

This is the message:

"Gather your armies together!
 Get ready for battle!
 March against the nation of Edom!

<sup>15</sup> Edom, I will make you become unimportant.
 Everyone will hate you.

<sup>16</sup> Edom, you made other nations afraid,
 so you thought you were important.
 But your pride has fooled you.

You live in caves, high on the cliff.
 Your home is high in the hills.

But even if you build your home as high as an eagle's nest,

I will bring you down from there."
 This is what the LORD said.

<sup>17</sup>"Edom will be destroyed.

People will be shocked to see the destroyed cities.

They will whistle from amazement at the destroyed cities.

<sup>18</sup> Edom will be destroyed like Sodom* and Gomorrah* and the towns around them.

No one will live there.”
This is what the LORD said.

19“Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River. And it will go into the fields where people put their sheep and cattle. I am like that lion. I will go to Edom. And I will frighten the people and make them run away. None of their young men will stop me. No one is like me. No one will challenge me. None of their leaders will stand up against me.”

20 So listen to what the LORD has planned to do to the people of Edom.
Listen to what he has decided to do to the people in Teman.
The enemy will drag away the young kids of Edom’s flock.
Edom’s pastures will be empty because of what they did.
21 At the sound of Edom’s fall,
the earth will shake.
Their cry will be heard
all the way to the Red Sea.

22 The LORD will be like an eagle flying over the animal it will attack.
He will be like an eagle spreading its wings over Bozrah.
At that time Edom’s soldiers will be filled with fear.
They will cry out like a woman giving birth.

A Message About Damascus

<sup>23</sup>This message is about the city of Damascus:

“The towns of Hamath and Arpad are afraid.
They are afraid because they heard the bad news.
They are discouraged.
They are worried and afraid.
24 The city of Damascus has become weak.
The people want to run away.
They are ready to panic.
They are overcome with fear and pain,
like a woman giving birth.

25“Damascus is a happy city.
The people have not left that ‘fun city’ yet.

26 So the young men will die in the public squares of that city.
All her soldiers will be killed at that time.”

This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

27“<sup>a</sup>I will set the walls of Damascus on fire.
The fire will completely burn up the strong forts of Ben-Hadad.”

<sup>a</sup>49:27 Ben-Hadad This was the name of several of the kings of Aram-Damascus.

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup>This message is about the tribe of Kedar* and the rulers of Hazor. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated them. This is what the LORD says:

“Go and attack the tribe of Kedar.

Destroy the people of the East.

29 Their tents and flocks will be taken away.

Their tents and all their riches will be carried off.

Their enemy will take away the camels.

Men will shout this to them:

‘Terrible things are happening all around us.’

30 Run away quickly!

People in Hazor, find a good place to hide.”

This message is from the LORD.

“Nebuchadnezzar has made plans against you.

He thought of a smart plan to defeat you.

31“<sup>b</sup>There is a nation that feels so safe and secure that it does not have gates or fences to protect it.

And no one lives near enough to help them.

So attack that nation!” says the LORD.

32“<sup>c</sup>Their camels are there to be taken in battle.

Their large herds of cattle will be yours.

I will scatter them throughout the earth—those people who cut their hair short.<sup>b</sup>

I will bring disaster on them from every direction.”

This message is from the LORD.

33“<sup>c</sup>Hazor will become a home for wild dogs, an empty desert forever.

No one will live there.

No one will stay in that place.”

A Message About Elam

<sup>34</sup>Early in the time when Zedekiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet* received a message from the LORD about the nation of Elam.<sup>c</sup>

35 The LORD All-Powerful says,

“I will break Elam’s bow very soon.

It is Elam’s strongest weapon.

36 I will bring the four winds against Elam.

I will bring them from the four corners of the skies.

I will send the people of Elam to every place on the earth where the four winds blow.

- Elam's captives* will be carried away to every nation.
- 37 I will break Elam to pieces while their enemies are watching. I will break Elam in front of the people who want to kill them. I will bring terrible troubles to them. I will show them how angry I am." This message is from the LORD.
- "I will send a sword to chase Elam. The sword will chase them until I have killed them all.
- 38 I will show Elam that I am in control, and I will destroy its king and his officials."
- This message is from the LORD.
- 39 "But in the future I will make good things happen to Elam."
- This message is from the LORD.

A Message About Babylon

50 <sup>1</sup>This is the message the LORD spoke through the prophet* Jeremiah about Babylon and its people.

- 2 "Announce this to all nations! Lift up a flag and announce the message! Speak the whole message and say, 'The nation of Babylon will be captured. The god Bel* will be put to shame. The god Marduk* will be very afraid. Babylon's idols* will be put to shame. Her gods will be filled with terror.'
- 3 A nation from the north will attack Babylon. That nation will make Babylon like an empty desert. No one will live there. Both men and animals will run away."
- 4 The LORD says, "At that time the people of Israel and the people of Judah will be together. They will cry and cry together, and together, they will go look for the LORD their God.
- 5 They will ask how to go to Zion.* They will start to go in that direction. They will say, 'Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD. Let's make an agreement that will last forever. Let's make an agreement that we will never forget.'
- 6 "My people have been like lost sheep. Their shepherds led them the wrong way and made them wander around in the mountains and hills. They forgot where their resting place was.
- 7 Whoever found my people hurt them. And those enemies said, 'We did nothing wrong.'

Those people sinned against the LORD, their true resting place. He was the God who their fathers trusted in.

- 8 "Run away from Babylon. Leave the land of the Babylonians. Be like the goats that lead the flock.
- 9 I will bring many nations together from the north. This group of nations will get ready for war against Babylon. Babylon will be captured by people from the north. Those nations will shoot many arrows at Babylon. Their arrows will be like soldiers who don't come back from war with their hands empty.
- 10 The enemy will take all the wealth from the Chaldeans. The soldiers will take all they want." This is what the LORD said.
- 11 "Babylon, you are excited and happy. You took my land. You dance around like a young cow that got into the grain. Your laughter is like the happy sounds that horses make.
- 12 Now your mother will be very ashamed. The woman who gave you birth will be embarrassed. Babylon will be the least important of all the nations. She will be an empty, dry desert.
- 13 The LORD will show his anger, so no one will live there. Babylon will be completely empty. Everyone who passes by Babylon will be afraid. They will shake their heads when they see how badly it has been destroyed.
- 14 "Prepare for war against Babylon. All you soldiers with bows, shoot your arrows at Babylon. Don't save any of your arrows. Babylon has sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Soldiers around Babylon, shout the cry of victory! Babylon has surrendered! Her walls and towers have been pulled down! The LORD is giving her people the punishment they deserve. You nations should give Babylon the punishment she deserves. Do to her what she has done to other nations.
- 16 Don't let the people from Babylon plant their crops. Don't let them gather the harvest. The soldiers of Babylon brought many prisoners to their city.

Now the enemy soldiers have come,
so the prisoners are going back home.
They are running back to their own countries.

17 "Israel is like a flock of sheep
that was scattered all over the country.
Israel is like sheep that were chased away
by lions.

The first lion to attack
was the king of Assyria.

The last lion to crush Israel's bones was King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

18 So this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says:

'I will soon punish the king of Babylon and his country
as I punished the king of Assyria.

19 "I will bring Israel back to his own fields.
He will eat food that grows on Mount Carmel and in the land of Bashan.

He will eat and be full.

He will eat on the hills in the lands of Ephraim* and Gilead."

20 The LORD says, "At that time people will try hard to find Israel's guilt,
but there will be no guilt.
People will try to find Judah's sins,
but no sins will be found.
That is because I am saving a few survivors* from Israel and Judah.
And I am forgiving them for all their sins."

21 The LORD says, "Attack the country of Merathaim!
Attack the people living in Pekod!
Attack them!
Kill them and destroy them completely!
Do everything I commanded you!

22 "The noise of battle can be heard all over the country.
It is the noise of much destruction.

23 Babylon was called
'The Hammer of the Whole Earth.'
But now the 'Hammer' is shattered.
Babylon is the most ruined of the
nations.

24 Babylon, I set a trap for you, and you were caught before you knew
it.

You fought against the LORD,
so you were found and captured.

25 The LORD has opened up his storeroom and brought out the weapons of his anger.
The LORD God All-Powerful brought out
those weapons,
because he has work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.*

26 "Come against Babylon from far away.
Break open the storehouses where she keeps her grain.

Destroy Babylon completely.
Don't leave anyone alive.
Pile up her dead bodies like big piles of grain.

27 Kill all the young men in Babylon.
Let them be slaughtered like bulls.
How terrible for them that their day of defeat has come!

It is time for them to be punished.

28 People are running out of Babylon.
They are escaping from that country and coming to Zion.

They are telling everyone the good news about what the Lord is doing.

The LORD our God is giving Babylon the punishment it deserves.

The Lord is destroying Babylon, because it destroyed his Temple!"

29 "Call for the archers.*
Tell them to attack Babylon.
Tell them to surround the city.
Don't let anyone escape.
Pay her back for the bad things she has done.

Do to her what she has done to other
nations.

Babylon did not respect the LORD.
Babylon was very rude to the Holy One of Israel.

So punish Babylon.

30 Babylon's young men will be killed in the streets.
All her soldiers will die on that day."
This is what the LORD says.

31 "Babylon, you are too proud, and I am against you,"
says the Lord God All-Powerful.

"I am against you,
and the time has come for you to be
punished.

32 Proud Babylon will stumble and fall,
and no one will help her get up.
I will start a fire in her towns.
That fire will completely burn up everyone around her."

33 This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
"The people of Israel and Judah are slaves.
The enemy took them, and the enemy will not let Israel go.

34 But God will get them back.
His name is the LORD God All-Powerful.
He will defend them very strongly.
He will argue their case so that he can let their land rest.

But there will be no rest for those living in Babylon."

35 The LORD says,
"Sword, kill the people living in Babylon.
Sword, kill the king's officials and the wise men of Babylon.

36 Sword, kill the priests of Babylon.

- They will be like fools.
Sword, kill the soldiers of Babylon.
They will be full of fear.
- 37 Sword, kill the horses and chariots* of Babylon.
Sword, kill all the soldiers hired from other countries.
They will be like frightened women.
Sword, destroy the treasures of Babylon.
Those treasures will be taken away.
- 38 Sword, strike the waters of Babylon.
Those waters will be dried up.
Babylon has many, many idols.
These idols show that the people of Babylon are foolish.
So bad things will happen to them.
- 39 Babylon will never again be filled with people.
Wild dogs, ostriches,* and other desert animals will live there.
But no one will live there ever again.
- 40 God completely destroyed Sodom* and Gomorrah*
and the towns around them.
In the same way no one will live in Babylon,
and no one will ever go to live there.
- 41 "Look! There are people coming from the north.
They come from a powerful nation.
Many kings are coming together from all around the world.
- 42 Their armies have bows and spears.
The soldiers are cruel.
They have no mercy.
The soldiers come riding on their horses;
the sound is as loud as the roaring sea.
They stand in their places, ready for battle.
They are ready to attack you, city of Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon heard about those armies, and he is paralyzed with fear.
He is overcome with fear and pain,
like a woman giving birth.
- 44 "Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River.
It will walk into the fields where people have their animals.
I will be like that lion;
I will chase Babylon from its land.
Who should I choose to do this?
There is no one like me.
There is no one who can challenge me.
No shepherd will come to chase me away.
I will chase away the Babylonians."
- 45 Listen to what the LORD has planned to do to Babylon.
Listen to what he has decided to do to the Babylonians.

- "I promise that an enemy will drag away
the young kids of Babylon's flock, and Babylon will become an empty pasture.
- 46 Babylon will fall,
and that fall will shake the earth.
People in all nations will hear about the destruction of Babylon."
- 51 <sup>1</sup>The LORD says,
"I will cause a powerful, destructive wind to blow against Babylon and the Babylonians.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>2</sup> I will send foreigners to winnow<sup>b</sup>
Babylon,
and they will take everything from the city.
Armies will surround the city,
and there will be terrible destruction.
- <sup>3</sup> The Babylonian soldiers will not get to use their bows and arrows.
They will not even put on their armor.*
Don't feel sorry for the soldiers of Babylon.
Destroy her army completely!
- <sup>4</sup> Babylon's soldiers will be killed in the land of the Chaldeans.
They will be badly wounded in the streets of Babylon."
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD All-Powerful did not leave Israel and Judah alone, like a widow.
No, they are guilty
of leaving the Holy One of Israel.
They left him,
but he has not left them.
- <sup>6</sup> Run away from Babylon.
Run to save your lives!
Don't stay and be killed because of Babylon's sins!
It is time for the LORD to punish the Babylonians for the bad things they
have done.
Babylon will get the punishment that she should have.
- <sup>7</sup> Babylon was like a golden cup in the LORD's hand.
Babylon made the whole world drunk.
The nations drank Babylon's wine,
so they went crazy.
- <sup>8</sup> But Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.
Cry for her!
Get medicine for her pain,
and maybe she can be healed.

- 9 We tried to heal Babylon,
but she cannot be healed.
So let us leave her,
and let each of us go to our own
country.
God in heaven will decide Babylon's
punishment.
He will decide what will happen to Babylon.
- 10 The LORD got even for us.
Come, let's tell about that in Zion.*
Let's tell what the LORD our God has done.
- 11 Sharpen the arrows!
Get your shields!
The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes*
because he wants to destroy Babylon.
The army from Babylon destroyed his Temple in Jerusalem,
so he will give them the punishment
they deserve.
- 12 Lift up a flag against the walls of Babylon.
Bring more guards.
Put the watchmen in their places.
Get ready for a secret attack.
The LORD will do what he has planned.
He will do what he said he would do against the people of Babylon.
- 13 Babylon, you live near much water.
You are rich with treasures, but your end as a nation has come.
It is time for you to be destroyed.
- 14 The LORD All-Powerful used his name to make this promise:
"Babylon, I will fill you with so many enemy soldiers they will be like a cloud of locusts.*
They will win their war against you.
They will stand over you shouting their victory cry."
- 15 The LORD used his great power and made
the earth.
He used his wisdom to build the world and his understanding to stretch out the skies.
- 16 When he thunders, the waters in the skies roar.
He sends clouds all over the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings out the wind from his storehouses.
- 17 But people are so stupid.
They don't understand what God has
done.
Skilled workers make statues of false gods.
Those statues are only false gods.
They show how foolish those workers are.
Those statues are not alive.
- 18 Those idols* are worthless.
People made them, and they are nothing but a joke.
Their time of judgment will come,
and those idols will be destroyed.
- 19 But God, who is Jacob's* Portion, is not like those worthless statues.
People didn't make God;
God made his people.
He made everything.
His name is the LORD All-Powerful.
- 20 The LORD says, "Babylon, you are my club.
I used you to smash nations.
I used you to destroy kingdoms.
- 21 I used you to smash horse and rider.
I used you to smash chariot and driver.
- 22 I used you to smash men and women.
I used you to smash men, old and
young.
I used you to smash young men and young women.
- 23 I used you to smash shepherds and flocks.
I used you to smash farmers and oxen.
I used you to smash governors and important officials.
- 24 But I will repay Babylonia and all the Babylonians for all the evil things they did to Zion.
I will pay them back so that you can see it, Judah."
This is what the LORD said.
- 25 The LORD says,
"Babylon, you are like a volcano that destroys the whole country.
But I have turned against you,
and I will turn you into a burned-out
mountain.
- 26 People will not take stones from Babylon to use as the foundation of a building.
That is because they will not find any stones big enough for cornerstones.
Your city will be a pile of broken rocks
forever."
This is what the LORD said.
- 27 "Lift up the war flag in the land!
Blow the trumpet in all the nations!
Prepare the nations for war against Babylon.
Call these kingdoms to come fight against Babylon:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Choose a commander to lead the army against her.
Send so many horses that they are like a swarm of locusts.
- 28 Get the nations ready for battle against her.
Get the kings of the Medes ready.
Get their governors and all their important officials ready.
Get all the countries they rule ready for battle against Babylon.
- 29 The land shakes and moves like it is in pain.
It will shake when the LORD does what he planned to Babylon.

- The LORD's plan is to make the land of Babylon into an empty desert.
No one will live there.
- 30 Babylon's soldiers have stopped fighting.
They stay in their forts.
Their strength is gone.
They have become like frightened
women.
Babylon's houses are burning.
The bars of her gates are broken.
- 31 One messenger follows another.
Messenger follows messenger.
They announce to the king of Babylon that his whole city has been captured.
- 32 The places where people cross the rivers have been captured.
The swamplands are burning.
All of Babylon's soldiers are afraid."
- 33 This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:
"Babylon is like a threshing* floor,
where people beat the grain at harvest
time.
And the time to beat Babylon is coming soon.
- 34 "King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon destroyed us in the past.
In the past he hurt us.
In the past he took our people away,
and we became like an empty jar.
He took the best we had.
He was like a giant monster that ate everything until it was full.
He took the best we had
and then threw us away.
- 35 Babylon did terrible things to hurt us.
Now I want those things to happen to Babylon."
- The people living in Zion said,
"The people of Babylon are guilty of killing our people.
Now they are being punished for the
bad things they did."
The city of Jerusalem said those things.
- 36 So this is what the LORD says:
"I will defend you, Judah.
I will make sure that Babylon is
punished.
I will dry up Babylon's sea.
And I will make her water springs become dry.
- 37 Babylon will become a pile of ruined
buildings,
a place fit only for wild dogs.
People will be shocked and shake their heads at what is left there.
It will be a place where no one lives.
- 38 "The people of Babylon are like roaring young lions.
They growl like baby lions.
- 39 They are acting like powerful lions.
I will give a party for them.
I will make them drunk.
They will laugh and have a good time,
and then they will sleep forever.
They will never wake up."
- This is what the LORD said.
- 40 "Babylon will be like sheep, rams, and goats waiting to be killed.
I will lead them to the slaughter.
- 41 "Sheshach<sup>a</sup> will be defeated.
The best and proudest country of the whole earth will be taken captive.
People from other nations will look at Babylon,
and what they see will make them
afraid.
- 42 The sea will rise over Babylon.
Its roaring waves will cover her.
- 43 Babylon will be like a dry, desert land.
Its cities will be empty ruins.
No one will live in those cities.
No one will even travel through them.
- 44 I will punish the false god Bel in Babylon.
I will make him vomit out the people he swallowed.
The wall around Babylon will fall,
and other nations will stop coming to Babylon.
- 45 Come out of the city of Babylon, my
people.
Run to save your lives.
Run from the LORD's great anger.
- 46 "Don't be sad, my people.
Rumors will spread, but don't be afraid.
One rumor comes this year.
Another rumor will come next year.
There will be rumors about terrible fighting in the country.
There will be rumors about rulers fighting against other rulers.
- 47 The time will surely come when I will punish the false gods of Babylon,
and the whole land of Babylon will be put to shame.
There will be many dead people,
lying in the streets of that city.
- 48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in
them
will shout with joy about Babylon.
They will shout because an army came from the north and fought against Babylon."
This is what the LORD said.
- 49 "Babylon killed people from Israel.
Babylon killed people from every place on earth.
So Babylon must fall!

<sup>a</sup>51:41 Sheshach Jeremiah used a special code to create this secret name for Babylon.

- <sup>50</sup> You people escaped the swords.
You must hurry and leave Babylon.
Don't wait!
You are in a faraway land, but remember the LORD where you are and remember Jerusalem."
- <sup>51</sup> "We people of Judah are ashamed.
We have been insulted,
because strangers have gone into the holy places of the LORD's Temple."
- <sup>52</sup> The LORD says, "The time is coming,
when I will punish the idols of Babylon.
At that time wounded people will cry with pain everywhere in that country.
- <sup>53</sup> Babylon might grow until she touches the sky.
Babylon might make her forts strong, but I will send people to fight against that city.
And they will destroy her."
This is what the LORD said.
- <sup>54</sup> "We can hear people crying in Babylon.
We hear the sound of people destroying things in the land of Babylon.
- <sup>55</sup> The LORD will destroy Babylon very soon.
He will stop the loud noises in that city.
Enemies will come roaring in like ocean waves.
People all around will hear that roar.
- <sup>56</sup> The army will come and destroy Babylon.
Its soldiers will be captured, and their bows will be broken,
This will happen because the LORD punishes people for the bad things they do.
He gives them the full punishment
they deserve.
- <sup>57</sup> I will make Babylon's wise men and important officials drunk.
I will make the governors, officers,
and soldiers drunk too.
Then they will sleep forever.
They will never wake up."
This is what the King said.
His name is the LORD All-Powerful.
- <sup>58</sup> This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
"Babylon's thick, strong wall will be pulled down.
Her high gates will be burned.
The people of Babylon will work hard,
but it will not help.
They will get very tired
trying to save the city.
But they will only be fuel for the flames."

Jeremiah Sends a Message to Babylon

<sup>59</sup>This is the message that Jeremiah gave to the officer Seraiah<sup>a</sup> son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. Seraiah went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah. This happened in the fourth year that Zedekiah<sup>b</sup> was king of Judah. At that time Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah, the officer. <sup>60</sup>Jeremiah had written on a scroll* all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. He had written all these things about Babylon.

<sup>61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "Seraiah, go to Babylon. Be sure to read this message so that all the people can hear you. <sup>62</sup>Then say, 'LORD, you have said that you will destroy this place, Babylon. You will destroy it so that no people or animals will live in it. This place will be an empty ruin forever.' <sup>63</sup>After you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates River. <sup>64</sup>Then say, 'In the same way Babylon will sink. Babylon will rise no more. It will sink because of the terrible things that I will make happen here.'"

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. He ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah.<sup>c</sup> Hamutal's family was from the town of Lib-
nah. <sup>2</sup>Zedekiah did evil things, just as King Jehoiakim had done. The LORD did not like Zedekiah doing those evil things. <sup>3</sup>Terrible things happened to the people of Jerusalem and Judah because the LORD was angry with them. Finally, he threw them out of his presence.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month,<sup>d</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. The army of Babylon set up their camp outside of Jerusalem. Then they built ramps all around the city walls so that they could get over the walls.
<sup>5</sup>The city of Jerusalem was surrounded by the army of Babylon until the eleventh year that Zedekiah<sup>e</sup> was king. <sup>6</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month of that year, the hunger in the city was very bad. There was no food left for the people in the city to eat. <sup>7</sup>On that day the army of Babylon broke into Jerusalem.
The soldiers of Jerusalem ran away. They left the city at night. They went through the gate between the two walls. That gate was near the king's garden. Even though the army of Babylon had surrounded the city, the soldiers of Jerusalem still ran away toward the desert.

<sup>b</sup>51:59 the fourth year ... Zedekiah That is,
594–593 B.C.

but a different man with the same name.

588 B.C.

Jeremiah's secretary.

<sup>8</sup>But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah and caught him on the plains of Jericho. All of Zedekiah's soldiers ran away. <sup>9</sup>The army of Babylon captured King Zedekiah and took him to the king of Babylon who was at the city of Riblah, in the land of Hamath. At Riblah the king of Babylon announced his judgment on King Zedekiah. <sup>10</sup>There at the town of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons while Zedekiah watched. The king of Babylon also killed all the royal officials of Judah. <sup>11</sup>Then the king of Babylon tore out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on him and took him to Babylon. In Babylon he put Zedekiah into prison. He stayed in prison until the day he died.

<sup>17</sup>The Babylonian army broke up the bronze columns of the LORD's Temple. They also broke up the stands and the bronze tank<sup>c</sup> that were in the LORD's Temple. They carried all that bronze to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>The army of Babylon also took these things from the Temple: pots, shovels, lamp snuffers,* large bowls, pans, and all the bronze things that were used in the Temple service. <sup>19</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took these things away: basins, firepans,* large bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and bowls used for drink offerings. He took everything that was made of gold or silver. <sup>20</sup>The two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the moveable stands were very heavy. King Solomon had made those things for the LORD's Temple. The bronze that those things were made of was so heavy it could not be weighed.

<sup>24</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took Seraiah the high priest and Zephaniah the next highest priest as prisoners. The three doorkeepers were also taken as prisoners. <sup>25</sup>The commander of the king's special guards also took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took seven of the king's advisors as prisoners. They were still there in Jerusalem. He also took the scribe* who was in charge of putting people in the army. And he took 60 of the ordinary people who were there in the city. <sup>26-27</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all these officials and brought them to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon was at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the country of Hamath. There at the city of Riblah, the king ordered all of them to be killed.

So the people of Judah were taken from their country. <sup>28</sup>This is how many people Nebuchadnezzar carried into captivity:

In Nebuchadnezzar's 7th year<sup>h</sup> as king of Babylon, 3023 people were taken from Judah.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

<sup>31</sup>King Jehoiachin of Judah was in prison in Babylon for 37 years. In the 37th year of his imprisonment,<sup>k</sup> King Evil Merodach of Babylon was very kind to Jehoiachin. He let Jehoiachin out of prison in that year. This was the same year that Evil Merodach became king of Babylon. He set Jehoiachin free from prison on the 25th day of the 12th month. <sup>32</sup>Evil Merodach spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a place of honor higher than the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>So Jehoiachin took his prison clothes off. For the rest of his life, he ate regularly at the king's table. <sup>34</sup>Every day the king of Babylon paid Jehoiachin enough to take care of his needs until the day Jehoiachin died.

Lamentations

Jerusalem Cries Over Her Destruction

1 Jerusalem once was a city full of people, but now the city is so empty.

Jerusalem was one of the greatest cities in the world,

but now she<sup>a</sup> has become like a widow.
She was once a princess among cities,
but now she has been made a slave.

2 She cries bitterly in the night.

Her tears are on her cheeks.

She has no one to comfort her.

Many nations were friendly to her,
but not one of them comforts her now.
All her friends have turned their backs on
her
and have become her enemies.

3 Judah suffered very much,
and then she was taken into captivity.
She lives among other nations
but has found no rest.

The people who chased her caught her where there was no way out.<sup>b</sup>

4 The roads to Zion* are very sad, because no one comes to Zion for the festivals anymore.

All of Zion's gates have been destroyed;
all her priests groan in sorrow.

Zion's young women have been taken away,<sup>c</sup>
and all this made Zion sad.

5 Jerusalem's enemies have won.

Her enemies have been successful.

This happened because the LORD punished her.

He punished Jerusalem for her many sins.

Her children have gone away.

Their enemies captured them and took them away.

6 The beauty of Daughter Zion<sup>d</sup>

has gone away.

Her princes were like deer that cannot find a meadow to feed in.
They walk away without strength from those who chased them.

7 Jerusalem thinks back.

She remembers the time when she was hurt

and when she lost her home.

She remembers all the nice things that she had in the past.

She remembers those nice things that she had in the old days.

She remembers when her people were captured by the enemy.

She remembers when there was no one to help her.

When her enemies saw her, they laughed,
because she was destroyed.

8 Jerusalem sinned very badly.

Because Jerusalem sinned,
she became a ruined city that people shake their heads about.

In the past people respected her.

But now they hate her,
because they abused her.

Jerusalem groaned and turned away.

9 Jerusalem's skirts were dirty.

She gave no thought to what would become of her.

Her fall was amazing.

She had no one to comfort her.

She says, "LORD, see how I am hurt!
See how my enemy thinks he is so great!"

10 The enemy stretched out his hand.

He took all her nice things.

In fact, she saw the foreign nations go inside her Temple.*

And, LORD, you said those people could not join in our assembly!

11 All the people of Jerusalem are groaning.

All of her people are looking for food.

They are giving away all their nice things for food to stay alive.

Jerusalem says, "Look, LORD. Look at me!
See how people hate me.

- 12 All you who pass by on the road,
you don't seem to care.
But look at me and see.
Is there any pain like my pain?
Is there any pain like the pain that has come to me?
Is there any pain like the pain that the LORD has punished me with?
He has punished me on the day
of his great anger.
- 13 The LORD sent fire from above that went down into my bones.
He stretched out a net for my feet.
He turned me all the way around.
He made me into a wasteland.
I am sick all day.
- 14 "My sins were tied up like a yoke.*
My sins were tied up in the LORD's
hands.
His yoke is on my neck.
He has made me weak.
He has given me to those who I cannot stand up against.
- 15 "The LORD rejected all my powerful men who were inside the city.
Then he brought a group of people against
me.
He brought them to kill my young soldiers.
The LORD has trampled his dearest city<sup>a</sup>
like grapes in a winepress.
- 16 "I cry about all these things.
Tears are flowing down my cheeks.
There is no one near to comfort me.
There is no one who can make me feel better.
My children are like a wasteland,
because the enemy won."
- 17 Zion spread out her hands.
There was no one to comfort her.
The LORD had given orders to Jacob's*
enemies.
He ordered them to surround the city.
Jerusalem has become a dirty rag that her enemies threw away.
- 18 Now Jerusalem says, "I refused to listen to the LORD,
so he is right for doing these things.
So listen, all you people!
Look at my pain!
My young women and men
have gone into captivity.
- 19 I called out to my lovers,
but they tricked me.
My priests and my elders
have died in the city.
They were looking for food for themselves.
They wanted to keep themselves alive.

<sup>a</sup>1:15 dearest city Literally, "virgin daughter Judah," a name for the city of Jerusalem.

- 20 "Look at me, LORD. I am in distress!
I am upset, as if my heart turned upside down inside of me.
I feel this way because
I have been so stubborn.
Out in the streets,
I lost my children to the swords.
Inside, it is like death.
- 21 "Listen to me, I am groaning.
I have no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
They are happy that you did this to me.
You said there would be a time of
punishment.
You said you would punish my enemies.
Now do what you said.
Let my enemies be like I am now.
- 22 "Look how evil my enemies are!
Then you can treat them
the same way you treated me because of all my sins.
Do this because I am groaning again and
again.
Do this because my heart is sick."

The Lord Destroyed Jerusalem

- 2 <sup>1</sup>Look how the LORD has covered daughter Zion<sup>b</sup> with the cloud of his anger.
He has thrown her, the glory of Israel,*
from the sky to the ground.
In his anger he showed no care even for the Temple where he rests his feet.<sup>c</sup>
- 2 The LORD destroyed the houses of Jacob.*
He destroyed them without mercy.
In his anger he destroyed
the fortresses of Daughter Judah.
He threw the kingdom of Judah and its rulers to the ground.
He ruined the kingdom of Judah.
- 3 He was angry, and he destroyed
all the strength of Israel.
He took away his right hand from Israel.
He did this when the enemy came.
He burned like a flaming fire in Jacob.
He was like a fire that burns all around.
- 4 He bent his bow like an enemy.
He held his sword in his right hand.
He killed all the good-looking men of Judah.
He killed them as if they were the enemy.
He poured out his anger
like a fire on the tents of Zion.
- 5 The LORD has become like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.

<sup>b</sup>2:1 daughter Zion The city of Jerusalem pictured as a young woman. Similar language is used in verses 8, 13, 15, and 18. See "Zion" in the Word List.
<sup>c</sup>2:1 Temple ... feet Literally, "the footstool of his feet," meaning the place God lived among his
people.

- He has swallowed up all her palaces and all her fortresses.
He has made much sadness and crying for the dead in Daughter Judah.
- 6 He pulled up his own tent<sup>a</sup>
as if it were a garden.
He has ruined the place where the people came together to worship him.
The LORD has made people forget the special assemblies and special days of rest<sup>b</sup> in Zion.
He rejected the king and the priests.
He was angry and rejected them.
- 7 He rejected his altar,
and he left his holy place of worship.
He let the enemy pull down the walls of the palaces of Jerusalem.
The enemy shouted with joy in the LORD's Temple.*
They made noise as though it were a festival.
- 8 The LORD planned to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion.
He marked the wall with a measuring line.
He didn't stop himself from destroying
it.
He made all the walls cry out in sadness.
Together they wasted away.
- 9 Jerusalem's gates have sunk into the ground.
The bars on her gates are completely
destroyed.
Her king and princes have been taken to
other nations.
The teaching of the law has stopped.
And her prophets no longer receive visions* from the LORD.
- 10 The elders of Zion* sit on the ground.
They sit on the ground and are quiet.
They pour dust on their heads.
They put on sackcloth.*
The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground in sorrow.
- 11 My eyes are worn out with tears,
and my insides are upset.
My heart feels like it has been poured on
the ground;
I feel this way because of the destruction of my people.
Children and babies are fainting
in the public squares of the city.
- 12 They ask their mothers,
"Where is the bread and wine?"

- as they pour out their life in their mother's laps.
- 13 My dear Jerusalem, what can I say about
you?
What can I compare you to?
What can I say you are like?
How can I comfort you, city of Zion?
You have been hurt much too badly for anyone to heal.
- 14 Your prophets saw visions for you,
but their visions were only worthless lies.
They didn't speak against your sins.
They didn't try to make things better.
They spoke messages for you,
but they were false messages that fooled
you.
- 15 Those who pass by on the road
clap their hands and laugh at you.
They make fun of Jerusalem,
shaking their heads at the sight of her.
They ask, "Is this the city that people called
'The Most Beautiful City' and 'The Joy of all the Earth'?"
- 16 All your enemies laugh at you.
They whistle and grind their teeth at
you.
They say, "We have swallowed them up!
This is the day we were hoping for.
We have finally seen this happen!"
- 17 The LORD did what he planned to do.
He did what he said he would do.
He did what he commanded a long time
ago.
He destroyed, and he had no pity.
He made your enemies happy because of what happened to you.
He made your enemies strong.
- 18 Cry out with all your heart<sup>c</sup> to the Lord!
Jerusalem, let tears roll down your walls.
Let your tears flow like a stream day and night.
Don't stop crying
or let your eyes dry.
- 19 Get up and cry throughout the night.
Pour out your heart as if it were water.
Pour out your heart before the Lord.
Lift up your hands in prayer to the Lord.
Ask him to let your starving children
live.
They are fainting with hunger in all the streets of the city.

<sup>b</sup>2:6 special days of rest Or "Sabbaths." This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all the special days when the people were not supposed to work.

Have you ever treated anyone else so badly?

Is it right for women to eat their own babies, the children they have cared
for?

Should priests and prophets be killed in the Temple of the Lord?

21 Young men and old men lie on the ground in the streets of the city.

My young women and young men have been killed by the sword.

You killed them on the day of your anger.
You killed them without mercy!

22 You invited terror to come to me from all around.

You invited terror as though you were inviting it to a festival.

No one escaped
on the day of the LORD's anger.
My enemy killed the people who I raised and brought up.

The Meaning of Suffering

3 I am a man who has seen much trouble.
The LORD beat us with a stick,
and I saw it happen.

2 He led and brought me into darkness, not light.

3 He turned his hand against me.
He did this again and again, all day.

4 He wore out my flesh and skin.
He broke my bones.

5 He built up bitterness and trouble against
me.
He surrounded me with bitterness and trouble.

6 He put me in the dark,
like someone who died long ago.

7 He shut me in, so I could not get out.
He put heavy chains on me.

8 Even when I cry out and ask for help,
he does not listen to my prayer.

9 He has blocked up my path with stones.
He has made my path crooked.

10 He is like a bear about to attack me, like a lion that is in a hiding place.

11 He led me off my path.
He tore me to pieces and ruined me.

12 He made his bow ready.
He made me the target for his arrows.

13 He shot me in the stomach with his arrows.

14 I have become a joke to all my people.
All day long they sing songs about me
and make fun of me.

15 The LORD gave me this poison to drink.
He filled me with this bitter drink.

16 He pushed my teeth into rocky ground.
He pushed me into the dirt.

17 I thought I would never have peace
again.
I forgot about good things.

18 I said to myself,
"I no longer have any hope that the LORD will help me."

19 LORD, remember, I am very sad, and I have no home.
Remember the bitter poison that you gave
me.

20 I remember well all my troubles,
and I am very sad.

21 But then I think about this,
and I have hope:

22 We are still alive because the LORD's faithful love never ends.

23 Every morning he shows it in new ways!
LORD, you are so very true and loyal!

24 I say to myself, "The LORD is my God, and I trust him."<sup>a</sup>

25 The LORD is good to those who wait for
him.

He is good to those who look for him.

26 It is good to wait quietly for the LORD to save them.

27 It is good for a man to wear his yoke*
from the time he is young.

28 He should sit alone and be quiet
when the LORD puts his yoke on him.

29 He should bow down to the LORD.
Maybe there is still hope.

30 He should turn his cheek to the one who hits him
and let people insult him.

31 He should remember that the Lord does not reject people forever.

32 When he punishes,
he also has mercy.
He has mercy because of his great love and kindness.

33 He does not enjoy causing people pain.
He does not like to make anyone unhappy.

34 He does not like any prisoner on earth to be trampled down.

35 He does not like anyone to be unfair to another person.
Some people will do such things right in front of God Most High.

36 He does not like anyone to cheat another person.

He does not like any of these things.

37 No one can say something and make it happen,
unless the Lord orders it.

38 God Most High commands
both good and bad things to happen.

39 No one alive can complain
when he punishes them for their sins.

40 Let us check and see what we have done.
Then let us turn back to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to the God of heaven.

<sup>a</sup>3:24 The LORD ... him Or "The LORD is my portion and I trust him.

- 42 Let us say to him, "We have sinned and have been stubborn.
Because of this, you have not forgiven us.
- 43 You wrapped yourself with anger.
You chased us.
You killed us without mercy!
- 44 You wrapped yourself in a cloud
so that no prayer could get through.
- 45 You made us like garbage and dirt to the other nations.
- 46 All of our enemies
speak angrily against us.
- 47 We have been frightened.
We have fallen into a pit.
We have been badly hurt.
We have been broken."
- 48 My eyes flow with streams of tears.
I cry because of the destruction of my people.
- 49 My eyes will flow without stopping.
I will keep on crying.
- 50 I will continue to cry
until you look down and see us, LORD!
I will continue to cry
until you see us from heaven.
- 51 My eyes make me sad, when I see what happened to the young women in my city.
- 52 For no reason, my enemies hunted me like a bird.
- 53 They threw me alive into a pit and then threw stones at me.
- 54 Water came up over my head.
I said to myself, "I am finished."
- 55 LORD, I called your name from the bottom of the pit.
- 56 You heard my voice.
You didn't close your ears.
You didn't refuse to rescue me.
- 57 You came to me on the day that I called out to you.
You said to me, "Don't be afraid."
- 58 You defended me
and bought me back to life.
- 59 LORD, you have seen my trouble.
Now judge my case for me.
- 60 You have seen how my enemies have hurt me.
You have seen all the evil plans that they made against me.
- 61 You heard them insult me, LORD.
You have heard all the evil plans that they made against me.
- 62 The words and the thoughts of my
enemies
are against me all the time—when they sit down and when they stand up.
Look how they make fun of me!
- 64 Give them back what they deserve, LORD.
Pay them back for what they have
done.
- 65 Make them stubborn
and then curse them.

- 66 Chase them in anger and destroy them.
Wipe them off the face of the earth,
LORD!

The Horrors of the Attack on Jerusalem

- 4 <sup>1</sup>See how the gold has grown dark,
how the pure gold has changed.
There are jewels<sup>a</sup> scattered all around at every street corner.
- <sup>2</sup> The people of Zion* were worth a lot.
They were worth their weight in gold.
But now the enemy treats them like old clay jars.
The enemy treats them
like clay jars made by a potter.
- <sup>3</sup> Even a wild dog feeds her babies.
Even the jackal lets her pups suck at her breast.
But the daughter of my people<sup>b</sup> is cruel.
She is like the ostrich* in the desert that forgets its eggs in the sand.
- <sup>4</sup> Babies are so thirsty their tongues stick to the roof of their mouths.
Young children ask for bread,
but no one gives them any.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who ate rich food are now dying in the streets.
Those who grew up wearing nice red clothes
now pick through garbage piles.
- <sup>6</sup> The sin of the daughter of my people was very great.
Their sin was greater than the sins of Sodom* and Gomorrah.*
Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed suddenly.
No human hand caused their destruction.<sup>c</sup>
- <sup>7</sup> Some of the men of Judah were dedicated* to God in a special way.
They were very pure.
They were whiter than snow,
and whiter than milk.
Their bodies were red like coral and their beards like sapphire stones.
- <sup>8</sup> But now their faces are blacker than soot.
No one even recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin is wrinkled over their bones.
Their skin is like wood.
- <sup>9</sup> It was better for those who were killed by the sword
than for those who died of hunger.
Those starving people were sad and hurt.
They died because they got no food from the field.

<sup>b</sup>4:3 daughter of my people Another name for Jerusalem. Also in verse 6.

- 10 Then even nice women cooked their own children.
The children were food
for their mothers.
This happened when my people were destroyed.
- 11 The LORD used all of his anger.
He poured out all his anger.
He made a fire in Zion
that burned it down to the foundations.
- 12 The kings of the earth could not believe
what had happened.
The people of the world could not believe
what had happened.
They could not believe that enemies would be able to come through the city gates of Jerusalem.
- 13 This happened because the prophets of Jerusalem sinned.
This happened because the priests of Jerusalem did evil things.
They were shedding the blood of good
people
in the city of Jerusalem.
- 14 The prophets and priests walked around like blind men in the streets.
They had become dirty with blood.
No one could even touch their clothes
because they were dirty.
- 15 People shouted, "Go away!
Go away! Don't touch us."
They wandered around and had no home.
People in other nations said,
"We don't want them to live with us."
- 16 The LORD himself destroyed them.
He didn't look after them anymore.
He didn't respect the priests.
He was not friendly to the elders* of Judah.
- 17 We have worn out our eyes looking for
help,
but no help comes.
We kept on looking for a nation to save
us.
We kept watch from our watchtower,
but no nation came to us.
- 18 Our enemies hunted us all the time.
We could not even go out into the streets.
Our end came near. Our time was up.
Our end came!
- 19 The men who chased us were faster than eagles in the sky.
They chased us into the mountains.
They hid in the desert to catch us.
- 20 The king was very important to us.
He was like the breath we breathe,
but he was trapped by them.
The LORD himself chose the king, and we said this about the king,
"We will live in his shadow.
He protects us from the nations."
- 21 Be happy, people of Edom.
Be happy, you who live in the land of Uz.

But remember, the cup of the Lord's anger will come around to you too.
When you drink from that cup, you will get drunk and strip off all your clothes.

- 22 Your punishment is complete, Zion.
You will not go into captivity again.
But the LORD will punish your sins, people of Edom.
He will uncover your sins.

A Prayer to the Lord

- 5<sup>1</sup> Remember, LORD, what happened to us.
Look and see our shame.
- 2 Our land has been turned over to strangers.
Our houses have been given to foreigners.
- 3 We have become orphans.
We have no father.
Our mothers have become like widows.
- 4 We have to buy the water that we drink.
We have to pay for the wood that we use.
- 5 We are forced to wear a yoke* on our necks.
We get tired, and we have no rest.
- 6 We made an agreement with Egypt.
We also made an agreement with Assyria* to get enough bread.
- 7 Our ancestors sinned against you, and now they are dead.
And we are suffering because of their
sins.
- 8 Slaves have become our rulers.
No one can save us from them.
- 9 We risk our lives to get food.
There are men in the desert with
swords.
- 10 Our skin is hot like an oven.
We have a high fever because of our hunger.
- 11 The enemy raped the women of Zion.*
They raped the women in the cities of Judah.
- 12 The enemy hanged our princes.
They didn't honor our elders.
- 13 The enemy made our young men grind grain at the mill.
Our young men stumbled
under loads of wood.
- 14 The elders no longer sit at the gates of the city.
The young men no longer make music.
- 15 We have no more joy in our hearts.
Our dancing has changed to crying for the dead.
- 16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Things have gone bad for us because we
sinned.
- 17 For this reason our hearts have become sick,
and our eyes cannot see clearly.
- 18 Mount Zion is a wasteland.
Foxes run around on Mount Zion.

- <sup>19</sup> But you rule forever, LORD.
Your kingly chair lasts forever and ever.
<sup>20</sup> You seem to have forgotten us forever.
You seem to have left us alone for such a long time.

- <sup>21</sup> Bring us back to you, LORD.
We will gladly come back to you.
Make our lives as they were before.
<sup>22</sup> You were very angry with us.
Have you completely rejected us?

Ezekiel

Introduction

1 <sup>1-3</sup>I am the priest, Ezekiel son of Buzzi. I was in exile* by the Kebar Canal in Babylon<sup>a</sup> when the skies opened up, and I saw visions* of God. This was on the fifth day of the fourth month of the thirtieth year.<sup>a</sup> (This was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile. The word of the LORD came to Ezekiel. The power of the LORD came over him at that place.)

The Chariot of the Lord—God's Throne

<sup>4</sup>I was watching a big storm come in from the north. It was a big cloud with a strong wind, and there was fire flashing from it. Light was shining out all around it. It looked like hot metal<sup>b</sup> glowing in a fire. <sup>5</sup>Inside the cloud, there were four living beings that looked like people. <sup>6</sup>But each one of them had four faces and four wings. <sup>7</sup>Their legs were straight. Their feet looked like calves' feet, and they sparkled like polished brass. <sup>8</sup>Under their wings were human arms. There were four living beings. Each living being had four faces and four wings. <sup>9</sup>The wings touched each other. The living beings did not turn when they moved. They went in the direction they were looking.

<sup>10</sup>Each living being had four faces. In the front they each had a man's face. There was a lion's face on the right side and a bull's face on the left side. There was an eagle's face on the back. <sup>11</sup>Their wings were spread out over them. With two of the wings each living being reached out to touch the one near it, and with the other two wings it covered its body. <sup>12</sup>Each living being went in the direction it was looking. They went wherever the spirit<sup>c</sup> caused them to go, but they did not turn when they moved. <sup>13</sup>That is what the living beings looked like.

Inside the area between the living beings,

there was something that looked like burning coals of fire. This fire was like small torches that kept moving around among the living beings. The fire glowed brightly and lightning flashed from it. <sup>14</sup>The living beings ran back and forth—as fast as lightning.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>15-16</sup>I was looking at the living beings when I noticed four wheels that touched the ground. There was one wheel by each living being. All the wheels looked the same. The wheels looked as if they were made from a clear, yellow jewel. They looked like there was a wheel inside a wheel. <sup>17</sup>They could turn to move in any direction. [But the living beings] did not turn when they moved.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>The rims of the wheels were tall and frightening. There were eyes all over the rims of all four wheels.

<sup>19</sup>The wheels always moved with the living beings. If the living beings went up into the air, the wheels went with them. <sup>20</sup>They went wherever the spirit wanted them to go, and the wheels went with them, because the power that moved the living being was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>So if the living beings moved, the wheels moved. If the living beings stopped, the wheels stopped. If the wheels went into the air, the living beings went with them, because the spirit was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup>There was an amazing thing over the heads of the living beings. It was like a bowl<sup>f</sup> turned upside down, and the bowl was clear like crystal. <sup>23</sup>Under this bowl, each living being had wings reaching out to the one next to it. Two wings spread out one way and two wings spread out the other way, covering its body.

<sup>24</sup>Then I heard the wings. Every time the living beings moved, their wings made a very loud noise like a lot of water rushing by. They were loud like [the Lord,] All-Powerful. They were as loud as an army or a crowd of people.

<sup>b</sup>1:4 hot metal The Hebrew word might mean "melted copper," "an alloy of gold and silver," or "amber." Also in verse 27.

<sup>e</sup>1:17 The wheels ... moved Or "The wheels could move in any four directions, but they did not turn when they moved."

<sup>f</sup>1:22 bowl This Hebrew word is the same word used in Gen. 1:6-7 to describe the dome of the sky.

When the living beings stopped moving, they put their wings down by their side.

<sup>25</sup>The living beings stopped moving and lowered their wings. Then there was another loud sound that came from above the bowl over their heads. <sup>26</sup>There was something that looked like a throne on top of the bowl. It was blue like sapphire. There was also something that looked like a man sitting on the throne. <sup>27</sup>I looked at him from his waist up. He looked like hot metal with fire all around him. I looked at him from his waist down. It looked like fire with a glow that was shining all around him. <sup>28</sup>The light shining around him was like a rainbow in a cloud. It was the Glory of the LORD.* As soon as I saw that, I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face to the ground, and then I heard a voice speaking to me.

The Lord Speaks to Ezekiel

2 <sup>1</sup>The voice said, “Son of man,<sup>a</sup> stand up and I will speak with you.”

<sup>2</sup>Then the Spirit came into me<sup>b</sup> and lifted me up on my feet, and I listened to the one who spoke to me. <sup>3</sup>He said, “Son of man, I am sending you to speak to the family of Israel. Those people and their ancestors turned against me many times. They have sinned against me many times—and they are still sinning against me today. <sup>4</sup>I am sending you to speak to them, but they are very stubborn. They are very hardheaded, but you must speak to them. You must say, ‘This is what the Lord God says.’ <sup>5</sup>They are a rebellious people, so they may not listen to you and stop sinning, but at least they will know that there is a prophet* living among them.

<sup>6</sup>“Son of man, don’t be afraid of the people or what they say. It is true: they will turn against you and try to hurt you. Their words will be sharp like thorns and will sting like scorpions. But don’t be afraid of what they say. They are a rebellious people, but don’t be afraid of them. <sup>7</sup>You must tell them what I say whether they listen and stop sinning or not. They are a rebellious people!

<sup>8</sup>“Son of man, you must listen to what I say to you. Don’t turn against me like those rebellious people. Open your mouth and accept the words I give you and then speak them to the people.<sup>c</sup> Eat these words.”

<sup>9</sup>Then I saw an arm reach out toward me. It was holding a scroll<sup>d</sup> with words written on it. <sup>10</sup>It rolled the scroll open in front of me. Words were on the front and on the back of the scroll. There were all kinds of sad songs, sad stories, and warnings.

<sup>a</sup>2:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel, as one the Lord chose to be his prophet. It is used in this sense throughout this book.

3 <sup>1</sup>God said to me, “Son of man,<sup>c</sup> eat what you see. Eat this scroll, and then go tell these things to the family of Israel.”

<sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth and he put the scroll into my mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then God said, “Son of man, I am giving you this scroll. Swallow it! Let that scroll fill your body.”

So I ate the scroll. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man, go to the family of Israel. Speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup>I am not sending you to some foreigners you cannot understand. You don’t have to learn another language. I am sending you to the family of Israel. <sup>6</sup>I am not sending you to many different countries where people speak languages you cannot understand. If you went to those people and spoke to them, they would listen to you. But you will not have to learn those hard languages. <sup>7</sup>No, I am sending you to the family of Israel. Only, these people have hard heads—they are very stubborn! And the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you. They don’t want to listen to me. <sup>8</sup>But I will make you just as stubborn as they are, and your head just as hard. <sup>9</sup>A diamond is harder than flint rock. In the same way you will be more stubborn than they are, and your head will be harder. Then you will not be afraid of them or those who always turn against me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man, listen to every word I say to you and remember them. <sup>11</sup>Then go to all of your people in exile* and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says ....’ They will not listen, and they will not stop sinning, but you must still tell them my message.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> lifted me up, and I heard a voice behind me. It was very loud, like thunder. It said, “Blessed is the Glory of the LORD!” <sup>13</sup>Then the wings of the living beings began moving. The wings made a very loud noise as they touched each other, and the wheels in front of them began making a noise as loud as thunder. <sup>14</sup>The Spirit lifted me and took me away. I was very sad and upset in my spirit, but I felt the LORD’s power in me. <sup>15</sup>I went to the people of Israel who were forced to live in Tel Aviv<sup>e</sup> by the Kebar Canal. I sat there among them for seven days, shocked and silent.

The Watchman of Israel

<sup>16</sup>After seven days, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, I am making you a watchman* for Israel. I will tell you about bad things that will happen to them, and you must warn Israel. <sup>18</sup>If I say, ‘These evil people will die!’ Then you must warn them. You must tell them to change their lives and stop doing evil. If you don't warn them, they will die because they sinned. But I will also make you responsible for their death, because you did not go to them and save their lives.

<sup>c</sup>3:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 3, 4, 10, 17, 25.

<sup>d</sup>3:12 Spirit Or “wind.” Also in verse 24.

<sup>19</sup>"If you warn them and tell them to change their lives and stop doing evil, but they refuse to listen, they will die because they sinned. But since you warned them, you will have saved your own life.

<sup>20</sup>"If good people stop being good and begin to do evil, and I send something that makes them stumble and sin, they will die because they sinned. But since you did not warn them and remind them of the good things they had done, I will make you responsible for their death.

<sup>21</sup>"But if you warn good people and tell them to stop sinning, and they listen to your warning and stop sinning, they will not die. In that way you will have saved your own life."

<sup>22</sup>The LORD's power came to me. He said to me, "Get up and go to the valley.<sup>a</sup> I will speak to you in that place."

<sup>23</sup>So I got up and went out to the valley. The Glory of the LORD<sup>b</sup> was there—as I had seen it by the Kedar Canal. So I bowed with my face to the ground. <sup>24</sup>But the Spirit came into me and lifted me up on my feet. He said to me, "Go home and lock yourself in your house. <sup>25</sup>Son of man, people will come with ropes and tie you up. They will not let you go out among the people. <sup>26</sup>I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth—you will not be able to talk. So they will not have anyone to teach them that they are doing wrong, because they are always turning against me. <sup>27</sup>But I will talk to you, and then I will allow you to speak. But you must say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says.' If a person wants to listen, fine. If a person refuses to listen, fine. But those people always turn against me.

Warnings About the Attack of Jerusalem

<sup>b</sup>4:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 16.

<sup>c</sup>4:2 battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.

In this way you will show that you are against it. You will surround the city and attack it. This is an example for the family of Israel to show that I will destroy Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>"Then you must lie down on your left side. You must do this thing that shows that you are taking the sins of the people of Israel on yourself. You will carry the guilt for as many days as you lie on your left side. <sup>5</sup>You must bear the guilt of Israel for 390 days.<sup>d</sup> In this way I am telling you how long Israel will be punished; one day equals one year.

<sup>6</sup>"After that time, you will lie on your right side for 40 days. This time you will bear the guilt of Judah for 40 days. One day equals one year. I am telling you how long Judah must be punished.

<sup>7</sup>"Now, roll up your sleeve and raise your arm over the brick. Act like you are attacking the city of Jerusalem. Do this to show that you are speaking as my messenger to the people. <sup>8</sup>Now look, I am tying ropes on you. You will not be able to roll over from one side to the other until your attack against the city<sup>e</sup> is finished.

<sup>9</sup>"You must get some grain to make bread. Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt.<sup>f</sup> Mix all these things together in one bowl and grind them to make flour. You will use this flour to make bread. You will eat only this bread during the 390 days that you lie on your side. <sup>10</sup>You will be allowed to use only 1 cup<sup>f</sup> of that flour each day to make bread. You will eat that bread from time to time throughout the day. <sup>11</sup>You can drink only 3 cups<sup>g</sup> of water each day. You can drink it from time to time throughout the day. <sup>12</sup>You must make your bread each day. You must get dry human dung and burn it. Then you must cook the bread over this burning dung. You must eat this bread in front of the people." <sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said, "This will show that the family of Israel will eat unclean<sup>h</sup> bread in foreign countries and that I am the one who forced them to leave Israel and go to those countries!"

<sup>14</sup>Then I said, "Oh, but Lord God, I have never eaten any unclean food. I have never eaten meat from an animal that died from a disease or from an animal that was killed by a wild animal. I have never eaten unclean meat—not from the time that I was a little baby until now. None of that bad meat ever entered my mouth."

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to me, "Very well, I will let you use dry cow dung to cook your bread. You don't have to use dry human dung."

<sup>16</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man, I am destroying Jerusalem’s supply of bread. People will have only a little bread to eat. They will be very worried about their food supply, and they will have only a little water to drink. Every time they take a drink, they will feel more afraid. <sup>17</sup>That is because there will not be enough food and water for everyone. They will be terrified as they watch each other wasting away because of their sins.

People of Jerusalem Scattered

5 <sup>1-2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> after your famine<sup>b</sup> you must do this: Take a sharp sword and use it like a barber’s razor. Shave off your hair and beard. Put the hair on a scale and weigh it. Separate it into three equal parts. Put a third of your hair on the brick that has the picture of the city on it. Burn that hair in that ‘city.’ Then use the sword and cut a third of your hair into small pieces all around the outside of the ‘city.’ Next, throw a third of your hair into the air and let the wind blow it away. This will show that I will pull out my sword and chase some of the people into faraway countries. <sup>3</sup>But then you must get a few of those hairs and wrap them up in your robe. <sup>4</sup>Take some of those hairs and throw them into the fire. This will show that a fire will start there and burn throughout the whole house of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So the Lord God says, “I will do this because you did not obey my laws and commands. You broke more of my laws than the people who lived around you, and you did what even they know is wrong!” <sup>8</sup>So the Lord God says, “So now, even I am against you! I will punish you while those other people watch. <sup>9</sup>I will do things to you that I have never done before. And I will never do those terrible things again, because you did so many terrible things. <sup>10</sup>People in Jerusalem will be so hungry that parents will eat their own children, and children will eat their own parents. I will punish you in many ways, and those who are left alive, I will scatter to the winds.”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord God says, “Jerusalem, I promise by my life that I will punish you! I promise that I will punish you, because you did terrible things to my Holy Place. You did horrible things that made it dirty. I will punish you. I will not show any mercy or feel sorry for you. <sup>12</sup>A third of your people will die inside the city from diseases and hunger. Another third will die in battle outside the city. And then I will pull out my sword and chase the last third of your people into faraway countries. <sup>13</sup>Only then will I stop being angry with your people. I will know that they have been punished for the bad things they did to me. They will know that I am the Lord and that I spoke to them because of my strong love<sup>d</sup> for them!”

<sup>b</sup>5:1-2 your famine Or “your attack on the city.” See Ezek. 4:8.

<sup>14</sup>God said, “Jerusalem, I will destroy you—you will be nothing but a pile of rocks. The people around you will make fun of you. Everyone who walks by will make fun of you. <sup>15</sup>People around you will make fun of you, but you will also be a lesson for them. They will see that I was angry and punished you. I was very angry and I warned you. I, the Lord, told you what I would do. <sup>16</sup>I told you I would send you terrible times of hunger. I told you I would send you things that would destroy you. I told you that I would take away your supply of food and that those times of hunger would come again and again. <sup>17</sup>I told you I would send hunger and wild animals against you that would kill your children. I told you there would be disease and death everywhere in the city. I told you I would bring enemy soldiers to fight against you. I, the Lord, told you all these things would happen!”

Prophecies Against Israel

6 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me again. <sup>2</sup>He said, “Son of man,<sup>e</sup> turn toward the mountains of Israel. Speak against them for me. <sup>3</sup>Tell the mountains this: “Mountains of Israel, listen to this message from the Lord God! The Lord God says these things to the hills and mountains and to the ravines and valleys. Look! I am bringing the enemy to fight against you. I will destroy your high places.* <sup>4</sup>Your altars* will be broken into pieces. Your incense* altars will be smashed, and I will throw down your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols.* <sup>5</sup>I will put the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of their filthy idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>Bad things will happen wherever your people live. Their cities will become piles of rock. Their high places will be destroyed so that those places of worship will never be used again. The altars will all be destroyed. People will never worship those filthy idols again. The incense altars will be smashed. Everything you made will be destroyed completely. <sup>7</sup>Your people will be killed, and then you will know that I am the Lord!”

<sup>8</sup>God said, “But I will let a few of your people escape. They will live in other countries for a short time. I will scatter them and force them to live in other countries. <sup>9</sup>Then the survivors* will be taken as prisoners. They will be forced to live in other countries, but they will remember me. I broke their spirit.<sup>a</sup> They will hate themselves for the evil things they did. In the past, they turned away from me and left me. They chased after their filthy idols. They were like a woman leaving her husband and running off with another man. They did many terrible things, <sup>10</sup>but they will learn that I am the LORD. Then they will know that if I say that I will do something, I will do it! They will know that I caused all the troubles that happened to them.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD God said to me, “Clap your hands and stamp your feet. Speak against all the terrible things that the people of Israel have done. Warn them that they will be killed by disease and hunger. Tell them they will be killed in war. <sup>12</sup>People far away will die from disease. People near this place will be killed with swords, and those who are left in the city will starve to death. Only then will I stop being angry. <sup>13</sup>Only then will you know that I am the LORD. You will know this when you see your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols and around their altars. Those bodies will be near every one of your places for worship,<sup>b</sup> on every high hill and mountain, under every green tree and every oak tree with leaves. You offered your sacrifices everywhere. They were a sweet smell for your filthy idols. <sup>14</sup>But I will raise my arm over you and punish you and your people, wherever they live! I will destroy your country! It will be emptier than Diblah Desert.<sup>c</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD!”

Disaster Is Coming to Jerusalem

7 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. <sup>2</sup>He said, “Now, son of man, here is a message from the LORD God. This message is for the land of Israel:

“The end!

The end is coming.

The whole country will be destroyed.

<sup>3</sup> Your end is coming now!

I will show how angry I am with you.

I will punish you for the evil things you did.

I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.

<sup>4</sup> I will not show you any mercy or feel sorry for you.

I am punishing you for the evil things you did.

You have done such terrible things.

Now, you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD God said: “There will be one disaster after another! <sup>6</sup>The end is coming, and it will come quickly! <sup>7</sup>You people living in Israel, do you hear the whistle? The enemy is coming. That time of punishment is coming very soon. The noise of the enemy is getting louder and louder on the mountains. <sup>8</sup>Very soon now, I will show you how angry I am. I will show all of my anger against you. I will punish you for the evil things you did. I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did. <sup>9</sup>I will not show you any mercy or feel sorry for you. I am punishing you for the evil things you did. You have done such terrible things. Now, you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“That time of punishment has come like a plant sprouting, budding, and flowering. God has given the signal, the enemy is prepared, and the proud king (Nebuchadnezzar) is ready. <sup>11</sup>This violent man is ready to punish the evil people. There are many people in Israel—but he is not one of them. He is not a person in that crowd. He is not some important leader from them.

<sup>14</sup>“They will blow the trumpet to warn the people. The people will get ready for battle, but they will not go out to fight because I will show the whole crowd how angry I am. <sup>15</sup>The enemy with his sword is outside the city. Disease and hunger is inside the city. If some people go out into the fields, enemy soldiers will kill them. If they stay in the city, hunger and disease will destroy them.

<sup>16</sup>“But some people will escape. The survivors will run to the mountains, but they will not be happy. They will be sad for all their sins. They will cry and make sad noises like doves. <sup>17</sup>They will be too tired and sad to raise their arms. Their legs will be like water. <sup>18</sup>They will wear sackcloth* and be covered with fear. You will see the shame on every face. They will shave their heads to show their sadness. <sup>19</sup>They will throw their silver idols* into the streets. They will treat their gold statues like dirty rags, because those things will not be able to save them when the LORD shows his anger. Those things were nothing but a trap that caused the people to fall. They will not give food to the people or put food in their bellies.

<sup>d7:13 sold their property</sup> In ancient Israel property did not belong to a person, it belonged to a family. People might sell their property, but at the time of Jubilee their family would get the land back. Here, Ezekiel says the people will never get their property again.

<sup>20</sup>“They used their beautiful jewelry and made an idol. They were proud of that statue. They made their terrible statues. They made those filthy things, so I will throw them away like a dirty rag. <sup>21</sup>I will let strangers take them. Those strangers will make fun of them. They will kill some of the people and take others away as prisoners. <sup>22</sup>I will turn my head away from them—I will not look at them. The strangers will ruin my Temple—they will go into the secret parts of that holy building and make it unfit for worship.

<sup>23</sup>“Make chains for the prisoners, because many people will be punished for killing other people. There will be violence every place in the city. <sup>24</sup>I will bring evil people from other nations, and they will get all the houses of the people of Israel. I will stop all you powerful people from being so proud. Those people from other nations will get all your places of worship.

<sup>25</sup>“You will shake with fear. You will look for peace, but there will be none. <sup>26</sup>You will hear one sad story after another. You will hear nothing but bad news. You will look for a prophet and ask him for a vision. The priests will have nothing to teach you, and the elders* will not have any good advice to give you. <sup>27</sup>Your king will be crying for the people who died. The leaders will wear sackcloth. The common people will be very afraid, because I will pay them back for what they did. I will decide their punishment, and I will punish them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Sinful Things Done at the Temple

8<sup>1</sup>One day I, Ezekiel, was sitting in my house, and the elders of Judah were sitting there in front of me. This was on the fifth day of the sixth month of the sixth year of exile.<sup>a</sup> Suddenly, the power of the Lord God came on me. <sup>2</sup>I saw something that looked like fire, like a man's body. From the waist down, he was like fire. From the waist up, he was bright and shining like hot metal<sup>b</sup> in a fire. <sup>3</sup>Then I saw something that looked like an arm. The arm reached out and grabbed me by the hair on my head. Then the Spirit<sup>c</sup> lifted me into the air, and in God's vision, he took me to Jerusalem. He took me to the inner gate—the gate that is on the north side. The statue that makes God jealous is by that gate. <sup>4</sup>But the Glory of the God of Israel was there. The Glory looked just like the vision I saw in the valley [by the Kobar Canal].

<sup>5</sup>God spoke to me. He said, “Son of man,<sup>d</sup> look toward the north.” So I looked, and there, north of the Altar Gate by the entrance, was that statue that made God jealous.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man, do you see what terrible things the people of Israel are doing? They built that thing here, right next to my Temple! And if you come with me, you will see even more terrible things!”

<sup>7</sup>So I went to the entrance to the courtyard, and I saw a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>God said to me, “Son of man, make a hole in the wall.” So I made a hole in the wall, and there I saw a door.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to me, “Go in and look at the terrible, evil things that the people are doing here.” <sup>10</sup>So I went in and looked. I saw statues of all kinds of reptiles<sup>e</sup> and animals that you hate to think about. The statues were the filthy idols* that the people of Israel worshiped. There were pictures of those animals carved all around on every wall!

<sup>11</sup>Then I noticed that Jaazaniah son of Shapham and the 70 elders* of Israel were there with the people worshipping in that place. There they were, right at the front of the people, and each leader had his own incense dish in his hand. The smoke from the burning incense was rising into the air. <sup>12</sup>Then God said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of Israel do in the dark? Each man has a special room for his own false god. They say to themselves, ‘The LORD cannot see us. The LORD left this country.’” <sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, “If you come with me, you will see these men doing even more terrible things!”

<sup>14</sup>Then God led me to the entrance to the LORD's Temple. This gate was on the north side. I saw women sitting there and crying. They were sad about the false god Tammuz!<sup>f</sup>

<sup>15</sup>God said to me, “Son of man, do you see these terrible things? Come with me and you will see things that are even worse than this!”

<sup>16</sup>Then he led me to the inner courtyard of the LORD's Temple. There I saw 25 men bowing down and worshipping. They were between the porch and the altar—but they were facing the wrong way. Their backs were to the Holy Place. They were bowing down to worship the sun!

<sup>e</sup>8:10 reptiles The Hebrew word can mean “lizards,” “snakes,” and “all kinds of bugs and insects.”

<sup>f</sup>8:14 Tammuz People thought this false god died and his wife Ishtar asked everyone to be sad and cry with her. Ishtar hoped this would bring him back to life. This ceremony was on the 2nd day of the fourth month (June/July). This month was named Tammuz because of this ceremony.

<sup>17</sup>Then God said, “Son of man, do you see this? The people of Judah think my Temple is so unimportant that they will do these terrible things here in my Temple! This country is filled with violence, and they constantly do things to make me angry. Look, they are wearing rings in their noses to honor the moon like a false god!<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>I will show them my anger! I will not show them any mercy or feel sorry for them! They will shout to me—but I refuse to listen to them!”

God's Messengers Punish Jerusalem

9 <sup>1</sup>Then God shouted to the leaders in charge of punishing the city. Each leader had his own destructive weapon in his hand.<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>Then I saw six men walking on the road from the upper gate. This gate is on the north side. Each man had his own deadly weapon in his hand. One of the men wore linen clothes.<sup>c</sup> He wore a scribe's pen and ink set<sup>d</sup> at his waist. Those men went to the bronze altar in the Temple and stood there. <sup>3</sup>Then the Glory of the God of Israel rose from above the Cherub angels* where he had been. Then the Glory went to the door of the Temple and stopped when he was over the threshold. Then he called to the man wearing the linen clothes and the scribe's pen and ink set.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD (Glory) said to him, “Go through the city of Jerusalem. Put a mark on the forehead of everyone who feels sad and upset about all the terrible things people are doing in this city.”

<sup>5-6</sup>Then I heard God say to the other men, “I want you to follow the first man. You must kill all those who do not have the mark on their foreheads. It doesn't matter if they are elders,* young men or young women, children or mothers—you must use your weapon and kill everyone who does not have the mark on their forehead. Don't show any mercy. Don't feel sorry for anyone. Start here at my Temple.” So they started with the elders in front of the Temple.

<sup>7</sup>He said to them, “Make this Temple unclean*—fill this courtyard with dead bodies! Now go!” So they went and killed the people in the city.

<sup>8</sup>I stayed there while the men went to kill the people. I bowed with my face to the ground and said, “Oh, Lord God, in showing your anger against Jerusalem, are you killing all the survivors in Israel?”

<sup>9</sup>He said, “The family of Israel and Judah has committed many terrible sins! People are being murdered everywhere in this country, and the city is filled with crime. That is because the people say to themselves, ‘The LORD left this country. He cannot see what we are doing.’ <sup>10</sup>So I will not show any mercy or feel sorry for them. They brought it on themselves. I am only giving them the punishment they deserve!”

<sup>11</sup>Then the man wearing linen clothes and a scribe's pen and ink set spoke up. He said, “I have done what you commanded.”

The Glory of the Lord Leaves the Temple

10 <sup>1</sup>Then I looked up at the bowl<sup>e</sup> over the heads of the Cherub angels. The bowl looked clear blue like sapphire, and there was something that looked like a throne over it. <sup>2</sup>Then the one sitting on the throne said to the man dressed in linen clothes,<sup>f</sup> “Step into the area between the wheels<sup>g</sup> under the Cherub angels. Take a handful of the burning coals from between the Cherub angels and go throw them over the city of Jerusalem.”

The man walked past me. <sup>3</sup>The Cherub angels were standing in the area south<sup>h</sup> of the Temple as the man walked to them. The cloud filled the inner courtyard. <sup>4</sup>Then the Glory of the LORD rose up off the Cherub angels near the threshold of the door of the Temple. Then the cloud filled the Temple, and the bright light from the Glory of the LORD filled the whole courtyard. <sup>5</sup>The noise from the wings of the Cherub angels could be heard all the way out into the outer courtyard. The sound was very loud—like the thundering voice when God All-Powerful speaks.

<sup>6</sup>God had given the man dressed in linen clothes a command. He had told him to go into the area between the wheels among the Cherub angels and get some hot coals. So the man went there and stood by the wheel. <sup>7</sup>One of the Cherub angels reached out his hand and took some of the hot coals from the area between the Cherub angels. He poured the coals into the man's hands, and the man left. <sup>8</sup>(The Cherub angels had what looked like human arms under their wings.)

<sup>9</sup>Then I noticed that there were four wheels. There was one wheel by each Cherub angel, and the wheels looked like a clear yellow jewel. <sup>10</sup>There were four wheels, and they all looked the same. They looked like there was a wheel in a wheel. <sup>11</sup>They could go in any direction when they moved, but the Cherub angels did not turn around when they moved. They went in the direction that the head was looking. They did not turn around when they moved. <sup>12</sup>There were eyes all over their bodies. There were eyes on their backs, on their arms, on their wings, and on their wheels—on all four wheels! <sup>13</sup>These wheels were what I heard called, “the area between the wheels.”

<sup>14-15</sup>Each Cherub angel had four faces. The first was the face of a Cherub,<sup>a</sup> the second was the face of a man, the third was a lion’s face, and the fourth was an eagle’s face. (These Cherub angels were the living beings I saw in the vision by the Kebar Canal.<sup>b</sup>)

Then the Cherub angels rose into the air, <sup>16</sup>and the wheels rose with them. When the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air, not even the wheels turned around. <sup>17</sup>If they flew into the air, the wheels went with them. If they stood still, so did the wheels, because the spirit<sup>c</sup> of the living being was in them.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Glory of the LORD rose from the threshold of the Temple, moved to the place over the Cherub angels, and stopped there. <sup>19</sup>Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. I saw them leave. The wheels went with them. Then they stopped at the East Gate of the LORD’s Temple. The Glory of the God of Israel was in the air above them.

<sup>20</sup>These were the living beings under the Glory of the God of Israel in the vision at the Kebar Canal, and now I realized they were Cherub angels. <sup>21</sup>Each living being had four faces, four wings, and something that looked like human arms under their wings. <sup>22</sup>The faces of the Cherub angels were the same as the four faces on the living beings in the vision by the Kebar Canal. They all looked straight ahead in the direction they were going.

Prophecies Against the Leaders

11 <sup>1</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> carried me to the East Gate of the LORD’s Temple. This gate faces the east, [where the sun comes up]. I saw 25 men there at the entrance of this gate. Some of the leaders were among them, including Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah.

<sup>2</sup>Then God spoke to me and said, “Son of man,<sup>e</sup> these are the men who make evil plans for this city. They always tell the people to do evil things. <sup>3</sup>These men say, ‘We will be building our houses again very soon. We are as safe in this city as meat in a pot!’ <sup>4</sup>So you must speak to the people for me. Son of man, prophesy against the people.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me. He said to me, “Tell them that this is what the LORD said: House of Israel, you are planning big things. But I know what you are thinking. <sup>6</sup>You have killed many people in this city. You have filled the streets with dead bodies. <sup>7</sup>Now, the Lord God says this, ‘The dead bodies are the meat, and the city is the pot. But he (Nebuchadnezzar) will come and take you out of this safe pot. <sup>8</sup>You are afraid of the sword, but I am bringing the sword against you!’” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>9</sup>He also said, “I will take you out of this city and give you to strangers. I will punish you. <sup>10</sup>You will die by the sword. I will punish you here in Israel, so you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Yes, this place will be the cooking pot, and you will be the meat cooking in it. I will punish you here in Israel. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD. It was my law that you broke. You did not obey my commands. You decided to live like the nations around you.”

<sup>13</sup>As soon as I finished speaking for God, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died! I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face touching the ground and said, “Oh, Lord God, you are going to completely destroy all the survivors of Israel!”

Prophecies Against Survivors in Jerusalem

<sup>14</sup>But then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>15</sup>“Son of man, remember your brothers, the family of Israel. They were forced to leave their country, but I will bring them back.<sup>f</sup> But now, the people living in Jerusalem are saying, ‘Stay far away from the LORD. This land was given to us—it is ours!’

<sup>16</sup>“So tell them this: The Lord God says, ‘It is true, I forced my people to go far away to other nations. I did scatter them among many countries. But I will be their temple for a short time while they are in those other countries. <sup>17</sup>But you must tell those people that the Lord God will bring them back. I have scattered you among many nations, but I will gather you together and bring you back from those nations. I will give the land of Israel back to you. <sup>18</sup>When my people come back, they will destroy all the terrible, filthy idols* that are here now. <sup>19</sup>I will bring them together and make them like one person. I will put a new spirit<sup>g</sup> in them. I will take away that heart of stone, and I will put a real heart in its place. <sup>20</sup>Then they will obey my laws and my commands. They will do the things I tell them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.”

The Glory of the Lord Leaves Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>Then God said, “But now, their hearts belong to those terrible, filthy idols,* and I must punish those people for the bad things they have done.” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>22</sup>Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. The wheels went with them. The Glory of the God of Israel was above them. <sup>23</sup>The Glory of the LORD rose into the air and left the city and stopped on the hill east of Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>b</sup> lifted me into the air and brought me back to Babylonia. It brought me back to the people who were forced to leave Israel. I saw all this in the vision of God. Then the one I saw in the vision rose into the air and left me. <sup>25</sup>Then I spoke to the people in exile.* I told them about everything the LORD showed me.

Ezekiel Leaves Like a Captive

12 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>c</sup> you live among rebellious people who always turn against me. They have eyes to see what I have done for them, but they don’t see those things. They have ears to hear what I told them to do, but they don’t hear my commands, because they are a rebellious people. <sup>3</sup>So, son of man, pack your bags. Act like you are going to a faraway country. Do this so that the people can see you. Maybe they will see you—but they are a very rebellious people.

<sup>4</sup>“During the day, take your bags outside so that the people can see you. Then in the evening, pretend you are going away. Act as if you are a prisoner going to a faraway country. <sup>5</sup>While the people are watching, make a hole in the wall and go out through that hole in the wall. <sup>6</sup>At night, put your bag on your shoulder and leave. Cover your face so that you cannot see where you are going. You must do these things so that the people can see you, because I am using you as an example to the family of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So I did as I was commanded. During the day, I took my bags and acted as if I were going to a faraway country. That evening, I used my hands and made a hole in the wall. During the night, I put my bag on my shoulder and left. I did this so that all the people could see me.

<sup>8</sup>The next morning, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>9</sup>“Son of man, did the rebellious people of Israel ask you what you were doing? <sup>10</sup>Tell them that this is what the Lord God said. This sad message is about the leader of Jerusalem and all the people of Israel who live there. <sup>11</sup>Tell them, ‘I am an example for all of you. What I have done will happen to you.’ You will be forced to go to a faraway country as prisoners. <sup>12</sup>And your leader will make a hole in the wall and sneak out at night. He will cover his face so that people will not recognize him. His eyes will not be able to see where he is going. <sup>13</sup>He will try to escape, but I will catch him! He will be caught in my trap. Then I will bring him to Babylonia—the land of the Chaldeans. But he will not be able to see where he is going.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>I will force the king’s people to live in the foreign countries around Israel, and I will scatter his army to the winds. The enemy soldiers will chase after them. <sup>15</sup>Then they will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I scattered them among the nations. They will know that I forced them to go to other countries.

<sup>16</sup>“But I will let a few of the people live. They will not die from the disease, hunger, and war. I will let them live so that they can tell other people about the terrible things they did against me. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Shake With Fear

<sup>17</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>“Son of man, you must act as if you are very frightened. You must shake when you eat your food. You must act worried and afraid when you drink your water. <sup>19</sup>You must say this to the common people: ‘This is what the Lord God says to the people living in Jerusalem and in the other parts of Israel. You will be very worried while you eat your food. You will be terrified while you drink your water, because everything in your country will be destroyed! This will happen because the people living there are so violent. <sup>20</sup>Many people live in your cities now, but those cities will be ruined. Your whole country will be destroyed! Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

Disaster Will Come

<sup>21</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>22</sup>“Son of man, why do people quote this saying about the land of Israel:

‘Trouble will not come soon;
what is seen in visions will not come?’

<sup>23</sup>“Tell the people that the Lord God will end that saying. They will not say that about Israel anymore. Now they will quote this saying:

‘Trouble will come soon;
what is seen in visions will happen.’

<sup>24</sup>“There will not be any more false visions in Israel. There will not be any more magicians telling things that don’t come true. <sup>25</sup>That’s because I am the LORD, and whatever I command to happen will happen! I will not let the time stretch out. Those troubles are coming soon—in your own lifetime. You rebellious people, when I say something, I make it happen.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>26</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>27</sup>“Son of man, the people of Israel think that the visions I give you are for a time far in the future. They think you are talking about things that will happen many years from now. <sup>28</sup>So you must tell them this: ‘The Lord God says, I will not delay any longer. If I say something will happen, it will happen!’” This is what the Lord God said.

Warnings Against False Prophets

13 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> you must speak to the prophets of Israel for me. They are only saying what they want to say. You must speak to them. Tell them this: ‘Listen to this message from the LORD! <sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord God says. Bad things will happen to you foolish prophets. You are following your own spirits. You are not telling people what you really see in visions.

<sup>4</sup>“Israel, your prophets will be like foxes running through empty, destroyed buildings. <sup>5</sup>You have not put soldiers near the broken walls of the city. You have not built walls to protect the family of Israel. So when the day comes for the LORD to punish you, you will lose the war!

<sup>6</sup>“False prophets* said they saw visions. They did their magic and said things would happen—but they lied. They said the LORD sent them—but they lied. They are still waiting for their lies to come true.

<sup>7</sup>“False prophets, the visions you saw were not true. You did your magic and said things would happen, but you lied! You said that the LORD said those things, but I did not speak to you!”

<sup>8</sup>So now, the Lord God really will speak. He says, “You told lies. You saw visions that were not true. So now I am against you!” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>9</sup>“I will punish the prophets who saw false visions and told lies. I will remove them from my people. Their names will not be in the list of the family of Israel. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord God!

<sup>10</sup>“Again and again those false prophets* lied to my people. They said there would be peace, but there is no peace. The people need to fix the walls and prepare for war. But they only slap a thin coat of plaster<sup>b</sup> over the broken walls. <sup>11</sup>Tell them that I will send hail and a strong rain. The wind will blow hard, and a tornado will come. Then the wall will fall down. <sup>12</sup>When the wall falls down, the people will ask the prophets, ‘What happened to the plaster you put on the wall?’” <sup>13</sup>The Lord God says, “I am angry and I will send a storm against you. I am angry and I will send a strong rain. I am angry and I will make hail fall from the sky and completely destroy you! <sup>14</sup>You put plaster on the wall, but I will destroy the whole wall. I will pull it to the ground. The wall will fall on you, and then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup>I will finish showing my anger against the wall and those who put plaster on it. Then I will say, ‘There is no wall, and there are no workers to put plaster on it.’

<sup>16</sup>“All these things will happen to the false prophets of Israel. They speak to the people of Jerusalem and say there will be peace, but there is no peace.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>17</sup>God said, “Son of man, look at the women prophets in Israel. They say the things they want to say, so you must speak against them for me. You must say this to them: <sup>18</sup>This is what the Lord God says: Bad things will happen to you women. You sew cloth bracelets for people to wear on their arms. You make special scarves for people to wear on their heads. [You say those things have magic powers,] to control people’s lives. You trap the people only to keep yourselves alive! <sup>19</sup>You make them think I am not important. You turn them against me for a few handfuls of barley and a few scraps of bread. You tell lies to my people. They love to listen to lies. You kill those who should live, and you let people live who should die. <sup>20</sup>So this is what the Lord God says to you: You make those cloth bracelets to trap people, but I will set them free. I will tear those bracelets off your arms, and the people will be free from you. They will be like birds flying from a trap. <sup>21</sup>And I will tear up those scarves and save my people from your power. They will escape from your trap, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>“You prophets tell lies. Your lies hurt good people—I did not want to hurt them! You support the wicked and encourage them. You don’t tell them to change their lives. You don’t try to save their lives! <sup>23</sup>So you will not see any more useless visions or do any more magic. I will save my people from your power, and you will know that I am the LORD.”

Warnings Against Idol Worship

14 <sup>1</sup>Some of the elders* of Israel came to me. They sat down to talk with me. <sup>2</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>3</sup>“Son of man,<sup>c</sup> these men came to talk to you.

<sup>a</sup>13:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 17.

<sup>b</sup>13:10 plaster A type of mud or cement that people used to cover a wall and make it smooth. This is also a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “It will fall.” Also in verse 14.

But they still have their filthy idols.* They kept the things that made them sin. They still worship those statues, so why do they come to me for advice? Should I answer their questions? <sup>4</sup>But I will give them an answer. You must tell them this: ‘This is what the Lord God says: If any Israelites come to a prophet and ask me for advice, I myself will answer their questions. I will answer them even if they still have their filthy idols, even if they kept the things that made them sin, and even if they still worship those statues. I will speak to them in spite of all their filthy idols. <sup>5</sup>This is because I want to touch their hearts. I want to show them that I love them, even though they left me for their filthy idols.’

<sup>6</sup>“So tell the family of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Come back to me and leave your filthy idols. Turn away from those terrible, false gods. <sup>7</sup>If any Israelites or foreigners who live in Israel come to me for advice, I will give them an answer. I will answer them even if they still have their filthy idols, even if they kept the things that made them sin, and even if they worship those statues. This is the answer I will give them: <sup>8</sup>I will turn against them and destroy them. They will be an example to others. People will laugh at them. I will remove them from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD! <sup>9</sup>And if a prophet is foolish enough to give his own answer, I will show him how foolish he is! I will use my power against him. I will destroy him and remove him from among my people, Israel. <sup>10</sup>So both the one who came for advice and the prophet who gave an answer will get the same punishment. <sup>11</sup>Why? So that those prophets will stop leading my people away from me, and my people will stop being filthy with sin. Then they will be my special people, and I will be their God.’” This is what the Lord God said.

Jerusalem Will Be Punished

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>13</sup>“Son of man, I will punish any nation that leaves me and sins against me. I will stop their food supply. I might cause a famine* and remove the people and animals from that country. <sup>14</sup>I would punish that country even if Noah, Daniel, and Job<sup>a</sup> lived there. They could save their own lives by their goodness, but they could not save the whole country.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>15</sup>“Or I might send wild animals through that country to kill all the people. Then no one would travel through that country because of the wild animals. <sup>16</sup>If Noah, Daniel, and Job lived there, those three men could save their own lives. But I promise by my own life that they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters! That evil country would be destroyed.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>17</sup>“Or I might send an enemy army to fight against that country. The soldiers would destroy that country—I would remove all the people and animals from that country. <sup>18</sup>If Noah, Daniel, and Job lived there, those three men could save their own lives. But I promise by my own life that they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters! That evil country would be destroyed.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>19</sup>“Or I might send a disease against that country. I will pour my anger down on the people. I will remove all the people and animals from that country. <sup>20</sup>If Noah, Daniel, and Job lived there, those three men could save their own lives because they are good men. But I promise by my own life that they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters!” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Lord God said, “So think how bad it will be for Jerusalem. I will send all four of those punishments against that city! I will send enemy soldiers, hunger, disease, and wild animals against that city. I will remove all the people and animals from that country. <sup>22</sup>Some of the people will escape from that country. They will bring their sons and daughters and come to you for help. Then you will see how bad those people really are, and you will feel better about all the troubles that I am bringing to Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>You will see how they live and all the bad things they do. Then you will know that I had a good reason for punishing them.” This is what the Lord God said.

Jerusalem, the Vine, Will Be Burned

15 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>b</sup> are the pieces of wood from a grapevine<sup>c</sup> any better than the little branches cut from trees in the forest? <sup>3</sup>Can you use that wood from a grapevine to make anything? Can you use that wood to make pegs to hang dishes on? <sup>4</sup>People throw that wood into the fire. The ends burn, and the middle is scorched. <sup>5</sup>If you cannot make anything from that wood before it is burned, you surely cannot make anything from that wood after it is burned! <sup>6</sup>So people throw the pieces of wood from a grapevine into the fire just like wood from any other tree in the forest. In the same way I will throw the people living in Jerusalem into the fire!” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>7</sup>“I will punish those people. But some of them will be like the sticks that don't burn completely. They will be punished, but they will not be destroyed completely. You will see that I punished them, and you will know that I am the LORD! <sup>8</sup>I will destroy that country because the people left me [to worship false gods].” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>a</sup>14:14 Noah, Daniel, and Job Three men from ancient times. They were famous for being very good and wise men. Here, Daniel might be the Danel in the writings from Ras Shamra. Also in verses 16, 18, 20.

<sup>c</sup>15:2 grapevine The prophets often spoke of Israel as God’s vineyard or grapevine. Also in 16:2, 3, 6.

God's Love for Jerusalem

16 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, tell the people of Jerusalem about the terrible things they have done. <sup>3</sup>You must say, ‘This is what the Lord God says to Jerusalem: Look at your history. You were born in Canaan.* Your father was an Amorite. Your mother was a Hittite. <sup>4</sup>Jerusalem, on the day you were born, there was no one to cut your navel cord. No one put salt on you and washed you to make you clean. No one wrapped you in cloth. <sup>5</sup>No one felt sorry for you or took care of you. On the day you were born, your parents threw you out into the field, because no one wanted you.

<sup>6</sup>“Then I passed by. I saw you lying there, kicking in the blood. You were covered with blood, but I said, ‘Please live!’ Yes, you were covered with blood, but I said, ‘Please live!’ <sup>7</sup>I helped you grow like a plant in the field. You grew and grew. You became a young woman: your periods began, your breasts grew, and your hair began to grow. But you were still bare and naked. <sup>8</sup>I looked you over. I saw you were ready for love, so I spread my clothes over you<sup>a</sup> and covered your nakedness. I promised to marry you. I made the agreement<sup>b</sup> with you, and you became mine.” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>9</sup>“I washed you in water. I poured water over you to wash away the blood that was on you, and then I put oil on your skin. <sup>10</sup><sup>c</sup> I gave you a nice dress and soft leather sandals, a linen headband, and a silk scarf. <sup>11</sup>I also gave you some jewelry. I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. <sup>12</sup>I gave you a nose ring, earrings, and a beautiful crown to wear. <sup>13</sup>You were beautiful in your gold and silver jewelry, and your linen, silk, and embroidered material. You ate the best foods. You were very, very beautiful, and you became the queen! <sup>14</sup>You became famous for your beauty, all because I made you so lovely!” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>a</sup>16:8 spread my clothes over you This showed that he was agreeing to protect her and care for her. See Ruth 3:1–15.

<sup>b</sup>16:8 agreement Here, this means the marriage agreement. But it also refers to the agreement God made with the people of Israel. See “agreement” in the Word List.

<sup>c</sup>16:10 Verses 10–13 All the materials in this list are the things used in building the Holy Tent. See Ex. 25–40.

Jerusalem, the Unfaithful Bride

<sup>15</sup>“But you began to trust in your beauty. You used the good name you had and became unfaithful to me. You acted like a prostitute with every man who passed by. You gave yourself to them all! <sup>16</sup>You took your beautiful clothes and used them to decorate your places for worship.<sup>d</sup> And you acted like a prostitute there. You gave yourself to every man who came by! <sup>17</sup>Then you took your beautiful jewelry that I gave you, and you used the gold and silver to make statues of men, and you had sex with them too! <sup>18</sup>Then you took the beautiful cloth and made clothes for those statues. You took the perfume and incense I gave you and put it in front of those idols.* <sup>19</sup>I gave you bread, honey, and oil, but you gave that food to your idols. You offered them as a sweet smell to please your false gods. You acted like a prostitute with those false gods!” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>20</sup>“You and I had children together, but you took our children. You killed them and gave them to those false gods! But that is only some of the evil things you did when you were unfaithful to me and went to those false gods. <sup>21</sup>You slaughtered<sup>e</sup> my sons and then passed them through the fire to those false gods. <sup>22</sup>You left me and did all those terrible things. You never remembered what happened when you were young. You did not remember that you were naked and kicking in blood when I found you.

<sup>23</sup>“After all these evil things, ... it will be very bad for you!” The Lord God said all these things. <sup>24</sup>“After all those things, you made a mound for worshipping that false god. You built those places for worshipping false gods on every street corner. <sup>25</sup>You built your mounds at the head of every road. Then you degraded your beauty. You used it to catch every man who walked by. You raised your skirt so that they could see your legs, and you acted like a prostitute with those men. <sup>26</sup>Then you went to Egypt, your neighbor that is always ready for sex. With more and more sexual sin, you made me angry. <sup>27</sup>So I punished you! I took away part of your land. I let your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines,* do what they wanted to you. Even they were shocked at the evil things you did. <sup>28</sup>Then you went to have sex with Assyria.* You could not get enough. You were never satisfied. <sup>29</sup>So you turned to Canaan,* and then to Babylonia, and still you were not satisfied. <sup>30</sup>You are so weak. You let all those men cause you to sin. You acted just like a prostitute who wants to be the one in control.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>31</sup>God said, “But you were not exactly like a prostitute. You built your mounds at the head of every road, and you built your places for worship at every street corner. You had sex with all those men, but you did not ask them to pay you like a prostitute does.<sup>32</sup> You are a woman guilty of adultery. You would rather have sex with strangers than with your own husband.<sup>33</sup> Most prostitutes force men to pay them for sex, but you gave money to your many lovers. You paid all the men around to come in to have sex with you.<sup>34</sup> You are just the opposite of most prostitutes who force men to pay them, because you pay the men to have sex with you.”

<sup>d</sup>16:16 places for worship Or “high places.” See “high place” in the Word List. Also in verses 31, 39.

<sup>e</sup>16:21 slaughter This usually means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces for meat, but it often means to kill people as if they were animals.

<sup>35</sup>Prostitute, listen to the message from the LORD.<sup>36</sup> This is what the Lord God says: “You have spent your money<sup>a</sup> and let your lovers and filthy gods see your naked body and have sex with you. You have killed your children and poured out their blood. This was your gift to those false gods.<sup>37</sup> So I am bringing all of your lovers together. I will bring all the men you loved and all the men you hated. I will bring them all together and let them see you naked.<sup>b</sup> They will see you completely naked.<sup>38</sup> Then I will punish you. I will punish you as a murderer and a woman who committed the sin of adultery. You will be punished as if by an angry and jealous husband.<sup>39</sup> I will let those lovers have you. They will destroy your mounds. They will burn your places for worship. They will tear off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. They will leave you bare and naked [as you were when I found you].<sup>40</sup> They will bring a crowd of people and throw rocks at you to kill you. Then they will cut you into pieces with their swords.<sup>41</sup> They will burn your house. They will punish you so that all the other women can see. I will stop you from living like a prostitute. I will stop you from paying money to your lovers.<sup>42</sup> Then I will stop being angry and jealous. I will calm down. I will not be angry anymore.<sup>43</sup> Why will all these things happen? Because you did not remember what happened when you were young. You did all those bad things and made me angry. So I had to punish you for doing them, but you planned even more terrible things.” This is what the Lord God said.<sup>44</sup> “All the people who talk about you will now have one more thing to say. They will say, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’<sup>45</sup> You are your mother’s daughter. You don’t care about your husband or your children. You are like your sister. Both of you hated your husband and your children. [You are like your parents.] Your mother was a Hittite and your father was an Amorite.<sup>46</sup> Your older sister was Samaria. She lived to the north of you with her daughters.

Your younger sister was Sodom.<sup>c</sup> She lived to the south of you with her daughters.<sup>47</sup> You did all the terrible things they did, but you also did much worse!<sup>48</sup> I am the Lord God. As I live, I swear that your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as many bad things as you and your daughters.

<sup>49</sup>“Your sister Sodom and her daughters were proud. They had too much to eat and too much time on their hands, and they did not help poor, helpless people.<sup>50</sup> Sodom and her daughters became too proud and began to do terrible things in front of me. So I punished them!

<sup>51</sup>“And Samaria did only half as many bad things as you did. You did many more terrible things than Samaria! You have done so many more terrible things than your sisters have done. Sodom and Samaria seem good compared to you.<sup>52</sup> So you must bear your shame. You have made your sisters look good compared to you. You have done terrible things, so you should be ashamed.

<sup>53</sup>“I destroyed Sodom and the towns around it, and I destroyed Samaria and the towns around it. And I will destroy you too, Jerusalem. But I will build those cities again, and I will rebuild you too.<sup>54</sup> I will comfort you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed.<sup>55</sup> So you and your sisters will be rebuilt. Sodom and the towns around her, Samaria and the towns around her, and you and the towns around you will all be rebuilt.

<sup>56</sup>“In the past, you were proud and made fun of your sister Sodom. But you will not do that again.<sup>57</sup> You did that before you were punished, before your neighbors started making fun of you. The daughters of Edom<sup>d</sup> and Philistia are making fun of you now.<sup>58</sup> Now you must suffer for the terrible things you did.” This is what the LORD said.

God Remains Faithful

<sup>59</sup>This is what the Lord God said: “I will treat you like you treated me! You broke your marriage promise. You did not respect our agreement.<sup>60</sup> But I will remember the agreement we made when you were young. I made an agreement with you that will continue forever!<sup>61</sup> I will bring your sisters to you, and I will make them your daughters. That was not in our agreement, but I will do that for you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed.<sup>62</sup> So I will make my agreement with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.<sup>63</sup> You will remember me, and you will be so ashamed of the evil things you did that you will not be able to say

<sup>a</sup>16:36 spent your money Literally, “poured out your copper.” This might also mean “you have done the things that stain you with sin.”

<sup>b</sup>16:37 let them see you naked The Hebrew words are like the words meaning “to be carried away as a prisoner to a foreign country.”

<sup>c</sup>16:46 Samaria ... Sodom Ezekiel is saying the people in Judah are just as evil as the people who lived in Samaria and Sodom—and those people were so evil that God completely destroyed those cities.

anything. But I will make you pure, and you will never be ashamed again!" This is what the Lord God said.

The Eagle and the Vine

17 <sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>a</sup> tell this story to the family of Israel. Ask them what it means. <sup>3</sup>Say to them:

"A large eagle with big wings came to Lebanon.

He had feathers covered with spots.

<sup>4</sup> He broke the top out of the big cedar tree (Lebanon) and brought it to Canaan.*

He set the branch down in a city of merchants.*

<sup>5</sup> Then the eagle took some of the seeds from Canaan.

He planted them in good soil by a good river.

<sup>6</sup> The seeds grew and became a grapevine. It was a good vine.

The vine was not tall, but it spread to cover a large area.

The vine grew stems, and smaller vines grew very long.

The eagle had many feathers.

The grapevine wanted this new eagle to care for it.

So it stretched its roots and branches toward the eagle.

Its branches stretched toward this eagle.

The branches grew away from the field where it was planted.

The grapevine wanted the new eagle to water it.

<sup>8</sup> The grapevine was planted in a good field near plenty of water.

It could have grown branches and fruit.

It could have become a very good grapevine."

<sup>9</sup> This is what the Lord God says:

"Do you think that plant will succeed?

No, the new eagle will pull the plant from the ground, and the bird will break the plant's roots. It will eat up all the grapes.

Then the new leaves will wilt.

That plant will be very weak.

It will not take strong arms or a powerful nation to pull that plant up by the roots.

<sup>10</sup> Will the plant grow where it is planted?

No, the hot east wind will blow, and the plant will become dry and die.

It will die there where it was planted."

King Zedekiah Punished

<sup>11</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>12</sup>"Explain this story to the people of Israel who always turn against me. Tell them this: The first eagle is the king of Babylonia. He came to Jerusalem and took away the king and other leaders. He brought them to Babylonia. <sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar made an agreement with a man from the king's family. Nebuchadnezzar forced that man to make a promise. So this man promised to be loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. Then he took all the powerful men away from Judah. <sup>14</sup>So Judah became a weak kingdom that could not turn against King Nebuchadnezzar. The people were forced to keep the agreement Nebuchadnezzar made with the new king of Judah. <sup>15</sup>But this new king tried to rebel against Nebuchadnezzar anyway! He sent messengers to Egypt to ask for help. The new king asked for many horses and soldiers. Now, do you think the new king of Judah will succeed? Do you think the new king will have enough power to break the agreement and escape punishment?"

<sup>16</sup>The Lord God says, "By my life, I swear that this new king will die in Babylonia! Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah, but he broke his promise with Nebuchadnezzar. This new king ignored that agreement. <sup>17</sup>The king of Egypt will not be able to save the king of Judah. He might send many soldiers, but Egypt's great power will not save Judah. Nebuchadnezzar's army will build dirt roads and dirt walls to capture the city. Many people will die. <sup>18</sup>But the king of Judah will not escape, because he ignored his agreement. He broke his promise to Nebuchadnezzar." <sup>19</sup>The Lord God makes this promise: "By my life, I swear that I will punish the king of Judah, because he ignored my warnings and broke our agreement. <sup>20</sup>I will set my trap, and he will be caught in it. Then I will bring him to Babylon, and I will punish him there. I will punish him because he turned against me, <sup>21</sup>and I will destroy his army. I will destroy his best soldiers and scatter them to the wind. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I told you these things."

"I will take a branch from a tall cedar tree. I will take a small branch from the top of the tree, and I myself will plant it on a very high mountain.

<sup>23</sup> I myself will plant it on a high mountain in Israel.

That branch will grow into a tree. It will grow branches and make fruit and become a beautiful cedar tree.

Many birds will sit on its branches and live in the shadows under its branches.

<sup>24</sup>"Then the other trees will know that I make tall trees fall to the ground, and I make small trees grow tall. I make green trees become dry, and I make dry trees become green. I am the LORD. If I say that I will do something, then I will do it!"

True Justice

18<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Why do you people say this proverb:

'The parents ate the sour grapes, but the children got the sour taste'?"

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord God says, "By my life, I swear that people in Israel will not think this proverb is true anymore! <sup>4</sup>I will treat everyone, child and parent, just the same. The one who sins is the one who will die!

<sup>5</sup>"A person who is good will live! He is fair and does what is right. <sup>6</sup>He doesn't go to the mountains to share food offered to idols." He doesn't pray to those filthy idols in Israel. He doesn't commit adultery<sup>a</sup> with his neighbor's wife or with a woman during her period. <sup>7</sup>He doesn't take advantage of others. If someone borrows money from him, he might take something of value before he gives the money. But when that person pays him back, he returns what he took. He gives food to the hungry and clothes to people who need them. <sup>8</sup>If someone wants to borrow money from him, he lends the money and doesn't charge interest on the loan. He refuses to be crooked. He is always fair with everyone. People can trust him. <sup>9</sup>He obeys my laws and studies my rules so that he can learn to be fair and dependable. He is good, so he will live.

<sup>10</sup>"But someone like that might have a son who does not do any of these good things. The son steals things and kills people. <sup>11</sup>He does things his father never did. He goes to the mountains and eats foods offered to false gods. He commits the sin of adultery with his neighbor's wife. <sup>12</sup>He mistreats poor, helpless people. He takes advantage of them. When a debt is paid,<sup>b</sup> he does not give back what he took from them. He prays to filthy idols and does other terrible things. <sup>13</sup>He lends money to people who need it, but he forces them to pay interest on the loan. The evil son will not be allowed to live. He will be put to death because he did such terrible things, and he will be responsible for his own death.

<sup>14</sup>"Now, that evil son might also have a son. But this son sees the bad things his father did, and he refuses to live as his father did. He treats people fairly. <sup>15</sup>He does not go to the mountains and eat foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to filthy idols in Israel. He does not commit the sin of adultery with his neighbor's wife. <sup>16</sup>He does not take advantage of people. If someone borrows money from him, the good son takes something of value and then gives the other person the money. When that person pays him back, the good son gives back what he took. The good son gives food to hungry people, and he gives clothes to those who need them. <sup>17</sup>He helps the poor. If people want to borrow money, the good son lends them the money, and he does not charge interest on the loan. He obeys my laws and follows them. He will not be put to death for his father's sins. The good son will live. <sup>18</sup>The father hurts people and steals things. He never does anything good for my people! He will die because of his own sins.

<sup>19</sup>"You might ask, 'Why will the son not be punished for his father's sins?' The reason is that the son was fair and did good things. He very carefully obeyed my laws, so he will live. <sup>20</sup>The one who sins is the one who will be put to death. A son will not be punished for his father's sins, and a father will not be punished for his son's sins. A good man's goodness belongs to him alone, and a bad man's evil belongs to him alone.

<sup>21</sup>"Now, if evil people change their lives, they will live and not die. They might stop doing all the bad things they did and begin to carefully obey all my laws. They might become fair and good. <sup>22</sup>God will not remember all the bad things they did. He will remember only their goodness, so they will live!"

<sup>23</sup>The Lord God says, "I don't want evil people to die. I want them to change their lives so that they can live!

<sup>24</sup>"Now, maybe good people might stop being good. They might change their lives and begin to do all the terrible things that evil people have done in the past. (The evil people changed, so they can live.) So if those good people change and become bad, God will not remember all the good things they did. He will remember that they turned against him and began to sin. So they will die because of their sin.

<sup>25</sup>"You people might say, 'The Lord isn't fair!' But listen, family of Israel. I am fair. You are the ones who are not fair! <sup>26</sup>If good people change and become evil, they must die for the bad things they do. <sup>27</sup>And if evil people change and become good and fair, they will save their lives. They will live! <sup>28</sup>They saw how wicked they were and came back to me. They stopped doing the evil things they did in the past. So they will live! They will not die!"

<sup>29</sup>The people of Israel said, "That's not fair! The Lord isn't fair!"

"I am fair! You are the ones who are not fair! <sup>30</sup>Why? Because, family of Israel, I will judge each of you only for what you do!" This is what the Lord God said. "So come back to me! Stop committing those crimes and do away with those things that cause you to sin! <sup>31</sup>Throw away all the terrible idols with which you committed your crimes! Change your heart and spirit. People of Israel, why should you do things that will cost you your life? <sup>32</sup>I don't want to kill you! Please come back and live!" This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>a</sup>18:2 The parents ... sour taste This means the children were suffering for things their parents did.

<sup>b</sup>18:12 When a debt is paid See Deut. 24:12-13 for the rules about making loans to the poor.

A Sad Song About Israel

19 <sup>1</sup>The Lord said to me, "You must sing this sad song about the leaders of Israel:

- <sup>2</sup>"Your mother is like a female lion, lying there with the male lions.
She went to lie down with the young male lions
and had many babies.
<sup>3</sup> One of her cubs gets up.
He has grown to be a strong young lion.
He has learned to catch his food.
He killed and ate a man.

<sup>4</sup>"The people heard him roar,
and they caught him in their trap.
They put hooks in his mouth and carried the young lion to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>"The mother lion had hoped that cub would become the leader,
but now she has lost all hope.
So she took another of her cubs and trained him to be a lion.
<sup>6</sup> He hunted with the adult lions and became a strong young lion.
He learned to catch his food.
He killed and ate a man.
<sup>7</sup> He attacked the palaces and destroyed the cities.
Everyone in that country was too afraid to speak when hearing his growl.
<sup>8</sup> Then the people who lived around him set a trap for him,
and they caught him in their trap.
<sup>9</sup> They put hooks on him and locked him
up.
They had him in their trap,
so they took him to the king of Babylon.
And now, you cannot hear his roar
on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>"Your mother is like a grapevine planted near the water.
She had plenty of water,
so she grew many strong vines.
<sup>11</sup> Then she grew large branches.
They were like a strong walking stick.
They were like a king's scepter.*
The vine grew taller and taller.
It had many branches and reached to
the clouds.
<sup>12</sup> But the vine was pulled up by the roots, and thrown down to the ground.

The hot east wind blew and dried its fruit.
The strong branches broke, and they were thrown into the fire.

- <sup>13</sup>"Now that grapevine is planted in the desert.
It is a very dry and thirsty land.
<sup>14</sup> A fire started in the large branch and spread to destroy all of its vines and fruit.
So there was no strong walking stick.
There was no king's scepter."

This was a sad song about death, and it was sung as a sad song about death."

Israel Turned Away From God

20 <sup>1</sup>One day, some of the elders* of Israel came to me to ask the LORD for advice.
This was on the tenth day of the fifth month of the seventh year of exile.<sup>a</sup> The elders sat down in front of me.

<sup>2</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me.
He said, <sup>3</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> speak to the elders of Israel. Tell them 'This is what the Lord God says: Have you come to ask me advice?
If you have, I will not give it to you.' <sup>4</sup>Should you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? You must tell them about the terrible things their fathers have done. <sup>5</sup>You must tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: On the day I chose Israel, I raised my hand to Jacob's family and made a promise to them in Egypt. When I let them know who I was, I raised my hand and said, 'I am the LORD your God.' <sup>6</sup>On that day, I promised to take you out of Egypt and lead you to the land I was giving to you. That was a good land filled with many good things.<sup>c</sup> It was the most beautiful of all countries!'"

<sup>7</sup>"I told the family of Israel to throw away their horrible idols.* I told them not to become filthy with those filthy statues from Egypt. I said, 'I am the LORD your God.' <sup>8</sup>But they turned against me and refused to listen to me. They did not throw away their horrible idols. They did not leave their filthy statues in Egypt. So I decided to destroy them in Egypt—to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>9</sup>But I did not destroy them. I had already told the Egyptians that I would bring my people out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>10</sup>I brought the family of Israel out of Egypt. I led them into the desert. <sup>11</sup>Then I gave them my laws and told them all my rules. All those who obey

<sup>a</sup>20:1 seventh year of exile This was the summer of 591 B.C.

<sup>b</sup>20:3 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 4, 27, 46.

milk and honey." Also in verse 15.

them will live. <sup>12</sup>I also told them about all the special days of rest, which were a special sign between us. They showed that I am the LORD and that I was making them special to me.

<sup>13</sup>“But the family of Israel turned against me in the desert. They did not follow my laws. They refused to obey my rules—even though people who obey my laws live because of them. They treated my special days of rest as if they were not important. They worked on those days many times. I decided to destroy them in the desert—to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>14</sup>But I did not destroy them. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>15</sup>I made another promise to those people in the desert. I promised that I would not bring them into the land I was giving them. That was a good land filled with many good things. It was the most beautiful of all countries!

<sup>16</sup>“The people of Israel refused to obey my rules or to follow my laws. They treated my days of rest as if they were not important. They did all these things because their hearts belonged to their filthy idols. <sup>17</sup>But I felt sorry for them, so I did not destroy them. I did not completely destroy them in the desert. <sup>18</sup>I spoke to their children and told them, “Don’t be like your parents. Don’t make yourselves filthy with their filthy idols. Don’t follow their laws or obey their commands. <sup>19</sup>I am the LORD. I am your God. Obey my laws and keep my commands. Do the things I tell you. <sup>20</sup>Show that my days of rest are important to you. Remember, they are a special sign between us. I am the LORD, and these days show you that I am your God.”

<sup>21</sup>“But the children turned against me and did not obey my laws. They did not keep my commands—even though people who obey my laws live because of them. They treated my special days of rest as though they were not important. So I decided to destroy them completely in the desert—to let them feel the full force of my anger. <sup>22</sup>But I stopped myself. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. <sup>23</sup>So I made another promise to those people in the desert. I promised to scatter them among the nations, to send them to many different countries.

<sup>24</sup>“The people of Israel did not obey my commands. They refused to obey my laws. They treated my special days of rest as though they were not important, and they worshiped the filthy idols of their fathers. <sup>25</sup>So I gave them laws that were not good. I gave them commands that would not bring life. <sup>26</sup>I let them make themselves filthy with their gifts. They even began to sacrifice their own first-born children. In this way I would destroy them. Then they would know that I am the LORD.” <sup>27</sup>So now, son of man, speak to the family of Israel. Tell them, “This is what the Lord God says: The people of Israel said bad things about me and made evil plans against me. <sup>28</sup>But I still brought them to the land I promised to give them. They saw all the hills and green trees, so they went to all those places to worship. They took their sacrifices and anger offerings<sup>a</sup> to all those places. They offered their sacrifices that made a sweet smell, and they offered their drink offerings at those places. <sup>29</sup>I asked the people of Israel why they were going to the high places. But that high place is still there today.<sup>b</sup>”

<sup>30</sup>“Since Israel did those things, speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: You people have made yourselves filthy by doing the things your ancestors<sup>c</sup> did. You have acted like a prostitute. You have left me to be with the horrible gods your ancestors worshiped. <sup>31</sup>You are giving the same kind of gifts. You are putting your children in the fire as a gift to your false gods. You are still making yourself filthy with these filthy idols today! Do you really think that I should let you come to me and ask me for advice? I am the Lord God. By my life, I swear that I will not answer your questions or give you advice! <sup>32</sup>You keep saying you want to be like the other nations. You live like the people in other nations. You serve pieces of wood and stone idols!’”

<sup>33</sup>The Lord God says, “By my life, I swear that I will rule over you as king. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! <sup>34</sup>I will bring you out of these other nations. I scattered you among these nations, but I will gather you together and bring you back from these countries. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! <sup>35</sup>I will lead you into a desert as I did before, but this will be a place where other nations live. We will stand face to face, and I will judge you. <sup>36</sup>I will judge you as I judged your ancestors in the desert near Egypt.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>37</sup>“I will judge you guilty and punish you according to the agreement.* <sup>38</sup>I will remove all those who turned against me and sinned against me. I will remove them from your homeland. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>39</sup>Now, family of Israel, this is what the Lord God says: “Whoever wants to worship their filthy idols, let them go and worship them. But later, don’t think you will get any advice from me. You will not ruin my name

<sup>a</sup>20:28 anger offerings The people called these meals “fellowship offerings,” but Ezekiel is making fun of them and saying that those meals only made God angry.

anymore—not when you continue to give your gifts to your filthy idols!”

<sup>40</sup>The Lord God says, “People must come to my holy mountain—the high mountain in Israel—to serve me! The whole family of Israel will be on their land; they will be there in their country. There you can come to ask me for advice, and you must come there to bring me your offerings. You must bring the first part of your crops to me there. You must bring all your holy gifts to me in that place. <sup>41</sup>Then I will be pleased with the sweet smell of your sacrifices. That will happen when I bring you back. I scattered you among many nations, but I will gather you together and make you my special people again. And all the nations will see it. <sup>42</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD. You will know this when I bring you back to the land of Israel, the land I promised to give to your ancestors. <sup>43</sup>In that country you will remember all the evil things you did that made you filthy, and you will be ashamed. <sup>44</sup>Family of Israel, you did many evil things, and you should be destroyed because of them. But to protect my good name, I will not give you the punishment you really deserve. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>45</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>46</sup>“Son of man, look toward the Negev, the southern part of Judah. Speak against the Negev Forest.” <sup>47</sup>Say to the Negev Forest, ‘Listen to the word of the LORD. This is what the Lord God said: Look, I am ready to start a fire in your forest. The fire will destroy every green tree and every dry tree. The flame that burns will not be put out. All the land from south to north will be burned by the fire. <sup>48</sup>Then all people will see that I, the LORD, have started the fire. The fire will not be put out!’”

<sup>49</sup>Then I said, “Oh, Lord God! If I say this, the people will say that I am only telling them stories.”

Babylon, the Sword

21 <sup>1</sup>So the word of the LORD came to me again. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>b</sup> look toward Jerusalem and speak against their holy places. Speak against the land of Israel for me. <sup>3</sup>Say to the land of Israel, ‘This is what the LORD said: I am against you! I will pull my sword from its sheath.* I will remove all people from you—the good and the evil. <sup>4</sup>I will cut off both good people and evil people from you. I will pull my sword from its sheath and use it against all people from south to north. <sup>5</sup>Then everyone will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I have pulled my sword from its sheath. My sword will not go back into its sheath again until it is finished.’

<sup>6</sup>“Son of man, make sad sounds like a sad person with a broken heart. Make these sad sounds in front of the people. <sup>7</sup>Then they will ask you, ‘Why are you making these sad sounds?’ Then you must say, ‘Because of the sad news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear. All hands will become weak. Every spirit will become weak. All knees will be like water.’ Look, that bad news is coming. These things will happen!” This is what the Lord God said.

The Sword Is Ready

<sup>8</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>9</sup>“Son of man, speak to the people for me. Say this, ‘This is what the Lord God says:

“‘Look, a sword, a sharp sword, and it has been polished.

<sup>10</sup> The sword was made sharp for killing. It was polished to flash like lightning.

My son, you ran away from the stick I used to punish you.

You refused to be punished with that wooden stick.

<sup>11</sup> So the sword has been polished. Now it can be used.

The sword was sharpened and polished. Now it can be put in the hand of the killer.

<sup>12</sup>“Son of man, shout out and scream because the sword will be used against my people and all the rulers of Israel. They wanted war—so they will be with my people when the sword comes. So slap your thigh to show your sadness, <sup>13</sup>because it is not just a test. You refused to be punished with the wooden stick, so what else should I use to punish you? [A sword?],” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>14</sup>“Son of man, clap your hands to show your sadness, and speak to the people for me.

“Let the sword come down twice, no, three times!

This sword is for killing the people.

This is the sword for the great killing.

This sword will cut into them.

<sup>15</sup> Their hearts will melt with fear, and many people will fall.

The sword will kill many people by the city gates.

Yes, the sword will flash like lightning.

It was polished to kill the people!

<sup>16</sup> Sword, be sharp!

Cut on the right side.

Cut straight ahead.

Cut on the left side.

Go wherever your edge was chosen to go.

<sup>17</sup>“Then I, too, will clap my hands and stop showing my anger. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>a</sup>20:46 Negev Forest God is probably making fun of the people. The Negev is a desert area. There are no forests in the Negev.

<sup>b</sup>21:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 6, 9, 12, 14, 19, 28.

Jerusalem Punished

<sup>18</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>19</sup>"Son of man, draw two roads that the sword of the king of Babylon can use to come to Israel. Both roads will come from the same country. Then draw a sign at the head of the road to the city. <sup>20</sup>Use the sign to show which road the sword will use. One road leads to the Ammonite city of Rabbah. The other road leads to Judah, to the protected city, Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon has come to where the two roads separate. He uses magic to learn which way to go: He shakes his arrows, he asks his family idols,* and he looks at the liver<sup>a</sup> from an animal he has killed.

<sup>22</sup>"The signs tell him to take the road on his right, the road leading to Jerusalem! He plans to bring the battering rams.<sup>b</sup> He will give the command, and his soldiers will begin the killing. They will shout the battle cry. Then they will build a wall of dirt around the city. They will build a dirt road leading up to the walls. They will build wooden towers to attack the city. <sup>23</sup>Those magic signs mean nothing to the people of Israel. They have the promises they made. But [the LORD] will remember their sin, so the Israelites will be captured."

<sup>24</sup>This is what the LORD God says: "You have done many evil things. Your sins are very clear. You forced me to remember that you are guilty, so the enemy will catch you in his hand. <sup>25</sup>And you, evil leader of Israel, you will be killed. Your time of punishment has come! The end is here!"

<sup>26</sup>This is what the LORD God says: "Take off the turban!<sup>1</sup> Take off the crown! The time has come to change. The important leaders will be brought low, and those who are not important now will become important leaders. <sup>27</sup>I will completely destroy that city! But this will not happen until the right man becomes the new king. Then I will let him have this city."

The Ammonites Punished

<sup>28</sup>"Son of man, speak to the people for me. Say this, 'This is what the LORD God says to the people of Ammon and their shameful god:

"Look, a sword!

The sword is out of its sheath.*

It has been polished.

The sword is ready to kill.

It was polished to flash like lightning!

<sup>29</sup>"Your visions* are useless.

Your magic will not help you.

It is only a bunch of lies.

The sword is now at the throats of evil men.

<sup>a</sup>21:21 arrows, idols, liver People who believed in false gods used these things to try to learn the future.

<sup>b</sup>21:22 battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.

They will soon be only dead bodies.
Their time has come.

The time has come for their evil to end.

Prophecy Against Babylon

<sup>30</sup>"Put the sword back in its sheath.* Babylon, I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land where you were born. <sup>31</sup>I will pour out my anger against you. My anger will burn you like a hot wind. I will hand you over to cruel men.<sup>c</sup> Those men are skilled at killing people. <sup>32</sup>You will be like fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow deep into the earth—people will never remember you again. I, the LORD, have spoken!"

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

22 The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,<sup>d</sup> will you judge the city of murderers? Will you tell her about all the terrible things she has done? <sup>3</sup>You must say, 'This is what the LORD God says: The city is full of murderers, so her time of punishment will come. She made filthy idols* for herself, and those idols made her filthy!'

<sup>4</sup>"People of Jerusalem, you killed many people. You made filthy idols. You are guilty, and the time has come to punish you. Your end has come. Other nations will make fun of you and laugh at you. <sup>5</sup>People far and near will make fun of you. You have ruined your name. You are filled with confusion.

<sup>6</sup>"Look, all the leaders in Israel are using their strength just to kill other people. <sup>7</sup>And the people in Jerusalem don't respect their parents. There in the city, they abuse the foreigners. They cheat orphans and widows in that place. <sup>8</sup>You hate all that I consider holy. You treat my special days of rest as if they are not important. <sup>9</sup>In Jerusalem, people tell lies in order to kill innocent people. They go to the mountains to worship false gods and then come back to Jerusalem to eat their fellowship meals.

<sup>13</sup>"Now look! I will slam my hand down and stop you! I will punish you for cheating and killing people. <sup>14</sup>Will you be brave then? Will you be strong at the time I come to punish you? I am the LORD. I have spoken, and I will do what I said! <sup>15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations. I will force you to go to many countries. I will completely destroy the filthy things in this city. <sup>16</sup>But Jerusalem, you will become unclean. And the other nations will see all these things happen. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

Israel Is Like Worthless Waste

<sup>17</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>“Son of man, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are important metals, but when a worker melts silver to make it pure, those metals are poured off as waste. Israel has become like that waste to me. <sup>19</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: ‘All of you have become like worthless waste. So I will gather you into Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Workers put silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a fire. They blow on the fire to make it hotter. Then the metals begin to melt. In the same way I will put you in my fire and melt you. That fire is my hot anger. <sup>21</sup>I will put you in my fire of anger and blow on it, and you will begin to melt. <sup>22</sup>In that city, you will be like silver melting in a fire. Then you will know that I am the LORD, and that I poured out my anger on you.’”

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

<sup>23</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>“Son of man, speak to Israel. Tell her that she is not pure.<sup>a</sup> I am angry at that country, so that country has not received its rain. <sup>25</sup>The prophets in Jerusalem are making evil plans. They are like a lion—it roars when it begins to eat the animal it caught. They have destroyed many lives. They have taken many valuable things and made widows of many of the women in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>“The priests have really hurt my teachings. They don’t treat my holy* things right—they don’t show they are important. They treat holy things the same as things that are not holy. They treat clean* things like things that are unclean. They don’t teach the people about these things. They refuse to respect my special days of rest. They treat me as though I am not important.

<sup>27</sup>“The leaders in Jerusalem are like a wolf eating the animal it has caught. They attack people and kill them just to get rich.

<sup>28</sup>“The prophets don’t warn the people—they cover up the truth. They are like workers who don’t really repair a wall—they only put plaster over the holes. They only see lies. They do their magic to learn the future, but they only tell lies. They say, ‘This is what the Lord God said.’ But they are only lying—the LORD did not speak to them!

<sup>29</sup>“The common people take advantage of each other. They cheat and steal from each other. They get rich by taking advantage of poor, helpless beggars, and they really cheat the foreigners. They are not fair to them at all!

<sup>30</sup>“I asked the people to change their lives and protect their country. I asked people to fix the walls. I wanted them to stand by those holes in the wall and fight to protect their city. But no one came to help! <sup>31</sup>So I will show them my anger—I will completely destroy them. I will punish them for the evil things they have done. It is all their fault.” This is what the Lord God said.

23 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>b</sup> listen to this story about Samaria and Jerusalem. There were two sisters, daughters of the same mother. <sup>3</sup>They became prostitutes in Egypt while they were still young girls. That’s where they first let men touch and handle their young breasts. <sup>4</sup>The older daughter was named Oholah,<sup>c</sup> and her sister was named Oholibah.<sup>d</sup> They became my wives, and we had children. I am using the name Oholah to mean Samaria and the name Oholibah to mean Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>“Then Oholah became unfaithful to me—she began to live like a prostitute. She began to want her lovers. She saw the Assyrian soldiers <sup>6</sup>in their blue uniforms. They were all handsome young men riding horses. They were leaders and officers, <sup>7</sup>and Oholah gave herself to all those men. All of them were hand-picked soldiers in the Assyrian army, and she wanted them all! She became filthy with their filthy idols.* <sup>8</sup>Besides that, she never stopped her love affair with Egypt. Egypt made love to her when she was a young girl. Egypt was the first lover to touch her young breasts. Egypt poured his untrue love on her. <sup>9</sup>So I let her lovers have her. She wanted Assyria, so I gave her to them! <sup>10</sup>They raped<sup>e</sup> her. They took her children and killed her. They punished her, and women still talk about her.

<sup>11</sup>“Her younger sister Oholibah saw all these things happen. But Oholibah sinned more than her sister did! She was more unfaithful than Oholah. <sup>12</sup>She wanted the Assyrian leaders and officers. She wanted those soldiers in blue uniforms riding their horses. They were all handsome young men.

<sup>b</sup>23:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 36.

<sup>c</sup>23:4 Oholah This name means “Tent.” It probably refers to the Holy Tent where the people of Israel went to worship God.

<sup>d</sup>23:4 Oholibah This name means “My Tent is in her country.” Also in verses 18, 21.

<sup>13</sup>I saw that both women were going to ruin their lives with the same mistakes.

<sup>18</sup>"Oholibah let everyone see that she was unfaithful. She let so many men enjoy her naked body that I became disgusted with her—just as I had become disgusted with her sister. <sup>19</sup>But Oholibah thought about her time as a prostitute in Egypt when she was young, and she turned to even more prostitution. <sup>20</sup>She remembered the lovers who excited her there, who were like animals in their sexual desires and abilities.

<sup>21</sup>"Oholibah, you dreamed of those times when you were young, when your lovers touched and handled your young breasts. <sup>22</sup>So Oholibah, this is what the Lord God says: "You became disgusted with your lovers, but I will bring them here, and they will surround you. <sup>23</sup>I will bring all the men from Babylon, especially the Chaldeans. I will bring the men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the men from Assyria. I will bring all the leaders and officers, all those desirable young men, chariot officers, and handpicked soldiers riding their horses. <sup>24</sup>That crowd of men will come to you in large groups, riding on their horses and in their chariots. They will have their spears, shields, and helmets. They will gather around you, and I will tell them what you have done to me. Then they will punish you their own way. <sup>25</sup>I will show you how jealous I am. They will become angry and hurt you. They will cut off your nose and ears. They will kill you with a sword. Then they will take your children and burn whatever is left of you. <sup>26</sup>They will take your nice clothes and jewelry. <sup>27</sup>So I will stop your dreams about your love affair with Egypt. You will never again look for them. You will never remember Egypt again!"

<sup>28</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "I am giving you to the men you hate. I am giving you to the men you became disgusted with. <sup>29</sup>And they will show how much they hate you! They will take everything you worked for, and they will leave you bare and naked! People will clearly see your sins. They will see that you acted like a prostitute and dreamed wicked dreams. <sup>30</sup>You did those bad things when you left me to chase after the other nations. You did those bad things when you began to worship their filthy idols. <sup>31</sup>You followed your sister and lived as she did. You, yourself, took her cup of poison and held it in your hands."<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>This is what the Lord God says:

"You will drink your sister's cup of poison.
It is a tall, wide cup of poison.
It holds much poison.

People will laugh at you and make fun of you.

<sup>33</sup> You will stagger like a drunk.

You will become very dizzy.
That is the cup of destruction and devastation.

It is like the cup of punishment that your sister drank.

<sup>34</sup> You will drink the poison in that cup.

You will drink it to the last drop.
You will throw down the glass and break it to pieces.

You will tear at your breasts from the pain.

This will happen because I am the Lord
God,
and this is what I said.

<sup>35</sup>"So this is what the Lord God said: "Jerusalem, you forgot me. You threw me away and left me behind. So now you must suffer for leaving me and living like a prostitute. You must suffer for your wicked dreams."

Judgment Against Oholah and Oholibah

<sup>36</sup>The Lord God said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them about the terrible things they have done. <sup>37</sup>They committed the sin of adultery.* They are guilty of murder. They acted like prostitutes—they left me to be with their filthy idols.* They had my children, but they forced them to pass through fire. They did this to give food to their filthy idols. <sup>38</sup>They also treated my special days of rest and my holy place as though they were not important. <sup>39</sup>They killed their children for their idols, and then they went into my holy place and made it filthy too! They did this inside my Temple*!

<sup>40</sup>"They have sent for men from faraway places. You sent a messenger to these men, and they came to see you. You bathed for them, painted your eyes, and put on your jewelry. <sup>41</sup>You sat on a fine bed with a table set before it. You put my incense<sup>b</sup> and my oil<sup>c</sup> on this table.

<sup>b</sup>23:41 my incense A special blend of spices that were burned as a gift to God. This special incense was to be burned only in the Temple. See Ex. 30:34–38.

<sup>c</sup>23:41 my oil The special oil that was used for anointing priests and things in the Temple to make them holy (special). See Ex. 30:22–33.

crowd of people having a party.<sup>a</sup> Many people came to the party. People were already drinking as they came in from the desert. They gave bracelets and beautiful crowns to the women.

<sup>43</sup>Then I spoke to one of the women who was worn out from her sexual sins. I asked her, 'Will they continue to do sexual sins with her, and she with them?' <sup>44</sup>But they kept going to her as they would go to a prostitute. Yes, they went again and again to Oholah and Oholibah, those wicked women.

<sup>45</sup>"But good men will judge them guilty of adultery and murder, because Oholah and Oholibah committed adultery and their hands are covered with blood!"

The Pot and the Meat

24<sup>1</sup>The word of the Lord God came to me. This was on the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year of exile.<sup>b</sup> He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>c</sup> write today's date and this note: 'On this date the army of the king of Babylon surrounded Jerusalem.' <sup>3</sup>Tell this story to the family who refuses to obey (Israel). Tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says:

"Put the pot on the fire.

Put on the pot and pour in the water.

<sup>4</sup> Put in the pieces of meat.

Put in every good piece, the thighs and the shoulders.

Fill the pot with the best bones.

<sup>5</sup> Use the best animals in the flock.

Pile the wood under the pot, and boil the pieces of meat.

Boil the soup until even the bones are cooked.

<sup>6</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: It will be bad for Jerusalem.

<sup>a</sup>23:42 party The Hebrew word is like the word for a fellowship offering, a time when people came to share a meal and enjoy themselves together with the Lord. Here, it seems this time of worship turned into a wild party. See Deut 14:22–29; 26:1–15.

<sup>b</sup>24:1 ninth year of exile This was Jan. 15, 588 B.C., the date that Nebuchadnezzar began his attack on Jerusalem.

<sup>c</sup>24:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 16, 25.

It will be bad for that city of murderers! Jerusalem is like a pot with rust on it, and those spots of rust cannot be removed!

That pot is not clean, and the rust cannot be removed, so the meat must be thrown out and not divided among the priests.

This is because the blood from the murders is still there!

She put the blood on the bare rock. She did not pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup> I put her blood on the bare rock so that it would not be covered.

I did this so that people would become angry and punish her for killing innocent people.

<sup>9</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says:

It will be bad for that city of murderers!

I will pile up plenty of wood for the fire.

<sup>10</sup> Put plenty of wood under the pot.

Light the fire.

Cook the meat until it is well done.

Mix in the spices,<sup>e</sup> and let the bones be burned up.

<sup>11</sup> Then let the pot stand empty on the coals. Let it become so hot that its stains<sup>f</sup> begin to glow.

Those stains will be melted away.

The rust will be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>"Jerusalem might work hard to scrub away her stains.

But that 'rust' will not go away!

Only the fire of punishment will remove it.

<sup>13</sup>"You sinned against me and became stained with sin.

I wanted to wash you and make you clean,

but the stains would not come out.

I will not try washing you again until my hot anger is finished with you!

<sup>14</sup>"I am the LORD. I said your punishment would come, and I will make it happen. I will not hold back the punishment or feel sorry for you. I will punish you for the evil things you did. This is what the Lord God said."

<sup>d</sup>24:7 blood ... dirt The Law of Moses teaches that whoever killed an animal for food must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. This showed that they were giving the life of that animal back to God. See Lev. 17:1–16 and Deut. 12:1–25. If the blood was not covered with dirt, it was a witness against the killer. See Gen. 4:10, Job 15:18, and Isa. 26:21.

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife

<sup>15</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>16</sup>"Son of man, you love your wife very much, but I am going to take her away from you. Your wife will die suddenly, but you must not show your sadness. You must not cry loudly. You will cry and your tears will fall, <sup>17</sup>but you must mourn* quietly. Dress as you normally do; wear your turban* and sandals; don't cover your mustache, and don't eat the food people normally eat when someone dies."

<sup>18</sup>The next morning I told the people what God had said. That evening, my wife died. The next morning I did what God commanded. <sup>19</sup>Then the people said to me, "Why are you doing this? What does it mean?"

<sup>20</sup>Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me. He told me <sup>21</sup>to speak to the family of Israel. The Lord God said, 'Look, I will destroy my holy place. You are proud of that place and sing songs of praise about it. You love to see it. You really love that place. But I will destroy it, and your children that you left behind will be killed in battle. <sup>22</sup>But you will do the same things that I have done about my dead wife. You will not cover your mustache or eat the food people normally eat when someone dies. <sup>23</sup>You will wear your turbans and your sandals. You will not show your sadness publicly or cry publicly, but you will waste away with guilt and talk to each other quietly about your grief. <sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel is an example for you. You will do all the same things he did. That time of punishment will come, and then you will know that I am the LORD."

<sup>25-26</sup>The Lord said, "Son of man, I will take away the place that makes the people feel safe—Jerusalem, that beautiful city that makes them so happy. They really love that place. They love to look at it. But I will take it away from them, and I will also take their children. On that day one of the survivors will come to you with the bad news about Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>That same day you will be able to talk to the messenger. You will not be silent anymore. This will be a sign to the people, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Prophecy Against Ammon

25 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>a</sup> look toward the people of Ammon and speak against them for me. <sup>3</sup>Say to them: 'Listen to the word of the Lord God! This is what the Lord God says: You were happy when my holy place was destroyed. You were against the land of Israel when it was polluted. You were against the family of Judah when the people were carried away as prisoners. <sup>4</sup>So I will give you to the people from the east. They will get your land. Their armies will set up their camps in your country. They will live among you and eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup>"I will make the city Rabbah a pasture for camels and the country of Ammon a sheep pen. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says: You were happy that Jerusalem was destroyed. You clapped your hands and stamped your feet. You had fun insulting the land of Israel, <sup>7</sup>so I will punish you. You will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. You will lose your inheritance and die in faraway lands. I will destroy your country! Then you will know that I am the LORD."

Prophecy Against Moab and Seir

<sup>8</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "Moab and Seir<sup>b</sup> say, 'The family of Judah is just like any other nation.' <sup>9</sup>I will cut into Moab's shoulder—I will take away the cities that are on its borders—the glory of the land, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim. <sup>10</sup>Then I will give these cities to the people of the east. They will get your land. I will also let those people from the east destroy the Ammonites, and people will forget they were ever a nation. <sup>11</sup>So I will punish Moab, and then they will know that I am the LORD."

Prophecy Against Edom

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "The people of Edom turned against the family of Judah and tried to get even. The people of Edom are guilty." <sup>13</sup>So the Lord God says: "I will punish Edom. I will destroy the people and the animals in Edom. I will destroy the whole country of Edom, all the way from Teman to Dedan. The Edomites will be killed in battle. <sup>14</sup>I will use my people Israel and get even against Edom. In this way the people of Israel will show my anger against Edom. Then the people of Edom will know that I punished them." This is what the Lord God said.

Prophecy Against the Philistines

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "The Philistines* tried to get even. They were very cruel. They let their anger burn inside them too long." <sup>16</sup>So the Lord God said, "I will punish the Philistines. Yes, I will destroy those people from Crete. I will completely destroy those people who live on the seacoast. <sup>17</sup>I will punish them—I will get even. I will let my anger teach them a lesson. Then they will know that I am the LORD!"

The Sad Message About Tyre

26 <sup>1</sup>In the eleventh year of exile,<sup>c</sup> on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man,<sup>a</sup> Tyre said bad things about Jerusalem: 'Hurray! The city gate protecting the people is destroyed! The city gate is open for me. The city of Jerusalem is ruined, so I can get plenty of valuable things out of it!'"

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord God says: "I am against you, Tyre! I will bring many nations to fight against you. They will come again and again, like waves on the beach.

<sup>4</sup>"The enemy soldiers will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will also scrape the topsoil from her land. I will make Tyre a bare rock. <sup>5</sup>Tyre will become a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets. I have spoken!" The Lord God says, "Tyre will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. <sup>6</sup>Her daughters on the mainland will be killed in battle. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Nebuchadnezzar Will Attack Tyre

<sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "I will bring an enemy from the north against Tyre. That enemy is Nebuchadnezzar, the great king of Babylon! He will bring a very large army. There will be horses, chariots,* horse soldiers and many other soldiers. They will be from many different nations. <sup>8</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will kill your daughters on the mainland. He will build towers to attack your city. He will build a dirt road around your city and a dirt road leading up to the walls. <sup>9</sup>He will bring the logs to break down your walls. He will use picks and break down your towers. <sup>10</sup>There will be so many of his horses that the dust from them will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of horse soldiers, wagons, and chariots when the king of Babylon enters the city through your city gates. Yes, they will come into your city because its walls will be pulled down. <sup>11</sup>The king of Babylon will come riding through your city. His horses' hoofs<sup>b</sup> will come pounding over your streets. He will kill your people with swords. The strong columns in your city will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup>Nebuchadnezzar's men will take away your riches. They will take the things you wanted to sell. They will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. They will throw the wood and stones into the sea like garbage. <sup>13</sup>So I will stop the sound of your happy songs. People will not hear your harps anymore. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets! You will not be rebuilt, because I, the LORD, have spoken!" This is what the Lord God said.

Other Nations Will Cry for Tyre

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord God says to Tyre: "The countries along the Mediterranean coast will shake at the sound of your fall. That will happen when your people are hurt and killed. <sup>16</sup>Then all the leaders of the countries by the sea will step down from their thrones and show their sadness. They will take off their special robes and their beautiful clothes. Then they will put on their 'clothes of shaking.' They will sit on the ground and shake with fear. They will be shocked at how quickly you were destroyed. <sup>17</sup>They will sing this sad song about you:

"Tyre, you were a famous city.<sup>c</sup>

People came from across the sea to live in you.<sup>d</sup>

You were famous,
but now you are gone!

You were strong on the sea,
and so were the people who lived in you.

You made all who live on the mainland afraid of you.

<sup>18</sup> Now, on the day you fall,
the countries along the coast will shake
with fear.

You started many colonies along the coast.
Now those people will be afraid when you are gone!"

<sup>19</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "Tyre, you will become an old, empty city. No one will live there. I will cause the sea to flow over you. The great sea will cover you. <sup>20</sup>I will send you down into that deep hole—to the place of death. You will join those who died long ago. I will send you to the world below, like all the other old, empty cities. You will be with all the others who go down to the grave. No one will live in you then. You will never again be in the land of the living! <sup>21</sup>Other people will be afraid about what happened to you. You will be finished. People will look for you, but they will never find you again." That is what the Lord God says.

Tyre, the Door to the Seas

27 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>e</sup> sing this sad song about Tyre. <sup>3</sup>Say this about Tyre:

"Tyre, you are the door to the seas.

You are the merchant* for many nations.

You travel to many countries along the coast.

This is what the Lord God says:

Tyre, you think that you are so beautiful.

You think you are perfectly beautiful!

<sup>c</sup>26:17 you were a famous city This can also mean "People have cried for you."

<sup>d</sup>26:17 People ... you This can also mean "People have lived in you for a long time."

<sup>e</sup>27:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

- <sup>4</sup> The Mediterranean Sea is the border around your city.
Your builders made you perfectly beautiful,
like the ships that sail from you.
- <sup>5</sup> Your builders used cypress trees from the mountains of Senir to make your planks.
They used cedar trees from Lebanon to make your mast.
- <sup>6</sup> They used oak trees from Bashan to make your oars.
They used pine trees from Cyprus to make the cabin on your deck.<sup>a</sup>
They decorated that shelter with ivory.
- <sup>7</sup> For your sail,
they used colorful linen made in Egypt.
That sail was your flag.
The coverings over your cabin were blue and purple.
They came from the coast of Cyprus.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>8</sup> Men from Sidon and Arvad rowed your boats for you.
Tyre, your wise men were the pilots on your ships.
- <sup>9</sup> The elders and wise men from Byblos<sup>c</sup> were on board to help put caulking<sup>d</sup> between the boards on your ship.
All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to trade and do business with you.

<sup>10</sup>“Men from Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army. They were your men of war who hung their shields and helmets on your walls. They brought honor and glory to your city.
<sup>11</sup>Men from Arvad and Cilicia were guards standing on the wall around your city. Men from Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields on the walls around your city and made your beauty complete.

coral,* and rubies for the things you sold.

<sup>17</sup>“The people in Judah and Israel traded with you. They paid for the things you sold with the wheat, olives, early figs, honey, oil, and balm.<sup>g</sup> <sup>18</sup>Damascus was a good customer. They traded with you for the many wonderful things you had. They traded wine from Helbon and white wool for those things. <sup>19</sup>Damascus traded wine from Uzal for the things you sold. They paid with wrought iron, cassia,* and sugar cane. <sup>20</sup>Dedan provided good business and traded with you for saddle blankets and riding horses. <sup>21</sup>Arabia and all the leaders of Kedar* traded lambs, rams, and goats for your goods. <sup>22</sup>The merchants* of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded all the best spices and every kind of precious stone and gold for your goods. <sup>23</sup>Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad traded with you. <sup>24</sup>They paid with the finest clothing, blue cloth, cloth with fine needlework, rugs of many colors, and the strongest ropes. These were the things they traded with you. <sup>25</sup>[The ships from Tarshish carried the things you sold.]

“Tyre, you are like one of those cargo ships.

You are on the sea, loaded with many riches.

- <sup>26</sup> Your oarsmen rowed you far out to sea.
But a powerful east wind will destroy your ship at sea.

- <sup>27</sup> All your wealth will spill into the sea.
Your wealth—the things you buy and sell—will spill into the sea.
Your whole crew—sailors, pilots, and the men who put caulking between the boards on your ship—will spill into the sea.
The merchants* and soldiers in your city will all sink into the sea.
That will happen on the day that you are destroyed!

- <sup>28</sup>“You send your merchants to faraway places.

Those places will shake with fear when they hear your pilots' cry!

- <sup>29</sup> Your whole crew will jump ship.
The sailors and pilots will jump ship and swim to the shore.
- <sup>30</sup> They will be very sad about you.
They will cry, throw dust on their heads, and roll in ashes.
- <sup>31</sup> They will shave their heads for you.
They will put on sackcloth.*
They will cry for you like someone crying for someone who died.

<sup>32</sup>“And in their loud crying they will sing this sad song about you:

92:17 balm An ointment from some kinds of trees and plants. It is used as medicine.

<sup>d</sup>27:9 caulking Often a mixture of tar and rope that was put between the boards to make a ship watertight so that it would not leak. Also in verse 27.

<sup>e</sup>27:14 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

<sup>f</sup>27:15 Rhodes Or “Dedan.” See verse 20.

“No one is like Tyre!

Tyre is destroyed, in the middle of the sea!

<sup>33</sup> Your merchants sailed across the seas.
You satisfied many people with your great wealth and the things you sold.
You made the kings of the earth rich!

<sup>34</sup> But now you are broken by the seas and by the deep waters.
All the things you sell and all your people have fallen.

<sup>35</sup> All the people living on the coast are shocked about you.
Their kings are terrified.
Their faces show their shock.

<sup>36</sup> The merchants in other nations whistle about you.
What happened to you will frighten people,
because you were destroyed.
You are gone forever.”

Tyre Thinks It Is Like a God

28 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> say to the ruler of Tyre, ‘This is what the Lord God says:

“You are very proud!
And you say, ‘I am a god!
I sit on the seat of gods
in the middle of the seas.”

“But you are a man and not God!
You only think you are a god.

<sup>3</sup> You think you are wiser than Daniel<sup>b</sup> and no secret is hidden from you.
<sup>4</sup> Through your wisdom and understanding you have gotten riches for yourself.
And you put gold and silver in your treasuries.

<sup>5</sup> Through your great wisdom and trade,
you have made your riches grow.
And now you are proud because of those riches.

<sup>6</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says:
Tyre, you thought you were like a god.

<sup>7</sup> I will bring strangers to fight against you.
They are most terrible among the nations!
They will pull out their swords and use them against the beautiful things your wisdom brought you.
They will ruin your glory.

<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the grave.
You will be like a sailor who died at sea.

<sup>9</sup> That person will kill you.
Will you still say, ‘I am a god’?
No, he will have you in his power!

<sup>a</sup>28:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 12, 21.

<sup>b</sup>28:3 Daniel A wise man from ancient times. This might be Daniel from the Bible, or the Danel mentioned in the writings from Ras Shamra.

You will see that you are a man, not God!

<sup>10</sup> Strangers will treat you like a foreigner<sup>c</sup> and kill you,
because I gave the command!”
This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>11</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>12</sup>“Son of man, sing this sad song about the king of Tyre. Say to him, ‘This is what the Lord God says:

“You were the perfect man—
so full of wisdom and perfectly handsome.

<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God.
You had every precious stone—rubies, topaz, and diamonds,
beryls, onyx, and jasper,
sapphires, turquoise, and emeralds.
And each of these stones was set in gold.
You were given this beauty on the day
you were created.
God made you strong.

<sup>14</sup> You were one of the chosen Cherubs*
who spread your wings over my throne.
I put you on the holy mountain of God.
You walked among the jewels that sparkled like fire.

<sup>15</sup> You were good and honest when I created you, but then you became evil.

<sup>16</sup> Your business brought you many riches.
But they also put cruelty inside you, and you sinned.

So I treated you like something unclean and threw you off the mountain of God.
You were one of the chosen Cherubs
who spread your wings over my throne.
But I forced you to leave the jewels that sparkled like fire.

<sup>17</sup> Your beauty made you proud.
Your glory ruined your wisdom.
So I threw you down to the ground,
and now other kings stare at you.

<sup>18</sup> You did many wrong things.
You were a very crooked merchant.*
In this way, you made the holy places unclean.

So I brought fire from inside you.
It burned you!

You burned to ashes on the ground.
Now everyone can see your shame.

<sup>19</sup>“All the people in other nations were shocked about what happened to you.

What happened to you will make people very afraid.
You are finished!”

<sup>c</sup>28:10 foreigner Literally, “uncircumcised.” This means a person who did not share in the agreement God made with Israel. See “circumcise, circumcision” in the Word List.

The Message Against Sidon

<sup>20</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man, look toward Sidon and speak for me against that place. <sup>22</sup>Say, 'This is what the Lord God says:

"I am against you, Sidon!

Your people will learn to respect me.

I will punish Sidon.

Then people will know that I am the Lord.

Then they will learn that I am holy, and they will treat me that way.

<sup>23</sup> I will send disease and death to Sidon, and many people inside the city will die.

Soldiers outside the city will kill many people.

Then people will know that I am the Lord!"

The Nations Will Stop Laughing at Israel

<sup>24</sup>"Then the surrounding nations that hate Israel will no longer be like stinging nettles<sup>a</sup> and painful thorns. And they will know that I am the Lord God."

<sup>25</sup>This is what the Lord God said: "I scattered the people of Israel among other nations, but I will gather the family of Israel together again. Then the nations will know that I am holy, and they will treat me that way. At that time the people of Israel will live in their land—I gave that land to my servant Jacob.*

<sup>26</sup>They will live safely in the land. They will build houses and plant vineyards. I will punish the nations around them that hated them. Then the people of Israel will live in safety, and they will know that I am the Lord their God."

The Message Against Egypt

29 <sup>1</sup>On the twelfth day of the tenth month of the tenth year of exile,<sup>b</sup> the word of the Lord God came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>c</sup> look toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Speak for me against him and Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'This is what the Lord God says:

"I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

You are the great monster<sup>d</sup> lying beside the Nile River.

You say, "This is my river!

I made this river!"

<sup>c</sup>29:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 18.

<sup>d</sup>29:3 great monster There were ancient stories about a sea monster that fought against God. The prophets called Egypt that sea monster many times. But here, this might mean the crocodiles that rest on the banks of the Nile River.

4-5" "But I will put hooks in your jaws.

The fish in the Nile River will stick to your scales.

I will pull you and your fish up out of your rivers and onto the dry land.

You will fall on the ground, and no one will pick you up or bury you.

I will give you to the wild animals and birds.

You will be their food.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the people living in Egypt will know that I am the Lord!

"Why will I do these things?

Because the people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support, but Egypt was only a weak blade of grass.

<sup>7</sup> The people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support, but Egypt only pierced their hands and shoulder.

They leaned on you for support, but you broke and twisted their back."

<sup>8</sup> So this is what the Lord God says:

"I will bring a sword against you. I will destroy all your people and animals.

<sup>9</sup> Egypt will be empty and destroyed. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

God said, "Why will I do these things? Because you said, 'This is my river. I made this river.'<sup>10</sup> So I am against you. I am against the many branches of your Nile River. I will destroy Egypt completely. The cities will be empty from Migdol to Aswan and as far as the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup>No person or animal will pass through Egypt. Nothing will pass through or settle there for 40 years. <sup>12</sup>I will destroy Egypt. The cities will be in ruins for 40 years! I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. I will make them strangers<sup>e</sup> in foreign lands."

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "I will scatter the people of Egypt among many nations. But at the end of 40 years, I will gather those people together again. <sup>14</sup>I will bring back the Egyptian captives. I will bring back the Egyptians to the land of Pathros, to the land where they were born. But their kingdom will not be important. <sup>15</sup>It will be the least important kingdom. It will never again lift itself above the other nations. I will make them so small that they will not rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup>And the family of Israel will never again depend on Egypt. The Israelites will remember their sin—they will remember that they turned to Egypt for help and not to God, and they will know that I am the Lord God."

<sup>e</sup>29:12 I will ... strangers Or "I will scatter them ...."

Babylon Will Get Egypt

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the first month in the twenty-seventh year of exile,<sup>a</sup> the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made his army fight hard against Tyre. They shaved every soldier's head. Every shoulder was rubbed bare from carrying heavy loads. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked hard to defeat Tyre, but they got nothing from all that hard work." <sup>19</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: "I will give Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he will carry away the people. He will take the many valuable things in Egypt to pay his army. <sup>20</sup>I will give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar as a reward for the hard work he did for me." This is what the Lord God said!

<sup>21</sup>"On that day I will make the family of Israel strong. So Ezekiel, I will let you speak to them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The Army of Babylon Will Attack Egypt

30 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> speak for me. Say, 'This is what the Lord God says:

"Cry and say,
"A terrible day is coming."

<sup>3</sup> That day is near!
Yes, the LORD's day for judging is near.
It will be a cloudy day,
the time for judging the nations.

<sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt!
People in Ethiopia will shake with fear,
when Egypt falls.
The army of Babylon will take the Egyptians as prisoners.
Egypt's foundations will be torn down.

<sup>5</sup>"Many people made peace agreements with Egypt. But all those people from Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya, and the people of Israel<sup>c</sup> will be destroyed!

<sup>6</sup>"This is what the Lord God says:
Those who support Egypt will fall!
The pride in her power will end.
The people in Egypt will be killed in battle,
all the way from Migdol to Aswan.
This is what the Lord God said!

<sup>7</sup> Egypt will join the other countries that were destroyed.
Its cities will be among those that are in ruins.

<sup>a</sup>29:17 twenty-seventh year of exile This was in the spring of 571 B.C.

<sup>b</sup>30:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 21.

<sup>c</sup>30:5 people of Israel Literally, "sons of the agreement." This might mean "all the people who made peace agreements with Egypt," or it might mean "Israel, the people who made the agreement with God."

<sup>8</sup> I will start a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers will be destroyed.
Then they will know that I am the Lord!

<sup>9</sup>"At that time I will send out messengers. They will go in ships to carry the bad news to Ethiopia. Ethiopia now feels safe, but the people of Ethiopia will shake with fear when Egypt is punished. That time is coming!"

<sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord God says:

"I will use the king of Babylon.
I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the people of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> Nebuchadnezzar and his people are the most terrible of the nations,
and I will bring them to destroy Egypt.
They will pull out their swords against Egypt.

They will fill the land with dead bodies.

<sup>12</sup> I will make the Nile River become dry
land.

Then I will sell the dry land to evil
people.

I will use strangers to make that land empty.

I, the LORD, have spoken!"

The Idols of Egypt Will Be Destroyed

<sup>13</sup> This is what the Lord God says:

"I will also destroy the idols* in Egypt.
I will take the statues away from Memphis.

There will no longer be a leader in the land of Egypt.

I will put fear there instead.

<sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros empty.
I will start a fire in Zoan.
I will punish Thebes.

<sup>15</sup> I will pour out my anger against Pelusium, the fortress* of Egypt!
I will destroy the people of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup> I will start a fire in Egypt;
the city of Pelusium will ache with fear.
The soldiers will break into the city of Thebes,

and Memphis will have new troubles
every day.

<sup>17</sup> The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis<sup>d</sup> will die in battle, and the women will be taken away as prisoners.

<sup>18</sup> It will be a dark day in Tahpanhes when I break Egypt's control.<sup>e</sup>

Her proud power will be finished!

A cloud will cover Egypt, and her daughters will be taken away as prisoners.

<sup>19</sup> So I will punish Egypt.
Then they will know that I am the
LORD!"

Egypt Will Become Weak Forever

<sup>20</sup>On the seventh day of the first month of the eleventh year of exile,<sup>a</sup> the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. No one will wrap his arm with a bandage. It will not heal, so his arm will not be strong enough to hold a sword."

<sup>22</sup>This is what the LORD God says: "I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the strong arm and the arm that is already broken. I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. <sup>24</sup>I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh will cry out in pain, the kind of cry that a dying man makes. <sup>25</sup>So I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong, but the arms of Pharaoh will fail. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

"I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. Then he will stretch the sword out against the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD!"

Assyria Is Like a Cedar Tree

31 <sup>1</sup>On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year of exile, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> say this to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his people:

"You are so great!

Who can I compare you to?

<sup>3</sup> Assyria was a cedar tree in Lebanon with beautiful branches, with forest shade, and very tall.

Its top was among the clouds!

<sup>4</sup> The water made the tree grow.

The deep river made the tree tall.

Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted.

Only small streams flowed from that tree to all the other trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup> So that tree was taller than all the other trees of the field, and it grew many branches.

There was plenty of water, so the tree branches spread out.

<sup>6</sup> All the birds of the sky made their nests in the branches of that tree, and all the animals of the field gave birth under the branches of that tree.

All the great nations lived under the shade of that tree.

<sup>7</sup> The tree was very beautiful. It was so large!

It had such long branches.

Its roots had plenty of water.

<sup>8</sup> Even the cedar trees in God's garden were not as big as this tree.

Cypress trees did not have as many branches.

Plane trees did not have such branches.

No tree in God's garden was as beautiful as this tree.

<sup>9</sup> I gave it many branches and made it beautiful.

And all the trees in Eden, God's garden, were jealous!"

<sup>10</sup>So this is what the LORD God says: "That tree grew tall. Its top reached up to the clouds. It grew so big that it became proud! <sup>11</sup>So I let a powerful king have that tree. That ruler punished the tree for the bad things it did. I took that tree out of my garden. <sup>12</sup>Strangers—the most terrible people in the world—cut it down and scattered its branches on the mountains and in the valleys. Its broken limbs drifted down the rivers flowing through that land. There was no more shadow under that tree, so all the people left. <sup>13</sup>Now birds live in that fallen tree. Wild animals walk over its fallen branches.

<sup>14</sup>Now, none of the trees by that water will be proud. They will not try to reach the clouds. None of the strong trees that drink that water will brag about being tall, because all of them must die. They will all go down into the world below, to Sheol,* the place of death. They will join the other people who died and went down into that deep hole."

<sup>15</sup>This is what the LORD God says: "I made the people cry on the day that tree went down to Sheol. I covered him with the deep ocean. I stopped its rivers and all the water stopped flowing. I made Lebanon mourn* for it. All the trees of the field became sick with sadness for that big tree. <sup>16</sup>I made the tree fall—and the nations shook with fear at the sound of the falling tree. I sent the tree down to the place of death to join the other people who had gone down into that deep hole. In the past, all the trees of Eden, the best of Lebanon, drank that water. The trees were comforted in the world below. <sup>17</sup>Yes, those trees also went down with the big tree to the place of death. They joined the people who were killed in battle. That big tree made the other trees strong. Those trees had lived under the big tree's shadow among the nations.

<sup>18</sup>"Egypt, there were many big and powerful trees in Eden. Which of those trees should I compare you to? They all went down into the world below! And you, too, will join those foreigners<sup>c</sup> in that place of death. You will lie there among the people killed in battle.

31:18 foreigners Literally, "uncircumcised." This means people who did not share in the agreement God made with Israel. See "circumcise, circumcision" in the Word List.

<sup>a</sup>30:20 eleventh year of exile This was the summer of 587 B.C. Also in 31:1.

<sup>b</sup>31:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

"Yes, that will happen to Pharaoh and to the crowds of people with him!" This is what the Lord God said.

Pharaoh: a Lion or a Dragon?

32 <sup>1</sup>On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year of exile,<sup>a</sup> the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> sing this sad song about Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Say to him:

"You thought you were like a powerful young lion walking proud among the nations.

But really, you are like a dragon<sup>c</sup> in the lakes.

You push your way through the streams.
You make the water muddy with your feet and stir up the rivers of Egypt."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord God says:

"I have gathered many people together.
Now I will throw my net over you.
Then those people will pull you in.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will drop you on the dry ground.

I will throw you down in the field.

I will let all the birds come and eat you.

I will let wild animals from every place come and eat you until they are full.

<sup>5</sup> I will scatter your body on the mountains.

I will fill the valleys with your dead body.

<sup>6</sup> I will pour your blood on the mountains, and it will soak down into the ground. The rivers will be full of you.

<sup>7</sup> I will make you disappear.

I will cover the sky and make the stars dark.

I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not shine.

<sup>8</sup> I will darken the lights in the sky over you.

I will make your whole country dark."
This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>9</sup>"I will make many people sad and upset when I bring an enemy to destroy you. Nations you don't even know will be upset. <sup>10</sup>I will make many people shocked about you. Their kings will be terrified of you, when I swing my sword before them. They will shake with fear on the day you fall. Each king will be afraid for his own life."

<sup>a</sup>32:1 twelfth year of exile This was early spring, 585 B.C. Also in verse 17.

<sup>b</sup>32:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 18.

<sup>c</sup>32:2 dragon This might be a crocodile or a giant sea creature. The giant sea creature represented the power of the sea, and the Nile River made Egypt a powerful nation.

<sup>11</sup>That will happen because of what the Lord God said: "The sword of the king of Babylon will come to fight against you. <sup>12</sup>I will use those soldiers to kill your people in battle. They come from the most terrible of the nations. They will destroy the things Egypt is proud of. The people of Egypt will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>There are many animals by the rivers in Egypt. I will also destroy all those animals. People will not make the waters muddy with their feet anymore. The hoofs of cattle will not make the water muddy anymore. <sup>14</sup>So I will make the water in Egypt calm. I will cause their rivers to run slowly—they will be slick like oil." This is what the Lord God said. <sup>15</sup>"I will make the land of Egypt empty. That land will lose everything. I will punish all the people living in Egypt. Then they will know that I am the Lord God!

<sup>16</sup>"This is a sad song that people will sing for Egypt. The daughters in other nations will sing this sad song. They will sing it as a sad song about Egypt and all its people." This is what the Lord God said.

Egypt to Be Destroyed

<sup>17</sup>On the fifteenth day of that month in the twelfth year of exile, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man, cry for the people of Egypt. Lead Egypt and the daughters from powerful nations to the grave. Lead them to the world below where they will be with the other people who went down into that deep hole.

<sup>19</sup>"Egypt, you are no better than anyone else! Go down to the place of death. Go lie down with those foreigners.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>20</sup>"Egypt will go to be with all the other men who were killed in battle. The enemy has pulled her and all her people away.

<sup>21</sup>"Strong and powerful men were killed in battle. Those foreigners went down to the place of death. And from that place, those who were killed will speak to Egypt and his helpers.

<sup>22-23</sup>"Assyria* and all its army are there in the place of death. Their graves are deep down in that deep hole. All the Assyrian soldiers were killed in battle, and their graves are all around his grave. When they were alive, they made people afraid, but they were all killed in battle.

<sup>24</sup>"Elam is there and all its army is around her grave. All of them were killed in battle. Those foreigners went deep down into the ground. When they were alive, they made people afraid. But they carried their shame with them down to that deep hole. <sup>25</sup>They have made a bed for Elam and all its soldiers who were killed in battle. Elam's army is all around its grave. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they scared people. But they carried their shame with them down into that deep hole. They were put with all the other people who were killed.

<sup>26</sup>“Meshech, Tubal, and all their armies are there. Their graves are around it. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they made people afraid. <sup>27</sup>But now they are lying down by the powerful men who died long, long ago! They were buried with their weapons of war. Their swords will be laid under their heads. But their sins are on their bones, because when they were alive, they scared people.

<sup>28</sup>“Egypt, you also will be destroyed, and you will lie down by those foreigners. You will lie with the other soldiers who were killed in battle.

<sup>29</sup>“Edom is there also. His kings and other leaders are there with him. They were powerful soldiers, but now they lie with the other men who were killed in battle. They are lying there with those foreigners. They are there with the other people who went down into that deep hole.

<sup>30</sup>“The rulers from the north are there, all of them, and there are all the soldiers from Sidon. Their strength scared people, but they are embarrassed. Those foreigners lie there with the other men who were killed in battle. They carried their shame with them down into that deep hole.

<sup>31</sup>“Yes, Pharaoh and all his army will be killed in battle. Pharaoh will be comforted when he sees his many men and all the others who went down into the place of death.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>32</sup>“People were afraid of Pharaoh when he was alive, but he will lie down next to those foreigners. Pharaoh and his army will lie down with all the other soldiers who were killed in battle.” This is what the Lord God said.

God Chooses Ezekiel to Be a Watchman

33 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> speak to your people. Say to them, ‘Whenever I bring enemy soldiers to fight against a country, the people choose someone to be a watchman.* <sup>3</sup>If this guard sees enemy soldiers coming, he blows the trumpet and warns the people. <sup>4</sup>If people hear the warning but ignore it, the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. They will be responsible for their own death. <sup>5</sup>They heard the trumpet, but they ignored the warning. So they are responsible for their own deaths. If they had paid attention to the warning, they could have saved their own lives.

<sup>6</sup>“But what if the guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, but does not blow the trumpet? Since he doesn’t warn the people, the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. They will be taken away because they sinned, but the guard will also be responsible for their deaths.’

<sup>7</sup>“Now, son of man, I am choosing you to be a watchman for the family of Israel. If you hear a message from my mouth, you must warn the people for me. <sup>8</sup>I might say to you, ‘These evil people will die.’ Then you must go warn them for me. If you don’t warn them and tell them to change their lives, those evil people will die because they sinned. But I will make you responsible for their deaths. <sup>9</sup>But if you do warn the evil people to change their lives and stop sinning, and if they refuse to stop, they will die because they sinned. But you have saved your life.

God Does Not Want to Destroy People

<sup>10</sup>“So, son of man, speak to the family of Israel for me. They might say, ‘We have sinned and broken the law. Our sins are too heavy to bear. We rot away because of them. What can we do to live?’

<sup>11</sup>“You must say to them, ‘The Lord God says: By my life, I swear that I don’t enjoy seeing people die—not even evil people! I don’t want them to die. I want them to come back to me. I want them to change their lives so that they can really live. So come back to me! Stop doing bad things! Why must you die, family of Israel?’

<sup>12</sup>“Son of man, tell your people: ‘The good things people did in the past will not save them if they become bad and begin to sin. In the same way the bad things people did in the past will not destroy them if they turn from their evil. So remember, the good things people did in the past will not save them if they begin to sin.’

<sup>13</sup>“Maybe I will tell good people that they will live. But maybe those good people will begin to think that the good things they did in the past will save them. So they might begin to do bad things, but I will not remember the good things they did in the past! No, they will die because of the bad things they begin to do.

<sup>14</sup>“Or maybe I will tell some evil people that they will die. But they might change their lives, stop sinning, and begin to live right. They might become good and fair. <sup>15</sup>They might give back the things they took when they loaned money. They might pay for the things they stole. They might begin to follow the laws that give life and stop doing bad things. Then they will surely live. They will not die. <sup>16</sup>I will not remember the bad things they did in the past, because now they live right and are fair. So they will live!

<sup>a</sup>33:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 7, 10, 12, 24, 30.

"But they are the people who are not fair! They are the people who must change! <sup>18</sup>If good people stop doing good and begin to sin, they will die because of their sins. <sup>19</sup>And if evil people stop doing wrong and start living right and being fair, they will live. <sup>20</sup>You still say that I am not fair, but I am telling you the truth. Family of Israel, everyone will be judged for what they do!"

Jerusalem Has Been Taken

<sup>21</sup>On the fifth day of the tenth month in the twelfth year of exile,<sup>a</sup> a person who had escaped from the battle in Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has been taken!"

<sup>22</sup>The power of the Lord God had come on me the evening before that person came to me so that I could speak. But when that person came to me, the LORD opened my mouth and let me speak again. <sup>23</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man, there are Israelites who live in the ruined cities in Israel. They are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, and God gave him all this land. Now, we are many people, so surely this land belongs to us! It is our land!'"

<sup>25</sup>"You must tell them that this is what the Lord God says: 'You eat meat with the blood still in it. You look to your idols* for help. You murder people, so why should I give you this land? <sup>26</sup>You depend on your own sword. Each of you does terrible things. Each of you commits sexual sins with his neighbor's wife, so you cannot have the land!'"

<sup>27</sup>"You must tell them that this is what the Lord God says: "By my life, I promise that the people living in the ruined cities will be killed with a sword! If any people are out in the country, I will let animals kill and eat them. If people are hiding in the fortresses* and the caves, they will die from disease. <sup>28</sup>I will make that place an empty wasteland. That country will lose all the things it was proud of. The mountains of Israel will become empty. No one will pass through that place. <sup>29</sup>The people have done many terrible things, so I will make that place an empty wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

<sup>30</sup>"And now about you, son of man. Your people lean against the walls and stand in their doorways talking about you. They tell each other, "Come on, let's go hear what the LORD says." <sup>31</sup>So they come to you as if they were my people. They sit in front of you as if they were my people. They hear your words, but they will not do the things you say. They only want to do what feels good. They only want to cheat people and make more money.

<sup>32</sup>"You are nothing to these people but a singer singing love songs. You have a good voice. You play your instrument well. They listen to your words, but they will not do what you say. <sup>33</sup>But the things you sing about really will happen, and then the people will know that there was a prophet living among them."

Israel Is Like a Flock of Sheep

34 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> speak against the shepherds of Israel for me. Speak to them for me. Tell them that this is what the Lord God says: 'You shepherds of Israel have only been feeding yourselves. It will be very bad for you! Why don't you shepherds feed the flock? <sup>3</sup>You eat the fat sheep and use their wool to make clothes for yourselves. You kill the fat sheep, but you don't feed the flock. <sup>4</sup>You have not made the weak strong. You have not cared for the sick sheep. You have not put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. Some of the sheep wandered away, and you did not go get them and bring them back. You did not go to look for the lost sheep. No, you were cruel and severe—that's the way you tried to lead the sheep!'"

<sup>5</sup>"And now the sheep are scattered because there was no shepherd. They became food for every wild animal, so they were scattered. <sup>6</sup>My flock wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. My flock was scattered over all the face of the earth. There was no one to search or to look for them."

<sup>7</sup>So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD. The Lord God says, <sup>8</sup>"I swear that wild animals will catch my sheep and my people will become food for all those animals, because they did not have any real shepherds. My shepherds did not look out for my flock. They did not feed my flock. No, they only killed the sheep and fed themselves!"

<sup>9</sup>So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD! <sup>10</sup>The LORD says, "I am against the shepherds. I will demand my sheep from them. I will fire them. They will not be my shepherds anymore. Then the shepherds will not be able to feed themselves, and I will save my flock from their mouths. Then my sheep will not be food for them."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord God says, "I myself will be their Shepherd. I will search for my sheep and take care of them. <sup>12</sup>If a shepherd is with his sheep when they begin to wander away, he will go searching for them. In the same way I will search for my sheep. I will save them and bring them back from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. <sup>13</sup>I will bring them back from those nations. I will gather them from those countries and bring them back to their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the places where people live. <sup>14</sup>I will lead them to grassy fields.

They will go to the place high on the mountains of Israel and lie down on good ground and eat the grass. They will eat in rich grass-land on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Yes, I will feed my flock, and I will lead them to a place of rest.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>16</sup>“I will search for the lost sheep. I will bring back the sheep that were scattered and put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. I will make the weak sheep strong, but I will destroy the fat and powerful shepherds. I will feed them the punishment they deserve.”

<sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “And you, my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between the male sheep and the male goats. <sup>18</sup>You can eat the grass growing on the good land. So why do you also crush the grass that other sheep want to eat? You can drink plenty of clear water. So why do you also stir the water that other sheep want to drink? <sup>19</sup>My flock must eat the grass you crushed with your feet, and they must drink the water you stir with your feet!”

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord God says to them: “I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep! <sup>21</sup>You push with your side and shoulder. You knock down all the weak sheep with your horns. You push until you have forced them away, <sup>22</sup>so I will save my flock. They will not be caught by wild animals anymore. I will judge between one sheep and another. <sup>23</sup>Then I will put one shepherd over them, my servant David. He will feed them and be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup>Then I, the Lord God, will be their God, and my servant David will be the ruler living among them. I, the Lord, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup>“And I will make a peace agreement with my sheep. I will take harmful animals away from the land. Then the sheep can be safe in the desert and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup>I will bless the sheep and the places around my hill. I will cause the rains to fall at the right time and will shower them with blessings. <sup>27</sup>And the trees growing in the field will produce their fruit. The earth will give its harvest, so the sheep will be safe on their land. I will break the yokes* on them and save them from the power of the people who made them slaves. Then they will know that I am the Lord. <sup>28</sup>They will not be caught like an animal by the nations anymore. Those animals will not eat them anymore. No, they will live safely. No one will make them afraid. <sup>29</sup>I will give them some land that will make a good garden. Then they will not suffer from hunger in that land or suffer the insults from the nations anymore. <sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I am the Lord their God. The family of Israel will know that I am with them and that they are my people.” This is what the Lord God said!

<sup>31</sup>“You are my sheep, the sheep of my grassland. You are only human beings, and I am your God.” This is what the Lord God said.

The Message Against Edom

35 <sup>1</sup>The word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> look toward Mount Seir and speak against it for me. <sup>3</sup>Say to it, ‘This is what the Lord God says:

“‘I am against you, Mount Seir!

I will punish you and make you an empty wasteland.

<sup>4</sup> I will destroy your cities, and you will become empty.

Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Why? Because you have always been against my people.

You used your sword against Israel at the time of their trouble, at the time of their final punishment.”

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord God says, “But I promise by my own life that I will let death have you. Death will chase you. You did not hate killing people, so death will chase you. <sup>7</sup>I will make Mount Seir an empty ruin. I will kill everyone who enters or leaves that city. <sup>8</sup>I will cover its mountains with those who are killed. There will be dead bodies all over your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup>I will make you empty forever. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>10</sup>You said, “These two nations and countries, Israel and Judah, will be mine. We will take them for our own.”

But the Lord is there! <sup>11</sup>And the Lord God says, “You were jealous of my people. You were angry and hateful to them. So by my life, I swear that I will punish you the same way you hurt them! I will punish you and let my people know that I am with them. <sup>12</sup>And then you, too, will know that I have heard all your insults. You said many bad things against the mountain of Israel. You said, ‘Israel has been destroyed! We will chew them up like food!’ <sup>13</sup>And you were proud and said things against me. You spoke too many times, and I have heard every word you said. Yes, I heard you.”

<sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “All the earth will be happy when I destroy you.

<sup>15</sup>You were happy when the country of Israel was destroyed. I will treat you the same way. Mount Seir and the whole country of Edom will be destroyed. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

The Land of Israel Will Be Rebuilt

36 <sup>1</sup>“Son of man,<sup>b</sup> speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them to listen to the word of the Lord! <sup>2</sup>Tell them that this is what the Lord God says: ‘The enemy said bad things against you. They said, Hurray! Now the ancient mountains<sup>a</sup> will be ours!’

<sup>a</sup>35:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

<sup>b</sup>36:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 17.

<sup>3</sup>“So speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them that this is what the Lord God says: ‘The enemy destroyed your cities and attacked you from every direction. They did this so that you would belong to the other nations. Then people talked and whispered about you.’”

<sup>4</sup>“So, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord God! This is what the Lord God says to the mountains, hills, streams, valleys, empty ruins, and abandoned cities that have been looted and laughed at by the other nations around them. <sup>5</sup>The Lord God says, “I swear, I will let my strong feelings speak for me! I will let Edom and the other nations feel my anger. They took my land for themselves. They really had a good time when they showed how much they hated this land. They took the land for themselves, just so they could destroy it.”

<sup>6</sup>“So say these things about the land of Israel. Speak to the mountains and to the hills, to the streams, and to the valleys. Tell them that this is what the Lord God says: ‘I will let my strong feelings and anger speak for me, because you had to suffer the insults from those nations.’”

<sup>7</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: “I am the one making this promise! I swear that the nations around you will have to suffer for those insults.

<sup>8</sup>“But mountains of Israel, you will grow new trees and produce fruit for my people Israel. My people will soon come back. <sup>9</sup>I am with you, and I will help you. People will till your soil and plant seeds in you. <sup>10</sup>There will be many people living on you. The whole family of Israel—all of them—will live there. The cities will have people living in them. The destroyed places will be rebuilt. <sup>11</sup>I will give you many people and animals, and they will grow and have many children. I will bring people to live on you as in the past. I will make it better for you than before. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Yes, I will lead many people—my people, Israel—to your land. You will be their property, and you will not take away their children again.”

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “Land of Israel, people say bad things to you. They say you destroyed your people. They say you took the children away from your people. <sup>14</sup>But you will not destroy people anymore or take away their children again.” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>15</sup>“I will not let those other nations insult you anymore. You will not be hurt by them anymore. You will not take the children away from your people again.” This is what the Lord God said.

The Lord Will Protect His Name

<sup>16</sup>Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, the family of Israel lived in their own country, but they made that land filthy by the bad things they did. To me, they were like a woman who becomes unclean* because of her monthly time of bleeding. <sup>18</sup>They spilled blood on the ground when they murdered people in the land. They made the land filthy with their idols,* so I showed them how angry I was. <sup>19</sup>I scattered them among the nations and spread them through all the lands. I gave them the punishment they deserved for the bad things they did. <sup>20</sup>But even in those other nations, they ruined my good name. How? Those nations said, ‘These are the Lord’s people, but they left his land.’

<sup>21</sup>“The people of Israel ruined my holy name wherever they went, and I felt sorry for my name. <sup>22</sup>So tell the family of Israel that this is what the Lord God says: ‘Family of Israel, you ruined my holy name in the places where you went. I am going to do something to stop this. I will not do it for your sake, Israel. I will do it for my holy name. <sup>23</sup>I will show the nations how holy my great name really is. You ruined my good name in those nations! But I will show you that I am holy. I will make you respect my name, and then those nations will know that I am the Lord.’” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>24</sup>“I will take you out of those nations, gather you together, and bring you back to your own land. <sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle pure water on you and make you pure. I will wash away all your filth, the filth from those nasty idols, and I will make you pure. <sup>26</sup>I will also put a new spirit in you to change your way of thinking. I will take out the heart of stone from your body and give you a tender, human heart. <sup>27</sup>I will put my Spirit inside you<sup>b</sup> and change you so that you will obey my laws. You will carefully obey my commands. <sup>28</sup>Then you will live in the land that I gave to your ancestors.* You will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>Also, I will save you and keep you from becoming unclean. I will command the grain to grow. I will not bring a famine* against you. <sup>30</sup>I will give you large crops of fruit from your trees and the harvest from your fields so that you will never again feel the shame of being hungry in a foreign country. <sup>31</sup>You will remember the bad things you did. You will remember that those things were not good. Then you will hate yourselves because of your sins and the terrible things you did.”

<sup>32</sup>The Lord God says, “I want you to remember this: I am not doing these things for your good! I am doing them for my good name. Family of Israel, you should be ashamed and embarrassed about the way you lived!”

<sup>a</sup>36:2 mountains Literally, “high places,” usually a reference to places of worship. See “high place” in the Word List.

<sup>b</sup>36:27 I will put my Spirit inside you Or “I will make my Spirit live among you.”

<sup>33</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “On the day that I wash away your sins, I will bring people back to your cities. The ruined cities will be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup>People will begin again to work the land so when other people pass by they will not see ruins anymore. <sup>35</sup>They will say, ‘In the past, this land was ruined, but now it is like the Garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were ruined and empty, but now they are protected, and there are people living in them.’

<sup>36</sup>“Then the nations that are still around you will know I am the LORD and that I rebuilt those places. I planted things in this land that was empty. I am the LORD. I said this, and I will make them happen!”

<sup>37</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “I will also let the family of Israel come to me and ask me to do these things for them. I will make them grow and become many people. They will be like flocks of sheep. <sup>38</sup>During the special festivals, Jerusalem was filled with flocks of sheep and goats that had been made holy. In the same way the cities and ruined places will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

The Vision of the Dry Bones

37 <sup>1</sup>The LORD’s power came on me. The Spirit<sup>a</sup> of the LORD carried me out of the city and put me down in the middle of the valley.<sup>b</sup> The valley was full of dead men’s bones. <sup>2</sup>There were many bones lying on the ground in the valley. The LORD made me walk all around among the bones. I saw the bones were very dry.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord God said to me, “Son of man,<sup>c</sup> can these bones come to life?”

I answered, “Lord God, only you know the answer to that question.”

<sup>4</sup>The Lord God said to me, “Speak to these bones for me. Tell them, ‘Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD!’ <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord God says to you: I will cause breath<sup>d</sup> to come into you, and you will come to life! <sup>6</sup>I will put sinew and muscles on you, and I will cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you, and you will come back to life! Then you will know that I am the Lord God.”

<sup>7</sup>So I spoke to the bones for the LORD, as he said. I was still speaking, when I heard the loud noise. The bones began to rattle, and bone joined together with bone! <sup>8</sup>There before my eyes, I saw sinew and muscles begin to cover the bones. Skin began to cover them, but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord God said to me, “Speak to the wind<sup>e</sup> for me. Son of man, speak to the wind for me. Tell the wind that this is what the Lord God says: ‘Wind, come from every direction and breathe air into these dead bodies! Breathe into them and they will come to life again!’”

<sup>10</sup>So I spoke to the wind for the LORD, as he said, and the breath came into the dead bodies. They came to life and stood up. There were many men—a very large army!

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord God said to me, “Son of man, these bones are like the whole family of Israel. The people of Israel say, ‘Our bones have dried up;<sup>f</sup> our hope is gone. We have been completely destroyed!’ <sup>12</sup>So speak to them for me. Tell them this is what the Lord God says: ‘My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of them! Then I will bring you to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves, and then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>14</sup>I will put my Spirit<sup>g</sup> in you, and you will come to life again. Then I will lead you back to your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You will know that I said this and that I made it happen.’” This is what the LORD said.

Judah and Israel to Become One Again

<sup>15</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, <sup>16</sup>“Son of man, get one stick and write this message on it: ‘This stick belongs to Judah and his friends,<sup>h</sup> the people of Israel.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘This stick of Ephraim belongs to Joseph and his friends, the people of Israel.’ <sup>17</sup>Then join the two sticks together. In your hand, they will be one stick.

<sup>18</sup>“Your people will ask you to explain what that means. <sup>19</sup>Tell them that this is what the Lord God says: ‘I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim and his friends, the people of Israel. Then I will put that stick with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. In my hand, they will become one stick!’

<sup>20</sup>“Take the sticks that you wrote on and hold them in front of you. <sup>21</sup>Tell the people that this is what the Lord God says: ‘I will gather the people of Israel from among the nations. ### The Message Against Gog

38 <sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man,<sup>a</sup> look toward Gog in the land of Magog. He is the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Speak for me against Gog. <sup>3</sup>Tell him that this is what the Lord God says: ‘Gog, you are the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal, but I am against you. <sup>4</sup>I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring back all the men in your army, all the horses, and horse soldiers. I will put hooks in your mouths, and I will bring all of you back. All the soldiers will be wearing their uniforms with all their shields and swords. <sup>5</sup>Soldiers from Persia, Ethiopia, and Put will be with them. They will all be wearing their shields and helmets. <sup>6</sup>There will also be Gomer with all its groups of soldiers, and there will be the nation of Togarmah<sup>b</sup> from the far north with all its groups of soldiers. There will be many people in that parade of prisoners.

<sup>7</sup>“Be prepared. Yes, prepare yourself and the armies that have joined with you. You must watch and be ready. <sup>8</sup>After a long time you will be called for duty. In the later years you will come into the land that has been healed from war. The people in that land were gathered from many nations and brought back to the mountains of Israel. In the past, the mountains of Israel had been destroyed again and again. But these people will have come back from those other nations. They all will have lived in safety. <sup>9</sup>But you will come to attack them. You will come like a storm. You will come like a thundercloud covering the land. You and all your groups of soldiers from many nations will come to attack them.”

<sup>10</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “At that time an idea will come into your mind. You will begin to make an evil plan. <sup>11</sup>You will say, ‘I will go attack the country that has towns without walls (Israel). The people there live in peace and think they are safe. There are no walls around the cities to protect them. They don’t have any locks on their gates—they don’t even have gates! <sup>12</sup>I will defeat them and take all their valuable things away from them. I will fight against the places that were destroyed but now have people living in them. I will fight against the people who were gathered from the nations. Now they have cattle and property. They live at the crossroads of the world.’”

<sup>13</sup>“Sheba, Dedan, and merchants* of Tarshish and all the cities they trade with will ask you, ‘Did you come to capture valuable things? Did you bring your groups of soldiers together to grab the good things and to carry away silver, gold, cattle, and property? Did you come to take all those valuable things?’

<sup>14</sup>“Son of man, speak to Gog for me. Tell him that this is what the Lord God says: ‘You will come to attack my people while they are living in peace and safety. <sup>15</sup>You will come from your place out of the far north, and you will bring many people with you. All of them will ride on horses. You will be a large and a powerful army. <sup>16</sup>You will come to fight against my people Israel. You will be like a thundercloud covering the land. When that time comes, I will bring you to fight against my land. Then, Gog, the nations will learn how powerful I am! They will learn to respect me and know that I am holy. They will see what I will do to you!’”

<sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “At that time people will remember that I spoke about you in the past. They will remember that I used my servants, the prophets of Israel. They will remember that the prophets of Israel spoke for me in the past and said that I would bring you to fight against them.”

<sup>18</sup>The Lord God said, “At that time Gog will come to fight against the land of Israel. I will show my anger. <sup>19</sup>In my anger and strong emotions, I make this promise: I promise that there will be a strong earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup>At that time all living things will shake with fear. The fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the wild animals in the fields, and all the little creatures crawling on the ground will shake with fear. The mountains will fall down and the cliffs will break apart. Every wall will fall to the ground!"

<sup>21</sup>The Lord God says, "On the mountains of Israel, I will call for every kind of terror against<sup>c</sup> Gog. His soldiers will be so afraid that they will attack each other and kill each other with their swords. <sup>22</sup>I will punish Gog with diseases and death. I will cause hailstones, fire, and sulfur to rain down on Gog and his groups of soldiers from many nations. <sup>23</sup>Then I will show how great I am. I will prove that I am holy. Many nations will see me do these things, and they will learn who I am. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The Death of Gog and His Army

39 <sup>1</sup>"Son of man,<sup>b</sup> speak against Gog for me. Tell him that this is what the Lord God says: 'Gog, you are the most important leader of the countries Meshech and Tubal, but I am against you. <sup>2</sup>I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring you from the far north. I will bring you to fight against the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup>But I will knock your bow from your left hand and your arrows from your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You will be killed on the mountains of Israel. You, your groups of soldiers, and all the other nations with you will be killed in the battle. I will give you as food to every kind of bird that eats meat and to all the wild animals. <sup>5</sup>You will not enter the city. You will be killed out in the open fields. I have spoken!'" This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>6</sup>"I will send fire against Magog and those people living along the coast. They think they are safe, but they will know that I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I will not let people ruin my holy name anymore. The nations will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I am the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup>That time is coming! It will happen!" This is what the LORD said. "That is the day I am talking about.

<sup>9</sup>"At that time people living in the cities of Israel will go out to the fields. They will collect the enemy's weapons and burn them. They will burn all the shields, bows and arrows, clubs and spears. They will use the weapons as firewood for seven years. <sup>10</sup>They will not have to gather wood from the fields or chop firewood from the forests because they will use the weapons as firewood. They will take the valuable things from the soldiers who wanted to steal from them. They will take the good things from the soldiers who took good things from them." This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>b</sup>39:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 17.

<sup>11</sup>"At that time I will choose a place in Israel to bury Gog. He will be buried in the Valley of the Travelers,<sup>c</sup> east of the Dead Sea. It will block the road for travelers, because Gog and all his army will be buried in that place. People will call it 'The Valley of Gog's Army.' <sup>12</sup>It will take seven months for the family of Israel to bury them. They must do this to make the land pure. <sup>13</sup>The common people will bury the enemy soldiers, and the people will become famous on the day that I bring honor to myself." The Lord God said those things.

<sup>14</sup>"Workers will be given a full-time job burying the dead soldiers to make the land pure. The workers will work for seven months. They will go around looking for dead bodies. <sup>15</sup>They will go around looking, and if anyone sees a bone, a marker will be put up by it. The sign will stay there until the grave-diggers come and bury the bone in the Valley of Gog's Army. <sup>16</sup>The city of the dead will be named Hamonah.<sup>d</sup> In this way they will make the country pure."

<sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord God said: "Son of man, speak to all the birds and wild animals for me. Tell them, 'Come here! Come here! Gather around. Come eat this sacrifice I am preparing for you. There will be a very big sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. Come, eat the meat and drink the blood. <sup>18</sup>You will eat the meat from the bodies of powerful soldiers and drink the blood from world leaders. They will be like rams, lambs, goats, and fat bulls from Bashan. <sup>19</sup>You can eat all the fat you want and drink blood until you are full. You will eat and drink from my sacrifice, which I will kill for you. <sup>20</sup>You will have plenty of meat to eat at my table. There will be horses and chariot drivers, powerful soldiers, and all the other fighting men.'" This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>21</sup>"I will let the other nations see what I have done, and they will begin to respect me! They will see my power that I used against the enemy. <sup>22</sup>Then from that day on, the family of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. <sup>23</sup>And the nations will know why the family of Israel was carried away as prisoners to other countries. They will learn that my people turned against me, so I turned away from them. I let their enemies defeat them, so my people were killed in battle. <sup>24</sup>They sinned and made themselves filthy, so I punished them for the things they did. I turned away from them and refused to help them."

<sup>25</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: "Now I will bring the family of Jacob back from captivity. I will have mercy on the whole family of Israel. I will show my strong feelings for my holy name. <sup>26</sup>The people will forget their shame and all the times they turned against me. They will live in safety on their own land. No one will make them afraid. <sup>27</sup>I will bring my people back from other countries. I will gather them from the lands of their enemies. Then many nations will see how holy I am. <sup>28</sup>They will know that I am the LORD their God. That is because I made them leave their homes and go as prisoners to other countries. But then I gathered them together again and brought them back to their own land. <sup>29</sup>I will pour out my Spirit on the family of Israel, and I will never turn away from my people again.” This is what the Lord God said.

The New Temple

40 <sup>1</sup>In the twenty-fifth year after we were taken away into captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month,<sup>a</sup> the LORD’s power came on me. This was fourteen years after the Babylonians took Jerusalem. On that day, the LORD took me there in a vision.*

<sup>2</sup>In a vision, God carried me to the land of Israel. He put me down near a very high mountain. On the mountain in front of me was a building that looked like a city.<sup>b</sup> <sup>3</sup>The LORD took me to that place. There was a man there who looked like polished bronze. He had a cloth tape measure and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate. <sup>4</sup>The man said to me, “Son of man,<sup>c</sup> use your eyes and ears. Look at these things and listen to me. Pay attention to everything that I show you, because you have been brought here so that I can show you these things. You must tell the family of Israel all that you see.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the man went to the east gate. He walked up its steps and measured the opening for the gate. It was one ruler wide. <sup>7</sup>The guardrooms were one ruler long and one ruler wide. The walls between the rooms were 5 cubits<sup>g</sup> thick. The opening by the porch at the end of the gateway that faced the Temple was also one ruler wide. <sup>8</sup>Then he measured the porch. <sup>9</sup>It was 8 cubits<sup>h</sup> long. He measured the walls on either side of the gate. Each side wall was 2 cubits<sup>i</sup> wide. The porch was at the end of the gateway that faced the Temple. <sup>10</sup>There were three little guardrooms on each side of the gateway. All these rooms and their side walls measured the same. <sup>11</sup>The man measured the entrance to the gateway. It was 10 cubits<sup>j</sup> wide and 13 cubits<sup>k</sup> long. <sup>12</sup>There was a low wall in front of each room. That wall was 1 cubit<sup>l</sup> tall and 1 cubit thick. The rooms were square. Each wall was 6 cubits long.

The Outer Courtyard

<sup>17</sup>Then the man led me into the outer courtyard. I saw thirty rooms and a pavement that went all the way around the courtyard. The rooms were along the wall and faced in toward the pavement. <sup>18</sup>The pavement was as wide as the gates were long. The pavement reached to the inside end of the gateway. This was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 100 cubits<sup>r</sup> on the east side as well as on the north side.

<sup>20</sup>Then the man measured the length and width of the north gate that was in the wall surrounding the outer courtyard. <sup>21</sup>This gateway, its three rooms on each side, and its porch all measured the same as the first gate. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.<sup>22</sup>Its windows, its porch, and its carvings of palm trees measured the same as the east gate. [On the outside,] there were seven steps leading up to the gate. Its porch was at the inside end of the gateway.<sup>23</sup>Across the courtyard from the north gate, there was a gate to the inner courtyard. It was like the gate on the east. The man measured from the gate [on the inner wall] to the gate [on the outer wall]. It was 100 cubits from gate to gate.

<sup>24</sup>Then the man led me to the south wall. I saw a gate in the south wall. He measured its side walls and its porch. They measured the same as the other gates.<sup>25</sup>The gateway and its porch had windows all around like the other gates. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.<sup>26</sup>There were seven steps going up to this gate. Its porch was at the inside end of the gateway. It had carvings of palm trees on the walls that were on either side of the gateway.<sup>27</sup>A gate was on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured from the gate [on the inner wall] to the gate [on the outer wall]. It was 100 cubits from gate to gate.

The Inner Courtyard

<sup>28</sup>Then the man led me through the south gate into the inner courtyard. He measured this gate. This gateway measured the same as the other gates to the inner courtyard.<sup>29</sup>Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.<sup>30</sup>The porch was 25 cubits wide and 5 cubits long.<sup>31</sup>And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls [on either side of the gateway]. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

<sup>32</sup>Then the man led me into the inner courtyard on the east side. He measured the gate. It measured the same as the other gates.<sup>33</sup>Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.<sup>34</sup>And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

<sup>35</sup>Then the man led me to the north gate. He measured it, and it measured the same as the other gates.<sup>36</sup>Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.<sup>37</sup>And its porch<sup>a</sup> was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

<sup>38</sup>There was also a doorway in the side walls of the gates. That doorway led into a room where the priests washed the sacrifices.<sup>39</sup>There were two tables on each side of the door of this porch. The animals for the burnt offerings,* the sin offerings,* and the guilt offerings were killed on these tables.<sup>40</sup>There were also two tables on each side of the door on the outside wall of this porch.<sup>41</sup>So there were four tables on the inside wall and four tables on the outside wall—eight tables that the priests used when they killed the animals for sacrifices.<sup>42</sup>There were also four tables made from cut stone for the burnt offerings. These tables were 1½ cubits<sup>b</sup> long, 1½ cubits wide, and 1 cubit high. On these tables, the priests put their tools that they used to kill the animals for the burnt offerings and other sacrifices.<sup>43</sup>There were meat hooks three inches long<sup>c</sup> on all the walls in this area. The meat of the offerings was put on the tables.

The Priests' Rooms

<sup>44</sup>There were two rooms<sup>d</sup> in the inner courtyard. One was by the north gate facing south. The other room was by the south<sup>e</sup> gate facing north.<sup>45</sup>The man said to me, "The room that looks to the south is for the priests who are on duty and serving in the Temple area.<sup>46</sup>But the room that looks to the north is for the priests who are on duty and serving at the altar." The priests are from the tribe of Levi. But the priests in this second group are the descendants of Zadok. They are the only people who can carry the sacrifices to the altar to serve the LORD.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>47</sup>The man measured the [inner] courtyard. The courtyard was a perfect square. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide. The altar was in front of the Temple.

The Porch of the Temple

<sup>b</sup>40:42 1 1/2 cubits 30 5/8" (77.75 cm).

<sup>g</sup>40:48 3 cubits 5' 1 3/16" (1.55 m).

<sup>h</sup>40:48 14 cubits 23' 9 11/16" (7.26 m).

<sup>i</sup>40:49 20 cubits 34' 1/8" (10.37 m). Also in 41:2, 4.

Ten steps went up to the porch. There were two columns for the walls on either side of the porch—one at each wall.

The Holy Place of the Temple

41 <sup>1</sup>Then the man led me into the Holy Place. He measured the walls on either side of the room. The side walls were 6 cubits<sup>a</sup> thick on each side. <sup>2</sup>The door was 10 cubits<sup>b</sup> wide. The sides of the doorway were 5 cubits<sup>c</sup> on each side. He measured that room. It was 40 cubits<sup>d</sup> long and 20 cubits wide.

The Most Holy Place in the Temple

<sup>3</sup>Then the man went into the last room. He measured the walls on either side of the doorway. Each side wall was 2 cubits<sup>e</sup> thick and 7 cubits<sup>f</sup> wide. The doorway was 6 cubits wide. <sup>4</sup>Then he measured the length of the room. It was 20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Other Rooms Around the Temple

<sup>5</sup>Then the man measured the wall of the Temple. It was 6 cubits thick. There were side rooms all around the Temple. They were 4 cubits<sup>g</sup> wide. <sup>6</sup>The side rooms were on three different floors, one above the other. There were 30 rooms on each floor. The wall of the Temple was built with ledges. The side rooms rested on these ledges but were not connected to the Temple wall itself. <sup>7</sup>Each floor of the side rooms around the Temple was wider than the floor below. The walls of the rooms around the Temple became narrower the higher they went so that the rooms on the top floors were wider. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the highest floor through the middle floor.

<sup>8</sup>I also saw that the Temple had a raised base all the way around it. It was the foundation for the side rooms, and it was a full ruler<sup>h</sup> high. <sup>9</sup>The outer wall of the side rooms was 5 cubits thick. There was an open area between the side rooms of the Temple <sup>10</sup>and the priests’ rooms. It was 20 cubits<sup>i</sup> wide and went all the way around the Temple. <sup>11</sup>The doors of the side rooms opened onto the raised base. There was one entrance on the north side and one entrance on the south side. The raised base was 5 cubits wide all around.

of the building was 5 cubits thick all around. <sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the Temple. The Temple was 100 cubits<sup>l</sup> long. The restricted area, including the building and its walls, was also 100 cubits long. <sup>14</sup>The restricted area on the east side, in front of the Temple, was 100 cubits long.

The Most Holy Place, the Holy Place, and the Porch (that looked out onto the inner courtyard <sup>16</sup>had wood paneling on all the walls. All the windows and doors had wood trim around them. By the doorway, the Temple had wood paneling from the floor up to the windows and up to the part of the wall <sup>17</sup>over the doorway.

On all the walls in the inner room and the outer room of the Temple were carvings <sup>18</sup>of Cherub angels and palm trees. A palm tree was between each Cherub angel. Every Cherub angel had two faces. <sup>19</sup>One face was a man’s face looking toward the palm tree on one side. The other face was a lion’s face looking toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around on the Temple. <sup>20</sup>From the floor to the area above the door, Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on all walls of the Holy Place.

<sup>21</sup>The walls on either side of the Holy Place were square. In front of the Most Holy Place, there was something that looked like <sup>22</sup>an altar* made from wood. It was 3 cubits<sup>m</sup> high and 2 cubits long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.”

<sup>23</sup>Both the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place had a double door. <sup>24</sup>Each of the doors was made from two smaller doors. Each door was really two swinging doors. <sup>25</sup>Also Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the Holy Place. They were like those carved on the walls. There was a wood roof over the front of the porch. <sup>26</sup>There were windows with frames around them and palm trees on the walls on both sides of the porch, on the roof over the porch, and on the rooms around the Temple.

The Priests’ Room

42 <sup>1</sup>Then the man led me through the north gate out into the outer courtyard. He led me to a building with many rooms that was west of the restricted area and the building on the north side. <sup>2</sup>This building was 100 cubits<sup>n</sup> long and 50 cubits<sup>o</sup> wide. People entered it from the courtyard on the north side. <sup>3</sup>The building was three stories tall <sup>4</sup>41:13 100 cubits 170’ 5/8” (51.83 m). Also in verse 15.

<sup>m</sup>41:22.3 3 cubits 5’ 1 3/16” (1.55 m).

<sup>a</sup>41:1 6 cubits 10’ 2 7/16” (3.11 m). Also in verses 3, 5.

<sup>b</sup>41:2 10 cubits 17’ 1 1/16” (5.18 m).

<sup>c</sup>41:2 5 cubits 8’ 6” (2.6 m). Also in verses 9, 12.

<sup>d</sup>41:2 40 cubits 68’ 1/4” (20.73 m).

<sup>f</sup>41:3 7 cubits 11’ 10 13/16” (3.63 m).

<sup>g</sup>41:5 4 cubits 6’ 9 5/8” (2.1 m).

<sup>h</sup>41:8 full ruler That is, 6 cubits (10’ 2 7/16” or 3.11 m).

<sup>i</sup>41:10 20 cubits 34’ 1/8” (10.37 m).

and had balconies. The 20-cubit<sup>a</sup> inner courtyard was between the building and the Temple. On the other side, the rooms faced the pavement of the outer courtyard. <sup>4</sup>There was a path 10 cubits<sup>b</sup> wide and 100 cubits long running along the south side of the building, even though the entrance was on the north side. <sup>5-6</sup>Since this building was three stories tall and did not have columns like those columns of the outer courtyards, the top rooms were farther back than the rooms on the middle and bottom floors. The top floor was narrower than the middle floor, which was narrower than the bottom floor because the balconies used this space. <sup>7</sup>There was a wall outside that was parallel to the rooms and ran along the outer courtyard. It ran in front of the rooms for 50 cubits. <sup>8</sup>The row of rooms that ran along the outer courtyard was 50 cubits long, although the total length of the building, as on the Temple side, was 100 cubits long. <sup>9</sup>The entrance was below these rooms at the east end of the building so that people could enter from the outer courtyard. <sup>10</sup>The entrance was at the start of the wall beside the courtyard.

There were rooms on the south side, by the restricted area and the other building. These rooms had a <sup>11</sup>path in front of them. They were like the rooms on the north side. They had the same length and width and the same kind of doors. <sup>12</sup>The entrance to the lower rooms was at the east end of the building so that people could enter from the open end of the path by the wall.

<sup>13</sup>The man said to me, "The north rooms and south rooms across from the restricted area are holy. These rooms are for the priests who offer the sacrifices to the LORD. That is where the priests will put the most holy offerings and eat them. That is because that place is holy. The most holy offerings are the grain offerings, the sin offerings,* and the guilt offerings. <sup>14</sup>The priests who enter the holy area must leave their serving clothes in that holy place before they go out into the outer courtyard, because these clothes are holy. If a priest wants to go to the part of the Temple where the other people are, he must go to those rooms and put on other clothes."

The Outer Courtyard

<sup>15</sup>The man had finished measuring inside the Temple area. Then he brought me out through the east gate and measured all around that area. <sup>16</sup>He measured the east side with the ruler. It was 500 cubits<sup>c</sup> long. <sup>17</sup>He measured the north side. It was 500 cubits long. <sup>18</sup>He measured the south side. It was 500 cubits long. <sup>19</sup>He went around to the west side and measured it. It was 500 cubits long. <sup>20</sup>He measured the four walls that went all the way around the Temple. The wall was 500 cubits long and 500 cubits wide. It separated the holy area from the area that is not holy.*

The Lord Will Live Among His People

43 <sup>1</sup>The man led me to the east gate. <sup>2</sup>There the Glory of the God of Israel came from the east. God's voice was loud like the sound of the sea. The ground was bright with the light from the Glory of God. <sup>3</sup>The vision* that I saw was like the vision I saw by the Kebar Canal. I bowed with my face to the ground. <sup>4</sup>The Glory of the LORD* came into the Temple through the east gate.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> picked me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. The Glory of the LORD filled the Temple. <sup>6</sup>I heard someone speaking to me from inside the Temple. The man was still standing beside me. <sup>7</sup>The voice from the Temple said to me, "Son of man,<sup>e</sup> this is the place with my throne and footstool. I will live in this place among the people of Israel forever. The family of Israel will not ruin my holy name again. The kings and their people will not bring shame to my name by committing sexual sins<sup>f</sup> or by burying the dead bodies of their kings in this place. <sup>8</sup>They will not bring shame to my name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their doorposts next to my doorposts. In the past, only a wall separated them from me. So they brought shame to my name every time they sinned and did those terrible things. That is why I became angry and destroyed them. <sup>9</sup>Now let them take their sexual sins and the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

<sup>10</sup>Now, son of man, tell the family of Israel about the Temple. Then, when they learn about the plans for the Temple, they will be ashamed of their sins. <sup>11</sup>And they will be ashamed of all the bad things they have done. Let them know the design of the Temple. Let them know how it should be built, where the entrances and exits are, and all the designs on it. Teach them about all its rules and all its laws. Write these things for everyone to see so that they can obey all the laws and rules for the Temple. <sup>12</sup>This is the law of the Temple: The whole area surrounding it on the top of the mountain is most holy. This is the law of the Temple.

The Altar

<sup>13</sup>"These are the measurements of the altar* in cubits using the long measurement<sup>g</sup>: There

<sup>f</sup>43:7 sexual sins This might also mean "turning away from God and being unfaithful to him."

<sup>g</sup>43:13 long measurement Literally, "a cubit and a handbreadth." This cubit equals 20 5/8" (51.83 cm).

<sup>a</sup>42:3 20-cubits 34' 1/8" (10.37 m).

was a gutter all the way around the base of the altar. It was 1 cubit<sup>a</sup> deep, and each side was 1 cubit wide. There was a rim around the edge 1 span<sup>b</sup> high. This is how tall the altar was: <sup>14</sup>From the ground to the lower ledge, the base measured 2 cubits.<sup>c</sup> It was 1 cubit wide. It measured 4 cubits<sup>d</sup> from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge. It was 2 cubits wide. <sup>15</sup>The place for the fire on the altar was 4 cubits high. The four corners were shaped like horns. <sup>16</sup>The place for the fire on the altar was 12 cubits<sup>e</sup> long by 12 cubits wide. It was perfectly square. <sup>17</sup>The ledge was also square, 14 cubits<sup>f</sup> long by 14 cubits wide. The border around it was 1/2 cubit<sup>g</sup> wide. (The gutter around the base was 1 cubit wide.) The steps going up to the altar were on the east side.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the man said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Lord God says: ‘These are the rules for the altar: At the time you build the altar, use these rules to offer burnt offerings’ and to sprinkle blood on it. <sup>19</sup>You will give a young bull as a sin offering* to the men from Zadok’s family. These men are the priests from the tribe of Levi. They are the men who serve me by bringing the offerings to me.” This is what the Lord God said. <sup>20</sup>“You will take some of the bull’s blood and put it on the altar’s four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it. In this way you will make the altar pure. <sup>21</sup>Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the proper place in the Temple area, outside the Temple building.

<sup>22</sup>“On the second day you will offer a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a sin offering. The priests will make the altar pure the same way they made it pure with the bull. <sup>23</sup>When you have finished making the altar pure, you will offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it and a ram from the flock that has nothing wrong with it. <sup>24</sup>Then you will offer them before the Lord. The priests will sprinkle salt on them. Then they will offer the bull and ram up as a burnt offering to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>You will prepare a goat every day for seven days for a sin offering. Also, you will prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock. These animals must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>26</sup>For seven days the priests will make the altar pure and ready for use in worshiping God. <sup>27</sup>On the eighth day, and every day after that, the priests must offer your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings* on the altar. Then I will accept you.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>b</sup>43:13 1 span The distance from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the little finger, about 9" (23 cm).

<sup>c</sup>43:14 2 cubits 3' 4 13/16" (104 cm). Also in verse 17.

<sup>d</sup>43:14 4 cubits 6' 9 5/8" (2.1 m).

<sup>e</sup>43:16 12 cubits 20' 4 7/8" (6.22 m).

<sup>f</sup>43:17 14 cubits 23' 9 11/16" (7.26 m).

The Outer Gate

44 <sup>1</sup>Then the man brought me back to the east gate of the Temple area. We were outside the gate and the gate was shut. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to me, “This gate will stay shut. It will not be opened. No one will enter through it, because the Lord of Israel has entered through it. So it must stay shut. <sup>3</sup>Only the ruler of the people may sit at this gate when he eats a meal with the Lord. He must enter through the porch of the gateway and go out the same way.”

The Holiness of the Temple

<sup>4</sup>Then the man led me through the north gate to the front of the Temple. I looked and saw the Glory of the Lord* filling the Lord’s Temple. I bowed with my face touching the ground. <sup>5</sup>The Lord said to me, “Son of man,<sup>h</sup> look very carefully! Use your eyes and ears. Look at these things, and listen very carefully to everything that I tell you about all the rules and laws about the Lord’s Temple. Look carefully at the entrances to the Temple and at all the exits from the holy place. <sup>6</sup>Then give this message to all the people of Israel who refused to obey me. Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God said: Family of Israel, I have had enough of the terrible things you have done! <sup>7</sup>You brought foreigners into my Temple who are not circumcised and have not given themselves to me.<sup>i</sup> In this way you made my Temple unclean. You broke our agreement and did terrible things, and then you gave me the offerings of bread, the fat, and the blood. But this only made my Temple unclean. <sup>8</sup>You did not take care of my holy things. No, you let foreigners have responsibility of my holy place!’”

<sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “A foreigner who is not truly circumcised must not come into my Temple—not even a foreigner living permanently among the people of Israel. He must be circumcised, and he must give himself completely to me before he can come into my Temple. <sup>10</sup>In the past, the Levites left me when Israel turned away from me. Israel left me to follow their idols.* The Levites will be punished for their sin. <sup>11</sup>The Levites were chosen to serve in my holy place. They guarded the gates of the Temple. They served in the Temple. They killed the animals for the sacrifices and burnt offerings for the people. They were chosen to help the people and to serve them. <sup>12</sup>But the Levites helped the people sin against me! They helped the people worship their idols! So I am making this promise against them: ‘They will be punished for their sin.’” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>h</sup>44:5 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

<sup>i</sup>44:7 not circumcised ... to me Literally, “not circumcised in their heart or in their body.” See “circumcise” in the Word List. Also in verse 9.

<sup>13</sup>“So the Levites will not bring offerings to me like the priests. They will not come near any of my holy things or the things that are most holy. They must carry their shame because of the terrible things that they did. <sup>14</sup>But I will let them take care of the Temple. They will work in the Temple and do the things that must be done in it.

<sup>15</sup>“The priests are all from the tribe of Levi. But only priests from Zadok’s family took care of my holy place when the people of Israel turned away from me. So only Zadok’s descendants will bring offerings to me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood from the animals they sacrifice.” This is what the Lord God said! <sup>16</sup>“They will enter my holy place and come near my table to serve me. They will take care of the things I gave them. <sup>17</sup>When they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they will wear linen clothes. They will not wear wool while they serve at the gates of the inner courtyard and in the Temple. <sup>18</sup>They will wear linen turbans* on their heads, and they will wear linen underwear. They will not wear anything that makes them sweat. <sup>19</sup>Before they go out into the outer courtyard to the people, they will take off the clothes they wear while serving me. They will put these clothes away in the holy rooms. Then they will put on other clothes. In this way they will not let people touch those holy clothes.

<sup>23</sup>“Also, the priests must teach my people the difference between things that are holy* and things that are not holy. They must help my people know what is clean and what is unclean. <sup>24</sup>The priests will be the judges in court. They will follow my laws when they judge people. They will obey my laws and my rules at all my special feasts. They will respect my special days of rest and keep them holy. <sup>25</sup>They will not go near a dead person to make themselves unclean. But they may make themselves unclean if the dead person is their father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or a sister who is not married. <sup>26</sup>After the priest has been made clean, he must wait seven days. <sup>27</sup>Then he can go back into the holy place. But on the day he goes into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must offer a sin offering for himself.” This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>a</sup>44:20 These priests ... grow long This would show that they are sad, and the priests must be happy about serving the Lord.

<sup>28</sup>“About the land that will belong to the Levites: I am their property. You will not give the Levites any land in Israel. I am their share in Israel. <sup>29</sup>They will get to eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Everything the people in Israel give to the LORD will be theirs. <sup>30</sup>And the first part of the harvest from every kind of crop will be for the priests. You will also give the priests the first part of your flour. This will bring blessings to your house. <sup>31</sup>The priests must not eat any bird or animal that has died a natural death or has been torn to pieces by a wild animal.

The Division of the Land for Holy Use

45<sup>1</sup>“You will divide the land for the Israelite tribes by throwing lots.* At that time you will separate out a part of the land. It will be a holy part for the LORD. The land will be 25,000 cubits<sup>b</sup> long and 20,000 cubits<sup>c</sup> wide.<sup>d</sup> All this land will be holy. <sup>2</sup>A square area that is 500 cubits<sup>e</sup> long on each side will be for the Temple. There will be an open space around the Temple that is 50 cubits<sup>f</sup> wide. <sup>3</sup>In the holy area you will measure 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits<sup>g</sup> wide. The Temple will be in this area. The Temple area will be the Most Holy Place.

<sup>4</sup>“This holy part of the land will be for the priests, the servants of the Temple. This is where they approach the LORD to serve him. It will be a place for the priests’ houses and a place for the Temple. <sup>5</sup>Another area, 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide, will be for the Levites who serve in the Temple. This land will also become cities for the Levites.

<sup>6</sup>“And you will give the city an area that is 5000 cubits<sup>h</sup> wide and 25,000 cubits long. It will be along the side of the holy area. It will be for all the family of Israel. <sup>7</sup>The ruler will have land on both sides of the holy area and the land belonging to the city. It will be next to the holy area and the area belonging to the city. It will be the same width as the land that belongs to a tribe. It will go all the way from the west border to the east border. <sup>8</sup>This land will be the ruler’s property in Israel. So he will not need to make life hard for my people anymore. But they will give the land to the Israelites for their tribes.”

<sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord God said: “Enough, you rulers of Israel! Stop being cruel and stealing things from people! Be fair and do what is right! Stop forcing my people out <sup>b</sup>45:1 25,000 cubits 8.05 miles (12.96 km). Also in verses 4, 6.

<sup>e</sup>45:2 500 cubits 850' 3 1/16" (259.16 m).

<sup>g</sup>45:3 10,000 cubits 3.22 miles (5.18 km). Also in verse 5.

<sup>h</sup>45:6 5000 cubits 1.61 miles (2.6 km).

from their homes!" This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>10</sup>"Stop cheating people. Use accurate scales and measures! <sup>11</sup>The ephah and the bath must be the same size: A bath and an ephah must both equal  $\frac{1}{10}$  homer.<sup>a</sup> Those measures will be based on the homer. <sup>12</sup>A shekel<sup>b</sup> must equal 20 gerahs. A mina must equal 60 shekels. It must be equal to 20 shekels plus 25 shekels plus 15 shekels.

<sup>13</sup>"This is a special offering that you must give:

$\frac{1}{6}$  ephah<sup>c</sup> of wheat for every homer of wheat;

$\frac{1}{6}$  ephah of barley for every homer of barley;

<sup>14</sup>  $\frac{1}{10}$  bath<sup>d</sup> of olive oil for every cor<sup>e</sup> of olive oil;

(Remember: Ten baths make a homer, and ten baths make a cor.)

"Those special offerings are for the grain offerings, for the burnt offerings,* and for the fellowship offerings.* These offerings are to remove the sins of the people." This is what the Lord God said.

<sup>18</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you will take a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. You must use that bull to make the Temple pure. <sup>19</sup>The priest will take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the Temple and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar* and on the posts of the gate to the inner courtyard. <sup>20</sup>You will do the same thing on the seventh day of that month for anyone who has sinned by mistake or without knowing it. So you will make the Temple pure.

Offerings During the Passover

<sup>21</sup>"On the 14th day of the first month you must celebrate the Passover.* The Festival

<sup>a</sup>45:11 homer A measure equal to about 7 bushels or about 60 gallons (220 l). Also in verse 13.

<sup>b</sup>45:12 shekel A weight equal to 2/5 of an ounce or 11.5 grams. This also became an amount of money.

of Unleavened Bread* begins at this time. It continues for seven days. <sup>22</sup>At that time the ruler will offer a bull for himself and for all the people of Israel. The bull will be for a sin offering.* <sup>23</sup>During the seven days of the festival, the ruler will offer seven bulls and seven rams that have nothing wrong with them. They will be burnt offerings* to the LORD. The ruler will offer one bull on every day of the seven days of the festival, and he will offer a male goat every day for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>The ruler will give an ephah<sup>f</sup> of barley as a grain offering with each bull, and an ephah of barley with each ram. He must give a hin<sup>g</sup> of oil for each ephah of grain. <sup>25</sup>He must do the same thing for the seven days of the Festival of Shelters.<sup>j</sup> This festival begins on the 15th day of the seventh month. These offerings will be the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil offering."

The Ruler and the Festivals

46 <sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "The east gate of the inner courtyard will be closed on the six working days. But it will be opened on the Sabbath* day and on the day of the New Moon.* <sup>2</sup>The ruler will go into the porch of that gate and stand by the gatepost. Then the priests will offer the ruler's burnt offering* and fellowship offerings.* The ruler will worship at the opening of that gate and then go out. But the gate will not be shut until evening. <sup>3</sup>On the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon, the common people will also worship the LORD at that gate.

<sup>4</sup>"The ruler will offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the Sabbath. He must provide six lambs that have nothing wrong with them and a ram that has nothing wrong with it. <sup>5</sup>He must give an ephah of grain as an offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

<sup>6</sup>"On the day of the New Moon he must offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. He will also offer six lambs and a ram that have nothing wrong with them. <sup>7</sup>The ruler must give an ephah of grain as an offering with the bull and an ephah of grain as an offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, he can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

<sup>8</sup>"When the ruler goes in, he must enter at the porch of the east gate—and he must leave that same way.

<sup>9</sup>"When the common people come to meet with the LORD at the special festivals, whoever enters through the north gate to worship will go out through the south gate, and whoever enters through the south gate will go out through the north gate. People must not return the same way they entered. Each person must go out straight ahead. <sup>10</sup>The ruler should be there among the people. When the people go in, the ruler will go in with them, and when they go out, the ruler will too.

Also in 46:5, 7, 11.

<sup>g</sup>45:24 hin A liquid measure (1 gallon or 3.2 l). Also in 46:5, 7, 11.

<sup>11</sup>"At the festivals and other special meetings, an ephah of grain as an offering must be offered with each young bull, and an ephah of grain as an offering must be offered with each ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

<sup>12</sup>"When the ruler gives a freewill offering to the LORD—it might be a burnt offering, a fellowship offering, or a freewill offering—the east gate will be opened for him. Then he will offer his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. After he leaves, the gate will be shut.

The Daily Offering

<sup>13</sup>"Every day you will provide a year-old lamb that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a burnt offering* to the LORD. You will provide it every morning. <sup>14</sup>Also, you will offer a grain offering with the lamb every morning. You will give 1/6 ephah<sup>a</sup> of flour and 1/3 hin<sup>b</sup> of oil to make the fine flour moist. It will be the daily grain offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>So they will give the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning for a burnt offering forever."

Laws of Inheritance for the Ruler

The Special Kitchens

<sup>19</sup>The man led me through the entrance at the side of the gate. He led me to the holy rooms for the priests on the north side. There I saw a place at the west end of the path. <sup>20</sup>The man said to me, "This is where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering* and will bake the grain offering. Why? So they will not need to bring these offerings out into the outer courtyard. So they will not bring those holy things out where the common people are."

<sup>21</sup>Then the man led me out to the outer courtyard. He led me to the four corners of the courtyard. I saw smaller courtyards in each corner of the large courtyard. <sup>22</sup>There was a small, enclosed area in each of the four corners of the courtyard. Each small courtyard was 40 cubits<sup>d</sup> long and 30 cubits<sup>e</sup> wide. The four areas measured the same. <sup>23</sup>There was a brick wall around each of the four small courtyards, and there were places built into the brick walls for cooking. <sup>24</sup>The man said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who serve at the Temple cook the sacrifices for the people."

The Water Flowing From the Temple

47 <sup>1</sup>The man led me back to the entrance of the Temple. I saw water coming out from under the east gate of the Temple. (The front of the Temple is on the east side.) The water flowed down from under the south end of the Temple and ran south of the altar.* <sup>2</sup>The man led me out through the north gate and then around the outside to the outer gate on the east side. The water was flowing out on the south side of the gate.

<sup>3</sup>The man walked east with a tape measure in his hand. He measured 1000 cubits.<sup>f</sup> Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. The water was only ankle deep. <sup>4</sup>He measured another 1000 cubits. Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. There the water came up to my knees. Then he measured another 1000 cubits and told me to walk through the water at that place. There the water was waist deep. <sup>5</sup>He measured another 1000 cubits, but there the water was too deep to cross. It had become a river. The water was deep enough to swim in. It was a river that was too deep to cross. <sup>6</sup>Then the man said to me, "Son of man,<sup>g</sup> did you pay close attention to the things you saw?"

Then the man led me back along the side of the river. <sup>7</sup>As I walked back along the side of the river, I saw many trees on both sides of the water. <sup>8</sup>He said to me, "This water flows east, down to the Arabah Valley. <sup>9</sup>This water flows into the Dead Sea so that the water in that sea becomes fresh and clean. There are many fish in this water, and all kinds of animals live where this river goes. <sup>10</sup>You can see fishermen standing by the river all the way from En Gedi to En Eglaim. You can see them throwing their fishing nets and catching many kinds of fish. There are as many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea as there are in the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>11</sup>But the swamps and small marshes will not become fresh. They will be left for salt. <sup>12</sup>All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves never will become dry and fall. The fruit will never stop growing on those trees. The trees will produce fruit every month, because the water for the trees comes from the Temple. The fruit from the trees will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.”

Division of the Land for the Tribes

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord God says: “These are the borders for dividing the land among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph will have two parts. <sup>14</sup>You will divide the land equally. I promised to give this land to your ancestors,* so I am giving this land to you.

<sup>18</sup>“On the east side, the border will go from Hazer Enan between Hauran and Damascus and continue along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel to the eastern sea and all the way to Tamar. This will be the eastern border.

<sup>19</sup>“On the south side, the border will go from Tamar all the way to the oasis at Meribah-kadesh. Then it will go along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern border.

<sup>20</sup>“On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the border all the way to the area in front of Lebo Hamath. This will be your western border.

<sup>21</sup>“So you will divide this land among you for the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>You will divide it as a property for yourselves and for the foreigners who live among you and who have had children among you. These foreigners will be residents—they will be like natural born Israelites. You will divide some land for them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>The tribe where that resident lives must give him some land.” This is what the Lord God said!

The Land for the Tribes of Israel

48 <sup>1-7</sup>“The northern border goes east from the Mediterranean Sea to Hethlon to Hamath Pass and then all the way to Hazer Enan. This is on the border between Damascus and Hamath. The land for the tribes in this group will go from the east of these borders to the west. From north to south, the tribes in this area are Dan, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Ephraim, Reuben, and Judah.

The Special Section of Land

<sup>8</sup>“The next area of land will be for a special use. This land is south of Judah’s land. This area is 25,000 cubits<sup>a</sup> long from north to south. From east to west, it will be as wide as the land that belongs to the other tribes. The Temple will be in the middle of this section of land. <sup>9</sup>You will dedicate* this land to the Lord. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits<sup>b</sup> wide. <sup>10</sup>This special area of land will be divided among the priests and Levites.

“The priests will get one part of this area. The land will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits<sup>c</sup> wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side, and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. The Lord’s Temple will be in the middle of this area of land. <sup>11</sup>This land is for Zadok’s descendants. These men were chosen to be my holy priests, because they continued to serve me when the other people of Israel left me. Zadok’s family did not leave me like the other people from the tribe of Levi. <sup>12</sup>This share from this holy part of the land will be especially for these priests. It will be next to the land of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>“Next to the land for the priests, the Levites will have a share of the land. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. They will get the full length and width of this land—25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. <sup>14</sup>The Levites will not sell or trade any of this land. They will not be able to sell any of it. They must not cut up this part of the country, because this land belongs to the Lord—it is very special. It is the best part of the land.

The Shares for the City Property

<sup>15</sup>“There will be an area of land 5000 cubits<sup>d</sup> wide by 25,000 cubits long that is left over from the land given to the priests and Levites. This land can be for the city, for grasslands for animals, and for building houses. The common people may use this land. The city will be in the middle of it. <sup>16</sup>These are the city’s measurements: The north side will be 4500 cubits.<sup>e</sup> The south side will be 4500 cubits. The east side will be 4500 cubits. The west side will be 4500 cubits. <sup>17</sup>The city will have grasslands. These grasslands will be 250 cubits<sup>f</sup> on the north and 250 cubits on the south. They will be 250 cubits on the east and 250 cubits on the west. <sup>18</sup>What is left of the length along the side of the holy area will be 10,000 cubits on the east and 10,000 cubits on the west. This land will be along the side of the holy area. This land will grow food for the city workers. <sup>19</sup>The city workers from all the tribes of Israel will farm this land.

<sup>20</sup>"This special area of land will be square. It will be 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. You must set apart this area for its special purposes. One part is for the priests, one part is for the Levites, and one part is for the city.

<sup>21-22</sup>"Part of that special land will be for the ruler of the country. That special area of land is square. It is 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. Part of this special land is for the priests, part of it is for the Levites, and part of it is for the Temple. The Temple is in the middle of this area of land. The rest of the land belongs to the ruler of the country. The ruler will get the area between the land of Benjamin and the land of Judah.

<sup>23-27</sup>"South of this special area will be the land for the tribes that lived east of the Jordan River. Each tribe will get a section of land that goes from the eastern border to the Mediterranean Sea. From north to south, these tribes are Benjamin, Simeon, Issachar, Zebulun, and Gad.

<sup>28</sup>"The southern border of Gad's land will go from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah-kadesh, then along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>29</sup>This is the land that you will divide among the tribes of Israel. This is what each group will get." This is what the Lord God said!

The Gates of the City

<sup>30</sup>"These are the gates of the city. The gates will be named for the tribes of Israel.

"The north side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. <sup>31</sup>There will be three gates: Reuben's Gate, Judah's Gate, and Levi's Gate.

<sup>33</sup>"The south side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. There will be three gates: Simeon's Gate, Issachar's Gate, and Zebulun's Gate.

<sup>34</sup>"The west side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. There will be three gates: Gad's Gate, Asher's Gate, and Naphtali's Gate.

<sup>35</sup>"The distance around the city will be 18,000 cubits.<sup>a</sup> From now on, the name of the city will be THE LORD IS THERE.<sup>b</sup>"

Daniel

Daniel Taken to Babylon

anything wrong with their bodies. He wanted handsome, smart young men who were able to learn things quickly and easily to serve in his palace. He told Ashpenaz to teach these young men the language and writings of the Chaldeans.*

<sup>5</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar gave the young men a certain amount of food and wine every day. This was the same kind of food that he ate. He wanted them to be trained for three years. After that, they would become servants of the king of Babylon. <sup>6</sup>Among those young men were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah from the tribe of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Ashpenaz gave them Babylonian names. Daniel's new name was Belteshazzar, Hananiah's was Shadrach, Mishael's was Meshach, and Azariah's was Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>Daniel did not want to eat the king's rich food and wine because it would make him unclean.* So he asked Ashpenaz for permission not to make himself unclean in this way.

of the officials, to be kind and loyal to Daniel.<sup>10</sup>But Ashpenaz told Daniel, "I am afraid of my master, the king. He ordered me to give you this food and drink. If you don't eat this food, you will begin to look weak and sick. You will look worse than other young men your age. The king will see this, and he will become angry with me. He might cut off my head. And it would be your fault."

<sup>11</sup>Then Daniel talked to the guard who had been put in charge of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah by Ashpenaz.<sup>12</sup>He said, "Please give us this test for ten days: Don't give us anything but vegetables to eat and water to drink."<sup>13</sup>Then after ten days, compare us with the other young men who eat the king's food. See for yourself who looks healthier, and then decide how you want to treat us, your servants."

<sup>14</sup>So the guard agreed to test Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah for ten days.<sup>15</sup>After ten days, Daniel and his friends looked healthier than all the young men who ate the king's food.<sup>16</sup>So the guard continued to take away the king's special food and wine and to give only vegetables to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

<sup>17</sup>God gave these four young men the wisdom and ability to learn many different kinds of writing and science. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions* and dreams.

<sup>18</sup>At the end of the three years of training, Ashpenaz brought all the young men to King Nebuchadnezzar.<sup>19</sup>The king talked to them and found that none of the young men were as good as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So these four young men became the king's servants.<sup>20</sup>Every time the king asked them about something important, they showed great wisdom and understanding. The king found they were ten times better than all the magicians and wise men in his kingdom.<sup>21</sup>So Daniel served the king until the first year that Cyrus<sup>a</sup> was king.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2<sup>1</sup>During Nebuchadnezzar's second year as king, he had dreams. They bothered him, and he could not sleep.<sup>2</sup>So the king called his wise men to come to him. They used magic and watched the stars. They did this to try to interpret dreams and to learn what would happen in the future. The king wanted them to tell him what he had dreamed, so they came in and stood in front of him.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said to them, "I had a dream that bothers me. I want to know what it means."

<sup>4</sup>Then the Chaldeans* answered the king. They spoke Aramaic<sup>b</sup> and said, "King, live forever! Please tell your dream to us, your servants, and then we will tell you what it means."

<sup>5</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "No, you must tell me the dream, and then you must tell me what it means. If you don't, I will give an order for you to be cut into pieces. And I will order your houses to be destroyed until they are nothing but piles of dust and ashes."<sup>6</sup>But if you tell me my dream and explain its meaning, I will give you gifts, rewards, and great honor. So tell me about my dream and what it means."

<sup>7</sup>Again the wise men said to the king, "Please, Sir, tell us about the dream, and we will tell you what it means."

<sup>8</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar answered, "I know that you are trying to get more time. You know that I meant what I said."<sup>9</sup>You know that you will be punished if you don't tell me about my dream. So you have all agreed to lie to me. You are hoping for more time so that I will forget what I want you to do. Now tell me the dream. If you can tell me the dream, I will know that you can tell me what it really means."

<sup>12</sup>When the king heard that, he became very angry. So he gave an order for all the wise men of Babylon to be killed.<sup>13</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar's order to kill all the wise men was announced. The king's men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

<sup>14</sup>Arioch was the commander of the king's guards. He was going to kill the wise men of Babylon, but Daniel talked to him. Daniel spoke politely to Arioch<sup>15</sup> and said, "Why did the king order such a severe punishment?"

Then Arioch explained the whole story about the king's dreams, and Daniel understood.<sup>16</sup>When Daniel heard the story, he went to King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel asked the king to give him some more time. Then he would tell the king what the dream meant.

<sup>17</sup>So Daniel went to his house. He explained the whole story to his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.<sup>18</sup>Daniel asked his friends to pray to the God of heaven that God would be kind to them and help them understand this secret. Then Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the other wise men of Babylon.

- 21 He changes the times and seasons.
He gives power to kings,
and he takes their power away.
He gives wisdom to people, so they

He lets people learn things and become wise.

praise you.
You gave me wisdom and power.

You told us about the king's dream."

Daniel Tells What the Dream Means

24Then Daniel went to Arioch, the man who King Nebuchadnezzar had chosen to kill the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to Arioch, "Don't kill the wise men of Babylon.
Take me to the king. I will tell him what his dream means."

25So very quickly, Arioch took Daniel to the king. Arioch said to the king, "I have found a man among the captives<sup>a</sup> from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means."

26The king asked Daniel (Belteshazzar) a question. He said, "Are you able to tell me about my dream, and what it means?"

27Daniel answered, "King Nebuchadnezzar, no wise man, no man who does magic, and no Chaldean could tell the king the secret things he has asked about. 28But there is a God in heaven who tells secret things. God has given King Nebuchadnezzar dreams to show him what will happen later. This was your dream, and this is what you saw while lying on your bed: 29King, as you were lying there on your bed, you began thinking about what might happen in the future. God can tell people about secret things—he has shown you what will happen in the future. 30God also told this secret to me, not because I have greater wisdom than other men, but so that you, king, may know what it means. In that way you will understand what went through your mind.

31"King, in your dream you saw a large statue in front of you that was very large and shiny. It was very impressive. 32The head of the statue was made from pure gold. Its chest and the arms were made from silver. The belly and upper part of the legs were made from bronze. 33The lower part of the legs was made from iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay. 34While you were looking at the statue, you saw a rock that was cut loose, but not by human hands. Then the rock hit the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. 35Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold broke to pieces all at the same time. And all the pieces became like chaff* on a threshing* floor in the summertime. The wind blew them away, and there was nothing left. No one could tell that a statue had ever been there. Then the rock that hit the statue became a very large mountain and filled up the whole earth.

36"That was your dream. Now we will tell the king what it means. 37King, you are the most important king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory. 38He has given you control, and you rule over people and the wild animals and the birds. Wherever they live, God has made you ruler over them all. King Nebuchadnezzar, you are that head of gold on the statue.

39"Another kingdom will come after you,
but it will not be as great as your kingdom.
Next, a third kingdom will rule over the earth—that is the bronze part. 40Then there will be a fourth kingdom. That kingdom will be strong like iron. Just as iron breaks things and smashes them to pieces, that fourth kingdom will break all the other kingdoms and smash them to pieces.

41"You saw that the feet and toes of the statue were partly clay and partly iron. That means the fourth kingdom will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of iron in it just as you saw the iron mixed with clay. 42The toes of the statue were partly iron and partly clay. So the fourth kingdom will be partly strong like iron and partly weak like clay. 43You saw the iron mixed with clay, but iron and clay don't completely mix together.
In the same way the people of the fourth kingdom will be a mixture. They will not be united as one people.

44"During the time of the kings of the fourth kingdom, the God of heaven will set up another kingdom that will continue forever. It will never be destroyed. And it will be the kind of kingdom that cannot be passed on to another group of people. This kingdom will crush all the other kingdoms. It will bring them to an end, but that kingdom itself will continue forever.

45"King Nebuchadnezzar, you saw a rock cut from a mountain, but no one cut that rock. The rock broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold to pieces. In this way God showed you what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and you can trust that this is what it means."

46Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed down in front of Daniel to honor him. The king praised him. He gave an order that an offering and incense be given to honor Daniel.
47Then the king said to Daniel, "I know for sure your God is the God over all gods and the Lord over all kings. He tells people about <sup>a</sup>2:25 captives People taken away as prisoners.

Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

things they cannot know. I know this is true because you were able to tell these secret things to me.”

<sup>48</sup>Then the king gave Daniel a very important job in his kingdom and gave him many expensive gifts. Nebuchadnezzar made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon and put him in charge of all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup>Daniel asked the king to make Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego important officials over the province of Babylon. The king did as Daniel asked. Daniel himself became one of the important officials who was always near the king.

The Idol of Gold and the Hot Furnace

3<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold idol* made that was 60 cubits<sup>a</sup> high and 6 cubits<sup>b</sup> wide. Then he set the idol up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Then he called the satraps,* prefects,* governors, advisors, treasurers, judges, rulers, and all the other officials in his kingdom to come together. He wanted all of them to come to the dedication* ceremony for the idol.

<sup>3</sup>So all the men came and stood in front of the idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup>Then the man who makes announcements for the king spoke in a loud voice, “All you people from many nations and language groups, listen to me. This is what you are commanded to do: <sup>5</sup>You must bow down as soon as you hear the sound of all the musical instruments. When you hear the horns, flutes, lyres,* sambucas,<sup>c</sup> harps, bagpipes,<sup>d</sup> and all the other musical instruments, you must worship the gold idol. King Nebuchadnezzar has set this idol up. <sup>6</sup>Whoever does not bow down and worship this gold idol will immediately be thrown into a very hot furnace.*”

<sup>7</sup>So as soon as they heard the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments, they bowed down and worshiped the gold idol. All the peoples, nations, and different language groups there worshiped the gold idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>8</sup>Then some of the Chaldeans* came up to the king and began speaking against the people from Judah. <sup>9</sup>They said, “King, may you live forever! <sup>10</sup>King, you gave a command.

You said that everyone who hears the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments must bow down and worship the gold idol. <sup>11</sup>And you also said that whoever does not bow down and worship the gold idol will be thrown into a very hot furnace. <sup>12</sup>There are some Judeans who you made important officials in the province of Babylon that ignored your order, King. Their names are Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They don't worship your gods, and they didn't bow down to worship the gold idol you set up.”

<sup>13</sup>Nebuchadnezzar became very angry. He called for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So they were brought to him. <sup>14</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't worship my gods? And is it true that you didn't bow down and worship the gold idol I have set up? <sup>15</sup>Now when you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments, you must bow down and worship the gold idol. If you are ready to worship the idol I have made, that is good. But if you don't worship it, you will be thrown very quickly into the hot furnace. Then no god will be able to save you from my power!”

<sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “Nebuchadnezzar, we don't need to explain these things to you. <sup>17</sup>If you throw us into the hot furnace, the God we serve can save us. And if he wants to, he can save us from your power. <sup>18</sup>But even if God does not save us, we want you to know, King, that we refuse to serve your gods. We will not worship the gold idol you have set up.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar became very angry with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave an order for the oven to be heated seven times hotter than it usually was. <sup>20</sup>Then he commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He told the soldiers to throw them into the hot furnace.

<sup>21</sup>So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were tied up and thrown into the hot furnace. They were wearing their robes, pants, cloth caps, and other clothes. <sup>22</sup>The king was very angry when he gave the command, so the soldiers quickly made the furnace very hot. The fire was so hot that the flames killed the strong soldiers. They were killed when they went close to the fire to throw in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell into the fire. They were tied up very tightly.

<sup>24</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped to his feet. He was very surprised and he asked his advisors, “We tied only three men, and we threw only three men into the fire. Is that right?”

His advisors said, “Yes, King.”

<sup>a</sup>3:1 60 cubits About 87' 4" (27 m) using the short cubit.

<sup>b</sup>3:1 6 cubits About 8' 9" (2.7 m) using the short cubit.

<sup>c</sup>3:5 sambucas A musical instrument, possibly a seven stringed instrument like a harp. The name in Hebrew comes from some other language, possibly Greek.

<sup>d</sup>3:5 bagpipes A musical instrument with a bag and several horns or pipes. The name in Hebrew comes from some other language, possibly from the Greek word “symphony.”

<sup>25</sup>The king said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire. They are not tied up and they are not burned. The fourth man looks like an angel."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the opening of the hot furnace. He shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, come out! Servants of the Most High God, come here!"

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. <sup>27</sup>When they came out, the satraps, prefects, governors, and royal advisors crowded around them. They could see that the fire had not burned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their bodies were not burned at all. Their hair was not burned, and their robes were not burned. They didn't even smell as if they had been near fire.

<sup>28</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their God has sent his angel and saved his servants from the fire! These three men trusted their God and refused to obey my command. They were willing to die instead of serving or worshiping any other god. <sup>29</sup>So I now make this law: Anyone from any nation or language group who says anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut into pieces, and their house will be destroyed until it is a pile of dirt and ashes. No other god can save his people like this." <sup>30</sup>Then the king gave Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego more important jobs in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream About a Tree

4 <sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar sent this letter to the many nations and language groups living around the world.

Greetings:

<sup>2</sup>I am very happy to tell you about the miracles and wonderful things that the Most High God did for me.

<sup>3</sup> God has done amazing miracles!

He has done powerful miracles!

His kingdom continues forever;

his rule will continue for all generations.

<sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at my palace. I was happy and successful. <sup>5</sup>I had a dream that made me afraid. I was lying on my bed, and I saw pictures and visions* in my mind. These things made me very afraid. <sup>6</sup>So I gave an order that all the wise men of Babylon be brought to me to tell me what my dream meant. <sup>7</sup>When the men of magic and the Chaldeans* came, I told them about the dream, but they could not tell me what it meant. <sup>8</sup>Finally, Daniel came to me. (I gave Daniel the name, Belteshazzar, to honor my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him.) I told him about my dream. <sup>9</sup>I said, "Belteshazzar, you are the most important of all the men of magic. I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you. I know there is no secret that is too hard for you to understand. This was what I dreamed. Tell me what it means.

<sup>10</sup>These are the visions I saw while I was lying in my bed: I looked, and there in front of me was a tree standing in the middle of the earth. The tree was very tall. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew large and strong. The top of the tree touched the sky.<sup>b</sup> It could be seen from anywhere on earth. <sup>12</sup>The leaves of the tree were beautiful. It had much good fruit on it. And on the tree was plenty of food for everyone. The wild animals found shelter under the tree, and the birds lived in its branches. Every animal ate from the tree.

<sup>13</sup>I was looking at those things in the vision while lying on my bed. And then I saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>He spoke very loud and said, 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches. Strip off its leaves. Scatter its fruit around. The animals that are under the tree will run away. The birds that are in its branches will fly away. <sup>15</sup>But let the stump and roots stay in the ground. Put a band of iron and bronze around it. The stump and roots will stay in the field with the grass all around it. It will live among the wild animals and plants in the fields. It will become wet with dew. <sup>16</sup>He will not think like a man any longer. He will have the mind of an animal. Seven seasons will pass while he is like this.'

<sup>17</sup>"Holy angels announced this punishment so that all the people on earth may know that God Most High rules over human kingdoms. God gives those kingdoms to whoever he wants, and he chooses humble people to rule them.

<sup>18</sup>"That is what I, King Nebuchadnezzar, dreamed. Now, Belteshazzar,<sup>c</sup> tell me what it means. None of the wise men in my kingdom can tell me what that dream means. But Belteshazzar, you can interpret the dream because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

<sup>19</sup>Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) became very quiet for a while. What he was thinking bothered him. So the king said, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream or its meaning make you afraid."

Then Belteshazzar answered the king, "My lord, I wish the dream were about your enemies, and I wish the meaning of the dream were about those against you. <sup>20-21</sup>You saw a tree in your dream. The tree grew large and strong. Its top touched the sky, and it could be seen from all over the earth. Its leaves were beautiful, and it had plenty of fruit. The fruit gave plenty of food for everyone. It was a home for the wild animals, and its branches were nesting places for the birds. You saw that tree. <sup>22</sup>King, you are that tree! You have become great and powerful. You are like the tall tree that touched the sky—your power reaches to the far parts of the earth.

<sup>b</sup>4:10-11 middle of the earth ... sky The Babylonians thought the earth was flat and round like a plate or a wheel. And they thought the sky was like a glass bowl turned upside down on the earth.

<sup>23</sup>“King, you saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. He said, ‘Cut the tree down and destroy it. Put a band of iron and bronze around the stump and leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Leave it in the grass in the field. It will become wet with dew. He will live like a wild animal. Seven seasons will pass while he is like this.’

<sup>24</sup>“King, this is the meaning of the dream. God Most High has commanded these things to happen to my lord the king: <sup>25</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar, you will be forced to go away from people. You will live among the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle, and you will become wet with dew. Seven seasons will pass, and then you will learn this lesson. You will learn God Most High rules over human kingdoms and gives them to whoever he wants.

<sup>26</sup>“The command to leave the stump of the tree and its roots in the ground means this: Your kingdom will be given back to you. This will happen when you learn that Most High God rules your kingdom. <sup>27</sup>So, King, please accept my advice. Stop sinning and do what is right. Stop doing bad things and be kind to poor people. Then you might continue to be successful.”

<sup>31</sup>The words were still in his mouth when a voice came from heaven. The voice said, “King Nebuchadnezzar, these things will happen to you: Your power as king has been taken away from you. <sup>32</sup>You will be forced to go away from people. You will live with the wild animals and eat grass like an ox. Seven seasons will pass before you learn your lesson. Then you will learn that God Most High rules over human kingdoms and gives them to whoever he wants.”

people. He began eating grass like an ox. He became wet from dew. His hair grew long like the feathers of an eagle, and his nails grew long like the claws of a bird.

<sup>34</sup>Then at the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven, and I was in my right mind again. Then I gave praise to God Most High. I gave honor and glory to him who lives forever.

God rules forever!

His kingdom continues for all generations.

<sup>35</sup> People on earth are not really important.

God does what he wants with the powers of heaven and the people on earth.

No one can stop his powerful hand or question what he does.

<sup>36</sup>At that time God gave me my right mind again, and he gave back my great honor and power as king. My advisors and the royal people began to ask my advice again. I became the king again—even greater and more powerful than before. <sup>37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, give praise, honor, and glory to the King of Heaven. Everything he does is right. He is always fair, and he is able to make proud people humble!

The Writing on the Wall

5<sup>1</sup>King Belshazzar gave a big party for 1000 of his officials. The king was drinking wine with them. <sup>2</sup>As Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he ordered his servants to bring the gold and silver cups. His grandfather<sup>b</sup> Nebuchadnezzar had taken these cups from the Temple* in Jerusalem. King Belshazzar wanted his royal people, his wives, and his slave women* to drink from those cups. <sup>3</sup>So they brought the gold cups that had been taken from the Temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his officials, his wives, and his women slaves drank from them. <sup>4</sup>As they were drinking, they gave praise to their idol gods, which were only statues made from gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>5</sup>Suddenly, a person's hand appeared and began writing on the wall. The fingers scratched words into the plaster on the wall, near the lampstand in the king's palace. The king was watching the hand as it wrote.

<sup>6</sup>King Belshazzar was very afraid. His face became white from fear, and his knees were shaking and knocking together. He could not stand up because his legs were too weak. <sup>7</sup>The king called for the men of magic and the Chaldeans* to be brought to him. He said to these wise men, “I will give a reward to anyone

b5:2 grandfather Or “father.” It is uncertain that Belshazzar was really Nebuchadnezzar's grandson. Here, the word “father” might only mean “the previous king.” Also in verses 11, 18.

<sup>a</sup>4:29-30 roof In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used as an extra room.

who can read this writing and explain to me what it means. I will give him purple robes<sup>a</sup> to wear and will put a gold chain around his neck. I will make him the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>8</sup>So all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or understand what it meant. <sup>9</sup>King Belshazzar's officials were confused, and the king became even more afraid and worried. His face was white from fear.

<sup>10</sup>Then the king's mother came into the place where the party was. She had heard the voices of the king and his royal officials. She said, “King, may you live forever! Don't be afraid! Don't let your face be so white with fear! <sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, this man showed that he could understand secrets. He showed that he was very smart and very wise. He showed that he was like the gods in these things. Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, put this man in charge of all the wise men. He ruled over all the men of magic and the Chaldeans. <sup>12</sup>The man I am talking about is named Daniel. The king gave him the name Belteshazzar. He is very smart and he knows many things. He could interpret dreams, explain secrets, and find the answer to very hard problems. Call for Daniel, he will tell you what the writing on the wall means.”

<sup>13</sup>So they brought Daniel to the king and he asked, “Is your name Daniel, one of the captives my father the king brought here from Judah? <sup>14</sup>I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you understand secrets and are very smart and very wise. <sup>15</sup>The wise men and the men of magic were brought to me to read this writing on the wall. I wanted them to explain to me what it means, but they could not explain it. <sup>16</sup>I have heard that you are able to explain what things mean, and that you can find the answer to very hard problems. If you can read this writing on the wall and explain to me what it means, this is what I will do for you: I will give you purple robes to wear and will put a gold chain around your neck. Then you will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel answered the king, “King Belshazzar, you can keep your gifts for yourself, or you can give them to someone else. But I will still read the writing on the wall for you and explain what it means.

<sup>18</sup>“King, God Most High made your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a very great and powerful king and gave him great wealth. <sup>19</sup>People from many nations and language groups were very afraid of Nebuchadnezzar because God made him a very powerful king. Nebuchadnezzar killed whoever he wanted and let those who pleased him live. If he wanted to make people important, he made them important. If he wanted to bring them down, he brought them down.

<sup>20</sup>But Nebuchadnezzar became proud and stubborn, so his power was taken away from him. He was taken off his royal throne and stripped of his glory. <sup>21</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was forced to go away from people. His mind became like the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like an ox. He became wet with dew. These things happened to him until he learned his lesson. He learned that God Most High rules over human kingdoms, and he gives them to whoever he wants.

<sup>22</sup>But Belshazzar, you already knew this. You are Nebuchadnezzar's grandson,<sup>b</sup> but still you have not made yourself humble. <sup>23</sup>No, you did not become humble. Instead, you have turned against the Lord of heaven. You ordered the drinking cups from his Temple to be brought to you. Then you and your royal officials, your wives, and your slave women* drank wine from those cups. You gave praise to the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone. They are not really gods; they cannot see or hear or understand anything. But you did not give honor to the God who has the power over your life and everything you do. <sup>24</sup>So because of that, God sent the hand that wrote on the wall. <sup>25</sup>These are the words that were written on the wall:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPARSIN.

<sup>26</sup>“This is what these words mean:

MENE:

God has counted the days until your kingdom will end.

<sup>27</sup> TEKEL:

You have been weighed on the scales and found not good enough.

<sup>28</sup> UPARSIN:

Your kingdom is being taken from you. It will be divided among the Medes and Persians.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar gave an order for Daniel to be dressed in purple clothes. A gold chain was put around his neck, and he was

<sup>b</sup>5:22 grandson Or “son.” This does not necessarily mean they were from the same family. It might only mean that Belshazzar was one of the kings of Babylon after Nebuchadnezzar was king.

<sup>e</sup>5:28 UPARSIN Literally, “peres,” a weight. This word is like the word meaning “to divide” or “to split.” It is also like the name of the country of Persia.

appointed the third highest ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup>That very same night, Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians, was killed. <sup>31</sup>A man named Darius the Mede became the new king. Darius was about 62 years old.

Daniel and the Lions

6 <sup>1</sup>Darius thought it would be a good idea to choose 120 satraps* to rule throughout his kingdom. <sup>2</sup>He chose three men to rule over the 120 satraps. Daniel was one of the three supervisors. The king put these men in this position to keep anyone from cheating him. <sup>3</sup>Daniel proved himself to be a better supervisor than any of the others. He did this by his good character and great ability. The king was so impressed with Daniel that he planned to make him ruler over the whole kingdom. <sup>4</sup>But when the other supervisors and the satraps heard about this, they were very jealous. They tried to find reasons to accuse Daniel. So they watched what Daniel did as he went about doing the business of the government. But they could not find anything wrong with him, so they could not accuse him of doing anything wrong. Daniel was a man people could trust. He did not cheat the king, and he worked very hard.

<sup>5</sup>Finally they said, "We will never find any reason to accuse Daniel of doing something wrong. So we must find something to complain about that is connected to the law of his God."

<sup>6</sup>So the two supervisors and the satraps went as a group to the king. They said, "King Darius, live forever! <sup>7</sup>The supervisors, prefects,* satraps, advisors, and governors have all agreed on something. We think that the king should make this law and that everyone must obey it: For the next 30 days, whoever prays to any god or man except you, King, will be thrown into the lions' den. <sup>8</sup>Now, King, make the law and sign the paper it is written on so that it cannot be changed, because the laws of the Medes and Persians* cannot be canceled or changed." <sup>9</sup>So King Darius made the law and signed it.

<sup>10</sup>Daniel always prayed to God three times every day. Three times every day, he bowed down on his knees to pray and praise God. Even though Daniel heard about the new law, he still went to his house to pray. He went up to the upper room of his house and opened the windows that faced toward Jerusalem. Then Daniel bowed down on his knees and prayed just as he always had done.

<sup>11</sup>Then the supervisors and satraps went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help. <sup>12</sup>So they went to the king and talked to him about the law he had made. They said, "King Darius, you signed a law that says, for the next 30 days anyone who prays to any god or man except you, the king, would be thrown into the lions' den. You did sign that law, didn't you?"

The king answered, "Yes, I signed that law, and the laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled or changed."

<sup>13</sup>Then they said to the king, "That man Daniel is not paying any attention to you. He is one of the captives<sup>a</sup> from Judah, and he is not paying attention to the law you signed. Daniel still prays to his God three times every day."

<sup>14</sup>The king became very sad and upset when he heard this. He decided to save Daniel. He worked until sunset trying to think of a way to save him. <sup>15</sup>Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, King, that the law of the Medes and Persians says that no law or command signed by the king can ever be canceled or changed."

<sup>16</sup>So King Darius gave the order. They brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May the God you serve save you!" <sup>17</sup>A big rock was brought and put over the opening of the lions' den. Then the king used his ring and put his seal* on the rock. He also used the rings of his officials and put their seals on the rock. This showed that no one could move that rock and bring Daniel out of the lion's den. <sup>18</sup>Then King Darius went back to his house. He did not eat that night. He did not want anyone to come and entertain him. He could not sleep all night.

<sup>19</sup>The next morning, King Darius got up just as it was getting light and ran to the lions' den. <sup>20</sup>He was very worried. When he got to the lions' den, he called to Daniel. He said, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God been able to save you from the lions? You always serve your God."

<sup>21</sup>Daniel answered, "King, live forever! <sup>22</sup>My God sent his angel to save me. The angel closed the lions' mouths. The lions have not hurt me because my God knows I am innocent. I never did anything wrong to you, King."

<sup>23</sup>King Darius was very happy. He told his servants to lift Daniel out of the lions' den. And when Daniel was lifted out of the den, they did not find any injury on his body. The lions did not hurt Daniel because he trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>Then the king gave a command to bring the men who had accused Daniel to the lions' den. The men and their wives and children were thrown into the lion's den. The lions grabbed them before they hit the floor. The lions ate their bodies and then chewed on their bones.

<sup>25</sup>Then King Darius wrote this letter to all the people from other nations and language groups all around the world:

<sup>a</sup>6:13 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

Greetings:

<sup>26</sup>I am making a new law. This law is for people in every part of my kingdom. All of you must fear and respect the God of Daniel.

Daniel's God is the living God;
he lives forever.

His kingdom will never be destroyed.

His rule will never end.

<sup>27</sup> God helps and saves people.

He does amazing miracles in heaven and on earth.

He saved Daniel from the lions.

<sup>28</sup>So Daniel was successful during the time Darius was king and when Cyrus the Persian was king.

Daniel's Dream About Four Animals

7 <sup>1</sup>During the first year that Belshazzar<sup>a</sup> was king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. He saw these visions* while he was lying on his bed, and he wrote what he had dreamed.

<sup>2</sup>Daniel said, "I saw my vision at night. In the vision the wind was blowing from all four directions. These winds made the sea rough.

<sup>3</sup>I saw four big animals and each one was different from the others. These four animals came up out of the sea.

<sup>4</sup>"The first animal looked like a lion, but it had wings like an eagle. As I watched, its wings were torn off. It was helped up from the ground, and it stood up on two feet like a human. Then it was given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup>"Then I saw another animal there in front of me that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up and eat all the meat you want!'

<sup>6</sup>"After that, I noticed another animal in front of me. It looked like a leopard, but it had four wings on its back. This animal had four heads. It was given authority to rule.

<sup>7</sup>"After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there in front of me was a fourth animal. It looked very cruel and terrifying. It looked very strong, with large iron teeth. This animal crushed and ate its victims and walked on whatever was left of them. This fourth animal was different from all the animals I saw before it. This animal had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>"While I was looking at the horns and thinking about them, another horn grew up among them. This was a little horn with eyes like a human. It also had a mouth that was bragging. Then the little horn pulled out three of the other horns.

Judgment of the Fourth Animal

<sup>9</sup>"As I was looking, thrones were put in their places, and the Ancient King<sup>b</sup> sat on his throne. His clothes were as white as snow.

His hair was as white as wool.

His throne was made from fire,<sup>c</sup>

and its wheels were made from flames.

<sup>10</sup> A river of fire flowed out from in front of the Ancient King.

Millions of people were serving him.

Hundreds of millions of people stood in front of him.

Court was ready to begin,
and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>"I kept on looking because the little horn was bragging. I kept watching until finally the fourth animal was killed. Its body was destroyed, and it was thrown into the burning fire. <sup>12</sup>The authority and rule of the other animals had been taken from them. But they were permitted to live for a certain period of time.

<sup>13</sup>"In my vision at night I looked, and there in front of me was someone who looked like a human being.<sup>d</sup> He was coming on the clouds in the sky. He came up to the Ancient King, and the King's servants brought him before the King.

<sup>14</sup>"The one who looked like a human being was given authority, glory, and complete ruling power. People from every nation and language group will serve him. His rule will last forever. His kingdom will continue forever. It will never be destroyed.

The Meaning of Daniel's Dream

<sup>15</sup>"I, Daniel, was confused and worried. The visions* that went through my mind bothered me. <sup>16</sup>I went to someone who was standing there and asked him what all this meant. So he explained it to me. <sup>17</sup>He said, 'The four great animals are four kingdoms that will come from the earth. <sup>18</sup>But God's holy* people will receive the kingdom, and they will have the kingdom forever and ever.'

<sup>19</sup>"Then I wanted to know what the fourth animal was and what it meant. The fourth animal was different from all the other animals. It was very terrible and had iron teeth and bronze claws. It was the animal that crushed and ate its victims and walked on whatever was left. <sup>20</sup>I wanted to know about the ten horns that were on the fourth animal's head and about the little horn that grew there. That little horn pulled out three of the other ten horns. That little horn had eyes and a mouth that kept on bragging, and it looked bigger than the other horns. <sup>21</sup>As I was watching, this little horn

<sup>b7:9 Ancient King</sup> Literally, "Ancient of Days." This name pictures God as a great king who has ruled since ancient times. Also in verses 10, 13, 22.

<sup>d7:13 someone ... human being</sup> Or "a person, a real human being." Literally, "like a son of man." This means he looked like a normal person, not an angel or an animal.

began attacking and making war against God's holy people and killing them. <sup>22</sup>The little horn kept killing God's holy people until the Ancient King came and judged him. The Ancient King announced his decision about the little horn. This judgment helped God's holy people, and they received the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>"And he explained this to me: 'The fourth animal is a fourth kingdom that will come on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms. That fourth kingdom will destroy people all around the world. It will walk on and crush nations all around the world. <sup>24</sup>The ten horns are ten kings that will come from this fourth kingdom. After those ten kings are gone, another king will come. He will be different from the kings who ruled before him. He will defeat three of the other kings. <sup>25</sup>This special king will say things against God Most High, and he will hurt and kill God's special people. That king will try to change the times and laws that have already been set. God's holy people will be under that king's power for three and one-half years.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>"But the court will decide what should happen, and that king's power will be taken away. His kingdom will end completely. <sup>27</sup>Then God's holy people will rule over the kingdom and all the people from all the kingdoms of earth.<sup>b</sup> This kingdom will last forever, and people from all the other kingdoms will respect and serve them.'

<sup>28</sup>"And that was the end of the dream. I, Daniel, was very afraid. My face became very white from fear, and I did not tell the other people what I saw and heard."

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 <sup>1</sup>After that vision,<sup>c</sup> I, Daniel, saw another vision* during the third year that Belshazzar<sup>d</sup> was king. <sup>2</sup>In the vision I saw that I was in the city of Susa.<sup>e</sup> Susa was the capital city in the province of Elam. I was standing by the Ulai River. <sup>3</sup>I looked up and saw a ram standing at the side of the river. The ram had two long horns. The horns were both long, but one horn was longer than the other horn. The long horn was farther back than the other horn. <sup>4</sup>I watched the ram run into things with its horns. I watched the ram run to the west, to the north, and to the south. No animal could stop the ram, and no one could save the other animals. That ram did whatever it wanted, and it became very powerful.

<sup>a</sup>7:25 three and one-half years Literally, "time, times and half time."

<sup>b</sup>7:27 God's holy people ... earth Literally, "The rule and kingdom and greatness of the kingdoms under heaven will be given to the saints."

<sup>c</sup>8:1 After that vision Here, the original language changes from Aramaic (see "Aramaic" in the Word List) back to Hebrew.

<sup>5</sup>I thought about the ram. While I was watching, I saw a male goat come from the west. It had one large horn that was easy to see. It ran so fast its feet barely touched the ground.

<sup>6</sup>The goat came to the ram with the two horns. (This was the ram I had seen standing by the Ulai River.) The goat was very angry and ran at the ram. <sup>7</sup>As I watched, the goat ran at the ram and broke both of the ram's horns. The ram could not stop the goat. The goat knocked it to the ground and walked all over it. There was no one to save the ram from the goat.

<sup>8</sup>So the goat became very powerful. But after he became strong, his big horn broke off. Then four horns grew in place of the one big horn. Those four horns were easy to see. They pointed in four different directions.

<sup>9</sup>Then a little horn grew from one of those four horns. It grew and became very big. It grew toward the southeast, toward the Beautiful Land. <sup>10</sup>The little horn became very big. It grew until it reached the sky. It even threw some of heaven's army<sup>f</sup> to the ground and trampled them. <sup>11</sup>That little horn became very strong, and it turned against God, the Ruler of heaven's army. It stopped the daily sacrifices* that were offered to the Ruler. And the holy place where people worshiped the Ruler was pulled down. <sup>12</sup>Because of this sin, the daily sacrifices were stopped. Truth was thrown down to the ground. The little horn did these things and was very successful.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard two holy ones<sup>g</sup> talking with each other. One of them asked the other one, who had been speaking, "How long will the things in this vision last—the stopping of the daily sacrifices, the sin that destroys, and the trampling down of the holy place and heaven's army?"

<sup>14</sup>The other holy one said, "This will last for 2300 days. Then the holy place will be repaired."

The Vision Is Explained to Daniel

<sup>15</sup>I, Daniel, saw this vision* and tried to understand what it meant. While I was thinking about the vision, someone who looked like a man suddenly stood in front of me. <sup>16</sup>Then I heard a man's voice. This voice came from above the Ulai River. The voice called out, "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

<sup>17</sup>So Gabriel, the angel who looked like a man, came to me. I was very afraid and fell down to the ground. But Gabriel said to me, "Human,<sup>h</sup> understand that this vision is about the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup>While Gabriel was speaking, I fell to the ground and went to sleep. It was a very deep sleep. Then Gabriel touched me and lifted me to my feet. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Now, I will explain the vision to you. I will tell you what will happen in the future. Your vision was about the end times.

<sup>f</sup>8:10 heaven's army Or "the stars." Also in verses 11 and 13.

<sup>20</sup>"You saw a ram with two horns. The horns are the countries of Media and Persia.

<sup>21</sup>The goat is the king of Greece. The big horn between its eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup>That horn broke off and four horns grew in its place. The four horns are four kingdoms. Those four kingdoms will come from the nation of the first king, but they will not be as strong as the first king.

<sup>23</sup>"When the end is near for those kingdoms, there will be a very bold and cruel king who will be very tricky. This will happen when many people have turned against God. <sup>24</sup>This king will be very powerful, but his power does not come from himself.<sup>a</sup> This king will cause terrible destruction. He will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy powerful people—even God's holy* people.

<sup>25</sup>"This king will be very smart and tricky. He will use his wisdom and lies to be successful. He will think that he is very important. He will destroy many people, when they least expect it. He will try to fight even the Prince of Princes. But that cruel king's power will be destroyed, and it will not be a human hand that destroys him.

<sup>26</sup>"What I said and the vision about those times are true. But seal* up the vision, because those things will not happen for a long, long time."

<sup>27</sup>I, Daniel, became very weak. I was sick for several days after that vision. Then I got up and went back to work for the king, but I was very upset about the vision. I did not understand what it meant.

Daniel's Prayer

9 <sup>1</sup>These things happened during the first year that Darius son of Ahasuerus<sup>b</sup> was king. Darius was a Mede by birth, but he was appointed to be the king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>During his first year as king, I was studying the Scriptures<sup>c</sup> and noticed in the LORD's message to Jeremiah that 70 years would pass before Jerusalem would be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup>Then I turned to the Lord God. I prayed to him and asked him for help. I did not eat any food. I put ashes on my head and put on the clothes that showed I was sad. <sup>4</sup>I prayed to the LORD my God and told him about all my sins. I said, "Lord, you are a great and awesome God. You keep your agreement of love and kindness with people who love you. You keep your agreement with the people who obey your commands.

<sup>5</sup>"But we have sinned. We have done wrong. We have done evil things. We turned against you. We turned away from your commands and good decisions. <sup>6</sup>The prophets were your servants. They spoke for you to our kings, to our leaders, to our fathers, and to the common people in our country. But we did not listen to them.

<sup>7</sup>"Lord, you are innocent, and the shame belongs to us, even now. Shame belongs to the people from Judah and Jerusalem, and to all the people of Israel, to those who are near and to those you scattered among many nations. They should be ashamed of all the evil things they did against you.

<sup>8</sup>"LORD, we should all be ashamed. All our kings and leaders should be ashamed. Our ancestors* should be ashamed, because we sinned against you.

<sup>9</sup>"But, Lord our God, you are kind and forgiving, even though we rebelled against you.

<sup>10</sup>We have not obeyed the LORD our God. He used his servants, the prophets, and gave us laws, but we have not obeyed his laws. <sup>11</sup>All the people of Israel disobeyed your teachings and turned away from you. They did not listen to you. We sinned, so you did what you promised to do. All the curses and promises<sup>d</sup> in the Law of Moses, your servant, happened to us.

<sup>12</sup>"God said those things would happen to us and our leaders, and he made them happen. He made terrible things happen to us. No other city suffered the way Jerusalem suffered. <sup>13</sup>All those terrible things happened to us. This happened just as it is written in the Law of Moses, but we still have not asked the LORD our God for help. We still have not stopped sinning. We still do not pay attention to your truth, Lord. <sup>14</sup>The LORD kept the terrible things ready for us—he made them happen to us. The LORD our God did this because he is fair in everything he does. But we still have not listened to him.

<sup>15</sup>"Lord our God, you used your power and brought us out of Egypt. We are your people. You are famous because of that, even today. We have sinned and done terrible things.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, we and our ancestors sinned against you, so your people and your city became a disgrace to everyone around us. You do so many good things, so stop being angry at Jerusalem, your city, your holy mountain.

<sup>17</sup>"Now, our God, hear your servant's prayer. Listen to my prayer for mercy. For your own sake, do good things for your holy place.<sup>e</sup> <sup>18</sup>My God, listen to me! Open your eyes and see all the terrible things that have happened to us. See what has happened to the city that is called by your name. I am not saying we are good people. That is not why I am asking these things. I am asking these things because I know you are kind. <sup>19</sup>Lord, listen to me! Forgive us! Lord, pay attention, and then do something! Don't wait! Do something now! Do it for your own good! My God, do something now, for your city and your people who are called by your name."

The Vision About the 70 Weeks

<sup>20</sup>I was praying to the LORD my God about his holy mountain and telling about my sins and the sins of the people of Israel. <sup>21</sup>That was the time of the evening sacrifices. While I was still praying, Gabriel, the one I saw in the first vision,<sup>a</sup> flew quickly to me and touched me. He came at the time of the evening sacrifice.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>Gabriel helped me understand the things I wanted to know. He said, "Daniel, I have come to give you wisdom and to help you understand. <sup>23</sup>When you first started praying, the command was given to come speak to you. God loves you very much! You will understand this command, and you will understand the vision.

<sup>24</sup>"God has allowed 70 weeks<sup>a</sup> for your people and your holy city, Daniel. The 70 weeks are ordered for these reasons: to stop doing bad things, to stop sinning, to make people pure, to bring the goodness that continues forever, to put a seal<sup>a</sup> on visions and prophets, and to dedicate a very holy place.

<sup>25</sup>"Learn and understand these things, Daniel. From the time that the message went out to go back and rebuild Jerusalem until the time for the chosen king<sup>b</sup> to come will be seven weeks. Then Jerusalem will be rebuilt. There will again be places for people to meet together in Jerusalem, and there will be a ditch around the city to protect it. Jerusalem will be built for 62 weeks, but there will be many troubles during that time. <sup>26</sup>After the 62 weeks, the chosen one will be killed.<sup>c</sup> He will be gone.<sup>d</sup> Then the people of the future leader will destroy the city and the holy place. That end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end. God has ordered that place to be completely destroyed.

<sup>27</sup>"Then the future ruler will make an agreement with many people. That agreement will continue for one week. The offerings and sacrifices will stop for a half of a week. And a destroyer will come. He will do terrible, destructive things,<sup>e</sup> but God has ordered that destroyer to be completely destroyed."

<sup>a</sup>9:24 week Or "unit of seven." The Hebrew word could mean "week" or "a period of seven years." Also in verses 25, 27.

<sup>d</sup>9:26 He will be gone Or "He will have nothing."

<sup>e</sup>9:27 He will do ... things Or "He will come on the wings of terrible destruction."

Daniel's Vision by the Tigris River

10<sup>1</sup>During the third year that Cyrus was the king of Persia, these things were shown to Daniel. (Daniel's other name is Belteshazzar.) They are true, but very hard to understand. Daniel understood them because they were explained to him in a vision.*

<sup>2</sup>At that time I, Daniel, was very sad for three weeks. <sup>3</sup>During those three weeks, I didn't eat any fancy food; I didn't eat any meat or drink any wine. I didn't put any oil on my head. I didn't do any of these things for three weeks.

<sup>4</sup>On the 24th day of the first month of the year, I was standing beside the great Tigris River. <sup>5</sup>While I was standing there, I looked up and I saw a man standing in front of me. He was wearing linen<sup>a</sup> clothes. He wore a belt made of pure gold<sup>d</sup> around his waist. <sup>6</sup>His body was like a smooth, shiny stone. His face was bright like lightning. His eyes were like flames of fire. His arms and feet were shiny like polished brass. His voice was loud like a crowd of people.

<sup>7</sup>I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me didn't see the vision, but they were still afraid. They were so afraid that they ran away and hid. <sup>8</sup>So I was left alone. I was watching this vision, and it made me afraid. I lost my strength. My face turned white like a dead person's face, and I was helpless. <sup>9</sup>Then I heard the man in the vision talking. As I listened to his voice, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face on the ground.

<sup>10</sup>Then a hand touched me. When that happened, I got on my hands and knees. I was so afraid that I was shaking. <sup>11</sup>The man in the vision said to me, "Daniel, God loves you very much. Think very carefully about the words I will speak to you. Stand up; I have been sent to you." And when he said this, I stood up. I was still shaking because I was afraid. <sup>12</sup>Then the man in the vision started talking again. He said, "Daniel, do not be afraid. From the very first day you decided to get wisdom and to be humble in front of God, he has been listening to your prayers. I came to you because you have been praying. <sup>13</sup>But the prince (angel) of Persia has been fighting against me for 21 days. Then Michael, one of the most important princes (angels), came to help me because I was stuck there with the king of Persia. <sup>14</sup>Now I have come to you, Daniel, to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future. The vision is about a time in the future."

<sup>15</sup>While the man was talking to me, I bowed low with my face toward the ground. I could not speak. <sup>16</sup>Then the one who looked like a man touched my lips. I opened my mouth and started to speak. I said to the one standing in front of me, "Sir, I am upset and afraid because of what I saw in the vision. I feel helpless. <sup>17</sup>Sir, I am Daniel your servant. How can I talk with you? My strength is gone and it is hard for me to breathe.”

<sup>18</sup>The one who looked like a man touched me again. When he touched me, I felt better. <sup>19</sup>Then he said, “Daniel, don’t be afraid. God loves you very much. Peace be with you. Be strong now, be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I became stronger. Then I said, “Sir, you have given me strength. Now you can speak.”

<sup>20</sup>So then he said, “Daniel, do you know why I have come to you? Soon I must go back to fight against the prince (angel) of Persia. When I go, the prince (angel) of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup>But Daniel, before I go, I must first tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one stands with me against those evil angels except Michael, the prince (angel) over your people.

<sup>2</sup>Now then, Daniel, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will rule in Persia. Then a fourth king will come who will be much richer than all the other kings of Persia before him. He will use his riches to get power and turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup>Then a very strong and powerful king will come who will rule with much power. He will do anything he wants. <sup>4</sup>Just as he comes to power, his kingdom will be broken up and scattered in all directions. It will not be divided among his descendants. And it will not be ruled in the same way because that kingdom will be pulled up and given to other people.

<sup>5</sup>The southern king will become strong, but then one of his commanders will defeat him. The commander will begin to rule, and he will be very powerful.

<sup>6</sup>Then after a few years, the southern king and that commander will make an agreement. The daughter of the southern king will marry the northern king. She will do this to bring peace, but she and the southern king will not be strong enough. People will turn against her and against the one who brought her to that country. And they will turn against her child and against the one who helped her.

<sup>7</sup>But someone from her family will come to take the southern king’s place. He will attack the armies of the northern king. He will go into that king’s strong fort. He will fight and win. <sup>8</sup>He will take their gods and their metal idols* and their expensive things made from silver and gold. He will take those things away to Egypt. Then he will not bother the northern king for a few years. <sup>9</sup>The northern king will attack the southern kingdom.

But he will lose, and then he will go back to his own country.

<sup>10</sup>“The northern king’s sons will prepare for war. They will get a large army together. It will move through the land very quickly, like a powerful flood. That army will fight all the way to the strong fort of the southern king. <sup>11</sup>Then the southern king will become very angry and march out to fight against the northern king. The northern king will have a large army, but he will lose the war. <sup>12</sup>The northern army will be defeated, and those soldiers will be carried away. The southern king will be very proud, and he will kill thousands of soldiers from the northern army. But he will not continue to be successful. <sup>13</sup>The northern king will get another army that will be larger than the first one. After several years he will attack. His army will be ready for war. It will be very large and it will have many weapons.

<sup>14</sup>In those times many people will be against the southern king. Some of your own people who love to fight will rebel against the southern king. They will not win, but they will make the vision come true. <sup>15</sup>Then the northern king will come. He will build ramps against the walls and will capture a strong city. The southern army will not have the power to fight back. Even the best soldiers from the southern army will not be strong enough to stop the northern army.

<sup>16</sup>“The northern king will do whatever he wants. No one will be able to stop him. He will gain power and control in the Beautiful Land, and he will have the power to destroy it. <sup>17</sup>The northern king will decide to use all his power to fight against the southern king, and he will make an agreement with the southern king. The king of the north will let one of his daughters marry the southern king so that he can defeat the southern king. But those plans will not succeed. His plans will not help him.

<sup>18</sup>“Then the northern king will turn his attention to the countries along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. He will defeat many of those cities, but then a commander will put an end to the pride and rebellion of that northern king. The commander will make the northern king ashamed.

<sup>19</sup>“After that happens, the northern king will go back to the strong forts of his own country. But he will be weak and will fall. He will be finished.

<sup>20</sup>“After the northern king, there will be a new ruler who sends out tax collectors so that he can live like a king. But after a few years, he will be destroyed, although he will not die in battle.

<sup>21</sup>“That ruler will be followed by a very cruel and hated man, who will not have the honor of being from a king’s family.<sup>c</sup> He will become a ruler by being tricky. He will attack the kingdom when the people feel safe. <sup>22</sup>He will defeat large and powerful armies. He will even defeat the leader with the agreement. <sup>23</sup>Many nations will make agreements with that cruel and hated ruler, but he will lie and trick them. He will gain much power, but only a few people will support him.

<sup>24</sup>When the richest countries feel safe, that cruel and hated ruler will attack them. He will attack at just the right time and will be successful where his ancestors* were not successful. He will take things from the countries he defeated, and he will give them to his followers. He will plan to defeat and destroy strong cities. He will be successful—but only for a short time.

<sup>25</sup>That very cruel and hated ruler will have a very large army. He will use that army to show his strength and courage and attack the southern king. The southern king will get a very large and powerful army and go to war. But the people who are against him will make secret plans, and the southern king will be defeated. <sup>26</sup>People who were supposed to be good friends of the southern king will try to destroy him. His army will be defeated. Many of his soldiers will be killed in battle. <sup>27</sup>Those two kings will want to make trouble. They will sit around the table planning their lies, but it will not do either one of them any good because God has set a time for their end to come.

<sup>28</sup>The northern king will go back to his own country with much wealth. Then he will decide to do bad things against the holy agreement.<sup>c</sup> He will do the things he planned, and then he will go back to his own country.

<sup>29</sup>At the right time, the northern king will attack the southern king again. But this time he will not be successful as he was before. <sup>30</sup>Ships from Cyprus will come and fight against the northern king. He will see those ships coming and be afraid. Then he will turn back and take out his anger on the holy agreement. He will turn back and help those who stopped following the holy agreement. <sup>31</sup>The northern king will send his army to do terrible things to the Temple* in Jerusalem. They will stop the people from offering the daily sacrifice.* Then they will do something really terrible. They will set up that terrible thing that causes destruction.

<sup>32</sup>The northern king will use lies and smooth talking to trick those who quit following the holy agreement, so they will sin even worse. But those who know God and obey him will be strong. They will fight back.

<sup>33</sup>Those wise teachers will help the other people understand what is happening. But even they will have to suffer persecution. Some of them will be killed with swords.

Some of them will be burned or taken prisoner. Some of them will have their homes and things taken away. <sup>34</sup>When those wise people are punished, they will receive some help, but many people who join them will be hypocrites.* <sup>35</sup>Some of the wise people will stumble and make mistakes. But the persecution must come so that they can be made stronger and purer until the time of the end. Then, at the right time, that time of the end will come.

The King Who Praises Himself

<sup>36</sup>The northern king will do whatever he wants. He will brag about himself. He will praise himself and think that he is even better than a god. He will say things that no one has ever heard. He will say those things against the God of gods. He will be successful until all the evil things have happened. Then what God has planned to happen will happen.

<sup>37</sup>That northern king will not care about the gods his ancestors* worshiped. He will not care about the gods women worship. He will not care about any god. Instead, he will praise himself and make himself more important than any god. <sup>38</sup>The northern king will not worship any god, but he will worship power. Power and strength will be his god. His ancestors didn't love power as he does. He will honor the god of power with gold and silver, expensive jewels, and gifts.

<sup>39</sup>That northern king will attack strong fortresses* with the help of this foreign god. He will give much honor to the foreign rulers who join him. He will put many people under their rule. He will make the rulers pay him for the land they rule over.

<sup>40</sup>At the time of the end, the southern king will fight a battle against the northern king. The northern king will attack him with chariots* and soldiers on horses and many large ships. The northern king will rush through the land like a flood. <sup>41</sup>The northern king will attack the Beautiful Land. He will defeat many countries. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will be saved from him. <sup>42</sup>The northern king will show his power in many countries. Egypt will also learn how powerful he is. <sup>43</sup>He will get treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and Ethiopians will obey him. <sup>44</sup>But that northern king will hear news from the east and the north that will make him afraid and angry. He will go to completely destroy many nations. <sup>45</sup>He will set up his king's tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain.<sup>b</sup> But finally, that bad king will die. There will be no one to help him when his end comes.

12 <sup>1</sup>“Daniel, at that time the great prince (angel) Michael will stand up. Michael is in charge of your people. There will be a time of much trouble, the worst time since nations have been on earth. But Daniel, at that time every one of your people whose name is found written in the book [of life] will be saved. <sup>2</sup>There are many who are dead and buried. <sup>4</sup>Some of them will wake up and live forever, but others will wake up to shame and disgrace forever. <sup>3</sup>The wise people will shine as bright as the sky. Those who teach others to live right will shine like stars forever and ever.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>4</sup>“But you, Daniel, keep this message a secret. You must close the book and keep this secret until the time of the end. Many people will go here and there looking for true knowledge, and the true knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, noticed two other men. One man was standing on my side of the river, and the other was standing on the other side. <sup>6</sup>The man who was dressed in linen* was standing over the water in the river. One of the two men said to him, “How long will it be before these amazing things come true?”

toward heaven. And I heard him make a promise using the name of God who lives forever. He said, “It will be for three and one-half years.<sup>c</sup> The power of the holy people will be broken, and then all these things will finally come true.”

<sup>8</sup>I heard the answer, but I really didn’t understand. So I asked, “Sir, what will happen after all this comes true?”

<sup>9</sup>He answered, “Go on about your life Daniel. The message is hidden. It will be a secret until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup>Many people will be made pure—they will make themselves clean.* But evil people will continue to be evil. And those wicked people will not understand these things, but the wise people will understand them.

<sup>11</sup>“The daily sacrifice* will be stopped. There will be 1290 days from that time until the time that the terrible thing that destroys is set up. <sup>12</sup>The one who waits for and comes to the end of the 1335 days will be very happy.

<sup>13</sup>“As for you, Daniel, go and live your life until the end. You will get your rest. At the end you will rise from death and receive your share of the promise.”

Hosea

The Lord God’s Message Through Hosea

1 <sup>1</sup>This is the LORD’s message that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the time that Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Joash was king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>This was the LORD’s first message to Hosea. The LORD said, “Go, marry a prostitute who has had children as a result of her prostitution. Do this because the people in this country have acted like prostitutes—they have been unfaithful to the LORD.”

The Birth of Jezreel

<sup>3</sup>So Hosea married Gomer daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Hosea. <sup>4</sup>The LORD said to Hosea, “Name him Jezreel,<sup>d</sup> because soon I will punish the family of Jehu for the people he killed at Jezreel Valley.<sup>e</sup> Then I will put an end to the kingdom of the nation<sup>f</sup> of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And at that time I will break Israel’s bow at Jezreel Valley.”

The Birth of Lo-Ruhamah

<sup>6</sup>Then Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. The LORD said to Hosea, “Name her Lo-Ruhamah,<sup>g</sup> because I will not show mercy to the nation of Israel anymore, nor will I forgive them. <sup>7</sup>But I will show mercy to the nation of Judah. I will save them, but I will not use bows or swords or war horses and soldiers to save them. I will save them by my own power.<sup>h</sup>”

e1:4 people ... at Jezreel Valley See 2 Kings 9–10 for the story of Jehu’s revolt at Jezreel Valley.

f1:4 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country. Also in verse 6.

g1:6 Lo-Ruhamah This name in Hebrew means “She receives no mercy.” Also in verse 8.

d1:4 Jezreel This name in Hebrew means “God will plant seeds.”

The Birth of Lo-Ammi

<sup>8</sup>After Gomer had finished nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she became pregnant again and gave birth to a son. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said, "Name him Lo-Ammi,<sup>a</sup> because you are not my people, and I am not your God."

The Lord Speaks to the Nation of Israel

<sup>10</sup>"In the future the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the sea, which you cannot measure or count. In the same place that God told them, 'You are not my people,' he will call them 'children of the Living God.'

<sup>11</sup>"Then the people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together. They will choose one ruler for themselves, and their nation will be too large for the land.<sup>b</sup> Jezreel's day will be great!"

2 <sup>1</sup>"Then you will say to your brothers, 'You are my people,' and you will say to your sisters, 'He has shown mercy to you.'"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>6</sup>"So I, the Lord, will block Israel's road with thorns, and I will build a wall. Then she will not be able to find her path. <sup>7</sup>She will run after her lovers, but she will not be able to catch up with them. She will look for her lovers, but she will not be able to find them. Then she will say, 'I will go back to my first husband (the Lord). Life was better for me when I was with him. Life was better then than it is now.'

<sup>8</sup>"Israel didn't know that I, the Lord, was the one who gave her grain, wine, and oil. I kept giving her more and more silver and gold, but she used this silver and gold to make statues of Baal.<sup>g</sup> <sup>9</sup>So I will return and take back my grain at the time it is ready to be harvested. I will take back my wine at the time the grapes are ready. I will take back my wool and linen. I gave those things to her so that she could cover her naked body. <sup>10</sup>Now I will strip her. She will be naked, so all her lovers can see her. No one will be able to save her from my power.<sup>h</sup> <sup>11</sup>I will take away all her fun. I will stop her festivals, her New Moon* celebrations, and her days of rest. I will stop all her special feasts. <sup>12</sup>I will destroy her vines and fig trees. She said, 'My lovers gave these things to me.' But I will change her gardens—they will become like a wild forest. Wild animals will come and eat from those plants.

<sup>13</sup>"Israel served false gods,<sup>h</sup> so I will punish her. She burned incense* to those false gods. She dressed up—she put on her jewelry and nose ring. Then she went to her lovers and forgot me." This is what the LORD has said.

<sup>14</sup>"So I, the Lord, will speak romantic words to her. I will lead her into the desert and speak tender words. <sup>15</sup>There I will give her vineyards.* I will give her Achor Valley as a doorway of hope. Then she will answer as she did when she came out of the land of Egypt." <sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD says.

"At that time you will call me 'My husband.' You will not call me 'My Baal.'<sup>i</sup> <sup>17</sup>I will take the names of those false gods out of her mouth. Then people will not use those names again.

<sup>18</sup>"At that time I will make an agreement for the Israelites with the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the crawling things on the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the weapons of war in that land. I will make the land safe, so the people of Israel can lie down in peace. <sup>19</sup>And I will make you my bride forever. I will make you my bride with goodness and justice and with love and mercy. <sup>20</sup>I will make you my faithful bride. Then you will really know the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And at that time I will answer." This is what the LORD says.

"I will speak to the skies, and they will give rain to the earth.

<sup>22</sup> The earth will produce grain, wine, and oil, and they will meet Jezreel's needs.

<sup>23</sup> I will sow her many seeds<sup>j</sup> on her land.
To Lo-Ruhamah,<sup>k</sup> I will show mercy.

9:2-10 power Literally, "hand."

9:2-13 false gods Literally, "Baal."

9:2-16 My Baal This is a wordplay. Baal was a Canaanite god, but the name also means "lord or husband."

9:2-23 I will sow her many seeds Jezreel, Lo-Ruhamah, and Lo-Ammi are Hosea's children. But the names also have special meanings. The name Jezreel means "God will plant seeds." But Jezreel is also the name of a large valley in Israel. This probably shows that God will bring his people back to Israel.

9:2-23 Lo-Ruhamah This name in Hebrew means "She receives no mercy."

<sup>c</sup>2:1 Or "Then say to your brothers, 'My people,' and to your sisters, 'You have been shown mercy.'"

<sup>e</sup>2:2 her lovers Or "adulteries." Adultery means breaking a marriage promise by sexual sin. God was like a husband to Israel. But Israel was worshipping false gods—this was spiritual adultery against God.

<sup>f</sup>2:5 lovers This means Israel's false gods. Also in verses 7, 10, 13.

To Lo-Ammi,<sup>a</sup> I will say, 'You are my people.'

And they will say to me,
'You are our God.'

Hosea Buys Gomer Back From Slavery

3 Then the LORD said to me again, "Gomer<sup>b</sup> has many lovers, but you must continue loving her. Do this because it is an example of the LORD's love for Israel. He continues to love them, but they continue to turn to other gods, and they love to eat those raisin cakes.<sup>c</sup>"

<sup>2</sup>So I bought Gomer back for 6 ounces<sup>d</sup> of silver and 9 bushels<sup>e</sup> of barley. <sup>3</sup>Then I told her, "You must stay at home with me for many days. You will not be like a prostitute. You will not have sexual relations with another man. I will be your husband."

<sup>4</sup>In the same way the people of Israel will continue many days without a king or a leader. They will be without a sacrifice or a memorial stone.* They will be without an ephod* or a household god. <sup>5</sup>After this, the people of Israel will come back and look for the LORD their God and for David their king. In the last days they will come to honor the LORD and his goodness.

The Lord Is Angry Against Israel

4 People of Israel, listen to the LORD's message. The LORD will tell his argument against those who live in this country. "The people in this country don't really know God. They are not true and loyal to him. <sup>2</sup>They swear, lie, kill, and steal. They commit the sin of adultery* and have their babies. They murder one person after another.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>So the country is like someone crying for the dead, and all of its people are weak. Even the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the fish in the sea are dying.<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>No one should argue or blame another person. Priests, my argument is with you!<sup>h</sup> <sup>5</sup>You priests will fall in the daytime. And at night the prophet will also fall with you. I will also destroy your mother.

<sup>6</sup>"My people are destroyed because they have no knowledge. You priests have refused to learn, so I will refuse to let you be priests for me. You have forgotten the law of your God, so I will forget your children. <sup>7</sup>They became proud. They sinned more and more against me, so I will change their honor to shame."

<sup>8</sup>The priests fed on the people's sins. They wanted more and more of their sin offerings.<sup>i</sup> <sup>9</sup>So the priests are no different from the people. I will punish them for the things they did. I will pay them back for the wrong things they did. <sup>10</sup>They will eat, but they will not be satisfied. They will commit sexual sins, but they will not have babies.<sup>j</sup> This is because they left the LORD and became like prostitutes.

<sup>11</sup>"Sexual sins, strong drink, and new wine ruin a person's ability to think straight. <sup>12</sup>My people are asking pieces of wood for advice. They think those sticks will answer them! They have chased after those false gods like prostitutes and have left their own God. <sup>13</sup>They make sacrifices on the tops of the mountains and burn incense* on the hills under oak trees, poplar trees, and elm trees.<sup>k</sup> The shade under those trees looks nice. So your daughters lie under those trees like prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit sexual sins.

<sup>14</sup>"I cannot blame<sup>l</sup> your daughters for being prostitutes or your daughters-in-law for committing sexual sins, because the men go and have sex with prostitutes and offer sacrifices with the temple prostitutes.<sup>m</sup> So these fools are destroying themselves.

The Shameful Sins of Israel

<sup>15</sup>Israel, just because you act like a prostitute doesn't mean that Judah should feel guilty too. People, don't go to Gilgal* or Beth Aven.<sup>n</sup> Don't use the LORD's name to make promises. Don't say, 'As the LORD lives ...!' <sup>16</sup>The LORD has given many things to Israel. He is like a shepherd who takes his sheep to a large field with plenty of grass. But Israel is stubborn like a young cow that runs away again and again.

<sup>17</sup>"Ephraim* has joined his idols,* so leave him alone. <sup>18</sup>Ephraim has joined their drunkenness. Let them continue to be prostitutes. Let them be with their lovers.<sup>o</sup> <sup>19</sup>They went to those gods for safety, and they have lost

<sup>4:8</sup> This is a wordplay. The word "sins" also means "sin offerings." So instead of eating sacrifices, the priests became hungry for sin itself.

<sup>4:10</sup> They ... babies A part of worshiping the false gods was having sexual relations with temple prostitutes. The people thought this would make the gods happy. And then the gods would give the people large families and good crops.

<sup>4:14</sup> blame This word can mean "visit," "put in charge of," "take account of," or "to hold responsible for."

<sup>4:14</sup> temple prostitutes Women who were prostitutes at the temples of the false gods. Their sexual sins were part of worshiping those false gods.

<sup>4:15</sup> Beth Aven A name meaning "House of Evil." It is a wordplay on the name "Bethel," a name meaning "House of God." There was a temple in this town. Also in 5:8.

<sup>d3:2</sup> 6 ounces Literally, "15 [shekels]" (172.5 g).

<sup>h4:4</sup> Or "The people cannot complain or blame someone else. The people are helpless, like arguing with a priest." Many times the priests and Levites served as judges, and their decisions were final.

their ability to think.<sup>a</sup> Their altars will bring them shame.

The Leaders Cause Israel and Judah to Sin

5<sup>1</sup>“Priests, nation<sup>b</sup> of Israel, and people in the king’s family, listen to me. You have been judged guilty!”

“You were like a trap at Mizpah<sup>c</sup> and like a net spread on the ground at Tabor.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>You have done many evil things,<sup>e</sup> so I will punish you all. <sup>3</sup>I know Ephraim.* I know what Israel has done. Ephraim, right now you act like a prostitute. Israel is dirty with sin. <sup>4</sup>The people of Israel have done many evil things, and these evil things keep them from coming back to their God. They are always thinking of ways to chase after other gods. They don’t know the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Israel’s pride is a witness against them,<sup>f</sup> so Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their sin. But Judah will also stumble with them.

<sup>6</sup>“The leaders of the people went to look for the LORD. They took their sheep and cattle with them, but they did not find the LORD because he refused to accept them. <sup>7</sup>They have not been faithful to the LORD. Their children are from some stranger. And now, he will destroy them and their land again.<sup>g</sup>

A Prophecy of Israel’s Destruction

<sup>8</sup>“Blow the horn in Gibeah.

Blow the trumpet in Ramah.<sup>h</sup>

Give the warning at Beth Aven.

The enemy is behind you, Benjamin.

<sup>9</sup> Ephraim* will become empty at the time of punishment.

I, God, warn the families of Israel that this really will happen.

<sup>10</sup> The leaders of Judah are like thieves trying to steal someone’s property, so I will pour out my anger on them like water.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim will be punished. He will be crushed and pressed like grapes, because he decided to follow filth.

<sup>12</sup> I will destroy Ephraim as a moth eats a piece of cloth.

a4:19 They ... think Or “The wind has carried them away on its wings” or “The spirit held them tight in its wings.” The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

b5:1 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country. Also in verse 14.

c5:1 Mizpah A mountain in Israel. The people worshiped the false gods on many of the hills and mountains.

d5:1 Tabor A mountain in Israel.

e5:2 You ... evil things The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. It seems to be a wordplay of some kind.

f5:5 them Literally, “his face.”

g5:7 And now ... again The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

h5:8 Gibeah, Ramah Cities on Judah’s border with Israel.

I will ruin Judah, like rot on a piece of wood.

<sup>13</sup> Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, so they went to Assyria for help. They told their problems to the great king, but he cannot heal you or cure your wound.

<sup>14</sup> I will be like a lion to Ephraim, like a young lion to the nation of Judah. I—yes, I myself—will rip them to pieces.

I will carry them away, and no one can save them.

<sup>15</sup> I will go back to my place, until the people admit they are guilty, until they come looking for me.

Yes, in their trouble they will try very hard to find me.”

The Rewards of Coming Back to the Lord

6<sup>1</sup>“Come, let’s go back to the LORD.

He hurt us, but he will heal us.

He wounded us, but he will put bandages on us.

<sup>2</sup> After two days he will bring us back to life.

He will raise us up on the third day.

Then we can live near him.

<sup>3</sup> Let’s learn about the LORD.

Let’s try very hard to know him.

We know he is coming, like we know the dawn is coming.

He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the ground.”

The People Are Not Faithful

<sup>4</sup>“Ephraim,* what should I do with you? Judah, what should I do with you? Your faithfulness is like a morning mist. Your faithfulness is like the dew that goes away early in the morning.

<sup>5</sup> I used the prophets and made laws for the people. The people were killed at my command, but good things will come from those decisions.<sup>i</sup>

I want people to know God, not to bring burnt offerings.*

<sup>7</sup> But the people broke the agreement as Adam did.<sup>j</sup> They were unfaithful to me in their country.

<sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city of people who do evil—people who have tricked and killed others.

i6:5 but good things ... decisions Or “I cut them with the prophets. I killed them with the words from my mouth. Light will come from your decisions.”

j6:7 as Adam did See Gen. 3.

They murder people before they reach safety in Shechem.

They do such evil things.

<sup>10</sup> I have seen a terrible thing in the nation<sup>a</sup> of Israel.

Ephraim was unfaithful to God.

Israel is dirty with sin.

<sup>11</sup> Judah, there is also a time of harvest for you.

It will happen when I bring my people back from captivity.<sup>b</sup>

7 <sup>1</sup>“I will heal Israel!

Then people will know that Ephraim sinned.

They will know about Samaria’s<sup>c</sup> lies.

They will know about the thieves who come and go in that town.

<sup>2</sup> They don’t believe that I will remember their crimes.

The bad things they did are all around. I can see their sins clearly.

<sup>3</sup> Their evil makes their king happy.

Their false gods please their leaders.

<sup>4</sup> A baker presses dough to make bread.

He puts the bread in the oven.

He does not make the fire hotter while the bread is rising.

But the people of Israel are not like that.

They are always making their fire hotter.

<sup>5</sup> On Our King’s Day, the leaders get so drunk that they get sick.

They become crazy with wine and make agreements with people who laugh at God.

<sup>6</sup> The people make their secret plans.

Their hearts burn with excitement like an oven.

Their excitement burns all night, and in the morning it is like a hot fire.

<sup>7</sup> They are all like hot ovens.

They destroyed their rulers.

All their kings fell.

Not one of them called to me for help.

Israel and the Nations

<sup>8</sup>“Ephraim* mixes with the nations.

Ephraim is like a cake that was not cooked on both sides.

Gray hairs<sup>d</sup> are also sprinkled on Ephraim, but Ephraim does not know it.

<sup>10</sup> Ephraim’s pride speaks against him.

The people had many troubles,

<sup>a</sup>6:10 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

<sup>b</sup>6:11 It will ... captivity Or “It will happen when I restore my people’s fortune.”

<sup>c</sup>7:1 Samaria The capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel.

<sup>d</sup>7:9 Gray hairs This word might describe something that was put on the food when people cooked, something that looked like gray hairs.

but they still didn’t go back to the Lord their God.

They didn’t look to him for help.

<sup>11</sup> So Ephraim has become like a silly dove without understanding.

The people called to Egypt for help.

They went to Assyria for help.

<sup>12</sup> They go to those countries for help, but I will trap them.

I will throw my net over them, and I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will punish them for their agreements.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>13</sup> It will be very bad for those who left me.

They refused to obey me, so they will be destroyed.

I saved them,

but they speak lies against me.

<sup>14</sup> They never call to me from their hearts.

Yes, they cry on their beds.

And they cut themselves when they ask for grain and new wine.

But in their hearts, they have turned away from me.

<sup>15</sup> I trained them and made their arms strong,

but they made evil plans against me.

<sup>16</sup> But they were like a boomerang.*

They changed directions,

but they did not come back to me.<sup>f</sup>

Their leaders bragged about their strength,

but they will be killed with swords.

And the people in Egypt will laugh at them.

Idol Worship Leads to Destruction

8 <sup>1</sup>Put the trumpet to your lips and give the warning. Be like an eagle over the Lord’s house.<sup>g</sup> The Israelites have broken my agreement.* They have not obeyed my law. <sup>2</sup>They yell out at me, ‘My God, we in Israel know you!’ <sup>3</sup>But Israel refused the good things, so the enemy chases him. <sup>4</sup>The Israelites chose their kings, but they didn’t come to me for advice. They chose leaders, but they didn’t choose men I knew. The Israelites used their silver and gold to make idols* for themselves, so they will be destroyed. <sup>5-6</sup>He has refused your calf, Samaria.<sup>h</sup> God says, ‘I am very angry with the Israelites.’ The people of Israel will be punished for their sin. Some worker made those statues. They are not God.

<sup>f</sup>7:16 They changed ... to me Or “They turned, but not upward” or “They turned to the ‘no-gods.’” That is, the statues people worshiped as gods.

<sup>g</sup>8:1 Be like an eagle ... Lord’s house Or “Be like a guard over the Lord’s house.”

<sup>h</sup>8:5-6 calf, Samaria Samaria was the capital city of Israel. The people of Israel made statues of calves and put them in the temples at Dan and Bethel. It is not clear if these statues represented the Lord or some false god. But God didn’t want them to use these statues. See 1 Kings 12:26-30.

Samaria's calf will be broken into pieces.<sup>7</sup> The Israelites did a foolish thing—it was like trying to plant the wind. But they will get only troubles—they will harvest a whirlwind. The grain in the fields will grow, but it will give no food. Even if it grew something, strangers would eat it.

- <sup>8</sup>“Israel was destroyed; its people are scattered among the
nations,
like some dish that was thrown away
because no one wanted it.
<sup>9</sup> Ephraim* went to his ‘lovers.’<sup>a</sup>
Like a stubborn donkey, they led him off to Assyria.
<sup>10</sup> Yes, Israel was taken to the nations, but I will bring them back.
But first, they must suffer a little by carrying the burden of that mighty king.

Israel Forgets God and Worships Idols

- <sup>11</sup>“Ephraim* built more and more altars,*
and that was a sin.
They have been altars of sin for Ephraim.
<sup>12</sup> Even if I wrote 10,000 laws for Ephraim, he would treat them as if they were for some stranger.
<sup>13</sup> The Israelites love sacrifices.<sup>b</sup>
They offer the meat and eat it.
The LORD does not accept their sacrifices.
He remembers their sins,
and he will punish them.
They will be carried away as prisoners to Egypt.
<sup>14</sup> Israel has built palaces for their kings, and now Judah builds fortresses.*
But they have forgotten their Maker!
So I will send a fire to destroy their cities and fortresses!”

The Sadness of Exile

9<sup>1</sup> Israel, don't celebrate like the nations do. Don't be happy. You acted like a prostitute and left your God. You committed your sexual sin<sup>c</sup> on every threshing* floor. <sup>2</sup>But the grain from those threshing floors will not provide enough food for Israel. There will not be enough wine for Israel.

<sup>3</sup>The Israelites will not stay in the LORD's land. Ephraim* will return to Egypt. In Assyria they will eat food that they should not eat. <sup>4</sup>They will not be able to give offerings of wine to the LORD. None of their sacrifices will please him. What they offer will be like food eaten at a funeral—whoever eats it will become unclean. They can eat that food for their own hunger, but it cannot be taken into the Lord's Temple.* <sup>5</sup>They will not be able to celebrate the LORD's feasts or festivals.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The people of Israel left because the enemy took everything from them. But Egypt will take the people themselves. Memphis<sup>e</sup> will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures, and thorns will grow where the Israelites lived.

Israel Rejected the True Prophets

<sup>7</sup>The prophet says, “Israel, learn this: The time of punishment has come. The time has come for you to pay for the evil things you did.” But the people of Israel say, “The prophet is a fool. This man with [God's] Spirit is crazy.” The prophet says, “You will be punished for your terrible sins. You will be punished for your hate.” <sup>8</sup>God and the prophet are like guards watching over Ephraim,* but there are many traps along his way. And people hate the prophet, even in the house of his God.

<sup>9</sup>The Israelites have gone deep into ruin as in the time of Gibeah.* The LORD will remember the Israelites' sins, and he will punish their sins.

Israel Is Ruined by Its Worship of Idols

<sup>10</sup>“At the time I (the Lord) found Israel, they were like fresh grapes in the desert. They were like the first figs on a fig tree at the beginning of the season. But when they came to Baal Peor,<sup>f</sup> they changed. So I had to cut them off like rotten fruit.<sup>g</sup> They became like the terrible things that they loved.

The Israelites Will Have No Children

<sup>11</sup>“Like a bird, Ephraim's* glory will fly away. There will be no more pregnancies, no more births, and no more babies. <sup>12</sup>But even if the Israelites do raise their children, it will not help, because I will take the children away from them. I will leave them, and they will have nothing but troubles.”

<sup>13</sup>I can see that Ephraim is leading his children into a trap. Ephraim will lead his children out to the killer. <sup>14</sup>LORD, give them what you will. Give them a womb that loses babies and breasts that cannot give milk.

- <sup>15</sup> All their evil is in Gilgal*;
I began hating them there.
I will force them to leave my house because of the evil things they do.
I will not love them anymore.

<sup>a</sup>9:5 Literally, “What will you do for a day of solemn assembly, for the LORD's festival day?”

<sup>f</sup>9:10 Baal Peor This happened when Moses was still leading the Israelites in the desert. Read Num. 25:1–5.

<sup>g</sup>9:10 they changed ... rotten fruit This is a word-play that can also mean “they dedicated themselves to a shameful idol.”

<sup>c</sup>9:1 You committed your sexual sin This means the people were not faithful to God. But it also means the people had sexual relations with temple prostitutes. They believed their false gods would give them many children and good crops.

Their leaders are rebels who turned against me.

<sup>16</sup> Ephraim will be punished.

Their root is dying.

They will not have any more babies.

They might give birth to babies, but I will kill the precious babies who come from their bodies.

<sup>17</sup> Those people will not listen to my God, so he will refuse to listen to them.

And they will wander among the nations without a home.

Israel's Riches Led to Its Worship of Idols

10 <sup>1</sup>Israel is like a vine that grows plenty of fruit.

But as Israel got more and more things,
he built more and more altars* to honor false gods.

His land became better and better, so he put up better and better stones to honor false gods.

<sup>2</sup> The people of Israel tried to trick God, but now they must accept their guilt.

The LORD will break down their altars and destroy their memorial stones.*

The Evil Decisions of the Israelites

<sup>3</sup>Now the Israelites say, "We have no king.
We don't honor the LORD. And his king cannot do anything to us."

<sup>4</sup>They make promises, but they are only telling lies. They don't keep their promises.
They make agreements with other countries.
God does not like those agreements. The judges are like poisonous weeds growing in a plowed field.

<sup>5</sup>The people from Samaria* worship the calves at Beth Aven.<sup>a</sup> They will cry. The priests will cry, because their beautiful idol is gone. It was carried away. <sup>6</sup>It was carried away as a gift to the great king of Assyria. He will keep Ephraim's* shameful idol. Israel will be ashamed of its idol.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>Samaria's false god<sup>c</sup> will be destroyed. It will be like a piece of wood floating away on the water's surface.

<sup>8</sup>Israel sinned and built many high places.*
The high places of Aven<sup>d</sup> will be destroyed.
Thorns and weeds will grow on their altars.*
Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

Israel Will Pay for Sin

<sup>9</sup>Israel, you have sinned since the time of Gibeah.* (And the people have continued to sin there.) Those evil people at Gibeah will be trapped by war. <sup>10</sup>I will come to punish them.

<sup>a</sup>10:5 Beth Aven A name meaning "House of Evil." It is a wordplay on the name "Bethel," a name meaning
"House of God." There was a temple in this town.

<sup>b</sup>10:6 idol Or "advice."

<sup>c</sup>10:7 false god Or "king."

<sup>d</sup>10:8 high places of Aven Aven means "evil" or "wickedness." This probably means the temple and other places of worship at Bethel.

Armies will come together against them and punish the Israelites for both of their sins.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>11</sup>"Ephraim* is like a trained young cow that loves to walk on grain on the threshing* floor. I will put a good yoke* on her neck. I will put the ropes on Ephraim. Then Judah will begin plowing. Jacob* will break the ground himself."

<sup>12</sup>If you plant goodness, you will harvest faithful love. Plow your ground, and you will harvest with the LORD. He will come, and he will make goodness fall on you like rain.

<sup>13</sup>But you planted evil, and you harvested trouble. You ate the fruit of your lies, because you had trusted in your power and your soldiers. <sup>14</sup>So your armies will hear the noise of battle, and all your fortresses* will be destroyed.
It will be like the time Shalman<sup>f</sup> destroyed Beth Arbel. At that time of war mothers were killed with their children. <sup>15</sup>And this will happen to you at Bethel, because you did so many evil things. When that day begins, the king of Israel will be fully destroyed.

Israel Has Forgotten the Lord

11 <sup>1</sup>The Lord said, "I loved Israel when he was a child,
and I called my son out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> But the more I<sup>g</sup> called the Israelites,
the more they left me.

The Israelites gave sacrifices to the false gods<sup>h</sup>
and burned incense* to the idols.*

<sup>3</sup>"But I was the one who taught Ephraim* to walk.

I took the Israelites in my arms.

I healed them,
but they don't know that.

<sup>4</sup> I led them with ropes,<sup>i</sup>
but they were ropes of love.

I was like a person who set them free.<sup>j</sup>
I bent down and fed them.

<sup>5</sup>"The Israelites will not go back to Egypt.
The king of Assyria will become their king,
because they refused to turn back to God.
<sup>6</sup>The sword will swing against their cities and kill their strong men. It will destroy their leaders.

<sup>7</sup>"My people expect me to come back. They will call to God above, but he will not help them."<sup>k</sup>

<sup>e</sup>10:10 This probably refers to worship at Gibeah and Beth Aven.

<sup>f</sup>10:14 Shalman This is probably Shalmaneser, king of Assyria.

<sup>g</sup>11:2 / This is from the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has "they."

<sup>j</sup>11:4 set them free Literally, "lifted the yoke from their jaws."

<sup>k</sup>11:7 Or "My people are hanging on poles, around my dwelling place. They called up to him, but he didn't lift them up."

The Lord Will Not Destroy Israel

- <sup>8</sup>"Ephraim,* I don't want to give you up.
Israel, I want to protect you.
I don't want to make you like Admah.
I don't want to make you like Zeboiim.<sup>a</sup>
I am changing my mind.
My love for you is too strong.
<sup>9</sup> I will not let my terrible anger win.
I will not destroy Ephraim again.
I am God and not a human.
I am the Holy One.
I am with you.
I will not show my anger.
<sup>10</sup> I will roar like a lion.
I will roar, and my children will come and follow me.
My children will come from the west,
shaking with fear.
<sup>11</sup> They will come from Egypt, shaking like birds.
They will come shaking like doves from the land of Assyria, and I will take them back home."
This is what the LORD said.
<sup>12</sup> "Ephraim surrounded me with false gods.
The people of Israel turned against me.<sup>b</sup>
But Judah still walks with God<sup>c</sup> and is true to the Holy One.<sup>d</sup>"

The Lord Is Against Israel

12 <sup>1</sup>Ephraim* is wasting its time; Israel "chases the wind" all day long. The people tell more and more lies and steal more and more. They have made agreements with Assyria, and they are carrying their olive oil to Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD says, "I have a complaint against Israel.<sup>e</sup> Jacob* must be punished for the bad things he did. <sup>3</sup>While Jacob was still in his mother's womb, he began to trick his brother.<sup>f</sup> Jacob was a strong young man, and at that time he fought with God. <sup>4</sup>Jacob wrestled with God's angel and won.<sup>g</sup> He cried and asked for a favor. That happened at Bethel. There he spoke to us. <sup>5</sup>Yes, YAHWEH* is the God of the

<sup>a</sup>11:8 Admah, Zeboiim Two cities that were destroyed when God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. See Gen. 19; Deut. 29:23.

<sup>b</sup>11:12 Ephraim ... me Or "Ephraim surrounded me with lies. The house of Israel surrounded me with deception."

<sup>c</sup>11:12 God Literally, "El" This might be one of the names of God, or it might be El, the most important god of the Canaanites. It is not clear if this means Judah was being faithful to God or if Judah was worshipping the false gods.

<sup>d</sup>11:12 Holy One This is a plural form in the Hebrew text and may refer to God or to Canaanite false gods.

<sup>f</sup>12:3 he ... his brother Or "he grabbed his brother's heel." This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the name "Jacob." Read Gen. 25:26.

<sup>g</sup>12:4 Jacob wrestled ... and won Read Gen. 32:22–28.

armies.<sup>h</sup> His name is YAHWEH. <sup>6</sup>So come back to your God. Be loyal to him. Do the right thing, and always trust in your God!

<sup>7</sup>Jacob is a tricky merchant.*<sup>i</sup> He even cheats his friend! Even his scales<sup>j</sup> lie. <sup>8</sup>Ephraim said, 'I am rich! I have found true riches! No one will learn about my crimes. No one will learn about my sins.'

<sup>9</sup>"But I am still the LORD your God, as I was when you left the land of Egypt. I will make you live in tents, as you do during the Festival of Shelters.*<sup>k</sup> <sup>10</sup>I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions.* I gave the prophets many ways to teach my lessons to you. <sup>11</sup>But the people in Gilead* have sinned. There are many terrible idols in that place. They offer sacrifices to bulls at Gilgal.* They have many altars.* There are rows and rows of altars—like the rows of dirt in a plowed field.

<sup>12</sup>Jacob ran away to the land of Aram. There Israel* worked for a wife. He kept sheep to get another wife. <sup>13</sup>But the LORD used a prophet and brought Israel out of Egypt. He used a prophet and kept Israel safe. <sup>14</sup>But Ephraim made the LORD very angry. Ephraim killed many people, so he will be punished for his crimes. His LORD will make him bear his shame."

Israel Has Ruined Itself

13 <sup>1</sup>"The tribe of Ephraim* made itself very important in Israel. Ephraim spoke and people shook with fear. But Ephraim sinned by worshiping Baal.* <sup>2</sup>Now the Israelites sin more and more. They make idols* for themselves. Workers make those fancy statues from silver, and then they talk to their statues. They offer sacrifices to them, and they kiss those calf idols. <sup>3</sup>That is why those people will soon disappear. They will be like a fog that comes early in the morning and then quickly disappears. The Israelites will be like chaff* that is blown from the threshing* floor. The Israelites will be like smoke that goes out a window and disappears.

<sup>4</sup>"I have been the LORD your God since the time you were in the land of Egypt. You did not know any other god except me. I am the one who saved you. <sup>5</sup>I knew you in the desert—I knew you in that dry land. <sup>6</sup>I gave food to the Israelites, and they ate it. They became full and satisfied. They became proud, and then they forgot me.

<sup>7</sup>"That is why I will be like a lion to them. I will be like a leopard waiting by the road. <sup>8</sup>I

<sup>k</sup>12:9 as ... Shelters Literally, "as in the days of meeting." This might also refer to the meeting of God with his people in the Holy Tent (see "Holy Tent" in the Word List) during their wandering in the desert.

will attack them like a bear whose cubs were robbed from her. I will attack them and rip open their chests. I will be like a lion or other wild animal tearing and eating its prey.

Israel Cannot Be Saved From God's Anger

<sup>9</sup>“Israel, I helped you, but you turned against me. So now I will destroy you.
<sup>10</sup>Where is your king? Can he save you in any of your cities? Where are your judges? You asked for them, saying, ‘Give me a king and leaders.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>I was angry, and I gave you a king. And when I became very angry, I took him away.

<sup>12</sup>“Ephraim* tried to hide his guilt.

He thought his sins were a secret,
but he will be punished.

<sup>13</sup> His punishment will be like the pain of a woman giving birth.

He will not be a wise son.
The time will come for his birth,
and he will not survive.

<sup>14</sup>“I will save them from the grave.

I will rescue them from death.
Death, where are your diseases?
Grave, where is your power?
I am not looking for revenge.

<sup>15</sup> Israel grows among his brothers, but a powerful east wind will come—
the LORD’s wind will blow from the desert.

Then his well will dry up.
His spring of water will be dry.
The wind will take away anything of value.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria must be punished
because she turned against her God.
The Israelites will be killed with swords.
Their children will be torn to pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped open.”

Return to the Lord

14 <sup>1</sup>Israel, you fell and sinned against God. So come back to the LORD your

God. <sup>2</sup>Think about what you will say, and come back to the LORD. Say to him, “Take away our sin,

and accept these words as our sacrifice.
We offer you the praise from our lips.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us.

We will not ride on war horses.
We will never again say, ‘Our God’
to something we made with our hands.
This is because you are the one who shows mercy to orphans.”

The Lord Will Forgive Israel

<sup>4</sup> The Lord says,

“I will forgive them for leaving me.
I will show them my love without limits,
because I have stopped being angry.

<sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel.
Israel will blossom like the lily.*
He will grow like the cedar trees of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> His branches will grow,
and he will be like a beautiful olive tree.
He will be like the sweet smell from the cedar trees of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup> The people of Israel will again live under my protection.
They will grow like grain.
They will bloom like a vine.
They will be like the wine of Lebanon.

The Lord Warns Israel About Idols

<sup>8</sup>“Ephraim,* I will have nothing more to do with idols.*

I am the one who answers your prayers and watches over you.<sup>c</sup>
I am like a fir tree that is always green.
Your fruit comes from me.”

Final Advice

<sup>9</sup> A wise person understands these things, and a smart person should learn them.
The LORD’s ways are right.
Good people will live by them.
Sinners will die by them.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>c</sup>14:8 and watches over you This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the name “Assyria.” God is saying that he, not some foreign country, protects Israel.

<sup>d</sup>14:9 Good ... die by them Literally, “Good people will walk on them. Sinners will stumble on them.”

Joel

Locusts Will Destroy the Crops

1 <sup>1</sup>Joel son of Pethuel received this message from the LORD:

- <sup>2</sup> Leaders, listen to this message!
Listen to me, all you people who live in the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your life?
Did anything like this happen during your fathers' lifetime?
- <sup>3</sup> You will tell these things to your children, and your children will tell their children, and your grandchildren will tell the people of the next generation.
- <sup>4</sup> What the cutting locust<sup>a</sup> has left, the swarming locust has eaten.
And what the swarming locust has left, the hopping locust has eaten.
And what the hopping locust has left, the destroying locust has eaten!

The Locusts—A Powerful Army

- <sup>5</sup> Drunks, wake up and cry!
All of you who drink wine, cry because your sweet wine is finished.
You will not taste it again.
- <sup>6</sup> A powerful nation came to attack my land.
Its soldiers were too many to count.
Its weapons were as sharp as a lion's teeth and as powerful as a lion's jaw.
- <sup>7</sup> It destroyed my grapevine.
Its good vines withered and died.
It destroyed my fig tree,
stripped off the bark and threw it away.

The People Cry

- <sup>8</sup> Cry like a young woman crying because the man she was ready to marry has died.
- <sup>9</sup> Priests, servants of the LORD, cry because there will be no more grain and drink offerings in the LORD's Temple.*
- <sup>10</sup> The fields are ruined.
Even the ground is crying because the grain is destroyed;
the new wine is dried up,
and the olive oil is gone.

- <sup>11</sup> Be sad, farmers!
Cry loudly for the grapes,
for the wheat, and for the barley,
because the harvest in the field is ruined.
- <sup>12</sup> The vines have become dry,
and the fig tree is dying.
All the trees in the field—
the pomegranate, the palm, and the apple—have withered.
And happiness among the people has died.
- <sup>13</sup> Priests, put on sackcloth* and cry loudly.
Servants of the altar,* cry loudly.
Servants of my God, you will sleep in sackcloth, because there will be no more grain and drink offerings in God's Temple.

The Terrible Destruction of the Locusts

<sup>14</sup>Tell the people that there will be a special time of fasting. Call them together for a special meeting. Bring the leaders and everyone living in the land together at the Temple* of the LORD your God, and pray to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Be sad because the LORD's special day is near. At that time punishment will come like an attack from God All-Powerful. <sup>16</sup>Our food is gone. Joy and happiness are gone from the Temple of our God. <sup>17</sup>We planted seeds, but the seeds became dry and dead lying in the soil. Our plants are dry and dead. Our barns are empty and falling down.

<sup>18</sup>The animals are hungry and groaning. The herds of cattle wander around confused because they have no grass to eat. The sheep are dying.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>LORD, I am calling to you for help. Fire has changed our green fields into a desert. Flames have burned all the trees in the field. <sup>20</sup>Wild animals also need your help. The streams are dry—there is no water! Fire has changed our green fields into a desert.

The Coming Day of the Lord

- 2 <sup>1</sup>Blow the trumpet on Zion.*
Shout a warning on my holy mountain.
Let all the people who live in the land shake with fear.
The LORD's special day is coming;
it is near.
- <sup>2</sup> It will be a dark, gloomy day.
It will be a dark and cloudy day.

<sup>a</sup>1:4 locust See "locust" in the Word List. Here, Joel might be talking about an enemy army.

<sup>b</sup>1:18 dying Literally, "being punished."

- At sunrise you will see the army spread over the mountains.
It will be a great and powerful army.
There has never been anything like it
before,
and there will never be anything like it
again.
- 3 The army will destroy the land
like a burning fire.
In front of them the land will be like the Garden of Eden.
Behind them the land will be like an empty desert.
Nothing will escape them.
- 4 They look like horses.
They run like war horses.
- 5 Listen to them.
It is like the noise of chariots*
riding over the mountains.
It is like the noise of flames burning the chaff.*
They are a powerful people,
who are ready for war.
- 6 Before this army, people shake with fear.
Their faces become pale from fear.
- 7 The soldiers run fast.
They climb over the walls.
Each soldier marches straight ahead.
They don't move from their path.
- 8 They don't trip each other.
Each soldier walks in his own path.
If one of the soldiers is hit and falls down,
the others keep right on marching.
- 9 They run to the city.
They quickly climb over the wall.
They climb into the houses.
They climb through the windows like thieves.
- 10 Before them, earth and sky shake.
The sun and the moon become dark,
and the stars stop shining.
- 11 The LORD calls loudly to his army.
His camp is very large.
The army obeys his commands.
His army is very powerful.
The LORD's special day is a great and terrible day.
No one can stop it.

The Lord Tells the People to Change

- 12 This is the LORD's message:
"Now come back to me with all your heart.
Cry and mourn,* and don't eat anything!
Show that you are sad for doing wrong.
- 13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes.<sup>a</sup>"
Come back to the LORD your God.
He is kind and merciful.
He does not become angry quickly.
He has great love.
Maybe he will change his mind

<sup>a</sup>2:13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes People tore their clothes to show sadness. Here, God wants the people to feel sad for the bad things they had done.

- about the bad punishment he planned.
- 14 Who knows, maybe he will change his mind
and leave behind a blessing for you.
Then you can give grain and drink
offerings
to the LORD your God.

Pray to the Lord

- 15 Blow the trumpet at Zion.*
Call for a special meeting.
Call for a special time of fasting.
- 16 Bring the people together.
Call for a special meeting.
Bring together the old men,
the children, and the small babies still at their mother's breasts.
Let the bride and her new husband come from their bedroom.
- 17 Let the priests, the LORD's servants, cry between the porch<sup>b</sup> and the altar.*
All of them should say this:
"LORD, have mercy on your people.
Don't let your people be put to shame.
Don't let other people tell jokes about
your people.
Don't let the other nations laugh at us and
say,
"Where is their God?"

The Lord Will Restore the Land

- 18 Then the LORD cared very much about his
land.
He felt sorry for his people.
- 19 The LORD spoke to his people.
He said, "I will send you grain, wine, and
oil.
You will have plenty.
I will not shame you among the nations anymore.
- 20 No, I will force the people from the north<sup>c</sup> to leave your land and make them go into a dry, empty
land.
Some of them will go to the eastern sea
and some to the western sea.
They did such terrible things, but they will be like a dead and rotting body.
There will be such a terrible smell!"

The Land Will Be Made New Again

- 21 Land, don't be afraid.
Be happy and full of joy.
The LORD will do great things.
- 22 Animals of the field, don't be afraid.
The desert pastures will grow grass.
The trees will grow fruit.
The fig trees and the vines will grow plenty of fruit.

<sup>c</sup>2:20 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

- <sup>23</sup> So be happy, people of Zion.*
Be joyful in the LORD your God.
He will be good and give you rain.
He will send you the early rains and the late rains like before.
- <sup>24</sup> The threshing* floors will be filled with wheat, and the barrels will overflow with wine and olive oil.
- <sup>25</sup> "I, the LORD, sent my army against you.
The swarming locusts
and the hopping locusts
and the destroying locusts and the cutting locusts<sup>a</sup> ate everything you had.
But I, the LORD, will pay you back for those years of trouble.
- <sup>26</sup> Then you will have plenty to eat.
You will be full.
You will praise the name of the LORD your God.
He has done wonderful things for you.
My people will never again be ashamed.
- <sup>27</sup> You will know that I am with Israel.
You will know that I am the LORD your God.
There is no other God.
My people will never be ashamed again."

God Will Give His Spirit to All People

- <sup>28</sup> "After this, I will pour out my Spirit on all kinds of people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will have dreams,
and your young men will see visions.*
- <sup>29</sup> In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants, both men and women.
- <sup>30</sup> I will work wonders* in the sky and on the earth.
There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke.
- <sup>31</sup> The sun will be changed into darkness,
and the moon will be as red as blood.
Then the great and fearful day of the LORD will come!
- <sup>32</sup> And everyone who trusts in the LORD<sup>b</sup> will be saved.
There will be survivors on Mount Zion* and in Jerusalem,
just as the LORD said.
Yes, those left alive will be the ones the LORD has called.

Judah's Enemies Will Be Punished

3 <sup>1</sup>"Yes, at that time I will bring back the people of Judah and Jerusalem from captivity. <sup>2</sup>I will also gather all the nations together. I will bring all these nations down into Jehoshaphat Valley.<sup>c</sup> There I will judge them. Those nations scattered my people, Israel. They forced them to live in other nations, so I will punish those nations. They divided up my land. <sup>3</sup>They threw lots* for my people. They sold boys to buy a prostitute, and they sold girls to buy wine to drink.

<sup>4</sup>"Tyre! Sidon! All of you areas of Philistia! You are not important to me!<sup>d</sup> Are you punishing me for something I did? You might think that you are punishing me, but I will soon punish you. <sup>5</sup>You took my silver and gold. You took my precious treasures and put them in your temples.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>6</sup>"You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could take them far from their land. <sup>7</sup>You sent my people to that faraway place, but I will bring them back. And I will punish you for what you did. <sup>8</sup>I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. Then they will sell them to the faraway Sabceans.<sup>f</sup>" This is what the LORD said.

Prepare for War

- <sup>9</sup> Announce this among the nations:
Prepare for war!
Wake up the strong men!
Let all the men of war come near.
Let them come up!
- <sup>10</sup> Beat your plows into swords.
Make spears from your pruning hooks.<sup>g</sup>
Let the weak man say,
"I am a strong soldier."
- <sup>11</sup> All you nations, hurry!
Come together in that place.
LORD, bring your strong soldiers.
- <sup>12</sup> Wake up, nations!
Come to Jehoshaphat Valley.
There I will sit to judge
all the surrounding nations.
- <sup>13</sup> Bring the sickle,*
because the harvest is ripe.<sup>h</sup> Come, walk on the grapes,
because the winepress is full.
The barrels will be full and spilling over,
because their evil is great.
- <sup>14</sup> There are many, many people in the Valley of Decision.<sup>i</sup>
The LORD's special day is near in the Valley of Decision.

<sup>d</sup>3:4 You are not important to me Literally, "What are you to me?"

<sup>g</sup>3:10 pruning hooks These tools were used to prune (cut) branches of trees. Read Isa. 2:4.

<sup>h</sup>3:13 harvest is ripe This time of judgment is compared to harvest time.

<sup>b</sup>2:32 who trusts in the Lord Literally, "who calls on the name of the LORD," meaning to show faith in him by worshipping him or praying to him for help.

- <sup>15</sup> The sun and the moon will become dark.
The stars will stop shining.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD God will shout from Zion.*
He will shout from Jerusalem, and the sky and the earth will shake.
But the LORD God will be a safe place
for his people.
He will be a place of safety
for the people of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup>“Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.
I live on Zion, my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will become holy.
Strangers will never pass through that city again.

A New Life for Judah Promised

- <sup>18</sup>“On that day, the mountains will drip with sweet wine.
The hills will flow with milk, and water will flow through all the

- empty rivers of Judah.
A fountain will come from the LORD's Temple.*
It will give water to Acacia Valley.
- <sup>19</sup> Egypt will be empty.
Edom will be an empty wilderness, because they were cruel to the people of Judah.
They killed innocent people<sup>a</sup>
in their country.
- <sup>20</sup> But there will always be people living in Judah.
People will live in Jerusalem
through many generations.
- <sup>21</sup> Those people killed my people,
so I really will punish them!”
The LORD God will live in Zion*!

<sup>a</sup>3:19 killed innocent people Literally, “shed innocent blood.”

Amos

Introduction

1 <sup>1</sup>This is the message of Amos, one of the shepherds from the city Tekoa. He saw visions<sup>2</sup> about Israel during the time that Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Joash was king of Israel. This was two years before the earthquake.

Punishment for Aram

- <sup>2</sup> Amos said,
“The LORD will shout like a lion in Zion.*
His loud voice will roar from Jerusalem.
The green pastures of the shepherds will turn brown and die.
Even Mount Carmel<sup>b</sup> will become dry.”

<sup>4</sup>So I will start a fire at Hazael's<sup>d</sup> house that will destroy the great palaces of Ben-Hadad.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>b</sup>1:2 Mount Carmel A mountain in northern Israel. The name means “God's vineyard.” This shows that it was a very fertile hill.

<sup>c</sup>1:3 for the many crimes they did Literally, “for three crimes ... and for four ...” This shows that these people were very sinful—and it was time to punish them. Also in verses 6, 9, 11, 13; 2:1, 4, 6.

<sup>d</sup>1:4 Hazael Hazael was the king of Aram (Syria). He murdered Ben-Hadad I so that he could become king. See 2 Kings 8:7.

<sup>5</sup>“I will also break open the gates of Damascus<sup>f</sup> and remove the one who sits on the throne in the Valley of Aven.<sup>g</sup> I will remove the symbol of power from Beth Eden,<sup>h</sup> and the Arameans will be defeated and taken back to Kir.” This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for the Philistines

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Gaza<sup>j</sup> for the many crimes they did. They took an entire nation of people and sent them as slaves to Edom.* <sup>7</sup>So I will start a fire at the wall of Gaza that will destroy the high towers in Gaza. <sup>8</sup>And I will destroy the one who sits on the throne in Ashdod. I will destroy the king who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will punish the people of Ekron.<sup>k</sup> Then the Philistines who are still left alive will die.” This is what the LORD God said.

king of Aram (Syria). See 2 Kings 13:3.

<sup>i</sup>1:5 Kir Or “Kur,” an area controlled by the Assyrians. See Amos 9:7.

Punishment for Phoenicia

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish the people of Tyre<sup>a</sup> for the many crimes they did. They took an entire nation and sent them as slaves to Edom.* They did not remember the agreement they had made with their brothers (Israel). <sup>10</sup>So I will start a fire at the walls of Tyre that will destroy the high towers in Tyre."

Punishment for the Edomites

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish the people of Edom* for the many crimes they did. Edom chased his brother (Israel) with the sword. Edom showed no mercy. Edom's anger continued forever—he kept tearing and tearing at Israel like a wild animal. <sup>12</sup>So I will start a fire at Teman<sup>b</sup> that will destroy the high towers of Bozrah.<sup>c</sup>"

Punishment for the Ammonites

<sup>13</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish the Ammonites<sup>d</sup> for the many crimes they did. They killed the pregnant women in Gilead.* The Ammonites did this so that they could take that land and make their country larger. <sup>14</sup>So I will start a fire at the wall of Rabbah<sup>e</sup> that will destroy the high towers of Rabbah. Troubles will come to them like a whirlwind<sup>f</sup> into their country. <sup>15</sup>Then their kings and leaders will be captured. They will all be taken together." This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for Moab

2<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish the people of Moab* for the many crimes they did. Moab burned the bones of the king of Edom* into lime. <sup>2</sup>So I will start a fire in Moab that will destroy the high towers of Kerioth.<sup>g</sup> There will be terrible shouting and the sounds of a trumpet, and Moab will die. <sup>3</sup>So I will bring an end to the kings<sup>h</sup> of Moab, and I will kill all the leaders of Moab." This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for Judah

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish Judah for the many crimes they did. They refused to obey the LORD's teachings and they did not keep his commands. Their ancestors* believed lies, and those same lies caused the people of Judah to stop following God. <sup>5</sup>So I will start a fire in Judah that will destroy the high towers of Jerusalem."

Punishment for Israel

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says: "I will definitely punish Israel for the many crimes they have done. They sold honest people for a little silver. They sold the poor for the price of a pair of sandals.<sup>7</sup> They pushed their faces into the ground and walked on them. They stopped listening to suffering people. Fathers and sons had sexual relations with the same woman. They ruined my holy name. <sup>8</sup>They took clothes from the poor, and then they sat on those clothes while worshiping at their altars.* They loaned money to the poor, and then they took their clothes as a promise for payment.<sup>i</sup> They made people pay fines and used the money to buy wine for themselves to drink in the temple of their god.

<sup>9</sup>"But it was I who destroyed the Amorites<sup>j</sup> before them. They were as tall as cedar trees and as strong as oaks, but I destroyed their fruit above and their roots below.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>10</sup>"I was the one who brought you from the land of Egypt. For 40 years I led you through the desert. I helped you take the Amorites' land. <sup>11</sup>I made some of your sons to be prophets* and some of your young men to be Nazirites.* People of Israel, it is true." This is what the LORD said. <sup>12</sup>"But you made the Nazirites drink wine. You told the prophets not to prophesy.* <sup>13</sup>You are like a heavy weight to me. I am bent low like a wagon loaded with too much straw. <sup>14</sup>No one will escape, not even the fastest runner. Strong men will not be strong enough. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves. <sup>15</sup>People with bows and arrows will not survive. Fast runners will not escape. People on horses will not escape alive. <sup>16</sup>At that time even very brave soldiers will run away. They will not take the time to put their clothes on." This is what the LORD said.

Warning to Israel

3<sup>1</sup>People of Israel, listen to this message! This is what the LORD said about you, Israel. This message is about all the families that I brought from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>"There are many families on earth, but you are the only family I chose to know in a special way. And you turned against me, so I will punish you for all your sins."

<sup>i</sup>2:8 as a promise for payment. See Deut. 24:12–13 for the rules about making loans to the poor.

<sup>j</sup>2:9 Amorites One of the nations who lived in Canaan before the Israelites came. They were the people who scared the Israelites while Moses was leading them in the desert. See Num. 13:33.

<sup>k</sup>2:9 fruit above ... below This means the parents and their children.

The Cause of Israel's Punishment

- <sup>3</sup> Two people will not walk together unless they have agreed to do so.
- <sup>4</sup> A lion will roar in the forest only if it catches its prey.
A young lion roaring in his cave means he has caught something to eat.
- <sup>5</sup> A bird doesn't fly into a trap unless there is food in it.
If a trap closes,
it will catch the bird.
- <sup>6</sup> If people hear the warning blast of a trumpet, they shake with fear.
If trouble comes to a city,
the LORD caused it to happen.

<sup>7</sup>When the Lord God decides to do something, he will first tell his servants, the prophets.* <sup>8</sup>When a lion roars, people are frightened. When the LORD speaks, prophets prophesy.*

<sup>9-10</sup>Go to the high towers in Ashdod<sup>a</sup> and Egypt and announce this message: "Come to the mountains of Samaria. There you will see great confusion, because the people don't know how to live right. They were cruel to other people. They took things from other people and hid those things in their high towers. Their treasures are filled with things they took in war."

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD says, "An enemy will come to that land and take away your strength. He will take the things you hid in your high towers."

<sup>12</sup>The LORD says,

"A lion might attack a lamb,
and a shepherd might try to save the lamb.

But the shepherd will save only a part of that lamb.

He might pull two legs or a part of an ear from the lion's mouth.

In the same way, most of the people of Israel will not be saved.

Those who live in Samaria will save only a corner from a bed, or a piece of cloth from a couch."

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord God All-Powerful says: "Warn the family of Jacob* about these things. <sup>14</sup>Israel sinned, and I will punish them for their sins. And when I do, I will also destroy the altars* at Bethel.<sup>b</sup> The horns of the altar* will be cut off and fall to the ground. <sup>15</sup>I will destroy the winter house with the summer house. The houses of ivory will be destroyed. Many houses will be destroyed." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>b</sup>3:14 Bethel A town in Israel. This name means "God's house."

The Women Who Love Pleasure

<sup>2</sup>The Lord God made a promise. He promised by his holiness, that troubles will come to you. People will use hooks and take you away as prisoners. They will use fishhooks to take away your children. <sup>3</sup>Your city will be destroyed. The women will rush out through cracks in the wall and throw themselves onto the pile of dead bodies.<sup>e</sup>

This is what the LORD says: <sup>4</sup>"Go to Bethel and sin. Go to Gilgal<sup>f</sup> and sin even more. Offer your sacrifices in the morning. Bring a tenth of your crops for the three-day festival. <sup>5</sup>And offer a thank offering made with yeast. Tell everyone about the freewill offerings.<sup>g</sup> Israel, you love to do those things. So go and do them." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>6</sup>"I didn't give you any food to eat.<sup>h</sup> There was no food in any of your cities, but you didn't come back to me." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>7</sup>"I also stopped the rain, and it was three months before harvest time. So no crops grew. Then I let it rain on one city, but not on another. Rain fell on one part of the country, but on the other part of the country, the land became very dry. <sup>8</sup>So the people from two or three cities staggered to another city to get water, but there was not enough water for everyone. Still you didn't come to me for help." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>9</sup>"I made your crops die from heat and disease. I destroyed your gardens and your vineyards.* Locusts* ate your fig trees and olive trees. But you still didn't come to me for help." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>10</sup>"I sent diseases against you, as I did to Egypt. I killed your young men with swords. I took away your horses. I made your camp smell very bad from all the dead bodies, but still you didn't come back to me for help." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>c</sup>4:1 cows of Bashan This means the wealthy women in Samaria. Bashan, an area east of the Jordan River, was famous for its big bulls and cows.

<sup>e</sup>4:3 throw ... dead bodies Or "You will be thrown away. People will take you to Mount Hermon." The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. It is not clear if the women will be "thrown away" or if the women will be "throwing something away."

<sup>f</sup>4:4 Bethel ... Gilgal Places of worship for the people of Israel. God wanted the people of Israel and the people of Judah to worship him only in the Temple at Jerusalem.

<sup>g</sup>4:4-5 Offer your sacrifices ... freewill offerings All these things were against the Law of Moses. The leaders and false priests started these new festivals and different ways of worshiping God.

<sup>h</sup>4:6 I didn't give you any food to eat Literally, "I gave you clean teeth."

<sup>11</sup>“I destroyed you as I destroyed Sodom* and Gomorrah.* And those cities were completely destroyed. You were like a burned stick pulled from a fire, but still you didn’t come back to me for help.” This is what the LORD says.

<sup>12</sup>“So, Israel, this is what I will do to you. You people of Israel, prepare to meet your God.”

- <sup>13</sup> He is the one who made the mountains.
He created the wind.<sup>a</sup>
He lets people know his thoughts.
He changes the darkness into dawn.
He walks over the mountains of the earth.
His name is YAHWEH,* LORD God All-Powerful.

A Sad Song for Israel

5 <sup>1</sup>People of Israel, listen to this song. This funeral song is about you.

- <sup>2</sup> The virgin<sup>b</sup> of Israel has fallen.
She will not get up anymore.
She was left alone, lying in the dirt.
There is no one to lift her up.

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord God says:

“Officers leaving the city with 1000 men will return with only 100 men.
Officers leaving the city with 100 men
will return with only ten men.”

The Lord Encourages Israel to Come Back

- <sup>4</sup> The LORD says this to the nation<sup>c</sup> of Israel:
“Come looking for me and live.
<sup>5</sup> But don’t look in Bethel.
Don’t go to Gilgal.
Don’t cross the border and go down to Beersheba.<sup>d</sup>
The people of Gilgal will be taken away as prisoners,<sup>e</sup> and Bethel will be destroyed.<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup> Come to the LORD and live.
If you don’t go to him, a fire will start at Joseph’s house,<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup>5:2 virgin The Hebrew word can mean “a woman who has not had sexual relations with anyone,” but here, it means the city of Samaria.

<sup>c</sup>5:4 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

<sup>d</sup>5:5 Bethel, Gilgal, Beersheba Ancient places of worship. Abraham and Jacob built altars in these places, but God had told the Israelites that they should go to the Temple in Jerusalem to worship him.

<sup>g</sup>5:6 Joseph’s house Here, this means the ten-tribe nation of Israel. Joseph was the ancestor of the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh in Israel.

and no one in Bethel<sup>h</sup> can stop it.

<sup>7-9</sup>You should go to the Lord for help.

He is the one who made the Pleiades and Orion.<sup>i</sup>

He changes darkness into the morning light.

He changes the day into the dark night.

He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the earth.

His name is YAHWEH*!

He keeps one strong city safe,
and he lets another strong city be destroyed.”

The Evil Things That the Israelites Did

You change goodness to poison.<sup>j</sup>

You killed justice,
and let it fall to the ground.

- <sup>10</sup> You hate those prophets, who go to public places and speak against evil, even though they teach good, simple truths.

- <sup>11</sup> You take unfair taxes<sup>k</sup> from the poor.
You take loads of wheat from them.
You build fancy houses with cut stone,
but you will not live in them.
You plant beautiful vineyards,*
but you will not drink the wine from them.

- <sup>12</sup> This is because I know about your many sins.

You have done some very bad things:

You hurt people who do right,
you accept money to do wrong,
and you keep the poor from receiving justice in court.

- <sup>13</sup> At that time wise teachers will be quiet, because it is a bad time.

- <sup>14</sup> You say that God is with you,
so you should do good things, not evil.
Then you will live,
and the LORD God All-Powerful will be with you.

- <sup>15</sup> Hate evil and love goodness.

Bring justice back into the courts.

Maybe then the LORD God All-Powerful will be kind to the survivors* from Joseph’s family.

A Time of Great Sadness Is Coming

- <sup>16</sup> The Lord God All-Powerful says,

“People will be crying in the public places.
They will be crying in the streets.

<sup>h</sup>5:6 Bethel This name means “El’s house” or “the house of God.” There was a temple here where the people from the northern tribes worshipped.

<sup>i</sup>5:7-9 Pleiades and Orion Two well-known groups of stars (constellations).

<sup>j</sup>5:7-9 poison Literally, “wormwood,” a type of plant with bitter leaves. It could be used as a medicine, or if strong enough, as a poison.

<sup>k</sup>5:11 take unfair taxes The meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain.

They will hire the professional criers.<sup>a</sup> 17 People will be crying in the vineyards,* because I will pass through and punish
 you.”

This is what the LORD said.

18 Some of you want to see the LORD's special day of judgment.
 Why do you want to see that day?
 His special day will bring darkness, not light.

19 You will be like someone who escapes from a lion
 only to be attacked by a bear, or like someone who goes into the safety of his house,
 leans against the wall,
 and is bitten by a snake.

20 The LORD's special day will be a day of darkness, not light—a day of gloom, without a ray of light.

The Lord Rejects Israel's Worship

21<sup>a</sup>“I hate your festivals;
 I will not accept them.
 I don't enjoy your religious meetings.

22 Even if you offer me burnt offerings* and
 grain offerings,
 I will not accept them.

I will not even look at the fat animals
 you give as fellowship offerings.*

23 Take your noisy songs away from here.
 I will not listen to the music from your
 harps.

24 But let justice flow like a river, and let goodness flow like a stream that never becomes dry.

25 Israel, you offered me sacrifices and offerings in the desert for 40 years.<sup>b</sup>

26 But you also carried statues of Sakkuth, your king, and Kaiwan.<sup>c</sup>
 There was also that star god<sup>d</sup>
 that you made for yourselves.

27 So I will send you as captives, far beyond Damascus.”

This is what the LORD says.
 His name is God All-Powerful.

Israel's Good Times Will Be Taken Away

6 <sup>1</sup>Oh, look at the people enjoying life in Zion,*

<sup>a</sup>5:16 professional criers People who went to funerals and cried loudly for the dead. Families and friends of the dead person often gave food or money to these people.

<sup>b</sup>5:25 Or “Israel, did you offer me sacrifices and offerings in the desert for 40 years?”

<sup>c</sup>5:26 Sakkuth, your king, and Kaiwan Or “Sakkuth, Moloch, and Kaiwan,” names of Assyrian gods.

<sup>d</sup>5:26 star god This might be to honor a special god or all the stars in the sky. Many people thought the sun, moon, stars, and planets were gods or angels.
 This verse might also be translated, “You carried the shelter for your king and the footstool for your idols—the star of your gods that you made for yourselves.” The ancient Greek version adds the names of these gods: Moloch and Raphan.

and those on Mount Samaria who feel so safe.

They are such important leaders of a most important nation.

The “House of Israel” comes to you for advice.

2 Go look at Calneh.

From there, go to the large city Hamath.
 Go to the Philistine city of Gath.<sup>e</sup>

Are you better than these kingdoms?

Their countries are larger than yours.

3 You people are rushing toward the day of punishment.

You bring near the rule of violence.

4 But now you lie on ivory beds and stretch out on your couches.

You eat tender young lambs from the flock and young calves from the stable.

5 You play your harps, and like David, you practice on<sup>f</sup> your musical instruments.

6 You drink wine in fancy cups.<sup>g</sup>

You use the best perfumes.

And it doesn't even bother you that Joseph's family is being destroyed.

<sup>7</sup>You people are stretched out on your couches now, but your good times will end.
 You will be taken away as prisoners to a foreign country, and you will be some of the first people taken. <sup>8</sup>The Lord God used his own name and made an oath.* The LORD God All-Powerful said,

“I hate what Jacob* is proud of.

I hate his strong towers.

So I will let an enemy take the city
 and everything in it.”

There Will Be Few Israelites Left Alive

<sup>9</sup>At that time ten people in one house might survive, but they too will die. <sup>10</sup>And when someone dies, a relative will come to get the body so that it can be taken out and burned.<sup>h</sup> Relatives will come to take away the bones.
 They will call to anyone who might be hiding back in the house, “Are there any other dead bodies in there with you?”

That person will answer, “No, ...”<sup>i</sup>

But the relative will interrupt and say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the

<sup>e</sup>6:2 Calneh, Hamath, Gath Powerful Babylonian, Syrian, and Philistine cities that were all captured by the Assyrians.

<sup>f</sup>6:5 practice on Or “invent.” The Hebrew word means to “think,” “become skilled,” or “design.”

<sup>g</sup>6:6 fancy cups Very large bowls used in worship rituals.

<sup>h</sup>6:10 And when ... burned The meaning of the Hebrew text here is uncertain.

<sup>i</sup>6:10 No, ... The full answer might have been, “No, praise the LORD,” but the person was interrupted.

- <sup>11</sup> Look, the LORD God will give the command, and the large houses will be broken to pieces,
and the small houses will be broken to small pieces.
- <sup>12</sup> Do horses run over loose rocks?
No, and people don't use cows for plowing.
But you turned everything upside down.
You changed justice and goodness to bitter poison.
- <sup>13</sup> You are so excited about defeating Lo Debar.<sup>a</sup>
And you boast, "We have taken Karnaïm<sup>b</sup> by our own strength."

<sup>14</sup>"But Israel, I will bring a nation against you that will bring troubles to your whole country from Lebo Hamath to Arabah Brook." This is what the LORD God All-Powerful said.

The Vision of the Locusts

7<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD showed me: He was making locusts.* This was at the time the second crop began to grow, after the king's people had cut the first crop. <sup>2</sup>Before the locusts could eat all the grass in the country, I said, "Lord God, I beg you, forgive us! Jacob* cannot survive! He is too small!"

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD changed his mind about this. The LORD said, "It will not happen."

The Vision of the Fire

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord God showed me: I saw the Lord God calling for judgment by fire. The fire destroyed the ocean and was beginning to eat up the land. <sup>5</sup>But I said, "Lord God, stop, I beg you! Jacob* cannot survive! He is too small!"

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD changed his mind about this. The Lord God said, "It will not happen either."

The Vision of the Plumb Line

<sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord showed me: He stood by a wall with a plumb line<sup>c</sup> in his hand. (The wall had been marked with a plumb line.) <sup>8</sup>The LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said to me, "See, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. I will not let their 'crooked ways' pass inspection anymore. <sup>9</sup>Isaac's high places* will be destroyed. Israel's holy places will be made into a pile of rocks. I will attack and kill Jeroboam's<sup>d</sup> family with swords."

Amaziah Tries to Stop Amos

<sup>10</sup>Amaziah, a priest at Bethel,<sup>e</sup> sent this message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel: "Amos is making plans against you. He is trying to make the people of Israel fight against you. He has been speaking so much that this country cannot hold all his words. <sup>11</sup>Amos has said, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and the people of Israel will be taken as prisoners out of their country.'"

<sup>12</sup>Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer* go down to Judah and eat there.<sup>f</sup> Do your prophesying* there. <sup>13</sup>But don't prophesy anymore here at Bethel. This is Jeroboam's holy place. This is Israel's temple."

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am not a professional prophet, and I am not from a prophet's family. I raise cattle and take care of sycamore trees. <sup>15</sup>I was a shepherd and the LORD took me from following the sheep. The LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' <sup>16</sup>So listen to the LORD's message. You tell me, 'Don't prophesy against Israel. Don't speak against Isaac's family.' <sup>17</sup>But the LORD says, 'Your wife will become a prostitute in the city. Your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Other people will take your land and divide it among themselves, and you will die in a foreign<sup>g</sup> country. The people of Israel will definitely be taken from this country as prisoners.'"

The Vision of the Ripe Fruit

8<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD showed me: I saw a basket of summer fruit. <sup>2</sup>He said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me, "The end<sup>h</sup> has come to my people Israel. I will not ignore their sins anymore. <sup>3</sup>Their temple songs will become funeral songs." This is what the Lord God said. "There will be dead bodies everywhere. In silence, people will take out the dead bodies and throw them onto the pile."

Merchants Only Want to Make Money

<sup>4</sup> Listen to me, you who trample on helpless people.

You are trying to destroy the poor of this country.

<sup>f</sup>7:12 eat there This shows that Amaziah thought that Amos was a professional prophet who prophesied to receive food or money.

<sup>i</sup>8:3 In silence ... the pile Or "People will be saying, 'Hush!'" See Amos 6:10.

<sup>b</sup>6:13 Karnaïm This name means "horns." Horns were a symbol of strength.

<sup>c</sup>7:7 plumb line A string with a weight on one end used to show how straight the walls of a building were. Sometimes the line was coated with paint or chalk to mark a straight line.

- <sup>5</sup> You merchants* say, “When will the New Moon* be over so that we can sell grain?
 When will the Sabbath be over so that we can bring out more wheat to sell?
 We can raise the price
 and make the measure smaller.<sup>a</sup>
 We can fix the scales
 and cheat the people.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> The poor cannot pay their loans,
 so we will buy them as slaves.
 We will buy those helpless people for the price of a pair of sandals.
 Oh, and we can sell the wheat that was spilled on the floor.”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD made a promise. He used his name, “Pride of Jacob,” and made this promise:

- “I will never forget what those people did.
<sup>8</sup> There will be an earthquake that will shake the whole land because of what they did.
 Everyone living there will cry for those who died.
 The land will be tossed around.
 The whole land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.”
- <sup>9</sup> The LORD also said, “At that time
 I will make the sun set at noon and make the land dark on a clear day.
<sup>10</sup> I will change your festivals into days of crying for the dead.
 All your songs will be songs of sadness for those who are dead.
 I will put mourning* clothes on every body
 and baldness on every head.<sup>c</sup>
 I will cause mourning everywhere, like that for an only son who has died.
 It will be a very bitter end.”

A Famine of God's Word

<sup>11</sup>The Lord God says:

- “Look, the days are coming when I will cause a famine* in the land.
 The people will not be hungry for bread.
 They will not be thirsty for water.
 No, they will be hungry for words from
 the LORD.
<sup>12</sup> The people will wander around the
 country,
 from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean
 Sea,

<sup>a</sup>8:5 We ... smaller Literally, “We will make the ephah small and the shekel large.”

<sup>b</sup>8:5 We ... people Literally, “Cheat with lying balances.”

<sup>c</sup>8:10 baldness ... head People shaved their heads to show that they were very sad or upset.

- and from the north part of the country to the east.
 They will go back and forth looking for a message from the LORD,
 but they will not find it.
<sup>13</sup> At that time the beautiful young men and women
 will become weak from thirst.
<sup>14</sup> They made promises by the sin of Samaria,<sup>d</sup>
 They said, “Dan,<sup>e</sup> as surely as your god lives, we promise ....”
 And they said,
 “As surely as the god of Beersheba<sup>f</sup> lives,
 we promise ....”
 But they will fall
 and never get up again.”

Vision of the Lord Standing by the Altar

9<sup>1</sup>I saw the Lord standing by the altar,* and he said,

- “Hit the top of the columns,
 and shake them to the ground.
 Push them and they will fall on everyone's head.
 As for those who survive,
 I will kill them with a sword.
 None of them will run away.
 None of them will escape.
<sup>2</sup> If they dig deep into the ground,<sup>g</sup>
 I will pull them from there.
 If they go up into the skies,<sup>h</sup>
 I will bring them down from there.
<sup>3</sup> If they hide at the top of Mount Carmel,<sup>i</sup>
 I will find them there and take them from that place.
 If they try to hide from me at the bottom of the sea,
 I will command the snake, and it will bite them.
<sup>4</sup> If they are captured and taken away by their enemies,
 I will command the sword,
 and it will kill them there.
 Yes, I will watch over them,
 but I will watch for ways to give them
 troubles,
 not for ways to do good things.”

Punishment Will Destroy the People

- <sup>5</sup> The Lord God All-Powerful will touch the
 land,
 and the land will melt.

<sup>d</sup>8:14 sin of Samaria The calf god in Samaria.

<sup>f</sup>8:14 Beersheba A town in Judah. This name means

<sup>i</sup>9:3 Mount Carmel A mountain in northern Israel.

This name means “God's vineyard.” This shows that it was a very fertile hill.

Then all the people who live in the land will cry for the dead.

The land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.

- <sup>6</sup> He built his upper rooms above the skies.
He put his skies<sup>a</sup> over the earth.
He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out as rain on the land.
YAHWEH* is his name.

The Lord Promises Destruction for Israel

<sup>7</sup>This is what the LORD says:

“Israel, you are like the Ethiopians to me.
I brought Israel out of the land of Egypt,
the Philistines* from Caphtor,<sup>b</sup> and the Arameans from Kir.<sup>c</sup>”

- <sup>8</sup> The Lord God is watching this sinful kingdom.
The LORD said,
“I will wipe Israel off the face of the earth,
but I will never completely destroy Jacob’s* family.
<sup>9</sup> I am giving the command to scatter the people of Israel among all
nations.
But it will be like someone sifting flour.
A person shakes flour through a sifter.<sup>d</sup>
The good flour falls through, but the bad lumps are caught.

<sup>a</sup>9:6 skies Literally, “dome” or “vault.”

<sup>b</sup>9:7 Caphtor An island west of Israel, probably Crete or Cyprus.

<sup>c</sup>9:7 Kir Where the Arameans came from and where the Assyrians sent them in exile. There are several places with this name.

<sup>d</sup>9:9 sifter Something like a cup with a screen on its bottom. A sifter is used for removing large lumps from the good flour.

- <sup>10</sup>“Sinners among my people say,
‘Nothing bad will happen to us.’
But all of them will be killed with swords.”

God Promises to Restore the Kingdom

- <sup>11</sup>“David’s tent<sup>e</sup> has fallen,
but at that time I will set it up again.
I will fix its holes and repair its ruined parts.
I will set it up as it was before.
<sup>12</sup> Then the people left alive in Edom,* and all the people called by my name, will look to me for help.”
This is what the LORD said,
and he will make it happen.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD says, “A time of great blessing is coming.
Workers will still be harvesting when it is time to plow the fields again.
They will still be trampling the grapes
when it is time for a new crop.
Sweet wine will drip from the mountains and pour from the hills.
<sup>14</sup> I will bring my people, Israel, back from captivity.
They will rebuild the ruined cities,
and they will live in them.
They will plant vineyards*
and drink the wine they produce.
They will plant gardens
and eat the crops they produce.
<sup>15</sup> I will plant my people on their land, and never again will they be pulled up out of the land that I gave them.”
This is what the LORD your God said.

<sup>e</sup>9:11 David’s tent This probably means the city of Jerusalem or the country of Judah.

Obadiah

Edom Will Be Punished

<sup>1</sup>This is the vision* of Obadiah. This is what the Lord God says about Edom:*

We heard a report from the LORD.
A messenger was sent to the nations.
He said, “Let’s go fight against Edom.”

The Lord Speaks to Edom

- <sup>2</sup>“Edom,* I will make you the smallest nation.
Everyone will hate you very much.
<sup>3</sup> Your pride has fooled you.

You live in those caves high on the cliff.
Your home is high in the hills.
So you say to yourself,
‘No one can bring me to the ground.’”

Edom Will Be Brought Low

- <sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD says:
“Even though you fly high like the eagle and put your nest among the stars,
I will bring you down from there.
<sup>5</sup> You really will be ruined!
Thieves will come to you.
Robbers will come in the night,

- and they will take all they want.
When workers gather grapes in your vineyards,
they will leave a few grapes behind.
- 6 But the enemy will search hard for Esau's hidden treasures,
and they will find them all.
- 7 All those who are your friends will force you out of the land.
Those who were at peace with you will trick you,
and they will defeat you.
The soldiers who fought by your side are planning a trap for you.
They say, 'He doesn't expect a thing!'"
- 8 The LORD says, "On that day,
I will destroy the wise people from Edom.*
I will destroy the intelligent people from the mountain of Esau.<sup>a</sup>
- 9 Teman,<sup>b</sup> your brave soldiers will be afraid.
Everyone will be destroyed from the mountain of Esau.
Many people will be killed.
- 10 You will be covered with shame because you were very cruel to your brother Jacob.*
So you will be destroyed completely.
- 11 You joined the enemies of Israel.
Strangers carried Israel's treasures away.
Foreigners entered Israel's city gate.
They threw lots* to decide what part of Jerusalem they would get.
And you were right there with them,
waiting to get your share.
- 12 You should not have laughed<sup>c</sup> at your brother's trouble.
You should not have been happy when they destroyed Judah.
You should not have bragged<sup>d</sup> at the time of their trouble.
- 13 You should not have entered the city gate of my people and laughed at their problems.
You should not have taken their treasures in the time of their trouble.
- 14 You should not have stood where the roads cross

- and destroyed those who were trying to escape.
You should not have captured those who escaped alive.
- 15 The Day of the LORD is coming soon to all the nations.
And the evil you did to others will happen to you.
The same bad things will fall down on your own head.
- 16 You spilled<sup>e</sup> blood on my holy mountain,<sup>f</sup> so other nations will spill your blood.<sup>g</sup>
You will be finished.
It will be as if you never existed.
- 17 But there will be survivors on Mount Zion.
They will be my special people.
The nation of Jacob<sup>h</sup> will take back what belongs to it.
- 18 The family of Jacob will be like a fire.
The nation of Joseph will be like a flame.
But the nation of Esau<sup>i</sup> will be like ashes.
The people of Judah will burn Edom,
and they will destroy it.
Then there will be no survivors in the nation of Esau."
This will happen because the LORD said it would.
- 19 Then people from the Negev* will live on the mountain of Esau.
And people from the foothills will take the Philistine lands.
They will live in the land of Ephraim and Samaria.
Gilead will belong to Benjamin.
- 20 People from Israel were forced to leave their homes, but they will take back the land of Canaan,* all the way to Zarephath.
People from Judah were forced to leave Jerusalem and live in Sepharad.<sup>j</sup>
But they will take back the cities of the Negev.
- 21 The winners<sup>k</sup> will go up on Mount Zion to rule the people who live on Esau's mountain.
And the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

<sup>k</sup>21 winners Or "saviors." Those who led their people to victory in war.

Jonah

God Calls and Jonah Runs

1 <sup>1</sup>The LORD spoke to Jonah<sup>a</sup> son of Amittai: <sup>2</sup>“Nineveh<sup>b</sup> is a big city. I have heard about the many evil things the people are doing there. So go there and tell them to stop doing such evil things.”

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah tried to run away from the LORD. He went to Joppa<sup>c</sup> and found a boat that was going to the faraway city of Tarshish.* Jonah paid money for the trip and went on the boat. He wanted to travel with the people on this boat to Tarshish and run away from the LORD.

The Great Storm

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD brought a great storm on the sea. The wind made the sea very rough. The storm was very strong, and the boat was ready to break apart. <sup>5</sup>The men wanted to make the boat lighter to stop it from sinking, so they began throwing the cargo<sup>d</sup> into the sea. The sailors were very afraid. Each man began praying to his god.

Jonah had gone down into the boat to lie down, and he went to sleep. <sup>6</sup>The captain of the boat saw Jonah and said, “Wake up! Why are you sleeping? Pray to your god! Maybe your god will hear your prayer and save us!”

What Caused This Storm?

<sup>7</sup>Then the men said to each other, “We should throw lots* to find out why this is happening to us.”

So the men threw lots. The lots showed that the troubles came to them because of Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then the men said to Jonah, “It is your fault that this terrible thing is happening to us. Tell us, what have you done? What is your job? Where do you come from? What is your country? Who are your people?”

Jonah said to them, “I am a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the land and the sea.”

<sup>10</sup>Jonah told the men he was running away from the LORD. The men became very afraid when they learned this. They asked Jonah,

<sup>b</sup>1:2 Nineveh The capital city of the country of Assyria. Assyria destroyed Israel in 722–721 B.C.

<sup>d</sup>1:5 cargo The Hebrew word can mean “dishes,” “jars,” or “tools.” Here, this could mean all the jars and boxes the boat carried on its way to Tarshish or the rigging and other heavy tools on the boat.

“What terrible thing did you do against your God?”

<sup>11</sup>The wind and the waves of the sea were becoming stronger and stronger. So the men said to Jonah, “What should we do to save ourselves? What should we do to you to make the sea calm?”

<sup>12</sup>Jonah said to the men, “I know I did wrong—that is why the storm came on the sea. So throw me into the sea, and the sea will become calm.”

<sup>13</sup>Instead, the men tried to row the ship back to the shore, but they couldn’t do it. The wind and the waves of the sea were too strong—and they were becoming stronger and stronger.

Jonah’s Punishment

<sup>14</sup>So the men cried to the LORD, “LORD, please don’t say we are guilty of killing an innocent man. Please don’t make us die for killing him. We know you are the LORD, and you will do whatever you want.”

<sup>15</sup>So the men threw Jonah into the sea. The storm stopped, and the sea became calm.

<sup>16</sup>When the men saw this, they began to fear and respect the LORD. They offered a sacrifice* and made special promises to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>When Jonah fell into the sea, the LORD chose a very big fish to swallow Jonah. He was in the stomach of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah’s Prayer

2 <sup>1</sup>While Jonah was in the stomach of the fish, he prayed to the LORD his God. He said, <sup>2</sup>“I was in very bad trouble.

I called to the LORD for help,
and he answered me.
I was deep in the grave.*
I cried to you, LORD,
and you heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>“You threw me into the sea.
Your powerful waves splashed over me.
I went down, down into the deep sea.
The water was all around me.

<sup>4</sup> Then I thought,
‘Now I must go where you cannot see me,’ but I continued looking to your holy Temple* for help.

<sup>5</sup>“The seawater closed over me.

The water covered my mouth,
and I could not breathe.<sup>a</sup>

I went down, down into the deep sea.
Seaweed wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> I was at the bottom of the sea,
the place where the mountains begin.

I thought I was locked in this prison
forever,
but the LORD my God took me out of my grave.

God, you gave me life again!

<sup>7</sup>“My soul gave up all hope,
but then I remembered the LORD.

I prayed to you,
and you heard my prayers in your holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup>“Some people worship useless idols,* but those statues never help them.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>9</sup> I will give sacrifices to you, and I will praise and thank you.

I will make special promises to you,
and I will do what I promise.”

Salvation only comes from the LORD!

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out of its stomach onto the dry
land.

God Calls and Jonah Obeys

3 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Jonah again and said, <sup>2</sup>“Go to that big city Nineveh, and say what I tell you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Jonah obeyed the LORD and went to Nineveh. It was a very large city. A person had to walk for three days to travel through it.

<sup>4</sup>Jonah went to the center of the city and began speaking to the people. He said, “After 40 days, Nineveh will be destroyed!”

<sup>5</sup>The people of Nineveh believed God.
They decided to stop eating for a time to think about their sins. They put on special clothes to show they were sorry. All the people in the city did this, from the most important to the least important.

<sup>6</sup>When the king of Nineveh heard about this, he left his throne, removed his robe, put on special clothes to show that he was sorry, and sat in ashes.<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>The king wrote a special message and sent it throughout the city:

A command from the king and his great
rulers:

For a short time no person or animal should eat anything. No herd or flock will be allowed in the fields. Nothing living in Nineveh will eat or drink water. <sup>8</sup>But every person and every animal must be covered with a special cloth to show they are sad. People must cry loudly to God.

Everyone must change their life and stop doing bad things. <sup>9</sup>Who knows? Maybe God will stop being angry and change his mind, and we will not be punished.

<sup>10</sup>God saw what the people did. He saw that they stopped doing evil. So God changed his mind and did not do what he planned. He did not punish the people.

God's Mercy Makes Jonah Angry

4 <sup>1</sup>Jonah was not happy that God saved the city. Jonah became angry. <sup>2</sup>He complained to the LORD and said, “I knew this would happen! I was in my own country, and you told me to come here. At that time I knew that you would forgive the people of this evil city, so I decided to run away to Tarshish.” I knew that you are a kind God. I knew that you show mercy and don’t want to punish people.
I knew that you are kind, and if these people stopped sinning, you would change your plans to destroy them. <sup>3</sup>So now, LORD, just kill me.
It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry just because I did not destroy those people?”

<sup>5</sup>Jonah went out of the city to a place near the city on the east side. He made a shelter for himself and sat there in the shade, waiting to see what would happen to the city.

The Gourd Plant and the Worm

<sup>6</sup>The LORD made a gourd plant grow quickly over Jonah. This made a cool place for Jonah to sit and helped him to be more comfortable.
He was very happy because of this plant.

<sup>7</sup>The next morning, God sent a worm to eat part of the plant. The worm began eating the plant, and the plant died.

<sup>8</sup>After the sun was high in the sky, God caused a hot east wind to blow. The sun became very hot on Jonah’s head, and he became very weak. He asked God to let him die. He said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup>But God said to Jonah, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry just because this plant died?”

Jonah answered, “Yes, it is right for me to be angry! I am angry enough to die!”

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said, “You did nothing for that plant. You did not make it grow. It grew up in the night, and the next day it died. And now you are sad about it. <sup>11</sup>If you can get upset over a plant, surely I can feel sorry for a big city like Nineveh. There are many people and animals in that city. There are more than 120,000 people there who did not know they were doing wrong.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>d4:11</sup> people ... wrong Literally, “people who do not know their right from their left.” This might mean “innocent children.”

<sup>a</sup>2:5 mouth, and I could not breathe Or “The water surrounded me to my soul.” The Hebrew word for soul also means “life,” “self,” or “appetite,” and “throat” or “mouth.”

<sup>b</sup>2:8 Or “People who worship useless things have left the one who is kind to them.”

<sup>c</sup>3:6 sat in ashes People did this to show that they were sad.

Micah

Samaria and Israel to Be Punished

1 <sup>1</sup>During the time that Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, the word of the LORD came to Micah. Micah was from Moresheth. He saw these visions about Samaria and Jerusalem.

- <sup>2</sup> Listen, all you people!
Earth and everyone on it,<sup>a</sup> listen!
The Lord God will come from his holy temple.
The Lord will come as a witness* against you.
- <sup>3</sup> See, the LORD is coming out of his place.
He is coming down to walk on the high places<sup>b</sup> of the earth.
- <sup>4</sup> The mountains will melt under him like wax before a fire.
The valleys will split open and flow like water down a steep hill.
- <sup>5</sup> This will happen because of Jacob's* sin, because of the sins of the nation<sup>c</sup> of Israel.

Samaria, the Cause of Sin

- What caused Jacob to sin?
It was Samaria.
Where is the high place in Judah?
It is Jerusalem.
- <sup>6</sup> So I will change Samaria into a pile of rocks in the field,
a place ready for planting grapes.
I will push Samaria's stones down into the valley,
leaving nothing but the foundations.
- <sup>7</sup> All her idols*
will be broken into pieces.
Her prostitute's wages (idols)
will be burned in fire.
I will destroy all her statues of false gods, because Samaria got her riches by being unfaithful to me.<sup>d</sup>
So those things will be taken by people who are not faithful to me.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>b</sup>1:3 high places Here, this might mean simply "hills," or it might be the places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

<sup>e</sup>1:7 will be ... to me Literally, "will return to

Micah's Great Sadness

- <sup>8</sup> I will be very sad about what will happen.
I will go without sandals and clothes.
I will cry like a dog.<sup>f</sup>
I will mourn* like a bird.<sup>g</sup>
- <sup>9</sup> Samaria's<sup>h</sup> wound cannot be healed.
Her disease has spread to Judah.
It has reached the city gate of my people;
it has spread all the way to Jerusalem.
- <sup>10</sup> Don't tell it in Gath.<sup>i</sup>
Don't cry in Acco.<sup>j</sup>
Roll yourself in the dust at Beth Ophrah.<sup>k</sup>
- <sup>11</sup> You people living in Shaphir,<sup>l</sup> pass on your way, naked and ashamed.
The people living in Zaanan<sup>m</sup> will not come out.
The people in Beth Ezel<sup>n</sup> will cry and take their support from you.
- <sup>12</sup> The people living in Maroth<sup>o</sup> wait for something good to happen, even though trouble has come down from
the LORD
and has reached the city gate of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> You people living in Lachish,<sup>p</sup> get the horses ready for your chariots.*
You are guilty of the same sins Israel<sup>q</sup> committed,
and you brought those sins to Jerusalem.<sup>r</sup>
- <sup>14</sup> So you must give goodbye gifts to Moresheth<sup>s</sup> in Gath.

prostitute's wages."

<sup>f</sup>1:8 dog Literally, "jackal," a kind of wild dog.

- The houses in Aczib<sup>a</sup> will trick the kings of Israel.
- 15 You people who live in Mareshah,<sup>b</sup> I will bring someone against you who will take the things you own. The Glory* of Israel will come into Adullam.<sup>c</sup>
- 16 So cut off your hair, make yourself bald,<sup>d</sup> because you will cry for the children you love. Make yourself bald like an eagle<sup>e</sup> and show your sadness, because your children will be taken away from you.

The Evil Plans of People

- 2 <sup>1</sup>Trouble will come to those who make plans to sin. They lie on their beds making their evil plans. Then when the morning light comes, they do what they planned, because they have the power to do what they want.
- 2 They want fields, so they take them. They want houses, so they take them. They cheat a man and take his house and his land.

The Lord's Plans to Punish the People

- 3 That is why the LORD says: "Look, I am planning trouble against this family. You will not be able to save yourselves.<sup>f</sup> You will stop being proud, because bad times are coming.
- 4 Then people will sing songs about you. They will sing this sad song: "We are ruined! The LORD took away our land and gave it to other people. Yes, he took my land away from me. He has divided our fields [among our enemies].
- 5 So we will not be able to measure the land and divide it among the LORD's people."

Micah Is Asked Not to Prophesy

- 6 The people say, "Don't prophesy* to us. Don't say those bad things about us. Nothing bad will happen to us."

<sup>c</sup>1:15 Adullam A cave that David hid in when he ran away from Saul. See 1 Sam. 22:1.

<sup>d</sup>1:16 cut ... bald This showed that a person made a special agreement with God or that a person was very sad.

- 7 But people of Jacob,* I must say these things. The LORD is losing his patience because of the bad things you did. If you lived right, I could say nice words to you.
- 8 But you attack my people like enemies. You steal the clothes off the backs of people walking by. They think they are safe, but you are there to treat them like prisoners of war.<sup>g</sup>
- 9 You have taken nice houses away from the women of my people. You have taken my wealth away from their small children forever.
- 10 Get up and leave! This will not be your place of rest, because you ruined it. You made it unclean, so it will be destroyed! It will be a terrible destruction!
- 11 These people don't want to listen to me. But if a man comes telling lies, they will accept him. They would accept a false prophet* if he comes and says, "There will be good times in the future, with plenty of wine and beer."

The Lord Will Bring His People Together

- 12 Yes, people of Jacob,* I will bring all of you together. I will bring together all those in Israel* who are still living. I will put them together like sheep in the sheep pen, like a flock in its pasture. Then the place will be filled with the noise of many people.
- 13 The "One Who Breaks Through Walls" will push through and walk to the front of his people. They will break through the gates and leave that city. They will leave with their king marching before them— with the LORD at the front of his people.

The Leaders of Israel Are Guilty of Evil

- 3 <sup>1</sup>Then I said, "Listen, leaders of Jacob* and officers of the nation<sup>h</sup> of Israel*! You should know what justice is. 2 But you hate good and love evil. You tear the skin off the people and tear the flesh off their bones. 3 You are destroying my people.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>g</sup>2:8 They think ... war Or "Returning from war, they think they are safe."

<sup>h</sup>3:1 nation Literally, "house." This might mean the royal family of that country.

<sup>i</sup>3:3 You are destroying my people Literally, "You who eat the flesh of my people."

You take their skin off them and break their bones.

You chop their bones up like meat to put in the pot!

- 4 Then you will pray to the LORD,
but he will not answer you.
No, he will hide his face from you,
because what you do is evil."

False Prophets

<sup>5</sup>Some false prophets* are telling lies to the LORD's people. This is what the LORD says about them:

"These prophets are led by their stomachs.
They promise peace for those who give them food,
but they promise war to those who do not give them food.

- 6 "This is why it is like night for you and you don't have visions.*
You cannot see what will happen in the future,
so it is like darkness to you.
The sun has gone down on the prophets.
They cannot see what will happen in the future,
so it is like darkness to them.
7 The seers* are ashamed.
The fortunetellers* are embarrassed.
None of them will say anything,
because God will not speak to them."

Micah Is an Honest Prophet of God

- 8 But the LORD's Spirit has filled me with power, goodness, and strength.
So I can tell Jacob* about his crimes,
and so I can tell Israel* about his sins!

The Leaders of Israel Are to Blame

- 9 Leaders of Jacob* and rulers of Israel,
listen to me!
You hate the right way of living!
If something is straight,
then you make it crooked!
10 You build Zion* by murdering people.<sup>a</sup>
You build Jerusalem by cheating people!
11 The judges in Jerusalem accept bribes to help them decide who wins in court.
The priests in Jerusalem must be paid before they will teach the people.
People must pay the prophets before they will look into the future.
Then those leaders expect the LORD to help them.
They say, "The LORD lives here with us,
so nothing bad will happen to us."
12 Leaders, because of you, Zion will be destroyed.
It will become a plowed field.
Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.

<sup>a</sup>3:10 murdering people Literally, "bloodshed."

Temple Mount will be an empty hill<sup>b</sup> overgrown with bushes.

The Law Will Come From Jerusalem

- 4 <sup>1</sup>In the last days the mountain of the LORD's Temple* will be on the highest of all mountains.
It will be raised higher than the hills.
There will be a steady stream of people going there.
2 People from many nations will go there and say,
"Come, let's go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the Temple of the God of Jacob.*
Then God will teach us his way of living,
and we will follow him."

His teaching, the LORD's message, will begin in Jerusalem on Mount Zion* and will go out to all the world.

- 3 Then God will act as judge to end arguments between people in many places.
He will decide what is right for great nations far and near.
They will stop using their weapons for war.
They will hammer their swords into plows and use their spears to make tools for harvesting.
All fighting between nations will end.
They will never again train for war.
4 They will sit under their own grapevine and fig tree.
No one will make them afraid.
That is because the LORD All-Powerful said it would happen like that.

- 5 All the people from other nations follow their own gods, but we will follow the LORD our God forever and ever!<sup>c</sup>

The Kingdom to Be Brought Back

- 6 The LORD says,
"Jerusalem was hurt and crippled.
She was thrown away.
She was hurt and punished,
but I will bring her back to me."
7 "The people of that 'crippled' city will be the only ones left alive.
They were forced to leave,
but I will make them into a strong nation."
The LORD will be their king.
He will rule from Mount Zion* forever.

<sup>b</sup>3:12 empty hill Or "high place," a term usually used for local shrines (places for worship) where people often worshiped idols.

<sup>c</sup>4:5 Or "All the nations will walk in the name of their gods, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God, forever and ever!"

- <sup>8</sup> And you, Tower of Flocks,<sup>a</sup> your time will come.
Ophel, hill of Zion,
you will again be the seat of government.
Yes, the kingdom will be in Jerusalem
like it was in the past.

Why Must the Israelites Go to Babylon?

- <sup>9</sup> Now, why are you crying so loudly?
Is your king gone?
Have you lost your wise leader?
Is that why you are suffering like a woman in labor?
<sup>10</sup> Cry out, you people of Jerusalem,<sup>b</sup> and feel the pain,
as if you were giving birth.
You must go out of the city
and live in the fields.
You will go away to Babylon, but you will also be saved from that place.
The LORD will come and rescue you there.
He will take you away from your
enemies.

The Lord Will Destroy the Other Nations

- <sup>11</sup> Many nations have come to fight against
you.
They say, "Look, there is Zion!"
Let's attack her!"
<sup>12</sup> They have their plans, but they don't know what the LORD is planning.
He brought them here
for a special purpose.
They will be crushed
like grain on a threshing* floor.

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies

- <sup>13</sup> "People of Jerusalem, get up and crush
them!
I will make you very strong.
It will be as if you have horns of iron and hooves of bronze.
You will beat many people into small pieces.
You will give their wealth to the LORD.
You will give their treasure to the Lord of all the earth."

- 5 <sup>1</sup>Now strong city,<sup>c</sup> gather your soldiers!
They are surrounding us for the attack!
They will hit the Judge of Israel on the cheek with a stick.

The Messiah to Be Born in Bethlehem

- <sup>2</sup> But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are the smallest town in Judah.
Your family is almost too small to count, but the "Ruler of Israel" will come from
you to rule for me.
His beginnings<sup>d</sup> are from ancient times,
from long, long ago.
<sup>3</sup> The LORD<sup>e</sup> will give up his people until the woman gives birth to her child, the promised king.
Then the rest of his brothers will come back to the people of Israel.
<sup>4</sup> Then the Ruler of Israel will stand in the power of the LORD and in the wonderful name of the LORD his God
and care for his people.
They will live in peace because at that time his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup> There will be peace.
Yes, the Assyrian army will come into our
country
and trample our large buildings.
But the Ruler of Israel<sup>g</sup> will choose seven shepherds and eight leaders.<sup>h</sup> <sup>6</sup> They will use their swords and rule the Assyrians.
They will rule the land of Nimrod/
with their swords in hand.
They will use their swords
to rule those people.
But then the Ruler of Israel will save us from the Assyrians
when they come into our land and walk on our territory.
<sup>7</sup> But those from Jacob* who are still living and scattered among the nations will be like dew from the LORD that does not depend on anyone.
They will be like rain on the grass that does not wait for anyone.
<sup>8</sup> Those from Jacob who are still living are scattered among the nations.
But they will be like a lion among the animals in the forest.
They will be like a young lion among flocks of sheep.
If the lion passes through,
he goes where he wants to go.
If he attacks an animal,
no one can save it.
The survivors will be like that.

<sup>d</sup>5:2 beginnings Or "family origins."

<sup>e</sup>5:3 The LORD Or "the Ruler of Israel."

<sup>f</sup>5:4 They ... the earth Or "They will settle here because at that time his kingdom will extend to the ends of the earth."

<sup>g</sup>5:5 The Ruler of Israel Or "we."

<sup>h</sup>5:5 seven shepherds and eight leaders Or "seven shepherds, no eight leaders."

<sup>i</sup>5:6 land of Nimrod Another name for Assyria.

<sup>a</sup>4:8 Tower of Flocks Or "Migdal Eder." This probably means a part of Jerusalem. The leaders would be like shepherds in a tower watching their sheep.

<sup>b</sup>4:10 people of Jerusalem Literally, "daughter Zion," a name for Jerusalem. Also in verse 13. See "Zion" in the Word List.

<sup>c</sup>5:1 strong city Literally, "daughter of troops."

- 9 You will lift your hand against your enemies, and you will destroy them.

People Will Depend on God

- 10 The LORD says,
“At that time I will take away your horses, and I will destroy your chariots.*
11 I will destroy the cities in your country.
I will pull down all your fortresses.*
12 You will no longer try to do magic.
You will have no more fortunetellers.*
13 I will destroy your statues of false gods.
I will pull down your memorial stones.*
You will not worship what your hands
have made.
14 I will destroy the Asherah poles* and your false gods.<sup>a</sup> 15 Some nations will not listen to me, but I will show my anger and get my revenge.”

The Lord's Complaint

- 6 <sup>1</sup>Now hear what the LORD says: “Present your argument to the mountains.
Let the hills hear your story.<sup>b</sup> 2 The LORD has a complaint against his
people.
Mountains,
listen to the LORD's complaint.
Foundations of the earth,
hear the Lord.
He will prove that Israel is wrong!”
3 He says, “My people, tell me what I did!
Did I do something wrong against you?
Did I make life too hard for you?
4 I will tell you what I did.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you.
I brought you from the land of Egypt.
I freed you from slavery.
5 My people, remember the evil plans of Balak king of Moab.
Remember what Balaam son of Beor said to Balak.
Remember what happened from Acacia to Gilgal,<sup>c</sup>
and you will know the LORD is right!”

What Does God Want From Us?

- 6 What must I bring when I come to meet with the LORD?
What must I do when I bow down to God above?
Should I come to him with burnt offerings* and a year-old calf?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with a thousand rams or with ten thousand rivers of oil?

<sup>a</sup>5:14 false gods Or “cities.”

<sup>b</sup>6:1 This is like a court case. The mountains and hills are the judge and jury.

<sup>c</sup>6:5 Acacia to Gilgal This story is found in Num.
22–25.

Should I offer him my first child to pay for my wrongs?
Should I sacrifice my very own child for my sins?

- 8 Human, the LORD has told you what goodness is.
This is what he wants from you:
Be fair to other people.
Love kindness and loyalty,
and humbly obey your God.

What Were the Israelites Doing?

- 9 The LORD shouts to the city:
“A wise person respects the Lord's name.<sup>d</sup>
So pay attention to the punishing rod and to the one who uses it!<sup>e</sup> 10 Do the wicked still hide treasures that they have stolen?
Do they still cheat people with baskets that are too small?<sup>f</sup>
Yes, all of this is still happening!
11 Some people carry special weights that they use to cheat people when they weigh their goods.
Should I pardon them?
12 The rich in that city are still cruel.
The people there still tell lies.
Yes, they tell their lies.
13 So I have begun to punish you.
I will destroy you because of your sins.
14 You will eat, but you will not become full.
You will still be hungry and empty.<sup>g</sup>
You will try to bring people to safety, but people with swords will kill the people you rescued.
15 You will plant your seeds,
but you will not gather food.
You will try to squeeze oil from your olives,
but you will not get any oil.
You will crush your grapes, but you will not get enough juice to have wine to drink.
16 This is because you obey the laws of Omri.<sup>h</sup>
You do all the evil things that Ahab's family does.
You follow their teachings,
so I will let you be destroyed.
People will whistle in amazement
when they see your destroyed city.
Then you will bear the shame that the other nations bring to you.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>e</sup>6:9 So pay attention ... uses it The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

<sup>f</sup>6:10 baskets ... too small Literally, “short ephahs.”

An ephah is about 1/2 bushel.

<sup>h</sup>6:16 Omri A king of Israel who led his nation to worship false gods. See 1 Kings 16:21–26.

<sup>i</sup>6:16 Then ... you Or “My people's shame will be taken away.”

Micah Is Upset at the Evil People Do

- 7 <sup>1</sup>I am upset because I am like fruit that has been gathered, like grapes that have already been picked.
There are no grapes left to eat.
There are none of the early figs that I love.
- <sup>2</sup> By this I mean that all the faithful people
are gone.
There are no good people left.
Everyone is planning to kill someone.
Everyone is trying to trap their brother.
- <sup>3</sup> People are good at doing bad things with both hands.
Officials ask for bribes.
Judges take money to change their decisions in court.
“Important leaders” do whatever they want to do.
- <sup>4</sup> Even the best of them is as crooked
as a tangled thornbush.

The Day of Punishment Is Coming

Your prophets said this day would come, and the day of your watchmen<sup>a</sup> has
come.

Now you will be punished.

Now you will be confused!

- <sup>5</sup> Don't trust your neighbor or trust a friend!
Don't even speak freely with your wife.
- <sup>6</sup> Your enemies will be the people in your own house.
A son will not honor his father.
A daughter will turn against her mother.
A daughter-in-law will turn against her mother-in-law.

The Lord Is the Savior

- <sup>7</sup> So I will look to the LORD for help.
I will wait for God to save me.
My God will hear me.
- <sup>8</sup> I have fallen, but enemy, don't laugh at
me!
I will get up again.
I sit in darkness now,
but the LORD will be a light for me.

The Lord Forgives

- <sup>9</sup> I sinned against the LORD,
so he was angry with me.
But he will argue my case for me in court.
He will do what is right for me.
Then he will bring me out into the light,
and I will see that he is right.
- <sup>10</sup> My enemy said to me,
“Where is the LORD your God?”
But my enemy will see this,
and she will be ashamed.

At that time I will laugh at her.<sup>b</sup> People will walk over her,<sup>c</sup> like mud in the streets.

The Jews to Return

- <sup>11</sup> The time will come when your walls will be rebuilt.
At that time the country will grow.
- <sup>12</sup> Your people will come back to your land.
They will come back from Assyria and from the cities of Egypt.
They will come from Egypt and from the other side of the Euphrates River.
They will come from the sea in the west and from the mountains in the east.
- <sup>13</sup> The land was ruined by the people who lived there and by what they did.
- <sup>14</sup> So rule your people with your rod.
Rule the flock of people who belong to
you.
That flock lives alone in the woods and up on Mount Carmel.
That flock lives in Bashan and Gilead
as they did in the past.

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies

- <sup>15</sup> I did many miracles when I took you out of Egypt.
I will let you see more miracles like that.
- <sup>16</sup> The nations will see those miracles,
and they will be ashamed.
They will see that their “power”
is nothing compared to mine.
They will be amazed
and put their hands over their mouths.
They will cover their ears and refuse to listen.
- <sup>17</sup> They will crawl in the dust like a snake.
They will shake with fear.
They will be like insects crawling from their holes in the ground and coming to the LORD our God.
God, they will fear and respect you!

Praise for the Lord

- <sup>18</sup> There is no God like you.
You take away people's guilt.
God will forgive his people who survive.
He will not stay angry with them forever,
because he enjoys being kind.
- <sup>19</sup> He will come back and comfort us again.
He will throw all our sins into the deep
sea.
- <sup>20</sup> God, please be true to Jacob.*
Be kind and loyal to Abraham,<sup>d</sup> as you promised our ancestors* long ago.

<sup>b</sup>7:10 laugh at her Literally, “my eyes will stare at her.”

<sup>c</sup>7:8–10 enemy, don't laugh ... walk over her This probably refers to an enemy city, such as the capital of Edom.

<sup>d</sup>7:20 Abraham Here, Abraham is used to mean all the people of Israel. See “Abraham” in the Word List.

<sup>a</sup>7:4 watchmen Another name for prophets. This shows that the prophets were like guards who stood on a city's wall and watched for trouble coming from far away.

Nahum

1 <sup>1</sup>This book is the vision* of Nahum from Elkosh. This is the sad message about the city of Nineveh.<sup>a</sup>

The Lord Is Angry at Nineveh

- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is a jealous God.
The LORD punishes the guilty,
and he is very angry.
The LORD punishes his enemies,
and he stays angry with them.
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD is patient,
but he is also very powerful!
The LORD will punish the guilty;
he will not let them go free.
He will use whirlwinds and storms to show his power.
People walk on the dusty ground,
but he walks on the clouds.
- <sup>4</sup> He will speak harshly to the sea,
and it will become dry.
He will dry up all the rivers.
The rich lands of Bashan and Carmel become dry and dead.
The flowers in Lebanon fade away.
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord will come,
and the mountains will shake and the hills will melt away.
He will come,
and the earth will shake with fear.
The earth and everyone on it will shake with fear.
- <sup>6</sup> No one can stand against his great anger.
No one can endure his terrible anger.
His anger will burn like fire.
The rocks will shatter when he comes.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is good.
He is a safe place to go to in times of trouble.
He takes care of those who trust him.
- <sup>8</sup> But he will completely destroy his
enemies.
He will wash them away like a flood and chase them into the darkness.
- <sup>9</sup> Why are you making plans against the
LORD?
He will bring complete destruction,
so you will not cause trouble again.
- <sup>10</sup> You will be destroyed completely like thornbushes burning under a pot.
You will be destroyed
like dry weeds that burn quickly.

- <sup>11</sup> Someone from Nineveh is making evil
plans against the LORD.
That advisor is a worthless
troublemaker.
- <sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD said:
“The people of Assyria are at full strength.
They have many soldiers,
but they will all be cut down.
They will all be finished.
My people, I made you suffer,
but I will make you suffer no more.
- <sup>13</sup> Now I will set you free from the power of Assyria.
I will take the yoke* off your neck and tear away the chains holding you.”
- <sup>14</sup> King of Assyria, the LORD gave this command about you:
“You will not have any descendants to wear your name.
I will destroy your carved idols* and metal statues that are in the temple of your gods.
I am preparing your grave,
because your end is coming soon!”<sup>b</sup>”
- <sup>15</sup> Judah, look!
There, coming over the mountains, is a messenger bringing good news!
He says there is peace.
Judah, celebrate your special festivals and do what you promised.
Those worthless troublemakers will not come through and attack you again.
They have all been destroyed.

Nineveh Will Be Destroyed

- 2 <sup>1</sup>An enemy is coming to attack you,
so guard the strong places of your city.
Watch the road.
Get ready for war.
Prepare for battle!
- <sup>2</sup> Yes, the LORD changed Jacob's* pride.
He made it like Israel's pride.
The enemy destroyed them
and ruined their grapevines.
- <sup>3</sup> The shields of his soldiers are red.
Their uniforms are bright red.
Their chariots* are shining like flames of
fire

<sup>b</sup>1:14 because your end is coming soon Or “you are not important” or “you are so hated.”

- and are lined up for battle.
Their horses are ready to go.
- 4 The chariots race wildly through the streets and rush back and forth through the square.
They look like burning torches,
like lightning flashing from place to place!
- 5 The enemy calls for his best soldiers.
They stumble as they rush ahead.
They run to the wall
and set up their shield over the battering ram.
- 6 But the gates by the rivers are open, and the enemy comes flooding in and destroys the king's palace.
- 7 The enemy takes away the queen,
and her slave girls moan sadly like doves.
They beat their breasts to show their sadness.
- 8 Nineveh is like a pool whose water is draining away.
People yell, "Stop! Stop running away!"
But it does not do any good.
- 9 Take the silver!
Take the gold!
There are many things to take.
There are many treasures.
- 10 Now Nineveh is empty.
Everything is stolen.
The city is ruined.
People have lost their courage,
their hearts are melting with fear,
their knees are knocking together,
their bodies are shaking,
and their faces are pale from fear.
- 11 Where is the lion's cave (Nineveh) now?
The male and female lions lived there.
Their babies were not afraid.
- 12 The lion (king of Nineveh) killed people to feed his cubs and lionesses.
He filled his cave with men's bodies.
He filled his cave with women he had killed.
- 13 The LORD All-Powerful says,
"I am against you, Nineveh.
I will burn your chariots and kill your 'young lions' in battle.
You will not hunt anyone on earth again.
People will never again hear bad news from your messengers."

Bad News for Nineveh

- 3 <sup>11</sup>It will be very bad for that city of murderers.
Nineveh is a city full of lies.
It is filled with things taken from other countries.

- It is filled with plenty of people that it hunted and killed.
- 2 You can hear the sounds of whips and the noise of wheels.
You can hear horses galloping and chariots* bouncing along!
- 3 Soldiers on horses are attacking, their swords are shining, their spears are gleaming!
There are many dead people.
Dead bodies are piled up—too many bodies to count.
People are tripping over the dead bodies.
- 4 All this happened because of Nineveh.
Nineveh is like a prostitute who could never get enough.
She wanted more and more.
She sold herself to many nations, and she used her magic to make them her slaves.
- 5 The LORD All-Powerful says,
"I am against you, Nineveh.
I will pull your dress<sup>a</sup> up over your face.
I will let the nations see your naked body.
The kingdoms will see your shame.
- 6 I will throw dirty things on you and treat you in a hateful way.
People will look at you and laugh.
- 7 Everyone who sees you will be shocked.
They will say, 'Nineveh is destroyed.
Who will cry for her?'
I know I cannot find anyone to comfort you, Nineveh."

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh, are you better than Thebes<sup>b</sup> on the Nile River? Thebes also had water all around her to protect herself from enemies. She used that water like a wall too. <sup>9</sup>Ethiopia and Egypt made Thebes strong. Libya and the Sudan supported her, <sup>10</sup>but Thebes was defeated. Her people were taken away as prisoners to a foreign country. Soldiers beat her small children to death at every street corner. They threw lots* to see who got to keep the important people as slaves. They put chains on all the important men of Thebes.

<sup>11</sup>So, Nineveh, you will also fall like a drunk. You will try to hide. You will look for a safe place away from the enemy. <sup>12</sup>But Nineveh, all your strong places will be like fig trees. When new figs become ripe, people come and shake the tree. The figs fall into their mouths. They eat them, and the figs are gone.

<sup>13</sup>Nineveh, your people are all like women—and the enemy soldiers are ready to take them. The gates of your land are open wide for your enemies to come in. Fire has destroyed the wooden bars across the gates.

<sup>a</sup>3:5 pull your dress This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The Hebrew word also means "to destroy a country and take its people away as prisoners to other nations."

<sup>b</sup>3:8 Thebes A great city in Egypt. It was destroyed in 663 B.C. by the Assyrian army.

<sup>14</sup>Get water and store it inside your city, because the enemy soldiers will surround your city. Make your defenses strong! Get clay to make more bricks and mix the mortar. Get the molds for making bricks. <sup>15</sup>You can do all these things, but the fire will still destroy you completely. And the sword will kill you. Your land will look like a swarm of grasshoppers came and ate everything.

Nineveh, you grew and grew. You became like a swarm of grasshoppers. You were like a swarm of locusts. <sup>16</sup>You have many traders who go places and buy things. They are as many as the stars in the sky. They are like locusts that come and eat until everything is gone and then leave. <sup>17</sup>And your government officials are also like locusts that settle on a stone wall on a cold day. But when the sun comes up, the rocks become warm, and the locusts all fly away. And no one knows where.

<sup>18</sup>King of Assyria, your shepherds fell asleep. These powerful men are sleeping. And now your sheep have wandered away on the mountains. There is no one to bring them back. <sup>19</sup>Nineveh, you have been hurt badly, and nothing can heal your wound. Everyone who hears the news of your destruction claps their hands. They are all happy, because they all felt the pain you caused again and again.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk Complains to God

1 This is the message that was given to Habakkuk the prophet.*

<sup>2</sup>LORD, I continue to ask for help. When will you listen to me? I cried to you about the violence, but you did nothing! <sup>3</sup>People are stealing things and hurting others. They are arguing and fighting. Why do you make me look at these terrible things? <sup>4</sup>The law is weak and not fair to people. Evil people win their fights against good people. So the law is no longer fair, and justice does not win anymore.

The Lord Answers Habakkuk

<sup>5</sup>Look at the other nations! Watch them, and you will be amazed. I will do something in your lifetime that will amaze you. You would not believe it even if you were told about it. <sup>6</sup>I will make the Babylonians<sup>a</sup> a strong nation. They are cruel and powerful fighters. They will march across the earth. They will take houses and cities that don't belong to them. <sup>7</sup>The Babylonians will scare the other people. They will do what they want to do and go where they want to go. <sup>8</sup>Their horses will be faster than leopards and more dangerous than wolves at sunset. Their horse soldiers will come from faraway places. They will attack their enemies quickly, like a hungry eagle swooping down from the sky. <sup>9</sup>The one thing they all want to do is fight. Their armies will march fast like the wind in the desert. And the Babylonian soldiers will take many prisoners—as many as the grains of sand.

<sup>10</sup>“The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the kings of other nations. Foreign rulers will be like jokes to them. The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the cities with tall, strong walls. They will simply build dirt roads up to the top of the walls and easily defeat the cities. <sup>11</sup>Then they will leave like the wind and go on to fight against other places. The only thing the Babylonians worship is their own strength.”

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

<sup>12</sup> LORD, you are the one who lives forever! You are my holy God who never dies!<sup>b</sup>

LORD, you created the Babylonians to do what must be done.

Our Rock,* you created them to punish people.

<sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too good to look at evil. You cannot stand to see people doing wrong.

So why do you permit such evil?

How can you watch while the wicked destroy people who are so much better?

<sup>14</sup> You made people like fish in the sea. They are like little sea animals without a leader.

The enemy catches them in his net and drags them in, and the enemy is very happy with what he caught.

<sup>b</sup>1:12 LORD, you are ... never dies Or “LORD, you have been my holy God forever! Surely we will not die.”

- <sup>16</sup> His net helps him live like the rich and enjoy the best food.
So the enemy worships his net.
He makes sacrifices* and burns incense* to honor his net.
- <sup>17</sup> Will he continue to take riches with his net?
Will he continue destroying people without showing mercy?

2 <sup>11</sup> I will stand like a guard and watch.
I will wait to see what the LORD will say to me.
I will wait and learn how he answers my questions.

God Answers Habakkuk

<sup>2</sup>The LORD answered me, "Write down what I show you. Write it clearly on a sign so that the message will be easy to read."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>3</sup>This message is about a special time in the future. This message is about the end, and it will come true. Just be patient and wait for it. That time will come; it will not be late.

<sup>4</sup>This message cannot help those who refuse to listen to it, but those who are good will live because they believe it.

<sup>5</sup>"Wine can trick a person. In the same way a strong man's pride can fool him, but he will not find peace. He is like death—he always wants more and more. And, like death, he will never be satisfied. He will continue to defeat other nations and to make those people his prisoners. <sup>6</sup>But soon enough, all those people will laugh at him and tell stories about his defeat. They will laugh and say, 'It's too bad that the man who took so many things will not get to keep them! He made himself rich by collecting debts.'

<sup>7</sup>"Strong man, you have taken money from people. One day they will wake up and realize what is happening, and they will stand against you. Then they will take things from you, and you will be very afraid. <sup>8</sup>You have stolen things from many nations, so they will take much from you. You have killed many people and destroyed lands and cities. You have killed all the people there.

<sup>9</sup>"Look at you people! You get rich by cheating people, and it hurts your own family! You build your houses high on the cliffs to protect yourself from danger. <sup>10</sup>You planned shameful things, and that will bring shame to your own family. You have done wrong, and it will cost you your life. <sup>11</sup>The stones of the walls will cry out against you. Even the wooden rafters<sup>b</sup> in your own house will prove that you are wrong.

<sup>a2:2</sup> Write down ... easy to read Or "Write the vision clearly on tablets so that the person who reads it can run and tell other people."

has decided that a fire will destroy everything that those people worked to build. All their work will be for nothing. <sup>14</sup>Then people everywhere will know about the Glory of the LORD.* This news will spread just as water spreads out into the sea. <sup>15</sup>It will be very bad for those who become angry and make other people suffer. Like an angry drunk, they knock others to the ground and strip them naked, just to see their naked bodies.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>16</sup>"But they will know the LORD's anger. It will be like a cup of poison in the LORD's right hand. They will taste that anger, and then they will fall to the ground like drunks.

"Evil ruler, you will drink from that cup. You will get shame, not honor. <sup>17</sup>You hurt many people in Lebanon and stole many animals there. So you will be afraid because of the people who died and because of the bad things you did to that country. You will be afraid because of what you did to those cities and to the people who lived there."

The Message About Idols

<sup>18</sup>Their false god will not help them, because it is only a statue that someone covered with metal. It is only a statue, so whoever made it cannot expect it to help. That statue cannot even speak! <sup>19</sup>Look at them! They speak to a wooden statue and tell it, "Get up! Rescue me." They talk to a stone that cannot speak and say, "Wake up!" Don't you know those things cannot help you? That statue may be covered with gold and silver, but there is no life in it.

<sup>20</sup>But the LORD is in his holy temple, so the whole earth should be silent in his presence and show him respect.

Habakkuk's Prayer

<sup>2</sup> LORD, I have heard the news about you.

I am amazed, LORD, at the powerful things you did in the past.

Now I pray that you will do great things in our time.

Please make these things happen in our own days.

But in your anger, remember to show mercy to us. Selah*

<sup>3</sup> God is coming from Teman.*

The Holy One is coming from Mount Paran.* Selah

The Glory of the LORD* covers the heavens, and his praise fills the earth!

<sup>d3:1</sup> Or "The prayer of Habakkuk on the Shiggayon." The meaning of the Hebrew word "Shiggayon" is not known.

- <sup>4</sup> Rays of light shine from his hand, a bright, shining light.
There is such power hiding in that hand.
- <sup>5</sup> The sickness went before him, and the destroyer followed behind him.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD stood and judged the earth.
He looked at the people of all the nations,
and they shook with fear.
For many years the mountains stood strong,
but those mountains fell to pieces.
Those old, old hills fell down.
God has always been able to do that.
- <sup>7</sup> I saw that the cities of Cushan were in trouble and that the houses of Midian trembled with fear.
- <sup>8</sup> LORD, were you angry at the rivers?
Were you angry at the streams?
Were you angry at the sea?
Were you angry when you rode your horses and chariots to victory?
- <sup>9</sup> Even then you showed your rainbow.
It was proof of your agreement with the families of the earth.<sup>b</sup> Selah
- And the dry land split the rivers.
- <sup>10</sup> The mountains saw you and shook.
The water flowed off the land.
The water from the sea made a loud noise
as it lost its power over the land.
- <sup>11</sup> The sun and the moon lost their brightness.
They stopped shining when they saw your bright flashes of lightning.
That lightning was like spears and arrows shooting through the air.

<sup>a</sup>3:5 This probably refers to the diseases and the Angel of Death that God sent against the Egyptians when God freed Israel from slavery.

<sup>b</sup>3:9 rainbow ... earth See Gen. 9.

- <sup>12</sup> In anger you walked on the earth and punished the nations.
- <sup>13</sup> You came to save your people and to lead your chosen king<sup>c</sup> to victory.
You killed the leader in every evil family, from the least important person to the most important in the land.<sup>d</sup> Selah
- <sup>14</sup> You used Moses' walking stick to stop the enemy soldiers.
Those soldiers came like a powerful storm to fight against us.
They thought they could defeat us easily, as robbing the poor in secret.
- <sup>15</sup> But you marched your horses through the deep water, stirring up the mud.
- <sup>16</sup> My whole body shook when I heard the story.
My lips trembled.
I felt weak deep down in my bones and stood there shaking.
But I will wait patiently for destruction to come to those who attack us.

Always Rejoice in the Lord

- <sup>17</sup> Figs might not grow on the fig trees, and grapes might not grow on the vines.
Olives might not grow on the olive trees, and food might not grow in the fields.
There might not be any sheep in the pens or cattle in the barns.
- <sup>18</sup> But I will still be glad in the LORD and rejoice in God my savior.
- <sup>19</sup> The Lord God gives me my strength.
He helps me run fast like a deer.
He leads me safely on the mountains.

To the music director. On my stringed instruments.

<sup>d</sup>3:13 You killed ... in the land Literally, "You struck the head from the wicked house. From the foundation to the neck they were laid bare."

Zephaniah

1 <sup>1</sup>This is the message that the LORD gave to Zephaniah. He received this message during the time that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cush, who was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Hezekiah.

The Lord's Day for Judging the People

<sup>2</sup>The Lord says, "I will destroy everything on earth.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>I will destroy all the people and all the animals. I will destroy the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. I will destroy the evil people and everything that makes them sin. I will remove all people from the earth.” This is what the LORD said.

<sup>4</sup>“I will punish Judah and the people living in Jerusalem. I will remove from this place the last signs of Baal* worship, the priests, and all the people who <sup>5</sup>go up on their roofs to worship the stars.<sup>a</sup> People will forget about those false priests. Some people say they worship me. They promised to worship me, but now they worship the false god Milcom.* So I will remove them from that place. <sup>6</sup>Some people turned away from the LORD and stopped following me. They stopped asking the LORD for help, so I will remove them from that place.”

<sup>7</sup>Be silent before the Lord God, because the LORD’s day for judging the people is coming soon. The LORD has prepared his sacrifice, and he has told his invited guests to get ready.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said, “On the LORD’s day of sacrifice, I will punish the king’s sons and other leaders. I will punish all the people wearing clothes from other countries. <sup>9</sup>At that time I will punish all the people who jump over the threshold<sup>c</sup> and those who fill their master’s house<sup>d</sup> with lies and violence.”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD also said, “At that time people will be calling for help at Fish Gate in Jerusalem and mourning* in the new part of town. They will hear the sound of destruction in the hills around the city. <sup>11</sup>You people living in the lower part of town will cry, because all the traders and rich merchants* will be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>“At that time I will take a lamp and search through Jerusalem. I will find all those who are satisfied to live their own way. They say, ‘The LORD does nothing. He does not help, and he does not hurt!’ I will find them, and I will punish them. <sup>13</sup>Then others will take their wealth and destroy their houses. Those who built houses will not live in them, and those who planted vineyards will not drink the wine from the grapes.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD’s special day for judging is coming soon! It is near and coming fast. People will hear very sad sounds on the LORD’s special day of judgment. Even strong soldiers will cry. <sup>15</sup>The LORD will show his anger at that time. It will be a time of terrible troubles and a time of destruction. It will be a time of darkness—a black, cloudy, and stormy day. <sup>16</sup>It will be like wartime when people hear horns and trumpets in the defense towers and protected cities.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said, “I will make life very hard on the people. They will walk around like the blind who don’t know where they are going. That will happen because they sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be spilled on the ground. Their dead bodies will lie like dung on the ground. <sup>18</sup>Their gold and silver will not help them! At that time the LORD will become very upset and angry. The LORD will destroy the whole world!<sup>e</sup> He will completely destroy everyone on earth!”

God Asks People to Change Their Lives

2<sup>1</sup>Shameless people, change your lives <sup>2</sup>before you become like a dry and dying flower. In the heat of day, a flower will wilt and die. You will be like that when the LORD shows his terrible anger. So change your lives before the LORD shows his anger against you! <sup>3</sup>All you humble people, come to the LORD! Obey his laws. Learn to do good things. Learn to be humble. Maybe then you will be safe when the LORD shows his anger.

The Lord Will Punish Israel’s Neighbors

<sup>4</sup>No one will be left in Gaza. Ashkelon will be destroyed. By noon, the people will be forced to leave Ashdod. Ekron<sup>f</sup> will be empty.<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>You Cretans<sup>h</sup> living by the sea, this message from the LORD is about you. Canaan,* land of the Philistines, you will be destroyed—no one will live there! <sup>6</sup>Your land by the sea will become empty fields for shepherds and their sheep. <sup>7</sup>Then the land will belong to the survivors* from Judah. The LORD their God will remember the people from Judah and restore their fortunes. Then they will let their sheep eat the grass in those fields. In the evenings they will lie down in the empty houses of Ashkelon.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD says, “I know what the people of Moab and Ammon did. They embarrassed my people. They took their land to make their own countries larger. <sup>9</sup>So, as surely as I am alive, Moab and the people of Ammon will be destroyed like Sodom* and Gomorrah.* I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I promise those countries will be destroyed completely forever. Their land will be overgrown with weeds. It will be like the land covered with salt by the Dead Sea. The survivors of my people will take that land and everything left in it.”

<sup>f</sup>2:4 Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Ekron Philistine cities. In Hebrew, Zephaniah is making wordplays on the names of these cities.

<sup>g</sup>2:4 empty In Hebrew this word is like the word meaning “Philistines.” Also in verse 6.

<sup>a</sup>1:5 stars Literally, “army of heaven.” This might mean the stars and planets or the angels.

<sup>b</sup>1:7 prepared ... get ready Literally, “prepared his sacrifice. He has made his called ones holy.” Here, this time of judgment is compared to a fellowship meal when priests offered a sacrifice to God and had the guests get ready for this special meal with God.

<sup>c</sup>1:9 people wearing ... threshold This probably means the priests and people who worshiped foreign gods, such as Dagon, or people who copied their ways of worshiping. See 1 Sam. 5:5.

<sup>d</sup>1:9 master’s house This means the temple where the people worshiped God or their false gods.

<sup>10</sup>This will happen to the people of Moab and Ammon because they were so proud and cruel and humiliated the people of the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>11</sup>They will be afraid of the LORD, because he will destroy their gods. Then everyone in all the faraway lands will worship the LORD. <sup>12</sup>People of Ethiopia, this even means you! The Lord's sword will kill your people. <sup>13</sup>Then the Lord will turn north and punish Assyria. He will destroy Nineveh—that city will be like an empty, dry desert. <sup>14</sup>Only sheep and wild animals will live in those ruins. Owls and crows will sit on the columns that are left standing. Their calls will be heard coming through the windows. Crows will sit on the doorsteps. Black birds<sup>a</sup> will make their homes in those empty houses. <sup>15</sup>Nineveh is so proud now. It is such a happy city. The people think they are safe. They think Nineveh is the greatest place in the world, but it will be destroyed! It will be an empty place where only wild animals go to rest. People who pass by will whistle and shake their heads when they see how badly the city was destroyed.

The Future of Jerusalem

3 <sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, your people fought against God. They hurt other people, and you have been stained with sin. <sup>2</sup>They didn't listen to me or accept my teachings. Jerusalem didn't trust the LORD. Jerusalem didn't go to her God. <sup>3</sup>Jerusalem's leaders are like roaring lions. Her judges* are like hungry wolves that come in the evening to attack the sheep—and in the morning nothing is left. <sup>4</sup>Her prophets* are always making secret plans to get more and more. Her priests have treated holy* things as if they were not holy. They have done bad things to God's teachings. <sup>5</sup>But God is still in that city, and he continues to be good. He does not do anything wrong. He continues to help his people. Morning after morning he makes good decisions for them. Not a day passes without his justice. He never gives a decision that is crooked or is something to be ashamed of.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord says, "I have destroyed whole nations and their defense towers. I destroyed their streets and now no one goes there anymore. Their cities are empty—no one lives there anymore. <sup>7</sup>I tell you this so that you will learn a lesson. I want you to fear and respect me. If you do this, your home will not be destroyed, and I will not have to punish you the way I planned." But those evil people only wanted to do more of the same evil things they had already done!

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said, "So just wait! Wait for me to stand and judge you. I have the right to bring people from many nations and use them to punish you. I will use them to show my anger against you. I will use them to show how upset I am—and the whole country will be destroyed. <sup>9</sup>Then I will change people from other nations so that they can speak the language clearly and call out the name of the LORD. They will all worship me together, shoulder to shoulder, as one people. <sup>10</sup>People will come all the way from the other side of the river in Ethiopia. My scattered people will come to me. My worshipers will come and bring their gifts to me.

<sup>11</sup>Then, Jerusalem, you will no longer be ashamed of the wrong things your people do against me. That is because I will remove all the bad people from Jerusalem. I will take away all the proud people. There will not be any of them on my holy mountain.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>I will let only meek and humble people stay in my city, and they will trust the LORD's name. <sup>13</sup>The survivors* of Israel will not do bad things or tell lies. They will not try to trick people with lies. They will be like sheep that eat and lie down in peace—and no one will bother them."

A Happy Song

<sup>14</sup> Jerusalem, sing and be happy!

Israel, shout for joy!

Jerusalem, be happy and have fun!

<sup>15</sup> The LORD stopped your punishment.

He destroyed your enemies' strong towers.

King of Israel, the LORD is with you.

You don't need to worry about anything bad happening.

<sup>16</sup> At that time Jerusalem will be told,

"Be strong, don't be afraid!

<sup>17</sup> The LORD your God is with you.

He is like a powerful soldier.

He will save you.

He will show how much he loves you and how happy he is with you.

He will laugh and be happy about you,

<sup>18</sup> like people at a party.

I will take away your shame.

I will make them stop hurting you.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>19</sup> At that time I will punish those who hurt you.

I will save my hurt people and bring back those who were forced to leave.

I will give them praise and honor everywhere, even in places where they suffered shame.

<sup>20</sup> At that time I will lead you back home.

I will bring your people back together.

I will cause people everywhere to honor and praise you.

You will see me bring back all the blessings you once had."

This is what the LORD said.

<sup>b</sup>3:11 holy mountain Mount Zion, one of the mountains Jerusalem was built on.

Haggai

It Is Time to Build the Temple

1 On the first day of the sixth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia, Haggai received a message from the LORD. This message was for Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak. Zerubbabel was the governor of Judah and Joshua was the high priest. This is the message: <sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful said, "The people say it is not yet the right time to build the LORD's Temple.*"

<sup>3</sup>Again Haggai received a message from the LORD. Haggai spoke this message: <sup>4</sup>"You people think the right time has come for you to live in nice houses. You live in houses with beautiful wooden paneling on the walls, but the LORD's house is still in ruins. <sup>5</sup>Now the LORD All-Powerful says, 'Think about what is happening. <sup>6</sup>You have planted many seeds, but you have gathered only a few crops. You have food to eat, but not enough to get full. You have something to drink, but not enough to get drunk. You have some clothes to wear, but not enough to keep warm. You earn a little money, but you don't know where it all goes. It's as though there is a hole in your pocket!'"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said, "Think about what you are doing. <sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountains, get the wood, and build the Temple. Then I will be pleased with the Temple, and I will be honored." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said, "You people look for a big harvest, but when you go to gather the crop, there is only a little grain. So you bring that grain home, and then I send a wind that blows it all away. Why is this happening? Because my house is still in ruins while each of you runs home to take care of your own house. <sup>10</sup>That is why the sky holds back its dew and why the earth holds back its crops.

<sup>11</sup>"I gave the command for the land and the mountains to be dry. The grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and everything the earth produces will be ruined.<sup>b</sup> All the people and all the animals will become weak."

Work Begins on the New Temple

<sup>12</sup>The LORD God had sent Haggai to speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and to the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. So these men and all the people listened to the voice of the LORD their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet. And the people showed their fear and respect for the LORD their God.

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, delivered this message to the people: "The LORD says, 'I am with you!'"

<sup>14</sup>Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel was the governor of Judah. Joshua son of Jehozadak was the high priest. The LORD made them and the rest of the people excited about working on the Temple* of their God, the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>15</sup>So they began this work on the 24th day of the sixth month in the second year Darius was the king.

The Lord Encourages the People

2 On the 21st day of the seventh month, this message from the LORD came to Haggai: <sup>2</sup>"Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the people. Say this: <sup>3</sup>How many of you people look at this Temple* and try to compare it to the beautiful Temple that was destroyed? What do you think? Does this Temple seem like nothing when you compare it with the first Temple? <sup>4</sup>But the LORD says, 'Zerubbabel, don't be discouraged!' And the LORD says, 'Joshua son of Jehozadak, you are the high priest. Don't be discouraged! And all you people who live in the land, don't be discouraged! Continue this work, because I am with you.' This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

<sup>5</sup>"I made an agreement with you when you left Egypt, and I have kept my promise. My Spirit is with you, so don't be afraid!" <sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful said, 'In just a little while, I will once again shake things up. I will shake heaven and earth, and I will shake the sea and the dry land. <sup>7</sup>I will shake up the nations, and they will come to you with wealth from every nation. And then I will fill this Temple with glory.*' That is what the LORD All-Powerful said! <sup>8</sup>'All their silver really belongs to me! And all the gold is mine!' This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD All-Powerful said 'This last Temple will be more beautiful than the first one, and I will bring peace to this place.' Remember, this is what the LORD All-Powerful said."

Today Begins a Time of Blessing

<sup>10</sup>On the 24th day of the ninth month in the second year Darius was king of Persia, this message from the LORD came to Haggai the prophet: <sup>11</sup>"The LORD All-Powerful commands you to ask the priests what the law says about these things: <sup>12</sup>'Suppose a man carries some meat in the fold of his clothes. This meat is part of a sacrifice, so it is holy.* If his clothes touch some bread, cooked food, wine, oil, or some other food, will the thing the clothes touch become holy?'"

The priests answered, "No."

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, "Whoever touches a dead body will become unclean.* Now if they touch anything else, will it also become unclean?"

The priests answered, "Yes, it will become unclean."

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai said, "This is what the LORD God said: 'This is also true for the people of this nation. They were not pure and holy before me. So anything they did with their hands and anything they offered at the altar became unclean.'

<sup>15</sup>"Think about what has happened to you. Think about how things were before you began working on the LORD's Temple.* <sup>16</sup>People wanted 20 measures of grain, but there were only 10 measures in the pile. People wanted to get 50 jars of wine from the wine vat, but there were only 20. <sup>17</sup>That was because I punished you. I sent the diseases that killed your plants and the hail that destroyed the things you made with your hands. I did this, but still you did not come to me.' This is what the LORD said.

<sup>18</sup>"[The Lord said,] 'Today is the 24th day of the ninth month. You have finished laying the foundation of the LORD's Temple. So notice what happens from this day forward: <sup>19</sup>Your seed for planting is still in the barn. And look at the vines, the fig trees, and the pomegranate* and olive trees. They have not yet produced any fruit. But beginning today, I will bless you.'

<sup>20</sup>Another message from the LORD came to Haggai on the 24th day of the month. This is the message: <sup>21</sup>"Go to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah and tell him that I will shake heaven and earth. <sup>22</sup>And I will overthrow many kings and kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of those other people. I will destroy their chariots* and their riders. I will defeat their war horses and riders. These armies are friends now, but they will turn against each other and kill each other with swords." <sup>23</sup>This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. "Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant, I have chosen you. At that time I will use you like a signet ring* to prove that I have done these things!"

This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

Zechariah

The Lord Wants His People to Return

1 Zechariah son of Berekiah received a message from the LORD. This was in the eighth month of the second year that Darius<sup>a</sup> was king in Persia. (Zechariah was the son of Berekiah, who was the son of Iddo the prophet.) This is that message:

<sup>2</sup>The LORD became very angry with your ancestors.* <sup>3</sup>So you must tell the people what he says, "Come back to me, and I will come back to you." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

<sup>4</sup>"Don't be like your ancestors. In the past the prophets spoke to them and said, 'The LORD All-Powerful wants you to change your evil way of living. Stop doing evil things!' But your ancestors did not listen to me." This is what the LORD said.

<sup>5</sup>"Your ancestors are gone, and those prophets did not live forever. <sup>6</sup>The prophets were my servants. I used them to tell your ancestors about my laws and teachings. Your ancestors finally learned their lesson and said, 'The LORD All-Powerful did what he said he would do. He punished us for the way we lived and for all the evil things we did.' So they came back to God."

The Four Horses

<sup>7</sup>On the 24th day of the eleventh month (Shebat) of the second year that Darius was king of Persia, Zechariah received another message from the LORD. (This was Zechariah son of Berekiah, son of Iddo.) This is the message:

<sup>8</sup>At night I saw a man riding a red horse. He was standing among some myrtle bushes in the valley. Behind him, there were red, brown, and white horses. <sup>9</sup>I said, "Sir, what are these horses for?"

<sup>a</sup>1:1 the second year ... Darius That is, about 520 B.C. Also in verse 7.

Then the angel speaking to me said, "I will show you what these horses are for."

<sup>10</sup>Then the man standing among the myrtle bushes said, "The LORD sent these horses to go here and there on earth."

<sup>11</sup>Then the horses spoke to the LORD's angel standing among the myrtle bushes and said, "We have walked here and there on the earth, and everything is calm and quiet."

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD's angel said, "LORD All-Powerful, how long before you comfort Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You have shown your anger at these cities for 70 years now."

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD answered the angel who was talking with me. He spoke good, comforting words. <sup>14</sup>Then the angel told me to tell the people this:

The LORD All-Powerful says:

"I have a strong love for Jerusalem and Zion."

<sup>15</sup> And I am very angry at the nations that feel so safe.

I was only a little angry,
and I used them to punish my people.
But they caused too much damage."

<sup>16</sup> So the LORD says,

"I will come back to Jerusalem and comfort her."

The LORD All-Powerful says,

"Jerusalem will be rebuilt,
and my house will be built there."

<sup>17</sup> The angel also said,

"The LORD All-Powerful says,
'My towns will be rich again.
I will comfort Zion.

I will again choose Jerusalem to be my special city.'"

The Four Horns and Four Workers

<sup>18</sup>Then I looked up and I saw four horns.

<sup>19</sup>So I asked the angel who was talking with me, "What do these horns mean?"

He said, "These are the horns that forced the people of Israel, Judah, and Jerusalem to go to foreign countries."

<sup>20</sup>The LORD showed me four workers. <sup>21</sup>I asked him, "What are these four workers coming to do?"

He said, "The horns represent the nations that attacked the people of Judah and forced them to go to foreign countries. The horns 'threw' the people of Judah to the foreign countries. The horns didn't show mercy to anyone. But these four workers have come to frighten the horns and throw them away."

Measuring Jerusalem

2 <sup>1</sup>Then I looked up and saw a man holding a rope for measuring things. <sup>2</sup>I asked him, "Where are you going?"

He said to me, "I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who was speaking to me left, and another angel went out to talk to him. <sup>4</sup>He said to him, "Run and tell that young man this:

'Jerusalem will be a city without walls, because there will be too many people and animals living there.'

<sup>5</sup> The LORD says,

'I will be a wall of fire around her, to protect her,
and to bring glory to that city, I will live
there.'"

God Calls His People Home

The LORD says,

<sup>6</sup>"Hurry! Leave the land in the North in a hurry.

Yes, it is true that I scattered your people
in every direction.

<sup>7</sup> You people from Zion now live in Babylon.
Escape! Run away from that city!"

<sup>8</sup> The LORD sent me to the nations that took away your wealth.

He sent me to bring you honor.
And this is what the LORD All-Powerful
said:

"If anyone even touches you, it is as if they did it to the pupil of my eye.

<sup>9</sup> I will punish them, and you, their slaves, will take all their wealth."

When this happens, then you will know that the LORD All-Powerful sent me.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD says,

"Zion, be happy, because I am coming,
and I will live in your city.

<sup>11</sup> At that time people from many nations will come to me.

They will become my people,
and I will live in your city."

Then you will know

that the LORD All-Powerful sent me.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD will again choose Jerusalem to be his special city.

Judah will be his share of the holy land.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone, be quiet!

The LORD is coming out of his holy
house.

The High Priest

3 <sup>1</sup>The angel showed me Joshua the high priest, standing in front of the angel of the LORD and Satan was standing by Joshua's right side. Satan was there to accuse Joshua of doing wrong. <sup>2</sup>Then [the angel of, the LORD said, "The LORD says that you are wrong, and he will continue to correct you! The LORD has chosen Jerusalem to be his special city. He saved that city—it was like a burning stick pulled from the fire."

<sup>3</sup>Joshua was wearing a dirty robe as he stood in front of the angel. <sup>4</sup>Then the angel said to the other angels standing near him,

"Take those dirty clothes off Joshua." Then the angel spoke to Joshua. He said, "Now, I have taken away your guilt, and I am giving you a new change of clothes."

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Put a clean turban* on his head." So they put the clean turban on him and also put clean clothes on him while the LORD's angel stood there. <sup>6</sup>Then the LORD's angel said this to Joshua:

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD All-Powerful said:

"Live the way I tell you,

and do everything I say.

And you will be in charge of my Temple.

You will take care of its courtyard.

You will be free to go anywhere in my Temple,

just as these angels standing here.

<sup>8</sup> Listen, Joshua, you who are the high priest, and listen, you fellow priests seated before him.

You are all examples to show what will happen when I bring my special servant.

He is called, THE BRANCH.

<sup>9</sup> Look, I put a special stone in front of Joshua.

There are seven sides<sup>a</sup> on that stone.

I will carve a special message on it.

This will show that in one day, I will remove the guilt from this land."

<sup>10</sup> The LORD All-Powerful says,

"At that time people will sit and talk with their friends and neighbors.

They will invite each other to sit under the fig trees and grapevines."

The Lampstand and the Two Olive Trees

4<sup>1</sup>Then the angel who was talking to me returned and woke me up. I was like a person waking up from sleep. <sup>2</sup>Then the angel asked me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a solid gold lampstand. There are seven lamps<sup>b</sup> on the lampstand, and there is a bowl on top of it. There are seven tubes coming from the bowl. One tube goes to each lamp. [The tubes bring the oil in the bowl to each of the lamps.] <sup>3</sup>There are two olive trees by the bowl, one on the right side and one on the left side. [These trees produce the oil for the lamps.]" <sup>4</sup>Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Sir, what do these things mean?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel speaking with me said, "Don't you know what these things are?"

"No sir," I said.

<sup>6</sup>He said, "This is the message from the LORD to Zerubbabel: 'Your help will not come from your own strength and power. No, your help will come from my Spirit.' This is what the LORD All-Powerful says. <sup>7</sup>That tall mountain will be like a flat place for Zerubbabel. He will build the Temple, and when the most important stone is put in place, the people will shout, 'Beautiful! Beautiful!'"

<sup>8</sup>The LORD's message to me also said, <sup>9</sup>"Zerubbabel will lay the foundations for my Temple, and he will finish building it. Then you will know that the LORD All-Powerful sent me to you people. <sup>10</sup>People will not be ashamed of the small beginnings, and they will be very happy when they see Zerubbabel with the plumb line,<sup>c</sup> measuring and checking the finished building. Now the seven sides<sup>d</sup> of the stone you saw represent the eyes of the LORD looking in every direction. They see everything on earth."

<sup>11</sup>Then I said to him, "I saw one olive tree on the right side of the lampstand and one on the left side. What do those two olive trees mean?" <sup>12</sup>I also said to him, "I saw two olive branches by the gold tubes with gold colored oil flowing from them. What do these things mean?"

<sup>13</sup>Then the angel said to me, "Don't you know what these things mean?"

I said, "No, sir."

<sup>14</sup>So he said, "They represent the two men chosen<sup>e</sup> to serve the LORD of the whole world."

The Flying Scroll

5<sup>1</sup>I looked up again, and I saw a flying scroll.* <sup>2</sup>The angel asked me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a flying scroll that is 30 feet<sup>f</sup> long and 15 feet<sup>g</sup> wide."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel told me, "There is a curse written on that scroll. On one side of the scroll, there is a curse against thieves and on the other side is a curse against people who lie when they make promises. <sup>4</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, 'I will send that scroll to the houses of thieves and people who lie when they use my name to make promises. That scroll will settle there and destroy even the stones and wooden posts of their houses.'"

The Woman and the Bucket

<sup>5</sup>The angel who was talking to me went outside and said, "Look! What do you see coming?"

<sup>c</sup>4:10 plumb line A string with a weight on one end used to show how straight the walls of a building were. Sometimes the line was coated with paint or chalk to mark a straight line.

<sup>d</sup>4:10 sides This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means "eyes."

<sup>e</sup>4:14 men chosen Literally, "sons of extra pure olive oil." Often a special oil was poured over new kings, priests, and prophets. This showed that these people were chosen by God.

<sup>f</sup>5:2 30 feet Literally, "20 cubits" (8.88 m).

<sup>b</sup>4:2 lamps These lamps made light by burning olive oil.

<sup>6</sup>I said, "I don't know. What is it?"

He said, "That is a measuring bucket." He also said, "That bucket is for measuring the sins<sup>a</sup> of the people in this country."

<sup>7</sup>A lid made of lead was lifted off the bucket, and there was a woman in the bucket. <sup>8</sup>The angel said, "The woman represents evil." Then the angel pushed the woman down into the bucket and put the lead lid back on it. <sup>9</sup>Then I looked up and saw two women with wings like a stork. They flew out, and with the wind in their wings, they picked up the bucket. They flew through the air carrying the bucket. <sup>10</sup>Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they carrying the bucket?"

<sup>11</sup>The angel told me, "They are going to build a house for it in Shinar.<sup>b</sup> After they build that house, they will put the bucket there."

The Four Chariots

6 <sup>1</sup>Then I turned around. I looked up and saw four chariots* going between two bronze mountains. <sup>2</sup>Red horses were pulling the first chariot. Black horses were pulling the second chariot. <sup>3</sup>White horses were pulling the third chariot, and horses with red spots were pulling the fourth chariot. <sup>4</sup>I asked the angel who was talking with me, "Sir, what does this mean?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel said, "These are the four winds.<sup>c</sup> They have just come from the Lord of the whole world. <sup>6</sup>The black horses will go north, the red horses will go east, the white horses will go west, and the horses with red spots will go south."

<sup>7</sup>The red spotted horses were anxious to go look at their part of the earth, so the angel told them, "Go walk through the earth." So they went walking through their part of the earth.

<sup>8</sup>Then he shouted at me and said, "Look, those horses that were going north finished their job [in Babylon]. They have calmed my spirit; I am not angry now!"

Joshua the Priest Gets a Crown

<sup>9</sup>Then I received another message from the LORD. He said, <sup>10</sup>"Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah have come from the captives<sup>d</sup> in Babylon. Get silver and gold from these men and then go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>Use the silver and gold to make a crown. Put it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. <sup>12</sup>Then tell him this is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

'There is a man called THE BRANCH.

He will grow strong,
and he will build the LORD's Temple.

<sup>13</sup> He will build the LORD's Temple, and he will receive the honor.
He will sit on his throne and be the ruler,
and a priest will stand by his throne.
These two men will work together in peace.'

<sup>14</sup>"They will put the crown in the Temple to be a reminder for Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Zephaniah's son, Josiah. It will help them remember [that the king's power comes from God]. <sup>15</sup>People living far away will come and build the LORD's Temple." Then you will know for sure that the LORD All-Powerful sent me to you people. All these things will happen if you do what the LORD your God says.

The Lord Wants Kindness and Mercy

7 <sup>1</sup>Zechariah received a message from the LORD in the fourth year that Darius<sup>e</sup> was the king of Persia. This was on the fourth day of the ninth month (Kislev). <sup>2</sup>The people of Bethel sent Sharezer, Regem-Melech, and his men to ask the LORD a question. <sup>3</sup>They went to the prophets and to the priests at the Temple of the LORD All-Powerful. They asked them this question: "For many years we have shown our sadness for the destruction of the Temple. In the fifth month of each year we have had a special time of crying and fasting.* Should we continue to do this?"

<sup>4</sup>I received this message from the LORD All-Powerful: <sup>5</sup>"Tell the priests and the other people in this country this: 'For seventy years you fasted and showed your sadness in the fifth month and in the seventh month. But was that fasting really for me? <sup>6</sup>And when you ate and drank, was that for me? No, it was for your own good. <sup>7</sup>The LORD used the earlier prophets to say the same thing long ago. That was when Jerusalem was still a rich city filled with people and there were still people living in the surrounding towns, in the Negev, and in the western foothills.'"

<sup>9</sup>"This is what the LORD All-Powerful said:
'You must do what is right and fair.
You must be kind and <sup>10</sup> show mercy to each other.

Don't hurt widows and orphans,
strangers, or poor people.
Don't even think of doing bad things to each other!'"

<sup>a</sup>5:6 sins The Hebrew text has "their eye," but with a minor change of one character it becomes "their guilt."

<sup>b</sup>5:11 Shinar The flat land that the tower of Babel and the city of Babylon were built on. Read Gen. 11:2.

<sup>c</sup>6:5 four winds Or "four spirits." Four winds often means "winds that blow from every direction: north, south, east, and west."

<sup>d</sup>6:10 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

<sup>e</sup>7:1 the fourth year ... Darius This was about 518 B.C.

- <sup>11</sup> But they refused to listen and refused to do what he wanted.
They closed their ears so that they could not hear what God said.
- <sup>12</sup> They were very stubborn and would not obey the law.
The LORD All-Powerful used his Spirit and sent messages to his people through the prophets.
But the people would not listen, so the LORD All-Powerful became very
angry.
- <sup>13</sup> So the LORD All-Powerful said, “I called to them,
and they did not answer.
So now, if they call to me,
I will not answer.”
- <sup>14</sup> I will bring the other nations against them like a storm.
They didn’t know those nations,
but the country will be destroyed
after those nations pass through.
This pleasant country will be destroyed.”

The Lord Promises to Bless Jerusalem

8 <sup>1</sup>This is a message from the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>2</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “I have a very strong love for Mount Zion. I love her so much that I became angry when she was not faithful to me.” <sup>3</sup>The LORD says, “I have come back to Zion, and I am living in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called FAITHFUL CITY. The mountain of the LORD All-Powerful will be called HOLY MOUNTAIN.”

<sup>4</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “Old men and women will again be seen in the public places in Jerusalem. People will live so long that they will need their walking sticks. <sup>5</sup>And the city will be filled with children playing in the streets. <sup>6</sup>The survivors* will think it is wonderful, and so will I!”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “Look, I am rescuing my people from countries in the east and west. <sup>8</sup>I will bring them back here, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their good and faithful God.”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “Be strong! You people are hearing the same message today that the prophets gave when the LORD All-Powerful first laid the foundations to rebuild his Temple. <sup>10</sup>Before that time, people didn’t have the money to hire workers or to rent animals. And it was not safe for people to come and go. There was no relief from all the troubles. I had turned everyone against their neighbor. <sup>11</sup>But it is not like that now. It will not be like that for the survivors.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

<sup>12</sup>“These people will plant in peace. Their grapevines will produce grapes. The land will give good crops, and the skies will give rain. I will give all these things to my people. <sup>13</sup>People began using the names Israel and Judah in their curses. But I will save Israel and Judah, and their names will become a blessing. So don’t be afraid. Be strong!”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “Your ancestors made me angry, so I decided to destroy them. I decided not to change my mind.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. <sup>15</sup>“But now I have changed my mind. And in the same way I have decided to be good to Jerusalem and to the people of Judah. So don’t be afraid! <sup>16</sup>But you must do this: Tell the truth to your neighbors. When you make decisions in your cities, be fair and do what is right. Do what brings peace. <sup>17</sup>Don’t make secret plans to hurt your neighbors. Don’t make false promises. You must not enjoy doing these things, because I hate them!” This is what the LORD said.

<sup>18</sup>I received this message from the LORD All-Powerful. <sup>19</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “You have special days of sadness and fasting* in the fourth month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month.<sup>a</sup> These days of sadness must be changed into days of happiness. They will be good and happy festivals. And you must love truth and peace.”

<sup>20</sup> The LORD All-Powerful says,
“In the future, people from many cities will come to Jerusalem.”

<sup>21</sup> People from different cities will greet each other and say,
“We are going to worship the LORD
All-Powerful.”

And the other person will say,
“I would like to go with you!”

<sup>22</sup>Many people and many powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to find the LORD All-Powerful and to worship him. <sup>23</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says, “At that time many foreigners speaking different languages will come to a Jewish man, take hold of the hem of his robe, and ask, ‘We heard that God is with you. Can we come with you to worship him?’”

Judgment Against Other Nations

9 <sup>1</sup>This is the LORD’s message against the land of Hadrach and against the city of Damascus. The tribes of Israel are not the only people who know about God. Everyone looks to him for help.<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>This message is also against the city of Hamath near Damascus. And this message is against Tyre and Sidon, even though those people have been so wise and skillful. <sup>3</sup>Tyre is built like a fort. The people there have collected so much silver that it is like dust, and gold is as common as clay. <sup>4</sup>But the Lord will take it all. He will destroy her powerful navy and that city will be destroyed by fire!

<sup>a</sup>8:19 days ... month These were days when the people remembered the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple. See 2 Kings 25:1–25 and Jer. 41:1–17; 52:1–12.

<sup>5</sup>The people in Ashkelon will see this and they will be afraid. The people of Gaza will shake with fear, and the people of Ekron will lose all hope when they see this happen. There will be no king left in Gaza. No one will live in Ashkelon anymore. <sup>6</sup>The people in Ashdod will not even know who their real fathers are. The Lord says, "I will completely destroy the proud Philistines." <sup>7</sup>They will no longer eat meat with the blood still in it or any other forbidden food. Any Philistine left alive will become a part of my people; they will be just one more tribe in Judah. The people of Ekron will become a part of my people, as the Jebusites did. <sup>8</sup>I will protect my country. I will not let enemy armies pass through it. I will not let them hurt my people anymore. With my own eyes I have seen how much my people have suffered."

The Future King

- <sup>9</sup> People of Zion,<sup>a</sup> rejoice!
 People of Jerusalem, shout with joy!
 Look, your king is coming to you!
 He is the good king who won the victory, but he is humble.
 He is riding on a donkey, on a young donkey born from a work animal.
<sup>10</sup> I will take the war chariots* away from Ephraim* and the horse soldiers from Jerusalem.
 I will destroy the bows used in war.

Your king will bring news of peace to the nations.
 He will rule from sea to sea,
 from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

The Lord Will Save His People

- <sup>11</sup> Jerusalem, we used blood to seal your agreement,*
 so I am setting your people free from that empty hole in the ground.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup> Prisoners, go home!
 Now you have something to hope for.
 I am telling you now,
 I am coming back to you.
<sup>13</sup> Judah,* I will use you like a bow.
 Ephraim,* I will use you like arrows.
 Israel,* I will use you like a sword to fight against the men of Greece.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD will appear to them,
 and he will shoot his arrows like lightning.
 The Lord God will blow the trumpet, and the army will rush forward like a desert dust storm.
<sup>15</sup> The LORD All-Powerful will protect them.
 The soldiers will use rocks and slings* to defeat the enemy.

They will spill the blood of their enemies.
 It will flow like wine.

It will be like the blood that is thrown on the corners of the altar!

- <sup>16</sup> At that time the LORD their God will save his people like a shepherd saves his sheep.
 They will be very precious to him.
 They will be like sparkling jewels in his land.
<sup>17</sup> Everything will be good and beautiful!
 There will be a wonderful crop,
 but it will not be just the food and wine.
 It will be all the young men and women!

The Lord's Promises

10 <sup>1</sup>Pray to the LORD for rain in the spring-time. The LORD will send the lightning and the rain will fall, and he will make the plants grow in each person's field.

<sup>2</sup>People use their little statues and magic to learn what will happen in the future, but that is useless. They see visions and tell about their dreams, but it is nothing but worthless lies. So the people are like sheep wandering here and there crying for help, but there is no shepherd to lead them.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD says, "I am very angry with the shepherds. I made them responsible for what happens to my sheep." (The people of Judah are his flock, and the LORD All-Powerful really does take care of his flock. He cares for them as a soldier cares for his beautiful war horse.)

<sup>4</sup>"The cornerstone, the tent peg, the war bow, and the advancing soldiers will all come [from Judah] together. <sup>5</sup>They will defeat their enemy,—it will be like soldiers marching through mud in the streets. They will fight, and since the LORD is with them, they will defeat even the enemy soldiers riding horses. <sup>6</sup>I will make Judah's family strong. I will help Joseph's family win the war. I will bring them back safely and comfort them. It will be as if I never left them. I am the LORD their God, and I will help them. <sup>7</sup>The people of Ephraim* will be as happy as soldiers who have too much to drink. Their children will be rejoicing and they, too, will be happy. They will all have a happy time together with the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>"I will whistle for them and call them all together. I really will save them. There will be many people. <sup>9</sup>Yes, I have been scattering my people throughout the nations. But in those faraway places, they will remember me. They and their children will survive, and they will come back. <sup>10</sup>I will bring them back from Egypt and Assyria. I will bring them to the area of Gil-ead. And since there will not be enough room, I will also let them live in nearby Lebanon."

<sup>11</sup>As before, the Lord will strike the waves, and the people will walk across their sea of troubles. He will make the waters of the Nile

<sup>a</sup>9:9 Literally, "Daughter of Zion," meaning the city of Jerusalem. See "Zion" in the Word List.

<sup>b</sup>9:11 empty hole in the ground People stored water in large holes in the ground. People sometimes used those holes as prisons.

River dry up. He will destroy Assyria's pride and Egypt's power. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will make his people strong, and they will live for him and his name. This is what the LORD said.

God Will Punish the Other Nations

11 <sup>1</sup>Lebanon, open your gates so that the fire will come and burn your cedar trees.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup> The cypress trees will cry because the cedar trees have fallen.

Those powerful trees will be taken away.

Oak trees in Bashan will cry for the forest that was cut down.

<sup>3</sup> Listen to the crying shepherds.

Their powerful leaders were taken away.

Listen to the roaring of the young lions.

Their thick bushes near the Jordan River have all been taken away.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD my God says, "Care for the sheep that have been raised to be killed. <sup>5</sup>Buyers kill their sheep and are not punished. Those who sell the sheep and say, 'Praise the LORD, I am rich!' The shepherds don't feel sorry for their sheep. <sup>6</sup>And I don't feel sorry for the people who live in this country." This is what the LORD said: "Look, I will let everyone be under the control of their neighbor and king. I will let them destroy the country—I will not stop them!"

<sup>7</sup>So I took care of the sheep that had been raised to be killed—those poor sheep. I found two sticks. I called one stick Favor, and I called the other stick Union. Then I began caring for the sheep. <sup>8</sup>I fired the three shepherds all in one month. I got angry at the sheep, and they began to hate me. <sup>9</sup>Then I said, "I quit! I will not take care of you! I will let those who want to die, die. I will let those who want to be destroyed, be destroyed, and those who are left will destroy each other." <sup>10</sup>Then I took the stick named Favor, and I broke it. I did this to show that God's agreement with his people was broken. <sup>11</sup>So that day the agreement was finished, and those poor sheep watching me knew that this message was from the LORD.
